Brady Hoke - Head Coach

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Hired as the 17th head football coach in San Diego State history on December 16, 2008.

■ In his first season as the Aztecs' head coach, Hoke doubled SDSU's win total, carrying postseason hopes late into the year.

■ Was one of three first-year head coaches nationally to increase his school's win total by at least two victories over the previous season in 2009.

■ Improved San Diego State's scoring margin by 129 points a year ago. That was the largest scoring margin improvement in the Mountain West Conference last season and ranked 14th nationally.

■ Coached five all-MWC performers in 2009, including second-team selections and 2010 returnees Vincent Brown, DeMarco Sampson and Brian Stahovich. Brown was also one of 10 semifinalists for the Biletnikoff Award, presented annually to the nation's top wide receiver.

■ Also had 11 MWC All-Academic selections and four MWC Players of the Week.

■ Served as head coach at Ball State University in Muncie, Ind., for six seasons (2003-08), leading the Cardinals to a pair of bowl game appearances.

■ One of 10 finalists for the 2008 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year award.

■ Was named Mid-American Coach of the Year in 2008 and American Football Coaches Association Football Bowl Subdivision Region 3 Coach of the Year.

■ In his sixth and final year as head coach of the Cardinals, Hoke guided Ball State to its best season in program history, recording a school-record 12 wins and completing an undefeated Mid-American Conference regular-season campaign with an 8-0 mark in 2008.

■ Ball State made its' first-ever appearance in the national polls in his final year, ranking as high as 12th by the Associated Press and 13th in the USA Today Coaches poll.

■ Hoke led the Cardinals to back-to-back bowl game appearances (2007-08), the first time the feat was accomplished in school history. The 2008 team, which also advanced to its first MAC championship contest, earned an invitation to the GMAC Bowl in Alabama.

■ Ball State won its 12 games by an average of 21 points and scored a school-record 476 points, including a program-best 62 touchdowns with Hoke at the helm.

■ In 2008, the Cardinals were 11th in the nation in total offense, averaging just over 450 yards per contest. They were also fifth in sacks allowed (0.92), sixth in passing efficiency (164.4) and first in fewest penalties per game (2.77) through their first 13 games.

■ Ball State boasted the nation's No. 5 rusher in MiQuale Lewis (124.0 ypg.) and No. 13 rated passer in Nate Davis (156.97 efficiency). Davis, who was also 19th in total offense (278.79 ypg.), was tabbed the MAC offensive player of the year, throwing for over 3,000 yards for the second straight campaign and ended up as a finalist for the Manning Award, presented to the nation's best quarterback. Davis was one of seven Ball State players named first-team all-MAC and finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Brady Hoke - Head Coach

■ Quarterback Nate Davis and offensive lineman Robert Brewster were each selected in the 2009 NFL Draft with Davis going in the fifth round to the San Francisco 49ers and Brewster tabbed by the Dallas Cowboys in the third round. Brewster is Ball State's highest Draft pick since 1976.

■ In 2007, Ball State made its first bowl game appearance in 11 years, earning a bid to the International Bowl in Toronto as MAC co-west division champions. The Cardinals finished with a 7-6 overall record, including a 5-2 mark in conference action, and had four players earn first-team all-league accolades.

■ A school-record three Ball State players were selected in the 2005 NFL Draft in Justin Beriault (Cowboys), Reggie Hodges (Rams) and Dante Ridgeway (Rams). Ridgeway ended his career as the Cardinals' all-time leading receiver with 238 receptions for over 3,000 yards and 22 touchdowns in only three seasons from 2002-04. He was a second-team All-American as well as a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award his final campaign.

■ Hoke also helped tutor Ray Guy Award semifinalist punter Chris Miller, who was an AFCA first-team All-American in 2007, and a Sporting News second-team pick in 2006. Place-kicker Brian Johnson and tight end Darius Hill were both named semifinalists for the Lou Groza and John Mackey Awards, respectively.

■ Hoke's players excelled in the classroom, as Ball State posted a Academic Progress Report score of 945 out of 1,000 in 2008, ranking second in the MAC. Offensive lineman Travis Barclay twice was named a first-team Academic All-American and received the program's first NCAA postgraduate scholarship in over a decade in 2003. Overall, 10 Ball State players garnered league all-academic honors from 2003-07.

