NEWS AND NOTES (all notes through Dec. 20 games)

■ San Diego State continues its longest homestand of the season on Monday when UC Riverside visits for a second straight season. SDSU's four-game homestand opened with a 70-57 victory over Ball State on Saturday. After the UCR game, the Aztecs will play host to San Diego Christian on Saturday and Air Force in the Mountain West opener on New Year's Eve.

■ SDSU and UC Riverside are meeting for the 11th time in the history of the series with the Aztecs having won the previous 10 match-ups, including last year's 77-41 decision at Viejas Arena.

■ The Aztecs have beaten the Highlanders by comfortable margins the last two times the teams have played. In 2011-12, San Diego State earned a 80-55 victory and followed it with a 36-point win last November.

■ San Diego State has won 45 straight games vs. teams from the state of California (see list below).

■ SDSU is closing in on the school record for consecutive home victories. The Aztecs have won 20 straight home games, which is the longest streak in the school's Division I history (1970-71). The all-time program record is 22 in a row accomplished from 1966-68.

■ The Aztecs enter the UCR game having won 50 consecutive non-conference home games against teams unranked in either poll at the time of the game. Its last such loss was a 62-56 setback to Northern Colorado on Jan. 9, 2008.

■ San Diego State has held all six of its opponents at home to under 60 points this season and as a group, foes are averaging 49.7 points against the Aztecs. The 49.7 points allowed by SDSU is the fourth-lowest in the nation among teams that have played at least six home games (see list below). The Aztecs' opponent field-goal percentage (.355) in games played at Viejas Arena, meanwhile, is 17th nationally (minimum six home games).

■ Dating to last season, seven straight SDSU foes have been unable to crack the 60-point barrier as the Aztecs limited New Mexico to 48 points in a 51-48 performance that earned them the 2014 Mountain West regular-season title. Additionally, San Diego State has not allowed an opponent to reach 70 points inside Viejas Arena since Feb. 23, 2013.

■ Viejas Arena is one of the toughest places for opponents to escape with a win. San Diego State is 95-8 since 2008-09 in home games (see list below) and is a perfect 6-0 this season.

■ Once again this season, San Diego State is one of the top defensive teams in the nation. The Aztecs rank 22nd in scoring defense (56.6), t-25th in blocked shots per game (5.5), t-28th in fewest fouls per game (15.8) and 29th in field-goal percentage defense (37.4). KenPom has SDSU seventh nationally in defensive efficiency.

■ Junior forward Winston Shepard, a Naismith Trophy Top-50 Watch List member, is enjoying one of his best stretches of his career. Over his last three games, he is averaging 14.0 points on 55.6 percent shooting, 3.3 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.0 steals. Against Ball State, he went off for 15 points, two rebounds, a season-high five assists and three steals.

■ Senior forward JJ O'Brien is also quietly coming off a solid week where he averaged 9.5 points on 60.0 percent shooting, 5.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 3.0 steals. In the game vs. Ball State, he put up 13 points, six rebounds, three assists and two steals. In fact, in eight SDSU wins, O'Brien is averaging 10.6 points while connecting on 32 of his 60 field-goal attempts (.533).

■ Junior forward Skylar Spencer recorded one of his best all-around performances of his career in the 70-57 win over Ball State on Saturday. The Los Angeles native produced a season-high 10 points, six rebounds, one assist and two blocked shots in 30 minutes. More impressive was his 6-for-6 shooting effort from the free-throw line after entering the game as a career 43.9-percent shooter from the charity stripe.

■ Winston Shepard was named Mountain West Player of the Week for the first time of his career on Monday, Dec. 1.

■ At the EA SPORTS Maui Invitational, he averaged team highs in points (15.0), rebounds (7.0), three-point percentage (.500), and minutes played (33.7). KELL'S COMING OUT PARTY

■ Trey Kell had a coming out party of sorts in Maui after scoring in double figures in all three games and averaging 14.3 points.

■ His stat line the first three games: 3.0 points (.125 FG, 0-7 3FG, 5-9 FT), 3.7 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 1.3 steals.

■ His stat line in Maui (three games): 14.3 points (.538 FG, 2-6 3FG, 13-17 FT), 3.3 rebounds, 2.0 assists, 1.0 steals.

