No. 14/15 San Diego State In Search of Fifth Straight Win Against San Diego in City Championship Game Saturday Night

Following a successful trip to Northern California, one in which No. 14/15 San Diego State (9-0) defeated California by 20, the Aztecs return to Montezuma Mesa to open a three-game homestand Saturday night against cross-town foe San Diego (1-7) inside Viejas Arena.

The 42nd City Championship game is set for 7 p.m. PT will be televised live by Channel 4 San Diego with Mark Neely and Jim Brogan on the call. Ted Leitner is set to handle radio duties and can be heard in Southern California on AM 600 KOGO.

SDSU is 9-0 for the first time in 90 seasons of basketball and comes after it turned a two-point game at halftime into a 20-point rout against the Golden Bears in Berkeley, Calif. The victory snapped a 20-game losing road skid to Pac-10 Conference opponents and halted a 19-game road losing streak vs. teams from power-six leagues. The Aztecs had four players score in double figures and were led by sophomore forward Kawhi Leonard's game-high 20 points, which marked his fourth 20-point effort of the season. Sophomore guard James Rahon knocked down a trio of three-pointers and scored 11 points in the first half en route to 15 points in just 17 minutes off the bench. Just the opposite, senior guard D.J. Gay saved all of his production for the second half and scored all 14 of his points in the frame. Classmate Billy White, meanwhile, added 10 points and shared game-high honors with Malcolm Thomas as both had four assists.

The Aztecs enter the City Championship having won four straight in the series, four consecutive at Viejas Arena and 24 of the 42 all-time meetings, including 17 of the 25 with SDSU as the designated home team. The games between the two schools have produced some compelling games as the last five have been decided by 11 points or less, including last season's overtime thriller in which San Diego State emerged with a 69-62 victory at Jenny Craig Pavilion. Both Gay and White have participated in three straight SDSU victories and are looking to become just the fourth and fifth Aztecs to have beaten USD four years in a row. An Aztec win would put the senior duo in elite company and they would join San Diego State legends Michael Cage, Eddy Gordon and Eddie Morris as the only other players in school history to have accomplished the feat.

The Toreros head east on Interstate 8 having lost seven straight and were on the wrong end of a 74-70 score this past Tuesday against Fresno State at home. San Diego is 0-3 on the road this season having dropped games at Stanford, New Mexico and Cal State Fullerton. USD last tasted victory in its season opener against Occidental College, a team that visits Montezuma Mesa on Dec. 31. Fourth-year head coach Bill Grier has three players averaging double figures in scoring, including Darian Norris, who is scoring at a 11.1 clip.

What You Need to Know

- San Diego State is 9-0 for the first time in school history. This is the 90th season of Aztec Basketball.
- The nine-game winning streak matches the fourth-longest winning streak in 90-year history of the program. It is the longest of the Division I era and longest since 1966-67. The longest winning streak in school history is 13 games, accomplished in 1955-56, with an 11-game-streak in 1936-37 and a 10-gamer in 1940-41 following close behind.
- A win on Saturday, would give head coach Steve Fisher his longest winning streak of his storied career. Prior to this season, he won nine straight at Michigan during the Big Ten Conference season.
- As of mid-day Thursday, the 14th-ranked Aztecs, No. 4 in the Sagarin ratings, were one of just 17 teams to have not suffered a loss this year. The other 16 include fellow MWC schools No. 18 BYU and No. 20 UNLV, No. 1 Duke, No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Pittsburgh, No. 4 Kansas, No. 6 Connecticut, No. 8 Syracuse, No. 9 Georgetown, No. 10 Baylor, No. 11 Tennessee, No. 24 Louisville, UCF, Cincinnati, Cleveland State and Northwestern (all rankings are from the AP poll).
- San Diego State has won 18 consecutive games against non-ranked opponents at any site.
- The Aztecs have won 12 straight vs. non-conference opposition, which is the best mark in school history. The school record does not account for postseason games.
- SDSU has won a program-record 18 straight home dates vs. non-conference foes. The Aztecs are 3-0 this season at home in the early going.
- San Diego State has won 20 consecutive home games against teams from outside the AP Top 25.

- Not only have the Aztecs been a tough out at home for non-conference foes, they have been a tough out, period, at Viejas Arena. Since the start of the 2005-06 campaign, San Diego State has compiled a 71-10 record (.877) at home and has lost only three times on Montezuma Mesa the last two seasons.
- The Aztecs have won eight straight at Viejas Arena by an average of 16.3 points (130 points total).
- During its school-record 18-game non-conference home winning streak, San Diego State has won by an average of 19.7 points (355 points total).
- With six straight road/neutral wins under its belt, SDSU has matched the school record. The 2010-11 squad shares the road/neutral winning streak record with the 1967-68 and 1984-85 teams.
- San Diego State's three home games to date is the tied with UNLV for the fewest in the Mountain West Conference.
- The Aztecs have shot better than their opponent in every game this season. In fact, San Diego State has shot 50 percent or better from the field in seven of its nine games this year. For the season, SDSU is shooting 51.6 percent from the floor, which ranks third in the MWC.
- SDSU has been outrebounded just once in 2010-11, which was at California. The Aztecs outrebounded seven of their first eight opponents and finished even in the category with Saint Mary's at 35 apiece.
- A year after finishing seventh of nine in the Mountain West in three-point shooting, the Aztecs currently rank third in the league, connecting on 38.7 percent. In 2009-10, SDSU shot 31.7 percent from beyond the arc.
- The Aztecs have seven players shooting at least 50 percent from the field in Billy White (64.6), Chase Tapley (56.7), James Rahon (55.8), Brian Carlwell (54.5), Malcolm Thomas (53.3), LaBradford Franklin (50.0), and Jamaal Franklin (50.0). Of the aforementioned players, four are guards.