■ Prior to returning to his alma mater, Hoke spent eight seasons as an assistant at the University of Michigan, including a 1997 campaign that saw the Wolverines claim the national championship and earn a No. 1 ranking in total defense.

■ Under head coach Lloyd Carr, he served as defensive ends coach from 1995-96, defensive line coach from 1997-2002 and ended his stay in Ann Arbor as associate head coach in 2002.

■ Michigan advanced to eight straight bowl games during his tenure, posted a 76-23 overall record, claimed at least 10 games on four occasions and won the Big Ten in 1997, 1998 and 2000.

■ Hoke helped tutor three Wolverine All-Americans on the D-line, including defensive end Glen Steele and nose tackles William Carr and Rob Renes, all of whom were NFL Draft picks.

■ After stops as an assistant at Grand Valley State (1983), Western Michigan (1984-86) and Toledo (1987-88), Hoke ventured out west for a six-year stay at Oregon State, where he coached the Beavers' defensive line (1989, 1991-94) and inside linebackers (1990), before taking the position at Michigan.

■ Began his coaching career as an assistant at Yorktown High School (Ind.) from 1981-82.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Hoke was a defensive standout for Ball State as a student-athlete, lettering four times from 1977-80, and serving as team captain as a senior.

■ His junior campaign, Hoke posted 95 tackles and as a senior, he had a team-best 150 stops to rank sixth in the MAC and garner second-team all-league honors.

■ As a sophomore, he ranked third on the team in tackles and helped the Cardinals to the 1978 MAC championship with an 8-0 record, the only other time Ball State finished a league campaign undefeated prior to 2008.

EDUCATION

■ Graduated from Fairmont East High School in Kettering, Ohio, in 1977. Hoke earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Ball State in 1982.

PERSONAL

■ Hoke is married to the former Laura Homberger and the couple has a daughter, Kelly. His brother, Jon, was an assistant coach at San Diego State from 1987-88 under Denny Stolz, and is currently the defensive backs coach with the Chicago Bears.

Al Borges - Offensive Coordinator

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Al Borges has 23 years of service as an offensive coordinator at the NCAA level.

■ In his first season at SDSU, he helped the 2009 Aztecs improve in scoring, first downs, total yards, rushing yards, passing yards, time of possession and third- and fourth-down conversion percentage.

■ Under Borges, SDSU quarterback Ryan Lindley threw for over 3,000 yards and 23 touchdowns, while wideouts Vincent Brown and DeMarco Sampson combined for 1,629 yards and 14 scores.

■ As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn from 2004-07, he was a part of a coaching staff that guided the Tigers to four-consecutive top-15 finishes in the final AP poll, including an undefeated season and a No. 2 ranking in 2004.

■ Borges helped the Tigers compile a four-year record of 41-9 and post a 2-1 record in bowl games. He was tabbed the Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com in 2005.

■ In his four years as the Tigers' offensive coordinator, Auburn defeated 12 nationally-ranked opponents, including nine teams ranked in the top nine. Borges saw four of his offensive players earn All-America honors and eight players garner first-team all-Southeastern Conference accolades.

■ Twice while at Auburn, his offenses averaged more than 32 points a game en route to claiming four consecutive victories over in-state rival Alabama.

■ At Auburn, he coached SEC offensive player of the year quarterback Jason Campbell, All-America running back Carnell Williams and Pro Bowl running back Ronnie Brown. All three were first-round NFL Draft choices in 2005.

■ Borges has also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at three Pac-10 schools, California, UCLA and Oregon, and in the Big Ten at Indiana.

■ While at UCLA from 1996-2000, Borges was twice a finalist for the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year award.

■ Borges helped guide the Bruins to consecutive 10-win seasons and back-to-back appearances in the Rose and Cotton Bowls.

■ Among the high-profile players he coached at UCLA was quarterback Cade McNown, who was an All-American, Heisman Trophy finalist and first-round NFL Draft pick.

■ Coached with Aztec defensive coordinator Rocky Long at UCLA from 1996-97.

