THE SET-UP

Coming off one of the most impressive overall performances in recent history, a 42-7 victory over Army, San Diego State continues its longest homestand in 10 years when it plays host to Big Sky Conference member North Dakota (2-0) on Saturday at Qualcomm Stadium. Game time is set for 5 p.m. PT and the contest will be televised locally on KUSI, with radio coverage provided by KOGO 95.7 FM & AM 600. Tickets are available through the normal outlets and start at just $6.

Last Saturday, the Aztecs handed Army its worst loss since 2007 (41-6 to Rutgers on Nov. 9). The SDSU defense held the Black Knights to 332 yards of total offense and forced three turnovers, while the offense rushed for 228 yards and passed for 215 in a balanced effort. San Diego State had a plethora of standout individual performances, including Adam Muema (98 rushing yards and a touchdown), Nat Berhe (career-high 14 tackles, Mountain West defensive player of the week honors) and Colin Lockett (96-yard kickoff return for touchdown, CFPA National Kickoff Returner of the Week honors).

This week, the Aztecs face a dangerous opponent in North Dakota. UND is 2-0 this season, outscoring its opponents, 111-37. North Dakota owns a six-game winning streak, the fourth-longest active streak in FCS football and last season lost at Fresno State, 27-22. In FCS rankings, UND is No. 1 in passing efficiency, third in scoring offense and fifth in total offense. Marcus Hendrickson leads the nation in passing efficiency and Greg Hardin tops the country in receiving yards per game.

This is the first meeting between the teams, although SDSU has faced a number of current Big Sky programs. San Diego State is 22-11 against the current configuration, but many of those meetings came against Cal Poly prior to the program joining the Division I ranks.

STORYLINES

- San Diego State carries a seven-game September home winning streak into Saturday's contest against Army. That dates back to a 52-23 loss to 24th-ranked Cincinnati on Sept. 29, 2007. The streak is the longest for the Aztecs since a seven-game September home win streak from Sept. 3, 1994 until Sept. 5, 1997. The school-record streak is 23 consecutive home wins during September, spanning the 1962-1979 seasons.
- With a victory, Rocky Long would improve to 10-6 as SDSU's head coach. That would be the best 16-game start to a coaching career at San Diego State since Claude Gilbert opened his tenure with a 13-2-1 record in the 1973 and 1974 seasons.
- The Aztecs are looking to post a winning record through the first three games of the season for a third consecutive season (2-1 in 2010 and 3-0 in 2011). Prior to 2010, SDSU did not have a winning record after three contests for the five seasons from 2005 through 2009.
- San Diego State opens the 2012 campaign after advancing to bowl games each of the last two seasons (Poinsettia Bowl in 2010 and New Orleans Bowl in 2011). The Aztecs have never gone to bowl games in three consecutive years.
- SDSU plays seven home games in 2012, which ties for the program's highest number since 1976. San Diego State plays its next two contests at home (North Dakota and San Jose State).
- Dating back to last season, the Aztecs are playing their fifth consecutive game in a stadium that houses an NFL team. SDSU ended last season playing Fresno State at Qualcomm Stadium and faced Louisiana-Lafayette in the Superdome in the New Orleans Bowl. This season, San Diego State opened in Seattle's CenturyLink Field. The Aztecs are in a stretch of three straight games at Qualcomm Stadium, making it six straight at NFL venues. A Sept. 29 trip to Fresno State will snap the NFL venue streak at six.
- Despite serving as an assistant coach at SDSU for two seasons (2009-10), Rocky Long is currently the second-winningest coach in Mountain West history. Long has 71 wins while a member of the league, trailing only TCU's Gary Patterson (73 wins). With TCU no longer in the league, Long needs two victories to tie the record and three to break it. The other nine active coaches in the league entered the season with a combined 75 wins while their teams have been a member of the conference.
- San Diego State has played 59 student-athletes through two games, with 50 of those seeing action in both games. Only 10 seniors saw action in the opening contest at Washington and two of those (quarterback Ryan Katz and wide receiver Brice Butler) were playing in their first game with the Aztecs. SDSU started only six seniors against the Huskies and just five seniors against the Army.
- San Diego State has only five seniors listed as starters on the current depth chart, three on offense (RG Nike Embernate, C Alec Johnson, QB Ryan Katz) and two on defense (CB Leon McFadden and CB Josh Wade).
- To date, the Aztecs had 21 players make their first appearance in a SDSU game and had nine players on the offensive or defensive side of the ball make their first start at San Diego State.
- In their last 23 games, the Aztecs have posted a 5-0 record against service academies, with a pair of victories over Air Force (2010 and 2011) and Army (2011 and 2012) and a victory over Navy (2011 Poinsettia Bowl).