► The NCAA released updated national stats on Monday, Dec. 6, and the Aztecs rank fifth in field-goal percentage (52.1). Individually, Kawhi Leonard is third in double-doubles with six (two players have seven) and 24th in rebounding (10.4). Billy White, meanwhile, enters the week ranked fourth in field-goal percentage (67.1).

► Fisher returns five starters for just the third time in his coaching career. While at Michigan, the 1992-93 squad returned everyone from the season before, reached the NCAA championship game and finished with a 31-5 record. In 2008-09, Fisher's Aztecs had all five starters back and that group went on to win a school-record 26 games and advanced to the NIT semifinals.

► The 2010-11 campaign represents the 10th time Fisher has brought back at least four starters from the previous year. The other nine times have resulted in postseason appearances (6 NCAA, 3 NIT) and at least 21 victories each time. This is the fifth time Fisher has had at least four starters return while on Montezuma Mesa.

► When at least four starters from the previous season return, Fisher's teams have gone a combined 220-83 (.726).

► San Diego State enters the 2010-11 campaign in the midst of its most successful run in school history. The Aztecs have won 20 or more games and advanced to the postseason five straight years for the first time in school history.

► The Aztecs are one of just four 2010 NCAA Tournament participants to return all five starters in 2010-11. The other three are UNLV, UC Santa Barbara and Florida.

SDSU-USD Series History

► Saturday night's meeting between the Aztecs and Toreros marks the 13th consecutive season in which the two teams have squared off and it will be the 42nd meeting between the two teams since their first game back in 1962. The Aztecs hold a 24-17 advantage overall and 17-8 edge in games played where they are designated as the home squad.

► San Diego State has won four straight games in the series, marking its longest win streak against its crosstown foe since claiming six straight from 1979 to 1984.

► SDSU has also won four straight at Viejas Arena over the Toreros.

► Steve Fisher has seven career wins against USD, which is the most in San Diego State history. The seven victories are also the most of any coach in the history of the series.

► The games have been particularly close of late, with 11 of the last 17 games decided by seven points or less. The last five city championship games have been decided by 11 points or less and nine of the last 10 have been decided by the same 11-point margin.

► Although the overall series is close, the history can be broken into four periods: the early years (in which SDSU owned a 4-3 advantage), the Aztec dominance (SDSU was 11-2 from 1975-84), the Torero dominance (USD was 11-2 from 1985-2001) and recently with the Aztecs winning seven of the last eight games.

1962-1973 San Diego State, 4-3

1975-1984 San Diego State, 11-2

1985-2001 San Diego, 11-2

Since 2003 San Diego State, 7-1

► No current Aztec player has ever suffered a loss in the city showdown while wearing a SDSU uniform.

► SDSU assistant coach Justin Hutson is a perfect 4-0 against San Diego in his career. In case your curious, the only Aztec players to defeat USD in four consecutive seasons are Michael Cage, Eddy Gordon and Eddie Morris.

John Sharper was denied membership in the exclusive club when San Diego defeated San Diego State, 90-80, on Nov. 30, 2005. D.J. Gay and Billy White are looking to join the club on Saturday.

Milestone Win at California

Below are some tidbits on San Diego State's win at California.

► San Diego State snapped a 19-game road losing streak playing at teams from Power-6 conferences, dating back to an 82-70 overtime win at Northwestern on Dec. 3, 1996.

► The Aztecs snapped a 20-game road losing streak to Pac-10 teams, dating back to a 49-47 victory over at Oregon on Dec. 11, 1982.

► SDSU is now 6-51 lifetime at Pac-10 opponents and the victory snapped a 20-game losing streak in road matchups against the league. The Aztecs' five previous Pac-10 road wins occurred on Jan. 4, 1941 (California), Dec. 22, 1953 (Arizona State), Dec. 9, 1971 (Arizona), Jan. 7, 1978 (Arizona State) and, Dec. 11, 1982 (Oregon).

► San Diego State snapped a two-game losing streak at California and won for the first time in Berkeley, since a 29-28 victory on Jan. 4, 1941.

► SDSU snapped California's 21-game homecourt win streak against non-conference opponents. Overall, Cal entered the game 19-1 in its last 20 home games. The decision was the first non-conference loss at home for the Golden Bears since Dec. 22, 2007, when California fell at home to Utah.

Thomas Becomes Third Aztec to be Named MWC Player of the Week

Malcolm Thomas was named MWC Player of the Week on Dec. 7. The award is the first of his career.

In a 69-55 win over Saint Mary's, Thomas was instrumental in limiting Saint Mary's to 55 points, which was more than 35 points less than what SMC was averaging coming into the game. The senior blocked a career-high-tying six shots and was a part of an Aztec defense that finished with a season-high 10 blocks. The six blocked shots matched his own record for the most in a single in Steve Fisher's 12-year tenure at SDSU and was the second-highest figure in school single-game history. The preseason all-MWC pick also added 12 points on 5-of-8 shooting, six rebounds, one assist and a steal in 28 minutes of action.

Against the Missouri Valley Conference favorites, Wichita State, Thomas welcomed the Shockers to the block party and denied another four attempts (SDSU had five blocks for the game), giving him 10 blocks for the week. Thomas chipped in another 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting, five rebounds, one assist and one steal in 29 minutes.

For the week, Thomas averaged 12.0 points, 5.5 rebounds, 5.0 blocks, 2.0 steals, 1.0 assists and a field-goal percentage of 66.7 percent (10-of-15).

