

GAME 18

Colorado State (13-5/2-1) at San Diego State (11-6/2-2)

Saturday, February 1, 2003

7:05 p.m. PST (announced)

Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl (12,414)
San Diego, Calif.

Tip Time: Tip time is set for 7:05 p.m. PST.

Television: The game will be televised by Channel 4 San Diego. Chris Marlowe (play-by-play), John Kentera (analysis), Lya Vallat (producer).

Radio: XTRA 690-AM. Jim Stone (play-by-play), Mike McGregor (producer).

SDSU Coach Steve Fisher: Fisher (Illinois State '67) is in his fourth season at San Diego State with a record of 51-55. Now in his 12th full season as a head coach, he has amassed a 235-137 mark. Fisher led Michigan to the 1989 national championship and made three trips to the national championship game in his eight full seasons in Ann Arbor. The 1991-92 national coach of the year, he led the Aztecs to a 21-12 mark last year en route to the NCAA Tournament. Fisher has helped the Aztecs increase their win total in each of his first three seasons (from 4-to-5-to-14-to-21).

Colorado State Coach Dale Layer: Coaching his third season at Colorado State and his 13th year overall, Layer (Eckerd '80) holds a career head-coaching record of 207-123, including a 40-36 mark at CSU. After serving two seasons as an assistant under now-New Mexico coach Ritchie McKay, Layer took over the Rams program in 2000-01 and finished 15-13 in 2000-01 and 12-18 in 2001-02 in his first two seasons as a Div. I head coach.

The Series: San Diego State and Colorado State are meeting for the 46th time, with the Rams holding a 30-15 lead in the series. SDSU owns a 12-11 mark in San Diego. The Aztecs have won the last three meetings after dropping six straight and 18-of-20.

The Tickets: Tickets are available for the game through the SDSU ticket office (619-283-SDSU) or at any Ticketmaster outlet. Tickets range in price from $10-20.

San Diego State Opens Three-Game Homestand Against Colorado State

San Diego State (11-6 overall/2-2 Mountain West Conference) opens a three-game homestand on Saturday against Colorado State (13-5/2-1).

Game time is set for 7 p.m. Pacific time and the game will be televised by Channel 4 San Diego (no satellite coverage available). The game can be heard along the West coast on XTRA-AM 690 (San Diego).

Both teams are trying to rebound from losses over the weekend. The Aztecs lost their second consecutive game, falling at New Mexico, 66-62. Meanwhile, the Rams suffered their first loss in 14 home games this season on Saturday, a 79-77 setback to Wyoming.

The two teams, picked to finish in the lower half of the MWC (SDSU picked fifth and CSU picked sixth in the preseason media poll), are looking to climb back into the conference race. Colorado State enters the contest in a three-way tie for second place, one game behind conference-leading Wyoming. San Diego State is in fifth place, but just one-half game out of second entering Saturday's play.

On Saturday, the Aztecs suffered their second consecutive loss for just the second time this season at Albuquerque. San Diego State, which shot 55.1 percent from the field while limiting the Lobos to 45.2 percent field goal shooting, was not able to overcome a 19-4 New Mexico edge at the free-throw line.

Despite trailing by as many as 13 points in the second half, the Aztecs rallied to within a single point and had the ball with less than 15 seconds to play. But a Mike Mackell pass missed an open Evan Burns underneath the basket and the Lobos connected on three free throws in the final 3.3 seconds to secure the win.

Colorado State, despite Saturday's loss, has won nine of its last 12 games. The Rams have already eclipsed their victory total from last season when they posted a 12-18 mark. The Rams have four players that average in double figures, led by sophomore center Matt Nelson (14.9 ppg, 5.6 rpg) and senior forward Brian Greene (13.6 ppg, 6.9 rpg).

Upcoming SDSU Promotions

► Saturday vs. Colorado State - Marshall Faulk Bobblehead Night courtesy of SBC. Every fan in attendance will receive a Marshall Faulk San Diego State bobblehead as they exit the arena. Some lucky fans will receive bobbleheads autographed by the seven-time Pro Bowl selection.

► Monday vs. Wyoming - Retro Night. Fans are encouraged to wear clothing from the 60's, 70's or 80's. A special halftime dance contest will feature the best outfits with prizes being awarded. "Old School" music will be played on the concourse prior to the game courtesy of Magic 92.5 FM.

This is the 46th meeting between the teams with the Rams owning a 30-15 series lead. The Aztecs own a 12-11 edge in games played in San Diego and have won the last two meetings at Cox Arena. The Aztecs swept the series last season and have won three straight overall, the longest Aztec win streak in the series since claiming five straight from Jan. 5, 1981 to Jan. 27, 1983.

This marks the first of three straight home games for the Aztecs, but the homestand won't be any picnic. The three upcoming opponents - Colorado State, Wyoming and UNLV - have posted a 39-14 record (73.6 percent) this season. Wyoming is the league's lone undefeated team in conference play and the Rebels were the preseason pick to win the MWC.

Following the contest, the Aztecs will have a quick turnaround to get ready for a Monday night game against league-leading Wyoming. That game will be televised nationally by ESPN and will begin at 9 p.m. Pacific.

Media Luncheons

Once again this season, San Diego State coach Steve Fisher and selected players will be available for interviews at weekly press luncheons. Food is provided courtesy of Papa's Pizzas (5131 College Avenue; (619) 286-7788).

The next installment of the weekly press conference is set for Wednesday, January 29, at Cox Arena. The event will take place in the Mezzanine Level of Cox Arena (enter Cox Arena via the back lot and take the elevator to level two). SDSU personnel will direct you to the room.

The schedule: 11:30 - Lunch available. 11:50 - Coach Fisher press conference. 12:10 - Aztec players available. 12:30 - Practice begins.

Streaks, Storylines and Sidebars

▶ At 11-6, San Diego State has tied its best start since the 1984-85 NCAA tournament-bound team opened with a 13-4 mark. The Aztecs are even with last season's pace, when SDSU got off to an 11-6 start before ending the season with a 21-12 record and a trip to the NCAA tournament. The 1984-85 squad also advanced to the NCAA tournament and ended the campaign with a 23-8 record.

▶ The 11-6 record through 17-games ties for the seventh-best start in San Diego State's Division I history. In just four seasons, Steve Fisher-coached Aztec teams own three of the top 10 records after 17 games in San Diego State history.

▶ This is the third consecutive season that San Diego State has been 11-6 after 17 games. Prior to the 2000-01 season, starting the string of 11-6 starts, San Diego State had posted a 9-45 record in the two previous seasons.

▶ San Diego State is looking to avoid three straight losses in the same season since the 2000-01 season. The Aztecs have gone 57 straight games without losing three in a row in the same campaign.

▶ Another indication of San Diego State's recent surge can be found in the RPI. As of Wednesday morning, San Diego State was ranked 105th in the RPI, a remarkable accomplishment considering the Aztecs were ranked 209 the week of Dec. 7 when Evan Burns and Chris Manker became eligible and 171 the week of Dec. 14 when Travis Hanour began competing. San Diego State has won 11 of its last 15 games with losses during that stretch to top-ranked Arizona and 23rd-ranked Texas Tech as well as BYU, ranked No. 17 in the RPI and at New Mexico.

▶ San Diego State has now won the last encounter with five of the other seven Mountain West Conference schools (with Brigham Young and New Mexico being the lone exceptions). In fact, the Aztecs have a multiple-game win streak against three of those five league members (exceptions are UNLV and Utah). San Diego State has won 10 of its last 13 games against MWC competition and has posted the league's second-best conference record since Feb. 13, 2002.

▶ The Aztecs opened league play 2-0 for the first time since the 1995-96 season (first time in seven seasons). Despite losses to Brigham Young and New Mexico, the Aztecs' 2-2 league start is the best since getting off to an identical mark in the 1998 WAC campaign (five seasons ago).

▶ San Diego State has won the last three meetings with Colorado State, the Aztecs' longest active win streak over any MWC school. The three straight victories by SDSU represent the second-longest win streak in the series for the Aztecs. San Diego State claimed five straight wins from Jan. 5, 1981-Jan. 27, 1983.

Aztec Cliff Notes

Steve Fisher, who has authored one of the nation's most remarkable turnarounds at San Diego State, has San Diego State playing some of the best basketball in the Mountain West Conference and the entire West coast.

The Aztecs have won 11 of their last 14 games in posting an 11-6 overall record and a 2-2 mark in Mountain West Conference play. Two of the Aztecs' six losses have come to nationally ranked opponents in top-ranked Arizona and then-No. 23 Texas Tech and two others occurred prior to sophomores Travis Hanour and Chris Manker and freshman Evan Burns were cleared to play.

Statistically, solid defense and rebounding have been the Aztecs' two major weapons this season. San Diego State has only been outrebounded three times this season and boasts a +4.9 rebound margin. Meanwhile on defense, the Aztecs have limited their opposition to 41.8 percent field-goal shooting with no opponent shooting better than 49 percent against the Aztecs this season.

The Aztecs sport one of the nation's most experienced backcourts in seniors Tony Bland and Deandre Moore. Both have played in more than 100 career games and are among the conference leaders in many categories.

Bland, who last season became the first player in MWC history to rank among the league's top 10 in points and assists and the top 20 in rebounds, ranks among the conference leaders in five statistical categories - points, rebounds, assists, assist-to-turnover ratio and free-throw shooting. Bland is averaging a team-high 15.5 ppg and leads the league with a 1.74 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Moore, the quintessential point guard, is the second-leading assist man in the league and has become quite a threat from long range. He has connected on 44.4 percent from bonus distance and is fifth in the conference in three-point percentage and 13th in three-point field goals made (1.4 per game). Moore is averaging 8.3 ppg, 4.5 apg and 3.6 rpg.

San Diego State is led by one of the conference's premiere low post players in Mike Mackell. The senior is seventh in the MWC in scoring, averaging 15.4 ppg, and is 15th in rebounding at 4.6. He is also connecting on 58.5 percent of his shots from the field, third-best in the league.

Aerick Sanders has started all 17 games this season at the power forward spot. The junior is second in the league in rebounding and posting 6.2 ppg and 8.2 rpg.

The fifth starting spot, another wing position, has been filled by freshman Steve Sir and sophomores Tommy Johnson and Travis Hanour. All three contribute in different ways, with playing time often dictated by the match-up with the opposition.

Sir (6.5 ppg, 1.5 rpg) is an unbelievable three-point shooter who has made 31 treys and is connecting on 37.8 percent of his long-range attempts this season. Johnson (5.9 ppg, 2.9 rpg) is an athletic wing with the ability to beat people off the dribble. Hanour (4.0 ppg, 3.4 rpg) is the most athletic of the three but has fought tendinitis in both knees throughout the season.

Fisher's bench is deeper than it has been in the past with McDonald's All-American freshman Evan Burns, sophomore center Chris Manker and freshman walk-on John Sharper ready to contribute.

Burns, who made his long-awaited Aztec debut on Dec. 7 against top-ranked Arizona, continues to look more comfortable on both offense and defense. He is averaging 7.8 ppg and 4.3 rpg in less than 18 minutes of action.

Manker, the Aztecs' tallest player at 7-0, has shown guard-like skills. He can run the floor and pull up and shoot the three. He is averaging 3.4 ppg and 2.2 rpg and has played in all 13 games since he became eligible.

Sharper, who was originally recruited to back up Moore at the point guard position, has proven he can play both guard spots. He has averaged 2.1 ppg in 15 games and has turned the ball over just six times in 135 minutes of action.

Last Time Out: Aztecs Drop Second Straight Conference Game, 66-62

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - New Mexico thwarted a late Aztec rally and used significant advantages from the free-throw line and three-point range to send San Diego State to its second straight conference loss, 66-62, at The Pit/Bob King Court.

