Aztec Basketball Returns Home For Conference Clash With BYU Wednesday

Coming off its most difficult road trip of the season, the San Diego State women's basketball finally returns home for its fifth conference contest of 2008, on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. at Cox Arena against visiting Brigham Young.

The Aztecs have played three of their four league games away from home, including two outings last week against the MWC's top teams in Utah and the current 18th-ranked team in the nation in Wyoming. SDSU is seeking its first conference victory of the campaign against a BYU squad which is 8-7 on the year and 2-1 in league action.

Last Time Out: Aztecs Fall On The Road To No. 20 Wyoming

The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point halftime deficit down to just 10 against Wyoming, the No. 20 team in the country, but was unable to complete the come back as the Aztec fell to the host Cowgirls, 65-49 Saturday afternoon at Arena-Auditorium. With the loss, SDSU was dropped to 0-4 in league action and 9-7 overall, while the Cowgirls improved to 16-1 and 4-0 in the MWC.

The Aztecs were led by redshirt freshman forward Allison Duffy (Lakeside, Calif.), who scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half. Senior Shanna Demus (Palmdale, Calif.) had nine points, including a pair of three-pointers, while Jené Morris (San Francisco, Calif.) tallied seven points. Freshman Paris Johnson (San Diego, Calif.) logged a team-high nine rebounds, while Demus contributed four steals.

The Aztec offense struggled to get going to start the afternoon, as SDSU missed its first nine shots from the field until getting on the board at the 13:01 mark on two Morris free throws, trailing 13-2. San Diego State's first field goal of the game didn't come until the 8:30 mark when Morris nailed a three-pointer from straight away to put the visitors down by 15 at 20-5.

While SDSU may have struggled on the scoring end, the Aztecs' offensive rebounding kept them in the game owning a 12-3 edge at half, but trailing on the score-board by 19 going into the locker room at 37-18.

San Diego State was undeterred coming out of the break, as Duffy scored the first points on a pair of free throws. Wyoming countered with a lay-up, but Duffy once again answered with a basket of her own to get back to a 17-point deficit with 17:11 left.

The Aztecs got to within 11 points on two occasions, before finding themselves trailing by only 10 at both 51-41 and 53-43. A three-pointer by Justyna Podziemska restored the Cowgirl lead to 13 and SDSU was never able to get to within single-digits, falling 65-49.

Other Wyoming Notes

SDSU was called for a season-high 29 fouls, with two players fouling out in the same game for only the second time in 2007-08 (Aztecs had four players foul out vs. Indiana State) ... Wyoming's 20 turnovers tied its season high, while the Aztecs' 42 rebounds were the most against the Cowgirls this season ... SDSU has trailed all 40 minutes in all but two of its losses this year ... Aztec foes have shot above 50 percent from the field in six of the last seven games, after not doing so once in the first nine contests.

Crashing The Glass

San Diego State owned the offensive boards in its clash with 20th-ranked Wyoming last Saturday, recording a 23-5 margin in that category, including an 11-2 advantage in the second half. The Aztecs' 23 offensive rebounds are a season high, marking the third time this year that SDSU has had 20 or more offensive boards in a game (21 vs. Indiana State, 20 vs. Cal Poly). The 23 offensive rebounds are also the team's most in a single outing since also tallying 23 against Air Force on Feb. 15, 2007.

Overall, SDSU had 42 total rebounds on the afternoon, its most in its last 11 outings and tying for second overall in 2007-08. The +13 rebounding margin against Wyoming is the Aztecs' second-highest of the year and highest in a MWC game since having a +15 margin over Air Force (47-32) on Jan. 31, 2004.

True Charity

Aztec newcomers Jené Morris and Allison Duffy have been nearly perfect at the free-throw line in conference games thus far. Morris began her MWC career by hitting her first 14 attempts at the stripe and has made 22 of 24 in four conference outings for a 91.7 percentage, which ranks third in the league. Duffy, meanwhile, is 17-of-20, including a perfect 6-for-6 performance on Saturday at Wyoming. Her season free-throw percentage of 84.6 (44-for-52) is third in the league, 38th nationally and would rank her third-best in the school's single-season record book.

Field-Goal Lows

For the third straight outing, San Diego State held its opponent to an Aztec season-low in field-goal attempts, as Wyoming tried just 40 last Saturday. In their two previous outings, Aztec foes New Mexico and Utah attempted just 43 shots apiece from the field. On the flip side, SDSU is averaging 54.7 field-goal attempts in its last three games, including 60 versus the Cowgirls.

Turnover Town

For the 14th time this season, San Diego State forced at least 20 opponent turnovers, as Wyoming had exactly 20 in last Saturday's contest. The lone exceptions to this streak have been TCU, which had 15 turnovers and Utah, which missed the mark by one with 19 last Wednesday.