■ In his first game back from Maui, Kell turned in 10 points (2-3 3FG), a career-high five rebounds and zero turnovers in 27 minutes vs. San Diego.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

■ JJ O'Brien has done a little bit of everything this season, from scoring to rebounding to handing out assists.

■ The senior has led the team in scoring once (five double-figure scoring efforts this year), but has also led the team in rebounding five times and in assists four times.

■ To date, the 6-7 forward has the team's top rebounding effort (11 vs. Utah) and the top assist performance (6 vs. BYU) this season.

S.W.A.T. RIM

■ Several opponents have suffered from S.W.A.T. Rim (Spencer Waits At The Rim) in the early going.

■ Skylar Spencer ranks among the top-17 nationally in total blocked shots (32) and blocked shots per game (2.9), through Dec. 20 games.

■ The junior has blocked at least four shots five times this season and recorded at least one rejection in all but one game (at Washington).

■ He turned away a career-high-tying six shots vs. CSUN and had five blocked shots against both BYU and Pittsburgh.

RECORD-BREAKING PACE

■ Skylar Spencer set the single-season school record for blocked shots last season with 89.

■ This season, he is averaging 2.9 blocked shots per game, which puts him on pace for 93 (regular season and one conference tournament game).

■ If this pace keeps up, Spencer will have 233 career blocked shots in three seasons, which would surpass the school record of 214 set by Leonard Allen from 1982-85.

PASSING MARKS IN NON-CONFERENCE ACTION

■ San Diego State has won 55 of its last 57 non-conference games vs. unranked foes in the regular season.

■ SDSU's last regular-season loss to an unranked non-conference opponent prior to the Dec. 7 defeat at Washington came on Dec. 19, 2009, at Arizona State. The Aztecs also lost at Cincinnati on Dec. 17.

■ Since that Dec. 19, 2009, loss, the Aztecs have gone 63-8 in non-conference action vs. all foes.

THE DEFENSE DOES NOT REST

■ SDSU has held its last 26 non-conference opponents to 70 points or less in games played at home.

■ In those 26 games, San Diego State is 25-1 with the only loss coming to No. 6/5 Arizona last season.

STEVE FISHER

24th-Full Season • 16th Season at SDSU • Illinois State, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 15 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become one of the best programs in the country.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher has guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament seven times, including five straight with at least one victory in three of the last four years. In 2011, he led SDSU to a 34-3 record and a berth in the Sweet 16. In 2014, the Aztecs nearly matched the 2011 squad by going 31-5 and also reaching the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT four times, including their run to the national semifinals in 2009. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason nine straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene when it introduced Fisher as its new coach. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just six that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MW regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last eight seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to eight additional 20-win seasons, including six straight 23-win campaigns, and eight consecutive postseason appearances. In 2011-12, in what was perceived as a rebuilding year, Fisher led SDSU to a 26-8 record, a spot in the NCAA Tournament and its second straight Mountain West regular-season title. Then in 2012-13, Fisher and the Aztecs advanced to the third round of the NCAAs for the second time in three years with their third-ever NCAA tournament win. And then in 2013-14, in what also called a rebuilding season, SDSU won the Mountain West and reached the Sweet 16 before finishing 31-5.

Then on Nov. 19, 2014, San Diego State added three more years to Fisher's current contract, which was set to expire at the end of the 2014-15 campaign. With the additional three seasons, Fisher is set atop Montezuma Mesa through the 2017-18 season.

#16/17 San Diego State 79 CSUN 58

Nov. 14, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 16/17 San Diego State had four players reach double figures in scoring and shot 50.0 percent field the field to defeat CSUN, 79-58, to win its second straight season opener.

The Matadors took an early 4-0 lead to open the game, while the Aztecs were slow to get started. Dwayne Polee II recorded the first points of the new season when he was left open in the corner where he proceeded to knock down a three-pointer.

The game remained a two-possession-or-less contest for more than 12 minutes. After SDSU went ahead by six, CSUN trimmed its deficit to two with 8:11 to go.

The Aztecs, however, responded by closing the first half on a 24-6 run, which covered 7 minutes, 52 seconds, to take a 41-21 lead into halftime and never let the Matadors get any closer than 12 points the rest of the way.

