Aztecs Look to Extend Best Division I Start in School History at 19th-Ranked Arizona on Saturday Afternoon

Having matched the best 11-game record in its 38 seasons at the Division I level, San Diego State (9-2 overall; 0-0 MWC) plays its eighth road or neutral game of the young season at 19th-ranked Arizona (8-2 overall; 0-0 Pac-10) on Saturday afternoon in Tucson, Ariz. in the 23rd annual Fiesta Bowl Classic.

Game time is set for 1 p.m. MT (noon PT) and the contest will be televised by FSN Arizona (DirecTV channel 649 and DISH channel 415) and the game will also be carried on FSN West in the San Diego market (San Diego Cox channel 29 and San Diego Time Warner channel 31). The game can also be heard on the Aztec radio flagship station AM 600 KOGO.

San Diego State improved to 9-2 for the fifth time in the Division I era and the second time in as many seasons on Monday night with an 86-76 victory over Navy. The Aztecs shook off the rust from an eight-day layoff between games to overcome an eight-point second-half deficit on the strength of a 13-0 run to extend its Cox Arena-record winning streak to 11 games.

Junior forward Lorenzo Wade led five Aztec players in double figures with a team-high 18 points, four rebounds and three steals. Freshman forward Billy White added 17 points and seven rebounds, while junior forward Kyle Spain narrowly missed a double-double with 14 points and a game-high nine rebounds. Sophomore forward Jon Pastorek, making his first career start, reached double figures for the second time in his career with 10 points (going 3-for-3 from the field and 4-for-4 from the line). Junior guard Kelvin Davis came off the bench to score 15 points and add four rebounds, while junior point guard Richie Williams needed just 17 minutes to post seven points and dish out a game-high seven assists.

Saturday opens a particularly challenging portion of San Diego State's schedule, as the Aztecs' next six opponents all own winning records. The Aztecs next two opponents, Arizona (8-2, ranked second in the RPI) and Sam Houston State (9-0, ranked 29th in the RPI), are a combined 16-2 and both are ranked in the top 29 of the RPI.

Arizona is 8-2 and won its fifth consecutive game of the season on Wednesday night, with a 52-49 victory at UNLV. Jordan Hill led the way with 16 points and 19 rebounds. The Wildcats are second in the nation in the RPI, marking the second time this season the Aztecs have faced the number two RPI team in the country at game time (Saint Mary's, currently ranked third in the RPI was number two when the Aztecs played the Gaels on Dec. 8).

This is the 24th meeting between the Aztecs and the Wildcats, with Arizona owning an 18-5 series advantage. UA has won five consecutive meetings with SDSU's last victory in the series coming in Ronald Reagan's first-term in the White House, a 90-80 decision on Dec. 17, 1983, at the San Diego Sports Arena.

Arizona has won 12 of the 13 all-time meetings in Tucson, including five in a row. SDSU's lone road victory in the series came on Dec. 9, 1971, when the Aztecs claimed a 69-67 decision. The Aztecs have been competitive in Tucson during the Wildcats' run. SDSU's last four losses at the McKale Center have been by a combined 23 points, including three losses by six points or less during that stretch.

This is the fourth meeting this decade between the two basketball programs, with the series scheduled to continue the next two seasons (2008-09 in Tucson and 2009-2010 in San Diego).

Storylines and Tidbits

► At 9-2, San Diego State has matched its best start in the 38-season Division I history. The Aztecs have opened a season with a 9-2 record on four occasions since moving to the Division I ranks in 1970. SDSU opened last season with a 10-2 record en route to a 22-11 record.

► San Diego State has gotten off to an impressive start despite the fact the Aztecs have only played four times at home this season. SDSU owns a 3-2 road record (with wins at Fresno State, San Diego, Loyola Marymount and has two neutral-court victories. The Aztecs are third nationally with five neutral/road victories this season (through Tuesday's games).

► Despite only playing four games at home this year, the Aztecs have not lost their touch when it comes to winning at Cox Arena. SDSU currently has won 11 straight in the building, the longest in arena history and the fifth-longest home winning streak in San Diego State's Division I history.

► Since Dec. 31, 2005, San Diego State has posted a 49-17 record. As of Dec. 18, the 49 victories in that time frame rank 17th nationally and tops in the Mountain West Conference. San Diego State is coming off consecutive seasons with 22 or more wins and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2006 and the second round of the NIT in 2007.

► One example of the new style for SDSU can be found in the steal category. The Aztecs' deep bench and full-court pressure has led to a ton of steals. The Aztecs have already had two games with more than 15 thefts and through 11 games, San Diego State has 112 steals, an average of 10.2 per game. That average ranks 16th nationally according to Stats, Inc. through Tuesday's game and the average is the highest in school history.

► SDSU has done an excellent job of avoiding losing streaks, going 25 consecutive games without a two-game losing streak and 78 games without dropping three in a row. The Aztecs have followed their last seven defeats with a victory in the next game and are 20-4 in the contest following their most recent 24 defeats. San Diego State has been victorious in its first home game following its last 12 losses.

► Since moving to the Division I ranks prior to the beginning of the 1970-71 season, San Diego State has posted a 12-73 record against nationally-ranked opponents. The Aztecs have won their most recent two encounters with teams ranked among the top 25, defeating 15th-ranked Air Force, 62-41, on Feb. 6, 2007, and 21st-ranked Brigham Young, 86-74, on Feb. 24, 2007. The current two game winning streak against AP top 25 teams is the third longest active streak in the country, trailing only Florida (8) and Wichita State (3). SDSU has never won three straight games against top-25 teams.

