SDSU Women's Basketball Wraps Up The Regular Season Saturday At CSU

The San Diego State women's basketball team concludes the regular season Saturday, as the Aztecs take on Colorado State in Ft. Collins, Colo., beginning at noon PT at Moby Arena.

With only the top three seeds determined for next week's Mountain West Conference championships, scheduled for March 8-12 in Las Vegas, a lot is still on the line for the remaining six league squads.

SDSU is currently tied for fifth place with the host Rams at 6-9, and trails fourth place Utah (7-8) by just one game. With a victory, the Aztecs can assure themselves of either a No. 4 or No. 5 seed, while a loss would relegate them to the No. 6 spot. San Diego State would need help to be the No. 4 seed, as New Mexico, which plays at Air Force, and UNLV, which plays host to Utah, would both have to win as well.

Besides the impact for the league championships, the Aztecs want to end their current two-game losing skid and enter next week with a victory in hand. SDSU has led by double-figures in each of its last two losses to two of the conference's top three squads, including an early 10-point advantage vs. Wyoming on Wednesday.

The Rams also are coming off a defeat at the hands of Utah (61-59) three days ago. Colorado State, however, beat San Diego State for the first time since 2007 last month at Viejas Arena, 56-51.

The Aztecs have won three in a row at Moby Arena, including a 73-54 victory in its final regular-season road contest in 2010. The game will feature a live audio webcast with Chris Ello, as well as live stats, on goaztecs.com.

Aztecs Unable To Stop Wyoming On Senior Night

Visiting Wyoming used a 7-0 run with just under seven minutes left in the second half to break open the game and go on to claim a 63-50 victory over the host San Diego State women's basketball team Wednesday at Viejas Arena. The loss spoiled the final regular-season home game for Aztec seniors Jessika Bradley, Coco Davis and Paris Johnson, as SDSU fell to 12-15 overall and 6-9 in league action, while the Cowgirls improved to 22-6 and 12-3 in MWC play.

Three players, Davis (Sacramento, Calif.), sophomore Gabrielle Clark (Los Angeles, Calif.) and junior Sajoyia Griffin (San Antonio, Texas), led San Diego State in scoring with nine points apiece. Bradley tallied nine boards, four assists and three blocks, but was only 2-for-11 shooting from the field. Her front court running mate Johnson also struggled on the offensive end, making three of her 18 shots for six points to go with eight rebounds, three assists and three blocks. Davis added six rebounds and six assists and junior tandem Candace Chambers (Seattle, Wash.) and Kalena Tutt (Long Beach, Calif.) combined for five more of the team's 11 total blocked shots on the night.

The Aztecs opened the game with a 10-point advantage at 14-4, but then went scoreless for the next six minutes, as the Cowgirls took the lead at 15-14. SDSU rallied to tie the score at 20 and led by a point heading into the final seconds before Wyoming's Aubrey Vandiver hit a leaning 3-pointer at the buzzer to put her team in front 30-

The schools traded leads six times in the second half and it was just a one-point game with 6:53 left to play at 46-45. The Cowgirls then went on a 7-0 run and never looked back, turning a six-point advantage with 2:55 left in the game into a 13-point victory at the final buzzer with the score 63-50.

Other Wyoming Notes

► SDSU opponents have failed to shoot above 41 percent from the field in 23 of 27 outings this season.

► SDSU has owned at least a four-point lead in 11 of its 15 losses this season and has been up by double figures six times in the nine league defeats.

► SDSU did not have a player score in double-figures in a game for the second time this year (also at UNM).

► SDSU recorded a season-low two steals and went to the free-throw line a season-low eight times.

► Wyoming outrebounded SDSU 41-39, ending the Aztecs' streak of consecutive games with a positive or an even rebounding margin at six.

Yet Another Record

With her three rejections vs. Wyoming, Aztec senior Paris Johnson set yet another record this year, becoming the Mountain West Conference career leader in blocks in league-only outings.

Johnson surpassed former New Mexico standout Jordan Adams, who had 140 from 1999-2003. The pair are two of only three MWC players to ever surpass the century mark when it comes to league games.

Adams, however, will not be losing her overall career conference blocks record, as she has 344 to Johnson's current count of 266.

Team Rejection

San Diego State notched its fifth game this season with 10 or more blocks, posting 11 in the loss to Wyoming on Wednesday.

The 11 rejections enabled the Aztecs to set a conference season record for most blocks in league games with 109, surpassing the previous mark of 101 by the 2008-09 SDSU squad. The program now owns the top three all-time spots in MWC games, which also includes 98 blocks last season.

SDSU has at least eight blocks in a game 12 times, reaching double-figures previously on four other occasions, including twice vs. UNLV (12, 14) and once against Wyoming (10) and TCU (12).

Blocks Part II

Despite reaching double figures on Wednesday, the Aztecs are still fourth nationally in blocks, trailing only No. 3 Baylor (207), Saint Mary's (205) and No. 13 North Carolina (198) in that category.

SDSU has 178 blocks on the year, 54 more than any other MWC school, despite tying for the fewest games played. The team owns a slightly smaller +41 margin in league-only outings with a 7.3 average. Senior Jessika Bradley is first in the conference in both overall (2.6) and league-only (2.9) outings, including four rejections or more six times. Classmate Paris Johnson, meanwhile, is second in MWC games (2.4) and third overall (2.1).

SDSU has led the MWC in blocks average two straight years and in three of the last four campaigns. It had a conference and school-record 195 rejections in 32 games in 2008-09, and are currently just off pace to beat that record this year.

Tough Against The Three

Despite leading the league and ranking in the top 15 nationally, Wyoming shot just 26.3 percent from beyond the arc against the SDSU defense, hitting only five of its 19 attempts. The Cowgirls' season 3-point shooting percentage entering the evening stood at over 37 percent.

Aztec opponents have failed to shoot above 30 percent from three-point land in 17 of 27 contests this season, including a streak of seven in a row, which encompasses the entire second half of MWC play.

San Diego State leads the league in 3-point field-goal percentage defense in conference games at 26.2 and is 22nd nationally in overall contests at 27.4 percent.

The No. 6 Spot

Aztec senior guard Coco Davis logged at least six assists in a game for the 17th time this campaign on Wednesday vs. Wyoming. She maintained her sixth-place spot in the national rankings at 6.3 an outing and continues to lead the conference by more than a half an assist per outing over Utah's Janita Badon (5.7/g).

With 157 helpers, Davis has eclipsed the century mark for the second consecutive season and has beat her previous career season high of 120 that she posted a year ago. Her 414 career assists are now third best in school history even though she has yet to make a dent in the SDSU single-season top 10.

The 5-9 guard is continuing the Davis family tradition, as her older sister and 2010 grad, Quenese, ranked first or second in the league in assists each of the last four seasons.

Close Calls

The Aztecs have had 11 contests decided by five or fewer points and nine by three or less, including six in league play this season. Only four of the team's losses are by more than 10 points and the nine MWC defeats are by a combined 59 total points.

A year ago, San Diego State was 8-7 in games decided by 10 points or less and has a 7-11 mark in that category in 2010-11.

Notes With A 'W'

An SDSU victory over Colorado State will mean:

► SDSU earns at least the No. 5 seed at next week's MWC tournament and will play on Tuesday at either 2 or 4:30 p.m.

► SDSU finishes fifth or higher in the MWC regular-season standings for the fourth consecutive year.

► SDSU has won seven of the last eight contests with CSU and has claimed four in a row in Ft. Collins.

► SDSU improves to 25-16 all-time against the Rams and is 10-9 in contests played in Ft. Collins.

► SDSU wins its final regular-season game for the fourth year in a row.

► SDSU has won seven or more MWC games for the fourth consecutive year after failing to do so in the league's first eight campaigns.

overall record and is deadlocked with SDSU for fifth place in the MWC with a 6-9 mark ... The Rams have matched their overall win total from a year ago and have one more league victory than their 5-11 record last season ... The Rams have two active players averaging in double-figure scoring, including junior Kim Mestdagh, who averages 17.2 points an outing, freshman Sam Martin, who chips in 12.5 points a game ... Mestdagh is second in the league in 3-pointers per game (2.8) and is ranked 27th nationally in that category ... Sophomore Chantel Kennedy and Mestdagh have combined for 148 assists and 95 steals, while Martin is the Rams' leading rebounder ... CSU is second in the MWC in free-throw shooting (74.3), but is last in rebounding offense (33.9) and offensive rebounding (10.1/g).

CSU Round 1

- The In a game featuring eight lead changes and a pair of ties in the final 15 minutes, San Diego State fell to visiting Colorado State, 56-51, back on Feb. 2. The Rams' win snapped a six-game Aztec win streak in the series. - SDSU senior Paris Johnson was the only Aztec to score in double-figures vs. the Rams, shooting 5-for-10 from the floor and 6-for-8 at the free-throw line to finish with 16 points. Courtney Clements came off the bench for the first time this year to score eight points, while senior Jessika Bradley had eight rebounds and senior Coco Davis tallied seven of the team's 14 assists.

- The Rams took an early 7-0 lead by making three of their first shots, as the Aztecs didn't get on the board until close to three minutes into the contest.

- CSU had the largest lead by either side at 30-22, however, SDSU rallied to cut it to a five-point deficit at the break.

- The Aztecs knotted the score at 34 and took the lead on a free throw at 35-34. The advantage changed hands seven more times with the Rams going up by one at 47-46 on a lay-up at the 4:18 mark.

- SDSU trailed by as many as five points in the final minute, but got a triple from Clements to get to within a single possession at 53-51. Colorado State, however, made three of its four free-throw attempts to close out the 56-51 victory.

- SDSU had a season-low three steals and tied a season high with 21 three-point attempts ... CSU's 45 field-goal attempts are the fewest by an Aztec opponent this season.

Johnson Breaks Consecutive Starts Mark

San Diego State senior Paris Johnson broke the school's record for most consecutive starts with her 123rd in a row last week at BYU, surpassing the previous school record of 122 set last year by Quenese Davis.