White Joins 1,000-Point Club

Billy White became the 25th player in school history and the 17th since 1970-71 (Division I era) to score 1,000 points for his San Diego State career on Dec. 1, 2010. The four-year starter needed seven points vs. Saint Mary's to hit the 1,000 mark and finished with nine on the night. He was awarded with a game ball in a pregame ceremony prior to the Wichita State game on Dec. 4.

Spark Off the Bench

Sophomore newcomer James Rahon has provided a huge spark off the bench this season. The San Diego native is averaging 9.1 points, which ranks fourth on the team, and is shooting 55.8 percent from the field, including a team-best 53.8 percent from three-point distance (min. 10 att.).

Through nine games, Rahon has reached double figures in scoring four times (eight points or more six times), has shot 50 percent or better from the field five times and has connected on multiple three-pointers on five occasions. He is also averaging 22.3 minutes, the sixth most on the team.

Leonard Named MWC Player of the Week for Second Straight Week

Kawhi Leonard was named Mountain West Conference Player of the Week, the league announced Nov. 22. In the first two weeks of the season, the sophomore earned the MWC weekly honor both times.

Leonard averaged a team-best 20.3 points, 10.7 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 2.0 steals in a week where the Aztecs won at No. 11 Gonzaga and picked up neutral-site victories vs. Green Bay and IUPUI. The five-time MWC player of the week also shot 50.0 percent from the field and knocked down a team-best four three-pointers (4-8 3FG).

In the game at Gonzaga, Leonard went for 18 points and a game-high 12 rebounds, while adding a team-high three assists and two steals. Three days later in Oxford, Ohio, the sophomore led the Aztecs to a win over Green Bay by scoring a game-high 23 points on an efficient 7-of-9 shooting and a career-high nine free throws. Leonard also grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds and dished out two assists. Then to close the week, Leonard was back at it again, this time scoring a game-high 20 points, pulling down a game-high 10 rebounds, matching his season high with three assists and setting a new season best with three steals against IUPUI. Leonard also knocked down all four of his three-point attempts in the second half vs. the Jaguars to help SDSU to its second neutral-site victory in as many days.

The first time he won the award, Leonard helped San Diego State to a season-opening win at Long Beach State. Leonard scored a game-high 21 points and led all players with 12 rebounds. Leonard also completed his 29th consecutive starting assignment with three assists, one blocked shot and two steals.

After sharing the scoring lead with D.J. Gay in the first half with 13 points, Leonard went to work on the boards and nearly outrebounded the 49ers by himself in the second half. The sophomore collected 12 rebounds to Long Beach State's 16 and had 11 on the defensive end, which was equal to LBSU's second-half total.

Reliving the Gonzaga Win

Below are tidbits on the Aztecs' victory at No. 11 Gonzaga.

- The victory snapped a 33-game road losing streak to teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25.
- The win represented the highest-ranked team the Aztecs have ever defeated on the road.
- It was just the second road win over an AP Top 25 team in school history and the fourth road/neutral victory over a ranked opponent in school history.
- It was the fifth-highest ranked team the Aztecs have defeated in school history.
- San Diego State is 5-4 in its last nine games against teams ranked in the AP Top 25. The Aztecs were 4-41 in their previous 45 games against nationally-ranked teams prior to this stretch.

► Snapped a nine-game losing streak to non-conference AP Top 25 teams, dating back to a Dec. 8, 2001 victory over 21st-ranked Fresno State.

► It was the first time SDSU has ever defeated a top-25 team in the month of November.

► It was San Diego State's 17th victory over an AP Top-25 team, with seven of those victories coming during the Steve Fisher era.

► With the victory, San Diego State snapped Gonzaga's 12-game homecourt winning streak dating back to last season.

► San Diego State handed Gonzaga its fifth-ever loss in the McCarthy Athletic Center, dropping the Zags to 77-5 all-time in the facility. The Aztecs became the first visiting team to win at the facility since Wake Forest came away with a victory on Dec. 5, 2009.

Leonard on Naismith Watch List

Kawhi Leonard added another honor to his long list of accolades as he was named to the Naismith preseason watch list on Nov. 16. The sophomore is one of 50 players representing 44 schools on the list. This comes several weeks after Leonard was named to the Wooden preseason top-50 list.

Iron Man

D.J. Gay is arguably one of the nation's iron men as he has played in every game since he has stepped foot on campus. The guard from Sun Valley, Calif., has seen action in all 112 games, while earning the starting nod 92 times. In each of his three seasons on campus, Gay has seen his minutes per game increase from 23.8 as a freshman to 26.7 as a sophomore to a team-best 34.6 minutes last year as a junior. This season, he is averaging 34.3 minutes. The senior has also started 43 straight games.

Double-Double Machine

Just a sophomore, Kawhi Leonard is currently in fourth place for most double-doubles in school history (since 1975-76 season) with 23 career doubles-doubles. Leonard's 17 double-doubles last year were a freshman school record, which was previously owned by Michael Cage when he had 10 in 1981, and were the fourth-most in a single season in program history. Another eight double-doubles this season would put him second all time, ahead of Marcus Slaughter's 30, but behind Cage's 61 career double-doubles.

Fisher Picks Up Win No. 200

Steve Fisher inherited a team in 1999-2000 that won just four games the season before his arrival. Fast forward to now and seven postseason berths and six 20-win efforts later, he is one of two men's basketball coaches at San Diego State to have at least 200 victories after the Aztecs beat No. 11 Gonzaga. The 12th-year head coach owns a 207-149 record and that is with a 5-23 (0-14 MWC) record in 1999-2000 under his belt. He is currently the second all-time winningest coach in SDSU history, behind only George Ziegenfuss' 316 victories from 1948-69.

