12-TIME MOUNTAIN WEST CHAMPIONS

SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS

2019-20 Record: 30-2 (17-1 Mountain West)

Head Coach: Brian Dutcher (Fourth Season)

Career Record: 73-26 Record at SDSU: 73-26

PRESEASON NOTES

- San Diego State embarks on its centennial season in 2020-21. In 99 seasons, the Aztecs are 1,515-1,127-1 overall and, in its 50 seasons at the Division I level, has posted a 827-682 mark.
- San Diego State preps for the 2020-21 campaign after finishing last season 30-2, ranked No. 6/6, Mountain West regular-season champions with an 17-1 mark in league play, and runner-up in the 2020 Mountain West Tournament. The Aztecs have captured a league-high 12 conference titles, have finished champion or runner-up in 12-of-21 Mountain West Tournaments, and since 2006, SDSU's 11 appearances in its conference championship game ranks as the second most in the nation.
- Entering the 2020-21 season, SDSU will look to return to the NCAA tournament after missing the postseason in 2019-20 due to the cancellation of the season a week prior to the 2020 NCAA Tournament. The Aztecs' last NCAA appearance, in 2018, was their 12th postseason berth (8 NCAA, 4 NIT) in the last 14 years in which a national champion was crowned.
- Head coach Brian Dutcher is set for his fourth season after guiding San Diego State to a 30-2 record in 2019-20, and now has a career mark of 73-26. He is the only head coach in program history to record 20+ wins in each of his first three seasons.
- In 2018, Dutcher was the only first-year head coach to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and in the previous 96 seasons of SDSU basketball, no other coach had won more games and/or won a conference title in his initial season.
- Dutcher is the only coach in program history (since 1921-22) to lead his team to 70 or more victories in his first three seasons. In the Division I era, Tim Vezie (1974-75 through 1976-77) ranks second with 43 wins. In addition, Dutcher and Vezie are the only coaches to lead their teams to the NCAA Tournament in their first season coaching at San Diego State.
- Dutcher welcomes back three returning starters in senior forward Matt Mitchell, senior guard Jordan Schakel and junior forward Nathan Mensah. Mitchell and Schakel played in all 32 games a year ago, with Mitchell starting 19 times and Schakel getting 31 starting nods. Mensah, whose playing time was limited due to injury, started and appeared in the first 13 games of the year before he was shut down for the season. No other returning Aztecs have started a game for the program.
- Jordan Schakel returns as one of the team's and the leagues top three-point threats. The Torrance, Calif., native ranked second on the team last year in three-point makes (71) and led the team in three-point percentage (.436; 71-of-163), while playing in all 32 games (26.5 mpg). Schakel averaged a career-best 10.0 points while grabbing 3.4 rebounds per game. He took great care of the ball, committing 17 turnovers in 849 minutes. In three seasons, he has committed just 41 turnovers in 1,955 total minutes (.854 turnovers committed per 40 minutes played).
- In 2020-21, SDSU will replace its leader from last year's team in scoring average (Malachi Flynn - 17.6), assists (Flynn - 163), steals (Flynn - 56), and minutes (Flynn - 1,072).
- SDSU has three Division I transfers on the 2020-21 roster. Terrell Gomez (CSUN) & Joshua Tomaic (Maryland) are grad transfers who have one year of eligibility and will play immediately. Cade Alger (Seattle U) sat out last season as a redshirt in Seattle, but is also immediately eligible to compete for the Aztecs in 2020-21.
- SDSU loses three starters (KJ Feagin, Malachi Flynn & Yanni Wetzell) from its 2019-20 squad that reached the championship game of the 2020 MW Tournament. The impact of the loss of trio can not be underestimated. They provided SDSU with 51.1 percent of its points last season (1,224-of-2,395), 63.5 percent of its assists (301-of-474), 45.7 percent of its steals (101-of-221) and 40.6 percent of its rebounds (456-of-1121). In addition, Flynn, a consensus All-American, and Feagin were selected to the 2020 Mountain West All-Tournament Team.
- When the season tips off, the Aztecs will have nine players on the roster who have never played a game in an SDSU uniform. Grad transfers Terrell Gomez (CSUN) and Joshua Tomaic (Maryland), a guard and forward, respectively, have one year of eligibility. Lamont Butler (Riverside Poly High, Moreno Valley, Calif.), Keith Dinwiddie Jr. (Fairfax Senior High, Los Angeles, Calif.), Che Evans (Neumann-Goretti High, Philadelphia, Pa.) and Derek Morhar (Calabasas High, Calabasas, Calif.) are true freshman. Cade Alger (Seattle U) is a transfer who comes to The Mesa as a redshirted freshman and twins Triston and Tyler Broughton (Tesoro High, Ladera Ranch, Calif.) were members of the program last year, but have been elevated to the playing roster this season.

