Opening Tip

- Colorado State won a thriller in Las Vegas on Saturday 82-81 in overtime. It was the program's first win at UNLV since 2017.

- Saturday's game was CSU's first time playing in back-to-back overtime games since the 2003-04 season. They played in three straight that year winning all three against San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming.

- The Rams overcame deficits of four with eight seconds left in the game and 21 seconds left in overtime thanks to Isaiah Stevens sinking a total of four 3s to help earn the win.

- Stevens finished the night with 33 points, nine assists, eight rebounds, two steals and a block. He made a career-high eight 3s in the win and forced the game-sealing turnover.

- With his 33 points on Saturday, he is now in the program's top 5 for scoring with 1,535.

- Stevens is closing in on the program's assists record with 518, 12 away from matching Ryan Yoder's mark of 530.

- Jalen Lake matched his career-high scoring with 13 points, sinking a trio of 3s. He also dished out five assists.

- CSU won the rebounding battle (39-38) for the first time on Saturday since December 11, 2022, against Peru State.

- Patrick Cartier is 10th in the nation shooting 65.6% from the field. The mark leads the Mountain West.

- San Diego State suffered its first conference loss on Saturday falling 76-67 against New Mexico at home. The loss snapped a six-game win streak.

- CSU and SDSU met three times last year with the Aztecs coming away with a 2-1 advantage. The Rams did win on their home court 58-57.

Niko Medved

Head Coach (166-142 overall, 87-55 at CSU)

10th Season Overall, Fifth at CSU

Niko Medved is in his fifth year as the head coach of the Rams' men's basketball program in 2022-23. Medved, a Colorado State assistant coach from 2007-13, has continued to show his prowess in program improvement, having led his respective squads to increased win percentage over the previous season in each of his nine years as a leader. That includes all four seasons at CSU, resulting in a 14-win improvement over four years.

This past season, those efforts and accomplishments resulted in a 25-6 record, the highest single-season winning percentage in school history, the first NCAA Tournament berth since 2013, the highest NCAA seed in program history and an amended contract that has him as the Rams' leader through 2028-29. He earned United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District Coach of the Year honors while coaching All-American and USBWA District and Mountain West Player of the Year David Roddy along with All-District selection Isaiah Stevens. The program also set a record with five sellouts of Moby Arena and the highest average attendance on percentage of capacity in the Mountain West era.

In 2020-21, Medved and his squad posted a 20-8 record that earned him 2021 Mountain West Coach of the Year from the league's media and USBWA District Coach of the Year honors. The Rams went to the National Invitation Tournament after the COVID shortened season, where the program picked up wins over Buffalo and NC State.

In 2019-20, the Rams continued their upward trend under Medved and his staff, posting an eight-victory improvement over his first year with a 20-win season. The Rams were also headed to the postseason for the first time in three years prior to the season being halted for the worldwide pandemic. As part of that season, three Rams were recognized for their play on the court, including second-team All-MW pick and the league's all-time leading rebounder Nico Carvacho and the Mountain West Freshman of the Year and third-team All-MW guard Isaiah Stevens. He previously served as the head coach at Drake University for one season where he guided the Bulldogs to their first postseason berth in six years. Prior to his appointment at Drake, he engineered considerable success as head coach at Furman from 2013-16.

As a Colorado State assistant coach for six years beginning in 2007 when former head coach Tim Miles took the reins of the Rams' program, Medved was instrumental in the rebuild of the program that saw it improve from seven wins in 2007-08 to five consecutive postseason berths, including NCAA tournament appearances in his final two seasons. As recruiting coordinator at CSU, Medved was responsible for recruiting many of the contributing players on the Rams' roster who helped return the program to prominence, a list that includes:

- Two-time All-Mountain West selection and eventual Olympian Andy Ogide
- 2013 honorable mention AP All-American and first-team
- All-Mountain West Conference choice Colton Iverson
- second team All-MW pick Dorian Green
- third team all-league and two time all-defensive team selection Pierce Hornung

- 2012 first team All-MW guard Wes Eikmeier
- 2013 MW Sixth Man of the Year Daniel Bejarano

During his season at Drake, he engineered a 10-game improvement over the previous season, including 10 wins in the Missouri Valley Conference, the most in 10 years and just the 11th time the squad had won 10 or more league games in a season. The turnaround was the 17th best in the nation this year from a 7-24 record prior to his arrival. The postseason berth in the CIT was the first since 2012 and the His squad defeated Wake Forest during non-conference play, the program's second-ever win against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent. He also had a player named Missouri Valley Scholar-Athlete of the Week seven times during the season out of 11 opportunities and had four players named to MVC Scholar-Athlete teams.

