The Big Notes

- San Diego State rallied from an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter to win for the fifth time in program history. The Aztecs are now just 5-174-2 (.033) when trailing by 11 or more points in the fourth quarter.
- SDSU recorded its third win since Oct. 20, 2012 when trailing by at least 10 points in the fourth quarter (also at Nevada on Oct. 20, 2012 (down 10, won, 39-38, in overtime) and at Air Force on Oct. 10, 2013 (down 14, won, 27-20)
- With the victory, San Diego State has now won:
 - five of its last six games
 - 11 of its last 12 Mountain West contests
 - five of its last six road games
 - six straight November contests
- The Aztecs scored 22 points in the fourth quarter, their most since at least the 2000 season.

Team Notes

- SDSU kept its opponent scoreless on its opening drive for the fifth straight game.
- San Diego State was 1-for-1 on 2-point conversion attempts and is now 4-for-5 of the year.
- The Aztecs scored 22 points in the fourth quarter and have outscored the opposition, 71-34, over the past four fourth quarters.

Trends

- The Aztecs did not receive ball first to start the game, ending the longest streak in the country at 23 straight games. East Carolina is the new No. 1 at 20.
- SDSU has now gone 86 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006, at TCU), which is the third-longest streak among current Mountain West schools (Air Force at 256 and Boise State at 206). That is the only time San Diego State has been shut out in its last 181 games.
- The Aztecs improved to 15-5 in the Rocky Long era when scoring 30 or more points.

Series Notes

- San Diego State improved to 16-19-2 all-time against San José State.
- After losing the past two trips to San Jose by a combined 66-20 margin, the Aztecs improved to 7-13-1 all-time vs. the Spartans in San Jose.