■ Served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Boise State for two seasons and spent seven years at Portland State.

■ Began his collegiate coaching career as the tight ends coach at California in 1982, followed by a three-year stint at Diablo Valley Junior College in Pleasant Hill, Calif.

■ Was an assistant coach at both Salinas High School and Pleasant Valley High School.

EDUCATION

■ Graduated from Chico State with a bachelor's degree in 1981.

PERSONAL

■ Borges and his wife, Nikki, have two children, Cole and Mady Jo.

Rocky Long - Defensive Coordinator

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Came to San Diego State in December of 2008, after serving as head coach at New Mexico from 1998-2008.

■ In his first year in 2009, helped SDSU improve defensive marks in scoring, first downs, rushing, total defense, third-down conversion percentage, fourth-down conversion percentage, sacks, interceptions and red-zone conversion percentage, among other categories.

■ Amassed the most victories of any Mountain West Conference head coach in the league's history. Was tabbed the league's coach of the year in 2002.

■ Compiled a New Mexico-record 65 victories and led the Lobos to five bowl game appearances in his final seven seasons. His teams were bowl eligible in seven of his final eight campaigns.

■ In his final nine seasons in Albuquerque, Long's defensive units ranked among the top 30 in fewest yards allowed six times and among the top 40 against the rush every year. In both 2001 and 2003, Long's New Mexico defense ranked fifth nationally in fewest rushing yards allowed per game.

■ While at New Mexico, he coached 12 players selected in the NFL Draft, 10 players who earned All-America honors since 2001 and had a MWC-high 34 first-team all-conference selections since 2003.

■ Prior to accepting the head coaching position at New Mexico, Long served as defensive coordinator for 12 seasons at three different schools. He was the defensive coordinator for two years under Bob Toledo at UCLA in 1996-97, for five seasons at Oregon State from 1991-95 and for five campaigns at Wyoming from 1981-85.

■ Coached with Aztec head coach Brady Hoke at Oregon State from 1991-94 and with offensive coordinator Al Borges at UCLA from 1996-97.

■ Also served as an assistant coach at TCU, with the CFL's British Columbia team and started his career at New Mexico as a graduate assistant coach in 1972.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Originally a defensive back, Long became a three-year starter at quarterback for the Lobos from 1969-71. He earned team most-valuable-player honors three times and was the Western Athletic Conference offensive player of the year as a senior.

■ Long played professionally in the CFL with British Columbia in 1972-73 and 1975-76. He also competed in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels in 1974.

■ Attended Alta Loma High School in Alta Loma, Calif.

EDUCATION

■ He is a 1974 graduate of New Mexico with a bachelor's degree in secondary education and was awarded an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. Long was a three-time academic all-conference pick and received the WAC Scholar-Athlete Award in 1970.

PERSONAL

■ Long and his wife, Debby, have two daughters, Roxanne and Hannah.

Jeff Hecklinski - Asst. HC/RBs/Recruiting

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Jeff Hecklinski enters his second season at San Diego State. He serves as SDSU's assistant head coach and running backs coach, in addition to his role as the program's recruiting coordinator.

■ The Western Illinois graduate joined Aztec head coach Brady Hoke at Ball State in 2004 as the team's receivers coach, before taking on added duties with recruiting in 2008.

■ Helped coach two of the most prolific players in Cardinal history in wideouts Dante Love, who ranked second in the country in 2007 in all-purpose yards (206.92), and Dante Ridgeway, who was an All-American and one of three finalists for the Fred Biletnikoff Award in 2004.

■ Before moving to Ball State, was the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Arizona in 2003.

■ Spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Central Missouri State, where he helped the team to the school's first-ever playoff appearance and bowl victory.

■ He started his career as an assistant at Benedictine in 1998, and also spent two seasons at Fort Scott Community College in Kansas.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Standout quarterback at Western Illinois, throwing for over 5,980 yards to rank second in the school's career record book. Hecklinski completed 61.7 percent of his passes (185-for-300), for 2,150 yards and 11 touchdowns.

■ Played the 1988 season in the Arena Football League for the Albany Firebirds.

EDUCATION

■ Earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Western Illinois in 1997.