In four seasons as head coach at Furman, Medved guided the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned him Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors and saw the program earn a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. Medved's team reached the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com (CIT) postseason tournament in 2016-17, its second consecutive season in the CIT.

He spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Furman (1999-2006), including serving as the school's interim head coach in the spring of 2006. Furman registered winning seasons in each of Medved's last three years in Greenville and four of the final five seasons. He then spent one season (2006-07) as an assistant at the Minnesota under Dan Monson before joining Miles' first staff at CSU in 2007.

Medved began his coaching career at the University of Minnesota in 1992 as a student manager and assistant. He served as associate head coach at Macalester College from 1997-1999 and worked four years as an instructor at the prestigious Nike All-America camp. Medved earned his B.S. in kinesiology in 1997 and his master's in sport management in 1999, both from Minnesota.

Niko and his wife Erica have a five-year-old daughter, Aly and three-year-old daughter Taylor.

Last Time Out

Isaiah Stevens' heroics at the end of regulation and overtime helped CSU earn their first win at UNLV since 2017, 82-81 on Saturday.

The senior guard scored 33 points including four key 3s in the final 30 seconds of regulation and ot. He also forced the game-sealing turnover. Stevens added in nine assists, eight rebounds, two steals and a block to his impressive day.

The Rams finished the game with an impressive 25 assists on 31 makes and held UNLV to 38.5% shooting. But the Rebels stayed in the contest thanks in part to 31 free throw attempts, making 23 compared to just eight attempts for the Rams.

Scouting the Aztecs

San Diego State makes its way to Fort Collins after suffering its first conference loss of the season Saturday. SDSU dropped a home contest to New Mexico 76-67.

Once again in 2022-23, SDSU is known for its stout defense ranking 25th on KenPom for defensive efficiency. A key to their defensive success is forcing turnovers averaging 15.29 per game. Of those 15.29, 8.5 come via steals.

Preseason Mountain West Player of the Year Matt Bradley leads the San Diego State offense averaging 13.5 points and 4.4 rebounds a game. Teammate Darrion Trammell is the only other Aztec to average double figures scoring with 11.9 points, but a total of eight players are averaging more than 6.0 ppg.

History against SDSU

San Diego State holds a 48-43 record in the series against CSU including winning eight of the last 10. The two wins for the Rams in that span were very memorable though winning 58-57 last year in Moby Arena and recording the program's largest comeback in 2021 70-67. CSU over came a 26 point deficit in the win.

Rams Against the Mountain West

One of the original eight members of the Mountain West Conference in 1999. CSU is 416-451 all-time against current conference members. Since the conferences inception they are 220-199.

Around the Mountain West

Road teams all came away with the wins on Saturday in CSU, New Mexico, Air Force and Boise State. Nevada now holds a half game lead after San Diego State fell to UNM.

The Injury Bug

The injury bug has found Colorado State and latched on like a leach this season. Entering Saturday, CSU has had a total of 30 games missed by rotation players already. In the previous four seasons that Coach Niko Medved has been at CSU he had a total of 34 games missed. This year's number will continue to increase due to season ending injuries.

Season	Games Missed

Non-Conference Warriors

Colorado State has become non-conference warriors over the past four seasons. CSU is 30-10 in the regular season non-conference games.

Its 15-game win streak was snapped with the loss at College of Charleston.

Season	Record
2019-20	9-4
2020-21	3-1

Cardiac Rams

Colorado State has a knack for the comeback under head coach Niko Medved.

The start to the 2022-23 was no difference as the Rams erased a 13-point deficit, including being down 11 at the half for a 65-63 win. The 13-point comeback ties for the 20th largest in program history.

The three biggest comeback wins in program history have come in the past five years under Medved.

In 2021-22 CSU had four comebacks of 10-plus points including erasing a 20-point deficit in the USVI Paradise Jam Championship game against Northeastern.

CSU's rally from 26 points down at No. 23 San Diego State on Jan. 2, 2021 made history as the largest comeback in both school and Mountain West history. The win was the largest comeback win in Division I men's basketball that season and one of just five road comebacks of 26 points or more between two DI opponents in the past 10 years.

The previous largest comeback occurred just the year before against Wyoming when the Rams rallied from down 19 in Laramie.

20 win season

Colorado State has strung together three straight 20-win seasons. Last year saw CSU win 25 games the third most wins in a single season.