SDSU (11-6/2-2 MWC) suffered its second consecutive MWC loss after winning seven of its last eight conference games and 9-of-10 games overall. It was also the second straight loss to an unranked team after an NCAA Division I school-record 11-game win streak over nonranked foes. The loss snapped a four-game road winning streak, the second-longest such streak in the Aztecs' Div. I era.

The Lobos (7-9 overall/1-2 MWC) outscored the Aztecs 19-4 from the free-throw line and 27-12 from behind the arc, large margins that helped withstand SDSU's 55.1 percent shooting and 16-4 run going into the waning moments of the game. After leading 37-30 at halftime, New Mexico had built a 59-46 margin with 8 minutes, 56 seconds remaining on one of Javin Tindall's career-high five three-pointers.

The Aztecs then responded with 10 straight points over the next four-plus minutes, highlighted by four Tony Bland points and three-pointers from Steve Sir and Evan Burns.

Another Tindall three-pointer put the Lobos up 63-58, but Mike Mackell scored the game's next four points to get the Aztecs within one at 63-62 with 46 seconds remaining, the closest SDSU had been since midway through the first half.

The Aztecs regained possession and had a chance to take the lead, but Mackell's pass from the right side went through Burns' hands on the left baseline and out of bounds. New Mexico then iced the game on a Mark Walters breakaway lay-up and Walters' steal of the subsequent full-court inbounds pass and free throw.

Bland led the Aztecs in scoring for the third straight game and 10th time this season with 14 points. Mackell and Aerick Sanders each scored 10 points, while Deandre Moore and Burns, in 15 second-half minutes, both added seven.

Ruben Douglas, the NCAA's fourth-leading scorer at 25.7 points per game, totaled a game-high 21 points but was held below his average and harassed into 4-of-17 shooting thanks to an SDSU defensive effort led by Bland. Douglas picked up nearly half of his points at the free-throw line, where he went 10-of-10 as part of the Lobos' 19-for-24 effort from the charity stripe. Tindall (17 points) and Williams (13) were the Lobos' other double-digit scorers.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU lost despite shooting better than 50 percent (55.1 percent) for the second time this season... The Aztecs were out-rebounded (24-25) for only the third time in 2002-03... UNM was whistled for only 12 fouls compared to SDSU's 21.

San Diego State - Colorado State: The Series

San Diego State and Colorado State are meeting for the 46th time in history, with the Rams holding a 30-15 series lead despite three straight Aztec victories. Colorado State's large advantage in the all-time series comes from winning 23-of-26 meetings from Jan. 30, 1986 to Feb. 5, 2001. ► Of the Aztecs' 15 wins in the all-time series, 12 have come in San Diego (12-11). Before last season's win in Fort Collins, the Aztecs' last eight victories over the Rams had come at home. ► The Aztecs' three straight wins in the series is their second longest such streak, trailing five straight wins from Jan. 5, 1981 to Jan. 27, 1983. Colorado State's longest win streak in the series is 12 straight from Feb. 2, 1989 to Jan. 4, 1995.

► Last season's pair of victories over the Rams was SDSU's first season series sweep over CSU since the 1981-82 season in the Western Athletic Conference.

San Diego State Players vs. Colorado State

► Senior guard Tony Bland: Bland played very efficiently against the Rams last season, tallying 36 points on combined 13-of-20 shooting from the floor and 9-of-14 from the line. He grabbed a season-high eight rebounds in the road win Feb. 16 and averaged 6.0 rebounds in the Aztecs' pair of wins while dishing out eight assists against six turnovers.

Bland has stepped up his defensive play this season as he has primarily matched up against the opposition's top scoring wing player. Thus far in 2002-03, the Los Angeles native has held several of the nation's top players in check and below their season shooting percentages and scoring averages.

UNM	Ruben Douglas	40.7	26.2	21	4-17	3-10	10-10 L, 62-66

► Senior center Mike Mackell: Mackell was perfect from the floor in the teams' first meeting last season, hitting all six of his field goal attempts. He shot 5-of-8 from the free-throw line and totaled 17 points as he was one of four Aztecs in double-figures. He averaged 5.5 rebounds in the two games against the Rams.

► Senior guard Deandre Moore: Moore has struggled with his shooting against the Rams, hitting on only 20 percent of his shots in four career games. However, he has averaged 4.3 assists per game against CSU, his best assist average against any MWC opponent except Wyoming (4.7 apg), and has turned the ball over only four times in 92 minutes. He matched his career-high of four steals in the season's first meeting with the Rams.

Player Anecdotes

► Tony Bland

Bland, an all-conference performer on the court, spends hours of his time donating to different causes... He attempts to volunteer at least every other week, frequently visiting area hospitals and feeding the homeless... In the process of organizing a team visit to a local hospital.

► Deandre Moore

Nobody worked harder in the off-season than Deandre Moore and it has paid off... Moore, who has played through injuries each of the last two seasons (shoulder separation his sophomore season and shin splints his junior season) lost 16 pounds during the off-season... The result has been a quicker point guard who has missed only a handful of practices this season... His efforts resulted in coach Fisher naming him a co-captain on Oct. 12 (first official day of practice).

► Steve Sir

On Friday, Nov. 15, Sir capped a two-and-a-half hour practice by making 23 consecutive three-point field goals... He needed to make 10 straight to keep the team from running, and went on to make 23 in a row... He capped the following Monday (Nov. 18) practice by making 42 straight free throws.

► Chris Walton

Although he is redshirting this season, he continues to make an impact on the court and in the community... Walton organized a food drive that culminated Dec. 7, when Aztec fans viewing SDSU's battle with Luke Walton (Chris' brother) and the top-ranked Arizona Wildcats brought donated items to the game.

► Junior forward Aerick Sanders: Sanders missed both meetings with Colorado State in his freshman season due to a stress reaction in his right foot, then played a total of 18 minutes in the two meetings last season and totaled two points and two rebounds. In his junior season of 2002-03, Sanders has matched or surpassed those totals in a single game several times already: 18 minutes (all 17 games), 2 rebounds (all 17 times), 2 points (15 games).

Last Year's Meetings

► San Diego State 75, Colorado State 63

Feb. 16, 2002 (Moby Arena - Fort Collins, Colo.)
FORT COLLINS, Colo. -- San Diego State claimed its first victory in Fort Collins in more than 20 years with a 75-63 victory over Colorado State on February 16 at Moby Arena.

The Aztecs did not trail in the final 28:57 of the contest and led by at least seven points the entire second half. This was the third straight victory for the Aztecs in the series against the Rams.

San Diego State's big three - Al Faux, Tony Bland and Randy Holcomb - combined for 59 points, 23 rebounds and five assists. Faux connected on 7-of-8 attempts from the field and scored 18 of his game-high 24 points in the second half.

The Aztecs shot 59.6 percent from the floor, the highest against a Division I opponent for the season. San Diego State's defense held the Rams to 32.0 percent field-goal shooting in the first half and 41.3 percent for the contest.

Brian Greene scored all 14 of his points in the second half for Colorado State. Matt Williams and Matt Nelson had 12 and 10 points respectively as the Rams lost at home to San Diego State for the first time since Jan. 23, 1982.

The Rams got to within 37-30 four minutes into the second half, but Bland's three-pointer and layup pushed the Aztecs' lead back to double figures.

Baskets by Nelson and Joe Macklin cut the deficit to 62-55 with 1:48 left, but Faux dropped 8-of-10 free throws and Bland converted a three-point play in the final 1:41 for San Diego State.

► San Diego State 81, Colorado State 69

Jan. 19, 2002 (Cox Arena - San Diego, Calif.)

SANDIEGO -- Senior guard Al Faux led four Aztec players in double figures with 21 points as San Diego State defeated Colorado State 81-69 on January 19 at Cox Arena.

The Aztecs shot 53.1 percent from the field in winning their first conference game of the season. San Diego State led the final 13 minutes of the game by double figures.

San Diego State opened the game up early in the second half. After the Rams tied the game at 41 with 17:29 left to play, the Aztecs responded with 10 straight points. Junior center Mike Mackell contributed five of his 17 points during that stretch.

Mackell had just two points at halftime when the Aztecs led 37-34. Colorado State went ahead 38-37 in the opening 1:50 of the second half, but San Diego State went on a 24-7 run to put the game away. A Mackell basket opened the run, and he closed it with a jumper for a 61-45 lead with 10:32 to play.

Al Faux tied a season-high with five three-point baskets in the contest. Senior forward Randy Holcomb added 18 points and tied for game-high honors with seven rebounds, while junior guard Tony Bland contributed 13 points and five assists.

Andy Birley scored 19 and Brian Greene 16 for Colorado State, which lost to San Diego State for the second consecutive time.

About Colorado State

Saturday's game is the Rams' first MWC road test after opening MWC play with three straight at home. CSU has spent much of the season feasting on lesser opponents at home in compiling a 13-1 record at Moby Arena, but it's been a different story on the road where the Rams are 0-4. CSU dropped games early in the year at Southern Illinois and Arkansas-Little Rock and more lopsided decisions recently at Purdue Dec. 30 (56-84) and at Colorado Jan. 7 (72-93). The Rams' average scoring margin at home is +15.4; on the road, -18.

The Rams came out of their MWC-opening three-game homestand 2-1, suffering their first home loss Saturday to Wyoming, 79-77, to snap an arena-record 14-game home win streak. Conversely, the Rams have dropped 13 of their last 15 MWC road games and 13 of their last 15 road contests overall.

CSU, the league's top scoring team at 78.4 points per game, boasts a balanced offensive attack with four players averaging in double-figures, including perhaps the conference's best inside scoring duo of 7-0 sophomore center Matt Nelson (14.9 ppg, 64.3 fg%) and 6-8 senior forward Brian Greene (13.6 ppg, 54.0 fg%). The MWC's top shooting team at 51.7 percent, the Rams, who average only 3.7 three-point field goals a game, do most of their damage inside the arc by hitting 55.5 percent of shots from two-point range. Their only significant perimeter threat is senior Andy Birley (11.6 ppg, 3.1 apg), who has taken 114 of the Rams' 118 threes and connected on 50 of the team's 67 three-pointers for 43.9 percent three-point shooting.

Defensively, the Rams hold opponents to 41.4 percent shooting while maintaining a +8.7 rebound margin. However, CSU hasn't been particularly effective at forcing turnovers, as the Rams are averaging only 13.8 takeaways per game while giving the ball away 17.8 times for the league's worst turnover margin of -4.1.

You Take the Good, You Take the Bad

There have been four interesting statistics with the Aztecs getting off to a 2-2 league start, the school's best since an identical 2-2 record to open the 1987-88 Western Athletic Conference season.

Two have been positive and would lead you to believe SDSU is better than 2-2, while two are negative and lead you to wonder how SDSU has won a league game.

On the positive side, the Aztecs lead the conference in field goal percentage (50.0) and are second in field goal percentage defense (41.8) in conference play. The second positive stat is in rebounding, where the Aztecs own a league-best +8.0 rebound margin.

In the negative ledger, San Diego State's turnover margin of -5.0 is last in the league as is the Aztecs' 14.5 free-throw attempts per game.

For the season, these statistical categories have obviously played a role in the outcome, with the Aztecs' record listed below when registering an advantage or deficit in the below categories.

Statistic	SDSU Advantage	Opponent Advantage
Rebounding	10-3	1-2
Field Goal Percentage	8-1	2-5

School-Record Success Against Non-Ranked Foes

The Jan. 20th loss to BYU snapped San Diego State's Div. I school-record 11-game winning streak against unranked opponents. Since moving to Division I prior to the 1970-71 season, the previous long streak was nine straight from March 3-Dec. 22, 1984 (final game of the 1983-84 season and the first eight of the 1984-85 campaign).