- Seniors Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel, a forward and guard, respectively, are back after receiving starting nods throughout 2019-20 campaign. Mitchell (12.2 ppg., 4.8 rpg.) played in all 32 games, starting the final 19, and enters 2020-21 with 84 starting assignments in 99 career games, which is the most on the active roster. After breaking into the starting line up last year, getting the nod in 31-of-32 games, Schakel (10.0 ppg., 3.4 rpg.) set career-highs in nearly every statistical category. He is one of the Mountain West's premier three-point shooters, hitting 71-of-163 (.436) in 2019-20. For his career, 70.6 percent of his buckets (142-of-201) have come from the bonus distance, and his .927 free throw percentage last season led the squad.
- Junior forward Nathan Mensah started the first 13 games of the season, before an injury ended his year. He led the team in blocks (22) and field goal percentage (.617), while scoring 6.9 points and 6.8 rebounds-per game.
- SDSU also welcomes back senior Trey Pulliam (guard), juniors Adam Seiko (guard), Aguek Arop (forward), and sophomores Keshad Johnson (forward) and Jared Barnett (guard). In 2019-20, Pulliam averaged 3.3 points and 1.9 assists. Seiko (2.9 ppg., 1.9 rpg.), Arop (3.0 ppg., 2.2 rpg.), Johnson (1.9 ppg., 1.7 rpg.) and Barnett (0.3 ppg., 0.1 rpg.) are all forecast to play larger rolls and make larger contributions in 2020-21.