Rahon Makes Splash in Debut

James Rahon made a splash in his first official game as an Aztec in the season opener at Long Beach State. The San Diego native came off the bench and finished with 14 points and four rebounds. A transfer from Santa Clara, Rahon connected on four three-pointers, including three straight on three consecutive possessions in the second half that helped SDSU expand its one-point lead to 10 with under seven minutes left in regulation.

Aztecs Ranked for First Time in School History

San Diego State started the 2010-11 campaign ranked 25th in the preseason Associated Press Top-25 poll. The Aztecs' preseason ranking marked the first time the program has been ranked in any of the two major polls (AP, Coaches) in school history.

Entering its 90th season and its 41st at the Division I level, SDSU received 158 votes to earn its No. 25 ranking.

According to collegepollarchive.com, San Diego State became the seventh school since 1974 to make its AP poll debut in the preseason rankings. The Aztecs join UNLV (1974), Charlotte (1977), UAB (1982), Cleveland State (1987), Rhode Island (1998) and Gonzaga (2000) as the only schools to have accomplished the feat.

This marked the first time since the 2000-01 season that a team has made its debut in the AP poll. That season, Gonzaga was coming off a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament and the Bulldogs went on to post a 26-7 record and advanced to the 2001 NCAA Sweet 16.

Aztecs First in Preseason MWC Media Poll

San Diego State was picked to win the Mountain West Conference in the league's preseason media poll. The Aztecs earned 261 points, including 21 of a possible 30 first-place votes. SDSU finished ahead of second-place BYU, which had 220 points and five first-place tallies.

The 261 points and 21 first-place votes are the most the Aztecs have earned in school history and the first-place prediction marks the third time the MWC media has made SDSU the preseason favorite. In 2005-06, the Aztecs were the favorite and wound up winning the regular-season and tournament championship. The other time, 2006-07, San Diego State finished in third place.

Leonard, Thomas Preseason All-MWC Picks

Forwards Kawhi Leonard and Malcolm Thomas were voted to the preseason all-MWC team by the conference media. The starting frontcourt enters 2010-11 as the nation's top returning rebounding duo after averaging 17.5 boards last season.

Leonard, who is on the preseason Wooden Award Top 50 List, is coming off a fantastic freshman campaign in which he was named MWC freshman of the year, Mountain West tournament most valuable player and became the first freshman in the history of the league to garner all-MWC first-team accolades. Leonard, who was the only freshman in Division I last year to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament while leading his team in scoring and rebounding, averaged 12.7 points and 9.9

rebounds. The Riverside, Calif., native also set the freshman school record for double-doubles with 17, a figure that ranked 13th among all Division I student-athletes. Leonard is the only non-senior on the five-man preseason team.

Thomas, meanwhile, enters his senior season after averaging 10.9 points and 7.6 rebounds, while shooting 54.3 percent from the floor as a junior in 2009-10. Hailing from San Diego, the 6-9 Thomas earned all-MWC second-team honors a year ago and finished the season leading the team in blocked shots, while handing out the second-most assists on the team.

What They're Saying

ON SAN DIEGO STATE

* "It's too bad the Aztecs don't get much pub, because Steve Fisher has one heck of a frontline with Kawhi Leonard, Malcolm Thomas and Billy White. Illinois transfer Brian Carlwell gives the team a big body coming off the bench for depth." - FOXSports.com's Jeff Goodman (Oct. 30, 2010)

* "The Aztecs have quietly gone through the summer with their roster intact, led by one of the more underrated forwards in the country in Kawhi Leonard. Malcolm Thomas is another stud for coach Steve Fisher. ... San Diego State challenged itself with five straight games away from home to open the season, including going to Gonzaga before heading off to three games in Oxford, Ohio, as part of the CBE Classic. If the Aztecs survive that stretch, they'll be in a solid position to enter the MWC season as the favorite, fending off BYU, New Mexico and UNLV." - ESPN.com's Andy Katz (Oct. 15, 2010)

* "Steve Fisher brings back more than 80 percent of his scoring, rebounding and assists from a team that nearly knocked off Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA tournament. Leonard was the Mountain West Freshman of the Year and he will team with Thomas to form one of the best inside duos in the nation. The Aztecs also bring back the starting backcourt of Gay and Tapley - and Fisher also adds Santa Clara transfer James Rahon, who averaged 11.3 points as a freshman and shot 40.7 percent from long distance." - Jeff Goodman, FOXSports.com (Oct. 13, 2010)

* "San Diego State seems to be the consensus pick for conference champion, and it's hard to argue with that because of the studs Steve Fisher has coming back this season. ... San Diego State has a talent who, even though the MWC has proven to be one of the top conferences in the country, belongs on the highest level. ... there's no debating that Kawhi (Leonard) is the most talented player in the conference. Terribly under-recruited out of high school in Riverside, CA, Leonard led the Aztecs to the NCAA Tournament as a freshman while putting up eye-popping numbers (12.7 ppg, 9.9 rpg, 1.9 apg, 1.5 steals). Now, with NBA scouts already drooling about his talent and versatility (if there is such a thing as a five-tool player in basketball, Leonard is it...just don't ask me to name all five of them), Leonard's sophomore season promises to be even more exciting. If he adds a three-point shot to his game, Leonard could become one of the hardest guards in the country, and the Aztecs could be this year's New Mexico and race to a high seed in March." - Jon Jacques, SLAMonline.com