Below is a look at the longest in-season win streaks vs. unranked foes in Aztec history.

Next Aztec Game

Wyoming (15-3/3-0*) at San Diego State (11-6/2-2*)

Monday, February 3, 2003
9:00 p.m. PST (announced)
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl (12,414)
San Diego, Calif.

Tip Time: Tip time is set for 9:00 p.m. PST.

Television: The game will be televised by ESPN as part of the Big Monday telecast. Bob Carpenter (play-by-play), Jimmy Dykes (analysis), Jeff Kibler (producer).

Radio: XTRA 690-AM. Jim Stone (play-by-play), Mike McGregor (producer).

SDSU Coach Steve Fisher: Fisher (Illinois State '67) is in his fourth season at San Diego State with a record of 51-55*. Now in his 12th full season as a head coach, he has amassed a 235-137* mark. Fisher led Michigan to the 1989 national championship and made three trips to the national championship game in his eight full seasons in Ann Arbor. The 1991-92 national coach of the year, he led the Aztecs to a 21-12 mark last year en route to the NCAA Tournament. Fisher has helped the Aztecs increase their win total in each of his first three seasons (from 4-to-5-to-14-to-21).

Wyoming Coach Steve McClain: Coaching his fifth season at Wyoming, McClain (Chadron State '84) holds a career and Wyoming head-coaching record of 94-44*. McClain and the Cowboys are aiming toward a third straight MWC regular season title, a fourth postseason berth in his five seasons and a second straight NCAA tournament selection.

The Series: San Diego State and Wyoming are meeting for the 51st time, with the Cowboys holding a 30-20 lead in the series. SDSU owns a 13-9 mark in San Diego. The Aztecs have won the last two meetings after dropping six straight.

The Tickets: Tickets are available for the game through the SDSU ticket office (619-283-SDSU) or at any Ticketmaster outlet. Tickets range in price from $10-20.

* - SDSU hosts Colorado State on Feb. 1 before welcoming Wyoming for Big Monday on Feb. 3. The Cowboys travel to UNLV Feb. 1 before facing the Aztecs.

Baby Aztecs Makin' An Impact

San Diego State's freshman class of Evan Burns, Steve Sir, John Sharper, Trimaime Davis and Markee White have made quite an impact in their inaugural season wearing the scarlet and black.

The class has combined to average 16.0 ppg, 6.9 rpg, 2.4 apg and 46.9 minutes through 17 games this season. That is even more impressive when considering McDonald's All-American Evan Burns missed the first four games of the season.

Of the nine players that saw action in each of the four games this season, four were freshmen - Trimaime Davis, John Sharper, Steve Sir and Markee White (one other was a sophomore - Tommy Johnson). Additionally, freshman Evan Burns and sophomore Chris Manker debuted against Arizona and against Hawai'i sophomore Travis Hanour joined the mix. The three have received significant minutes even as they adjust to game action.

The five have given the Aztecs the most productive freshman class of the Steve Fisher era.

More on this season's freshman crop:

▶ Evan Burns: One of two true freshmen on the SDSU roster, Burns produced his breakout game of the season against Florida Atlantic Dec. 28... In only his fifth collegiate appearance, Burns produced 21 points, four offensive rebounds and four steals in only 18 minutes of action... He shot 7-of-11 from the field and 7-of-8 from the free-throw line in becoming the only Aztec to surpass the 20-point mark in a game in his freshman season... He registered his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds vs. Loyola Marymount in scoring in double-figures for three straight games, a career first... Despite reaching 20 minutes only four times in 13 games and being held scoreless against Hawai'i, Burns is the squad's fourth-leading scorer at 7.8 points per game... He is supplying instant offense off the bench, as he entered the Air Force game with the Aztecs trailing by five six-and-a-half minutes in and promptly reeled off eight straight points to give SDSU the lead... He scored a game-high 14 points vs. the Falcons... Then against Utah, Burns scored all five of his points in the Aztecs' game-breaking 18-4 run in the second half... Has five double-digit scoring games... Burns' stats averaged over 40 minutes per game translate to 17.3 points, 9.6 rebounds, 1.8 assists, 2.9 steals and 1.7 blocks.

▶ Trimaime Davis: A redshirt freshman, Davis

appeared in the first 12 games this season and has accumulated 27 points and 17 rebounds in 122 minutes of action... He is averaging 8.6 minutes per contest. Davis, who made all 15 of his shots during the preseason, went 3-for-3 from the floor in scoring a career-high six points against UCSD.

▶ Steve Sir: A redshirt freshman, Sir started the first six games of the season and the Aztecs' last game against New Mexico... He registered a career-best six threes on Dec. 2 against UCSD... He has a team-high total of 31 three-point field goals and was a perfect 9-for-9 from the free-throw line before missing his only attempt against USD... The sharp-shooter from Minnesota, who made at least two treys in each of his first five games and has multiple threes in four of the last six contests, boasts the MWC's 13th-best three-point percentage at .378 and is SDSU's fifth-leading scorer at 6.5 points per game.

▶ John Sharper: A walk-on freshman, Sharper has played 135 minutes including several at the point guard position.. Sharper has looked solid handling the ball and has committed just six turnovers in 135 minutes of action, including a career-high turnover-free 16 minutes against LMU largely spent spelling a foul-troubled Moore... He also played 14 minutes without a turnover against New Mexico... Sharper grabbed a career-high five rebounds in 12 minutes and contributed a three-pointer to SDSU's record-setting barrage of 16 treys against UCSD, and his three-pointer capped the Aztecs' game-breaking 20-6 run in the win at Long Beach... He set his career high with eight points and hit two three-point field goals in a game for the first time against Florida Atlantic... Of his 21 field-goal attempts, 18 have come from three-point range, and his .500 three-point field goal percentage tops the team.

Record Attendance Pace

▶ Through 11 home games, SDSU is on a record pace for average season attendance. The Aztecs are playing before an average home crowd of 7,378. Should this trend continue, Aztec teams under Steve Fisher would own three of the top five season attendance marks in SDSU history.

Senior Dominant

San Diego State's senior class of Tony Bland, Mike Mackell and Deandre Moore held the shorthanded Aztecs together early in the season when SDSU was thin on reserves. Through the first four games of the season, the trio averaged 46.3 points, accounted for nearly 60.1 percent of San Diego State's scoring, and also combined for 17.0 rebounds and 10.8 assists per game.

But now that the Aztecs have 11 players averaging at least 8.1 minutes per game, the seniors are no less important, especially in conference play. Against Air Force, the trio combined for 32 of the Aztecs' 63 points, 15-of-29 rebounds and 8-of-12 assists. Then as the Aztecs snapped a 14-game losing streak to Utah, the seniors tallied 34-of-58 points, 19-of-38 rebounds and 6-of-9 assists. Those performances recalled the Nov. 30 contest at Cal Poly, perhaps the seniors' most important game of the season, when the Aztecs rallied from behind to gain their first victory of the season as the triumvirate accounted for 26 of the Aztecs' 31 second-half points.

Below is a look at what the three seniors have accomplished in each game this season.

The numbers are even more impressive when isolated to road games, in which the Aztec rotation has been tightened and the veterans have been depended upon for greater stretches. Bland, Mackell and Moore have combined for 233 points (56.7 percent of the Aztecs' 411 points on the road), 79-of-214 rebounds (36.9 percent) and 51-of-91 assists (56.0 percent). That works out to an average of 38.8 points, 13.2 rebounds and 8.5 assists in 97.2 minutes per game on the road.

Conversely in home games, the trio accounts for 53.5 percent of SDSU's points (433-of-810), 31.3 percent of rebounds (124-of-396 rebounds) and 59.0 percent of assists (102-of-173), translating to averages of 39.4 points, 11.3 rebounds and 9.3 assists in 89.6 minutes.

Bench Points

When the Aztec roster received reinforcements beginning with the Dec. 7 Arizona game, the SDSU bench has stepped up its productivity and relieved some the scoring slack from the seniors and starting five. Through the first four games of the season, the Aztec bench had accounted for only 48 of the Aztecs' 308 points (15.6 percent), an average of 12 points per game. Since freshman Evan Burns (NCAA Initial Eligibility Waiver Committee ruling) and sophomore Chris Manker (NCAA 4-2-4 transfer rule) became eligible for the Arizona game and sophomore Travis Hanour (NCAA 4-2-4 transfer rule) joined the fold against Hawai'i, the Aztec reserves more than doubled their production by averaging 22.7 points per game (32.3 percent of SDSU's scoring) over the past 13 contests.

The following is a look at SDSU's bench production in each game this season as well as its averages over the first four games of the season and the last 13 contests.

Aerick the Great

Forward Aerick Sanders got his junior campaign off to a fast start by registering 11 or more rebounds in a span of 5-of-6 games. For the season, Sanders has tallied nine or more rebounds in 10 games.

Sanders was an impressive presence in the post against Houston Dec. 21, as he recorded his first career double-double with career-bests in points (12) and rebounds (14) as well as a career-high four assists.

Sanders is second in the Mountain West with 8.2 rebounds per game, including a league-leading 3.5 offensive rebounds, as well as the conference's sixth-most blocks at 1.1 per contest.

The 40 minutes of action for Sanders against Eastern Washington was not only a career-high, but was more court time than the junior saw in any two games last season (last season's high was 20 minutes, with his previous career mark of 24 minutes set during his freshman campaign).

Last season, Sanders blocked 29 shots to rank seventh in the Mountain West Conference, and just missed cracking the school's all-time top-10 list.

He recorded one block against New Mexico Saturday and he stands eighth on SDSU's career blocked shots list with 63.

Moore is Better

Healthy for the first time since becoming an Aztec, Deandre Moore has overcome previous season injuries such as a separated shoulder and shin splints to participate in every practice this season.

That, coupled with a rigorous off-season workout schedule, has the Aztec point guard 16 pounds lighter than a season ago and playing some of the best basketball of his career.

Moore is averaging a career-high 8.3 points through 17 games this season while dispensing an average of 4.5 assists, second in the MWC. He has also been perhaps the Aztecs' most indispensable player thus far, playing a total of 530 minutes for an average of 31.2 per contest.

The Compton, Calif., native produced his best game of the season to date against the best competition. Against top-ranked Arizona Dec. 7, Moore scored 16 points and dished out eight assists while limiting preseason Wooden Award candidate Jason Gardner to nine points on 1-of-10 shooting.

Moore has played 35 or more minutes in six games in 2002. Last season, due to nagging injuries, Moore logged 35 minutes in only three of 33 games.

The senior guard broke the 300-assist barrier for his career against Portland and the Vanderbilt transfer entered the Aztecs' career top-10 list against Arizona. He has since moved into seventh place with 293 assists as an Aztec.

Top Two Scorers Gone, No Problem for Fisher

Some might see the departure of the Aztecs' top two scoring averages from the 2001-02 season - Al Faux (17.0 ppg) and Randy Holcomb (16.9 ppg) - as a problem, but Steve Fisher has overcome scoring departures in the past to produce big seasons.

Three times in his coaching career Fisher has had his top two scorers depart, but all three times he has led his team back to the postseason the following year.

In the 1990-91 season, Fisher lost his entire starting five, including Rumeal Robinson and Terry Mills, off a squad that went 23-8 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. That season, Fisher guided his squad to the NIT.

In 1994-95, Fisher overcame the losses of Jalen Rose and Juwan Howard to put the Wolverines in the NCAA Tournament.

Most recently, in 1995-96, Fisher lost Ray Jackson and Jimmy King but still put together a 20-win season and guided Michigan to the NCAA Tournament.

The Great Turnaround

Steve Fisher and the Aztecs' journey from perennial basement dweller to NCAA Tournament team is made all the more remarkable by the speed at which the turnaround was achieved.