The three-year stretch of 65 wins is also the third best in program history.

His Time to Shine

Senior guard Isaiah Stevens is primed to shine in 2022-23. The Allen, Texas native was recognized as one of the best point guards in the nation last year as a Bob Cousy Award finalist. He is one of 20 recognized on the preseason watch list this season.

He averaged 14.7 points, 4.7 assists and 3.2 rebounds last season earning him second team All-Mountain West honors.

Stevens is on the Mountain West's Preseason All-Conference team entering 2022-23.

The start of his senior season had to wait a little, eight games to be exact, to start due to a broken bone in his foot during the preseason.

Stevens made his season debut on November 30 against Loyola Marymount and didn't disappoint. Making his first two shots he finished with 13 points, four assist and three rebounds.

It didn't take him long to return to form recording his sixth career double-double in the win over Peru State. He led the team with 24 points and 10 assists.

He reached 20 points again against Saint Mary's to lead the team with 23 points and five rebounds. His performance in the 62-60 win earned him Mountain West Player of the Week honors.

Stevens recorded his second double-double of the season with 24 points and 10 assists. he now leads the program in career points-assists double-doubles with seven.

It was Stevens heroics against UNLV that helped the Rams earn the 82-81 win in overtime. He made a career-best eight 3s including four combined in the final 30 seconds of regulation and overtime. He ended the game with a monstrous stat line of 33 points, nine assists, eight rebounds, two steals and a block.

Stevens has reached 20 points in five games this season.

He is averaging 18.8 points, 6.3 assists and 3.3 rebounds. He's shooting 47.1% from the field and 40.3% behind the arc.

Stevens is the first Ram to ever score 1,500 points, grab 300 rebounds, dish out 500 assists and record 100 steals in a career.

He is one of two CSU players to ever reach 500 assists and one of six that has scored 1,500 points.

Stevens has his eye on moving up the program's record book in a few categories.

Setting the Ton(je)

John Tonje looks to take on an even bigger role for the Rams in 2022-23. The senior was CSU's third leading scorer last season averaging 9.1 points.

He worked his way into the starting lineup in 2021-22, starting in 11 of the final 12 games.

After an impressive 19 points, seven rebounds, six steals and three assists performance in the team's exhibition, he led the Rams in scoring in the season opener.

Tonje scored 16 points including six of the team's first eight points in the second half. He shot an impressive 3-of-5 from behind the arc and drew six fouls leading to eight free throw attempts.

Tonje recorded his first career double-double in the third place game of the Charleston Classic against Penn State with 14 points and a career-high 13 rebounds.

He followed up the double-double with a 25-point game against Mississippi Valley State including going a perfect 6-for-6 from the charity stripe. Tonje also led the team with seven rebounds.

For the second straight game he reached 20 points with 23 points, seven rebounds, two steals and an assist against LMU.

Tonje became the 38th Ram to ever play 100 games for the Green and Gold on December 11, 2022 against Peru State. He put on a performance while hitting the century mark for games, scoring 19 points to go with four rebounds, an assist, a steal and a block.

He has reached double figures in 14 games, leading the team in scoring five times.

On the year he's averaging 13.3 points per game and leading the team with 4.9 rebounds.

Rivera's Growth

Isaiah Rivera was the hero on opening night for the Rams. The junior hit a pull-up jumper with 0.9 seconds left on the clock to secure a 65-63 win over Gardner-Webb.

The Geneseo, Illinois native scored 11 points, while grabbing a career-high tying seven rebounds to lead the Rams.

In the loss to Charleston he was the lone Ram to reach double figures with a career-high 15 points.

He doubled down with a second straight 15 point game in the third place game of the Charleston Classic.

The strong 2022-23 season continued for Rivera when he rest his career high once again with a quiet 19 points against Loyola Marymount. His big performance was overshadowed by the return of Isaiah Stevens and John Tonje's 20 point game.

The junior dished out a career-best six assists in the team's home win over Fresno State.

Rivera is expected to take on a bigger role this season after averaging 12.2 minutes off the bench in 2021-22.

In 2022-23 he is scoring 9.9 points per game.

He has reached double figures in 13 games in 2022-23.

Cartier by Patrick

Patrick Cartier made an instant impact off the bench for Colorado State with his 12 points, two rebounds and two assists on 5-of-7 shooting against Gardner-Webb.

He followed it up with a 17 point, seven rebound game against Southeastern Louisiana to lead the team. Cartier was a perfect 6-for-6 from the free throw line.