* "All five starters are back, and coach Steve Fisher has also added a three-point shooting threat, Santa Clara transfer James Rahon. Looks like a Sweet 16 team to me, maybe better." - Jay Drew, The Salt Lake Tribune (Oct. 6, 2010)

* "There's really no argument here. All five starters return, including the top front court trio on the West Coast. Heck, the combo of Kawhi Leonard, Malcolm Thomas and Billy White could hang with any other unit in the country, in my opinion. Plus, they have some nice new additions to the roster." - Ryan Greene, Las Vegas Sun (Oct. 6, 2010)

* "So, when was the last time the best team in California wasn't a member of the Pacific-10? The Aztecs return every starter and several key reserves from a 25-9 team that won the MWC tournament and just missed a first-round tourney win over Tennessee. Steve Fisher had the state's best college freshman last season and 6-7 Kawhi Leonard is BYU guard Jimmer Fredette's top competition for MWC Player of the Year." - Lindy's Sports College Basketball 2010-2011 Preview

* "Steve Fisher's Aztecs have won 51 games over the past two seasons, but they're winless (0-6) all-time in the NCAA tournament. This may be the team that changes all of that. Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year Kawhi Leonard leads a cast of five returning starters that also includes shot-swatting forward Malcolm Thomas. Leonard, Thomas and Billy White should combine to form one of the MWC's top frontcourts. Guards D.J. Gay and Chase Tapley were among San Diego State's most improved players last season." - Yahoo! Sports' Jason King

* "Kawhi Leonard was dominant by the end of his freshman season and he should only improve, and Steve Fisher put together another solid recruiting class. The Aztecs must shoot better and might have some issues at the point, but their overall depth of athleticism and rebounding should win them a league that will be great from No. 1 to No. 4." - Doug Gottlieb, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

* "San Diego State might be this conference's best team. Considering the return of Jimmer Fredette and the talent available to Alford at UNM, that's saying something. Sophomore Kawhi Leonard is one of the best college basketball players you've never heard of, an irrepressible rebounder and top-notch defender who, with just a bit more offensive efficiency, might end up being the best player in the league. San Diego State returns basically everyone from last season's MWC-tournament winning team, including Malcolm Thomas, Billy White and D.J. Gay. The Aztecs had to fight to get into the NCAA tournament last season, but that shouldn't be a problem this time. Once they get there, they'll be looking to do a whole lot more than fight. That shouldn't be a problem, either." - Eamonn Brennan, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

* "Steve Fisher has everything in place for the Aztecs to rise to the top of the conference. Super sophomore Kawhi Leonard and the rest of the starting lineup from last season's team are back. Seniors Malcolm Thomas and Billy White have proven to be capable scorers, as has steady point guard D.J. Gay. The Aztecs also will have transfer James Rahon eligible as a 3-point shooting threat. For a team that won last season's MWC tournament and put a scare into Tennessee in the NAAs, this is a group that could go even further." - Diamond Leung, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

* "Steve Fisher has done a great job running the Aztecs. San Diego State should be the team to beat in the competitive Mountain West." - Dick Vitale, ESPN.com (June 17, 2010)

* "... San Diego State returns most of a team that made the NAAs last season and once again should be a dangerous threat in the Mountain West." - Andy Glockner, CNN.com (May 26, 2010)

* "This is another team that had a fine season with a young nucleus that returns intact. The Aztecs won the Mountain West Conference tournament to make the NAAs and should be even better this time around." - Pat Forde, ESPN.com (May 12, 2010)

* "... I watched San Diego State push Tennessee to the brink in the first round and its talent abounds. Rebounding machine Kawhi Leonard is back for a second go-around, along with Billy White, Malcolm Thomas and D.J. Gay. The entire team is back. ... This is a squad that should be seen more often." - Andy Katz, ESPN.com (May 11, 2010)

ON KAWHI LEONARD

* "Here's your early front-runner for the 2011-12 preseason MWC Player of the Year ... if he's still there and hasn't jumped to the NBA. Leonard is without question the league's top rebounder, both in terms of natural instincts and production. He led SDSU in scoring last year as a byproduct of raw ability. If his mid-range jumper shows more progress this season, it will likely be his last with the Aztecs." - Ryan Greene, Las Vegas Sun (Oct. 6, 2010)

* "Leonard is no longer a secret after the conference's freshman of the year led the league in rebounding and nearly averaged a double-double. The 6-7 forward is a versatile scorer, and developing a more consistent jumper could land him in the NBA draft. Having an experienced supporting cast around him can only help in his continued improvement and the team's NCAA tournament chances." - Diamond Leung, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

* "Fans from the West Coast know all about Leonard, but now the nation will learn more about this talented performer, since the Aztecs are one of the favorites in the Mountain West. Coach Steve Fisher is thrilled to have him back in the lineup!" - Dick Vitale, ESPN.com (Aug. 30, 2010)

* "As a freshman, Leonard was a rebounding savant, finishing in the nation's top 60 in rebounding rate at both ends. He just missed a double-double for the season, finishing with 9.9 rebounds per game in just 31 minutes a night..." - Andy Glockner, CNN.com (May 26, 2010)

ON JAMES RAHON

* "The Aztecs have a shot to make some noise nationally this season, and Rahon, a San Diego native who averaged 11.3 points as a freshman at Santa Clara and shot 41 percent from beyond the arc, will help." - Jeff Goodman, FOXSports.com (Oct. 11, 2010)

* "No transfer will be more important to his team this year than Rahon. Mark it. Why? Because he fills the Aztecs' most glaring hole from 2009-10, giving them a legitimate 3-point marksman. The San Diego native shot a team-best 40.7 percent from deep at Santa Clara as a freshman in 2008-09, averaging 11.3 points per game. SDSU last season shot just 31.7 percent from long-range as a team. Do the math." - Ryan Greene, Las Vegas Sun (Oct. 6, 2010)

