With Four Starters Returning - Including the Top Two Returning Players in the Mountain West Conference -- and Seven Players Back that Started at Least Six Games in 2004-05, Expectations are High for the Aztecs in 2005-06

It is hard to remember more optimism entering a San Diego State basketball season.

The marquee returning players, coupled with a high-profile transfer and a recruiting class which has been referenced as top 20 nationally has Aztec fans thinking about the a third postseason appearance in the last five seasons.

Reasons for that optimism:

▶ - San Diego State has the top two returning vote getters off the 2004-05 all-Mountain West Conference team in juniors Marcus Slaughter and Brandon Heath.

▶ - San Diego State returns four starters off last season's squad. Steve Fisher has returned at least four starters off a team he has coached six times, advancing to the NCAA Tournament on five occasions and winning the postseason NIT the other season.

▶ - San Diego State returns seven players that started at least six games last season.

▶ - In December, San Diego State welcome's 6-10 University of Florida transfer Mohamed Abukar to the lineup. Abukar averaged more than 10 minutes of playing time for the Gators as a sophomore last season and exploded for 22 points in a game against Florida A&M last season.

▶ - San Diego State's recruiting class has been referenced as a top 20 class nationally by Hoop Scoop.

▶ - San Diego State returns 82.8 percent of its scoring, 82.8 percent of its rebounding and 80.1 percent of its assists from last season. In four of the previous six seasons that the Aztecs percentage of points, rebounds and assists added together equals 202 or higher, SDSU has advanced to the NCAA Tournament. This season, that total is 245.7, the highest figure since 1975-76.

What's Back

As previously mentioned, San Diego State returns the two returning vote getters off the 2004-05 all-Mountain West Conference team as part of four starters and seven letterwinners returning. The Aztecs return five of the top six scorers, the top four rebounders and top four assist men from the 2004-05 season.

San Diego State returns four players in the backcourt, including 6-3 junior Brandon Heath. Heath, a second-team all-conference selection last season, is the leading returning scorer and second leading returnee in assists in the Mountain West Conference from last season. A two-year starter for the Aztecs, Heath averaged team-highs with 18.3 points, 3.7 assists, and 34.4 minutes last season.

Heath is joined in the backcourt by 6-0 senior John Sharper, 6-3 sophomore Matt Thomas and 6-2 sophomore Tyler Smith. Those three players combined to make 39 starts for the Aztecs last season. The trio missed one game between the three of them all season.

Sharper, continues to be one of the top three-point shooters in the conference and is arguably one of the best on-ball defenders in the league. He averaged 6.0 points and connected on 43 three-point field goals last season.

Highest Returning Percentage Since...

As documented above, SDSU returns an unusually high percentage in several key categories. Below is a look at the last time an Aztec squad returned as high of a percentage in several statistical categories. Highest indicates the percentage is the highest recorded in that category since the statistics started being tracked.

Category	05-06	Highest Since
Points	82.8	1984-85
Rebounds	82.8	1999-00
Assists	80.1	1975-76
Minutes	79.7	1984-85
Games Started	83.4	Highest
Pts+Rebs+Ast	245.7	1975-76

As a true freshman, Thomas established himself as one of the quickest perimeter players on the West Coast. He showed maturity beyond his years, as he was one of just three players to record more assists than turnovers during the season. He also showed big-game potential as he recorded season-highs of 20 points, 10 rebounds and six assists before settling for inaugural season averages of 6.1 points and 3.4 rebounds.

A walk-on true freshman, Smith turned heads last season with his solid play in the backcourt. In addition to connecting on 17-of-35 (48.6 percent) of his three-point field goal attempts, the Smith had 33 assists and just 21 turnovers in 28 games. He averaged 2.2 points and 1.6 rebounds for the campaign.

As if the backcourt wasn't deep enough, the Aztecs welcome incoming freshmen Kashif Watson (Las Vegas, Nev.) and Ritchie Williams (Spring Valley, Calif). Both guards are highly touted out of high school and will be given the opportunity to compete for playing time, particularly at the point guard position.

An experienced frontcourt features 6-8 junior Marcus Slaughter. An all-conference second team selection a year ago, Slaughter is the top returning vote getter off the 2004-05 all-conference team. After testing the NBA Draft waters, the two-year starter returned to San Diego State. Last season, Slaughter averaged 17.8 points, 9.0 rebounds and tied the sophomore class school record with 10 double-doubles. (Michael Cage and Eddy Gordon also recorded 10 double-doubles as sophomores). He has started the last 44 games in which he has played.

Also returning in the frontcourt is 6-8 senior captain Trimaine Davis. The heart and soul of last season's team, Davis has played an undersized center as well as the forward spot for the Aztecs. As last season progressed and his playing time increased, Davis numbers increased. He was fourth on the team in scoring and third in rebounding over the final two months of the season. During that stretch he shot 50 percent or better from the field in 10-of-11 games. He ended the season averaging 5.2 points and 2.3 rebounds.