Davis beat the previous mark of 118 by Michelle Suman (1991-95) that stood for 15 years. Davis made the starting five in all but one game during her Aztec career (124 total), missing her lone opportunity as a freshman.

Johnson has played and started in all 124 outings since coming to campus in 2007.

1,500 Milestone

With her 12 points at Utah on Feb. 9, senior Paris Johnson became only the third player in program history to score 1,500 points in their SDSU career.

Johnson had entered the outing with 1,499 points, tying former teammate Jené Morris (2008-10) for third in the Aztec record book. Her 1,574 career points now trail only all-time leading scorer Judy Porter, who had 2,318 from 1979-80 to 1982-83, and Falisha Wright, who compiled 1,733 points from 1991-92 to 1994-95.

Johnson is currently second among active MWC players and 12th overall in career points in league history.

Getting The Record

San Diego State senior center Paris Johnson became the school's all-time career blocks leader in the team's game against Colorado State on Feb. 2. Johnson rejected three shots, including her final one at the 2:02 mark of the second half on a shot attempt by Ram Chantel Kennedy. The last block gave her 252 in her Aztec career, surpassing the previous record of 251 compiled by former SDSU standout Michelle Suman, who played on The Mesa from 1991-92 to 1994-95.

Johnson also owns the school's record for blocks in a season with 94 as a sophomore in 2008-09, and for blocks in a game with nine at UNLV on March 7, 2009.

Record Watch

San Diego State's senior trio of Coco Davis, Paris Johnson and Jessika Bradley are well on their way toward making a dent in the Aztec record book.

Besides reaching the school's all-time blocks mark and ranking third in scoring, Johnson is also fourth in the SDSU record book in rebounds (886) and is one of only three Aztecs to post 1,000 points, 800 rebounds and 100 blocks in their careers. She is second in free-throw attempts (520) and in field goals (638), tied for fourth in free throws made (293) and is fifth in games played (124).

Davis, meanwhile, became just the fourth Aztec to record 400 assists in their career (414 - 3rd all-time), is fourth in 3-pointers attempted (322), is fifth in triples made (93) and seventh in games played (119).

After 61 games in the Red & Black, Bradley is fourth in career blocked shots with 132, including a squad-best 63 as a junior and 69 in 27 games in 2010-11. The 66 rejections this year are third in the SDSU single-season record book.

Other 2010-11 In Season Notes Thus Far

- Courtney Clements' 19 points vs. UCLA are the most by an Aztec in a season-opener since Michelle Strawberry had 29 points against Wichita State in November 2005.

- Paris Johnson's 18 rebounds vs. Cal State Bakersfield is a career high (prev. 15, twice) and most by an Aztec in a single outing since Ashlee Dunlap also had 18 in a win against American University in Dec. 2002.

- SDSU played its 1,000th contest in program history on Nov. 26, downing Minnesota, 61-59, in Reno, Nev.

- San Diego State's win at USD is its first in overtime on an opponent's home court in program history. The Aztecs had been 0-5 in that category entering the night and are now 7-14 all-time in outings requiring the five-minute extra period.

- SDSU overcame a 12-point second-half deficit to defeat USD. It is its largest deficit in a win since being down by 14 points with just under 12 minutes remaining in a 63-59 win vs. Eastern Washington on Jan. 7, 2005. Prior to that, SDSU's largest comeback was 17 points on Feb. 13, 1994, in a 67-65 win at UTEP.

- Each of the team's three seniors have garnered all-tournament honors this season. Center Paris Johnson has been tabbed twice, including her fourth consecutive honor at the Surf 'N Slam, and seven times overall in nine career non-conference events.

Guard Coco Davis picked up honors at the USC tournament and the Surf 'N Slam, while forward Jessika Bradley earned a spot for the first time in her career in Nevada.

- SDSU completed a 4-2 month of December and improved to 23-6 overall during that time frame in the last five campaigns.

- SDSU's overtime loss to Utah was the Aztecs' first MWC regular-season game to go the extra five minutes since falling to Air Force in 2006.

- The Aztecs bounced back to defeat the Utes in Salt Lake City for the first time since 1995 (span of 14 games) during Beth Burns' first stint as head coach.

- San Diego State matched a conference record in league games with its 14 blocked shots in the win over UNLV. The Aztecs matched their 14-rejection effort against New Mexico in 2003, and came up just one shy of the overall league record of 15, which SDSU also recorded in a season-opening win vs. Northwestern State in 2008.

- Jessika Bradley was named the Mountain West Conference player of the week on Jan. 18, for leading the Aztecs to a pair of three-point victories over UNLV and New Mexico. The award is the first of Bradley's career and was the first for SDSU this season.

- Paris Johnson earned her seventh career MWC player-of-the-week award on Feb. 14, after shooting a near-perfect 86.7 percent from the field in the Aztecs' wins over Utah and UNLV. She also averaged a double-double with 15.0 points and 10.5 rebounds a game and compiled eight blocked shots and three assists.

- The Aztecs have trailed by double figures and come back to win, take the lead or make it a one or two possession game in the second half six times this season.

- SDSU is 5-0 when scoring more than 70 points in a game in 2010-11.

- SDSU has used six different starting line-ups in 2010-11, and eight Aztecs overall have logged at least one start.

- The Aztecs are 4-0 this year and 13-1 overall when Paris Johnson scores 20 or more points in a game, winning 13 straight since 2007.

- San Diego State's 11 double-doubles exceed the team's total of 10 in 34 contests a year ago.

- SDSU has five games with 50 or more rebounds this year after not doing so in any of its 34 contests in 2009-10.

Aztecs Fall Recruiting Class Ranked 20th

San Diego State women's basketball's fall 2010 recruiting class has been rated 20th nationally and first in the Mountain West Conference according to Espn.com's HoopGurlz national rankings. The Aztecs moved up 11 spots from last year's No. 31 final ranking, after inking five high school seniors to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period, Nov. 10-17.

San Diego State signed three, four-star recruits according to HoopGurlz, including forward Chairese Culberson, who was the No. 7 rated wing and 46th overall, forward Deajanae Scurry (No. 31 forward) and point guard Ahjalee Harvey (No. 32 point guard). Forwards Kristina Hunter and Erimma Amarikwa rounded out the Aztec fall signing class.

Preseason Points

The reigning MWC champion San Diego State women's basketball team has been picked to finish second in the league in 2011 in a vote by the nine head coaches and select media members released Oct. 13, at the conference's annual media day in Denver, Colo.

The Aztecs received three first-place votes and 147 points overall, trailing only TCU, which had 16 first-place votes (174 points).

SDSU, which has been picked first or second each of the last three years, just edged out Brigham Young for second place, as the Cougars had 145 points and garnered the other two first-place votes. Utah was picked fourth, followed by Wyoming, New Mexico, UNLV, Colorado State and Air Force.

San Diego State has posted its two highest finishes in conference history the last two seasons, tying with Utah for first place in 2009, and for third place in 2010.

five-member preseason all-league squad for the third straight year at the MWC's annual media day. In addition, sophomore guard Courtney Clements, who red-shirted after transferring from Arizona, was picked as the MWC's newcomer of the year and guard Melissa Sweat was chosen preseason freshman of the year.

Clements is the second SDSU player in a row to pick up the MWC's preseason newcomer of the year distinction, as senior Jessica Bradley was honored and went on to win the award last March.

Sweat, meanwhile, is the second Aztec on the current roster to earn the league's preseason freshman-of-the-year award, joining Johnson, who was honored in 2007.

Poll Watching

For the second consecutive season, San Diego State received votes in both national preseason top-25 polls. The Aztecs garnered the 34th-most votes (22 total) in the USA Today ESPN coaches edition, while they had the 37th-most votes (8 total) in the Associated Press Top 25.

SDSU earned votes in the coaches' poll eight times in 2009-10, including on Nov. 23, when it reached the No. 24 slot. The Aztecs finished the campaign at No. 20, the first time they had been ranked in the coaches' poll to end a season since it began in 1986.

The team also broke through in the AP poll a year ago, earning its first top-25 ranking (23rd on Nov. 23) since March 1995, when the team ended up 22nd following a 24-6 campaign.

SDSU is joined by TCU, and the last three weeks by BYU, as the only Mountain West Conference schools to receive votes in either poll thus far in 2010-11. The Aztecs garnered one vote in the first regular-season AP poll released Nov. 16, and had two in the Nov. 22 edition.

Other Things To Watch For In 2010-11

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in Aztec basketball history, here are a few other things to look for in 2010-11:

- ♦ SDSU is a combined 27-3 at home over the last two campaigns entering this season. The Aztecs have 10 or more wins at Viejas Arena in three of the last four years.
- ♦ The Aztecs have 40 Mountain West Conference wins in the last five seasons after having only 19 in the league's first seven years.
- ♦ SDSU has advanced to the final of the Mountain West Conference Championships three years in a row, after not winning a single game in the MWC tournament's first eight years of existence.

2009-10 Rewind

The San Diego State women's basketball team made a remarkable run in 2009-10, highlighted by its first Mountain West Conference tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Below are a few of the accomplishments of last year's team:

- ♦ Earned its first-ever final top 25 ranking in ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll (No. 20), becoming the first MWC school to do so since 2006. The No. 20 spot ties as the program's highest-ever final ranking in a national poll (No. 20 in AP in 1985).

- ♦ Earned the program's first AP top 25 regular-season ranking since 1995 (Nov. 23 – No. 23)

♦ Posted back-to-back seasons with at least 23 wins for the first time since 1994-95 (24) and 1993-94 (26) ... Logged the program's 13th, 20-win campaign with six of those coming under coach Beth Burns ... Had an eight-game win streak, the team's longest since 1996-97

- ♦ Recorded three wins over AP top 25 teams (No. 10 West Virginia, No. 17 Texas, No. 23 TCU) ... Eight of 11 losses were to teams advancing to the NCAAs, including three vs. teams advancing to the Sweet 16

♦ Earned the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance (64-team bracket) and won two NCAA games in the same season for the first time in school history.