Dan Ferrigno - Tight Ends/Special Teams

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Dan Ferrigno oversees SDSU's special teams and tight ends. Spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach in the Pac-10 Conference at California, Oregon, Oregon State and USC prior to joining San Diego State.

■ Helped Aztec Brian Stahovich rank 13th in the nation in punting in 2009 with a 43.8 average and earn second-team all-Mountain West Conference honors.

■ Most recently, returned to Cal for his third stint in Berkeley to coach the Golden Bear wide receivers in 2006-07.

■ With his assistance, the Bears posted a 10-3 record in 2006 en route to the Holiday Bowl championship and a No. 14 final ranking in the AP poll. That was followed by a 7-6 record and an Armed Forces Bowl title in 2007.

■ In 2006, California scored 280 points in Pac-10 play, the second-highest total in school history.

■ Cal wide receiver DeSean Jackson ranked 20th nationally in receiving yards per game and caught a Pac-10-best nine touchdowns in 2006. He ended the season with 1,060 receiving yards and earned first-team all-conference honors.

■ Prior to his work in Berkeley, Ferrigno was the wide receivers coach at Oregon from 2001-05. During that five-year period, the Ducks advanced to four bowl games aided by 23, 100-yard receiving performances.

■ Coached Keenan Howry, Oregon's first, first-team all-Pac-10 wide receiver in 16 seasons, and the Ducks' all-time leading receiver, Samie Parker.

■ As a tight ends coach, Ferrigno helped develop Tony Gonzalez while serving as his position coach at California. A first-team all-Pac-10 selection, Gonzalez was the 13th overall pick of the Kansas City Chiefs and became an NFL All-Pro tight end.

■ Was on staff with Brady Hoke and Rocky Long at Oregon State. Spent nine seasons with the Beavers, tutoring the running backs, defensive backs, linebackers and special teams.

■ Offensive coordinator at Western Michigan from 1982 to 1986, and had one-year stints at Pacific and his alma mater, San Francisco State.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Earned All-America honors as a wide receiver at San Francisco State, where he is in the Hall of Fame.

EDUCATION

■ Has a bachelor's degree in physical education (1977) and his teaching credential (1978) from San Francisco State.

Darrell Funk - Offensive Line

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Darrell Funk, a graduate of Colorado State and former assistant at his alma mater from 2003-07, is in his second season as the Aztecs' offensive line coach after spending 2008 as Ball State's offensive line coach.

■ Last season, Funk helped the Aztecs improve their offensive yardage total to 4,103 (2009) from 3,749 (2008). SDSU also showed improvements in rushing yardage and passing yardage, while allowing fewer sacks.

■ Among the national leaders, San Diego State tied for 28th in sacks against (16) and ranked 30th in passing offense (263.6 per game).

■ Under his tutelage, Ball State offensive tackle Robert Brewster was selected in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, becoming the highest Cardinal Draft pick since 1976. Brewster was also on national watch lists for both the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy.

■ Funk coached three first-team all-conference selections in his one year in Muncie, including Brewster, center and Rimington Trophy candidate Dan Gerberry and tackle Andre Ramsey.

■ Ball State ranked fourth in the country in fewest sacks allowed with just 1.0 per game, while the Cardinals rushed for 184.5 yards an outing to rank 31st nationally.

■ The Fort Collins, Colo., native spent five seasons at Colorado State under head coach Sonny Lubick, including the final four working with the offensive line.

■ Coached the Rams' special teams and tight ends his first season in 2003, after a one-year stint at Northern Illinois as tight ends coach. He also has made stops as a full-time assistant at Rhode Island (1998-2001), Mesa State College (1993-97) and Muskingum College (1990-92).

■ Began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Illinois from 1988-89 and as a student assistant at CSU in 1987.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Three-year starter at CSU from 1983-86, playing on both the offensive and defensive line and at tight end.

LeCharls McDaniel - Wide Receivers

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Begins his sixth year of his third stint on Montezuma Mesa. For the fifth consecutive year, he will work with the wide receivers after coaching the Aztec running backs in 2005.