SDSU has won the turnover battle 12 times in its 16 outings, ranking second in the MWC in turnover margin, averaging 5.06 fewer giveaways than its opponents. The Aztecs have forced 407 overall (25.4/g), including highs of 37 against Nevada and 35 versus Southern Utah. SDSU also forced 28 turnovers against the current No. 1 team in the country, Connecticut. The 28 turnovers are the most by the Huskies since also having 28 in a loss to North Carolina in 2004.

On the flip side, SDSU has committed more turnovers than its opponent just four times in a win over Jackson State (25-24) and losses at TCU (20-15), Utah (22-19) and Wyoming (22-20). The Aztecs' season-low for turnovers in a game is 10 against Navy, the team's fewest since it had nine versus Canisius in Jan. 2005.

Pack The House

On Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 7 p.m., San Diego State will play host to BYU for the NCAA Pack The House Challenge game. SDSU alumni members can buy one $7 general admission ticket and get one free with an SDSU Alumni Association card at the Cox Arena box office or Qualcomm Stadium window E. The Mountain West Wednesday special is also available in advance only at Qualcomm Stadium window E, with a general admission ticket and hot dog, chips and soda for just $7.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over BYU will mean:

- SDSU records just its second 10-win season since 2001-02, and its second in a row.
- SDSU earns its first victory over the Cougars since 2001, a span of 14 games.
- SDSU's last six conference victories have all come at Cox Arena.
- SDSU head coach Beth Burns improves to 7-9 all-time against the Cougars.

Brigham Young Tidbits

BYU enters Wednesday's contest with an 8-7 overall record and a 2-1 mark in conference action ... SDSU and BYU have played two common opponents in No. 1 UConn and Utah, with both squads going 0-2 ... The Cougars have just one player averaging in double-figures in guard Mallory Carling (14.7) ... Center Lauren Varley averages 8.6 points an outing and a team-best 8.4 rebounds per game ... Carling is her team's top three-point shooter (36-for-106) and leads the squad in assists with 46 ... Carling, Varley and Shawnee Slade are the only three BYU players to start all 15 games ... 17 different BYU players have logged minutes in 2007-08.

Young Guns

SDSU has started two freshmen, two sophomores and one senior in its first 16 games of 2007-08. The Aztecs' starting lineup in its season opener with Nevada was the program's youngest since the 1983-84 campaign, when the team had three freshmen, one sophomore and one junior among the starting five. This year's group also has just five years of experience, with only four coming at the Division I level as Shanna Demus played her first season at Div. II Cal State Los Angeles.

The Aztecs' four newcomers, Coco Davis (Sacramento, Calif.), Allison Duffy, Paris Johnson and Jené Morris, have combined for 55.7 percent of the team's scoring and 49.1 percent of its rebounding. Johnson, Morris and Duffy are the team's three-leading scorers, while in four MWC games thus far, the trio have combined for all seven of the team's double-figure scoring outings.

More For Morris

Aztec sophomore Jené Morris had a career-high 25 points against Utah last week to tally her second 20-point scoring outing of the season. Morris has scored in double-figures all but one of the team's MWC games and has led the squad in rebounding twice. She is averaging 15.3 points and 4.5 rebounds in league action, while also chipping in 1.75 steals a contest. Thus far, three different Aztecs have reached the 20-

Still In The Top 10

Through 16 contests, San Diego State remains in the top 10 nationally in steals, averaging 13.2 per outing to rank eighth and first in the Mountain West. The Aztecs have posted at least 12 steals in 12 games and have 211 on the year.

The team's 23 steals versus Southern Utah and 20 steals against Navy are still the two best performances by an MWC school thus far in 2007-08. The 23 steals are the team's most since also posting 23 versus Long Island University on Dec. 27, 1996. The total is second all-time in the MWC since the league began, trailing only Colorado State's 24-steal effort in 2001 against Sacramento State.

Individually, Jené Morris (2.7) and Quenese Davis (2.4) are tied for first and third in the conference and entered the week 54th and 82nd nationally in steals per game. Teammate Allison Duffy isn't far behind with 2.4 thefts per outing to rank her fourth in the league.

A year ago, San Diego State had 10 or more steals in a game 13 times. The school record for most steals in a season is 555 by the 1983-84 team.

Injury Update

SDSU junior guard Tamika Lipford (Oceanside, Calif.) has missed the team's last six games, snapping a streak of 37 straight outings in which she had logged minutes. Lipford was injured after being cut by glass at a holiday brunch, receiving 16 stitches to her left leg. She had surgery on Jan. 2, and remains on crutches. The Aztecs are also without redshirt freshman Christen Myles (Chino, Calif.), who reinjured her knee in practice two weeks ago.

Offensive Production 101

While the Aztecs may have struggled offensively as of late, the team's increased offensive production this season is still measurable when compared to the 2006-07 campaign.

San Diego State is third in the Mountain West in scoring offense (67.6 ppg.) and in field-goal percentage (41.9). These numbers far surpass last year's when SDSU averaged just over 56 points an outing and shot 37 percent from the field.