San Diego State Cliff Notes

Having lost the all-time leading scorer in school history (Brandon Heath - 2,189 points) and possibly the single most-successful player in school history (Mohamed Abukar (compiled a 39-15 record, 72.2 percent)), not many people expected much from San Diego State in 2007-08.

Yet the Aztecs have used a deep bench and used full-court defensive pressure to jump out to an 9-2 record. The Aztecs, currently ranked 68th in the RPI, have four players averaging in double figures and seven players averaging 8.5 points or more. Eight Aztec players are currently averaging 23.2 minutes or more per contest.

This edition of the SDSU squad has had more success than what most people would have expected. With a roster made up of one senior, six juniors, two sophomores and four freshmen, the Aztecs have posted five road/neutral victories to date, the third most wins nationally in that category.

The Aztecs are led by junior forwards Lorenzo Wade and Kyle Spain.

Wade, 6-6, who played on Louisville's 2005 NCAA Final Four team, is averaging a team-high 14.4 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game. He is shooting 50.8 percent from the field and an impressive 43.3 percent from three-point range. An athletic left-handed player who is one of the top defensive players on the West Coast, he is averaging a team-high 30.5 minutes per game.

Spain, 6-5, is in his third season with the Aztecs, averaging 13.3 points and 5.6 rebounds. The junior has played the last two games after missing two of the previous three due to an ankle injury. Spain looked like himself vs. Navy as he recorded 14 points, nine rebounds and three steals. The Newark, Calif., native had a phenomenal freshman season when SDSU won the MWC regular season and postseason championships en route to the NCAA Tournament. Spain connected on 51.7 percent from three-point range in 2005-06 and made 25 starts before struggling through an injury-plagued sophomore campaign. This season, Spain has returned to the phenom freshman form. He has attempted a team-high 50 free throws this season, and is shooting 76.0 percent from the charity stripe.

Junior point guard Richie Williams has played himself back into the regular rotation. After missing the first three games of the season serving a team suspension, Williams has started two of the last three games and reached double figures in three straight games for the first time in his career before being held to seven vs. Navy. The 5-10 guard had 16 points against Western Michigan, 13 vs. UC Riverside and 11 against Saint Mary's. He also has 11 rebounds and six steals in his two starts.

* - Indicates Mountain West Conference game. Record, RPI and Sagarin is current as of Wednesday, December 19, 2007.

In a year of big impact newcomers, no player has had a bigger impact than 6-8 center Ryan Amoroso. Amoroso, who played for two seasons at Marquette, is averaging 8.9 points, 5.7 rebounds, but his real impact is on the defensive end where his 257-pound frame has given SDSU a wide body in the paint.

Another newcomer who has found his way into the starting lineup is freshman Billy White. White, who may rival Wade for athleticism, is averaging 9.2 points and 5.5 rebounds having played in all 10 games and making eight starts. The freshman is 42-of-65 from the field for an amazing 64.6 field goal percentage. He also has a team-high 20 steals and 10 dunks this season.

Junior forward Kelvin Davis, who played in the 2005 NCAA Tournament while at UTEP, has needed little time to adjust after sitting out a year. Davis is averaging 11.9 points (second on the team) and 3.3 rebounds, while shooting 54.9 percent from the field and 46.8 percent from three-point range.

Freshman point guard D.J. Gay started the first eight games of the season (nine total) and will continue to see plenty of action. Through 11 games, he has 22 assists and just 14 turnovers to go along with a 4.2 scoring average. Known as a great shooter, Gay has connected on 10 treys to date.

With the season-ending knee injury to Tim Shelton, Jon Pastorek and Jer' Vaughn Johnson have both seen increased playing time. Pastorek has played in eight games, making his first career start vs. Navy, and is averaging 2.9 points and 2.6 rebounds. He had a career-best four assists against Saint Mary's and followed it with 10 points (3-3 FG, 4-4 FT) and two rebounds against the Midshipmen. Johnson, meanwhile, has played in nine games, averaging 1.4 points and 1.3 rebounds.

San Diego State has been a handful for opponents this season. Aztec opponents are shooting 43.2 percent from the field, 34.2 percent from three-point range and are averaging 17.8 turnovers to date.

Aztecs Earn 100th Win at Cox Arena with 86-76 Victory Over Navy

SAN DIEGO - Five players scored in double figures for the Aztecs, who also owned a plus-18 rebound margin and made 20 more free throws, to lead San Diego State to an 86-76 victory over Navy.

The Midshipmen gave the home team a run for its money with their precise shooting from beyond the arc. In the first half, seven of Navy's 15 field goals came from three-point distance handing SDSU its first halftime deficit, 37-35, of the season.

Coming out of the break, the Mids extended their lead to eight less than two minutes into the final period after Navy's Greg Sprink scored two of his game-high 26 points on a layup.

Both teams traded baskets with the Midshipmen responding to each SDSU bucket with a three-pointer more times than not, including at the 7:55 mark when Adam Teague connected from deep to tie the score at 61.

It was at that point the Aztecs took control of the game as they went on a 13-0 run to give SDSU its 100th win at Cox Arena.