Just three years ago in 1999-2000, the Aztecs won only five games, and two years ago in 2000-01, San Diego State finished seventh in the conference.

As if going from 5-23 in 1999-00 to 14-14 in 2000-01 wasn't enough, in the 2001-02 season the Aztecs went 21-12 for the second-highest win total in the school's Division I history.

Other accomplishments of the 2002 NCAA Tournament team:

▶ San Diego State made it to the postseason for just the fifth time in the school's 33 Division I seasons. The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1975, 1976 and 1985 and to the postseason NIT in 1982, prior to participating in the Big Dance in March of 2002.

▶ The RPI is one barometer that shows the program's dramatic rise. For the seven seasons from 1993-94 to 1999-00, San Diego State had an average final RPI of

◀ - Indicates Fisher era * - as of 1/27

190. In the 2000-01 season, the Aztecs jumped to 154 in the final RPI. In 2001-02, the Aztecs jumped more than 100 positions in the ratings and ended the regular season at number 39 in the RPI, ahead of perennial powers such as Notre Dame (41), Villanova (43), Arkansas (46), Virginia (50), UNLV (51), Missouri (54), Louisville (61), Fresno State (64), Purdue (100), North Carolina (119), Seton Hall (125) and Michigan (142).

► With 21 victories last season, San Diego State posted its highest single-season victory total since the 1984-85 team went to the NCAA tournament and finished 23-8. This marked the third consecutive year, all under Steve Fisher, that the Aztecs bettered their win total from the previous season (4 to 5 to 14 to 21). The 21 victories are the second-highest victory total of the Division I era (beginning with the 1970-71 season) and surpasses the school's total in the previous two seasons combined.

► The Aztecs posted consecutive .500 or better seasons for the first time since the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons. The Aztecs, who went 14-14 in 2000-01, were 21-12 in 2001-02. Prior to the last two seasons, SDSU went 147-280 in the 15 seasons between the two winning stretches. The Aztecs averaged 9.8 wins between the 1985-86 and the 1999-00 seasons.

► The Aztecs finished league play with a 7-7 record, marking the first time SDSU finished .500 in conference action since the 1984-85 team claimed second in the WAC with an 11-5 mark. In the previous 15 seasons, the Aztecs averaged 3.9 league wins. After finishing no better than sixth place in a conference (Western Athletic or Mountain West) since the 1984-85 campaign and having an average finish of 7.7 in the previous 16 seasons, the Aztecs claimed a share of fourth place in the MWC in 2001-02.

► San Diego State set a school record in the 2001-02 season in both total home attendance (92,475) and average home attendance (6,165). In 15 home games, San Diego State shattered the previous school record for highest average, set back in 1981-82 when SDSU averaged 4,824. The 2001-02 average was a 36.1 percent increase over the previous season and a remarkable 135.4 percent increase over Steve Fisher's first season (1999-2000).

► The success on the court has generated media coverage unparalleled in the program's history. The Aztecs made a school-record 25 appearances on live television during the 2001-02 season, a marked increase over the year before Fisher's arrival, the 1998-99 campaign, when SDSU was on television nine times. In addition, San Diego State made the first two network television appearances in the program's history. In 2002-03, the SDSU regular-season schedule includes 20 live television appearances.

► Below is a look at the Aztecs' records since the start of the 2000-01 campaign. The record on the right shows how many games it took San Diego State to win the same number of games prior to the 2000-01 season.

Sometimes there are no adjectives. Sometimes the phrases don't do justice. Sometimes you just stick with the basic facts and let them tell the story.

A five-win season followed by a 14-win season. A 14-win season followed by 21 wins, a conference championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In three short seasons, Steve Fisher has changed the outlook, fortunes and expectations of San Diego State basketball. The Aztecs have been transformed from the ugly duckling that muddled through the first-ever Mountain West Conference campaign with an 0-14 record into a conference champion. It is a school that now regularly goes toe-to-toe with the West's best basketball programs on the court and in the recruiting wars. It may be the new program on the block but seniority rarely matters in the changing world of college athletics.

It is now Steve Fisher's program.

When Fisher arrived on the scene, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were in place all right. The Aztecs were expected and expecting to lose. The year before his arrival San Diego State won just four games.

The hiring only dates back to March of 1999, so referring to the "Steve Fisher Era" at San Diego State might be considered a bit premature. But with the Aztec banner now flying over the Mountain West Conference, there is little doubt that San Diego State basketball has reached a new level.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at the University of Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine post-season tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. Last season he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins are second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

Played in 15 of 17 games this season, missing two of the last five contests - San Diego (3-8-03) and Utah (1-18-03)... Played 12 minutes in the last game at New Mexico (1-25-03), the most time he has logged since the Texas Tech game (1-6-03)... Had four points, three rebounds and a team-high four assists against the Lobos... Missed the game against the Toreros because he arrived late to the arena and was a coach's decision versus the Utes... Came off the bench to score four points and add three offensive rebounds in just six minutes against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Following his first DNP of the season against San Diego (3-8-03), he played 10 minutes against Air Force (1-11-03) scoring three points and adding two rebounds in 10 minutes off the bench... Prior to not playing against USD, Johnson has started the last six games at the wing position... They represent the first six starts of his career... Already set career bests this season in points, rebounds, assists and minutes played... Scored at least three points in all 15 games in which he has played this season... In 15 games he has already produced far more statistically than in his entire freshman campaign (this season vs. last season: points: 88-31, rebounds: 44-18, assists: 32-7, minutes played: 263-120)... Made a three-point field goal in five of his last eight games... Pulled down a career-high seven rebounds and added eight points in 18 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Connected on 13-of-17 (76.5 percent) free-throw attempts this season after hitting 1-of-4 all of last season... Contributed two three-pointers to SDSU's record-setting barrage of 16 treys against UCSD (12-2-02)... Has the uncanny ability to make the big play at the big moment... Last season, he got a key offensive rebound and subsequent lay-in late in the second half as the Aztecs went on to defeat NCAA Tournament-bound Hawai'i (12-14-01)... Started his first career game against Hawai'i (12-14-02)... Played 21 minutes against the Rainbow Warriors scoring six points... Made the most of his opportunity against top-ranked Arizona by scoring five points and adding four assists in 17 minutes of action.

MWC Rankings: 2nd in assists, 3rd in assist-to-turnover ratio, 3rd in steals, 5th in three-point field goal percentage, 13th in three-point field goals made, 20th in rebounding. Ranks in the top five of four different MWC statistical categories, and in the top 20 of six... Playing the best basketball of his career... Made nine of his last 16 (56.3 percent) from three-point range... Pulled down 23 rebounds in his last four games (5.8 rpg), including a career-high nine in the win vs. Utah (1-18-03)... In fact, posted back-to-back career highs for rebounds with eight against Air Force and nine vs.

Utah... Played the last week with a bad case of the flu, which has kept him out of several practices... Career SDSU ranks: 7th in assists (293), 8th 3-point field goals (67), 8th 3-point field goal percentage (35.6) and 10th in the career steals list (96)... Played 36 minutes and posted 11 points, eight rebounds, four assists and no turnovers at Air Force (1-11-03)... Played 35 or more minutes in five of the first seven games this season after failing to play more than 35 minutes in any contest last season... Averaging 31.2 minutes per contest... Already scored 141 points this season after tallying 119 all of last season when he averaged 3.6 ppg... Dished out seven assists against IPFW marking the fourth time this season he has had seven or more assists in a game this season... Made a three-point field goal in the first eight games of the season and is 24-of-54 from three-point range this season (44.4 percent)... Led San Diego State in scoring for just the second time in his career, posting a season-best 16 points and adding a game-high eight assists against top-ranked Arizona (12-7-02)... Won the head-to-head battle with pre-season All-American choice Jason Gardner (1-10 FGs, nine points, six assists) in that contest... Pulled down seven rebounds in the game at Cal Poly (11-30-02)... Recorded his 300th career assist and his 100th career steal earlier this season... Worked incredibly hard during the off-season resulting in a stronger, leaner, more efficient point guard... Lost 16 pounds over the summer and begins a season healthy for the first time in his San Diego State career (separated shoulder his sophomore season and shin splints his junior season)... Six double-digit scoring games this season, 21 in his career... Led SDSU in assists 10 times this season and 28 times in his career... Led Aztecs in rebounding twice this season and four times in his career.

Los Angeles, Calif. (Westchester High/Syracuse Univ.)

MWC Rankings 2nd in assist-to-turnover ratio, 5th in assists, 6th in scoring, 14th in free throw percentage, 20th in rebounding. Co-captain of the 2002-03 Aztecs... Each of his first three collegiate seasons has resulted in a 20-win season and a trip to the NCAA tournament... Became the first player in Mountain West Conference history last season to rank in the league's top 10 in scoring and assists and the top 20 in rebounding in the same season... Ranks in the top 20 of five MWC statistical categories... Regularly faces the opponents' top offensive threat... Last Saturday at New Mexico (1-25-03) he overcame the flu to connect on 6-of-9 shooting en route to 14 points, while holding Ruben Douglas, the nation's third leading scorer, to 4-of-17 shooting from the floor... Produced his third 20+ scoring game of the season and the 14th of his career when he scored 25 points against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... His games against the Lobos and Cougars is the latest in a string of quality games the senior has put together... Tied for team-high honors with 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting and added five rebounds and two assists vs. Utah (1-18-03)... Had 11 points, five rebounds and three assists in 35 minutes of action at Air Force (1-11-03) after a great all-around game with 17 points, eight assists and six rebounds in the victory over USD (1-8-03)... Scored a season high 29 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... Scored his 1,000th career point against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... In that same game against the Owls, he recorded his 250th career assist... Now has 1,138 career points, 782 have come while a member of the Aztecs... Started 49 of 50 games on the Mesa since transferring from Syracuse (one non-start was senior night last season when coach Fisher started the five seniors)... Has 41 assists in his last 10 games (4.1 apg)... Team rankings: first in minutes (57.2), first in scoring (15.5), second in assists (3.6) and third on the squad in rebounds (6.2 total)... Made 64 of his last 132 FGs (48.5 percent) after connecting on just 30 of his first 83 (36.1 percent)... Shooting 52.4 percent from the floor in four Mountain West Conference games... Hit a trey in his final attempt against USD (1-8-03) to snap an 0-for-13 from three-point range in the last five-plus games after making 11 of his first 26 attempts (42.3 percent) from three-point range... Now made four of his last eight from three-point range... Led SDSU in scoring a team-high 10 times this season and 19 times in his career... Six times this season and 20 times in his career he has been SDSU's assist leader in a game... Has 14 double-digit scoring games this season and 59 in his career.

Laguna Beach, Calif. (Laguna Beach High/ Univ. of Arizona)

Had started four games against San Diego (1-8-03), at Air Force (1-11-03), vs. Utah (1-18-03) and vs. Brigham Young (1-20-03), but came off the bench at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Those four starts represent the first four starts of his career... Played a season-low eight minutes, connecting on 1-of-2 field goal attempts against New Mexico... Prior to that game, he suffered his first scoreless game as a member of the Aztecs, grabbing one rebound in 14 minutes of action against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Had a career-best 35 minutes against Utah (1-18-03) which resulted in four points and a career-high seven rebounds against the Utes... Scored three points and added six rebounds in 20 minutes of action against San Diego... Returned from a one-game hiatus due to the flu with a strong performance against Texas Tech (1-6-03)... Played 22 minutes, with five points, two rebounds, two steals, one assist and two blocked shots against the Red Raiders... Continues to play better and is becoming more efficient as his game experience increases at San Diego State... Missed the first six games of the season due to the NCAA's 4-2-4 transfer rule... In his first three games at San Diego State his playing time increased (16-18-21), his point production increased (4-6-11) and his rebound total increased (2-4-4)... That trend changed slightly in the Aztecs blowout victory against IPFW (12-30-02), when he scored three points, tied a career-high with five rebounds and added two assists in 19 minutes of action... Scored 11 points in 21 minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... The 11 points tied a career high in 21 minutes... Played 16 minutes in his debut against Hawai'i (12-14-02) and scored four points while adding two rebounds and two assists... As an example of his all-around abilities, Hanour recorded a basket, a rebound, an assist and a blocked shot in his first 100 seconds on the court... Was a projected to be a starter at Arizona last season before electing to transfer... Reunited with high school teammate Chris Manker after competing against him in the Pac-10 while at Arizona and Manker was at Oregon State.