PROGRAM TIDBITS

- Entering the games this weekend, SDSU has compiled the nation's second-highest winning percentage in combined football and men's basketball since the beginning of the 2010-11 academic year. San Diego State is a combined 78-21 (78.8 percent) and trail only Ohio State in the two sports since the beginning of the 2010 football season. See chart below

Combining football, men's basketball and women's basketball records since the beginning of last season, San Diego State owns the seventh-best winning percentage in the country, trailing only Baylor, Stanford, Kentucky, Brigham Young, Notre Dame and Ohio State. See chart above
- The Aztecs have posted an 18-10 record since the beginning of the 2010 season after needing 60 games to claim 18 victories prior to the 2010 (SDSU went 18-42 during that stretch from the beginning

- San Diego State has six drives this season of 70 or more yards.
- The Aztecs have had just four student-athletes start at quarterback since Nov. 18, 2006. During that 67-game stretch, Kevin O'Connell (15 games during the 2006-07 seasons), Drew Westling (1 game; vs. Air Force on Oct. 11, 2008) and Ryan Lindley (49 games during the 2008-09-10-11 seasons). In the season opener, senior Oregon State transfer Ryan Katz become the fourth SDSU player to start over the 66-game stretch (now 67 games).
- Although Katz made his first appearance at San Diego State in the game at Washington, he comes to The Mesa with a wealth of experience. A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Katz started 14 consecutive games for the Beavers, including all 12 games of the 2010 campaign. Among his highlights was a 17-for-24, two-touchdown performance in an upset victory over USC during his sophomore campaign.
- Last season, due to graduation and injury, the Aztecs' combined receiving core ended the campaign with four career catches for 39 yards. That has changed significantly in 12 months as SDSU enters the 2012 campaign with a Biletnikoff Award candidate and preseason all-Mountain West selection in junior Colin Lockett (58 catches, 970 yards, 8 TDs in 2011), a former walk-on who had five or more catches six times last season, including three times in his final four games, in junior Dylan Denso (49 catches, 634 yards and 3 TDs in 2011) and highly-decorated USC transfer senior Brice Butler (41 catches, 554 yards and 3 TDs at USC). Making his long-awaited collegiate debut in the opener was Ezell Ruffin, who had a nine-yard rush out of the receiver position. Last week he caught five balls for 132 yards in the win over Army.
- Although San Diego State looks to replace third-round NFL Draft selection Ronnie Hillman, the Aztecs have quality depth at the position. Sophomore Adam Muema rushed for 119 yards and two touchdowns against 10th-ranked Boise State in a game last season. In 2011, he rushed for 253 yards on 42 carries for a 6.0 yards per carry average in just six games. In his first 42 career carries before this season, he amassed more yards rushing than Hillman did in the same amount of carries. Last week vs. Army, Muema had 98 yards and a touchdown. Also in the backfield is senior Walter Kazez. A career 1,000-yard rusher, Kazez's season was cut short in 2011 when he suffered a knee injury at Colorado State. Kazez's 86 rushing yards in the opener at Washington on only nine carries, was his highest output since the final game of his 2009 freshman campaign. He added 51 yards and two scores last week vs. Army.
- The offensive line is anchored by two returning starters - senior center Alec Johnson and senior right guard Nik Embernate. Joining the two seniors on the offensive line is converted tight end, now left guard junior Bryce Quigley, junior left guard Japeth Gordon and sophomore right tackle Zach Dilley. The only new member of the coaching staff, former SDSU offensive lineman Mike Schmidt, leads the unit.
- San Diego State has gone 66 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU). That is the only time the Aztecs have been shutout in their last 161 games.

DEFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- SDSU returns six starters off a squad that has continually gotten better under the direction of second-year head coach Rocky Long, who is in his fourth season as the defensive coordinator. Statistically one of the nation's worst units less than five years ago, Long has transitioned the San Diego State defense into one of the most feared units on the West Coast. Below is a look at the progress made under Long's direction.