Kyle Spain had a nice all-around game as he scored 14 points, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and added three assists, while Jon Pastorek recorded 10 points in his first career start. Richie Williams, who started the second half, came in and provided an instant spark as he had seven points and seven assists in just 17 minutes.

Noting the Navy Game

► The Aztecs overcame an eight-point second-half deficit. Their effort is tied for the 10th-largest second-half deficit overcome for a victory in the Steve Fisher era. ... It is their largest second-half deficit overcome for a victory since rallying from 11 down on Jan. 27, 2007, vs. Utah. ... It is the 12th time SDSU has overcome at least an eight-point deficit in the final half since the 1999-00 season.

► SDSU had at least three players reach double figures in scoring for the 11th straight game. Monday night, SDSU finished with at least five players in double digits in the same game for the third time in 2007.

► The Aztecs outrebounded Navy by a season-high 18 rebounds. Their previous best was a +14 effort at Fresno State on Nov. 11, 2007. ... SDSU's performance on the boards in terms of margin also ties for fifth-best in Cox Arena history.

► The win is the Aztecs' 100th in Cox Arena history.

► Lorrenzo Wade (18 points) reached double figures in scoring for the seventh straight game and for the 10th time this year. ... His seven-game streak with 10 or more points is a career long. His previous best came last season when he went six consecutive games with at least 10 points. ... Wade led the team in scoring for the fourth time this year. ... Wade's 18 points ties a season high.

► Kyle Spain (14 points) posted his eighth game with at least 10 points. ... SDSU improved to 7-1 on the season and 23-3 in his career when he reaches double figures. ... He also had a team-best nine rebounds.

► Jon Pastorek (10 points) recorded his second career double-figure scoring effort in his first career start. ... Set a season-best with his 10 points. ... He set a career high for free throws made (4) and attempted (4).

► Kelvin Davis (15 points) connected on multiple three-point attempts for the eighth time this year en route to his eighth double-digit scoring performance.

► Richie Williams entered the game in the second half and immediately contributed seven assists in just 17 minutes.

A Quick Look at Arizona

► Arizona is 8-2 this season and are winners of five straight.

► The Wildcats have three players average in double figures and are led by Jerryd Bayless at 18.8 points per game.

► Encinitas native Chase Budinger is averaging 15.9 points and 5.3 rebounds, while Jordan Hill is averaging 13.4 points and a team-leading 7.3 rebounds.

► At McKale Center, Arizona is an impressive 6-1 with its only home defeat coming against Virginia, 75-72.

► As a team, the Wildcats are shooting 48.9 percent, while holding opponents to 42.1 percent from the field.

► Interim head coach Kevin O'Neill is leading the team after head coach Lute Olson was granted a leave of absence earlier this month. This is O'Neill's fourth year at Arizona, but his first season in his second stint at the school.

San Diego State-Arizona: The Series

► Saturday will mark the 24th all-time meeting between San Diego State and Arizona, but just the fourth time the teams have played since 1986. Arizona owns a 18-5 series lead, which dates back to 1945.

► This is the back half of a home-and-home series between the teams. Back in October, the schools agreed to extend the series with games scheduled for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 campaigns.

► The Wildcat have won five straight games and 10 of the last 11 games in the series. The lone Aztec win since against the Wildcats since 1973, came on Dec. 17, 1983, when SDSU posted a 90-80 victory.

► Steve Fisher is just 1-7 against Arizona, but there is a pretty good explanation. The Wildcats have always been one of the nation's top programs, but they have been sensational when going up against Fisher-coached squads. Entering Saturday's game, Arizona has been ranked in the previous eight encounters against Fisher (1st, 4th, 6th (twice), 7th, 9th, 12th and 19th). Coupled with that, in the previous eight meetings only two previous times has the Fisher-coached team owned homecourt advantage. In case your curious, Fisher's victory over Arizona came on Dec. 21, 1996, by a 73-71 score.

► Both San Diego State and Arizona had a Walton on its roster in years past. SDSU's Chris Walton earned four letters and overcame chronic injuries and was part of teams that advanced to the 2002 NCAA Tournament and the 2003 post-season NIT. Chris played in 110 games and scored 565 points and grabbed 370 rebounds in his four seasons at SDSU. Luke Walton was a two-time All-American at Arizona and currently plays for the Los Angeles Lakers. The brothers were scheduled to play against one another in December of 2003, but Chris ended up redshirting that season and the two never played against one another in a college game.

Goliath vs. Goliath

The San Diego State program has made remarkable progress under the guidance of Steve Fisher. It is easy to take for granted the four postseason appearances in the last six seasons and the consecutive seasons with 22 or more victories. To show just how far the Aztec program has come, take a look at how well SDSU's recent success measures up against one of the nation's elite programs in Arizona.

In addition, the 2007-08 edition of the Aztecs are looking to return to the postseason for the third consecutive season for the first time since 1940, 1941 and 1942. SDSU is also looking to reach the 20-win plateau for the third straight year for the first time in the Division I era and the first time since 1938-39, 1939-40 and 1940-41 campaigns.

Recent Meetings

LAST MEETING: No. 14/15 Arizona 69, San Diego State 48 | Dec. 9, 2006 | Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State was held to its lowest field-goal, three-point and free-throw percentage of the season in a 69-48 defeat at the hands of 14th/15th-ranked Arizona before a sellout crowd in the second game of the third annual San Diego SLAM. No. 22/24 Oklahoma State beat Ball State, 75-56, in the first game of the yearly doubleheader.