ON LABRADFORD FRANKLIN

* "Franklin is a good-looking scoring point guard who loves the up-tempo game and flourishes in the open floor. He has a smooth jumper out to the 3-point arc. He's been erratic in the past with his decision-making, but has come a long way in learning how to run a team." - Michael LaPlante, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

* "There's a good chance that some of the BCS conference programs who recruited San Diego State's LaBradford Franklin will regret passing on him. Though he's on the thin side, Franklin has excellent size, is a clever ball handler and has a very good feel for making those around him better." - Lindy's Sports College Basketball 2010-2011 Preview

ON JAMAAL FRANKLIN

* "Another outstanding open-floor player for the Aztecs, Franklin will impact this team immediately with his high energy level. He is a versatile defender with great lateral quickness and is active on the glass at both ends. He will also generate some excitement with his finishing ability on the break." - Michael LaPlante, ESPN.com (Sept. 3, 2010)

ON STEVE FISHER

* "Fisher doesn't receive enough regional or national credit for the job he has done in San Diego ... but maybe this is the year that changes." - Lindy's Sports College Basketball 2010-2011 Preview

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 12 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become of the best programs on the West Coast and has the Aztecs routinely mentioned among the elite teams in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2010-11 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa until 2012-13.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, the postseason NIT in 2003, the 2006 NCAA Tournament, the 2007-09 NIT, including the NIT semifinals in 2009, and the 2010 NCAA Tournament. In addition, the Aztecs have one of their deepest teams ever, which will keep SDSU competitive this season and seasons ahead.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last four seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to four additional 20-win seasons and postseason appearances, including a school-record 26 wins and an NIT semifinal berth in 2009 and a MWC tourney crown and a spot in the NAAs in 2010, and he doesn't look like he is stopping anytime soon.

Forward • 6-8 • 235 • Senior - 3L
Las Vegas, Nev. (Green Valley High)

► Has a team- and career-best four assists and added 10 points at California (12-8-10). His scoring effort produced his second straight double-figure scoring performance, marking the first time this year he has accomplished the feat.

► Went off for a game-high 24 points on 10-of-12 shooting and scored nine points during a key 14-0 second-run, which covered 71 seconds, vs. Wichita State (12-4-10).

► Became the 25th member, and the 17th in the Division I era, of San Diego State's 1,000-point club with his nine-point effort vs. Saint Mary's (12-1-10). He needed seven for 1,000 and finished with nine, while also adding season highs in assists (4) and steals (2).

► Scored a career- and team-high 30 points on a personal-best 14 field goals and grabbed nine rebounds at No. 11/12 Gonzaga.

► Has made 26 straight starts, which is the second-longest streak of his career (27 in 2007-08).

► Has scored in 24 straight outings.

► Finished with a field-goal percentage of 50 percent or above in 18 of his last 22 games.

► Has 50 career double-figure scoring performances, including one 30-point showing and six 20-point efforts, to go along with three games with 10 or more rebounds.

► Has led the team in scoring a team-best 17 times in his career and in rebounding 18 times.

Game 1

#25/- San Diego State 81
Long Beach State 65

Walter Pyramid ♦ Att.: 5,143

LONG BEACH, Calif. - No. 25 San Diego State went on the road and defeated Long Beach State, 81-65, to open the 2010-11 season before a Walter Pyramid-record 5,143 fans.

The Aztecs used three consecutive three-pointers from sophomore newcomer James Rahon with just over nine minutes to play in the second half to pull away from the 49ers.

San Diego State was nursing a 56-55 lead in a back-and-forth affair when Rahon caught fire. The guard knocked his first three-pointer with 9:01 left in regulation and his teammates found him on the next two trips and were rewarded with two more threes, the last of which gave the Aztecs a 65-55 cushion with 6:49 remaining.

Long Beach State tried to rally and used an 8-1 run after Rahon's third three-point field goal to cut the lead to four, but the nationally ranked Aztecs proved to be too much down the stretch and emerged with the decision.

In the first half, the 49ers raced to a 16-9 lead in the first seven minutes of the game. The Aztecs, however, hung around and eventually took an eight-point lead with 3:51 left before the half. Then in the final two minutes, LBSU closed the half on a 7-0 run and forced the Aztecs into three missed three-point field goals and a turnover as the frame ended in a 42-42 tie.

Kawhi Leonard led all players with 21 points and 12 rebounds, all of which came in the second half. In comparison, the 49ers only had 16 rebounds themselves in the second period. D.J. Gay added 20 points, while Rahon finished with 14 points off the bench. Malcolm Thomas ended with 10 boards and a career-high matching six assists.

Game 2

#25/- San Diego State 79
#11/12 Gonzaga 76

McCarthy Athletic Center ♦ Att.: 6,000

SPOKANE, Wash. - No. 25 San Diego State used a career-high 30-point effort from Billy White and trailed for only a 14-second stretch early in the second half to defeat 11th/12th-ranked Gonzaga at the McCarthy Athletic Center.

The Aztecs became just the fifth team to defeat the Bulldogs in 82 games at "The Kennel." The victory snapped a 33-game road losing streak to teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 and marked the highest ranked team the Aztecs have defeated on the road.

San Diego State scored the first basket of the night and was able to keep the Zags at arm's length for much of the first half. The Aztec lead swelled to 10 with 6:20 remaining in the half, but the Bulldogs crept to within five, 42-37, at the halftime buzzer.