Aqeel Quinn, who was playing a school in which he spent his first two seasons, led the Aztecs with 15 points off the bench. Winston Shepard scored 14 points and JJ O'Brien added 13 points, seven rebounds and a team-high four assists. Polee finished with 11 points and frontcourt teammate Skylar Spencer filled the stat sheet with four points, a team-high eight rebounds, a career-high three assists, a personal-best six blocked shots and three steals.

Trey Kell, who was in the starting lineup with O'Brien, Polee II, Shepard and Spencer, became the 13th freshman, and eighth Aztec, to start a season opener for head coach Steve Fisher.

With the starting five and the rest of the Aztecs earning the victory, SDSU pocketed its 42nd consecutive win over schools from California. San Diego State also secured its 121st straight decision when leading with five minutes to play.

CSUN was led by Stephen Maxwell's 15 points and 10 rebounds. Stephan Hicks added 16 points.

Game 2

#16/16 San Diego State 53 #25/rv Utah 49

Nov. 18, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 16/16 San Diego State engaged No. 25/rv Utah in a defensive battle and prevailed, 53-49, in front of a sold-out crowd inside Viejas Arena and a nationally televised audience on ESPN.

The teams combined to shoot 11-for-44 from the floor in the first half and even though the Aztecs outscored the Utes, 9-2, in points off turnovers, Utah made 6-of-10 free throws to take a slim 18-17 lead into halftime.

The second half featured slightly better shooting and the first 10 minutes the score remained close. Angelo Chol, however, sparked San Diego State by scoring six straight points to help the Aztecs jump out to a 30-24 lead. The spurt was continued by a free throw from Dwayne Polee II and the 9-0 run was capped by a JJ O'Brien layup.

Utah immediately cut its deficit to six points, but a Polee II triple extended SDSU's lead back up to nine. The Utes continued to stay close, getting to within five points with 5:01 to go, but the Aztecs, once again, had an answer and were up, 40-31, three possessions later.

Utah found itself trailing by seven points with 2:34 left in the game and began to send SDSU to the free-throw line. San Diego State accepted the challenge and calmly knocked down 13 of its last 14 attempts, including its first nine to squash the Utes' furious rally that featured a trio of three-pointers in the final 1:54. Utah's Delon Wright was also fouled on a three with 10 seconds left and made all three attempts, which brought the Utes to within two points before Polee II made both of his free throws on the Aztecs' next possession to ice the game.

O'Brien led SDSU with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Aqeel Quinn, meanwhile, held Utah's top returner, Wright, to seven points on 2-of-13 shooting.

Game 3

#16/16 San Diego State 51 Bakersfield 27

Nov. 20, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 16/16 San Diego State countered its poor shooting night by playing stifling defense to beat Bakersfield, 51-27, to win its 43rd straight game vs. schools from California.

The 27 points allowed were the fewest allowed in Division I in 2014-15. It was also the fewest allowed by SDSU in its Division I history, which dates to the 1970-71 campaign, and the fewest allowed by an Aztec team since Dec. 3, 1949.

In the first half alone, San Diego State limited the Roadrunners to 18.8-percent shooting and 12 points overall. Bakersfield's point total was tied for the fifth fewest scored in a first half in 2014-15 and was the second fewest allowed by the Aztecs since 1996-97.

SDSU was not much better in the opening 20 minutes, shooting 20.8 percent from the floor, including a 1-for-12 effort from behind the three-point arc. San Diego State, however, held the Roadrunners scoreless for the first 12 minutes, 16 seconds and owned an 11-0 advantage from the chartiy stripe, to go into halftime ahead, 22-12.

In the second half, the offensive struggles continued for both teams, but moreso for Bakersfield as it went through long stretches without scoring including a 9-minute, 20-second span to close the game where it scored only three points -- on a three-pointer with 25 seconds left.

Dwayne Polee II scored 13 points to lead all players and Winston Shepard pulled down six rebounds to lead the Aztecs, who shot 24.6 percent for the game. Five-star recruit Malik Pope saw his first action of the season after recovering from two leg injuries suffered in high school. The forward played 14 minutes and finished with four points and a pair of rebounds, blocked shots and steals.

Game 4

#15/15 San Diego State 92
Brigham Young 87 (2ot)

Nov. 24, 2014 ◆ Lahaina, Hawaii
Lahaina Civic Center ◆ Att.: 2,400

LAHAINA, Hawaii - No. 15/15 San Diego State met an old foe in Brigham Young at the EA SPORTS Maui Invitational and the date did not disappoint as the Aztecs earned a 92-87 double-overtime victory in the quarterfinal round.