TEAM NOTES

- The Aztecs finished last year with a 30-2 record and a 17-1 mark in the Mountain West. SDSU posted its 15th straight season with at least 19 victories.
- San Diego State entered the first NET (NCAA Evaluation Tool) rankings at No. 3 and remained in the top-5 throughout the season. The team peaked with a NET-record 24 consecutive days at No. 1 and in total spent a NET-record 45 days ranked No. 1 in the 2019-20 season.
- SDSU was not ranked in either the Associated Press or Coaches Poll in the preseason and wasn't even chosen to win the Mountain West, however, on Dec. 9 they debuted in the top-25 rankings at No. 25/24 and four weeks later were within the top-10 where they remained for the rest of the season. The team peaked at No. 4/4 for five weeks and finished the year at No. 6/6.
- Each of San Diego State's two losses last season came by three points, and in its loss to Utah State, in the championship game of the Mountain West Tournament, the game was decided on a last second three-pointer.
- San Diego State did a good job in close games last season, going 3-2 in games decided by five points or less. In addition, it was 10-2 in games where the margin of victory was 10 points or less.
- Six Aztecs (KJ Feagin, Malachi Flynn, Matt Mitchell, Nathan Mensah, Jordan Schakel & Yanni Wetzell) made 159 of a possible 160 starts last season. Entering the 2020-21 season, San Diego State will have to replace 97 starting assignments (32 each from Feagin, Flynn, and Wetzell and one from Nolan Nairn).
- The Aztecs were once again the top defensive team in the Mountain West last season, ranking first in scoring defense (59.47 ppg), scoring margin (+15.38 ppg), field-goal percentage defense (.387), three-point field goal percentage defense (.298) and turnover margin (+3.41/g). In addition, SDSU ranked second in the league in rebounding defense (31.72 rpg) and steals (6.91/g). In conference games only, San Diego State ranked first in scoring defense (61.0 ppg), scoring margin (+12.67 ppg), field-goal percentage defense (.398), turnover margin (+1.94/g), and was second in three-point field goal percentage defense (.300) and rebounding defense (31.72/g).
- SDSU has posted at least 20 wins 14 times in the last 15 years, 17 times in its Division I history (49 years) and 24 times overall, with Head Coach Brian Dutcher has been on the San Diego State bench for 15 of those 24 seasons.
- San Diego State has appeared in the NCAA Tournament nine times and played 15 games (6-9) in the last 19 seasons, in which a national champion was crowned. All 15 of those games have occurred with Brian Dutcher on the sideline and are the most in MW history.
- SDSU has claimed a Mountain West-leading 12 conference titles, including five MW Tournament crowns (2002, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2018). The Aztecs, who in 2019-20 won the Mountain West regular-season crown, played in their sixth Mountain West championship game in the last eight seasons, and last won the Mountain West Tournament in 2018.
- San Diego State has been one of the elite programs in the nation since the start of the 2010-11 season, posting a cumulative record of 261-86. SDSU's .752 winning percentage is the 11th-best nationally over the last 10 years (complete list is on page 1).
- SDSU enters the year having won at least 20 games and advancing to the postseason in 12 (8 NCAA, 4 NIT) of the last 15 years, the 2020 postseason was canceled due to a global pandemic. In the last 15 seasons, the Aztecs have won 388 games, an average of 25.9 victories per season.
- The Aztecs have won the Mountain West regular-season crown (outright or shared) seven times (2005-06, 1010-11, 2011-12, 2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16 & 2019-20) in the last 11 years.
- On Nov. 18, 2020, Malachi Flynn is anticipated to be selected in the 2020 NBA Draft. He would be the sixth Aztec to be drafted by an NBA team since Brian Dutcher has been on the SDSU bench and is the 20th player overall, coached by Dutcher who has gone on to be drafted by an NBA franchise.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

- San Diego State returns three starters in senior forward Matt Mitchell, senior guard Jordan Schakel and junior forward Nathan Mensah from the 2019-20 squad. The trio figures to be included in the team's first five from the outset of the 2020-21 season. Schakel started in 31 games last year, and 47-of-93 in his career, while Mitchell finished 2019-20 with 19 consecutive starts and has made the starting lineup in 84-of-99 career games. Both Schakel and Mitchell appeared in all 32 games last year. Mensah started in each of the first 13 games in which appeared last year before an injury cut his season short. In his career, he has made 33 starts in the 47 games in which he has played.
- Matt Mitchell had a strong junior season that saw him average career bests 12.2 points (.468 FG, .393 3FG), 4.8 rebounds and 11 blocks, while holding top-three team rankings in 13 statistical categories. Built like a two-sport star, standing at 6-6 and weighing a svelte 235 pounds, Mitchell has scored in double figures 57 times in his career. He has averaged 11.0 points per game in his three seasons as an Aztec and with 22 points against New Mexico on Feb. 11, 2020, became the 34th player in program history to reach the 1,000-career point plateau. In 2019-20, Mitchell earned first and second-team All-Mountain West honors by separate votes of the coaches and media, respectively, and was an NABC second-team All-District 17 performer. In his first appearance of 2020-21 he will become the 33rd player in the program's DI history to appear in 100 games.