Below are a few notes about the Aztecs' offensive number so far this season:

►SDSU's 91 points versus Navy are its most since also tallying 91 in a win over Utah Valley State on Feb. 10, 2005. The Aztecs have recorded four games with 80 or more points for the first time since 1996-97, when SDSU had five such outings.

►SDSU also has three wins of 30 points or more for the first time since 1996-97. The 58-point margin of victory over Navy is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995.

►SDSU has shot above 50 percent three times and above 40 percent from the field in nine of 16 games. The Aztecs only reached the 40 percent mark 11 times a year ago, posting an 8-3 record in those outings. The last time San Diego State shot over 40 percent from the field in four straight games was in 2001, when the Aztecs opened the campaign with five straight performances. SDSU's 56.7 shooting percentage versus Navy is the second-best in the league this year and the program's highest since the Utah Valley game (57.1).

►San Diego State scored 60 or more points in seven consecutive games for the first time since also posting a seven-game stint in 1995-96 from Dec. 27-Jan. 13.

►The Aztecs have scored 40 or more points in a half nine times after reaching the barrier twice a year ago.

►SDSU has 20 or more assists in four outings, including a league-high 28 against Navy. The 28 assists are the team's most in a game since it also had 28 on Feb. 1, 1997 vs. San Jose State. SDSU ranks first in the MWC (15.8) and is 35th in the nation in assists per game.

What A Crowd

In eight home games this season, over 11,000 people have turned out to see the Aztec basketball team in action, already the highest total home attendance since 1997-98. SDSU is averaging almost 1,400 fans per home game, compared to last year's 499 average.

The Aztecs set a single-game home attendance record with 5,271 fans against Connecticut. The mark beat the previous record of 4,311 versus UCLA at the San Diego Sports Arena on Jan. 28, 1978. This is the second time this season that SDSU has set a Cox Arena attendance record, after also doing so earlier this month versus Cal State Fullerton (2,397).

Another Block Party?

After leading the MWC in blocks per game in both overall and league-only outings in 2006-07, San Diego State looks like it is well on its way to doing the same again this season. In the opening 16 games, the Aztecs has 77 total blocks by eight different players, ranking second in the league (4.8) and 31st nationally.

Freshman Paris Johnson has provided the bulk of the work with 27 to her credit, including five at Nevada, which tied for eighth in school single-game history. Johnson is second in the league in blocked shots with 1.69 per game, just one season after her sister, former Aztec Desiree Johnson, ranked first in the MWC in blocked shots two consecutive years. SDSU ranked 35th nationally with 4.6 blocks per game a year ago.

What The W's Mean

►SDSU's nine non-conference victories are the program's most since the 1995-96 team had 11, including one in the league tournament.

►The Aztecs are 16-8 in games played at Cox Arena over the last two campaigns.

►SDSU recorded its first victory on a neutral court since Nov. 29, 2002, when the Aztecs defeated Murray State in Fresno, 59-54. The Aztecs had dropped their previous seven outings in neutral site games.

►The Aztecs have won three road games, its most in a season since the 2003-04 squad won four times in opponent's arenas.

►SDSU won its season-opener for the first time 2002, and claimed its home-opener for the first time in the last three years.

►The Aztecs were 5-0 against non-conference teams it also faced last season. SDSU was 3-2 versus Nevada, Saint Mary's, USD, Southern Utah and Cal Poly a year ago.

►The Aztecs are 15-4 in their last 19 games against non-conference opponents with the lone losses coming this year versus Indiana State, Quinnipiac, No. 2 UConn and last year against No. 17/16 George Washington.

Coming Attractions

San Diego State will head to UNLV this weekend for a 7 p.m. PT game with the Lady Rebels Saturday in Las Vegas. The contest will be carried live on The Mtn., with Mike Evans (play-by-play) and Andrea Lloyd (color) calling the action from Cox Pavilion.

Listen/Watch Live

For the seventh straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com. SDSU alum Chris Ello will take over the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road. Again in 2007-08, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the two televised games, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Cox Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

Aztecs Ink Four In Front Court

San Diego State women's basketball head coach Beth Burns announced the signing Wednesday of four prep standouts to National Letters of Intent. Candace Chambers (Seattle, Wash.), Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.), Lindsay Leo (San Jose, Calif.) and Kalena Tutt (Long Beach, Calif.) will join the Aztecs in 2008.

Burns Gets New Contract

Beth Burns, the winningest head coach in Aztec women's basketball history, signed a new five-year contract, San Diego State Director of Athletics Jeff Schemmel announced Sept. 12. The contract is effective immediately and runs through the 2011-12 campaign.

Pair Added To Aztec Coaching Staff

SDSU head coach Beth Burns added a pair to her staff this past summer. Heidi VanDerveer, who has over 20 years of experience on both the collegiate and professional levels, was named associate head coach on Aug. 29. VanDerveer comes to San Diego State from the Seattle Storm, where she recently completed her second season as an assistant coach. Tara Morrison joined the staff as the team's head manager after two seasons as an assistant coach at Binghamton University in New York and four at the University of Maine.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 2005. In just two short years, she already has the program headed in the right direction, as the Aztecs' were the 11th-most improved team in the nation in 2007, and recorded the school's most wins since 2000-01.