MWC Rankings: 8th in three-point field goals made, 13th in three-point field goal percentage. Coming off his worst shooting performance of his career... Made just 1-of-7 three-point field goal attempts at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Despite struggling from the field, the freshman did contribute three rebounds in 26 minutes of action, his second highest playing total of his career... Although his college career has consisted of just 17 games, his shooting skills are already the stuff of legend... A redshirt freshman, Sir's shooting skills reached near legendary status last season through his practice shooting... At the first team workout this season he connected on 99-of-100 free throws... Earlier this season, he capped a two-and-a-half hour practice by making 23 consecutive three-point field goals (he had to make 10 straight to keep the team from running)... He capped another practice last month by making 42 straight free throws... Before the season started, Sir tried to make 300 three-pointers outside of practice... Regularly the first person on the court and nearly always is the last one to leave... Played very well of late with four multiple trey games in his last six games... Recorded just his second scoreless game of the season against Utah (1-18-03), he connected on two treys en route to six points against Brigham Young (1-20-03)... Made two treys in five attempts ending the game with eight points at Air Force (1-11-03)... Had a great game against USD (1-8-03) when he connected on 3-of-6 three-point attempts en route to a nine-point, career-high tying four rebound and career-high tying two assist performance in 19 minutes of action... Broke out of a two-game shooting slump by connecting on 2-of-5 three-point field goals for six points in 18 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Added two assists and two rebounds in that contest and his 18 minutes... Made multiple treys in the first five games of the season and 10 times this season... Has at least one three-point field goal in 13-of-17 games this season... Has connected on 31-of-82 three-point field goals (37.8 percent) and on nine of his 10 free-throw attempts this season... 31 of his 35 made field goals and 82 of his 91 attempts are from behind the arc... Has committed just 18 turnovers in 286 minutes of action and is averaging one foul per 20.4 minutes of court time... Has a three-point field goal-to-turnover ratio of 1.9-to-1... Averaging 15.4 points per 40 minutes.

15 • JOHN SHARPER

Guard • 6-0 • 190 • Fr.-HS

Oakland, Calif. (St. Mary's High)

A walk-on in name only, Sharper has come off the bench to play both guard positions already this season... Recruited originally to back-up Moore at the point guard position, the true freshman has shown the ability to shoot the ball as well as the skill to play the two-guard spot... Has played in 15 of 17 games this season, his only DNP's were - at Air Force (1-11-03) and Arizona (12-7-02)... Has played 11 or more minutes in five of the last seven games in which he has played, including a career high 16 minutes against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03) and is coming off 14 minutes of action at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Had three points, two rebounds, one assist and no turnovers in 14 minutes against the Lobos... Has two turnovers in the last 81 minutes of action covering six games... Has played in 10 games in which he has not turned the ball over... 18 of his 21 field goal attempts this season are from three-point range, connecting on 10 total - including nine three-pointers... Made a three in six of the last eight games and in eight of the last 12 games in which he has played... Made a three in his only attempt from the field in seven minutes against Utah (1-18-03)... Scored a point and added an assist with no turnovers in 13 minutes against San Diego (1-8-03)... He scored three points, added three rebounds, two assists and did not commit a turnover against the Lions... Had three points, two rebounds and one assist in 11 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Connected on 2-of-4 attempts from three-point range in eight minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Contributed a three-pointer - his first career points - to SDSU's school-record barrage of 16 treys against UCSD (12-2-02)... Contributed valuable minutes early on when the Aztec bench was short... Just six turnovers in 121 minutes this season, one turnover every 20.2 minutes.

Inglewood, Calif. (Fairfax High)

MWC Rankings 9th in steals, 10th in blocked shots, 15th in offensive rebounding, 18th in rebounding. He is coming of age quickly after the NCAA Initial Eligibility Waiver Committee declared his eligible to play on Dec. 5, two days before the Arizona game (12-7-02)... His averages per 40 minutes: 17.3 points, 9.6 rebounds, 1.7 assists, 2.9 steals, 1.7 blocks... Foul problems kept his productivity down against Utah (1-18-03), Brigham Young (1-20-03) and New Mexico (1-25-03) as he has ended all three games with four fouls while averaging 17.3 minutes... In 15 minutes at New Mexico, he scored seven points on 3-of-4 shooting from the floor, while adding three rebounds against the Lobos... In 15 minutes he posted five points and three rebounds against the Utes while in 22 minutes against the Cougars he had two points and four rebounds... Tallied 14 points, the second-highest total of his career, connecting on 6-of-7 attempts from the field and added five rebounds in a career-high tying 26 minutes at Air Force (1-11-03)... Had nine points and seven rebounds in a career-high 26 minutes in his last game against San Diego (1-8-03)... Posted his first career double-double against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... Line vs. the Lions: 10 points, career-high 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and four steals in 22 minutes against the Lions... Recorded a blocked shot in his first five games, a streak that was snapped against IPFW, but he bounced back with three blocks against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... His four steals against FAU and LMU are the most by an Aztec player this season... Scored in double figures in four of his last nine games... Foul trouble limited his minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Scored 10 points on 3-of-5 shooting from the floor and 3-of-3 from the free throw line in 11 minutes of action against the Mastodons... That effort followed the best game of his young career when he scored 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting and added four rebounds and four steals in 18 minutes against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Made likely the most anticipated debut in Aztec basketball history against Arizona... Played 17 minutes and posted seven points, three rebounds and three assists against top-ranked Arizona... Scored his first points on a dunk off a 30-foot alley-oop pass from Deandre Moore in transition... Followed that up with a 10-point, four-rebound performance at Long Beach State (12-10-02)... An ankle sprain in the Texas Tech (1-6-03) game limited his productivity against the Red Raiders... Was unable to practice with the team until Oct. 30, when the NCAA received the initial eligibility waiver request from San Diego State.

West Des Moines, Iowa (Laguna Beach (Calif.) High/ Oregon State Univ.)

Played in the last 13 games after having to sit out per the NCAA's 4-2-4 transfer rule... Following a season-low one minute of action against Brigham Young (1-20-03) he saw 12 minutes of action at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Played 11 minutes in the three games before playing 12 at New Mexico... Posted a six-point performance in eight minutes of action versus Utah (1-18-03)... Made his first start with the Aztecs and his third career start against San Diego (1-8-03)... Played a season-high 22 minutes against the Toreros with nine points, two rebounds and two steals... Connected on 9-of-26 attempts (34.6 percent) from three-point range... Had 13 minutes against Texas Tech (1-6-03), scoring four points and adding four rebounds against the Red Raiders... Connected on a three-point field goal in eight minutes of action against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03)... Saw 13 minutes of action against IPFW (12-30-02), the most since playing 13 minutes against Arizona... Had five points and four rebounds against the Mastodons... Played in his first contest at SDSU against Arizona (12-7-02) and responded with five points and career-tying highs with five rebounds and two assists in 13 minutes of action... Followed that performance up with an eight-point game at Long Beach State (12-10-02)... In 115 minutes of action this season he has 42 points and 26 rebounds... Connected on his first shot attempt as an Aztec, a three-point field goal from the right wing... Added much needed depth to the post position for San Diego State... Twisted an ankle last month that kept from practicing for two weeks... Started practicing with the team again on Wednesday, Dec. 4, three days before playing against the top-ranked Wildcats... Reunited with high school teammate Travis Hanour after competing against him in the Pac-10 while at Oregon State and Hanour was at Arizona.

Anaheim, Calif. (Loara High)

Hard-working walk-on who has already seen action in five games this season... Has scored in each of his last two games for the first time in his career... Converted a breakaway lay-up against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03), marking the first time he has made a two-point shot in his career... Tied a career-high when he sank a three-point field goal against IPFW (12-30-02)... Played a career-high nine minutes dishing out a personal best two assists against UC San Diego (12-2-02)... Fan favorite for his work ethic, as he is know to work out after practice... Scored the first points of collegiate career on a three-pointer against Eastern Washington last season.

Carson, Calif. (Gardena Serra High)

MWC Rankings 1st in offensive rebounding, 2nd in rebounding, 2nd in defensive rebounding, 6th in blocked shots. The Aztecs starting power forward in all 17 games this season, Sanders is averaging 25.9 minutes per game... Playing the best basketball of his career... Shot 50 percent or better from the field in 11 of the last 12 games... In the last 10 games he has connected on 28-of-46 field goal attempts (60.9 percent) after connecting on 13-of-31 (41.9 percent) to open the season... Coming off a 5-for-6 shooting night en route to 10 points in 24 minutes at New Mexico (1-25-03)... It marked the fourth time this season and the sixth time in his career that he has reached double figures... Had an 11-point, six rebound performance in 19 minutes against USD (1-8-03)... Has nine or more rebounds in nine of his last 15 games and has 10 or more boards in six of the last 14 contests... Has 15 assists in the last 11 games, that surpasses what he had in his entire freshman and sophomore seasons, combined... Had a string of 11 consecutive games with a blocked shot snapped at Houston (12-21-02)... Has 19 blocked shots in 17 games, increasing his career total to 63, good for eighth place in school history... His role has increased dramatically this season due to the departure of last season's first-team all-Mountain West Conference performer Randy Holcomb and the decision of junior Chris Walton to redshirt... Had a career game when he tied a career best with 12 points and added career highs with 14 rebounds and four assists at Houston (12-21-02)... Posted a 12-rebound performance at Long Beach State (12-10-02)... Played a career-high and team-best 40 minutes in the opener against Eastern Washington, which was more than he played in any two games last season.

Game 1

Eastern Wash. 75, San Diego State 70
Nov. 23, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,183

SAN DIEGO - Eastern Washington outscored San Diego State 52-37 over the final 24 minutes to spoil the Aztecs' season opener, 75-70, on Nov. 24.

While the Aztecs shot just 22 percent from behind the arc, the Eagles connected on 8-of-14 three-point shots, including three each by Brendon Merritt and Danny Pariseau, and overcame a 10-point deficit at the final media timeout of the first half. EWU (2-1) also won the battle of scoring runs in the second half, taking a nine-point lead early and as much as an eight-point advantage late in the game while holding off SDSU's rally.

SDSU (0-1) went on a 13-3 run, propelled by five points from senior guard Tony Bland, to take its final lead at 47-45 with 12 minutes remaining. But Merritt connected on a three-pointer on the next possession to give the Eagles the lead for good.

The Aztecs closed to within 71-70 on three free throws by freshman guard Steve Sir with 18 seconds remaining, but the Eagles converted all four of their attempts from the charity stripe to close out the game.

SDSU senior center Mike Mackell scored a game-high 19 points on 7-of-11 shooting, while Bland added 16. Junior forward Aerick Sanders collected a career-high 11 rebounds.

The Eagles received a balanced scoring effort with four players in double-figures, led by Chris Hester and Alvin Snow with 15 apiece. Merritt and Pariseau each added 13 points.

A record season-opening crowd of 6,183, SDSU's 10th-largest attendance figure at Cox Arena, watched the Aztecs raise the 2002 Mountain West Conference tournament championship banner before the game.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Aztec coach Steve Fisher had a personal streak of 10 consecutive victories in season-openers snapped. It was his first career loss in 12 November home contests, including a 6-1 mark with SDSU. The loss stopped SDSU's non-conference home winning streak at 13 games, the third longest in program history and second longest in the Div. I era.