The Wildcats never trailed in the game, but could not shake the Aztecs early on. SDSU stayed within six points of UA for the first 10 minutes and tied the score at 14 with 10:34 left in the first half.

That would be the closest San Diego State would get the rest of the way.

The Wildcats held the Aztecs scoreless for nearly four minutes until Kyle Spain made a layup with 49 seconds left. Unfortunately for SDSU, UA's Chase Budinger responded with a three-pointer to give the 'Cats a 38-22 lead going into the locker room.

In the second half, Arizona kept the pressure on the Aztecs until Brandon Heath hit a three-pointer to cap a 10-3 run to close the UA gap to nine points with just under seven minutes remaining.

But like the end of the first half, the Wildcats had an answer in the form of a 12-2 spurt, 10 of which came from Marcus Williams and Mustafa Shakur, to put the game out of reach for the host Aztecs.

Williams, the game's most valuable player, finished with 21 points and 16 rebounds, while Shakur added 14 points and eight rebounds.

Meanwhile for SDSU, Heath ended the contest with a team-high 14 points and moved into sole possession of second place on San Diego State's all-time scoring list with his second bucket of the night.

The sellout crowd of 12,414 marked the fourth such game in Cox Arena history and the second against Arizona.

LAST MEETING IN TUCSON: No. 5/5 Arizona 83, San Diego State 71 | Dec. 22, 2004 | McKale Center

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona went on a 15-0 second-half run that propelled the fifth-ranked Wildcats to an 83-71 victory over SDSU.

The Aztecs played evenly with Arizona through much of the first half as Aerick Sanders' short jumper with 2:50 left in the period cut the lead to 32-29. However, the Wildcats finished the first half with a 9-2 run to go up 41-31, their biggest lead of the half.

Andre Iguodala had nine rebounds in the first 10 minutes of the second half, several during a 15-0 run that put Arizona (6-1) up, 63-41, with 10:59 to play.

San Diego State (7-4) scored six straight points to cut the lead to 74-62 on Brandon Heath's layup with 2:12 to go. Hassan Adams responded with a 3-pointer to make it 77-62. The Aztecs cut the lead to 10 in the final minute.

Sanders, who scored 16 points in the first half on 8-for-12 shooting, finished the game tying his career-high with his second straight 24-point effort. Heath added 15 points and Wesley Stokes had 13 points and nine assists for the Aztecs.

Adams had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Chris Rodgers matched his career high with 17 points for Arizona. Channing Frye scored 15 points, and Andre Iguodala had 10 points and 12 rebounds for the Wildcats.

Rodgers, coming off the bench, was 3-for-6 from 3-point range, while the rest of the Wildcats were 4-for-18. San Diego State was just 6-for-25 on 3-pointers.

Fast Starts on The Mesa

At 9-2, San Diego State has matched its best start to a Division I season and has matched its best start to a season since 1966-67. That season, the Aztecs started with a 9-2 record and went on to win 15 games before losing their third of the year. SDSU finished with a 24-5 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II Championship quarterfinals. The Aztecs were coached by the late George Ziegenfuss.

In the Division I era, San Diego State has been 9-2 four times with this season being the second straight year. Five of the previous six occurrences have resulted in at least 18 wins, including two 20-plus victory campaigns.

A victory on Saturday would:

- * - Mark just the third time in the Division I era that San Diego State has won at least 10 of its first 12 games.
- * - Mark the first time in the Division I era that the Aztecs have won 10 of their first 12 games in back-to-back seasons.

Owning the Boards

In their game vs. Navy, the Aztecs were monsters on the boards as they collected 39 while limiting the Mids to just 21 total rebounds. SDSU's plus-18 margin was a season-best and was the fifth-best in Cox Arena history. Navy's five offensive rebounds also tied Fresno State for the lowest by an opponent this season.

Robbery Suspects

The Aztecs have been making the art of stealing a regular thing this season. In every game this year, SDSU has recorded at least seven steals including 15 at San Diego and a season-high 19 at Loyola Marymount. Of the 196 turnovers San Diego State has forced, 57.1 percent or 112 total thefts have come via the steal. As of Tuesday afternoon, the Aztecs were 10th nationally in total steals and 16th in steals per game (10.2).

Steady Force

Prior to making his first start at LMU as an Aztec, Kelvin Davis had been a steady force off the bench for the Aztecs this season. The transfer from the College of Southern Idaho had scored in double figures in each of the previous five games, including a career-high 17 points at California. In those five games, Davis posted a field goal and three-point field goal percentage of at least 50 percent and connected on at least two three-pointers in each of those contests.

As a starter, Davis struggled with his shot in his first two starting assignments, but contributed with his rebounding as he averaged 4.5 boards a game, including a career-best six at LMU. Against UC Riverside, Davis regained his shooting stroke and led the team with 16 points on a then career-high six field goals.

Versus Saint Mary's, Davis returned to his familiar role coming off the bench and exploded for a team-high 19 points on a personal-best eight field goals. He also added five rebounds, two steals and one assist in 25 minutes. For the season, he ranks second on the team in scoring and eighth in minutes played.