In her first stint as head coach from 1989-97, Burns compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A three-time WAC coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 15-year overall head coaching record of 256-195, while her school record stands at 175-130 over 10 seasons. Burns recently earned her 250th career victory with the team's win vs. Southern Utah.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Games 1-3

San Diego St. 67, Nevada 61

Game 1 ■ Nov. 11 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - In a game featuring two schools with high pressure defenses, the San Diego State women's basketball team survived a stern test in its 2007-08 opener, defeating host Nevada, 67-61, Sunday afternoon at the Lawlor Events Center. The Aztecs claimed their first game of a campaign for the first time since 2002, to improve to 1-0, while the Wolf Pack dropped to 1-1 overall.

San Diego State got a huge game from a pair of players making their collegiate debuts. Freshman center Paris Johnson had 16 points, nine rebounds and five blocks in 38 minutes. Redshirt frosh Allison Duffy scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half, while sophomore Quenese Davis was the third Aztec in double-figures with a team-best 17 points.

Sophomore Jené Morris, who played her first game in an Aztec uniform, notched a game-high seven steals. Junior guard Tamika Lipford provided a solid performance off the bench, recording six points, two steals and two rebounds, one of which came on a critical play with 12 seconds left in the game.

SDSU started off the year by scoring the first basket on a jumper by Morris. Nevada countered with a pair of free throws, but the Aztecs answered again in a back-and-forth first half.

The visitors led by as many as five points at the 7:53 mark at 26-21, but the host went into the locker room on a 15-8 run to end the half with a two-point 36-34 advantage.

The Aztecs struggled to find their offensive rhythm coming out of the break, taking five and a half minutes to hit their first field goal. SDSU used that bucket to start a 9-0 run to knot the game at 43-43 and take a two-point lead at 45-43 with 11:32 remaining.

The two sides were tied again at 45 points, but the Aztecs maintained an advantage the rest of the way. SDSU was up by five points on four occasions, including as late as 59-54, but Nevada came to within a pair with 2:39 left and again with 45 seconds remaining. The Aztecs made six of their final eight free-throw attempts to preserve the 67-61 victory.

Nevada was led by Cherlanda Franklin's 12 points and seven rebounds. The Aztecs avenged a loss to the Wolf Pack in last year's season-opener in San Diego.

Game 2 ■ Nov. 17 ■ McKeon Pavilion ■ Moraga, Calif.

MORAGA, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team had five players score in double-figures in a 83-60 victory over Saint Mary's in Moraga, Calif. SDSU is now 2-0 for the first time since the 1992-93 season, while the Gaels fell to 2-2.

Five players reached double-figures in scoring for the Aztecs, who jumped out to a 46-29 lead at the half.

Sophomore Jené Morris led the way with a game-high 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 behind the 3-point arc.

Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, playing in her second career game, had 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for her first double-double. Senior Shanna Demus had 13 points and three steals, while sophomore Quenese Davis chipped in with 12 points, five rebounds, five steals and three assists in just 24 minutes. Senior Shannon Clay added 10 points off the bench.

SDSU started out the game on an 11-2 run on a layup by Davis with 17:46 remaining in the first half. Saint Mary's made a late run and got to within nine with 3:24 left, but an 11-4 run, capped by a LaSandra Dixon layup late in the first half, gave the Aztecs the 46-29 lead at the break.

The Gaels never got closer than 12 in the second half, as San Diego State won its second road game of the season for the first time since it won four away from Montezuma Mesa in the 2003-04 campaign.

Saint Mary's was led by Jontelle Smith, who scored 12 points on 4-of-10 shooting, while Louella Tomlinson had 11 points and four blocks.

Season Box Scores ■ Games 4-6

Indiana St. 75, San Diego St., 68

Game 4 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Gersten Pavilion ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point second-half deficit to just four, but was unable to complete the comeback as the Aztecs dropped their first game of season to Indiana State, 75-68, at Gersten Pavilion. SDSU fell to 3-1 on the year, while the Sycamores improved to 3-0 following the first game of the LMU Ayres Hotel Thanksgiving Tournament.

Aztec freshman Paris Johnson had a career-high 27 points and 13 rebounds for her first career double-double. Johnson's 27 points are the most by an SDSU player since Michelle Strawberry had 29 in the 2005-06 season-opener. Sophomore Jené Morris was the only other Aztec in double-figures with 11 points, including a pair of three-pointers, to go with her three steals.

SDSU had four of its five starters foul out by the end of the game, including point guard Quenese Davis, who was limited to just four points in 20 minutes, but still managed to contribute four steals and four assists.

