AZTECS WRAP UP REGULAR SEASON AT HOME

- San Diego State wraps up its 2003 regular season as it hosts Utah and Brigham Young in a pair of Mountain West Conference matches this weekend.
- The Utes visit Peterson Gym on Friday, Nov. 14, for contest scheduled to get underway at 7:00 p.m. Brigham Young will face the Aztecs the next evening (Nov. 15), also at 7:00 p.m.
- This weekend's matches will have implications on the seeding for the upcoming conference tournament as they will determine if SDSU will be the third or fourth seed for that event.

SENIOR NIGHT

- Saturday's match vs. Brigham Young has been designated Senior Night, and the volleyball program will honor seven players making their final regular-season appearances in Peterson Gym.
- Five of those athletes have been at SDSU for their entire four-year collegiate career: Melissa Cansdale (actually a fifth-year senior), Aspen McPartland, Megan Schaueremann, Zlatina Anguelova and Robyn Gregg.
- Two others came to the Aztecs from other four-year schools beginning with the 2002 season: Sara Engstrom and Natalie Sande.

SERIES RECORDS

- San Diego State has compiled a record of 16-12 against Utah since the teams first met in 1982. The Utes have won 10 of the last 13 meetings including a 3-0 victory over SDSU in Salt Lake City in mid-October. The Aztecs' last three wins in the series have all come in San Diego (each of the last three seasons) when the Utes were ranked among the nation's top 25. SDSU is 9-2 against the Utes' in Peterson Gym.
- The Aztecs are 15-26 in the series with Brigham Young after losing a five-game match to the Cougars in Provo last month. Last season, SDSU swept both matches from the Cougars, and in the process ended an 11-match losing streak at the hands of BYU. Brigham Young has dominated the series since 1990, winning 23 of the 28 matches between the teams. SDSU is just 8-9 on its home floor vs. the Cougars.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

- Utah enters the week with an overall record of 16-7 and 10-2 in the MWC. The Utes have won nine of their last 10 matches, losing only to league leader Colorado State, and they have clinched the number-two seed for the conference tournament next week. Utah is led by 2002 Mountain West Conference Co-Player of the Year Kim Turner who is averaging 4.02 kpg, 2.29 dpg and 1.51 bpg while hitting .336. Other top players include Shelly Sommerfeldt (3.67 kpg) and Lyndsey Henderson (2.69 kpg, 1.15 bpg).
- Brigham Young (18-7; 8-4 MWC) will play at UNLV on Friday before visiting Peterson Gym the next night. Depending on the weekend's results, the Cougars will be either the number three or four seed next week. BYU's top players include Kim Wilson (3.83 kpg, 1.90 dpg) and April Varner (3.48 kpg, 1.88 dpg). Lindsey Hartsock and Laura Nielsen are both averaging 1.26 blocks per game.

MOST RECENTLY

- San Diego State won all three of its matches last week to extend its current win streak to four.
- The week began with a come-from-behind win over 18th-ranked San Diego, 3-2 (23-30, 23-30, 30-24, 30-25, 15-9), on the Torero's home floor. Aspen McPartland had 13 kills for the Aztecs while Melissa Cansdale had 11 with a .348 hitting percentage. SDSU out-blocked USD 20-5 for the match.
- On Friday, the Aztecs defeated Air Force, 3-0 (30-18, 31-29, 30-28), in Colorado Springs. Kara Moriarty and Aspen McPartland had 11 kills apiece with McPartland completing a double double with 14 digs and contributing eight blocks.

HEAD COACH MARK WARNER

- San Diego State head coach Mark Warner is in his ninth season at the helm of the Aztec women's program. His career record over that span stands at 156-119 (.567). He recorded his 150th career coaching victory in the win over New Mexico on Oct. 10.
- Over the past eight years, Warner has led SDSU to a pair of NCAA Tournament berths and a Western Athletic Conference championship. His has produced 13 all-conference players as well as a pair of league players of the year, a setter of the year, and a defensive player of the year.
- Warner was named the 2003 Mountain West Conference co-Coach of the Year.

