San Diego State Career

In his freshman and sophomore years combined, he played in 67 games (every game during the 2017-18 and 2018-19 campaigns) and made 55 starts... Helped lead the Aztecs to a 43-24 two-year record, advanced to the 2018 NCAA tournament, won the 2018 Mountain West tournament championship and twice advanced to the conference tournament title game... Started the final 38 games of his collegiate career (including all 34 contests of his sophomore campaign)... SDSU was 34-21 in his 55 career starts... The Aztecs were 17-8 in the 25 games in which he scored at least 16 points and 8-0 when he scored at least 16 points and added 10 rebounds... Produced 20 career double-doubles (6th highest total in school history and 2nd most among two-year players (Kawhi Leonard, 40))... Had 50 career double-digit scoring games (35-15), 28 games with at least 15 points (20-8) and nine contests with 20 or more points (7-2)... Recorded 22 games with 10 or more rebounds (18-4)... Led the Aztecs in scoring 22 times, rebounding 40 times and assists five times... Ended his career on several SDSU career charts including: 6th in efficiency average (16.54), 9th in rebound average (7.90),16th in field goal percentage (50.4), 22nd in rebounding (529)... Since the start of the 2017-18 season, McDaniels was one of 13 players in the nation to play in at least 60 games and average 13 points, 7.5 rebounds, record 100 assists and shoot at least 50 percent from the field.

Jalen and Kawhi

Like Kawhi Leonard, who played collegiately at San Diego State in the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, Jalen McDaniels is another high-profile player who played two seasons at SDSU. A comparison of the career college stats shows a similar pattern. Leonard averaged four minutes more per game in his SDSU career (31.9-to-27.9) and hence has an advantage in career per game averages. However, when the numbers are broken down on a per-minute basis, the two stat lines are very similar, with McDaniels owning advantage in every shooting category (field goal, three-point field goal, free throw and true shooting percentages) as well as scoring.