- ♦ Garnered the program's eighth NCAA tournament bid and made back-to-back NCAA appearances for the first time since 1994-95

♦ Was the lowest seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2007, was the first No. 11 seed to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2004, and the first MWC team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 2006 ... Was the 12th double-digit seed all-time to advance to the Sweet 16

- ♦ Won its first MWC championship title and advanced to the third consecutive MWC championship game.

Last Year's Numbers

The Aztecs' success also translated into big numbers in the stat columns. Here are some of the 2009-10 team's statistical highlights:

- ♦ SDSU led the MWC in field-goal percentage (44.5), three-point field-goal defense (27.0), blocked shots (5.4), offensive rebound percentage (40.7), victories (23 – tied)

♦ SDSU ended the year ranked eighth nationally in three-point field goal percentage defense, 18th in blocks per game, 22nd in field goal percentage and 25th in assists per game.

- ♦ The Aztecs limited 18 of its 34 opponents to under 60 points a game, including a 55-spot by No. 10 West Virginia. Eight foes scored 50 or fewer points and three didn't reach the 40-point barrier.

♦ Twelve of the Aztecs' 23 wins were by 19 or more points, after posting only six such victories in 2008-09.

- ♦ SDSU held opponents to three or fewer 3-pointers in a game 20 times last season, including a combined 3-for-22 mark in the NCAA First & Second Rounds.

♦ The Aztecs shot at least 40 percent from the field in 26 of 34 outings, topping the 45 mark on 14 occasions. The team's final season field-goal percentage of 44.5 is its best since the 1995-96 squad shot 45.6 percent.

- ♦ SDSU posted a school-record 155 three-pointers for the second season in a row and improved its team free-throw percentage from 61.2 in 2008-09 to 69.9.

Aztec In The WNBA

Guard Jené Morris became San Diego State's first-ever WNBA Draft pick on April 8, 2010, going in the first round (11th pick overall) to the Indiana Fever. Morris, who was one of 14 players invited to the Draft announcement in Secaucus, N.J., also is the first Aztec to ever don a WNBA jersey.

Mountain West Conference history to be tabbed in the WNBA Draft and the fourth selected in the first round. She is the league's highest pick overall since 2006, and third highest in MWC history, trailing only Utah's Shona Thorburn (7th overall) and TCU's Sandora Irvin (3rd).

A two-time honorable mention All-American and Mountain West Conference defensive player of the year, Morris was the first Aztec to ever lead the MWC in scoring (17.1 ppg.), is the conference's all-time leader in career steals (293) and ranks third in the SDSU record book in career points with 1,499, despite only playing three seasons in the Red and Black.

She played 25 games during her rookie campaign for the Fever, before moving to Poland after the WNBA season to play professionally for CCC Polkowice. Morris has since joined a team in Israel, Raanana Hertzeliya, of the Israeli League.

In addition, fellow 2010 graduate point guard Quenese Davis is currently competing for the Flying Foxes in Austria.

Listen/Watch Live

For the 10th straight year, Aztec women's basketball fans will have an opportunity to listen to live play-by-play of nearly every regular season game (home and away) over the internet at www.goaztecs.com.

SDSU alum Chris Ello will have the play-by-play duties both at home and on the road for the fourth straight season.

Again in 2010-11, all regular season Aztec home contests, with the exception of the televised games, will also feature a live video feed to go along with the audio call from Viejas Arena on www.goaztecs.com.

Burns Named To WBCA Board

This past June, San Diego State head coach Beth Burns was reelected to a three-year term on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors. She continues to serve as a Division I at-large representative on the 23-member board.

Burns had been serving a one-year term in the same position before she was elected in 2010. She is an active member of the WBCA, having previously served as a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award and being on the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

SDSU Head Coach Beth Burns

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns returned to Montezuma Mesa in April 8, 2005, and enters the sixth season of her second stint with the Aztecs.

Burns took the program to new heights in 2009-10, as the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field was expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010, and lowest overall since 2007.

In the last two seasons, San Diego State has posted a combined record of 47-19, including a 27-3 mark on its home court, with Burns at the helm. The Aztecs claimed the program's first-ever MWC tournament championship in 2010, after earning a share of the regular-season crown in 2009. SDSU has made two consecutive NCAA appearances, going 2-0 in first-round games, after not earning a postseason bid in the 11 previous years.

In her first stint as Aztec head coach from 1989-97, Burns took the SDSU women's basketball program full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. During her eight seasons, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history. The Aztecs went to the NCAA tournament on four occasions (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997), won a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles.

A four-time conference coach of the year, Burns was the head coach at Ohio State for five seasons (1997-02). She has a 19-year overall head coaching record of 324-235, while her school record stands at 243-170 over 13 seasons.

Earlier this fall, Burns signed a five-year contract extension to stay as SDSU's head coach through the 2014-15 campaign.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 1-2

No. 16/15 UCLA 55, San Diego St. 48

Game 1 ■ Nov. 12 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team scored only four points in the final 6:58 of the game, as the Aztecs were unable to pull off the upset of 16th-ranked UCLA in front of 2,196 fans at Viejas Arena. The Bruins rallied from an eight-point halftime deficit to claim the 55-48 victory in both schools' season-openers.

SDSU sophomore Courtney Clements had a game-high 19 points, despite missing her first nine shots from the field. Clements also added six rebounds in her first outing as an Aztec, while senior center Paris Johnson pulled down a team-best 10 boards to go with her eight points. Senior Coco Davis chipped in nine points and seven assists in her first start at point guard.

UCLA scored the first five points of the game, before San Diego State notched its first bucket of the 2010-11 campaign by freshman Melissa Sweat at the 17:41 mark. The Bruins went up by seven at 9-2, but the Aztecs went on a 7-0 run to tie the contest at 9-9.

The squads would be tied twice more in the first half, including at 16-16. Davis then hit a jumper and Clements scored seven points in a row to put the Aztecs up by nine at 25-16. After UCLA cut its deficit to five twice in the final two minutes, SDSU's Gabrielle Clark hit a 3-pointer with 23 seconds remaining to give the home team a 32-24 advantage heading into the locker room.

The Aztecs' shooting woes from the field continued into the second half, as the Bruins scored the first eight points to tie the score at 32-32. San Diego State finally got on the scoreboard with a Davis triple to stay ahead, but the lead changed hands five times, including at the 5:53 mark when UCLA hit a pair of free throws to put it up 45-44.

SDSU would manage only four more points the rest of the way as UCLA ended the evening on a 10-4 run to secure the 55-48 victory.

Cal State Bakersfield 73, San Diego St. 62

Game 2 ■ Nov. 17 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Cal State Bakersfield outscored San Diego State 12-3 in the final four minutes of the game to earn a 73-62 victory over the host Aztecs at Viejas Arena. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 0-2 on the season, while the Roadrunners improved to 3-0 following the two schools' first-ever meeting.

San Diego State senior center Paris Johnson led the Aztecs both offensively and on the glass, tallying her 16th career double-double with a career-best 18 rebounds and 19 points on 7-for-8 shooting.

Sophomore Courtney Clements was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 15 to go with eight rebounds and three assists. Freshman Melissa Sweat had eight points and was a perfect 2-for-2 from beyond the arc, while senior Jessika Bradley had nine rebounds and three assists. Senior Coco Davis had a team-best eight assists, but was 1-for-11 from the field.

Cal State Bakersfield jumped out to an early 10-point lead, taking advantage of SDSU's five turnovers in the first three minutes, and the hot shooting of Roadrunner guard Britney McGee, who had 10 points during that same span. The Aztecs finally were able to put some offense together, scoring six straight points to get to within four at 14-10 at the 13:07 mark.

CSUB, however, pushed its lead back up to nine points until a late run, including a pair of triples by junior Sajoyia Griffin, put the home team down by only three at 33-30 heading into the locker room.

San Diego State came out of the break and tied the game at 35, before pushing out to its largest lead of the night at 44-37 less than four minutes into the second half. That advantage quickly disappeared when the Roadrunners converted two more Aztec giveaways into points and a 44-44 tie.

After another tie at 48-48, SDSU had another turnover and missed two free throw attempts which ignited a 7-0 CSUB run. The Aztec deficit would grow to 10 with 1:33 remaining and left too little time for another rally, as the Roadrunners came away with the 73-62 win.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 3-4

UC Irvine 68, San Diego St. 66

Game 3 ■ Nov. 23 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - A pair of turnovers in the final 1:33 of the game proved costly, as the San Diego State women's basketball team was unable to record its first victory of the season, falling to visiting UC Irvine, 68-66, at Viejas Arena. With the loss, the Aztecs, who rallied to tie the score after a pair of seven-point deficits, dropped to 0-3 overall and the Anteaters improved to 1-3 on the year.

SDSU sophomore guard Courtney Clements posted a team-best 16 points on 7-of-15 shooting, while seniors Jessika Bradley and Paris Johnson both chipped in 13 points apiece. Bradley was one rebound short of a double-double with nine boards and senior guard Coco Davis matched her career-best with five of the Aztecs' 13 steals on the night.

San Diego State got off to a good start, scoring eight straight points within the first two minutes of the contest for an 8-0 lead. The Anteaters finally got on the board with a jumper by Jade Smith-Williams, followed quickly by a 3-pointer by Kassandra McCalister to cut their deficit to just three.

The Aztecs continued to hold a two possession advantage until going up by seven points twice, including at 22-15. UC Irvine didn't back down, eventually knotting the game at 22 and again at 24 points, and taking the lead for the remainder of the first half with an 18-11 run and a 42-35 advantage at the break.

SDSU quickly erased the UCI lead by scoring the first six points of the second half and tying the game for the third time at 44-44. The Aztecs, however, were never able to jump ahead, as the game was knotted three more occasions, but the Anteaters continued to score the very next bucket.