■ Coached one of the best 1-2 receiver tandems in the nation last year, helping Vincent Brown and DeMarco Sampson earn second-team all-MWC honors. Brown was one of the top receivers in the country, ranking third nationally in receiving yards per game (129.7), seventh in receptions per game (7.5) and ninth in all-purpose yards per game (173.83), before an injury early in his seventh game sidelined him for the rest of the season. Brown was also one of just five non-seniors to be named a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, given to the nation's top receiver. Sampson, meanwhile, led the league with eight receiving touchdowns in MWC games, three more than the next closest player.

■ Tutored a pair of 2008 NFL Draft picks in Aztec wideouts Chaz Schilens (Oakland Raiders) and Brett Swain (Green Bay Packers). Swain was a second team all-conference pick in 2007, finishing 30th nationally and second in the league in receiving yards per contest (79.6). Schilens ended his career with three straight 100-yard receiving games and ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West in 2007 in receiving yards in league outings (100.7 ypg).

■ Returned to SDSU in 2005, after a two-year stay on Mike Riley's staff at Oregon State, which saw the Beavers earn invitations to two straight postseason bowl games.

■ From 1994-96, McDaniel coached the special teams and secondary at SDSU, and in 2002, he was the receivers and special teams coach. That season, Aztec wideouts J.R. Tolver and Kassim Osgood set NCAA single-season records for receptions and receiving yards by two teammates.

■ Prior to 2002, McDaniel was on the staff at California, coaching the Golden Bear special teams and assisting with the defensive backs.

■ Served as a coach and administrator with the Washington Redskins from 1998 to 2000. Was the Redskins special teams coach for three seasons under head coach Norv Turner.

■ NFL background also includes a one-year stint as the wide receivers coach for the Phoenix Cardinals (1993) and a stop with the Philadelphia Eagles as a pro scout.

■ Began his coaching career at Hartnell College in Salinas, Calif., before joining the San Diego Chargers in 1989 as assistant special teams coach. He remained with the Chargers until he returned to his alma mater, Cal Poly, as special teams and secondary coach in 1992.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

■ Cornerback on Cal Poly's 1980 NCAA Division II National Championship football team. Honorable mention All-American as a senior, a two-time team captain and finished his career with 13 career interceptions. Inducted into the Cal Poly Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

■ Spent four years in the NFL with the Giants and Redskins, where he was a part of a Super Bowl championship team in 1983.

EDUCATION

■ Received his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Cal Poly in 1981.

PERSONAL

against Utah State in 1971. He was inducted into the Aztec Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class of 1988.

- Played for legendary SDSU coach Don Coryell and was the Aztecs' leading passer in 1970 and 1971. In 1970, he directed SDSU to a 9-2 record as the Aztecs spent eight weeks ranked among the nation's top 20.

- As a junior, he was an honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press after throwing for 2,618 yards and 23 TDs.

- Sipe was once again an honorable mention All-American after he led the nation in completions per game with a 17.8 mark in 1971. In his first season on campus, he was a member of the Aztecs' undefeated 11-0 squad in 1969 that won the Pasadena Bowl.

- The San Diego native was picked in the 13th round of the 1972 NFL Draft, playing for 12 seasons with the Cleveland Browns. He compiled career numbers of 1,944 completions, 3,439 attempts, 23,713 passing yards and 154 passing touchdowns.

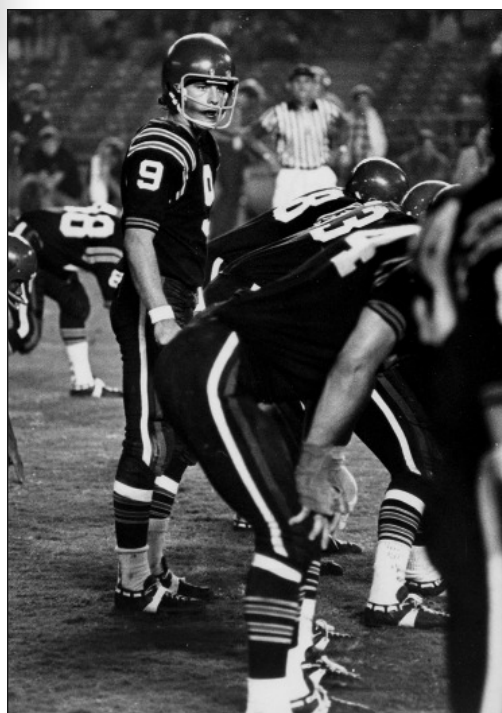

- In 1980, he earned league MVP honors and was named first-team all-pro, leading the Browns to an 11-5 record. He completed more than 60 percent of his passes, threw for 4,132 yards and 30 touchdowns en route to a league-best 91.4 passer rating.