Game 2

Portland 91, San Diego State 86
Nov. 27, 2002 • Portland, Ore.
Earle A. Chiles Center • Att.: 947

PORTLAND - Portland took advantage of a foul-plagued game, converting 38-of-53 free throws to overcome a 10-point second-half deficit and claim a 91-86 victory.

The game featured 66 fouls, eight disqualifications and 89 free throws, forcing both teams to empty their benches out of necessity with each side losing three starters to foul trouble. The Pilots registered only one more field goal attempt (54) than free throw attempts (53).

The Aztecs held leads of 51-41 with 14 minutes, 13 seconds remaining and 61-52 with 11:05 left. The Pilots then scored nine straight points to tie the game at 61 and a 7-0 run gave them a 69-67 advantage.

A four-point play by freshman guard Steve Sir briefly gave the Aztecs a lead with five minutes remaining, but the Pilots converted 10 free throws over the final 4:47 to claim their second victory and send SDSU to an 0-2 start.

Portland's Casey Frandsen led all scorers with 20 points before fouling out. The Aztecs had five players in double-digits, led by Sir's career-high 18. Mike Mackell registered 17 points, Tony Bland had 15, Deandre Moore 14 and sophomore Tommy Johnson scored a career-high 13 points.

Game 3

San Diego State 65, Cal Poly 62
Nov. 30, 2002 • San Luis Obispo, Calif.
Mott Gym • Att.: 2,859

SANLUIS OBISPO - San Diego State seniors Tony Bland and Mike Mackell scored 21 points each as the Aztecs overcame a 13-point first-half deficit en route to a 65-62 victory over Cal Poly at Mott Gym on Nov. 30.

The victory was the first of the season for San Diego State (1-2) which had opened the campaign with consecutive five-point losses and marked just the third defeat in the last 15 home games for the Mustangs (1-2).

The Aztecs trailed 20-7 out of the gate and were down 36-24 with 4:29 remaining in the first half but ended the period with a 10-0 run. Mackell, who tied a career high with 21 points, tallied five points in the spurt that cut the Aztec deficit to two points at the break.

The Mustangs built the lead to nine points when Steve Geary connected on a three-point field goal with 13:08 to play. Geary tied for team-high honors with 16 points in the contest.

But the Aztecs battled back with a 16-2 run. Deandre Moore gave San Diego State the lead for good with a lay-up by Deandre Moore and capped the run on a Tony Bland jumper.

San Diego State sealed the victory by making 4-of-5 free throws in the final 56 seconds of the contest.

The Aztec senior class of Bland, Mackell and Moore accounted for 52 points, 20 rebounds and eight assists in the contest. The trio accounted for 26 of San Diego State's 31 second-half points.

San Diego State won despite just shooting 34.9 percent from the field marking just the fifth time in the Steve Fisher era the Aztecs have won a game shooting less than 40 percent from the field.

The Aztecs made up for the rough shooting night by out-rebounding the Mustangs 43-38 and holding Cal Poly to 37.5 percent shooting from the field.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Mike Mackell tied a career high with 21 points, he scored 21 points in the Aztecs victory at New Mexico (2-2-02) last season... It was the third 20-plus scoring game of his career and he has 10+ points in five straight games... Tony Bland scored a season-best 21 points, marking his 11th 20+ scoring game while at San Diego State and his 12th overall... With 14 points against Portland and 10 points vs. Cal Poly, Deandre Moore scored in double figures of consecutive games for the fourth time in his career but the first since his sophomore season... The senior point guard has never scored in double figures in three consecutive contests... Moore has 13 assists in his last two games, his highest two-game total since his sophomore season when he had 14 in consecutive games against Wyoming (11) and Colorado State (3)... His highest two-game total is 20... Aerick Sanders pulled down nine rebounds, narrowly missing his third double-figure rebound performance for his career... The Aztecs are 31-8 in the Fisher era when holding opponents below 70 points and 26-16 when out-rebounding opponents... San Diego State avoided what would have been its first three-game losing streak since the 2000-01 season.

Game 4

San Diego State 87, UC San Diego 57 Dec. 2, 2002 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 4,401

SAN DIEGO - Redshirt freshman sharpshooter Steve Sir connected on a career-high six three-point field goals and scored 18 points as San Diego State set a school record with 16 three-pointers in an 87-57 defeat of cross-town foe UC San Diego on Monday night.

Senior guard Tony Bland, who made 4-of-7 from three-point range, also scored 18 as the Aztecs won their second straight after an 0-2 start.

SDSU has won the five all-time meetings with UCSD by an average of 29.4 points.

The Aztecs came out with a flourish against their Div. II city counterparts, running out to a 21-7 lead by the second media timeout. The score was 36-24 before SDSU closed out the first half with an 11-0 run, highlighted by Sir three-pointers on consecutive possessions, over the final 1 minute, 59 seconds to take a 47-24 halftime lead.

UC San Diego never led and was harassed into 39.7 percent shooting, including 7-of-30 from three-point range, as the Aztecs held an opponent under 60 points for the first time this season. Led by junior forward Aerick Sanders' 11 boards, the Aztecs enjoyed a 44-27 rebound advantage over the shorter Tritons.

SDSU, which shot an identical 16-of-33 from behind the arc and from two-point range, broke the previous team record of 13 three-pointers and came within one of the Mountain West record of 17 treys.

The Aztecs received tremendous scoring balance, as four players scored in double-figures and nine of the 10 players who dressed for the game found their way into the scoring ledger.

Jordan Watkins and Sean Crawford led the Tritons with 15 apiece.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The victory was the ninth straight home win in December for the Aztecs... Sanders' four blocks on the night give him 53 for his career, placing him 10th on the school's all-time list... Redshirt freshman Trimaie Davis registered the best scoring output of his young career with six points, while redshirt freshman Markee White and true freshman John Sharper scored their first points as collegians on a pair of free throws and a three-pointer, respectively.

Game 5

No. 1/1 Arizona 89, San Diego State 81 Dec. 2, 2002 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 12,414 (c)

SAN DIEGO - A capacity crowd and a national television audience witnessed San Diego State supply top-ranked Arizona with its toughest challenge of the season. The Aztecs thrilled the first-ever sellout crowd at Cox Arena and served notice to the national audience by challenging No. 1 Arizona for the full 40 minutes before finally succumbing, 89-81.

For the second consecutive season, the Aztecs harassed the nation's top-ranked team throughout the game. But just as they did last year in holding No. 1 Duke to its lowest margin of victory at home, SDSU fell shy of pulling off the upset in the ESPN-televised contest.

The top-ranked Wildcats, who won their first three games of the season by an average of 35.7 points, were playing their first road game in front of the raucous 12,414-spectator capacity crowd and had trouble shaking the Aztecs' pesky effort. SDSU held a 10-7 lead after a Trimaie Davis layup with 13 minutes, 21 seconds remaining in the first half.

Freshman Evan Burns and sophomore transfer Chris Manker, who were eligible to play for the first time this season, sparked the Aztecs and ignited the crowd when they entered the game at the 12:04 mark of the first half. A half-minute later, Burns had his first points as an Aztec on an alley-oop dunk, while Manker drained a three-pointer at 10:47 to tie the game at 17-17.

Burns finished with seven points, three rebounds and three assists in 17 minutes, while Manker added five points and five rebounds in 13 minutes.

The game was tied at 21-all before Arizona took command with a 23-14 run to close out the half. Arizona, the popular preseason national championship pick, displayed its superior depth as eight different players scored during the run.

Arizona picked up in the second half where it left off in the first, running its lead to as many as 19 points. The Wildcats led by 17 with six minutes left before the Aztecs made things interesting by scoring the next seven points. However, SDSU could not climb past the 10-point barrier until there was too little time left in the final minute.

SDSU held preseason Wooden Award candidates Luke Walton and Jason Gardner to a combined 16 points on 3-of-16 shooting, but Will Bynum came off the bench to score a game-high 19 while Rick Anderson added 17. The senior trio of Deandre Moore, Tony Bland and Mike Mackell combined for 47 points to lead the Aztecs.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The capacity crowd of 12,414 was the first sellout in the six-year history of Cox Arena and the Aztecs' second-largest home crowd ever, trailing only the 13,106 fans who watched SDSU play North Carolina at the Sports Arena on Dec. 29, 1988... The game was the first match-up between active championship coaches in 2002-03, as Arizona's Lute Olson, who guided the Wildcats to their first-ever championship in 1997, gets the win over SDSU's Steve Fisher, who won the first six games of his head-coaching in leading Michigan to the 1989 title.

Game 6

San Diego State 64, Long Beach St. 55
Dec. 10, 2002 • Long Beach, Calif.
The Pyramid • Att.: 2,542

LONG BEACH - San Diego State utilized a 20-6 run early in the second half to claim a 64-55 decision over Long Beach State on Tuesday night at The Pyramid. Senior center Mike Mackell scored 17 points and senior guard Tony Bland added 11 as the Aztecs recorded their second road win of the season, marking the earliest SDSU notched a second road win in 31 seasons.

With their best defensive effort of the season in holding the 49ers to 34 percent shooting, the Aztecs won for the ninth time in their last 10 meetings with Long Beach dating to 1980.

Behind a balanced first-half effort that saw eight different Aztecs score and nine assists recorded on 12 SDSU baskets, San Diego State held a 31-26 halftime lead. Long Beach opened the second half with a 12-2 run to take a 38-33 lead, but the Aztecs capped their game-breaking run with a John Sharper three-pointer to claim a nine-point lead with seven minutes, 54 seconds remaining.

Tony Darden's jumper with 2:23 left brought Long Beach within 58-54, but SDSU scored the next five points and made enough free throws down the stretch to close out the 64-55 win.

For the second straight game, the Aztec bench recorded a season-best scoring output. Sparked by 10 points from freshman forward Evan Burns and eight from sophomore center Chris Manker, who were playing in only their second game as Aztecs, SDSU reserves outscored LBSU's bench, 25-2. The Aztecs also claimed a 38-30 advantage on the boards, as junior forward Aerick Sanders grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds.

LBSU's Darden led all scorers with 20 points, including three 3-pointers, while Kevin Roberts added 13 points and grabbed 9 rebounds.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the win, SDSU improved to 11-10 in its last 21 road/neutral games... Before the current stretch, it took the Aztecs 60 games to record 11 such victories... San Diego State recorded a victory the game after playing the nation's No. 1 team for the second straight season... Mackell has scored at least 15 points in all six games this season, while Bland scored in double-figures for the 35th time in 39 games as an Aztec... Freshman guard Steve Sir was held without a three-pointer for the first time in his six-game Aztec career... The game was a homecoming of sorts for SDSU, as 10 of the 14 players on the Aztec roster come from a 35-mile radius of Long Beach.

Game 7

San Diego State 60, Hawai'i 49
Dec. 14, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 6,138

SAN DIEGO - Behind a stifling defensive effort that held Hawai'i to its lowest point total in three seasons, San Diego State defeated the visiting Rainbow Warriors for the second straight season, 60-49, at Cox Arena. In the battle of 2002 NCAA Tournament teams, SDSU (4-3) limited the two-time defending WAC champions to 34.0 percent shooting while holding three Hawai'i starters scoreless.

Hawai'i (2-1), which has rung up an impressive 29-7 record over the past two seasons, has suffered losses in back-to-back seasons at the hands of the Aztecs. The Rainbow Warriors were held below 50 points for the first time since a 53-49 loss to Bowling Green on Nov. 21, 1999, while the Aztecs held a Division I opponent other than Air Force below 50 points for the first time since an 80-47 win over CSU Northridge on Jan. 30, 1996.