The final tie came at 63-63 with 3:58 left in the game. UC Irvine got a fast-break basket off a steal, followed by a miscommunication on a hand-off between Clements and Davis that resulted in another giveaway, which the Anteaters converted into two free throws with 18 seconds left. Davis hit a long 3-pointer to close the gap to just two, but too little time was left as the Anteaters came away with the 68-66 victory.

Game 4 ■ Nov. 26 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - Behind Paris Johnson's 27 points and 12 rebounds, the San Diego State women's basketball team claimed its first victory of the season, defeating Minnesota, 61-59, in its first contest of the Nugget Classic at the Lawlor Events Center in Reno, Nev. The Aztecs moved to 1-3 on the year following 1,000th game in SDSU program history, while the Gophers dropped to 3-3 on the season in the first meeting between the sides in 25 years.

Johnson dominated the paint, scoring 15 of her game-high 27 points in the first half, while also adding 12 rebounds for her second double-double of the campaign. The 6-4 center was 11-of-17 (64.7 percent) shooting for her biggest offensive output since 2008, and the 11th, 20-point scoring game of her career.

Jessika Bradley, was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 12 to go with her seven rebounds and season-best four blocked shots. Johnson had three of SDSU's other eight rejections on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements added nine points and Coco Davis contributed eight assists.

San Diego State held a two-point lead at 61-59 with only 20 seconds remaining, as the Gophers ended up getting a pair of chances to tie or win the game. Minnesota guard Leah Cotton missed a jumper on her team's first opportunity, but the rebound resulted in an alternate possession which gave the ball back to the Gophers with 12 seconds left.

Coming out of a timeout, Minnesota's Micaella Riche got the ball in the low block, but then tried to muscle her way to the basket, knocking over a defender and was called for an offensive foul and a turnover. The Aztecs then just had to inbound the ball, which they did, to secure the victory.

The game was tied five times in the first half, before an 18-4 run gave SDSU its largest lead at 39-25. Minnesota, however, would close that gap all the way down to only five points at the break at 39-34 on a lay-up at the buzzer.

The Aztecs started the second half quickly, moving their advantage back up to 11 points twice and later 10 points at 57-47 with 8:39 to go in the game. The Gophers staged yet another rally as SDSU struggled to find the basket, scoring only two points over a more than six-minute span to allow Minnesota to get to within two points twice, including in the final minute.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 5-6

Nevada 63, San Diego St. 61

Game 5 ■ Nov. 27 ■ Lawlor Events Center ■ Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - The San Diego State women's basketball team rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to take the lead, but couldn't come away with the victory, falling in the championship game of the Nugget Classic to host Nevada, 63-61, at the Lawlor Events Center. With the loss, the Aztecs dropped to 1-4 on the season, while the Wolf Pack improved to 5-1.

Senior Paris Johnson once again led SDSU with 19 points on 8-for-13 shooting, while also tallying seven rebounds and a pair of blocked shots. Johnson was one of two Aztecs named to the all-tournament squad along with classmate Jessika Bradley, who had eight rebounds and three blocks. Sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points, while junior Sajoyia Griffin had her best performance of the year with a career-high nine points, five rebounds and seven assists, compared to just one turnover.

There were four ties and six lead changes in the first 10 minutes of the game as each side boasted a four-point advantage. Nevada went on a 9-0 run to go up 28-19, but the Aztecs responded with two buckets by Clements and one by Candace Chambers to close the gap to 28-26.

The Wolf Pack began to pile up trips to the free-throw line using a 13-for-16 performance at the stripe to head into the break up by six points at 39-33.

After the two sides combined for only six points in the first four minutes, the Wolf Pack broke their stalemate first, building its largest lead of the game at 51-40 at the 13:59 mark.

The Aztecs, however, wouldn't go down easily, answering with a 9-2 run to close to within four points twice, before a fast-break bucket made it a one-point game and two free throws put the visitors ahead 58-57 with 3:03 to go.

Coming out of a timeout, Nevada's Tahnee Robinson hit a 3-pointer, but Johnson tied it at 60 with a lay-up. Robinson struck again the next time up the floor, making what would turn out to be the winning basket with 25 seconds remaining to give her squad another two-point advantage at 62-61.

Bradley was fouled on the Aztecs' next possession, but was only able to make the first of her two free throws, as Robinson secured the rebound and was then fouled herself. She made one of two shots at the stripe and Coco Davis attempted to get the ball down the court with only four seconds left, but was unable to make the final shot near half court, as the Wolf Pack survived for the 63-61 win.

Game 6 ■ Nov. 30 ■ Jenny Craig Pavilion ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team outscored host University of San Diego 15-6 in overtime to cap a dramatic rally, as the Aztecs came away with a 72-63 victory. SDSU, which trailed by 12 points with just 8:25 left to play, improved to 2-4 overall and won for the first time at Jenny Craig Pavilion since the annual series restarted in 2002.

Senior Paris Johnson and sophomore Courtney Clements combined for 40 of the team's 72 points. Johnson posted her fourth game with 19 or more points, finishing with 22, including a 10-for-12 effort at the stripe. Clements, meanwhile, had 18 points, six rebounds and a career-high three steals.

Johnson also had nine boards, matching the team game-high also put up by her front court classmate Jessika Bradley. Senior Coco Davis had nine points and five assists, while junior Kalena Tutt had a career-best eight rebounds.

The Aztecs had three turnovers in their first four possessions of the night, as the host Toreros raced to a 5-0 lead and later went up by seven at the 14:52 mark, but the Aztecs then kept it to within two possessions before gaining their first lead of the night on a lay-up by Melissa Sweat at 21-19.

The Toreros scored their first points after an over five-minute drought to tie the contest at 21 apiece and the two sides traded leads before heading into the break with the home side up 25-22, after SDSU failed to score for the final 4:25.

The second half began much the same way as the first with the Aztecs turning the ball over, while USD once again went up by seven at 31-24. Clements scored each of San Diego State's first seven points, helping to close the gap to only two, before the Aztecs' shooting woes began to catch up with them as USD reeled off a 14-4 run to gain its largest lead at 47-35 heading into a timeout.

San Diego State finally began to hit some shots with the help of point guard Sajoyia Griffin, who notched a 3-pointer and two free throws followed by a Clements jumper to get the deficit down to five at 47-42.

It was only a three-point game heading into the final two minutes, as Davis converted a three-point play to tie the score at 55-55. USD went up by two after a steal in the backcourt, but Johnson equalized with two free throws. The Aztecs had the final possession in regulation, however, Bradley's hook shot hit off the back of the rim forcing overtime.

Bradley struck back on the first possession in overtime, hitting a reverse lay-up as SDSU opened the extra period with a 6-0 run. The Toreros cut that deficit in half with a 3-pointer until Johnson matched that with a three-point play and the Aztecs made all six of their free-throw attempts in the final 25 seconds to secure the 72-63 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 7-8

San Diego St. 75, Pepperdine 61

Game 7 ■ Dec. 7 ■ Firestone Fieldhouse ■ Malibu, Calif.

MALIBU, Calif. - The San Diego State women's basketball team got double-doubles from seniors Jessika Bradley and Coco Davis to help propel the Aztecs to a 75-61 victory over host Pepperdine at Firestone Fieldhouse. SDSU avenged an overtime loss to the Waves last season to claim its' second win in a row and improve to 3-4 on the year, while Pepperdine dropped to 5-5.

Several Aztecs had career nights with Bradley posting a career-high 16 points to go with 10 rebounds for her first double-double of the year and fourth of her career. Davis found her shooting touch recording 10 of her 14 points in the first half, while matching her career high with 10 assists to tally her first double-double in the Red & Black. Junior Kalena Tutt notched her first career double-figure scoring outing after going a perfect 4-for-4 from the field and 3-for-3 at the line for 11 points, and senior Paris Johnson was the fourth Aztec in double-figures with 16 points on 8-of-11 shooting.

San Diego State trailed just once in the game, when Pepperdine hit the opening basket of the night. Davis and Johnson then combined to record all 12 of the Aztecs' first points. SDSU would go up by six on a Davis triple at 16-10 and later built a nine-point advantage following an 8-1 run.

Pepperdine took advantage of several Aztec turnovers in the back court to climb all the way back to within four on three occasions. SDSU, however, headed into the locker room with a six-point lead at 35-29, as the Waves were unable to convert a last-second jumper.

The Aztecs got each of their first six points after the break from Johnson and Bradley and later utilized a pair of nifty passes on the baseline to push ahead 45-33, as the Wave offense went dormant for nearly four minutes.

After Pepperdine cut it to a 10-point deficit, San Diego State turned on the after burners, more than doubling its advantage at 68-47 over the next seven minutes. The Waves made a late run with the Aztec starters already on the bench, getting to within 14 points, including the final score, 75-61.

Game 8 ■ Dec. 18 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - Despite an 11-day layoff between games, the San Diego State women's basketball team returned to action and never trailed a strong Dayton squad, using a 50.9 field-goal percentage to earn a 74-62 victory at the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the win, the Aztecs evened their record at 4-4 on the year, while the Flyers, who advanced to last year's NCAA second round, dropped to 5-5 in 2010-11.

SDSU got another outstanding outing from a pair of seniors in guard Coco Davis and center Paris Johnson. Davis notched a career-best 19 points, including three triples, to go with a season-high seven rebounds and six assists, while Johnson scored 16 of her 19 points in the second half and also pulled down a game-high 10 boards for her third double-double of the year.

The Aztecs reeled off six quick points, hitting three of their first four shots, while the Flyers were 0-for-5 before finally scoring at the 16:08 mark. SDSU would build an eight-point advantage, but Dayton closed the gap with consecutive rebound baskets and continued to hit the glass to negate the Aztecs' hot shooting start.