Below is a look at Davis' numbers as a starter and as a player who comes off the bench:

Games	PPG	RPG	FG Pct.	3FG Pct.	MPG
3 Starts	8.3	4.3	41.7	23.1	24.3
8 Non-Starts	13.3	2.9	59.7	55.9	22.8

Obviously Davis' offensive numbers are better when he comes off the bench, but his averages as a starter is nothing to look down upon especially since his rebounding improves when earning the starting nod.

Triple Threat

San Diego State has four players averaging double figures and three more boasting an average of at least 8.5 points per game so it comes as no surprise that the Aztecs have had at least three players score in double figures in every game this year. Against Navy, SDSU had five players in double figures for the second time this year and for the third time in which at least six scored 10 points or more. In addition, last year's NIT team never had at least three players reach double figures in nine consecutive games at any point during the campaign.

A Victory Almost Guaranteed

Kyle Spain has scored in double figures in eight of the nine games he has played this season and the Aztecs have won seven of them. History says that when Spain scores at least 10 points, the Aztecs are almost guaranteed a win. As a freshman, San Diego State was 11-2 when the junior scored in double figures and 5-0 last season. For his career, Spain and the Aztecs boast a outstanding record of 23-3 when he reaches double digits in the scoring column.

Shutting Down the Bigs

San Diego State has faced three big men this season that have received national attention in Cal's DeVon Hardin, Western Michigan's Joe Reitz and Saint Mary's Omar Samhan and have had decent success against both. In the game against the Golden Bears, the Aztecs used a fierce double team to limit Hardin, an NBA prospect, to five points on 1-of-5 shooting. Against WMU, San Diego State held the two-time all-MAC selection to two points on 0-of-8 from the field. Lastly, the Aztecs limited Samhan to just 10 points and three rebounds. Going into the contest, Hardin was averaging 10.5 points, while Reitz was averaging a team-best 14.4 points. Samhan had numbers of 14.5 points and 8.5 rebounds going into the game vs. SDSU.

Winning By Double Digits

The Aztecs' season-opening four wins, before its five-point win at USD, were all by double-digit margins. It was the first time since the 2002-03 season SDSU had accomplished such a feat. During their NIT in 2002-03, the Aztecs won at Houston (71-61) and defeated Florida Atlantic (91-75), IPFW (74-58) and Loyola Marymount (79-69) at home. In fact, prior to its game at Houston, SDSU beat Hawai'i at home by 11 (60-49) making the win over the Lions its fifth in a row by at least 10 points. Before losing to Saint Mary's, the Aztecs had another run of their own as they had won three in a row by double figures.

Shooting the Lights Out

With the exception of the Cal, UC Riverside and Saint Mary's games, the Aztecs have shot the ball extremely well. Overall, San Diego State is shooting 47.8 percent from the field. More impressive is the fact that six players are shooting at least 50.0 percent. Compared to last season, only two SDSU players finished the season with a field-goal percentage above 50 percent.

After 11 games, San Diego State has shot over 50 percent six times and at least 46 percent from the field in eight games. All eight of those games resulted in wins.

Contributions from the New Guys

Five of the top eight players when looking at minutes played and points scored are newcomers. Those five include Ryan Amoroso, Kelvin Davis, D.J. Gay, Tim Shelton and Billy White. Their contributions have certainly been felt early on. Between the five of them, they put up a triple double vs. Portland and at Fresno State. The quintet is responsible for 51.9 percent of the team's points, 51.9 percent of rebounds and 42.1 percent of assists. To the right is a cumulative points, rebounds and assists chart for the season to date.

74 is the Magic Number

Reaching the 74-point plateau seems to bring good fortune for the Aztecs as they have done so 40 times since the beginning of 2005-06, including five times this year. In those 40 games, San Diego State has a record of 37-3. The 21 times SDSU didn't hit the 74-point mark the past two seasons, it wound up losing 12 of them. Coincidentally, 11 of the 21 occurrences have happened away from Cox Arena. Of the six times San Diego State didn't reach the magic number and won, seven were at home. The only time it happened away from San Diego and won was this year's opener vs. Liberty and at San Diego.

Freshmen in Starting Lineup

With junior point guard Richie Williams serving a team suspension earlier this year, true freshman D.J. Gay earned the starting nod in the season-opening game against Liberty. Tim Shelton, another true freshman, also found himself in the starting five as well vs. the Flames. Gay and Shelton became just the 10th and 11th freshmen to start a season opener under Steve Fisher. Only four times before had a freshman started a season opener under Fisher at SDSU and that oddly was Williams in 2005 at Alaska Fairbanks. Gay and Shelton joined elite company as only Juwan Howard, Jalen Rose, Chris Webber, Jerod Ward, Albert White, Bradley Jackson, Steve Sir, Brandon Heath and Williams have received the starting nod from Fisher as freshman to open a season.

Locking Down

San Diego State has used a stifling defense for the better part of 40 minutes in each game this year. Dating back to last season, the Aztecs have held 24 of their last 27 opponents to 74 points or less and have held 18 of their last 26 opponents to less than 45 percent from the field.

Just this year alone, the Aztecs have held nine of 11 opponents to 74 points or fewer and six to under 42.2 percent shooting. SDSU opponents are also averaging 17.8 turnovers a game.

As you might imagine, holding opponents to less than 40 percent from the floor has been a good sign for the Aztecs. San Diego State is 56-9 in the Steve Fisher era when the opponent is held below that field goal percentage.