The Sycamores got off to an early lead, making six of their first seven shots from the field including a 3-for-3 effort from beyond the arc to jump ahead by eight at 15-7 heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs rallied to get back to within three at 15-12 on a triple by Demus at the 14:51 mark and trailed by four with 12:38 remaining in the first half. Indiana State, however, went on a 10-0 run, hitting two more three pointers to go up 28-18.

ISU boasted its largest lead at the break, heading into the locker room up by 18 at 45-27, after shooting 55.2 percent from the field and making 7-of-8 three-point attempts.

The Aztecs got off to a quick start in the second half, scoring four straight points on a pair of lay ups by Johnson and limiting the Sycamores to just six points in the first six minutes of play. SDSU was able to make a further dent into its deficit with the help of a 9-0 run to get to within 10 at 54-44.

After the two sides traded trips to the free-throw line, San Diego State continued to stalemate the Indiana State offense, going on another 3-0 run to get to within seven at 56-49.

ISU countered with a 5-0 outburst of its own and was leading by 14 points as late as 66-52. A three-pointer by Morris sparked the Aztec rally again, as SDSU closed to within just four with 26 seconds left in the game. The Sycamores closed out the win by making three of their four free throws to claim the 75-68 victory.

San Diego State owned the advantage on the boards (40-36), in the steals department (13-6) and in the turnover column (23-19), but the Sycamores made eight three-pointers and converted 23 of their 35 trips to the charity line.

Game 6 ■ Nov. 29 ■ Mott Gym ■ San Luis Obispo, CA

The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored Cal Poly 42-27 in the second half to rally from a nine-point deficit, as the Aztecs improved to 5-1 overall with an 80-70 victory over the Mustangs Thursday at Mott Gym. SDSU owned a 20-12 advantage on the offensive glass and made eight three-pointers for its seventh consecutive win over Cal Poly, which dropped to 3-4 in 2007-08.

Aztec point guard Quenese Davis scored 14 of her team-high 21 points in the second half, matching the best offensive output of her career. Davis converted 11 of her 12 free-throw attempts and added four rebounds and four steals. Three other SDSU players finished in double-figure points, including freshman center Paris Johnson (17 points), sophomore guard Jené Morris (11 pts.) and freshman forward Allison Duffy (10 pts.).

The Aztecs shot 39.7 percent from the field for the second game in a row, but countered with 26 second-chance points and recorded a season-best 88 percent performance (22-for-25) at the stripe. SDSU matched its best start since 1995-96 with five wins in its first six outings following its final non-conference road game of 2007-08.

After Cal Poly scored the first bucket to begin the night, the Aztecs reeled off six straight points to jump ahead 6-2. The Mustangs ended the run with a pair of free throws, but SDSU scored four more on back-to-back baskets by Johnson. Cal Poly put together its own offensive string, recording eight straight points to take a 12-10 advantage.

The schools traded leads four more times, before Cal Poly jumped ahead for the rest of the half, going up by as many as nine at 39-30, before heading into the locker room up five, 43-38. The Mustangs ended the half shooting 58.3 percent from the field and made 13 of their 14 free-throws (92.9 percent).

After Cal Poly once again opened the half with the first two points, SDSU responded with a triple by Davis, followed by two straight lay ups from Johnson to tie the game at 45-45.

Trailing by one, the Aztecs nailed back-to-back three-pointers to gain their first lead since early in the first half at 53-49. SDSU would go up by six on two occasions, before running out to the largest advantage of the night by either side at 67-57, following two Davis free throws.

Cal Poly made it interesting by getting to within six at 67-61 with just over three minutes left, but SDSU got four straight points from Allison Duffy and made 7-of-8 free-throws in the final 1:28 to secure the 80-70 win.

Game 7 ■ Dec. 2 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - In front of a Cox Arena record crowd of 2,397, the San Diego State women's basketball team kicked off its month-long homestand with a 76-45 victory over visiting Cal State Fullerton at Cox Arena. The Aztecs had five players score in double-figures to help the team move to 6-1 on the season for its best start since the 1992-93 campaign. The Titans, meanwhile, dropped to 1-5 on the year, losing their sixth straight against the Aztecs.

SDSU sophomore point guard Quenese Davis posted her first double-double of the season and the third of her career with 10 points on 4-for-5 shooting, and a career-high 12 assists. Her 12 assists are the most by an Aztec since Shannon Lee had 14 helpers against Illinois State on Nov. 24, 2000.

Four other Aztecs logged double-figures in points, including redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who matched her career-best with 15 points, and freshman center Paris Johnson, who added 12 points and a team-high seven rebounds. Sophomore guard Jené Morris was the fourth starter in double-figures with 10 points, while junior LaSandra Dixon matched her career-high with 10 points off the bench.

Cal State Fullerton owned three, one-point advantages in the opening two minutes of the game, including at 5-4 on a layup by Ashley Richie. The Aztecs took the lead on a Quenese Davis bucket, but a Toni Thomas free-throw equalized the game at six points apiece. SDSU broke out of that tie with a 13-0 run and led by as many as 21 points, before heading into the locker room up 19 at 41-22.