The Flyers later closed to within one on two occasions with the first coming after a 10-5 run. SDSU then got consecutive triples from Davis and Clements and a three-point play from junior Kalena Tutt for its largest lead thus far at 32-23. Dayton's Justine Raterman kept her team within striking distance with a pair of triples and her squad ended up tying the score for the first and only time at 35 with 1:18 left until the break.

The Aztecs owned a slight 38-35 advantage heading into the locker room following a three-point play by 6-6 center Malia Nahinu. Scoring continued to come from the interior on both sides as SDSU went up by seven to start the second half courtesy of Johnson, who scored eight points in a row.

Dayton was within four following a three-point play at 50-46, until the Aztecs got a pair of free throws from Gabrielle Clark, which kick started an 8-0 run to move out to a 58-46 lead. The Flyers closed once again to within seven, but was never able to get any closer as SDSU ended the game on a 14-9 run over the final 6:08 to secure the first ever meeting between the two foes at 74-62.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 9-10

Southern California 74, San Diego St. 64

Game 9 ■ Dec. 19 ■ Galen Center ■ Los Angeles, Calif.

LOS ANGELES - The San Diego State women's basketball team cut a 15-point halftime deficit down to just four points, but could not get any closer as the Aztecs saw their three-game win streak come to an end with a 74-64 defeat to the host Trojans in the championship game of the Women of Troy Basketball Tournament at the Galen Center. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 4-5, while USC, which is a perfect 5-0 on its home court, improved to 7-3 overall.

Aztec senior Paris Johnson had a team-high 18 points on 6-for-11 shooting and a 6-for-6 performance at the free-throw line. Classmate Coco Davis, who was named to the all-tournament team for the first time in her career, scored in double-figures for the third outing in a row with 16 points and seven assists in playing all 40 minutes. Davis and Johnson finished the weekend by combining for 72 of the team's 138 points in the two outings.

SDSU's third senior, Jessica Bradley, had a game-high 11 rebounds, while Johnson added nine to fall just short of her second consecutive double-double. Sophomore Courtney Clements and freshman Melissa Sweat each tallied seven points for the Aztecs, who owned a slight advantage over the Trojans on both the boards (39-36) and shooting from the field (41.4 to 40.3 percent).

USC junior guard Ashley Corral made each of her first five attempts from the field, including three triples, in the first 4:18 alone to give the Trojans a 15-4 lead heading into the first timeout. The Aztecs closed it to single digits at eight points on three occasions, but USC continued to make nearly all its shots coming down the floor, hitting on 16-of-35, including 4-of-7 from beyond the arc, to go up by as many as 15, including at 42-27 at the half.

SDSU held the Women of Troy without a point for the first three and a half minutes coming out of the locker room to cut the deficit to eight and later got to within six points following a 6-0 run. A 3-pointer by Briana Gilbreath following a long offensive rebound, however, quickly restored the Trojan lead out to 52-43.

The Aztecs trailed by just four on four separate occasions, including at 62-58 with 4:34 left, and had the ball on offense to cut it to a single possession. Instead, USC erupted with an 8-0 run, capped by consecutive triples from Corral and another by Christina Marinacci following a steal to go up by 12 points at 70-58. A late triple by Davis cut the margin to single digits, but the Trojans ended the evening with four more points to the Aztecs' three to garner the 74-64 win.

Game 10 ■ Dec. 21 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Playing its first home game in the last 28 days, the San Diego State women's basketball team got 26 points from senior Paris Johnson, including 17 in the first half alone, to lead the Aztecs to a 66-57 victory over Washington State. SDSU came out ahead for the first time at Viejas Arena this season and evened its record at 5-5, while the Cougars dropped to 2-10.

Johnson was 8-for-11 from the field in the first 20 minutes and ended up 11-for-21 for 26 points, her seventh outing with 18 or more points in 10 total contests this season. Johnson also tallied 15 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year and second in the last three games.

Jessica Bradley was the only other Aztec in double-figure points with 11 and pulled down seven rebounds. Senior guard Coco Davis recorded a season-best eight boards and contributed nine of the team's 18 assists on the night, while sophomore Courtney Clements notched nine points on 4-for-9 shooting.

The two sides combined for five lead changes in the first four minutes of action, until SDSU turned a one-point advantage into a nine-point lead via an 8-0 run, featuring three consecutive buckets in the paint at 19-10. WSU would climb back to within five on three occasions, but the Aztecs outscored the visitors 8-4 in the final five minutes to go into the locker room up 11 points at 36-25.

After a Cougar bucket to open the second half made it just a nine-point game, SDSU went on a 12-0 run, highlighted by its only 3-pointers on the evening by center Malia Nahinu and Clements, to jump ahead by 21 points at 48-27.

After a timeout, WSU took a huge bite into the deficit, cutting it down to only nine points with just under eight minutes remaining, as SDSU missed several chances around the rim to put the game out of reach. The lead was nine on two more occasions before the end of the game, including at the 2:52 mark at 61-52, but the Aztecs pushed the advantage back out to 13 points with a jumper by Gabrielle Clark and three free throws. The Cougars finished out the night with two lay-ups in the final 31 seconds to round out the 66-57 SDSU victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 11-12

San Diego St. 72, UTSA 52

Game 11 ■ Dec. 28 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team recorded a season-best nine 3-pointers and had four players score in double-figures to lead the Aztecs to a 72-52 win over visiting Texas-San Antonio in the first game of the San Diego Surf 'N Slam at Viejas Arena. With the victory, SDSU moved to 6-5 and advanced to a tournament championship game for the third time in as many tries this season, while the Roadrunners dropped to 4-8 overall.

San Diego State got a 3-pointer from six different players, including senior Paris Johnson, whose first career triple gave her a team-best 14 points on the night to go with three blocked shots. Senior guard Coco Davis contributed 13 points and seven assists, freshman Melissa Sweat reached double-figures for the first time in her career with 11 points and sophomore Courtney Clements added 11 points and three steals.

Aztec senior Jessika Bradley logged a career-best seven assists, hauled in a game-high 11 boards and rejected three shots in 34 minutes of action.

SDSU never trailed in the game, bouncing out to a quick 8-0 lead on a jumper by Bradley and consecutive triples from Clements and junior Sajoyia Griffin. The Roadrunners trimmed their early deficit down to only a pair at 17-15 following two free throws and trailed by three points at the 6:40 mark. From there, the Aztecs got eight straight points from Sweat in a span of less than a minute to push the home team's lead into double-figures for the first time at 29-18.

San Diego State had its largest lead of the first half heading into the locker room up by 13 points at 40-27, and moved out to an 18-point advantage on another triple at 47-29 with 14:50 left to go in the game. UTSA cut it to 13 points once, but was never able to get any closer as the Aztecs posted its biggest margin of victory this season, 72-52.

No. 7/5 Texas A&M 96, San Diego St. 52

Game 12 ■ Dec. 30 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The seventh-ranked Texas A&M Aggies claimed the San Diego Surf 'N Slam title in dominating fashion, shooting nearly 60 percent from the field and causing 31 Aztec turnovers to earn the 96-52 win over host San Diego State at Viejas Arena. SDSU dropped to 6-6 on the year with two losses to top-25 opponents, while the Aggies improved to 11-1 to round out 2010.

Only one Aztec scored in double figures, as senior Paris Johnson notched 12 points with seven of those coming at the free-throw line. Guard Coco Davis had eight points, forward Gabrielle Clark notched seven points and senior Jessika Bradley posted three blocked shots.

Texas A&M's pressure defense had San Diego State off-balance all evening, as the Aztecs made only four of their 20 first-half shots from the field and committed 20 turnovers in the first 20 minutes. The Aggies, meanwhile, were nearly unstoppable on the other side of the floor, as three players reached double-figures in points and the visitors had a 29-11 rebounding advantage to lead 54-14 at the break.

The Texas A&M advantage moved out to 50 points at the 15-minute mark of the second half and would go as high as 56 points at 82-26. SDSU finished the game on a 12-7 run over the final six minutes to round out scoring at 96-52.

The Aggies had 21 giveaways themselves, but more than doubled up the Aztecs on the boards (46-21) and had 14 steals. SDSU scored 19 of its 52 points from the line, tallied five 3-pointers and registered eight blocked shots.

Texas A&M was led by tournament MVP Danielle Adams who was 11-of-15 from the field for 23 points in only 17 minutes of action.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 13-14

TCU 49, San Diego St. 47

Game 13 ■ Jan. 6 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team held visiting TCU without a field goal for the final six minutes of the game, cutting a 14-point second-half deficit down to only a pair, but the Aztecs came up just short, falling 49-47 in both teams' 2011 conference openers. With the loss, SDSU dropped to 6-7 on the season, while the preseason league favorite Horned Frogs improved to 9-6 following the contest at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs were led offensively by junior forward Kalena Tutt, who had 10 points on 4-of-5 shooting. Seniors Paris Johnson and Coco Davis and junior Courtney Clements all tallied nine points apiece, while forward Jessika Bradley had seven rebounds, five assists and five blocked shots.

San Diego State had the hot hand early in the first half, racing out to a 10-point lead at 19-9 by making eight of its first 11 shots from the field. TCU answered back with a 10-0 run over the next three minutes to tie the score at 19-19. The two sides were knotted once more at 23, before the Horned Frogs earned their first advantage of the night on a pair of free throws.

Both teams went scoreless over the next four minutes, before TCU got a jumper and a lay-up to carry a six-point lead at 29-23 into the locker room.

The Aztecs cut their deficit in half after the break, but the Horned Frogs used six baskets in the paint and raced out to a 14-point advantage at 45-31.

From there, San Diego State held TCU to only one field goal the remainder of the half and came all the way back to within two at 49-47 capped by 3-pointers from Johnson and junior Sajoyia Griffin. With only a minute left to play, the Horned Frogs stayed on the offensive side with the help of two consecutive offensive rebounds, before the Aztecs were forced to foul to put TCU on the line.