- After setting career highs in nearly every statistical category as a sophomore, Jordan Schakel returned in 2019-20, as a junior, and continued to improve his game and established new career-bests. The sharpshooter knocked down career-highs by hitting 45.3 percent from the floor (105-of-232), including 43.6 percent of his three-point attempts (71-of-163), and 92.7 percent from the line (38-of-41), cementing himself as the team's top shooter coming back in 2020-21. In his three seasons, Schakel's scoring average has gone from 3.2 points as a freshman to 7.4 as a sophomore and 10.0 last season. If he continues his upward climb in the scoring column, he could become the 35th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point plateau (he begins the season with 632 points and would need to average 13.6 point in 27 games to reach the milestone). Last season, he made at least one three-pointer in 28-of-32 games, and at least four in a game five times, including a 5-of-7 effort in a road win at Brigham Young. Schakel, who committed 17 turnovers in 849 minutes last year, has 41 in three seasons and 1,955 total minutes (less than one turnover per 40 minutes played - 0.839:1). Schakel was named a member of the 2019 Continental Tires Las Vegas Invitational All-Tournament Team.
- Nathan Mensah returns in 2020-21 after his sophomore season was cut short due to injury. A starter in the first 13 games, the Labadi, Accra, Ghana native averaged 6.9 points, 6.8 rebounds and 1.7 blocks during that span. In 2018-19, he was just the second SDSU freshman to have a 10-point, 10-rebound, three-block and two-assist game in the previous 23 years (the other to accomplish the feat was Kawhi Leonard in 2009-10). At the time of his injury, Mensah led the team in field goal percentage (.617), offensive (27), defensive (62) and total rebounds (89), as well as blocks (22).
- With the graduation of KJ Feagin and departure to the professional ranks of Malachi Flynn, who averaged a combined 26.7 points, 8.1 assists and 7.7 rebounds last year, head coach Brian Dutcher will replace his starting backcourt in 2020-21. Look for Trey Pulliam, who transferred from Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas prior to last season, and senior Terrell Gomez, a graduate transfer from CSUN, to fill those rolls. The two have combined to average 23.1 points, 4.2 assists and 4.4 rebounds last year.
- Terrell Gomez joins the Aztecs in 2020-21 after earning his degree and transferring from CSUN. The high-scoring guard from Los Angeles, averaged 19.2 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 2019-20, his last season with the Matadors. In 32 games last season, he reached double figures 31 times, including a career-high 33 points against Pepperdine. Gomez led the nation in free throw percentage (.948), was fifth in three-point field goals (111), sixth in three-pointer field goals per game (3.5) and eighth in three-point field goal percentage (.440) in 2019-20. For his career, he has averaged 17.1 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.9 assists in 96 games, all starts.
- Trey Pulliam enters his senior season after transferring to SDSU prior to last year's campaign. The Bryan, Texas native appeared, off the bench, in all 32 games averaging 3.3 points, 1.9 rebounds and 1.9 assists in 561 minutes. In two seasons at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas, he averaged 11.6 point, 4.9 assists and 3.6 rebounds in 58 games, of which 52 were starts. The 6-3 guard finished his Navarro College career ranked second in assists (283), fifth in steals (101) and 11th in scoring (671). His squad finished the year ranked 24th in the nation, after he led them to the 2018-19 NJCAA Division I Region XIV championship game. He had 37 double-digit scoring games with a single-game high 30 points, and dished out a career-high 10 assists on three occasions.
- Adam Seiko, the team's best on-ball defender, appeared in 29 games last season, his sophomore campaign. The 6-3, guard continued to show he can shoot the ball from the perimeter making 43.1 percent of his shots from the floor (28-of-65), as well as 20-of-54 from three-point range (37.0 percent). He made multiple treys in 6-of-13 games in which he scored from beyond the arc. The Boston, Mass., native has committed just 29 turnovers in 748 minutes of action, which works out to 1.5 turnovers per 40 minutes played. For his career 34-of-45 buckets (75.6 percent) have been three-pointers.
- Aguek Arop returns for his junior season after being limited to 22 games in 2019-20. The native of Omaha, Neb., and pound-for-pound the strongest player on the roster, averaged 3.0 points and 2.2 rebounds in 9.5 minutes of action per contest. Projecting his stats from 2019-20 per 40 minutes played, he would average 12.7 points, 9.2 rebounds, 1.5 assists and steals and 1.0 blocks. Among the non-starters he led the team in shooting percentage and rebounds. Arop grabbed a career-high six rebounds against Grand Canyon and Nevada and recorded a season-high eight points at BYU and against Utah State in the 2020 Mountain West Tournament championship game.

