- SDSU is coming off a victory over Grand Canyon, 4-0, on Montezuma Road on Tuesday, Nov. 12. Senior forward Jordan Ongaro (Edmonton, Alberta, Canada) scored his team-leading 10th goal of the season in the second half and added his first assist of the season, while redshirt freshman goalkeeper Keenan Townsend (Vancouver, Wash.) tallied two saves to earn the victory in his first-career start in the net. In addition, freshman Alec Petit (Southlake, Texas) scored his first-career goal, as San Diego State improved to 2-1-1 all-time against Grand Canyon.

- Ongaro also scored a goal in the Aztecs' loss to Wright State on Nov. 8. The Aztecs have been competitive against ranked foes throughout the season, as the scoring in those games is nearly equal (14-16), while SDSU has been either ahead or tied at halftime in four of those matches.

- In the Aztecs first match against UCLA this season, SDSU led at halftime, 1-0, before the Bruins rallied in the second half for two goals in the victory. Ongaro scored the goal for San Diego State, while senior midfielder Abraham Villon (Garden Grove, Calif.) recorded an assist, as the Aztecs' two leading scorers each made a big impact.