Horned Frog Helena Sverrisdottir, however, missed the front end of the 1-and-1 and SDSU grabbed the rebound before heading into a timeout with just seven seconds remaining to set up a final play. The Aztecs got the ball in the hands of Davis, who raced down the court, but her long distance pass intended for Johnson was intercepted by Sverrisdottir who wrapped up the ball as the buzzer sounded for the 49-47 TCU victory.

Utah 70, San Diego State 67 (OT)

Game 14 ■ Jan. 10 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team got a career-high 29 points from sophomore Courtney Clements and rallied from a 12-point half-time deficit to force overtime, but was unable to notch the game-winning bucket in the final seconds, falling to visiting Utah, 70-67, at Viejas Arena. The loss was the Aztecs' fourth this year and second in a row by three or fewer points and dropped them to 6-8 overall and 0-2 in conference play. The Utes, meanwhile, improved to 2-0 in league action and 9-7 on the season.

Clements had a career afternoon, making 12 of her 19 shot attempts from the field and finishing with 29 points, 10 more than her previous high of 19 vs. No. 16 UCLA. Clements' 29 points are the most by an Aztec this season and the guard also tallied a career-best four assists and pulled down five boards.

SDSU senior Jessika Bradley notched her second double-double of the year and seventh of her career with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Paris Johnson and Sajoyia Griffin each had eight points and Coco Davis posted eight assists.

The Aztecs started strong, running out to an 11-0 lead before Utah was able to get on the scoreboard at the 15:23 mark. The basket, however, only woke up the Ute offense as it reeled off an 8-0 run to close to within three at 11-8.

After missing her opening attempt of the game, Utah's Iwalani Rodrigues did not miss for the remainder of the first half, making eight straight shots, including three from beyond the arc, to give the visitors a 12-point advantage at 39-27 heading into the locker room.

SDSU cut that deficit in half with three consecutive scores after the break and would eventually take the lead at 46-45 with 8:26 remaining. The Utes immediately countered with a Rodrigues triple and were up by five points with 1:58 left in regulation. Clements brought the Aztecs to within one point at 56-55 and was fouled on the made basket, but was unable to make the free throw and Utah went up by a pair on a free throw of its own with 38 seconds left on the clock.

The next time down the floor, Clements missed on a 3-pointer, but Gabrielle Clark grabbed the rebound for SDSU and Bradley scored the tying bucket with 15 seconds left to send it into overtime.

In the extra period, the two teams were tied once and traded the lead four times with the Aztecs going up by one on a Clements triple with 28 seconds left. After a timeout, however, Ute Michelle Plouffe made a jumper in the paint to give her team back the lead at 68-67, and on the ensuing possession, Davis' lay-up attempt with three seconds left caught the inside of the rim and Utah grabbed the rebound before hitting two free throws to close out the 70-67 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 15-16

San Diego State 55, UNLV 52

Game 15 ■ Jan. 11 ■ Cox Pavilion ■ Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS - The San Diego State women's basketball team withstood a 5-1 run by host UNLV over the final two minutes of the game, holding on for a 55-52 win at Cox Pavilion. The victory was the Aztecs' first in Mountain West Conference play this season, improving them to 1-2 in league action and 7-8 overall, while the Lady Rebels fell to 7-10 and 0-3 in MWC action.

SDSU got 16 points from sophomore Courtney Clements, who scored the team's final four points, including a free-throw with 10 seconds left that made it a three-point game. Aztec seniors Paris Johnson and Jessika Bradley each fell one rebound short of a double-double, putting in 11 and 10 points respectively, while each tallying nine rebounds. The pair also combined for 12 of the squad's season-best 14 blocked shots on the evening.

After only two baskets were scored through the first three plus minutes, the sides traded leads six times before the Aztecs went up by four points at 14-10. The Lady Rebels knotted the game with two straight buckets and no side led by more than five the entire first half, as SDSU went into the break on a 7-0 run to push ahead by a pair at 27-25.

After UNLV hit a free throw, the Aztecs continued their scoring spurt for the game's biggest advantage to that point at 37-26. The host Lady Rebels went without a field goal for the first five minutes of the second half until a rebound basket by Ta'Nitra Byrd made the score 37-28. San Diego State countered with a triple from Clements, but UNLV's India Chaney bettered that effort with back-to-back 3-pointers and the visitors led by only seven with just under 12 minutes.

The Aztecs then hit a dry spell on the offensive side, going nearly four minutes without a point as the home team closed to within three at 41-38. SDSU finally broke through with a rebound basket from Clements and a lay-up from Bradley to get a little breathing room with a seven-point lead, but UNLV came storming back to move the score to a two-point game at 47-45.

The visitors extended their lead out to seven points and could have gone up by more by converting at the free-throw line, but instead the Lady Rebels had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead with 3-pointer on the game's final possession. UNLV's Erica Helms, however, missed the last-chance 3-pointer from the left angle and Clements secured the 55-52 victory.

San Diego State 56, New Mexico 53

Game 16 ■ Jan. 15 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team logged its second consecutive three-point victory, holding on in the game's final possession to edge visiting New Mexico, 56-53, at Viejas Arena. With the win, the Aztecs improved to 8-8 overall and 2-2 in conference action, while the Lobos dropped to 6-9 on the year and remained winless in league play at 0-3.

SDSU had three players score 10 points apiece, including seniors Jessika Bradley and Coco Davis and sophomore Courtney Clements. Bradley also had a team-high nine rebounds for the second consecutive outing and posted five assists and three blocked shots in 38 minutes of action. Davis notched five assists of her own, while junior Sajoyia Griffin matched her career high with nine points all in the first half.

Griffin scored the game's first five points, as the Aztecs once again raced out to an early lead, going up 11-0 as the Lobos missed their first seven shots. UNM finally broke through at the 16:21 mark when Amanda Best hit a rebound bucket, but SDSU answered with a Bradley lay-up and would keep its lead in the double-figures for most of the first half.

The Lobos managed to stay in the game at the free-throw line, hitting 10 of their 11 opportunities to account for nearly half of their point total, as the Aztecs were up 34-22 heading into the locker room.

San Diego State pushed its advantage up to 14 points three times in the first five minutes after the break only to have New Mexico come storming back. The Lobos used a pair of free throws and four consecutive Aztec turnovers to ignite a 12-0 run and close to just a two-point deficit at 46-44 with 8:48 left in the game.

The two sides traded two buckets apiece before Davis looked to restore order with back-to-back triples with the score at 52-44. UNM continued to stay in the game, however, as it responded with a 3-pointer to get to within two and had a chance to tie it with Porche Torrance heading to the free-throw line with 30 seconds left. Torrance made the first, but missed the second and Davis made two free throws on the other end to put the host squad back up by three.

Following a time out, Best missed a 3-pointer on the right wing that would have tied it and Davis got the rebound to secure the 56-53 Aztec victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 17-18

Air Force 61, San Diego State 58

Game 17 ■ Jan. 19 ■ Clune Arena ■ USAF Academy, Colo.

USAF ACADEMY, Colo. - In a contest featuring 17 lead changes and 14 tie scores, the San Diego State women's basketball team came out on the losing side of its fifth consecutive conference game to be decided by three points or fewer, falling at Air Force, 61-58, at Clune Arena. The Aztecs dropped to 8-9 and 2-3 in league action, while the Falcons improved to 6-11 and 1-3 in MWC play.

SDSU had three players score in double-figures, as senior Paris Johnson posted a team-best 13 points, including nine in the second half, to go with nine rebounds. Classmate Jessika Bradley had 10 of her 12 points in the first half and matched her career high with seven assists. Sophomore Courtney Clements, meanwhile, was 4-for-8 from the field for 10 points.

Both squads opened the game by hitting four of their first seven shots from the field with the Aztecs going up by just a pair four times heading into the first media timeout. The Falcons took their first advantage of the night at 9-8 and the sides traded leads on three occasions before Air Force went up by five points.

SDSU equalized on a triple from Davis at 17 and would utilize a 10-5 run to gain its own five-point lead at 27-22. The Falcons came storming back, getting a 3-pointer followed by Dymond James' second three-point play of the half to tilt the score in the home team's favor, 30-29.

The Aztecs immediately jumped ahead with a 3-pointer from Clements, but Air Force finished the half with two fastbreak lay-ups and tied the score at 36.

The second half started with five lead changes over the first seven minutes of action. After the Falcons went up 45-43, SDSU went scoreless for nearly six minutes until Johnson hit a bucket at the 10:36 mark. Luckily, Air Force managed just one point over that span themselves and led by only one at 46-45.

The game was tied at 49 for over three minutes and was knotted again at 51, 55 and 56 heading into the final two and a half minutes. A jumper by Alicia Leipprandt put the Falcons up by three points 59-56 with 1:45 left to go.

The Aztecs cut the deficit to a single point on a Davis jumper and Air Force missed their shot on the other end, but Johnson was tied up getting the rebound and the Falcons had the possession arrow with 17.7 seconds left still up 59-58.

San Diego State then fouled and Leipprandt made both free throws to move the score out to 61-58. The Aztecs had 15 seconds to equalize the game, but Sajoyia Griffin's 3-pointer from the top of the key failed to even hit the rim as the ball went out of bounds and Air Force ran out the clock for the 61-58 victory.

Brigham Young 65, San Diego State 55

Game 18 ■ Jan. 26 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team was limited to two points in the final five minutes of the first half, as visiting Brigham Young rallied from an early 10-point deficit to hand the Aztecs a 65-55 loss at Viejas Arena. SDSU dropped to 8-10 overall following just its fourth double-figure defeat of the season and is now 2-4 in conference play, while the Cougars improved to 13-7 and 5-1 in MWC action.

The Aztecs got 29 points from their senior front court tandem of Paris Johnson, who had 15 points on 7-of-10 shooting, and Jessika Bradley, who made five of her seven shots from the floor and ended up with 14 points. Sophomore Courtney Clements reached double figures for the fifth-consecutive outing with 10 points. Bradley was the team's leading rebounder with six and also tallied two blocks, Johnson had three steals and guard Coco Davis contributed four assists.