- Joshua Tomaic is a graduate transfer from Maryland who has one year of eligibility and will compete for the Aztecs in 2020-21. The Lanzarote, Canary Islands, Spain native averaged 1.3 points and 1.1 rebounds in his three seasons of competition in the Big Ten and graduated with a degree in information science over the summer. Upon signing with Maryland in 2016, Tomaic was reportedly the first Canarian to compete for an NCAA collegiate basketball program. Prior to arriving in the United States, he played at Canarias Basketball Academy (CBA) and averaged 19 points and 12 rebounds per game for the CBA U18 team that placed fifth in the Spanish National Championships. Tomaic is a 6-9 forward who can score with his back to the basket, step out and hit from the three-point line, and run the floor.
- Keshad Johnson, a 6-7 sophomore forward, was the lone scholarship freshman on the roster a year ago and appeared in 18 contests, all off the bench. A prototypical Aztec wing, Johnson has strength, is long, gets off the floor quickly and plays above the basket. He can finish at the rim and has improved his perimeter game in the offseason. He was rated by ESPN as a four-star prospect and one of the top-25 high school players in California when he arrived at SDSU. Johnson led San Leandro (Calif.) High with 14.4 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.3 blocks, 1.9 steals and had nine double doubles as a senior. He was named the West Alameda County Conference-Foothill League's Most Valuable Player and a San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro Boys performer in 2018-19 after guiding his team to a 24-6 overall record, a West Alameda County Conference-Foothill League title and the CIF State Boys Basketball Division I playoffs. As a junior at Envision Academy, he averaged 24.0 points, 12.4 rebounds, 4.2 blocked shots, 3.4 assists and 2.8 steals per game, and led the team to the CIF State Boys Basketball Division V playoffs.
- Jared Barnett is a 6-1 sophomore guard, out of Los Angeles' Westchester High, who walked on to the team last season and appeared in 10 contests. He scored in his first game and had a steal in the season opener vs. Texas Southern. At Westchester, he earned second-team All-Western League honors as a senior after averaging 13.0 points, 6.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game. As a senior, he helped guide the Comets to a 24-5 record and a birth in the Los Angeles City Section finals.
- Lamont Butler is a 6-0 freshman point guard, out of Riverside (Calif.) Poly High School. A four-star rated recruit by ESPN and three-star talent by Rivals.com and 247Sports.com, he was named one of the class of 2020's top-50 point guards nationally by ESPN (No. 30). He compiled 91 wins in his high school career, culminating in a 27-7 record in 2019-20, including going 12-0 in Ivy League play and winning the conference championship. In his senior season, he was named Ivy League Most Valuable Player, as well as a second-team Cal-Hi Sports all-state performer. Butler earned All-Ivy League and All-State honors four times. In addition, following his sophomore, junior and senior seasons, he was an all-county and all-CIF selection. Following his sophomore and senior seasons, Riverside Poly reached the CIF Championship game. Butler earned Riverside Kiwanis Tournament MVP designation as a sophomore, junior and senior. In his junior season, he was an all-tournament selection at the Damien Classic and Maranatha Tournament and as a senior earned all-tournament honors in the Tarkanian Classic. His team won the Battlezone (freshman), Riverside Kiwanis (sophomore, junior and senior) and Section 7 (senior) tournaments, and was runner-up in the Tarkanian Classic (sophomore), Maranatha (junior), CIF Championship (sophomore and senior). Butler passed NBA Hall of Famer Reggie Miller as Riverside Poly's all-time leading scorer with more than 1,800-career points while shooting .432 (642-of-1,485) from the floor, and added 559 assists, 271 steals.