A 7-0 Gonzaga run to start the second half gave the Bulldogs a brief two-point lead, but D.J. Gay answered 11 seconds later with a three to help SDSU reclaim the lead.

Minutes later, White caught fire and scored 11 straight points in a 2 minute, 51 second span to keep GU in a seven-point hole with 9:40 left in regulation.

Gonzaga, led by Steven Gray's career-high 35 points, rallied to within one point at 77-76 with 23 seconds on the clock. Following two Kawhi Leonard free throws, Gray turned the ball over and the Zags fouled Chase Tapley, who missed the front end of a bonus situation. After securing the rebound, Gray had a chance to tie the game with a halfcourt shot, but the attempt was well short and the Aztecs emerged with the decision.

Game 3

#25/- San Diego State 79
Green Bay 70

Nov. 19, 2010 ♦ Oxford, Ohio
Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 2,117

OXFORD, Ohio - San Diego State, ranked 25th in the Associated Press Top-25 poll, overcame a sluggish start and rallied to defeat Green Bay, 79-70, at the Oxford Subregional of the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic.

The Aztecs found themselves down 22 points (28-6) with 11:15 to go in the first half before emerging with the nine-point win. The rally was the largest winning comeback of the Steve Fisher era, which is in its 12th season.

Green Bay scored the first four points of the game and used a swarming defense down low to create problems for SDSU. Couple that with the fact the Phoenix hit four of seven three-pointers and went 10-of 12 from the line in the first half resulted in the Aztecs trailing by 22 early.

With a daunting task ahead of it, San Diego State continually pounded the ball inside and fought their way back into the game. At halftime, the Aztecs trailed, 38-33.

SDSU opened the second half on an 8-0 run, all of which were scored in the paint, and took a 41-38 lead and an advantage it would not relinquish.

Down the stretch, the Phoenix cut the SDSU lead to three, but the Aztecs went on a 12-5 run to enjoy its first 10-point lead of the game with 1:52 left in regulation. Green Bay got to within 76-70 with 31 seconds left, but three Kawhi Leonard free throws iced the outcome for SDSU.

Leonard led all players with 23 points and 10 rebounds and was joined in the frontcourt by Malcolm Thomas, who finished with 12 points, eight boards and three assists. Chase Tapley, meanwhile, chipped in 14 points and three assists.

Green Bay was led by Rahmon Fletcher's 18 points.

Game 4

#25/- San Diego State 61
IUPUI 46

Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 1,863

OXFORD, Ohio - No. 25 San Diego State overcame a slow start for a second straight game, used a suffocating defense in the second half and ultimately erased a seven-point deficit to defeat IUPUI, 61-46, in the Oxford Subregional of the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic.

The Aztecs fell behind, 11-4, in the first five minutes of the game and chipped away at the Jaguar lead before finally taking a 20-19 lead with 3:50 left in the opening half. IUPUI, however, scored the last three points of the half and carried a 23-20 lead into the locker room.

The first seven minutes of the second half was a back-and-forth affair. A long-range jumper by James Rahon and a three by Rahon on consecutive possessions kickstarted the Aztecs, which led to a 15-0 run and a 48-36 lead with 9:33 remaining.

IUPUI cut the SDSU lead to eight points with 7:31 left on the clock, but eight straight points by Billy White and two three-pointers from Kawhi Leonard, who made all four three-point attempts in the second half, helped the Aztecs run away with the 15-point win.

Leonard finished with a game-high 20 points and 10 rebounds to post his fourth double-double in as many games this season. The sophomore, who entered the game 0-for-6 from three-point distance for the season, went 4-for-5 from behind the arc. The four threes were a career best. White, meanwhile, recorded 14 points and six rebounds. Chase Tapley added nine points and a career-high tying four steals.

Alex Young and Mitchell Patton led IUPUI with 12 points apiece.

Game 5

#18/22 San Diego State 77
Miami (Ohio) 56

Nov. 22, 2010 ♦ Oxford, Ohio
Millett Hall ♦ Att.: 1,858

OXFORD, Ohio - San Diego State, sporting a new No. 18 AP ranking and debuting at No. 22 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' poll for the first time in school history, used a pair of stifling runs to defeat Miami (Ohio) on its homecourt, 77-56, in the final game of the CBE Classic Oxford Subregional.

For the third time in three games, the Aztecs faced a first-half deficit, this time a 17-6 hole not even seven minutes into the contest. But like the first two games in Oxford, SDSU battled back by scoring 16 unanswered points and ultimately went on a 25-2 run to take a 39-34 lead into halftime.

After Miami (Ohio) scored the first five points of the second period to knot the score at 39, San Diego State proceeded to go on a 25-0 run to put the game out of reach. During its scoring spree, SDSU held the RedHawks off the scoreboard for 12 minutes, 35 seconds. The Aztecs' lead eventually swelled to 28 points before they settled for the 21-point victory.

D.J. Gay led all players with 19 points and four assists, while backcourt teammate James Rahon came off the bench to contribute 15 points and a career-high three steals. In the frontcourt, Kawhi Leonard had 12 points, 13 rebounds and four assists, and Malcolm Thomas added 16 points and six rebounds.

At the conclusion of the game, Thomas was named to the all-tournament team and Leonard was named the subregional's most valuable player.

Game 6

#18/22 San Diego State 88
San Diego Christian 69

Nov. 26, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 5,674

SAN DIEGO - Following six straight games away from Viejas Arena to start the season, San Diego State returned home and defeated San Diego Christian, 88-69, on a night the school unveiled its 2010 Mountain West Conference tournament championship banner.

The victory was the sixth straight in as many games this season for SDSU and the 16th consecutive at home vs. non-conference foes, which tied the school record.