Sharing the hardwood for the first time since 2011 when both schools were members of the Mountain West, SDSU looked poised to win with ease in the early going.

The Aztecs jumped all over the Cougars, building an 11-0 lead and later led by 10 with under 14 minutes to play. BYU rallied to tie the score at 26 with 7:31 left in the half, but San Diego State closed the frame on a 15-7 run to go into the locker room ahead, 41-33.

The Aztecs continued to lead by eight with under 10 minutes left in the second half only to have Brigham Young close the gap as the game rolled on. Trailing by three points with under two minutes to go, Tyler Haws knocked down a three with 1:38 remaining. SDSU had a chance to win the game in regulation when JJ O'Brien swooped down the lane and missed a contested a layup. Winston Shepard, however, tried a put-back dunk, but came up short.

In overtime, BYU turned a two-point deficit into a five-point lead with 1:35 left. The Aztecs would not be denied, though, getting a layup from O'Brien and game-changing play from Aqeel Quinn. The senior missed a three-pointer that Skylar Spencer rebounded and gave back to Quinn, who stepped behind the three-point arc and knocked down the shot to level the score. The Cougars had a chance to win the game, but Kyle Collinsworth's layup was off the mark.

In the second overtime, it was all Aztecs as they received two free-throws from Trey Kell and a dunk from Dwayne Polee II and never looked back.

Lahaina Civic Center ◆ Att.: 2,400

LAHAINA, Hawaii - No. 15/15 San Diego State met Pittsburgh in the first-ever meeting between the programs in the semifinals of the EA SPORTS Maui Invitational and cruised to a 74-57 victory.

The Panthers scored first, but it would be the only time they would lead. Trey Kell answered with six straight points and Skylar Spencer capped an 8-0 run with a layup to propel SDSU to an 8-2 lead.

The Aztecs kept Pittsburgh at a safe distance for the middle portion of the first half before closing on a 9-2 run in the final 3 minutes, 15 seconds to open up a 39-25 lead at intermission.

San Diego State continued to get what it wanted as the second half got underway and led by 20 points after a three-pointer from Kell and a three-point play from Winston Shepard.

Pittsburgh responded by getting two easy buckets inside the paint and a three-pointer from Ryan Luther to get the Panthers to within 13 points. The Aztecs, however, pulled away by converting their free-throws and locking down defensively, which led to many offensive chances.

One of those chances was created by D'Erryl Williams, who knocked the ball away from a Panther near midcourt and raced down the floor for the layup. The basket gave San Diego State its biggest lead at 68-43 with 3:41 to go in regulation. SDSU enjoyed a lead of at least 20 points the rest of the way before Pittsburgh scored five unanswered points to end the game.

San Diego State, which was led by a career-high 15 points from Kell, shot a season-high 58.7 percent from the field and was 17-for-22 from the charity stripe. Pittsburgh, meanwhile, was limited to 37.7 percent shooting and forced into committing 17 turnovers.

Game 6

#3/4 Arizona 61
#15/15 San Diego State 59

Nov. 26, 2014 ◆ Lahaina, Hawaii
Lahaina Civic Center ◆ Att.: 2,400

LAHAINA, Hawaii - No. 15/15 San Diego State and No. 3/4 Arizona got together for the fourth time in the last three seasons, this time in the championship game of the EA SPORTS Maui Invitational, and the Wildcats emerged with the win for the fouth time, 61-59, to capture the title.

Much like the previous three meetings, the game lived up to the hype between the only two nationally ranked programs in the field.

The game was a see-saw battle, with the Aztecs enjoying a lead for much of the game. SDSU owned a 10-4 lead with 15:25 left in the first half and had an answer nearly every time the Wildcats looked poised to take the lead. Arizona was within two and the Aztecs got a three-pointer from Dwayne Polee II. The Wildcats cut their deficit to one, only to have Polee II knock down a jumper. The trend continued throughout the first half until Arizona took a 32-29 lead with 1:34 left, but this time, Winston Shepard had an answer, laying the ball in to get SDSU within one, 32-31, at halftime.

