AZTEC STORYLINES

VS. THE ANTEATERS: SDSU looks to return the favor to UC Irvine after dropping a 9-4 decision to the Anteaters on Feb. 27. The Aztecs have won four of its previous six meetings against UC Irvine.

SDSU has had great success against Big West members over the past two seasons, owning a 21-6 record against BW programs since the start of the 2017 season. This season, Matt Rudick leads the team with a .419 (13-for-31) batting average against BW programs, while Adrian Mardueno has led the pitching staff with four scoreless appearances against the Big West this season.

The Aztecs also enter Tuesday's contest having won five consecutive non-conference games.

RECAP OF AIR FORCE: SDSU saw a streak of six consecutive series wins (min. 3 games) against Air Force come to an end this weekend, suffering a doubleheader sweep before winning Sunday's finale, 15-11.

SDSU was shutout for the first time in the 2018 season in Saturday's first game. Garrett Hill was dealt his first loss of the season, despite turning in a strong start for SDSU, allowing just two runs. Jacob Erickson retired all four batters he faced in relief of Hill during the 2-0 setback.

The Aztecs jumped out to a 5-1 lead in the sixth inning in Saturday's second game, however a three-error bottom of the seventh helped Air Force score seven runs and defeat the Aztecs, 12-7. Chad Bible led the offense in the game, going 3-for-5 while hitting his team-leading sixth home run of the year.

SDSU posted four home runs, seven extra-base hits and 19 total hits in its series finale win in Colorado Springs. The win kept SDSU's record perfect in series finales this season, giving the Aztecs its eighth-straight series finale win. Eight of nine Aztecs in the starting lineup recorded at least one hit, while seven of nine drove in at least one RBI. David Hensley led the offense with a 3-for-4 showing including a three-run inside-the-park home run in the first inning. Casey Schmitt and Joe Fitzhugh hit the first home runs of their respective college careers in back-to-back fashion in the fifth inning.

With the series loss, SDSU has dropped each of its last two MW series, making it the first time since April 29 - May 8, 2016, that SDSU has lost back-to-back MW series (vs. Nevada & Fresno State in 2016). The

AZTEC STORYLINES

Aztecs had won all five of its 2018 weekend series prior to the previous two weekends.

ON THE AIR: XTRA 1360 will broadcast all four of SDSU's home games this week. Links to listen live and live stats are available at GoAztecs.com.

CONGRATS, COACH GILLESPIE: San Diego State will honor UC Irvine head coach Mike Gillespie who is retiring at the end of the 2018 season in a pregame ceremony before Tuesday's game. Gillespie started his Division I coaching career at USC in 1987 and since that point, has accumulated 1,141 career wins. He was honored as ABCA National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2014 and has reached the NCAA tournament 19 times in his storied career.

JUST HOLD ON, WE'RE COMING HOME: San Diego State kicks off an eight-game homestand on Tuesday, tied for the team's longest homestand of the season with SDSU's season-opening eight-game homestand. 12 of SDSU's next 13 games will be played at home, good for the most home games in a 13-game stretch since playing 13 of 14 at home to start the 2016 season.

GOOD IN ALL ASPECTS: San Diego State is one of just five teams in the country to have a batting average of .300 or higher, an ERA of 3.55 or lower, and a fielding percentage of .970 or higher, joined by only Arkansas, Texas Tech, Ole Miss, and NC State.

ERICKSON MAKES HISTORY: With his appearance in the first game against Air Force this weekend, Jacob Erickson took over SDSU's all-time appearance record, breaking Kevin Piper's previous mark of 106 set 33 years ago in 1985.

Erickson is scheduled to make the start for the Aztecs on Tuesday, which will be his 109th career appearance. His total was already the highest in Mountain West history, having broken TCU's Trent Appleby's (2008-2011) of 96 earlier this year. After his start on Tuesday, Erickson will be 16 appearances shy of breaking into the NCAA's all-time top 25 leader board and his current total leads all active NCAA players in Division I, II, and III.

DOUBLING UP: Jordan Verdon currently leads the nation with 18 doubles on the season and his teammate, Chase Calabuig, is just a few spots below him on the leaderboard, sitting in seventh with 14. The combined doubles total between Verdon and Calabuig is good for most in the nation between two teammates.

HIGHEST DOUBLE TOTAL BETWEEN TWO TEAMMATES

Jordan Verdon & Chase Calabuig, San Diego State	- 32
Bryston Stott & Max Smith, UNLV	- 31
David Villar & Duke Stunkel, South Florida	- 25
Grant Williams & Griffin Helms, Kennesaw St.	- 25
Nick Grande & Michael Wilson, Stony Brook	- 25

MARCH MADNESS: Despite only having seven of its 18 games in March at home, the Aztecs enjoyed quite a bit of success over its March schedule, owning an 12-6 record for the month.

SDSU posted a .302 team batting average for the month while holding its opponents to a .250 mark. Julian Escobedo led the team with a .424 batting average for the month, going 25-for-59 at the plate. Jordan Verdon led the team with 15 extra-base hits and 24 RBI last month.

On the mound, SDSU was led by Garrett Hill, who recorded a 0.81 ERA in a 5-0 month. A pair of freshmen led the efforts coming out of the bullpen last month, with Casey Schmitt's 1.08 ERA and Casey O'Sullivan's 1.29 ERA last month being the best on the team. SDSU as a team posted a 3.55 ERA in March.

AHEAD TO APRIL: Tony Gwynn Stadium will be quite busy during April, serving host 12 games which includes an eight-game homestand beginning with a April 10th meeting with UC Irvine and concluding with a Sunday series finale with Fresno State on April 22nd. SDSU's only road weekend series is this weekend, when the team visits Air Force for a three-game series beginning on Friday, April 6.