Duffy opened the second half with each of San Diego State's first three baskets, as the host led by 25 with 17:47 remaining. The Aztec advantage reached 30 points on a three-pointer from Coco Davis at the 9:37 mark and peaked at 38 points at 76-38, before SDSU finished the afternoon with its second victory of 30 points or more this season at 76-45.

San Diego State shot a season-best 55.7 percent from the field and limited Cal State Fullerton to an opponent season-low 45 points. The Aztecs also forced 27 turnovers, had 21 assists and made four of their seven shots from beyond the arc.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team won their fourth straight and remained perfect at home following a tough 58-53 victory over rival University of San Diego at Cox Arena. The Aztecs won for the first time in their last six meetings with the Toreros to improve to 7-1 on the year, while the visitors fell to 4-4 on the season.

SDSU redshirt freshman Allison Duffy led the Aztecs in both scoring and rebounding with 14 points and six boards. Freshman center Paris Johnson and sophomore guard Quenese Davis both reached double-figures with 10 and 11 points, respectively. Davis had a game-high seven assists, while classmate Jené Morris contributed four of the Aztecs' 13 steals in just 18 minutes of action.

USD's Sam Child began the game with the hot hand, scoring each of her team's first nine points as the Toreros led by four early at 9-5. The visitors were up by as many as five at 16-11, before the Aztecs came storming back with an 8-2 run to take their first lead of the night at 19-18. The advantage changed hands two more times, before SDSU headed into the locker room up four at 29-25.

After a bucket by Torero Kiva Herman to open the second half, SDSU scored 11 unanswered points to build its largest lead of the evening at 40-27. USD would get to within three points on two occasions, including as late as 39 seconds remaining and the score 56-53. After securing a critical defensive rebound, Davis made both of her free-throw shots with 10 seconds left, as the Aztecs claimed the 58-53 win.

San Diego State held USD without a three-point field goal, as the Toreros were 0-for-4 from beyond the arc, compared to the Aztecs' 4-for-9 performance, three of which came in the second half. USD is the second SDSU opponent this season to fail to record a three-pointer, as Southern Utah also went without a triple.

Game 9 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - After a 13-day break for final exams, the San Diego State women's basketball team retook the court in convincing fashion, posting a 91-33 victory over Navy Tuesday at Cox Arena. With the win, the Aztecs claimed their fifth straight and improved to 8-1 on the year, while the Midshipmen, who suited up a depleted squad due to illness, fell to 2-10 in 2007-08.

San Diego State had three players finish in double-figure scoring, including senior Shanna Demus, who scored a team-high 15 points on 7-for-8 shooting in just 16 minutes of action. Freshman center Paris Johnson chipped in 12 points, while sophomore guard Kim Spinardi came off the bench to add a career-high 11 points, including a 3-for-3 performance from beyond the arc.

The Aztecs, who are entered the week ranked second in the nation in steals per game, had 20 against the Mids, with five of those coming via redshirt frosh Allison Duffy. Senior Shannon Clay had a game-high nine rebounds and sophomores Quenese Davis and Jené Morris each added five assists.

After the two-sides traded buckets to open the evening, San Diego State went on a 20-0 run just over five minutes into the game for the 20-2 advantage. The Aztecs led by as many as 31 in the opening half, including at intermission, 45-14.

SDSU scored the first 11 points coming out of the locker room to go up by 42 at 56-14 at the 16:13 mark. The Aztec lead would grow to as many as 58 points before securing the 91-33 victory.

The Aztecs' 91 points are a season-high and the program's most since also scoring 91 versus Utah Valley State in 2005. The 58-point margin of victory is San Diego State's highest since a 97-35 win over Fresno State in 1995, while the Midshipmen's 33 points are the fewest the Aztecs have allowed since a 57-30 victory against Air Force in 2001.

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The visiting Connecticut Huskies lived up to their No. 2 national ranking, handing San Diego State its first home loss of the season, 85-53, Friday evening in front of a record 5,271 fans at Cox Arena. The Aztecs forced 28 UConn turnovers, but could not overcome a 49-23 halftime deficit, falling to 8-2 on the season, while the Huskies improved to 9-0.

Freshman center Paris Johnson was the lone SDSU player to finish in double-figures, scoring 14 points to go with her team-high seven rebounds. Classmate Coco Davis added eight points on a perfect 3-for-3 shooting performance from the floor. Sophomore Jené Morris had six assists and senior Shannon Clay recorded three of the team's 12 steals.

Connecticut hit nine of its first 13 shots, scoring the first seven points and taking a 23-8 lead just over six minutes into the game. SDSU cut its deficit to 11 at 25-14 on a jumper by Johnson, but trailed by 26 points, 49-23, heading into the locker room.

The Huskies outscored the Aztecs by just six points in the second half, 36-30, but used their 54.1 field-goal percentage and 53-25 edge on the boards to cruise to the 85-53 victory.