In the second half, the teams traded figurative punches as the score was tied four times and changed hands seven times in the first 15 minutes. Arizona, however, took minor control of the game as the clock dipped under 5:00, scoring six of the next eight points to take a 57-51 lead.

Down six, Trey Kell was fouled while taking and making a three-pointer, and made his one free-throw, to bring SDSU to within two points. Stanley Johnson kept Arizona out in front by making a pair of free-thows, with JJ O'Brien answering by converting 1-of-2 on the other end. Trailing by three, the Aztecs fouled T.J. McConnell, who made both of his free-throws, and Shepard knocked down a three-pointer with three seconds left to provide the final margin.

Game 7

#13/14 San Diego State 57
San Diego 48
Dec. 4, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 13/14 San Diego State lead wire-to-wire and defeated cross-town foe San Diego, 57-48, at Viejas Arena. The win was the Aztecs' school- and series-record ninth straight over the Toreros.

SDSU raced out to an 8-0 lead and never looked back. San Diego cut its deficit to five when Johnny Dee knocked down a three-pointer to stop the early 8-0 run, but did not get any closer the rest of the game.

The Aztecs went into halftime ahead, 31-19, and led by as many as 14 points as a result of 46.4-percent shooting. In the first 20 minutes alone, three SDSU players had at least seven points and nine logged seven minutes or more.

In the second half, San Diego State let the Toreros hang around as they eventually cut their deficit to single digits. The two glaring reasons USD was within striking distance was SDSU's inability to make shots and make free-throws. For the half, the Aztecs were 6-for-23 from the floor and 12-for-24 from the charity stripe.

The difference in the game for San Diego State, however, was its ability to guard without fouling. The Aztecs committed a season-low 13 fouls, which led to USD attempting six free-throws for the game, four of which it made.

Dwayne Polee II led SDSU with 14 points and JJ O'Brien chipped in 13 points after making a career-high two three-pointers. Trey Kell, meanwhile, continued his scoring spree, reaching double figures for the fourth straight game with 10 points. On the glass, Angelo Chol grabbed a team-best seven rebounds.

Dee led all players with 16 points, while Jito Kok pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds.

Game 8

Washington 49
#13/14 San Diego State 36
Dec. 7, 2014 ◆ Seattle, Wash.
Alaska Airlines Arena ◆ Att.: 6,199

SEATTLE - No. 13/14 San Diego State could not find the bottom of the basket on a regular basis and was upset by Washington, 49-36, at Alaska Airlines Arena.

The Aztecs missed 11 of their first 12 field-goal attempts and finished 5-for-30, including 1-for-9 from three-point range, in the first half. Their defense, however, was strong again, limiting the Huskies to just eight buckets on 23 attempts. SDSU's uneven effort kept it in the game as the team went into the locker room down, 21-15, at halftime.

San Diego State's deficit at intermission was nothing new to the series as Washington led the Aztecs by nine points at halftime a season ago at Viejas Arena. This time around, though, there would be no comeback.

SDSU opened the second half with two turnovers and five misses before Winston Shepard got his own rebound and followed it with a lay-up. The game went nearly three minutes without a point until Shepard hit a jumper to pull the Aztecs to within four points with 14:29 left in the second half.

The Huskies tried to blow the game open with an Andrew Andrews three-pointer, but it was off the mark. Unfortunately for the Aztecs, they could not secure the long rebound and Nigel Williams-Goss canned a three-ball to extend the home team's lead to 26-19.

Shepard single-handily kept the Aztecs in the game with two free-throws on SDSU's next possession, but Washington answered with a 10-1 run, highlighted by a pair of Andrews three-pointers, to seal the upset.

Shepard led San Diego State with seven points and Skylar Spencer grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds. As a team, the Aztecs shot 20.4 percent from the field.

Game 9

#18/16 San Diego State 60
Long Beach State 59
Dec. 10, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 18/16 San Diego State lost a 12-point first-half lead and rallied from an eight-point second-half hole to defeat Long Beach State, 60-59, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who initially trailed, 46-38, with 9:24 left in the game, cut their deficit to five thanks to a Kevin Zabo three-pointer. Long Beach State, however, answered on the next possesion with a Mike Caffey triple to get the 49ers back on top by eight with 8:36 on the clock.