- Keith Dinwiddie Jr. is a 6-0 freshman shooting guard, out of Fairfax Senior High School in Los Angeles. A three-star rated recruit by Rivals.com and 247Sports, he was named one of the class of 2020's top-50 shooting guards nationally by Rivals.com (No. 47). Following the 2019-20 season, he earned Western League Most Valuable Player honors as well as co-Player of the Year for both the All-City Open Division & All-CIF LA City Section. In two varsity seasons, as a junior and senior, his team went 53-8, including 22-0 in Western League action, which resulted in back-to-back Western League championships. In his junior year, he led his team to the Los Angeles City Section Open Division championship, the No. 5 ranking in the state and No. 22 in the nation.
- Che Evans is a 6-5 freshman wing, out of Neumann-Goretti High School in Philadelphia, who was a four-star recruit by ESPN and Scout.com and three-star talent by Rivals.com and 247Sports. Evans was named one of the class of 2020's top-50 small forwards nationally by ESPN (No. 45), Rivals.com (No. 49) and 247Sports.com (No. 38). As a senior, Neumann-Goretti posted a 24-4 record, 14-2 in conference play and won the Philadelphia Catholic League championship. As a junior, while a member of Dulaney High School in Baltimore, he averaged 20.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and 6.0 assists per game and led the team to the Class 4A North Region championship.
- Cade Alger is a 6-9 freshman forward who transferred from Seattle U after redshirting last season. Alger is a graduate of Ripon (Calif.) Christian High School who, as a senior who averaged 18.0 points, 12.3 rebounds and 3.0 assists, led the team to the CIF State Tournament. He finished his high school career with more than 1,000 points, and following the 2018-19 season was named a first-team Front Row Preps All-Region and CalHiSports.com All-State performer, as well as D5 Scholar Athlete of the Year. He was a two-time first-team All-Trans Valley League selection and as a junior, led team to the CIF Sac-Joaquin Division 6 Section championship, was named to the Modesto Bee All-District Team and earned the CIF Sac-Joaquin Sportsmanship Award. Alger earned the team's MVP award in 2015-16 and 2018-19.
- Triston Broughton is a 6-4 freshman guard, out of Tesoro High School in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif. A three-year varsity letterwinner, he was named an All-Sea View League performer as a sophomore, junior and senior and competed in the CIF Southern Section playoffs in each of those seasons. He helped lead the team to the Sea View League championship as a senior (2018-19) averaging 17.0 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game. The team won the championship at the 2018 SoCal Elite Gary Raya Classic, where he earned all-tournament honors. A three-year team captain, he earned "Titan of the Year" as a sophomore. In the classroom, he was a four-year straight "A" student and the 2019 Sea View High School Valedictorian. His twin brother Tyler is also a member of the Aztecs program, and both were members of the 2019-20 practice squad which helped the team to a 30-2 record and a final national ranking of No. 6/6. His father is former NBA player Chris Mills.
- Tyler Broughton is a 6-4 freshman guard, out of Tesoro High School in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif. A two-year varsity player, he was named the Sea View League Most Valuable Player and lead the team to the Sea View League championship as a senior (2018-19) averaging 12.0 points and 5.0 assists per game. His team competed in the CIF Southern Section playoffs in each of his two varsity seasons, and Broughton participated in the North-South Orange County All-Star basketball game in 2019. His twin brother Triston is also a member of the Aztecs program, and both were members of the 2019-20 practice squad which helped the team to a 30-2 record and a final national ranking of No. 6/6. His father is former NBA player Chris Mills.
- Derek Morhar is a 6-5 freshman guard, out of Calabasas (Calif.) High School. As a senior, was a first-team All-Marmonte League performer and Ventura County Basketball Coaches Association all-county selection. He led the team in scoring and earned its Most Valuable Player honor last season, averaging 17.6 points and 5.5 rebounds. Morhar won the Marmonte League championship as a junior and was twice named the team's Most Improved Player (as a sophomore and a junior). He earned academic distinction following his sophomore, junior and senior seasons as well as first-team academic all-county as a senior. In the best offensive game of his career, poured in 37 points versus Westlake High School.

