The 2005 season was an up-and-down one for the SDSU softball team. The Aztecs started out with a terrific February and a solid March, before struggling in April in the heat of Mountain West Conference play. The young squad, consisting of 11 underclassmen and transfers, however, finished with a strong May, something head coach Kathy Van Wyk sees as encouraging heading into the 2006 campaign.

"We started out fantastic (in February) - probably better than anybody anticipated because of all our newcomers," head coach Kathy Van Wyk said. "The talent was there and the effort never died. That is probably what I'm most proud of last season."

SDSU raced out to a 9-0 record, its best start to a season in school history. Of those nine wins, two came against nationally ranked Long Beach State. On Feb. 5, the Aztecs downed the then No. 20 49ers, 3-2, at the Aztec Invitational, before winning their second meeting on Feb. 12 by a 4-1 margin.

SDSU beat another top-25 opponent in February with a 2-0 win over No. 24 Florida International in the 15th annual Campbell/Cartier Classic.

The Aztecs played well at the prestigious NFCA Leadoff Classic in Columbus, Ga., with an impressive 2-0 triumph over North Carolina and tough losses to sixth-ranked Louisiana-Lafayette (3-0) and No. 18 Oregon (3-1).

All in all, SDSU finished February with an 11-4 record, outscoring its opponents, 62-34, in the process.

The Aztecs picked up where they left off in March, winning four of five games at the Louisville Slugger Classic in Tempe, Ariz., including a 1-0 victory over Arizona State on March 5.

After some close losses to 16th ranked Florida (3-1) and No. 25 Long Beach State (2-0) at the Long Beach State Tournament, SDSU finished March with a bang, winning four of its five games in the SDSU Classic by a combined 21-9 margin.

Then the MWC schedule began and the Aztecs never managed to find the right track battling injuries and finishing April with a 1-15 mark.

"We just couldn't catch a break and had a run of bad luck," Van Wyk said. "The balls just wouldn't bounce our direction."

The team finally got into a groove as May and the conference tournament approached. The Aztecs won three of their final four MWC contests, including a sweep (7-5, 6-0) over Colorado State on May 8.

SDSU continued its hot May with a 6-0 shutout over the third-seeded Rams in the MWC tournament played in San Diego at the SDSU Softball Stadium. Following a defeat to second-seeded UNLV (4-1), the Aztecs found themselves against the wall in a must-win game versus New Mexico on May 13. Senior Cori Janelli threw nine perfect innings of relief, retiring 27 straight batters after a Lobo leadoff single, but it wasn't enough as New Mexico finally got to the Janelli in the bottom of the 13th inning to end SDSU's season, marking the first time since 2000 that it didn't play in the MWC championship game. The Aztecs had plenty of chances, but stranded 13 runners in the game.

Despite a tough MWC season, there were some positives to take out of the 2005 campaign for SDSU.

Kristen Carranza

Celena Velasquez became the first Aztec to be named to the all-MWC team and the all-MWC academic team for three consecutive years. She also won four conference pitcher-of-the-week-awards. Lacey Craft, Meagan Hartung, Erin Mahoney and Dani Sidoti joined Velasquez on the all-MWC academic team.

Velasquez led the Aztecs' pitching staff once again with a 14-12 record and 1.19 ERA. Her 1.19 ERA was 26th-best in the nation and her six saves put her eighth in the country. Of all MWC pitchers, Velasquez ranked first in ERA, opponent batting average (.174), strikeouts (211) and saves (6). She set a SDSU all-time single season record in combined shutouts (12), solo shutouts (10), strikeout to walk ratio (10.05), strikeouts, saves and opponent batting average.

Kristen Carranza arguably was the Aztecs' best hitter in the 2005 campaign, leading the team in games played (56), games started (54), runs (18), hits (45), triples (3), RBI (22), total bases (61), HBP (6) and on-base percentage (.368). She also was second on the squad in batting average (.294), at bats (153), doubles (seven), slugging percentage (.399), walks (12) and stolen bases (5).

Some of the other category leaders included Taryin Casillas in home runs (4) and slugging percentage (.410), Erin Mahoney in batting average (.301), stolen bases (10) and sacrifice hits (11), Megan McDonald in home runs (4) and walks (12) and Allison Smith in doubles (9).