As has become common place for San Diego State, the team raced out to an early lead as a result of some hot shooting, hitting its first five shots to go up 10-4. The Aztecs added to that advantage with consecutive lay-ups from Johnson and Bradley to push ahead by 10 points at 14-4 and again at 16-6. BYU then went on a 7-0 run to cut the gap in half, but SDSU still owned a nine-point lead with 5:24 until the break.

From there, however, the Aztec offense stalled, managing only one basket, while the Cougars scored 16 points, including a pair of triples and eight points by forward Kristen Riley to take the lead and own a 31-26 halftime advantage.

Bradley came out of the locker room and scored SDSU's first seven points to make the score 38-33 with 16:21 left to play. The Cougars responded with a bucket by Riley in the paint and pushed their advantage into double-figures with a 3-pointer, which led to a 9-0 run by the visitors. The Aztecs would pull to within 10 points at 47-37 on a lay-up by Davis, but after a timeout, BYU scored four points in a span of only two seconds following an SDSU intentional foul and went up by 14.

The Cougars led by as many as 19 at 63-44 at the 5:07 mark, before San Diego State scored the game's final seven points to finish out the 65-55 loss.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 19-20

Wyoming 59, San Diego State 51

Game 19 ■ Jan. 29 ■ Arena-Auditorium ■ Laramie, Wyo.

LARAMIE, WYO. - The San Diego State women's basketball team held Wyoming to just one field goal through the first 14:15 of the second half, but was unable to capitalize, falling to the Cowgirls, 59-51, at Arena-Auditorium. SDSU dropped their third in a row to move to 8-11 and 2-5 in conference play, while Wyoming, which made only three, second-half field goals, moved to 16-4 overall and 6-1 in league action.

Aztec senior Jessika Bradley and sophomore Courtney Clements both scored in double-figures for the sixth-straight outings in the first half alone, finishing with 12 and 16 points, respectively. Bradley also had five blocked shots and pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds for her third double-double of the year, while Clements made a team season-best four triples and had three steals. Senior Paris Johnson contributed 10 points, nine rebounds and four blocks for SDSU, which played without senior guard Coco Davis due to injury.

Wyoming got out early, hitting four of its first seven shots to own an 8-3 lead. The Aztecs, however, answered with a 4-1 run on baskets from Johnson and Bradley to get it back to a two-point game.

The SDSU offense then went scoreless for the next three and a half minutes, as the Cowgirls raced out to a 19-7 advantage before a Bradley rebound bucket ended the drought. The Aztecs finally began to heat up from the field, getting a pair of triples by Clements and one from Sajoyia Griffin to highlight a 16-2 run and take the lead at 25-23.

Wyoming answered with four straight points from the post by Chaundra Sewell and also had two 3-pointers by Aubrey Vandiver to race into the locker room up by six points at 36-30.

SDSU held the Cowgirls without a point for the first 4:50 of the second half, as it closed to within just a pair at 36-34. Wyoming didn't get its first field goal after the break until the 12:19 mark to put the host school up 41-35.

The Aztecs' stingy defense continued to limit the Cowgirls to just the one field goal, but couldn't keep them from the free-throw line as they scored seven of their first nine points to keep the lead by three at 45-42. Wyoming's final two field goals of the game were both triples with one coming at the 5:44 mark and the other with 2:30 to play and the score in its favor, 53-44. SDSU closed to six on two occasions, but the Cowgirls finished out the game at the line with six free throws for the 59-51 victory.

Colorado State 56, San Diego State 51

Game 20 ■ Feb. 2 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - In a game featuring eight lead changes and two tie scores in the final 15 minutes, the San Diego State women's basketball team once again found itself on the short end of another close contest, falling 56-51, Wednesday to visiting Colorado State at Viejas Arena. The loss is the squad's 10th this season of 10 or fewer points and moved them to 8-12 overall and 2-6 in league action, while the Rams snapped SDSU's six-game series win streak, improving to 12-9 and 5-3 to finish out the first round of MWC play.

Despite the loss, Aztec senior Paris Johnson became the school's all-time career leader in blocked shots, notching three on the night to give her 252 in her career. She surpassed the previous record of 251 held by Michelle Suman, who starred on The Mesa from 1992-95. Johnson also was the only Aztec to score in double-figures vs. the Rams, shooting 5-for-10 from the floor and 6-for-8 at the free-throw line to finish with 16 points.

SDSU sophomore Courtney Clements came off the bench for the first time this year to score eight points, while senior Jessika Bradley had eight rebounds and senior Coco Davis tallied seven of the team's 14 assists.

Colorado State had the hot hand early, racing out to a quick 7-0 lead by hitting three of its first four shots. The Aztecs finally got on the board close to three minutes into the contest and trailed by three points three times. The Rams pushed out to what would be the game's largest advantage at 30-22, but Clements immediately responded with a lay-up in the paint to make it a six-point game with 5:48 left.

Clements' bucket would be the final field goal by either side the remainder of the half, as a Johnson free throw was the only point scored with CSU heading into the locker room up 30-25.

The Aztecs made a pair of 3-pointers after the break to close the gap to just one and knotted the score at 34 before owning their first lead, 35-34, on a free-throw by junior Sajoyia Griffin. The advantage changed hands seven times over the next nine and a half minutes with the Rams going up by one at 47-46 on a lay-up at the 4:18 mark.

SDSU trailed by as many as five points in the final minute, but got a triple from Clements to get to within a single possession at 53-51. Colorado State, however, made three of its four free-throw attempts to close out the 56-51 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 21-22

TCU 63, San Diego State 52

Game 21 ■ Feb. 5 ■ Daniel-Meyer Coliseum ■ Ft. Worth, Texas

FT. WORTH, Texas - The San Diego State women's basketball team owned an early nine-point lead but then went without a field goal for the final 13:39 of the first half, as host TCU went up by 10 points at the break and went on to claim a 63-52 victory despite a late Aztec rally at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. SDSU dropped to 8-13 overall and 2-7 in conference play, while the Horned Frogs ended their two-game losing skid to improve to 15-8 and 7-2 in MWC action.

SDSU senior Jessika Bradley notched a career-high 17 points all in the second half, while also pulling down a team-best seven rebounds and contributing three assists. Classmate Paris Johnson and sophomore Courtney Clements combined to score all of the team's 16 first-half points, ending up with 12 and 16 points, respectively. Senior Coco Davis had seven assists and six rebounds, but also had eight of the team's 23 turnovers.

The host Horned Frogs missed eight of their first nine shots from the field as the Aztecs built a 9-3 advantage. TCU cut its deficit down to four, but Clements hit her second 3-pointer of the half and Johnson added a lay-up in the paint to move it to a nine-point game.

Three consecutive SDSU turnovers led to a 6-0 Horned Frog run as the Aztec offensive went scoreless for the next 8:03. TCU doubled that 6-0 run and went ahead for the first time 17-14, before Johnson finally got the visitors back on the scoreboard with a pair of free throws.

San Diego State didn't hit a field goal for the final 13:39 of the half, committing 15 turnovers to go into the locker room down by 10 points at 26-16.

The Aztecs finally got a basket by Bradley at the 18:42 mark on a lay-up coming out of the locker room and SDSU outscored TCU 13-6 heading into the first media timeout trailing by just three points at 32-29.

The Horned Frogs then went on a 7-0 run to push the lead back into double-figures at 39-29. The home squad went up by as many as 14 points, before the Aztecs rallied to within 10, before finally falling, 63-52.

San Diego State 50, Utah 49

Game 22 ■ Feb. 9 ■ Huntsman Center ■ Salt Lake City, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - Trailing by one with 24.4 seconds remaining, junior Sajoyia Griffin stepped to the free-throw line and converted both ends of a 1-and-1 to lift San Diego State to a 50-49 victory at Utah. With the win, SDSU claimed its first victory against the Utes in Salt Lake City since 1995, and improved to 9-13 overall and 3-7 in the MWC, while Utah evened its record at 12-12 and 5-5.

The Aztecs' five starters accounted for all 50 of the team's points. Senior Jessika Bradley and sophomore Courtney Clements both reached double-figures in scoring for the eighth time in 10 league outings with 15 and 13 points, respectively. Senior Paris Johnson notched her team-best fifth double-double of the season with 12 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, while becoming just the third player in program history to eclipse the 1,500-mark in career points. Bradley and Johnson combined for seven of the squad's eight blocked shots and Bradley and Griffin each had three assists in the winning effort.

The two schools traded two baskets each, before Utah scored three in a row to take a six-point edge at 10-4. The Aztecs then answered with three consecutive lay-ups, knotting the game at 10 apiece. Neither squad was able to score for the next three and a half minutes as Johnson finally broke the stalemate to give the visitors their first lead of the night at 12-10.

After an SDSU free throw continued a 9-0 run, Utah put points on the board for the first time in over eight minutes on back-to-back baskets from Michelle Harrison. While the Utes continued to make field goals, the Aztecs managed only four free throws in the final 7:57, as they trailed 26-17 at the break.

San Diego State started the second half with three field goals from three different players and added another bucket each by Johnson and Bradley as it climbed back to within a pair on a triple from freshman Melissa Sweat at 32-30.

Utah recorded its first nine out of the locker room all from beyond the arc by Iwalani Rodrigues, her team's leading scorer this season, who went without a single point in the first half. Rodrigues' third triple put the Utes ahead 35-30, but the Aztecs continued to stay close, trailing by only one after Clements converted a 3-pointer of her own from the left angle at 45-44.