BRIAN DUTCHER

Head Coach

Fourth Season • 22nd Season Overall at SDSU • Minnesota, 1982

Brian Dutcher enters his fourth season as San Diego State head coach after three years in which he led the Aztecs to three Mountain West title games, its conference-record 11th and 12th Mountain West crowns and back to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015. He is the only coach in the 99-year history of San Diego State men's basketball to win at least 20 games in each of his first three seasons at the helm of the program, and over the summer signed a contract extension which will keep him on The Mesa through the 2025-26 season.

In 2019-20 his squad ripped off a program-record 26 straight wins to open the season and peaked, for eight weeks, at a No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches top-25 polls, before finishing the regular season at No. 6. The Aztecs went 30-2 on the year, including 17-1 in Mountain West play and Dutcher earned USA Today National Coach of the Year, Mountain West Coach of the Year (in both the coaches and media polls), National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division I District 17 Coach of the Year and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District IX Coach of the Year. In addition, he was one of five finalists for the 2020 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year Award.

In program history, his team's 30 wins in 2019-20 are the third most in a season and its two defeats are the fewest. SDSU's 17 wins in conference play are the most in program history, and its one loss is the fewest in the Aztecs' Division I era and equals the fewest since 1926-27, when it moved from junior college competition to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). San Diego State opened the 2019-20 league slate with a 15-game winning streak which set a new Mountain West record.

Led by junior guard and consensus All-American Malachi Flynn, the team won the Continental Tires Las Vegas Invitational with a blow out victory over Creighton and a 16-point comeback win against Iowa in the championship game. A month later, the Aztecs handed Utah a 28-point drubbing in the Basketball Hall of Fame Classic three days after the Utes defeated then No. 6 Kentucky.

In addition to Flynn, forwards Matt Mitchell and Yanni Wetzell and guard KJ Feagin, were recognized by the MW in its postseason awards as well as numerous national outlets.

With the expected return for the postseason of forward Nathan Mensah, who had been sidelined for the final 19 games of the year, San Diego State was poised for a deep run in the NCAA Tournament. The Aztecs were projected to be either a No. 1 or No. 2 seed and some felt were a Final Four team, but the coronavirus pandemic put an end to the postseason and fans were left to wonder what could have been.

In 2017-18, his inaugural season as Aztecs head coach, Dutcher was the only Division I head coach to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament after going 22-10 in the regular season, including winning the 2018 Mountain West Tournament championship.

Dutcher, who took the helm of the program following Steve Fisher's retirement announcement on April 11, 2017, was on The Mesa for all 18 of Fisher's seasons. He held the title of associate head coach/head coach in waiting for the six years prior to his ascension to the top job and is the 15th head coach in the program's history.

Over the course of his 21 years at San Diego State, Dutcher has helped the Aztecs reach the postseason 14 times, including nine trips to the NCAA tournament, win a conference-best 12 Mountain West titles and record 15 seasons of at least 20 victories.

Since 2008-09, Dutcher and SDSU twice advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2011, 2014) and NIT semifinal round (2009, 2016), won at least 25 games eight times and captured nine MW championships (six regular season, three tournament).

Dutcher arrived at San Diego State shortly after Fisher was hired on March 26, 1999. In his first year in "America's Finest City," the Aztecs won only five games, but improved upon their win total from the season before. After that, San Diego State posted a 14-14 record in 2000-01, before winning the 2002 MW Championship, earning an NCAA tournament bid, and finishing with a 21-12 record. The 2002-03 campaign saw SDSU receive an NIT invitation, which culminated in the program's first Division I postseason victory.