NCAA Rank in parenthesis

- This season, San Diego State has improved on the numbers above. Through two games, the Aztecs have allowed an average of 14.00 points (T-30th) and 333.00 yards (T-41st in the nation). SDSU has forced four turnovers through two games, which is tied for 32nd in the country.
- In the last 20 drives (dating back to the Washington game), San Diego State's defense has allowed a total of seven points. At one point, the Aztecs went 16 drives (last seven of the Washington game and first nine of the Army game) without allowing an offensive point.
- SDSU is led on defense by Mountain West preseason defensive player of the year, senior cornerback Leon McFadden. McFadden is on the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive player) and the Jim Thorpe Award (DB). McFadden, who has been a first-team all-Mountain West selection the past two seasons, is looking to become the school's fourth three-time first-team all league selection, joining Marshall Faulk, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Kirk Morrison.
- Plenty of other defensive players received preseason attention from at least one publication. Junior Aztec back Nat Berhe and sophomore linebacker Jake Fely were among the players getting attention. Berhe is the top returning tackler of the 2011 squad, and has 106 stops and three interceptions in his first two seasons. He posted a career-high 10 tackles in the R+L New Orleans Bowl last season. In his first full season on the field, Fely had 55 tackles, 5.5 sacks and forced three fumbles.
- SDSU has forced a turnover in 15 of its last 16 games, including three or more six times in the last 14 games.
- San Diego State has allowed a total of 458 yards rushing in its last four games combined. The Aztec defense has held its opponent to 100 yards or less on the ground in three of the last eight games.
- In the opener at Washington, the SDSU defense allowed just 14 points (the Huskies had a fumble return for touchdown) and 328 yards of total offense against one of the most potent offensive attacks in the country. In 2011, Washington averaged 33.38 points to rank 25th nationally and 409.85 yards (38th in the nation).
- The Huskies scored 21 points off three drives that accumulated a total of 97 yards of offense.
- The Aztecs held Washington without a point on its final seven possessions of the game. That is something that no team did against the Huskies in 2011.
- Against Army last week, SDSU held the Black Knights scoreless until there was 5:54 left in the third quarter.
- San Diego State held Army well below its 2011 season averages in rushing yards (282 allowed, 346.50 average in 2011) and total yards (332 allowed, 396.92 average in 2011).

SDSU VS. NORTH DAKOTA

- Saturday marks the first meeting between North Dakota and San Diego State.
- The Aztecs are 22-11 against current members of the Big Sky Conference. A majority of those games were played against Cal Poly. SDSU owns a 14-11 record against the Mustangs, with most of those games being played in the 1950s and 1960s when both teams were members of the California Collegiate Athletic Conference.
- San Diego State is 2-2 in games against teams that were members of the Great West Conference at game time (North Dakota was in the Great West until this year). The Aztecs suffered losses to Cal Poly in 2006 and 2008, but more recently have victories over Southern Utah (35-19 on Sept. 12, 2009) and Cal Poly (49-21 on Sept. 3, 2011).
- This marks the second consecutive season that San Diego State has faced a member of the BSC. SDSU opened the 2011 campaign against Cal Poly.

SDSU VS. NORTH DAKOTA: CONNECTIONS

- SDSU offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig and UND offensive coordinator Greg Breitbach each share the same alma mater, Portland State. Ludwig earned his bachelor's from the school in 1988, while Breitbach received his master's at PSU in 2002.
- San Diego State offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig and North Dakota cornerback coach Wes Nurse each coached at Boise State. Ludwig was the quarterbacks coach with the Broncos from 1995-96, while Nurse was a grad assistant at BSU from 2005-06. Nurse was a three-year starter at safety for Boise State and a Broncos' team captain in 2003.

LAST GAME: SAN DIEGO STATE 42, ARMY 7

■ Sept. 8, 2012 | Qualcomm Stadium | San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- San Diego State was everything Army wasn't.

The Aztecs played tough defense, had no trouble running their offense and returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown in overwhelming Army 42-7 Saturday night.

The Aztecs scored three touchdowns in a span of 2:45 in the third quarter, capped by Colin Lockett's 96-yard kickoff return. Walter Kazee scored twice in the first half for the Aztecs (1-1), who bounced back from an opening loss at Washington.

It was a dreadful opener for Army, which is trying to bounce back from a 3-9 record in 2011. The Black Knights couldn't get anything going with their triple option against SDSU's aggressive defense until it was too late. Trent Steelman was intercepted twice and lost a fumble, with two of the turnovers setting up Aztecs scores.