The Brookfield, Wisconsin native had another efficient performance off the bench against LMU. He scored 16 points in 18 minutes of play on 7-of-10 shooting.

Against Northern Colorado he averaged over a point per minute played pouring in a season-high and team-leading 23 points in 22 minutes off the bench. He was efficient in his scoring shooting 66.7% from the field including a trio of threes.

He reached the 20-point mark for the second time in the season when he scored 22 against Southern California to close out non-conference play. He shot 80% from the field and was a perfect 5-for-5 from the charity stripe.

The graduate transfer matched his CSU best scoring mark with 23 points against Air Force on January 10. He once again was efficient from the field shooting 9-of-11 while making 5-of-6 free throws.

Cartier is third on the team with 13.2 points a game while adding in 2.5 rebounds and shooting 65.6% from the field. All while averaging 20.7 minutes of play.

His 65.6% shooting is the 10th best mark in the NCAA and leads the Mountain West.

He earned his first start in the green & gold against Peru State.

Since entering the starting lineup he is averaging 15.0 points per game shooting 73.0% (46-63).

The Hillsdale (MI) College transfer has scored 1,873 points in his career. He was a two-time Division II consensus All-American.

J-Lake

Jalen Lake showed flashes during his freshman year to the fans of Fort Collins of what he can do. Now in his sophomore season, those flashes are becoming consistent performances.

The Waxahachie, Texas native scored 10 points while grabbing a career-high seven rebounds and dishing out a career-best six assists.

The next game out he hit a career-best four threes for all 12 of his points with another five assists.

After battling a shoulder injury for a couple weeks he returned to the starting line up on January 7 against Fresno State and to form scoring 11 points to go with three assists, two rebounds and a steal.

The sophomore dished out a career-best seven assist in the overtime loss to Air Force.

He followed up the Air Force performance with a 13 points, five assist effort against UNLV to earn the overtime win.

He has been a stat sheet stuffer for the Rams averaging 7.7 points, 2.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists.

It Just Meant Moors

It just meant more to James Moors against SEC opponent South Carolina. He scored a career-high 24 points while finishing a rebounds shy of a double-double. He shot an impressive 10-for-12 from the field including a pair of threes.

He just missed out on a double-double at UNLV with nine points and nine rebounds.

On the year he is averaging 6.7 points and 4.4 rebounds while shooting 55.4%.

Flashy Freshman

Thrust into action a little more than he expected due to Isaiah Stevens' foot injury, Tavionte Jackson has impressed so far.

The Las Vegas native is averaging 6.3 points per game and second in assists with 3.6.

Jackson has reached double figures scoring three times including a career-high 16 against Mississippi Valley State in his first career start.

The freshman has also led the team in assists five times. He reset his career-high with seven against Peru State.

Jackson didn't score in his return to his hometown, but did dish out six assists and grab three rebounds in the 82-81 overtime win.

Improvement Always

Head coach Niko Medved has had extensive success wherever he has coach, both as a head and an assistant coach.

As an assistant coach, he helped turn around the CSU program to improving its win totals from his first year in each successive year, ending in four straight postseason appearances.

He continued that trend at Furman and Drake improving both programs' win totals with the previous year in each of his five seasons as a head coach, finishing his last three years in post season play

In his first year at CSU in 2018-19 he led the Rams to a surpass the previous season's win totals, both overall and in Mountain West play.

In 2019-20, the Rams had nine non-conference wins, bettering 2018-19's total of five. The squad also won 20 games overall, improving on by 12 games from the previous season.

The five-game win streak during the 2020-21 season was the longest for CSU since they won seven straight in 2016-17.

In 2020-21, Medved led the Rams to their best conference record in program history with a 14-4 mark. The 14 wins were the most CSU wins in any conference in history.

The 11-game winning streak during the 2021-22 season tied for the second longest in CSU history with Boyd Grant's 1988-89 team. The 2014-15 team, lead by Larry Eustachy, won 14 in a row.

Medved is now fifth in the CSU record book in coaching wins with 87 and fourth in win percentage at 61.3%

Moby Arena Home Court Advantage

CSU has a record of 591-244 (.708) all-time at Moby Arena, including 42-9 (.824) the last four years.

2019-20's 12-4 mark had to do with some significant difference in major categories in favor of the Rams, with similarities returning in a 10-1 mark in 2020-21, tying for the fifth-best single-season win percentage in Moby.

Last year's 14-1 record at home follows a similar trend, as CSU tied for the second best home win percentage.