At center, SDSU returns 6-10 senior Mohamed Camara. Originally from Guinea, Camara proved to be a force on the glass last season and Aztec fans are hopeful that his offensive game will continue to grow during the off season. A 21-game starter last season, Camara averaged 2.4 points and 3.8 rebounds. He pulled down 52 offensive rebounds, the most by any SDSU player in school history with 500 minutes or less of playing time.

The X factor to this season's team may be San Diego native and University of Florida transfer Mohamed Abukar. Listed as a 6-10 center, Abukar will be eligible to play in mid-December and will be classified as a junior. Although listed at center, the coaching staff believes he can play a wing position due to his tremendous athleticism and he will be counted on to be a third scoring option for SDSU. His numbers as a sophomore were skewed as a Gator due to limited playing time (2.7 points, 2.1 rebounds) but he did show the ability for a breakout game when he tallied a career-high 22 points in just 18 minutes of action.

SDSU also returns 6-9 Chris Lamb and 6-5 Tim McGrath in the frontcourt. Both player redshirted during their freshman campaigns but are expected to see action this season. Lamb has hit the weight room hard and has already put on 20 pounds since arriving on campus, while McGrath may be the most athletic player on the squad having recorded a 6-10 high jump as a prep athlete.

Don't discount Aztec freshman recruits Brett Hoerner and Kyle Spain. Both come highly touted and could easily find playing time this season.

Four Starters Returning for Fisher Equals Postseason

In his coaching history. Steve Fisher plus four or more returning starters has resulted in tremendous success. Six previous times Steve Fisher has returned four or more starters from a team coached, with those clubs advancing to NCAA Tournament play on five occasions and winning the postseason NIT championship once. Below is a look at those clubs.

Season	Returning Starters	Final Record	Postseason (Record)
1989-90	4	23-8	NCAA Second Round (1-1)
1991-92	4	25-9	NCAA Runner-Up (5-1)
1992-93	5	31-5	NCAA Runner-Up (5-1)
1993-94	4	24-8	NCAA Regional Finalist (3-1)
1996-97	4	24-11	NIT Champions (5-0)
2001-02	4	21-12	NCAA First Round (0-1)
2004-05	4

Those six teams have posted a combined 148-53 (73.6 percent) winning percentage, have never failed to win at least 21 games and have an unbelievable 19-5 (79.2 percent) record in postseason games. The only year that one of the above teams failed to win a postseason game was in 2001-02, when in just his third season at SDSU, Fisher guided the Aztecs to the NCAA Tournament, their first postseason appearance since 1985.

Erie Similarities

In addition to returning four starters there are other similarities between the Aztecs' 2001-02 NCAA Tournament team and the 2005-06 squad. Both clubs returned nearly 80 percent of their production from the previous season (see left column), with the 2005-06 team set to return slightly more than the NCAA squad.

Returning percentages appears to be one of the best methods to track San Diego State's postseason chances. Since the 1972-73 season when assists started being tracked, SDSU has gone to the NCAA Tournament four of the six times when the returning percentages of points, rebounds and assists added together are higher than 202. The Aztecs are 0-for-27 in making the NCAA Tournament when that figure falls below 202.

In addition to four postseason trips in the six seasons SDSU has reached the magical 202 figure, SDSU has posted a winning record in five of the six campaigns with the lone exception being Steve Fisher's first season when the Aztecs had a return value of 229.7, and won five games.

This season that number adds up to 245.7, the second highest total in school history.

The Bad Luck Aztecs

If it wasn't for bad luck, the Aztecs would have no luck at all in 2004-05. The 11-18 record did not begin to demonstrate how close the Aztecs have been to having a solid if not a terrific season. In 2004-05, San Diego State lost three games in which they have led with less than a minute remaining and six games that were a one possession contest with less than 25 seconds to play in regulation.

Since the beginning of the 2003-04 season (last two seasons), San Diego State has lost six games in which it led with less than a minute to play in regulation, 12 games that were a one possession contest with less than 25 seconds to play in regulation and are 0-6 in overtime.

Last season, SDSU was 4-10 in conference, but 0-4 in games decided by four points or less or in overtime.

Other tidbits in San Diego State's 18 losses last season:
▶ The Aztecs have led in the final 10 minutes of the game and lost: 8 games
▶ San Diego State led for more than 20 minutes of the game and lost: 5 games
▶ Lost a game it led at half: 5 games
▶ Owned double-digit lead and lost: 3 games

The four overtime losses match Idaho State for the most losses in an extra session this season among the 330 Division I schools with an RPI Ranking.

The Season That Was

Although the Aztecs suffered through a disappointing campaign last season ending the year 11-18 overall and 4-10 in Mountain West Conference play, San Diego State never fielded the team many experts picked for an upper division finish last summer.