Long returned to conventional thinking a week after raising eyebrows by trying for two two-point conversions rather than PATs - both failed - and going for it on fourth down rather than trying a late field goal against Washington. With Long apparently regaining his trust in his kicker, Chance Marden made all six PATs against Army, although he missed both of his field goal attempts, from 40 and 37 yards.

Long has a chart that tells him when to go for it on fourth down rather than kick. "We had the chart with us. I'm not going to talk about it anymore because it takes away from the game," Long said.

Leading 21-0 at halftime, the Aztecs scored 21 more in a span of less than three minutes in the third quarter.

Four plays after Ezell Ruffin's 57-yard catch-and-run, Adam Muema scored on a 1-yard run to cap SDSU's first possession of the second half.

Josh Gavert intercepted Steelman one play into the next Army drive, giving SDSU the ball at the Black Knights' 33. Two plays later, Ryan Katz threw an 8-yard TD pass to Chad Young.

Army avoided the shutout when Terry Baggett scored on a 10-yard run with 5:54 left in the third quarter, making it 35-7.

Lockett scored on the ensuing kickoff, breaking clear of the coverage at midfield and racing down the left sideline. It was his second career kickoff return for a score.

Kazee scored on runs of 4 and 22 yards in the first half and Adam Dingwell scored on a 7-yard run. Dingwell's touchdown was set up when Derek Largent recovered Steelman's fumble.

Last year, SDSU won 23-20 at Army.

NAT BERHE EARNS MOUNTAIN WEST DEFENSIVE POW HONORS

- San Diego State junior football player Nat Berhe has been named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, for his efforts in the Aztecs' victory over Army last Saturday. It is the second career weekly honor for the Colton, Calif., native.
- Berhe, a defensive back, had a career-high 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops, to lead SDSU to a 42-7 victory over Army on Saturday. He also had one tackle for a loss and a pass breakup while anchoring a defense that forced three turnovers and limited the Black Knights to just 50 yards passing.
- Berhe and the San Diego State defense held Army without an offensive score for its first nine possessions of the game before a Black Knight scored with 5:54 left to play in the third quarter. The touchdown snapped the Aztecs' streak of not allowing an offensive score at 16 possessions (also last seven at Washington), which was a total of 86:41 of clock time.
- Berhe's 14 tackles were the second most in a game in the MW this season and tied for 16th nationally, while his 10 solo stops lead the conference and tie for the third-best performance among all FBS players.
- In two games this year, Berhe leads SDSU with 22 tackles, including 2.0 TFL, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup. He is tied for second in the league and 29th in the country with 11.00 tackles per game.

MAKING THE ADJUSTMENTS

- The San Diego State coaching staff has earned its pay with halftime adjustments. Since the beginning of the 2011 campaign, the Aztec defense has decreased scoring and total yards from the first half to the second half in 12 of the 15 games. In fact, in the last 15 second halves, SDSU has allowed just 105 points and a mere 2,238 yards of offense in those 15 halves of football. That is a second-half average of 7.0 points, 149.2 yards and 1.3 turnovers.
- Below is a look at the game-by-game breakdown.

LONG HAS BEST DEBUT SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- Rocky Long, the school's 18th head coach, became the first San Diego State coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his inaugural season.
- Rocky Long posted an 8-5 record in his first season as head coach with the Aztecs. That is the highest victory total in a SDSU head coaching debut season since Denny Stolz finished 8-4 in his first year in 1986.
- With eight first-year wins, Rocky Long had one more coaching victory in his inaugural season as the previous two San Diego State coaches combined (Brady Hoke went 4-8 in 2009 and Chuck Long was 3-9 in 2006).
- Last season marked the third time in Rocky Long's head coaching career that his team has won at least eight games (also 2007 and 2003). His squads have won six or more games in eight of his last nine seasons as a head coach.
- Last year, Long helped guide the Aztecs to their first 3-0 start in 30 years, ended the program's 19-game losing streak to Pac-10/12 foes, snapped SDSU's 23-game losing streak to automatic qualifying BCS teams and gave the program its first win in the Eastern time zone since 1972, all in the opening month of the season.

- San Diego State finished the 2011 season above .500 for only the second time in the last 13 seasons.
- The Aztecs won eight games in a campaign for just the second time in the last 15 seasons.
- Long has 71 victories while coaching teams in the Mountain West. That is the second-highest total in the history of the conference.

FIVE AZTECS ON WATCH LISTS

- San Diego State has placed five student-athletes on preseason national award watch lists in 2012. Junior tight end Gavin Escobar, senior center Alec Johnson, senior running back Walter Kazee, junior Colin Lockett and senior Leon McFadden are on the initial short list for their positions' top honors.

