$ CAA Tournament
& NCAA Tournament

GAME 35 NO. 12 CHARLESTON (31-3, 16-2) vs. NO. 5 SAN DIEGO STATE (24-9, 12-6)

STORYLINES

- Charleston enters the first round of the NCAA with 31 wins under their belt. The program finished the regular season with an overall record of 28-3 to lead the nation in wins at the time with a 16-2 conference record.
- The Cougars won the CAA title in a thrilling 63-58 win over UNCW on Tuesday, March 7 in Washington, D.C. Charleston trailed at the half of both the semifinal and final contests after earning the No. 2 seed in the tournament.
- Charleston has not lost a game in which they trail at the half all season (6-0).
- This is the Cougars first appearance in March Madness since 2018 when Charleston fell in a 62-58 heartbreak vs. Auburn in San Diego.
- Ryan Larson scored a career-high 23 points in the championship game on his way to being named the tournament's MVP. Ante Brzovic also earned a spot on the All-Tournament. In comparison, Charleston's leading scorer Dalton Bolon was held to zero points in the title game.
- Larson and Bolon have both been named finalists for the Lou Henson National Player of the Year. The award is presented annually to the top mid-major player in Division I college basketball.
- Pat Kelsey, in just his second year of leading the program, was named to the Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year late season watch list.
- Other notables from the season so far include winning the Charleston Classic, winning the regular season crown and being the only team to have three players named CAA Player of the Week (Larson, Bolon, Robinson III).

KELSEY BIO

Pat Kelsey was named the 25th all-time head men's basketball coach at the College of Charleston on March 25, 2021.

The fifth all-time winningest coach in the history of the Big South Conference, he resurrected the proud basketball tradition at Winthrop University, averaging 20.7 wins per season over the last nine years in Rock Hill, S.C. No other Big South program can tout more wins overall or more conference wins in that time span.

Kelsey, 45, will lead yet another tradition-rich basketball program as College of Charleston ranks seventh all-time (.685) among the winningest programs in NCAA Division I history with the likes of Kentucky (.762), North Carolina (.735), Kansas (.727), Duke (.710), UCLA (.688) and UNLV (.687).

The 2021 Big South Conference Coach of the Year most recently guided the Eagles to a 23-2 campaign, a school-record 21-game win streak and Big South tournament title, earning the league's automatic NCAA Tournament bid for a third time under his watch.

The brand of basketball that Kelsey instilled in the Eagle program was an exciting one as it gained national recognition receiving votes in both The Associated Press and Coaches Top 25 Polls. The Eagles also ranked as high as No. 2 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll and led the conference in scoring offense, averaging 78.9 points per game, which ranked No. 31 nationally.

A two-time finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and finalist for the 2021 Jim Phelan Coach of the Year Award, Kelsey compiled a 186-95 (.662) overall record and an impressive 110-46 (.705) mark in conference play. Winthrop also won the Big South regular-season title four times – in 2016, 2017, 2020 and 2021.

In all, 16 Winthrop players were selected all-conference, while three were tabbed Big South Player of the Year, one Big South Freshman of the Year and two Big South Tournament Most Valuable Player.

His previous coaching stops include his alma mater Xavier (2009-12), where he served as Associate Head Coach under Chris Mack as well as Wake Forest, where he served as Assistant Coach (2004-09) and Director of Basketball Operations (2001-04) under Dino Gaudio and the late Skip Prosser.

Kelsey graduated cum laude in 1998 from Xavier University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing. He began his collegiate playing career at the University of Wyoming, before transferring and playing three seasons at point guard for the Musketeers from 1995 to 1998.

Originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, Kelsey and his wife, Lisa, have three children: Ruthie, Caroline and Johnny.

BATTLE TESTED

- Charleston opened the season playing six straight programs that participated in 2022 March Madness (Chattanooga, #1 North Carolina, Richmond, Davidson, Colorado State, Virginia Tech). The team now has six victories over qualifiers to last year's tournament (Delaware)
- All seven of the opposing teams the Cougars opened the season with (Kent State) were rated higher than the Cougars in the KenPom ratings.

RECEIVING RECOGNITION

- The Cougars have been rewarded for their efforts earning the program's first AP Top 25 ranking since 2002
- Charleston has won 31 total contests with 20 consecutive victories and ranks in the top two winning percentages in the nation.
- CofC was the fastest team in the country to reach twenty, twenty-five, and thirty wins this season.