Senior guard Tony Bland scored a game-high 19 points on season-best 6-of-8 shooting, registering double-figure points for the 36th time in 40 games as an Aztec. However, Bland's best effort in the game may have come on the defensive end, as he helped harrass preseason Wooden Award candidate Carl English into 4-of-15 shooting, five turnovers and only four points after halftime.

The game was tied at 22 at halftime, as both teams struggled to under-35 percent shooting. The Aztecs scored 10 of the first 15 points in the second half, but the Rainbow Warriors fought back to take a 33-32 lead on Nkeruwem Akpan's jumper with 13 minutes, 26 seconds remaining.

The game was tied at 36 with 11:18 left before sophomore Tommy Johnson, who earned his first career start, converted a layup and the Aztecs forced three consecutive Hawai'i turnovers to spark a game-breaking 13-4 run. SDSU, which shot 60 percent from the floor in the second half, registered an equally impressive 11-for-15 from the free-throw line over the last 4:31 to seal the 60-49 win.

Senior center Mike Mackell scored 15 points, hitting that mark now in all seven games this season. Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed nine rebounds and registered a career-high three assists.

English led the Rainbow Warriors with 16 points, while Phil Martin added 14 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the win, San Diego State improved to 4-3, equalling the Aztecs' best start since the 1996-97 squad started 5-2... The 4-3 mark also equals last season's NCAA tournament squad out of the gate... The Aztecs matched their season-low with 12 turnovers while forcing a season-high 21 miscues... Sophomore guard Travis Hanour played his first game for SDSU, entering with 10 minutes, 30 seconds remaining in the first half... The transfer from Arizona connected on his first basket, a jumper from the left baseline, at the 8:09 mark

Game 8

San Diego State 71, Houston 61
Dec. 21, 2002 • Houston, Texas
Hofheinz Pavilion • Att.: 3,444

HOUSTON - Mike Mackell and Aerick Sanders recorded career highs as San Diego State rallied from an eight-point deficit to defeat Houston, 71-61, on Dec. 21 at the Hofheinz Pavilion.

The Cougars led 42-38 with 15:23 to play, but a 20-3 Aztec run put San Diego State on top to stay. The Aztecs led the final 13:09 of the contest.

Trailing by two points at the half, the Aztecs completely dominated the second 20 minutes of play, connecting on 15-of-27 field goal attempts (55.6 percent) and out-rebounding the Cougars 22-12 after intermission.

Mackell, the Aztec senior center, scored a career high 22 points on the strength of 9-of-13 field goals. Sanders, a junior forward, tied a career high with 12 points and added career bests with 14 rebounds and four assists.

Deandre Moore added 10 points for the Aztecs while Tony Bland, scored seven points and added a game-high six assists. The Senior guard now has 998 points in his career.

Houston was paced by Louis Truscott who posted team-highs with 16 points and 12 rebounds.

NOTES OF THE GAME: San Diego State improves to 5-3 overall and has won three straight games and five of its last six. SDSU plays its next five games at home where the Aztecs have posted a 14-5 record since the beginning of last season... San Diego State has won three of its first four road games in a season for the first time since the 1984-85 campaign when SDSU opened the season with victories in its first four road games. This is the first time in 18 seasons that SDSU won at least three of its first four road games of the season.

Game 9

San Diego State 91, Florida Atlantic 76
Dec. 28, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,566

SAN DIEGO - Evan Burns produced the breakout game of his young collegiate career, scoring a game-high 21 points, and Mike Mackell added 20 as the Aztecs ran their win streak to four straight with a 91-75 win over Florida Atlantic at Cox Arena.

In matching its best start in six seasons at 6-3, SDSU scored its most points since a 93-78 upset of No. 21/16 Fresno State last season. The Aztecs, playing the first contest of a five-game homestand, also reeled off 51 first-half points, the most since 57 points in the first half of a win over UC San Diego last season.

Burns matched his previous high of 10 points with 10 minutes, 54 seconds remaining in the first half. Despite playing only 18 minutes, the freshman forward became the only current Aztec to produce a 20-point game in his freshman season.

Mackell scored 16 of his 20 points in the first half, including a three-point play with 11:34 left in the first stanza that gave the Aztecs the lead for good against their fellow 2002 NCAA Tournament opponent.

SDSU controlled the up-and-down game with its defensive pressure, forcing the Owls into almost as many turnovers (26) as made field goals (27). The Aztecs also held a 20-attempt advantage at the free throw line, converting 24-of-39 to FAU's 13-of-19.

Senior Tony Bland scored his 1,000th career point by connecting on his first shot of the game. He finished with nine points, giving him a career total of 1,007, and also dished out a season-best eight assists.

Chris Thomas led the Owls with 19 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: With the season-best 91-point outburst, three Aztecs set career scoring marks. In addition to Burns' career-high 21 points, sophomore Travis Hanour set his SDSU high and matched his career high with 11 points and freshman John Sharper produced a personal-best eight points... Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed 11 rebounds for the fifth time in six games... Sanders' effort on the boards allowed the Aztecs to out-rebound or match their opponent on the boards for the eighth time in nine games this season.

Game 10

San Diego State 74, IPFW 58
Dec. 30, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,094

SAN DIEGO - The Aztecs ran out to a 10-0 lead and led by as many as 29 points in cruising to a 74-58 victory over IPFW at Cox Arena.

SDSU ran its season-best winning streak to five games in improving to 7-3, equaling its best record after 10 games in the last six seasons. In posting a five-game victory streak for the third straight season, the Aztecs closed the month of December with a 6-1 record for their best record in the holiday month since the 1996-97 squad racked up an identical record.

The Aztecs left little doubt about the outcome early, scoring the first 10 points of the game on layups and follow-up shots. After the Mastodons' first basket, the Aztecs followed with a 15-2 run sparked by three-pointers from three different players. All five SDSU starters had scored by the first media timeout and nine different Aztecs entered the scoring column by the second media break.

The Aztecs put up 45 points in the first half, their third-most prolific scoring first period of the season, despite having only two players (Tony Bland and Evan Burns) with as many as seven points. The 24-point lead at the half (45-21) was the Aztecs' largest of the season. At the same time, SDSU set a season-low for points allowed in a half by holding the Mastodons to just 21 first-half points thanks to 14 forced turnovers.

After leading by 29 at one point in the first half, the Aztecs built their second-half lead to as many as 28 points before settling for the 16-point margin, SDSU's largest win over a Division I opponent this season. When junior walk-on guard Ben Wardrop scored his second career basket on a three-pointer with 34 seconds remaining, 12 of the 13 Aztecs who appeared in the game had broken into the scoring ledger.

Mike Mackell was held below 15 points for the first time this season, but he still scored in double-figures for the 12th straight time in an Aztec uniform with a team-high 11. Evan Burns added 10 points, while Tommy Johnson and Aerick Sanders each grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Jim Kessenich led IPFW with 13 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU improved to 16-5 at Cox Arena since the beginning of last season and has won 17 of its last 19 home games against non-conference competition... Tommy Johnson (seven rebounds) and Travis Hanour (five rebounds) had career-best nights on the boards as the Aztecs owned a 41-30 advantage on the glass.

Game 11

San Diego State 79, Loyola Marymount 69 Jan. 3, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 5,269

SAN DIEGO - Senior guard Tony Bland scored an Aztec season-high 29 points as San Diego State overcame a seven-point second-half deficit to win its sixth straight, 79-69, over Loyola Marymount at Cox Arena.

The win, coming in head coach Steve Fisher's 100th game at the helm of the Aztec program, extends SDSU's victory streak to six straight and matches the squad's best run since the 2000-01 season. At 8-3, the Aztecs have equaled their best start since the 1996-97 campaign.

Bland, who had been held to single-digit scoring in the three previous games for the first time in his Aztec career, connected on four of his first five shots and hit his first two free throws to reach the 10-point mark with 12 minutes, 42 seconds remaining in the first half. He hit a pair of free throws with 2:01 left in the first period to reach his previous season high of 21 points. The senior from Los Angeles was the only Aztec with more than four points at intermission.

Bland's offensive prowess kept SDSU in the game, as a 15-point first-half performance by Keith Kincade had propelled the Lions to a 39-35 halftime lead.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as seven points in the second half, but senior center Mike Mackell, who was held scoreless in the first half, tallied 13 points after intermission as the Aztecs mounted their comeback.

With the visitors ahead by three, 60-57, with 8:55 left, freshman Evan Burns, who registered his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds, hit a jumper to pull the Aztecs within one. Following a Kincade turnover, Mackell converted a layup to give the Aztecs the lead for good, 61-60. SDSU then closed out the game by hitting its free throws on a 25-11 run to earn its third victory of the season after trailing at the half.

Junior forward Aerick Sanders scored in double-digits for the fourth time in his career with 10 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

Kincade led the Lions with 22 points on 8-of-12 shooting and a perfect 5-for-5 effort from the line.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU closed out the Lions with its proficiency from the free-throw line, shooting a season-best 83.3 percent on 25-of-30 shooting from the charity stripe... Freshman guard Steve Sir hit both of his free throws, his first attempts since the second game of the season against Portland Nov. 27, and is a perfect 9-for-9 from the line this year... Junior guard Ben Wardrop, whose brother Wes scored five points in 17 minutes for LMU, entered the game with 13.5 seconds remaining and converted his third career basket, a layup with half a second left, to finalize the score at 79-69.

Game 12

No. 23/21 Texas Tech 75, San Diego State 63 Jan. 6, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 23/21 Texas Tech held the Aztecs scoreless over the first six minutes, three seconds of the second half and broke open a four-point halftime lead with a 10-0 run en route to snapping San Diego State's six-game win streak with a 75-63 win on Big Monday at sold-out Cox Arena.

The Aztecs had their longest win streak since the 2000-01 team also won six straight ended before a capacity crowd of 12,414, SDSU's second second sellout this season and in the six-year history of Cox Arena.

The Red Raiders used an 11-0 free-throw advantage, thanks to 12 first-half fouls whistled against SDSU opposed to six for Texas Tech, to offset the Aztecs' 6-of-13 three-point shooting in the first half in taking a 42-38 halftime lead. Kasib Powell picked up the Red Raiders' scoring slack for teammate Andre Emmett, who was held in check in the first half by the Aztecs with only four points, and scored 19 of his 22 points in the first 20 minutes.

After being down eight points with three minutes, 14 seconds left in the first half, SDSU pulled within one point with just under two minutes left and thanks to six straight points by Tony Bland, the Aztecs closed out the period by outscoring Texas Tech 13-9. However, the Red Raiders forced seven turnovers in their game-breaking and second-half opening 10-0 run and then never let SDSU come within 10 points the rest of the way to close out their fifth straight win.

In shooting a perfect 8-of-8 while propelling Texas Tech to a 16-2 point advantage from the free-throw line, Nick Valdez scored a career-high 21 points and grabbed nine rebounds. He also had four of Texas Tech's 16 steals as the Red Raiders harassed the Aztecs into a season-worst 24 turnovers.

Bland sank six of his last nine shots while producing a team-high 13 points. Mike Mackell added 11 points, reaching that scoring mark for the 12th straight time this season.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU coach Steve Fisher and Texas Tech coach Bob Knight, former Big Ten rivals at Michigan and Indiana, respectively, met for the 18th time with Knight improving to 12-6... The Aztecs lost for the first time in six outings when Aerick Sanders, Mackell, Tommy Johnson, Bland and Deandre Moore made up the starting lineup... The Aztecs were out-rebounded for only the second time this season, 36-31.

Game 13

San Diego State 78, San Diego 72 Jan. 8, 2003 • San Diego, Calif. Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 8,078

SAN DIEGO - The 2002-03 edition of the city showdown went to San Diego State, which jumped out to a 17-point lead and held on down the stretch to defeat San Diego, 78-72.