Escobar (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) is one of 33 players on the John Mackey Award Watch List (most outstanding tight end) and one of 145 on the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List (top lineman). Last season, the Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native reeled in 51 catches for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 51 receptions and 780 receiving yards were the second most by a tight end in school history. Escobar averaged 60.00 receiving yards per game, which were the third most in the country among tight ends. He ended up earning all-Mountain West honors for the second consecutive season (first team in 2011, second team in 2010). Escobar is on the preseason all-conference team for this year.

Johnson (Denver, Colo.) is one of 51 players on the Rimington Trophy Award Watch List (best center). Johnson, one of SDSU's two returning starters on the offensive line, enters the 2012 campaign having made 29 career starts and is slated to start at center for the second consecutive year. Last season, Johnson never missed a game despite breaking his snapping hand (right) in the Aztecs' season opener. The MW academic all-conference honoree also helped SDSU rush for nearly 2,400 yards as well as finish among the nation's leaders in fewest sacks allowed (T-7th, 0.85 per game) and in fewest tackles for a loss allowed (15th, 4.46 per game).

Kazee (San Bernardino, Calif.) is one of 52 candidates on the Doak Walker Award Watch List (top running back). Last year, Kazee rushed for 339 yards and four touchdowns on 74 carries (4.6 yards per rush) before a knee injury in the ninth game sidelined him for the rest of the season. Kazee also caught eight passes for 89 yards. For his career, Kazee has 1,042 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on 229 rushes (4.6 yards per carry). Additionally, Kazee has 191 yards receiving on 19 catches.

Lockett (Diamond Bar, Calif.) is one of 48 athletes on the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver). Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards and his 74.6 receiving yards per game ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2010, including a 94-yard kickoff return touchdown in the season opener against Cal Poly. He's also on the 2012 preseason all-conference team.

McFadden (Inglewood, Calif.) is one of 84 players on the Bronco Nagurski Trophy Award Watch List (best defensive player) and one of 35 on the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List (best defensive back). McFadden, who became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams) in July, is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years. Last year, McFadden led the league in passes defended (17), while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack.

SDSU TABBED TO FINISH FIFTH BY LEAGUE MEDIA

- The San Diego State football team is picked to finish fifth in the Mountain West preseason poll, which was released on July 24. The Aztecs had 173 points in the 2012 preseason poll, which is voted on by media representatives who cover the conference.

The fifth-place projection is SDSU's second highest in the last eight years. Last season, San Diego State was selected fourth and finished fourth. It marked the sixth time in the last seven years that the Aztecs finished at or higher than their projected finish. SDSU also picked up one of the 30 first-place votes, a first in its 14-year history of the MW.

Boise State was picked to win the league with 296 points, including 27 first-place votes. Only 74 points separated the second-place team (Nevada, 244 points) and the sixth-place team (Air Force, 170 points). Fresno State was third with 231 points and two first-place votes, while Wyoming (213 points) and SDSU (173 points) rounded out the top five at fourth and fifth, respectively.

MCFADDEN NAMED MW PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

■ San Diego State defensive back Leon McFadden has been selected as the Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, the league announced in July. McFadden was joined on the preseason all-conference team by tight end Gavin Escobar and wide receiver Colin Lockett.

McFadden became the first San Diego State player to be named a preseason player of the year (offense, defense or special teams). McFadden, who is looking to become the fifth Aztec in program history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive years, is on the preseason watch list for the Nagurski Award (top defensive player) and the Thorpe Award (top defensive back). He's also the third player in the last 11 years (also Kirk Morrison and Lynell Hamilton) to be named to the preseason all-conference team for a second time. The Inglewood, Calif., native led the league in passes defended (17) last year, while recording 46 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions and a sack.

Escobar, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award (top lineman) and the Mackey Award (top tight end), had 51 catches a year ago for 780 yards and seven touchdowns. His 60.00 receiving yards per game in 2011 were the third most in the nation among tight ends. The Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., native was an honorable mention All-American last year by Sports Illustrated after earning freshman All-America accolades by Sporting News in 2010.

A member of the Biletnikoff Award Watch List (most outstanding wide receiver), Lockett led SDSU in receiving last year with 970 yards. Lockett, who also had 58 catches and eight touchdowns, averaged 74.6 receiving yards per game, which ranked fourth in the conference. Lockett also tallied 678 yards on special teams in 2011, including a 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the season-opener against Cal Poly.