TOURNEY TIME

- San Diego State will host the 2003 Mountain West Conference Volleyball Tournament, Nov. 20-22 in Peterson Gym. All eight league teams will participate with match-ups to be determined by the final MWC standings.
- Play begins on Thursday, Nov. 20, with matches scheduled for 11:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m., 4:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Although the parings will not be known until the week before the event begins, San Diego State will play the 7:00 p.m. match the first evening of tourney play.
- The championship match will be played on Saturday, Nov. 22 at 7:00 p.m.
- Single-session passes for each day of the tourney will cost $7 for adults and $5 for students. All-tournament passes will cost $15 and $12 respectively.

THE SEEDINGS

- San Diego state will be either the third or fourth seed at next week's MWC tournament, and they hold their fate in their own hands.
- To secure the third seed, the Aztecs must defeat both Utah and BYU this weekend. At worst, that would give SDSU and BYU identical records, and the Aztec would win the tiebreaker.

- Entering the final weekend of league-play, the only teams to have secured their seedings for the tourney are Colorado State (1), Utah (2) and New Mexico (8). The fifth through seventh seed will be decided among UNLV, Air Force and Wyoming.

MCPARTLAND LEADS OFFENSE

- Middle blocker Aspen McPartland recorded her eighth double double of the year with 11 kills and 14 digs at Air Force last Friday.
- She had been in double figures in kills in 19 matches prior to recording seven in the win at New Mexico last weekend.
- In last week's three matches, she averaged 2.82 kills, 2.27 digs and 1.91 blocks per game while hitting .297.

CANSDALE STEPS UP

- Senior Melissa Cansdale had the team's best hitting percentage over last week's three matches at .309.
- She hit .348 in the win over 18th-ranked USD, finishing with 11 kills and seven blocks.
- Her 11 kills in that match was a personal season best.
- She also averaged 1.55 blocks per game last week to improve her season mark to 1.28 bpg, second-best on the squad.

MORIARTY DOUBLES UP

- Kara Moriarty recorded 12 digs in the match at USD last week, the fifth time this season she has been in double figures in that category. She also hit over .300 in two SDSU's contests last week.
- Moriarty is the only Aztec other than Aspen McPartland to average more than three kills per game this season (3.05 kpg). She leads the team in digs at 2.24 per game.

SCHAUERMANN SHINES

- Megan Schauerermann's 13 total blocks against University of San Diego last Tuesday established a new career high for the senior from Vancouver, Wash. Her 12 block assists in that match was also a personal career best.
- Her 21 blocks over three matches last week improved her season average to 1.60 blocks per game. Her blocking average ranks fifth in the NCAA Division I statistics this week.
- She has totaled 152 block assists this season and is approaching the Aztec record in that category. The current mark is 167 block assists in a season, set by Erin Grady during the 2000 campaign. With at least three matches left, Schauerermann has that record well within range.
- Schauerermann set a new SDSU hitting percentage mark in the match against Air Force on Oct 11th. Her .867 attack percentage (13 kills, 0 errors, 15 attacks) was the best-ever for an SDSU player in a three-game match.
- Her 13 kills at New Mexico tied her career high.

MCPARTLAND MILESTONES

- Middle blocker Aspen McPartland recorded the 1,000th dig of her SDSU career in the match vs. UNLV on Oct. 25.
- She picked up the 1,000th kill of her Aztec career in SDSU's match against Nicholls State on Sept. 12. Entering this week, she now has accumulated 1,271 kills during her four seasons at SDSU.
- The senior from San Diego (Grossmont HS) needs just eight more kills to break into the top 10 on the SDSU career kills list.
- McPartland is the sixth player in school history to record both 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs during her career.
- She continues to lead San Diego State in kill average (3.72 kpg) and hitting percentage (.338).