SIGNING DAY SUCCESS

- The Cougars are bringing in the 40th ranked 2023 class by 247sports.com with the signings of Isaiah Coleman, James Scott and Mayar Wol.
- 247sports.com has Coleman ranked 58th in the class with Wol at 163rd to make up the top mid-major recruiting class in the country.
- Kelsey on the 2023 class - "Our vision of building an elite program starts with elite talent. The talented core group of players we have here now combined with this class puts us in a position to grow. We say OUR CITY because we want to do something great TOGETHER as a city and as a basketball program. Charleston took a big step with this class."

STARS ALL AROUND

- The Cougars have played a solidified ten-man rotation with nine Cougars averaging 15.4 minutes or more per contest.
- Eight different Cougars led the team in scoring (Reyne Smith, Dalton Bolon, Jaylon Scott, Ante Brzovic, Ryan Larson, Raekwon Horton, Pat Robinson III, Ben Burnham), while nine have contributed double-digit points during at least one contest. Five Cougars (Bolon, Brzovic, Robinson III, Smith and Larson) average at least 10 ppg.
- CofC currently ranks fourth in the nation in bench points (32.53) and fourth in offensive rebounds/game (13.65)
- Charleston is the only team in the CAA to boast three different CAA Player of the Weeks (Ryan Larson - 11/21, Dalton Bolon - 1/16, Pat Robinson III- 2/13)
- The Cougars had the most All-CAA representatives of any conference team with Bolon named All-CAA first team, Larson and Brzovic named All-CAA third, Robinson III earning Sixth Man of the Year, and Scott being named CAA All-defensive.

WEST LIBERTY CONNECTION

- Dalton Bolon and Pat Robinson III reunite in Charleston after playing two seasons together at Division II West Liberty, a member of the Mountain East Conference in West Virginia.
- The backcourt combo played in 54 total contests for the Hilltoppers with 37 shared starts.
- During the 2020-21 season, the two had identical made field goal numbers on the season (171) as Bolon averaged 21.3 ppg with Robinson III posting 20.4 ppg. One of the two was the leading scorer during all but two contests that season, including a matching 20 points each on 1-7-21 in a 98-77 victory vs. Notre Dame College.

POWER FROM THE PORTAL

- The coaching staff added impact experience during the off-season with the addition of three graduate transfers in Ryan Larson, Jaylon Scott and Robinson III in addition to returning grad transfer Dalton Bolon from the 2021-22 season.
- Larson, the only Division I transfer, played 120 games during a four-year career at Wofford. Kelsey on Larson- "Ryan will bring a savvy veteran presence to Our City. He's a proven winner and brings it every night on both ends with a team-first mentality and leaves it all on the floor. Ryan personifies our culture in everything he does on and off the court and will be a special part of the program."
- Last season's NAIA National Player of the Year Runner-Up Scott brings a physical presence at the guard position. Kelsey on the two-time All-American - "He can pass and score like a guard, but his size, physicality and rebounding is that of a forward. 'Versatile' describes him best for sure. Jaylon can guard multiple positions as well which is an extremely valuable skill."
- Robinson III comes from the Division II ranks. The combo guard was a two-time All-Mountain East Conference First-Team selection, a 2022 All-Atlantic Region honoree, a two-time NABC All-District selection and the 2022 MEC Tournament MVP. Kelsey on Robinson III- "He's proven he can score at an elite level and competes with toughness and tenacity every possession. He fits our culture like a glove and his leadership will impact us on the court, but more importantly in the locker room and in our community."
- Ante Brzovic is the only transfer not associated with the word grad. The 6-10 Croatian comes from Division II Southeastern Oklahoma State and brings dimension that will be a separator in the Cougars lineup. Kelsey on Brzovic- "His combination of size, skill and basketball IQ make him a very dangerous player but to me, his ability to rebound at an elite level is his separator. He presents a tough matchup for opponents with his skill set and we're looking forward to him joining this movement happening in Our City."

DECORATED CAREER ALREADY

- Kelsey, in his second season at CofC, already brings a decorated career to the College of Charleston, having compiled a 203-110 career coaching record
- In nine seasons at the helm Winthrop, he won four conference regular season titles and three Big South Tournament championships (2017, 2020 & 2021). Kelsey has coached two NCAA tournament teams (would've been three had the COVID-19 pandemic not canceled the 2020 Big Dance).
- Kelsey became the first ever Big South coach to reach 100 wins in five seasons and the second-fastest to 150 wins in league history.
- He's coached 13 all-league selections and two Conference Player of the Year winners as a head coach
- He spent two seasons as an associate head coach at Xavier and eight seasons on Skip Prosser's staff at Wake Forest prior to Winthrop.
- During his career, he's coached several players who went on to have NBA careers, including Chris Paul, Jeff Teague, James Johnson, Al-Farouq Aminu, Ishmael Smith and Jordan Crawford, among others.