SDSU ANNOUNCES TEAM CAPTAINS

■ San Diego State head coach Rocky Long announced that seniors Leon McFadden, Walter Kazee and Dominique Sandifer have been named football team captains for the upcoming 2012 season. This year, the special teams captain will be selected on a week-by-week basis.

McFadden, a senior defensive back from Inglewood, Calif., has played in 38 games in his three seasons as an Aztec. McFadden had a solid season last year recording 46 tackles in 13 contests, had two interceptions and averaged almost six yards per carry on punt returns. McFadden ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West for the second consecutive year and 12th nationally in passes defended with 17, including six more breakups than any other player in the league. He enters 2012 as the preseason Mountain West defensive player of the year.

Kazee, a senior running back from San Bernardino, Calif., has tallied 1,030 total yards in his 30-game career at SDSU. Kazee had one of his best seasons last year in becoming SDSU's second-leading rusher with 339 yards on 74 carries and four scores. He was also effective in the passing game as he tallied eight catches for 89 yards (11.1 ypc).

Sandifer, a senior wide receiver from Gardena, Calif., is a two-year letterwinner who had his 2011 season derailed by injury. Prior to his setback, he played in 23 straight games from 2009-2010 in 2010 and was part of the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl team. He is one of two senior wide receivers, but the only one to have worn a SDSU uniform. In his two seasons, he has tallied 561 yards, averaging 11.5 yards per reception.

GAME #1 RECAP: WASHINGTON 21, SDSU 12

GAME #1
San Diego State	12
Washington	21

Sept. 1, 2012 | Seattle, Wash.
CenturyLink Field | 53,742

SEATTLE -- San Diego State was unable to overcome an early deficit and three turnovers in a 21-12 loss at Washington in the 2012 season opener for both teams.

The Aztecs threw an interception on their first drive and punted on a three and out on their second, and the Huskies took advantage with touchdowns on both possessions.

UW, which took over on the SDSU 35 after the interception, got in the end zone on a two-yard run by Bishop Sankey.

Quarterback Keith Price drove Washington 62 yards on the team's next drive, culminating in a 8-yard pass to Kasen Williams.

After the slow start, the San Diego State defense stood tall the rest of the way, limiting the Huskies to 231 yards and no points on their final seven drives.

The Aztecs got on the scoreboard on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Ryan Katz found a wide-open Tim Vizzi on the left side, who ran 47 yards for the touchdown. SDSU, however, failed on the 2-point conversion.

Early in the third quarter, UW safety Will Shamburger returned a fumble 44 yards to give the home team the 21-6 advantage.

Adam Muema completed an 11-play, 71-yard drive in the fourth when he pounded it in on a 4th and 1. But once again, San Diego State was unable to convert the 2-point conversion and trailing, 21-12.

After forcing Washington to punt, the Aztecs tried to mount another scoring drive. They went 76 yards, highlighted by a 26-yard run by Walter Kazee and a 32-yard pass from Katz to Colin Lockett. SDSU got to the Huskies' 8-yard line on third down, but missed on consecutive pass attempts, giving the ball back to UW.

Washington ran most of the 4:44 left on the clock and San Diego State's last-ditch effort fell short in the 21-12 setback. It was the Aztecs' first season-opening loss since 2009.

Kazee, who missed the end of last year with a knee injury, ran for a game-high 86 yards on nine carries, his highest total since the first game of the 2009 season and the first game of his career.

Katz added a career-high 77 yards on the ground and passed for another 128. Lockett led all Aztecs with four catches and 48 yards in the loss.

SDSU had multiple turnovers for only the second time in its last nine games, dating back to last year. San Diego State finished the 2011 season with just one turnover over its final three games.

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State scored the first 35 points of the game en route to a dominating 42-7 victory over Army in the 2012 home opener for the Aztecs.

SDSU forced three turnovers, scored four rushing touchdowns and a passing score, and added a 96-yard kickoff return for another touchdown in the program's largest margin of victory since the 2010 opener.

San Diego State scored three touchdowns in a span of 2:45 in the third quarter after opening up a 21-0 advantage at the half.

 * The SDSU defense forced three turnovers, its most since forcing three at Air Force last year (Oct. 13, 2011).
 * The San Diego State went 16 possessions without allowing a point prior to Army's touchdown in the third quarter. There was 86:41 of clock time in between the third quarter touchdown and the first quarter touchdown by Washington.