- In his NFL career, Sipe ranked among the top three quarterbacks in passing yards three times and was among the top six in touchdown strikes on five occasions. He was inducted into the Cleveland Browns' Hall of Fame in 2002.

- Sipe continued his professional football career in the United States Football League with the New Jersey Generals and Jacksonville Bulls from 1984-85

- In 2009, helped the Aztecs rank 30th in the country in pass offense (263.6 yards per game). Sophomore quarterback Ryan Lindley threw for 3,054 yards and 23 touchdowns.

- Before returning to San Diego State, Sipe spent eight years as head football coach at nearby Santa Fe Christian High School, where he helped the Eagles to four CIF titles and a combined record of 75-21-1.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- Starred at quarterback for San Diego State from 1969-71, before embarking on a 12-year NFL career with the Cleveland Browns.

- As an Aztec, Sipe completed 436-of-788 passes for 5,707 yards and 44 touchdowns. He compiled a 15-7 record as a starter and his 68.2 winning percentage is the third highest in the school's D-I era.

- Sipe posted seven, 300-yard passing performances, the fourth-highest total in school history, including a career-best 439 yards

Mark Smith - Linebackers

COACHING EXPERIENCE

■ Mark Smith is entering his second season as the linebackers coach for the Aztecs, after spending the previous six as Brady Hoke's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Ball State.

■ In his first season on The Mesa in 2009, coached Jerry Milling to an honorable mention all-MWC selection. Milling, who had 46 tackles in his first three years at SDSU, led the Aztecs with 75 tackles in 2009, 17 more than anyone else on the team.

■ Has been a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level for 10 years overall.

■ In 2008, the Cardinals ranked 29th nationally in scoring defense, surrendering just over 20 points an outing. Under his guidance, the Ball State defense also was 28th in tackles for loss, 38th in pass efficiency defense, 55th in pass defense and 69th in total defense.

■ In his six years at Ball State, Cardinal defensive players combined to be named first-team all-conference four times and second-team all-league on six occasions. In 2008, free safety Sean Baker was named the MAC Freshman of the Year.

■ Before moving to Muncie, Smith was an assistant coach at Indiana State for 15 years, including the last two as defensive coordinator of the Sycamores, where he helped tutor six All-Americans including NFL Draft pick Dan Brandenburg.

■ Smith has prior stints as an assistant at Rose Hulman (Div. III) from 1986-87 and at Bowling Green from 1982-85, where he helped the Falcons to league titles his first and final campaigns.

■ Smith began his coaching career at Defiance High School in Ohio from 1979-81.

EDUCATION

■ Graduated from Purdue in 1979. The Richmond, Ind., native also has a master's degree from Bowling Green (1983).

From the day we pick up a ball, we dream of someday being a champion.

The Mountain West has claimed the 2009-10 Bowl Challenge Cup for the third time in six years after sending five football teams into postseason action and finishing with a 4-1 mark. For the third time in five seasons the Mountain West sent a team to a BCS Bowl game.

TCU finished the 2010 season with a 54-14 record, advancing to the College World Series semi-finals. In 2009, the MWC sent three teams - TCU, San Diego State and Utah - to the NCAA Baseball Championship for the first time in league history, as well as had the #1 pick in the Major League Baseball draft - Stephen Strasburg.

- In 2010, five men's basketball teams participated in postseason play, with a league-best four competing in the NCAA Tournament.
- In 2010, five women's teams made it to the postseason as well, with San Diego State shocking Texas and West Virginia to advance to the Sweet 16.

Colorado State, New Mexico and TCU were selected to the 2009 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championships, marking the eighth year the MWC has had at least three teams in the tournament. CSU won the league title for the third time in four years and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament.