Making it Rain

The Aztecs have made at least six three-pointers in seven of 11 games this year. This season's squad became the first team in Steve Fisher's tenure to knock down at least six three-pointers in the first six games of a season after it made a season-best 11 at California. SDSU made it seven straight games until it only connected on four vs. Western Michigan.

White's House Party

Billy White, making his first appearance at Cox Arena on Nov. 17 vs. UCSD, found himself in the starting lineup and did not disappoint. The Las Vegas native connected on his first nine shots before missing with under six minutes left in the game and went on to put back his missed attempt. For the game, White was a 10 of 11 from the field for a game- and career-high 20 points, had a game-high tying nine rebounds, a game- and career-best three blocked shots and one steal in a team-best 29 minutes.

White became the first Aztec to make at least 10 field goals in a game this season. His three blocks are also a 2007 team best. The freshman's 20-point performance was the first by an Aztec freshman since the 2004-05 season when Matt Thomas scored 20 vs. Air Force on Feb. 28, 2005. White's nine rebounds were also the most by an SDSU freshman since Kyle Spain grabbed 12 in the championship game of the MWC tournament vs. Wyoming on March 11, 2006.

White's 10-11 shooting exhibition ranks in a tie for fifth place on San Diego State's individual game records list for best field-goal percentage in a game (min. 6 FGM) during Steve Fisher's tenure.

Shelton Out

Freshman forward Tim Shelton will miss the rest of the 2007-08 season after undergoing surgery to his left knee on Tuesday, Nov. 20. The Fresno, Calif., native started the first three games of the season, missed the UCSD game due to swelling in his knee, but returned for the game at San Diego in a reserve role. In four games, Shelton was averaging 10.0 points on 55.2 percent shooting and 4.8 rebounds.

Ziegenfuss Passes

On Saturday, Dec. 1, longtime Aztec basketball coach George Ziegenfuss passed away in San Diego. He was 90 years old. Ziegenfuss coached on Montezuma Mesa for 21 seasons and guided the Aztecs to the Division II quarterfinals twice and to the second round. Prior to moving into Division II, Ziegenfuss took SDSU to the NAIA tournament on two occasions, going as far as the third round. During his tenure, he posted a record of 316-229 (114-73 CCAA) and finished in first or second place in the California Collegiate Athletic Association 11 times.

Increasing the Margin

In its three wins at the World Vision Classic, the Aztecs increased their margin of victory in each game. Against Liberty, SDSU won by 12 and then followed it with a 14-point victory over Portland. In the finale, the Aztecs dominated Fresno State and defeated the Bulldogs by 17. The feat marked the first time since the 1984-85 season that the Aztecs have increased their margin of victory in three consecutive non-conference wins. In '84-85, SDSU beat Long Beach State on the road by two, 62-60, and followed it with neutral-site wins over McNeese State by six (91-85) and Southwest Louisiana by 13 (86-73).

Aztecs Win World Vision Classic

The Aztecs won their sixth in-season event victory of the Division I era last weekend in Fresno Calif., with three wins in three days. San Diego State claimed tournament titles in the 1977 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif.), 1981 Cabrillo Classic (San Diego, Calif.), 1984 UNLV Roundup (Las Vegas, Nev.), the 1987 Holiday Bowl Classic (San Diego, Calif.), the 2006 Shamrock Invitational and this season's World Vision Classic.

To the right is a list of multiple-game in-season events the Aztecs have been a part of to begin a season under Steve Fisher.

Aztecs Picked to Finish in Tie for Fourth

San Diego State has been picked to finish in a tie for fourth place in the Mountain West Conference's 2007-08 pre-season men's basketball media poll released Oct. 17, at the league's media day being held at The Mtn. studios in Littleton, Colo.

The Aztecs, 2007 NIT participants, earned 128 points along with New Mexico (two first-place votes) and also received one first-place vote. Brigham Young was picked to win the league with 181 points and 15 first-place votes, followed by UNLV (146 pts; 2 first-place votes) and Utah (142; 2).

After SDSU and New Mexico in sixth place was Wyoming (120), with TCU (7th, 58), Air Force (8th, 54) and Colorado State (9th, 33) rounding out the poll.

San Diego State junior forward Ryan Amoroso was the lone Aztec to garner individual accolades as he was voted as the league's top newcomer. Amoroso, a transfer from Marquette who sat out last season, becomes the second SDSU player in the last three years to earn that distinction. Recently departed senior Mohamed Abukar earned the same recognition heading into the 2005-06 campaign.

Not So Newcomers

Even though they are classified as "newcomers," Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis are anything but that. The pair make up for 33 percent of the team's newcomers, but it is their experience prior to arriving on Montezuma Mesa that would dispute their classification.

Amoroso played in 57 games, while making eight starts in his two-year stint at Marquette. During his time there, the Golden Eagles went 39-23 and advanced to the 2005 National Invitation Tournament and the 2006 NCAA Tournament. Davis, meanwhile, played in 24 games his freshman season at UTEP and was a part of a Miner team that 27-8 and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. And although he redshirted the following season, Davis was a part of a UTEP squad that ended the season at 21-10 and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

When compared to last year's five newcomers, only Lorenzo Wade had prior Division I college experience. Wade saw action in 35 games at Louisville as a freshman and helped lead the Cardinals to a 33-5 record and a spot in the NCAA Final Four.