Down the stretch, LBSU seemed to have counter for every SDSU rally attempt. The Aztecs scored four straight points only to have the 49ers drain a three-pointer. San Diego State got to within three, but Long Beach State knocked down a jumper.

The tide began to turn when JJ O'Brien connected for a bucket, SDSU got a stop on the defensive end, which led to a Dwayne Polee II three to tie the game. The Aztecs continued their run with defensive stops and baskets from O'Brien and Polee II to help San Diego State lead, 58-54, with 1:08 left.

Coming out of a timeout, LBSU ran a set play for Caffey, but Skylar Spencer sent the ball into the stands. The extra chance, however, led to a Caffey jumper and SDSU called a timeout. Caffey ended up stealing the inbounds pass and later missed a jumpshot. Polee II, meanwhile, was fouled and knocked down both free-throw attempts to give the Aztecs a 60-56 lead with 14 seconds remaining.

LBSU had a breath of life left when Caffey hit the 49ers' 11th three-pointer of the game with five seconds left and promptly fouled O'Brien, who air-balled his first free-throw and missed the second on purpose with two seconds remaining. Long Beach State's three-quarter-court desperation shot was off the mark and SDSU beat a California school for the 45th straight time.

Game 10

Cincinnati 71
#19/17 San Diego State 62 (ot)
Dec. 17, 2014 ◆ Cincinnati, Ohio
Fifth Third Arena ◆ Att.: 9,217

CINCINNATI - No. 19/17 San Diego State rallied from five points down with 42 seconds left to tie the score and force overtime, but could not finish the deal as it fell to Cincinnati, 71-62, at Fifth Third Arena.

The loss snapped the Aztecs' nine-game overtime winning streak and dropped their record to 18-2 in their last 20 games that required extra time.

SDSU found itself with a second chance to win the game after it traded three-pointers for free-throws. Aqeel Quinn, who was playing in his first game since undergoing left-hand surgery 16 days prior, knocked down a triple to get the Aztecs to within two points. The Bearcats made two free-throws to counter the three, but Trey Kell nailed another from behind the arc with 12 seconds left to get San Diego State to within 56-55.

The Aztecs fouled Troy Caupain, who made one of two free-throws, which led to the final sequence in regulation. Winston Shepard dribbled the length of the floor and was fouled near the baseline. The junior then knocked down both free-throw with 3.9 seconds left and the game went to OT.

In the extra frame, Caupain (12 points) made two free-throws and Kell answered with a three to move SDSU ahead, 60-59. The Bearcats, however, went on to score 12 consecutive points to put the Aztecs away.

San Diego State enjoyed a seven-point lead in the first half, but closed the period without a field goal for more than six minutes, which allowed Cincinnati to take a 22-20 advantage into the locker room. In the second half, the score was tied nine times and the lead changed hands eight times before the deciding overtime period.

Shepard led all players with 17 points and a game-high five assists. Kell finished with 11 points.

Game 11

#19/17 San Diego State 70
Ball State 57
Dec. 20, 2014 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 19/17 San Diego State rebounded from a loss with a victory for the 13th consecutive time as it beat visiting Ball State, 70-57, at Viejas Arena.

The win was SDSU's 20 straight at home and its 50th in row at Viejas Arena vs. unranked non-conference opponents.

The Aztecs pressured the Cardinals from the outset and forced 22 turnovers and got their hands on a number of passes, which slowed the Ball State offense. The suffocating defense helped SDSU take an early lead and eventually a 36-26 advantage at halftime.

After a first half that saw the Aztecs commit 11 turnovers and shoot 40.0 percent from the floor, San Diego State improved its effort in the final 20 minutes. SDSU put together a half that featured 11-for-22 shooting and four miscues to help build a 17-point lead with 7:13 left in the game.

The Cardinals would not get closer than 11 points the rest of the way despite shooting 44.4 percent in the second half, which was an improvement over their 36.8-percent effort in the first 20 minutes.

San Diego State head coach Steve Fisher played all 12 of his scholarship players in the first half and 11 ended up scoring at least two points. Nine Aztecs, meanwhile, logged double-digit minutes.

Leading the way for SDSU was Winston Shepard, who had 15 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals. The junior's frontcourt teammates also enjoyed solid nights as JJ O'Brien turned in 13 points, six rebounds, three assists and two steals, and Skylar Spencer finished with 10 points, six rebounds and two blocked shots.