Despite the loss, San Diego State became just the second opponent to reach the 50-point barrier against UConn in 10 contests this season, as the Huskies entered the game outscoring their opponents by a nation's-best 41.6 points per outing.

SDSU set a single-game attendance record and broke the Cox Arena mark for the second occasion in 2007-08, as 5,271 fans turned out for the second all-time meeting between the schools.

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team rounded out its non-conference schedule by holding on to defeat Western Michigan 77-72 Sunday in the consolation game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Cox Arena. With the victory, the Aztecs finished 1-1 in its own tournament, improving to 9-3 on the season. The Broncos fell to 3-10 on the year following the first-ever meeting between the two sides.

The Aztecs got 25 points, including 14 in the first half, from freshman center Paris Johnson, who was named to the six-player all-tournament team. Johnson was helped offensively by senior Kate Eveland's season-high 16 points and freshman Allison Duffy's 14 points. Duffy was one rebound short of her third double-double of the season with a team-best nine and also tallied four of SDSU's nine steals.

The host logged the first basket of the afternoon by Johnson, but the Broncos responded with five straight points for the 5-2 lead. SDSU then went on a 7-0 run to retake the lead at 9-5. The Aztecs stayed ahead for the remainder of the first half, going up by as many as 19 points at 36-17 with 3:41 left, before heading into the locker room up 12 at 40-28.

Western Michigan came out of the break with the first four points to cut its deficit to single-digits at 40-32 at the 19:22 mark. The Broncos took advantage of San Diego State's foul trouble, getting to within four on two occasions within the first 10 minutes. At 62-56, the visitors scored nine straight points to jump ahead by three on a Chandra Smith triple.

The lead switched hands three more times and the game was tied at 71 all with just 3:16 left. Coming out of the tie, SDSU got back-to-back baskets from its two freshmen front court players, Duffy and Johnson, and never trailed again, winning by five points, 77-72.

San Diego State was outshot (47.3 to 46.9) and outrebounded (39-34), but forced Western Michigan into 23 turnovers. The Aztecs have won the turnover battle in all but one game this season and also added 22 assists in the victory.

FT. WORTH, Texas - Facing the top scoring offense in the conference, the San Diego State women's basketball team dropped its first league game of 2008 to TCU, 86-63, Wednesday at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-4 overall and 1-0 in league action, while the Lady Frogs improved to 8-7 and 1-0 in MWC play.

Three Aztecs who made their Mountain West Conference debuts scored in double-figures, including leading scorer redshirt freshman Allison Duffy, who had 14 points on 5-for-8 shooting. Freshman center Paris Johnson tallied her second double-double of the year, recording 13 points and matching her season-high with 13 rebounds to go with four blocks and four assists. Sophomore Jené Morris added 11 points, while senior Shanna Demus had six rebounds. Texas native Kate Eveland was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, for eight points.

TCU opened the evening with a 3-0 lead until SDSU got on the board with two free throws by Morris. The Aztecs missed their first four field goals, before Duffy scored on a lay up at the 16:53 mark and the score 10-4 in favor of the Lady Frogs. The host, meanwhile, made seven of their first 10 shots from the field and built an 11-point advantage at 17-6 and was up by as many as 16 on three occasions.

San Diego State continued its struggles from the field going over five minutes without a field goal mid-way through the half, but finally found its groove on both sides of the ball, putting together a 12-0 run to close to within four points at 28-24. The Lady Frogs went scoreless for 5:26, but managed to hold onto the 33-26 halftime advantage.

Coming out of the locker room, TCU used a pair of three-pointers and outscored SDSU 13-7 through the first media timeout for a 48-33 edge. The Lady Frogs continued to push the pace, running out to a 20-point lead with 10 minutes left and never looked back, claiming an 86-63 victory.

New Mexico 60, San Diego St. 47

Game 14 ■ Jan. 12 ■ Cox Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team was held to a season-low 47 points, including an 0-for-11 effort from beyond the arc, as visiting New Mexico claimed a 60-47 victory Saturday afternoon in the Aztecs' 2008 conference home opener at Cox Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs fell to 9-5 overall and 0-2 in league action, while the Lobos improved to 9-6 and 1-1 in MWC play.

SDSU sophomore Jené Morris scored in double-figures for the second straight outing, posting a team-high 17 points, six rebounds and three steals in 36 minutes of action. Redshirt freshman Allison Duffy had 10 points and three steals, but her front court teammate, freshman center Paris Johnson, was held to only seven points to snap a streak of eight straight outings in double-figure scoring.

The game started off as a close one, with the teams trading the lead five times in the first 12 minutes of action. At the 8:09 mark, New Mexico's Brandi Kimble made three straight baskets within a 1:26 span to give the visitors a 19-15 advantage. The Lobo lead grew to eight points on a three-pointer at 23-15, but the Aztecs trailed by only four at 28-24 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut its deficit down to just a pair with the opening bucket of the second half on a jumper by Duffy. UNM quickly answered but it was still a four-point game until the 14:15 mark, when a pair of Lobo free throws jump started a 9-0 run to put them up by 13 points at 41-28. The Aztecs logged back-to-back baskets by Morris and senior Shanna Demus to get to within nine, but New Mexico went on another scoring run of 7-2 and the lead never fell below double-figures as the Lobos claimed a 13-point win at 60-47.