Experience Counts

With only one senior on the roster some may think the Aztecs are young. Although there is some truth to that, the players San Diego State has returning are definitely battle-tested. The seven returners, along with the additions of Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis, have all been a part of winning teams that have won at least 20 games and squads that have advanced to postseason play. Of the nine to advance to the postseason, seven have been to an NCAA Tournament and eight have been on teams to win at least one game in the postseason. Last year, SDSU only had eight players who had tasted the postseason and were part of 20-win ballclubs. Of the eight, only Lorenzo Wade experienced winning a postseason game.

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In eight seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs knocking on the door of the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that Fisher signed a new five-year contract prior to the start of the 2006-07 season that will keep him in San Diego for the foreseeable future.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament and the NIT last season. In addition, the Aztecs have a solid core returning and an exciting incoming class, both freshmen and newcomers, that will keep SDSU competitive this season and seasons ahead.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State used a swarming defense and had six players score in double figures as the Aztecs defeated Fresno State in the championship game of the World Vision Classic.

Ryan Amoroso scored a team- and Aztec career-high 19 points and was followed by Lorenzo Wade's second straight game with 18 points.

Kelvin Davis had his best game at SDSU with 15 points on 6 of 8 shooting from the field in a reserve role, while Kyle Spain added 12. True freshmen Tim Shelton and D.J. Gay rounded out the double-figure scorers with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Shelton also had a game- and career-high eight rebounds.

The Aztecs' six double-figure scorers marked the first time they accomplished the feat since the 2006-07 season when they did it against Campbell.

San Diego State shot 55 percent and hit on nine of 15 three-pointers while limiting the Bulldogs to 47 percent from the floor.

SDSU led from the opening tip and jumped out to a 25-8 lead nine minutes into the game. The Bulldogs went on a run to come within 10 at 27-17 with 8:14 to play in half.

San Diego State then extended its lead to 38-21 and led 48-33 at halftime. Fresno State got no closer than 12 points in the second half.

With the win, the Aztecs snapped a 12-game losing streak to Fresno State in Fresno and delivered the Bulldogs' worst defeat in the history of their five-year old arena, Save Mart Center. It was also Fresno State's largest margin of defeat in a regular-season home game since Dec. 3, 1994.

The Aztecs' third in win in as many days marked the first time in the school's Division I history in which they started consecutive seasons at 3-0.

San Diego State 76
UC San Diego 60

Nov. 17, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 6,706

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State received a career game from freshman Billy White as the Aztecs defeated UC San Diego, 76-60, in their home opener at Cox Arena.

White, who earned his first career start, made his first nine baskets and finished the game connecting on 10-of-11 shots en route to a career-and game-best 20 points. The Las Vegas native also added a career-and game-high nine rebounds and a personal-best three blocked shots in 29 minutes.

The game was tight throughout the first half with the Tritons owning a slim 22-21 lead with 5:17 left in the half. But the Aztecs ended the first 20 minutes on a high note scoring 10 unanswered points and finishing the half on a 15-5 run to go into the locker room up 36-27.

At the beginning of the second half, UCSD cut the SDSU lead to three within the first 1:50, but the Tritons would not get any closer the rest of the way as the Aztecs cruised to their fourth straight double-digit win.

Joining White in the double-figure scoring column was Kelvin Davis, who tied his career high with 15 points, and Kyle Spain, who added 12.

Henry Patterson led UCSD with 16 points and nine rebounds, while Jordan Lawley contributed 13 points.

Game 5

San Diego State 69
San Diego 64

Nov. 19, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Jenny Craig Pavilion ♦ Att.: 5,100

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State traveled west to Jenny Craig Pavilion and handed San Diego a 69-64 defeat for the Aztecs' second win on the USD campus since 1975.

SDSU used hot shooting, especially from behind the arc, and a stifling pressure defense to down the Toreros for the second consecutive season and the sixth time in the last seven meetings.

Despite shooting 66.7 percent from the field, the Aztecs only held a four-point lead, 38-34, at halftime thanks to USD's Brandon Johnson's 16 first-half points.

Coming out of intermission, San Diego came out on fire, while SDSU struggled to get itself going. Five minutes into the half, the Aztecs' four-point lead turned into a four-point deficit, but San Diego State stayed close for the next few minutes before going on a 13-4 run to go ahead by nine with four minutes left in the game.

The Aztecs stretched their lead to 10 with 1:26 remaining in regulation before a combination of SDSU missed free throws and USD buckets cut the Aztecs' lead to four with 30 seconds left. Kyle Spain, however, put the game out of reach with his free throw and SDSU emerged with the win.

San Diego State, which had four players score in double figures, was led by Lorenzo Wade's 14 points and six assists. Spain added 11, while Ryan Amoroso and Kelvin Davis each had 10.

The Aztecs forced 25 Torero turnovers, 15 of which were SDSU steals and shot 60 percent from both the field and behind the arc.

Game 6

California 77
San Diego State 69

Nov. 24, 2007 ♦ Berkeley, Calif.
Haas Pavilion ♦ Att.: 7,590

BERKELEY, Calif. - San Diego State dropped its first game of the season with a 77-69 loss at California before 7,950 fans inside Haas Pavilion. The defeat prevented the Aztecs from starting 6-0 for the second straight year.

SDSU started off on the right foot by jumping out to an 8-0 lead, which eventually ballooned to 14 with 2:55 remaining in the first half. At the end of one period, SDSU found itself ahead 40-33.