HOMEGROWN: The San Diego State roster features 10 players from San Diego. Collectively, San Diego natives have posted 66 percent of SDSU's 2018 hit total (221 of 335)

EXPERIENCE ON THE DIAMOND: Despite having a team of 15 freshmen -- the program's largest freshman class since 2011 -- the Aztecs have two of the most experienced players in the nation this year in Chase Calabuig, who is fourth among all DI players with 211 career games played, and Jacob Erickson, who leads all DI pitchers with 109 career pitching appearances. The Aztecs are the only team in the nation to have a player in the top five of both categories. Erickson recently set SDSU's program record in pitching appearances, while Calabuig is 25 games shy from setting the program's career games played record.

* Mountain West Tournament Championship (2)

! NCAA Tournament Appearance (2)

Mark Martinez heads into his fourth season as the head coach at San Diego State, a position he assumed in 2015 after nine years as an Aztec assistant coach under the late Tony Gwynn.

Martinez helped Gwynn transform and build the program into what it is today. He has helped guide the Aztecs to five regional appearances in the past eight years after an 18-year absence from the postseason. Along the way, he has guided the team to Mountain West Championships in four of the past five seasons.

Martinez comes into his fourth year at the helm of the SDSU program after compiling 104 in his first the campaigns since assuming that position. He is the lone coach in program history to record 100 wins in his first three seasons as head coach.

He has also helped build an academic program that saw the highest APR in the history of the program last season, as well as the most scholar-athletes and highest team GPA in the history of the program.

Martinez has had 42 players drafted in his time at San Diego State, and had six of those draft picks make the major leagues (Stephen Strasburg, Addison Reed, Justin Masterson, Bruce Billings, Quintin Berry and Lance Zawadzki). In addition, Martinez has helped guide 47 Aztecs to All-Mountain West honors and eight Aztecs to All-American accolades.

In 2017, Martinez guided SDSU to a 42-21 record and a fourth conference title in the past five seasons. Statistically, his offense was among the national leaders in several categories while the defense set a school record for fielding percentage. He also helped produce the Mountain West Tony Gwynn Player of the Year (Danny Sheehan) and the league's Pitcher of the Year (Brett Seeburger). A total of six Aztecs earned all-conference honors while two (Sheehan, Tyler Adkison) were recognized as third-team All-Americans

In his inaugural season at the helm of the Aztec program, Martinez saw his team capture its third consecutive Mountain West Championship and earn a third straight berth in the NCAA Regionals. The team's final 41-23 record marked the first time the Aztecs finished with back-to-back 40-win campaigns since the 1990 and 1991 seasons.

Seven Aztecs earned all-league honors and the team produced a Freshman All-American, three All-West Region selections, three members of the NCAA Regional all-tournament team and five athletes on the conference championship all-tourney team including the MVP for the third year in a row. Four players (Bubba Derby, Steven Pallares, Mark Seyler, Ty France) were taken in the 2015 Major League draft as well.

During the 2014 season, Martinez helped lead the Aztecs to their second consecutive conference championship. The overall 42-21 record was the best win percentage in 30 years of the program. The Aztecs also made their second consecutive regional, playing in Lafayette, Louisiana, as the No. 3 seed.

After the season, the 2014 Aztecs saw six players drafted (Michael Cederoth, Greg Allen, Brad Haynal, Tim Zier, Brandon Thomas and Justin Hepner) and saw another sign as an undrafted free agent (Evan Potter). Of the six players that signed after the 2014 season, only one (Cederoth) had been drafted before their time at San Diego State.

In addition closer Michael Cederoth was also named a Baseball America First-Team All-American while third baseman Ty France was named a Baseball America Third Team All-American.

Martinez was also an integral part of recruiting the 2014 recruiting class, which was ranked as the 19th-best freshman class in the country by Baseball America.

Martinez was hired as an assistant coach on July 28, 2005, arriving at SDSU after 17 years as an assistant at the University of New Mexico. His responsibilities included being in charge of the Aztec infielders and serving as SDSU's third base coach during games. In addition, is involved with the Aztec baseball camps and clinics, a series of seminars offered each winter and summer.

During his tenure as a hitting and infield coach at New Mexico, Martinez was a key member in leading the Lobo offense that became one of the most prominent in the nation under his tutelage.

New Mexico was ranked among the top 11 teams in the nation in hitting his final four seasons and the Lobos were ranked among the top 10 in batting, slugging, doubles, triples and homers in 2005. He also helped lead the Lobos to the 2000 Mountain West Conference regular-season title.

Over his 17 seasons with New Mexico, he coached 47 all-conference selections and four conference players of the year. UNM also produced eight All-Americans, four freshman All-Americans and four Academic All-Americans during that span. In addition, 31 players were drafted in his 17 years at UNM.

The 55-year-old Martinez came to New Mexico in 1988 after a five-year stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo. He was an assistant there from 1984-88.

Martinez played shortstop at Mesa State from 1982-84, earning all-conference and all-district honors as a senior. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1984. He completed his master's in sports administration from New Mexico in January 1990.

In addition to his work with the Lobos, Martinez gained valuable experience in the summers of 1993 and 1994 as head coach of the Mat-su Miners in the Alaska Summer League.

Born Dec. 18, 1961, in Aurora, Colo., Martinez graduated from Longmont (Colo.) High School in 1980. He and wife, Jada Lucey Martinez, formerly UNM's associate athletic director for development, have two children: a daughter, Marissa (18), and a son, Cade (13).