The Aztecs struck first with a layup by Malcolm Thomas and the tone for the night was set as San Diego State never looked back and ended up scoring 60 of its 88 points in the painted area.

Despite being outscored by 40 in the paint, San Diego Christian was up to the task against the nationally ranked Aztecs. The Hawks trailed by one with 7:19 to play in the first half and were behind 29-25 as late as 5:28 remaining the opening period before SDSU closed with a 15-9 run to take a 44-34 lead at halftime.

SDCC got as close nine in the opening minutes of the second half, but San Diego State scored eight straight points in the paint to extend its lead to 17 (54-37) and cruised to victory.

Eleven Aztecs saw action and all 11 scored. Sophomore Kawhi Leonard and Chase Tapley each scored 14 points apiece to lead San Diego State, and Billy White contributed 10. The trio combined to shoot 17-27 from the floor on an evening where SDSU shot 60.3 percent from the field.

Aaron Felix led all players with 21 points and Tyler Mutton added 19 for the Hawks.

Game 7

#17/19 San Diego State 69
Saint Mary's 55

Dec. 1, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 17/19 San Diego State used a balanced offensive attack and smothering defense to defeat Saint Mary's at a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs trailed 2-0 for just 23 seconds before rattling off 14 consecutive points behind three-pointers from Billy White and D.J. Gay. Saint Mary's fought back and trailed just 23-19 with seven minutes remaining in the half. SDSU, however, closed the half on a 14-5 run behind the hot shooting of Chase Tapley, who scored 10 points during the run.

After trading baskets in the early stages of the second half, San Diego State used another big scoring run to push the lead to 20 points, 55-35, with 10 minutes to go in regulation. Saint Mary's would not go down easily, as four Rob Jones three-pointers helped cut the SDSU lead to nine with 3:12 left in the contest.

Despite the SMC rally, the Aztecs had an answer for each Gael run. Gay hit a pair of tough jump shots down the stretch to help preserve the win. SDSU prevailed behind three different scoring runs where they outscored the Gaels a combined 33-0.

Chase Tapley led the Aztecs with 14 points, while Malcolm Thomas added 12 points to go with six rebounds and a career-high six blocks. Billy White and James Rahon added nine points apiece. In all, eight different Aztecs scored at least five points.

The Gaels were led by 17 points from Jones and 15 from Matthew Dellavedova, who also added five rebounds and four assists.

The capacity crowd marked the ninth sellout in the history of Viejas Arena, and second against SMC. The first came during the quarterfinals of the 2009 NIT.

Game 8

#17/19 San Diego State 83
Wichita State 69

Dec. 4, 2010 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Billy White enjoyed a near flawless evening and the No. 17/19 Aztecs defeated Wichita State, 83-69, in the second annual Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge in front of a sold-out crowd of 12,414 at Viejas Arena.

In 27 minutes, White scored a game-high 24 points on 10-of-12 shooting, four rebounds, two assists and two steals, and was a key figure in SDSU taking a commanding second-half lead.

San Diego State trailed 47-46 with just over 14 minutes remaining in regulation until White converted on a three-point play with 14:04 left. White's effort along with a stifling full-court press led to a 14-0 run in a matter of 71 seconds. White scored nine of the 14 and suddenly the Aztecs found themselves ahead, 60-47.

Down the stretch, the Shockers peppered SDSU with a healthy dose of three-pointers and shot their way back into game. Wichita State cut its deficit to nine with 8:15 to go, got to within eight at 75-67 as a result of a Graham Hatch three and eventually found itself down, 76-69, with 1:48 left in regulation. But as the Aztecs had done all game, they answered the call, this time in the form of a game-closing 7-0 run to continue their best start to a season in the 90-year history of the program.

Joining White in double figures was Kawhi Leonard (16 points, 12 rebounds, 5 assists), D.J. Gay (14 points, 6 assists) and Malcolm Thomas (12 points, 4 blocks).

David Kyles led Wichita State, which went 9-for-18 from beyond the arc, with 18 points (4-5 3FG).

Game 9

#14/15 San Diego State 77
California 57

Dec. 8, 2010 ♦ Berkeley, Calif.
Haas Pavilion ♦ Att.: 9,426

BERKELEY, Calif. - No. 14/15 San Diego State turned a two-point game at halftime into a 20-point blowout and the Aztecs beat California on the road, 77-57.

The victory snapped a 20-game road losing streak to Pac-10 opponents and stopped a 19-game losing skid at Power-6 league schools. The decision also gave SDSU its first 9-0 start in 90 years of basketball.

San Diego State held the Golden Bears to a pair of free throws over a 9-minute, 18-second stretch before Harper Kamp scored to halt the Aztecs' 10-2 run. After Kamp's bucket, however, SDSU only led 22-18.

The Aztecs led, 28-20, with 2:26 left in the first period, but Cal closed the half on a 6-0 run to trail, 28-26, at intermission.

The Bears, in the second half, cut the SDSU lead to 43-42 with 13:39 remaining, but consecutive three-pointers by D.J. Gay gave the visitors a 49-42 advantage. Gay's two threes spurred a 15-2 run and gave San Diego State a 58-44 lead.

The Aztecs used a full-court press and a stifling defense in the halfcourt to force California into taking bad shots and to create turnovers, which led to easy buckets as SDSU's lead swelled to 21 before it settled for the 20-point win.

Kawhi Leonard led all players with 20 points and James Rahon scored 11 of his 15 in the first half. Gay, meanwhile, scored all of his 14 in the second half and Billy White added 10 points and four assists. Malcolm Thomas shared team-high honors with White as he finished with four assists as well.