After helping attract the program's first McDonald's All-American to the 2002-03 squad, Dutcher assisted in securing the signatures of future starters and all-league performers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. The duo started their first two seasons on The Mesa, leading to the 2005-06 campaign that produced the school's first MW regular-season and tournament title sweep.

The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA tournament and ultimately won a then-school-record 24 games. That appearance led to a string of 10 consecutive postseason berths.

From the 2006-07 campaign through 2008-09, San Diego State registered 20 or more wins and went to three straight NITs. In 2009, the Aztecs advanced to the NIT semifinals and broke the previous school record with 26 victories. That run to the 2009 NIT semifinals was a springboard to the most successful run in SDSU basketball history. Led by future NBA first-round draft pick and two-time NBA champion Kawhi Leonard, the 2009-10 Aztecs won the MW Championship, advanced to the NCAA tournament and fell four points shy of moving on to the second round before finishing with a 25-9 record.

The NCAA experience from the 2009-10 squad proved fruitful in 2010-11, when it returned all five starters, including Leonard, and freshman Jamaal Franklin, who would turn out to be a future MW Player of the Year and NBA draft selection. With Dutcher on staff, SDSU won its first 20 games of the year, shared the MW regular-season title, and captured the MW tournament crown. The Aztecs moved on to the NCAA tournament as a No. 2 seed and won the program's first Division I NCAA tournament game. San Diego State, which was ranked as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season, advanced to the Sweet 16 and fell to the eventual national champion, finishing with a school-record 34 wins, a mark that still stands today. The Aztecs' also found themselves in the final top-25 polls, ranking sixth in the AP and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. Five months after SDSU's record-setting 2010-11 campaign, the University elevated Dutcher to associate head coach/head coach in waiting.

In his first season with his new title, Dutcher and the Aztecs advanced to the 2012 NCAA tournament as an at-large team and recorded 26 wins. The next season, San Diego State was again an at-large selection to the NCAA tournament, moved on to the round of 32 for the second time in three years and finished with 23 victories.

Another NCAA Sweet 16 run was in the cards in Dutcher's third season as the head coach in waiting. The Aztecs opened the campaign by winning 21 of their first 22 games, including 20 in a row at one point, and were led by seniors Xavier Thames, who would become an NBA draft pick, and Josh Davis. SDSU won the program's second outright Mountain West regular-season title and later swept through two games in Spokane, Washington, to secure its second Sweet 16 appearance in four seasons. San Diego State compiled 31 wins and finished the season ranked 13th in the AP and 12th in the Coaches after rising to as high as fifth nationally in both polls.

The 2014-15 campaign saw the Aztecs spend their fifth straight season in the top 25. In the process of winning 27 games, San Diego State grabbed its second straight MW regular-season crown and earned an at-large invitation to the NCAA tournament where they defeated St. John's in the round of 64. One season later, the Aztecs found themselves in the NIT after winning the MW by three games with a 16-2 record. Nevertheless, San Diego State won three games and qualified for the NIT national semifinals, eventually logging 28 victories.

SDSU completed the 2016-17 slate with a 19-14 record despite experiencing a rash of injuries. The 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic champions entered 2017-18 as one of 12 teams to have won at least 19 games in 12 consecutive seasons, which was a sign of things to come in Dutcher's first year.

Dutcher's first roster as head coach featured a pair of seniors that had won multiple Mountain West titles and owned NCAA tournament experience in Trey Kell and Malik Pope.

Prior to coming to SDSU, Dutcher spent 10 seasons on Steve Fisher's bench at Michigan, where the program reached the postseason each year and participated in the NCAA Tournament eight times, including three trips to the Final Four and the championship game including a national championship in 1989.