The game remained a one-point affair heading into the final 24.4 seconds, as Griffin went to the free-throw line for a 1-and-1 after being fouled at mid-court. Griffin made both shots at the charity line to give the Aztecs their first lead of the entire second half at 50-49. SDSU then put up a strong defensive stand on the Utes' final offensive possession, as Harrison missed what would have been the game-winning jumper, as SDSU went on to claim the victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 23-24

San Diego State 77, UNLV 60

Game 23 ■ Feb. 12 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team posted a season high in scoring, getting 22 points from Courtney Clements and 18 from Paris Johnson, to cruise by visiting UNLV 77-60 at Viejas Arena. The Aztecs swept the season series between the two foes and earned their second consecutive win to improve to 10-13 overall and 4-7 in league action, while the Lady Rebels dropped to 9-16 and 2-9 in MWC play.

Clements notched 18 of her game-high 22 points in the first half, hitting on each of her first four shots and finishing 10-for-16 to go with five rebounds and four assists. Johnson was a perfect 8-for-8 from the field, while adding 10 boards for her second consecutive double-double and team-best sixth of the year. Sophomore center Malia Nahinu contributed a career-high nine points and Jessika Bradley and Melissa Sweat each had eight. Senior Coco Davis tallied seven of the team's 23 assists on the afternoon.

Clements got the Aztecs off to a quick start, making four of the team's first five baskets for the 10-5 advantage. UNLV cut it to a three-point deficit with a lay-up, but San Diego State put together a 13-2 run highlighted by a trio of triples to go up 23-9 at the 9:28 mark. The Lady Rebels, however, closed to seven points at 31-24 and headed into the locker room down by only eight at 37-29.

After the break, UNLV was within seven points twice in the first two and a half minutes, before the Aztecs put their foot on the pedal, scoring three consecutive buckets in the paint to go up 45-32. SDSU's advantage was 10 points at the 11:26 mark, but would double with 7:22 to play on a jumper from Nahinu at 61-41. The home team led by as many as 24 points and finally settled for the 17-point win at 77-60 at the final buzzer.

The Aztecs held the Lady Rebels to only two baskets through the first 15 minutes of the second half, as the visitors shot just 30.4 percent from the field for the game and scored 23 of their 60 points at the free-throw line. SDSU, meanwhile, shot over 70 percent after the break (14-for-19) and settled with a season-best 58.5 field-goal percentage.

San Diego State 50, New Mexico 44

Game 24 ■ Feb. 15 ■ The Pit ■ Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - On a night when neither side shot the ball well, the San Diego State women's basketball team claimed its third consecutive victory and won at The Pit for the third year in a row, defeating host New Mexico, 50-44, in Albuquerque. The Aztecs improved to 11-13 overall and 5-7 in league action, while the Lobos fell to 9-14 and 3-8 in MWC play.

All nine SDSU players to see action scored at least one point with senior Paris Johnson leading the way with a team-best nine. Classmate Jessika Bradley added eight points, 12 rebounds and four blocked shots, while freshman Melissa Sweat contributed seven and three steals. Junior Kalena Tutt had a career-high nine rebounds and scored five of her six points in the second half.

SDSU got off to a rough start committing 11 turnovers and going 2-for-11 from the field, but still trailed by only three points at 10-7, as the Lobos weren't much better, making only three of their first 17 shots by the 7:50 mark.

The Aztecs hit their first bucket after a drought of nearly six and a half minutes on a lay-up by Bradley to jump ahead at 11-10. The two sides then traded leads four more times before SDSU used its advantage on the boards to start a 12-0 run and build an 11-point lead at 25-14 with 1:43 remaining.

New Mexico would close that gap at the half, finishing with a 3-pointer by Morgan Toben to head into the locker room down by eight at 27-19.

The Lobos opened with another triple and a lay-up within the first 1:01 after the break, as the Aztecs' lead dwindled to just three points at 27-24. SDSU responded with a basket from Johnson and two in a row by junior Candace Chambers to move it out to seven-point advantage, only to have UNM answer back on two triples at the 10:31 mark with the score 36-34.

The home team got to within one at 37-36 and had several possessions to take the lead, but the Aztecs outscored the Lobos 10-0 and looked to be up by a comfortable margin once again at 47-36. Over the next three minutes, New Mexico made a final push, drawing to within four on a pair of free throws by Amanda Best.

Following an SDSU turnover, Toben missed a 3-pointer with under a minute remaining and the Aztecs went on to make three of four free-throw attempts in the final 45 seconds to secure the 50-44 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Games 25-26

San Diego State 68, Air Force 50

Game 25 ■ Feb. 19 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - The San Diego State women's basketball team scored 32 points in the paint and 23 off turnovers to avenge a loss earlier this season to visiting Air Force with a 68-50 victory at Viejas Arena. With the win, SDSU claimed its fourth outing in a row, improving to 12-13 overall and 6-7 in league action and moving into fourth place in the Mountain West Conference standings. The Falcons, meanwhile, dropped to 8-17 overall and 3-9 in conference play.

The Aztecs got 22 points from senior Paris Johnson, who went 10-for-17 from the field and added seven boards in making her school-record tying 122nd consecutive start. Sophomore Courtney Clements was 3-for-4 from beyond the arc and scored 12 points, while senior Jessica Bradley notched eight points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots. Guard Coco Davis contributed nine of the team's 20 assists and matched the team season high with five steals.

San Diego State never trailed in the game, opening with a 6-0 run until Air Force scored its first points at the free-throw line at the 14:46 mark. The Falcons twice cut their deficit down to a pair, but the Aztecs pushed their advantage into double figures at 18-8 and would lead by as many 14 heading into the locker room at 31-17.

After getting a lay-up and a 3-pointer to open the second half, SDSU looked to be cruising to an easy victory up 36-17. Air Force, however, had other ideas at it continued to press and finally get some offensive production, cutting the Aztecs lead all the way down to only 10 points on a pair of free throws with just over 11 minutes remaining.

A rare 3-pointer from Johnson out of the left corner restored some order to bring the lead back up to 13 points a minute later and the closest the Falcons would get again would be 11 points at 46-35. San Diego State then went on a 6-0 run and moved out to a 20-point lead with 3:23 left to play before settling for the 68-50 victory.

Brigham Young 56, San Diego State 52

Game 26 ■ Feb. 26 ■ Marriott Center ■ Provo, Utah

PROVO, Utah - The San Diego State women's basketball team had a 16-point second-half lead, but then managed only three points in a span of over nine minutes, as host BYU rallied to tie the score three times before utilizing a 5-0 run in the final 1:32 to defeat the Aztecs 56-52 at the Marriott Center. With the loss, SDSU saw its four-game win streak come to an end, falling to 12-14 overall and 6-8 in league action, while the Cougars won their 10th in a row to improve to 21-7 and maintain their top spot in the MWC at 13-1.

Aztec senior Jessica Bradley scored 15 of her team-best 17 points in the first half and added 11 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year. Junior Sajoyia Griffin had a career-high in both points (11) and rebounds (6), while contributing a pair of assists and steals. Senior Paris Johnson was limited to 20 minutes by foul trouble, scoring eight points and grabbing four rebounds.

After the host Cougars opened scoring with two free throws, the Aztecs answered with a bucket by three different players, including a triple, to go up 7-2. BYU hit its first field goal at the 15:06 mark and promptly made one more to cut its deficit down to just one at 7-6 and later at 9-8.

Bradley tallied nine of the visitors' next 11 points, as they pushed back out to a six-point advantage at 18-12. After a quick rest, Bradley continued to score inside, adding six more and sparking a 10-2 run to put the Aztecs up by 13 with 2:32 until the break.

BYU countered by scoring five of the game's next seven points to trim SDSU's lead down to just 10 points at 34-24 at the half.

The two sides traded baskets coming out of the locker room, but the Aztecs then got a triple from Griffin and a lay-up from Johnson and later found themselves up by 16 points just under four minutes into the second half at 44-28.

The Cougars then began to push, as the SDSU offense managed only three points in a span of over nine minutes, as BYU went on a tear and rallied all the way back to tie the score at 47 with 6:58 left in the game. The sides were equal two more occasions, until the home squad got a triple by Haley Hall to go up by a pair at 54-52.

The Aztecs had two chances to tie the game, but Bradley missed an open lay-up and Griffin was unable to make the front end of a 1-and-1, as they were forced to foul with 15 seconds left. Hall then converted both from the charity stripe to make it a four-point game and SDSU missed two tries to get to within a pair as the Cougars corralled the rebound to preserve the 56-52 victory.

2010-11 San Diego State Women's Basketball Box Scores - Game 27

Wyoming 63, San Diego State 50

Game 27 ■ March 2 ■ Viejas Arena ■ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Visiting Wyoming used a 7-0 run with just under seven minutes left in the second half to break open the game and go on to claim a 63-50 victory over the host San Diego State women's basketball team at Viejas Arena. The loss spoiled the final regular-season home game for Aztec seniors Jessika Bradley, Coco Davis and Paris Johnson, as SDSU fell to 12-15 overall and 6-9 in league action, while the Cowgirls improved to 22-6 and 12-3 in MWC play.

Three players, Davis, sophomore Gabrielle Clark and junior Sajoyia Griffin, led San Diego State in scoring with nine points apiece. Bradley tallied nine boards, four assists and three blocks, but was only 2-for-11 shooting from the field. Her front court running mate Johnson also struggled on the offensive end, making three of her 18 shots for six points to go with eight rebounds, three assists and three blocks. Davis added six rebounds and six assists and junior tandem Candace Chambers and Kalena Tutt combined for five more of the team's 11 total blocked shots on the night.

The Aztecs opened the game with a 10-point advantage at 14-4, but then went scoreless for the next six minutes, as the Cowgirls took the lead at 15-14. SDSU rallied to tie the score at 20 and led by a point heading into the final seconds before Wyoming's Aubrey Vandiver hit a leaning 3-pointer at the buzzer to put her team in front 30-28.

The schools traded leads six times in the second half and it was just a one-point game with 6:53 left to play at 46-45. The Cowgirls then went on a 7-0 run and never looked back, turning a six-point advantage with 2:55 left in the game into a 13-point victory at the final buzzer with the score 63-50.