In winning their ninth straight game over unranked opponents in a season for the first time since moving to Division I prior to the 1970-71 season, the Aztecs snapped a four-game losing streak against their crosstown rival. SDSU caps off the non-conference season with a victory for the third straight season and improves to 9-4 against non-MWC opponents, a record that keeps pace with the start of last season's NCAA Tournament team after 13 games.

The Toreros jumped out to an 8-2 lead after the first two minutes, 32 seconds, but the Aztecs ran off the next nine points to take a lead they would never relinquish. And despite going without a field goal for a 7:41 stretch of the first half, the Aztecs held on to their seven-point lead as they forced USD into 26.7 percent shooting (8-of-30) in the first half.

The lead was cut to four before SDSU went on a 21-8 run over a 5:42 span early in the second half to take a 17-point lead. The Aztecs converted five three-pointers over that stretch, including three in a little over three minutes by Steve Sir, to take command.

USD trailed by 10 with a just over one minute left and whittled SDSU's lead down to four over the next 34 seconds, but the Toreros could not get another shot off and suffered their fourth straight loss.

On the strength of combined 10-of-12 shooting from the frontcourt tandem of Aerick Sanders and Mike Mackell, the Aztecs shot a season-best 49.1 percent (26-of-53) from the floor. Conversely, SDSU harassed USD into a season-low 22 first-half points in holding their sixth opponent to sub-40 percent shooting.

Tony Bland led the Aztecs with 17 points and eight assists, while Mike Mackell added 15. Aerick Sanders scored in double-digits for the fifth time in his career with 11 points, while Evan Burns came off the bench to tally nine points and seven rebounds in a career-high 26 minutes.

Roy Morris led the Toreros with 22 points on 8-of-11 field goals. Subtract Morris from the box score and the Aztecs would have held USD to 16-of-50 shooting (32 percent).

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU recovered from a five-rebound deficit at the half to out-rebound its opponent, 38-37, for the 10th time in 13 games this season... Travis Hanour made his first career start and pulled down a career-high six rebounds in 20 minutes... Chris Manker made his first SDSU start and registered three three-pointers... The game was the 100th of senior Deandre Moore's career.

Game 14

San Diego State 63, Air Force 48 Jan. 11, 2003 • Colorado Springs, Colo. Clune Arena • Att.: 3,131

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Freshman Evan Burns came off the bench to score a game-high 14 points as the Aztecs opened Mountain West Conference play with a 63-48 victory over Air Force at Clune Arena.

In winning the finale of a six game, 15-days stretch, SDSU extended its longest road winning streak since 1985-86 to four games and won its school-record 10th straight over an unranked opponent. Head coach Steve Fisher earned his 50th victory at San Diego State and 100th conference victory in his career as the Aztecs snapped a five-game losing streak in conference openers and began league play with a road victory for the first time since the 1984-85 season.

The Falcons jumped out to a 12-7 lead at 13 minutes, 31 seconds in the first half, but when Burns entered the game, the momentum swung to the side of the Aztecs. The Inglewood, Calif., native, playing in his first MWC game, scored the next eight points and Mike Mackell added a layup and Deandre Moore a three-pointer as SDSU took a 20-12 lead.

Air Force followed with a 13-4 run of its own to regain the lead at 25-24, but the Aztecs outscored the Falcons 10-4 the rest of the way to take a 34-29 halftime lead. After the first 5:50 of the second half, the Falcons never came closer than six points the rest of the way as the Aztecs held the nation's fifth-ranked three-point attack to 1-of-12 second-half shooting from behind the arc and 38.5 percent field goals for the game.

Senior guards Moore and Tony Bland led the way as the Aztecs shot a season-best 57.5 percent from the field, including 45.5 percent (5-of-11) from three-point range, and hit all 12 free throws. Moore tallied 11 points, a career-high eight rebounds, four assists, three steals and no turnovers in 36 minutes, while Bland added 11 points, five rebounds and three assists.

Mackell scored 10 points and Burns grabbed five rebounds to go along with his 14 points on 6-of-7 shooting.

Tim Keller led the Falcons with 13 points.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU has won six of its last seven conference games and nine-of-10 overall against MWC opponents (counting the 2002 MWC Tournament)... The Aztecs owned a 29-13 rebound advantage and registered their season-low for points allowed (48)... Steve Sir has registered multiple three-pointers in the last three games and made 7-of-14 from three-point range.

Game 15

San Diego State 58, Utah 56
Jan. 18, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 7,102

SAN DIEGO - The Aztecs utilized an 18-4 second-half run as well as clutch free-throw shooting and baskets from Tony Bland and Mike Mackell in the waning minutes to hold on for a 58-56 victory over Utah at Cox Arena.

The victory enabled San Diego State (11-4 overall, 2-0 Mountain West) to become the first MWC team to two conference wins this season, giving the Aztecs their first 2-0 start in league play since the 1995-96 season. The Aztecs ended eight seasons of futility and a 14-game losing streak to Utah (12-4/0-1 MWC) in the process of earning their school-record 11th straight victory over unranked opponents.

Utah had opened up a six-point lead, its largest margin of the game, with 16 minutes, five seconds remaining in the second half. The Aztecs then went on their game-breaking run over a 7:01 span, receiving six points from Mackell and five each from Deandre Moore and Evan Burns in the run to take a 49-41 lead with 6:27 left.

Utah responded with a 9-1 run on points by four different players to knot the game at 50. The Aztecs then called timeout and on the ensuing possession, Tony Bland hit a running jumper to put the Aztecs up by two.

After a Britton Johnsen free throw cut it to one, Mackell tipped in an Aztec miss to put the Aztecs up 54-51. Marc Jackson hit one free throw to bring the Utes within 54-52 before Travis Hanour connected on a pair of free throws to give the Aztecs a four-point lead with 1:21 left.

A Nick Jacobson layup and an Aztec turnover gave the Utes the ball down by two points with 27 seconds remaining, but Johnsen's three-pointer rimmed out and SDSU's Aerick Sanders grabbed the rebound and made both free throws to give the Aztecs a four-point lead with six seconds left. Tim Frost's follow shot at the buzzer finalized the score at 58-56.

SDSU has now won 7-of-8 conference games and 10 of its last 11 games against conference opponents (counting the 2002 MWC Tournament).

Mackell and Bland, who helped hold Utah leading scorer Nick Jacobson (12.9 ppg) to 4-of-16 shooting, led the Aztecs with 13 points each. Moore and Hanour each recorded career-high rebounding totals of nine and seven, respectively.

Johnsen scored a game-high 16 points and Frost added 15 for the Utes.

NOTES OF THE GAME: The 56 points allowed were the Aztecs fifth-fewest given up to a MWC opponent... SDSU is 19-6 (76 percent) over its last 25 games, with three losses coming to nationally ranked opponents.... The Aztecs won the rebound battle, 38-30, out-rebounding their opponent for the 12th time in the last 14 games.

Game 16

Brigham Young 80, San Diego State 69
Jan. 20, 2003 • San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl • Att.: 8,497

SAN DIEGO - BYU opened the game with a three-point barrage, connecting on its first seven attempts from beyond the arc, to claim the MWC's second conference road victory of the season 80-69 over San Diego State at Cox Arena. Brigham Young (13-4 overall/2-0 MWC) finished with 10 three-pointers, including five by Mark Bigelow, to hand SDSU (11-5/2-1) its first conference loss of the season.

The Aztecs had a four-game regular-season conference winning streak snapped and a Division I school-record 11-game win streak over non-ranked opponents ended. Despite the loss, SDSU is off to its best start in six seasons going back to the 1996-97 team which also won 11 of its first 16 and started 2-1 in league play.

BYU shot a season-high 48.9 percent by an Aztec opponent this season, propelled by an 11-for-16 start from the floor in running out to a 30-11 lead with 9 minutes, 28 seconds remaining. Of the Cougars seven three-pointers during the stretch, Terry Nashif, who entered the game with a total of five three-point field goals in averaging 2.7 points per game, had three en route to a career-high 11-point night.

Sparked by 12- and 11-point first-half efforts from seniors Tony Bland and Mike Mackell, respectively, SDSU scored the next seven points and had cut the Cougars lead to 41-31 at half-time.

The Aztecs continued to chip away at the lead, whittling the margin to six points on a Steve Sir (six points) three-pointer with 15:16 left and seven on two other occasions, but Travis Hansen scored eight of his 14 points over the last nine minutes and the Cougars hit 18-of-20 free throws down the stretch to close out the victory.

Bland scored a game-high 25 points, his second 20-plus point performance of the season, while Mackell finished with 18. Junior Aerick Sanders grabbed 11 rebounds as the Aztecs matched or out-rebounded the opponent for the 14th time in 16 games.

Bigelow led the victors with 21 points, while

Hansen scored 12 of his 14 points in the second half.

NOTES OF THE GAME: Despite the loss, SDSU has still won 10 of its last 12 games against MWC teams, including 7-of-9 league games and three straight in the 2002 MWC tournament... The Aztecs had their longest January win streak (three games) in 18 years ended... The crowd of 8,497 was the fifth-largest in Cox Arena history.

Game 17

New Mexico 66, San Diego State 62 Jan. 25, 2003 • Albuquerque, N.M. The Pit/Bob King Court • Att.: 15,003

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - New Mexico thwarted a late Aztec rally and used significant advantages from the free-throw line and three-point range to send San Diego State to its second straight conference loss, 66-62, at The Pit/Bob King Court.

SDSU (11-6/2-2 MWC) suffered its second consecutive MWC loss after winning seven of its last eight conference games and 9-of-10 games overall. It was also the second straight loss to an unranked team after an NCAA Division I school-record 11-game win streak over nonranked foes. The loss snapped a four-game road winning streak, the second-longest such streak in the Aztecs' Div. I era.

The Lobos (7-9 overall/1-2 MWC) outscored the Aztecs 19-4 from the free-throw line and 27-12 from behind the arc, large margins that helped withstand SDSU's 55.1 percent shooting and 16-4 run going into the waning moments of the game. After leading 37-30 at halftime, New Mexico had built a 59-46 margin with 8 minutes, 56 seconds remaining on one of Javin Tindall's career-high five three-pointers.

The Aztecs then responded with 10 straight points over the next four-plus minutes, highlighted by four Tony Bland points and three-pointers from Steve Sir and Evan Burns.

Another Tindall three-pointer put the Lobos up 63-58, but Mike Mackell scored the game's next four points to get the Aztecs within one at 63-62 with 46 seconds remaining, the closest SDSU had been since midway through the first half.

The Aztecs regained possession and had a chance to take the lead, but Mackell's pass from the right side went through Burns' hands on the left baseline and out of bounds. New Mexico then iced the game on a Mark Walters break-away lay-up and Walters' steal of the subsequent full-court inbounds pass and free throw.

Bland led the Aztecs in scoring for the third straight game and 10th time this season with 14 points. Mackell and Aerick Sanders each scored 10 points, while Deandre Moore and Burns, in 15 second-half minutes, both added seven.

Ruben Douglas, the NCAA's fourth-leading scorer at 25.7 points per game, totaled a game-high 21 points but was held below his average and harassed into 4-of-17 shooting thanks to an SDSU defensive effort led by Bland. Douglas picked up nearly half of his points at the free-throw line, where he went 10-of-10 as part of the Lobos' 19-for-24 effort from the charity stripe. Tindall (17 points) and Williams (13) were the Lobos' other double-digit scorers.

NOTES OF THE GAME: SDSU lost despite shooting better than 50 percent (55.1 percent) for the second time this season... The Aztecs were out-rebounded (24-25) for only the third time in 2002-03... UNM was whistled for only 12 fouls compared to SDSU's 21.