The Aztecs were able to enjoy a lead for the entire first period due in large part to Kyle Spain and Lorenzo Wade's nine points and Ryan Amoroso's seven.

Coming out of halftime, San Diego State was able to withstand the Golden Bear attack as Cal cut the Aztecs' lead to one less than four minutes into the period.

After both sides traded baskets, SDSU used an 11-4 run spurred by a pair of three-pointers by Kelvin Davis and one by Wade to go up by nine with just under 14 minutes remaining.

Following a layup by Cal's Jerome Randle, the Golden Bears caught fire as they scored 10 additional unanswered points to cap a 12-0 run to take a four-point lead.

The Aztecs managed to tie the score at 66 and it stayed that way for almost four minutes until DeVon Hardin tipped in a miss which led to a 7-0 run and an 11-3 overall spurt to end the game.

Davis led all Aztecs with a career-high five three-point field goals and a personal-best 17 points.

Game 9

San Diego State 59
UC Riverside 46

Dec. 4, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 4,946

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State matched its best start to a season as a Division I school and won its 10th straight game at Cox Arena with a 59-46 decision over UC Riverside.

The Aztecs' improved to 8-1 despite shooting just 34 percent from the field and being held to their lowest point total of the season. On the flipside, SDSU was superb on defense as it held the Highlanders to 46 total points, including 18 in the first half, and 38.3 percent from the field.

The contest was a struggle for both teams especially in the first half when San Diego State missed nine of its initial 12 shots, while UCR connected on just 7-of-24 from the floor. But as the half came to a close, the Aztecs found their rhythm and went on an 8-2 run to go ahead, 26-18, after one period.

In the second half SDSU slowly pulled away, despite posting a 30.8 field goal percentage. The difference in the game came at the free throw line where the Aztecs were 17-for-21 after intermission and 20-for-25 for the game. In comparison, UCR went to the line eight times, making just five in the second half, and was 7-for-11 overall.

San Diego State was led by a trio of juniors in Kelvin Davis, Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams.

Davis made a career-high tying six field goals to lead the team in scoring with 16 points, while Wade added 14 points. Williams, who made his first start of the season, contributed 13 points, a game-high seven rebounds and a season-best five steals.

Sophomore Jon Pastorek provided a spark off the bench with a season-high nine points and career-high seven boards.

Game 10

Saint Mary's 69
San Diego State 64

Dec. 8, 2007 ♦ Anaheim, Calif.
Honda Center ♦ Att.: 17,440

ANAHEIM, Calif. - San Diego State was unable to overcome an 8-for-18 performance from the free-throw line as it fell to Saint Mary's, 69-64, at the 14th annual John R. Wooden Classic.

The Aztecs had four players score in double figures, enjoyed a five-point halftime lead, outrebounded the Gaels and were even in turnovers. However, SDSU could not hit free throws down the stretch, which enabled SMC to pull away in the final minutes.

In the first half, the game was close with the Gaels owning a five-point advantage in the early going until SDSU went on a 17-4 run over the course of nearly 11 minutes. By the time SMC's Tron Smith earned his way to the free-throw line with 2:57 to go in the half, the Aztecs were up by eight points.

Smith spurred a late Saint Mary's 7-4 run with his four consecutive free throws cutting SDSU's lead to five, 29-24, at halftime. Smith finished the game shooting 10-of-14 from the line, en route to a game-high 20 points, in a reserve role.

At the beginning of the second half, the Aztecs increased their lead to eight on a pair of jumpers by Lorenzo Wade and Richie Williams and a free throw by Williams. Unfortunately for SDSU, SMC responded by going on an 11-0 run to go up 37-34.

San Diego State was unfazed and fought back to make the game close as neither team led by more than three points and the score was tied on five different occasions.

Despite taking a five-point lead on a layup by Smith, SDSU trimmed the deficit to one with 3:22 left. From that point on, however, the Aztecs went 0-for-5 from the line to let the game slip away.

Kelvin Davis led SDSU in scoring for the second straight game with 19 points. Wade and Williams finished with 11 points, while Billy White added 10.

Game 11

San Diego State 86
Navy 76

Dec. 17, 2007 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ♦ Att.: 5,587

SAN DIEGO - Five players scored in double figures for the Aztecs, who also owned a plus-18 rebound margin and made 20 more free throws, to lead San Diego State to an 86-76 victory over Navy.

The Midshipmen gave the home team a run for its money with their precise shooting from beyond the arc. In the first half, seven of Navy's 15 field goals came from three-point distance handing SDSU its first halftime deficit, 37-35, of the season.

Coming out of the break, the Mids extended their lead to eight less than two minutes into the final period after Navy's Greg Sprink scored two of his game-high 26 points on a layup.

Both teams traded baskets with the Midshipmen responding to each SDSU bucket with a three-point-er more times than not, including at the 7:55 mark when Adam Teague connected from deep to tie the score at 61.

It was at that point the Aztecs took control of the game as they went on a 13-0 run to give SDSU its 100th win at Cox Arena.

Lorenzo Wade led the team in scoring with 18 points and was followed by Billy White's 17 points and seven rebounds and Kelvin Davis' 15 points and six rebounds off the bench.

Kyle Spain had a nice all-around game as he scored 14 points, grabbed a game-high nine rebounds and added three assists, while Jon Pastorek recorded 10 points in his first career start. Richie Williams, who started the second half, came in and provided an instant spark as he had seven points and seven assists in just 17 minutes.