Colorado State had a 13-game home win streak that extended from the 2020-21 season to the 2021-22. It tied for the fourth-longest in arena history and sixth-longest in program history.

Valuing the Ball

Colorado State did a good job taking care of the basketball in 2021-22. CSU finished 17th in the nation for fewest turnovers at 10.1 per game and 22nd in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.41.

Isaiah Stevens was 51st in the nation with 4.7 assist per game and had an assist-to-turnover ration of 2.83 to rank 13th.

This year CSU is right back to that formula ranking 22th in the nation in turnovers per game at a rate of 10.7 and second in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.73.

Find the Best Shot

A key to CSU's success in 2021-22 was not forcing bad shots. The Rams led the Mountain West and ranked 16th in the nation shooting 48.0% from the field.

The Rams also led the MWC with a 35.7% mark from behind the arc.

CSU is off to a strong start doing the same in 2022-23 shooting 49.5% from the field. That leads the Mountain West and is 12th in the nation.

The Rams rank second in the conference in effective field goal percentage at 57.1%, that puts them ninth in the nation.

Sharing is Caring

Ball movement and sharing the ball are key components of Niko Medved's offense. The Rams are averaging 18.5 assists per game in 2022-23. That ranks first in the Mountain West and eighth nationally.

Good ball movement and taking care of the ball has also helped the Rams turn in the second best assist-to-turnover ratio in the nation at 1.73.

CSU had 20 assists on 26 made shots against Southeastern Louisiana and every player who saw time on the court recorded an assist.

They followed it up with another 20 assists on 29 makes against Weber State.

The Rams had its best performance of the year when they recorded 24 assists on 33 makes against LMU and turned the ball over just four times.

CSU reached 20 assists for the second straight game against Northern Colorado with another 20.

Colorado State set the program's record for assists with 35 in the win over Peru State. Ten different players recorded at least one assist in the game led by Isaiah Steven's 10.

CSU had an impressive 26 assists on 29 makes in its home game against Fresno State.

The Rams again eclipsed the 20 assist mark in the overtime win at UNLV with 25 on 31 makes.

The Rams have recorded 15-plus assists 14 times and 20-plus eight times.

Balance Offense

Colorado State has been giving its opponents fits on how to defend them with a balanced scoring output in 2022-23.

Six different Rams are scoring over 6.0 points a game, including three in double figures. The four are Isaiah Stevens (18.8), John Tonje (13.3) and Patrick Cartier (13.2).

In the win against Southeastern Louisiana, six players reached double digit points. It was the first time since 2020 that happened for CSU.

Against Weber State 10 of the 11 players that saw action scored a point with four finishing in double figures.

The Rams had six players reach double figures again against Peru State and repeated the feat of 10 of the 11 players to see action scoring.

All nine players to see action against Fresno State on January 7 scored and seven of the nine also recorded an assist in the win.

Racking up the Mileage Points

Only one team competing in this year's Charleston Classic is traveling from outside the Eastern time zone. That would be CSU.

The Rams more than double the second furthest team traveling to Charleston

Team	City	Miles
Colorado State	Fort Collins, Co	1,769
Penn State	State College, Pa	730
Old Dominion	Norfolk, Va	445
Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, Va	381

Excellence Displayed

CSU had 25 wins in 2021-22 the third most in program history and the 83.3 winning percentage is the best.

The 14 home Moby wins tied for the 10th most in a single season.

The Rams had a winning road record for just the 15th time in program history.

The Rams finished at 14-4 in conference play, just the second time in school history that CSU had 14 wins in league play. It matched the team's 14-4 mark in 2020-21.

Medved Inks Amended Contract

Colorado State University and Coach Niko Medved agreed to an amended contract that will keep Medved in Fort Collins through the 2028-29 season last March.

In addition to the amended contract CSU add to the basketball staff salary and bonuses pool.

New Faces

There are plenty of new faces on the 2022-23 roster that look to make a key impact. Graduate transfers Josiah Strong, Patrick Cartier and Joe Palmer bring college experience with them.

Meanwhile, freshman Tavi Jackson, Kyle Evans, Jack Payne and Luke Murphy aim to become key pieces early in their career.

The Future

Colorado State inked a pair of future Rams during the early signing period in Forward Rashaan Mbema and guard Kyan Evans. Mbema comes to CSU from Austria while Evans is from Kansas City.

What's Ahead

Colorado State heads north for the Border War on Saturday. The Rams and Cowboys are set for a 2:00 pm tip on FS1.