Despite the loss, SDSU forced 26 New Mexico turnovers and had at least 12 steals for the 12th time in 2007-08.

Utah 74, San Diego St. 62

Game 15 ■ Jan. 17 ■ Huntsman Center ■ SLC, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - Despite a career-high 25 points from Aztec sophomore Jené Morris, the San Diego State women's basketball dropped a 74-62 decision at Utah Wednesday evening at the Huntsman Center. With the loss, SDSU fell to 9-6 overall and 0-3 in conference play, while the Utes, who shot over 64 percent from the field in the second half, improved to 13-3 and 2-0 in league action.

Morris scored 16 of her career-best 25 points in the second half, beating her previous high of 20 points set earlier this season against Quinnipiac. The guard recorded her third straight double-figure scoring outing in as many chances in league action. Morris was 10-for-18 from the field and made all but two of her seven free-throw attempts, while also contributing a team-best five rebounds and two steals in 37 minutes.

Two SDSU starters, forward Allison Duffy and guard Queneise Davis, scored nine points apiece. Davis added three assists and Duffy chipped in three of the team's eight steals on the night.

The Aztecs opened the game with the first bucket on a jumper by Duffy. The Utes responded with two straight baskets to go up by two, before a Morris jumper tied the score at four points apiece. Utah broke out of the tie with one of three triples in the first 20 minutes from Morgan Warburton.

The Utes remained ahead the rest of the half, but the Aztecs, who trailed by eight points on two occasions at 18-10 and 20-12, cut their deficit down to just a pair at 26-24, following three straight Morris free throws with 3:34 remaining. Utah, however, finished the half strong, going on an 8-0 run and owning a 10-point advantage of 34-24 at the break.

Coming out of the locker room, SDSU got the Utah lead down to single-digits on a three-point play by Morris at 38-31. Utah then went on a 9-0 run to jump out to its biggest lead of the night at 16 points at 47-31, and was up by 17 at 54-37 with just under 11 minutes left in the game.

The Aztecs' rallied from that point, using a pair of free throws by senior Shanna Demus to jump start an 8-0 run, while keeping the Ute offense scoreless for nearly four and a half minutes, as SDSU trailed by just nine at the 8:51 mark.

The nine point margin would be as close as the Aztecs could get the rest of the way, as Utah made 12-of-14 free-throw attempts in the final three minutes to secure the 74-62 victory.

San Diego State owned a 14-7 edge on the offensive boards and committed just three more turnovers than Utah, but could not overcome the Utes' 55.8 field-goal percentage on the night.

2007-08 San Diego State Women's Basketball

Season Box Scores ■ Game 16

No. 20 Wyoming 65, San Diego St., 49

Game 16 ■ Jan. 19 ■ Arena-Auditorium ■ Laramie, Wyo.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 19-point halftime deficit down to just 10 against Wyoming, the No. 20 team in the country, but was unable to complete the come back as the Aztec fell to the host Cowgirls, 65-49 Saturday afternoon at Arena-Auditorium. With the loss, SDSU was dropped to 0-4 in league action and 9-7 overall, while the Cowgirls improved to 16-1 and 4-0 in the MWC.

The Aztecs were led by redshirt freshman forward Allison Duffy, who scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half. Senior Shanna Demus had nine points, including a pair of three-pointers, while Jené Morris tallied seven points. Freshman Paris Johnson logged a team-high nine rebounds, while Demus contributed four steals.

The Aztec offense struggled to get going to start the afternoon, as SDSU missed its first nine shots from the field until getting on the board at the 13:01 mark on two Morris free throws, trailing 13-2. San Diego State's first field goal of the game didn't come until the 8:30 mark when Morris nailed a three-pointer from straight away to put the visitors down by 15 at 20-5.

While SDSU may have struggled on the offensive end, the Aztecs' offensive rebounding kept them in the game owning a 12-3 edge at half, but trailing on the scoreboard by 19 going into the locker room at 37-18.

San Diego State was undeterred coming out of the break, as Duffy scored the first points on a pair of free throws. Wyoming countered with a lay-up, but Duffy once again answered with a basket of her own to get back to a 17-point deficit with 17:11 left.

The Aztecs got to within 11 points on two occasions, before finding themselves trailing by only 10 twice at both 51-41 and 53-43. A three-pointer by Justyna Podziemski restored the Cowgirl lead to 13 and SDSU was never able to get to within single-digits, falling 65-49.

Despite the loss, San Diego State grabbed a season-best 23 offensive boards to Wyoming's five. The Aztecs owned a 42-29 advantage on the glass and forced 20 Cowgirl turnovers.
