San Diego State Postgame Notes vs. Kansas State

Score: San Diego State 10, Kansas State 7

Records: SDSU: 5-2 | Kansas State 3-5

Next Game: Tuesday Feb. 26 vs. San Diego – 6:00 p.m. – Tony Gwynn Stadium

Notes

- SDSU improves to 5-2 this season. Both of SDSU's losses this season have come by a one-run margin.
- SDSU improves to 28-1 when scoring 10 or more runs since the start of the 2017 season.
- Julian Escobedo reached base in his 31st consecutive game, good for the longest on-base streak since Chase Calabuig reached base in 32 consecutive games in 2015.
- Justin Goossen-Brown earned his first win of the season and the sixth win of his career. Making his third appearance of the week, Goossen-Brown logged a 1.08 ERA in 8.1 innings pitched with a .111 opponent batting average, seven strikeouts, and two walks.
- SDSU's eight-run sixth inning marks as biggest single-inning offensive outburst since scoring 10 against Fresno State in the first inning on May 25, 2017.
- SDSU snapped a three-game losing streak when playing Kansas State.
- Brian Leonhardt, Jacob Maekawa, and Jaden Fein all recorded two-hit performances. The multi-hit effort for Leonhardt marks as his team-high fourth multi-hit game of the season, while Maekawa logged his second consecutive multi-hit game. With two career starts, Fein has recorded two hits in each of his first pair of collegiate starts.