The Aztecs were competitive throughout the season despite having the senior class miss 65 games due to illness, injury and suspension. What looked like one of the most experienced teams in school history has had to rely heavily upon underclassmen due to the dismissal of Wesley Stokes (who started 28 of 30 games in 2003-04) and injuries to Chris Walton (groin pull/hip flexor, missed 10 games) and Travis Hanour (tendinitis, missed 26 games). The three projected starters played a total of 520 minutes, or an average of 17.9 minutes a game. Those three players accounted for just 8.8 percent of the teams total minutes.

The result was an exciting, and somewhat inconsistent, season with a number of first and second year players making an immediate impact. And the Aztecs were close to making an impact last season, losing four games in overtime and another three games by four points or less.

The Aztecs started 16 different lineups, 14 of which started two games or less together.

TEAM NOTES & AWARD CANDIDATES

San Diego State

▶ - San Diego State has the top two returning vote getters off the 2004-05 all-Mountain West Conference team in juniors Marcus Slaughter and Brandon Heath.

▶ - San Diego State returns four starters off last season's squad. Steve Fisher has returned at least four starters off a team he has coached six times, advancing to the NCAA Tournament on five occasions and winning the postseason NIT the other season.

▶ - San Diego State returns seven players that started at least six games last season.

▶ - In December, San Diego State welcome's 6-10 University of Florida transfer Mohamed Abukar to the lineup. Abukar averaged more than 10 minutes of playing time for the Gators as a sophomore last season and exploded for 22 points against Florida A&M last season.

▶ - San Diego State's recruiting class has been referenced as a top 20 class nationally by Hoop Scoop.

▶ - San Diego State returns 82.8 percent of its scoring, 82.8 percent of its rebounding and 80.1 percent of its assists from last season. In four of the previous six seasons that the Aztecs percentage of points, rebounds and assists added together equals 202 or higher, SDSU has advanced to the NCAA Tournament. This season, that total is 245.7, the highest figure since 1975-76.

Marcus Slaughter    Conference Player of the Year Candidate ***

Junior, Forward, 6-8, 233, Riverside, Calif. (J.W. North High)

▶ 17.8 ppg, 9.0 rpg, 1.3 apg, 1.4 spg, 30 blocked shots, 34.1 mpg

▶ The top returning vote getter from last season's all-Mountain West Conference team.

▶ Last season he became the third player in SDSU's Division I era (joining Michael Cage and Aerick Sanders) and the first non-senior to record at least 475 points, 200 rebounds, 30 steals and 30 blocked shots in the same season.

▶ Increased his scoring average from his freshman to sophomore seasons by 9.9 points per game. The second biggest single-season increase in SDSU Division I era history.

▶ Enters his junior campaign having started the last 44 games in which he has played and has scored in double figures in 27 consecutive games. The 27-game double-digit scoring streak is the longest during the Steve Fisher SDSU era.

▶ His 717 points are the third most by an Aztec player after his sophomore season in the Division I era, trailing only Brandon Heath (945) and Tony Ross (916). He is ahead of the pace set by SDSU's all-time leading scorer Michael Cage, who had 613 points after his sophomore season and ended his career with 1,846 points.

▶ Ranked among the Mountain West Conference top eight in six statistical categories (including scoring, rebounding, steals and blocked shots).

Brandon Heath    Conference Player of the Year Candidate ***

Junior, Guard, 6-3, 183, Los Angeles, Calif. (Westchester High)

▶ 18.3 ppg, 3.7 apg, 3.5 rpg, 2.2 spg, 82.0 FT Pct., 34.4 mpg

▶ Second leading returning vote getter from last season's all-Mountain West Conference team behind teammate Marcus Slaughter.

▶ He is the leading returning scorer and second-leading returner in assists in the conference.

▶ One of five players in the nation and the only sophomore to rank among the top 50 leaders in both scoring and steals.

▶ His 945 career points are the most by an Aztec player following their sophomore campaign in school history. He is well ahead of the pace set by SDSU's all-time leading scorer Michael Cage, who had 613 points after his sophomore season and ended his career with 1,846 points.

▶ Joined Anthony Watson as the only other player in school history to lead the team in scoring, assists and steals in the same season.

▶ Won Mountain West Conference Player of the Week honors twice last season, to join Josh Davis (Wyoming), Marcus Bailey (Wyoming) and Andrew Bogut (Utah) as the only underclassmen to win the honor multiple times.

▶ Ranked among the Mountain West Conference top nine in six statistical categories (including scoring, assists, steals free throw percentage, three-point field goals and assist-to-turnover ratio).

Mohamed Abukar    MWC Newcomer of the Year Candidate ***

Junior, Center, 6-10, 210, San Diego, Calif. (Rancho Bernardo High/Univ. of Florida)

▶ "We have great expectations for Mohamed. He is a scorer. He will come in and immediately give us a third scoring option. With his size he will be a factor inside and with his skill he will be a factor outside. He shoots the ball very well from the permitter. We expect Mohamed to be an immediate impact player when he is eligible to play in mid-December. We are extremely excited to have him." - Head Coach Steve Fisher.

▶ Scored a career-high 22 points in 18 minutes of action against Florida A&M on Nov. 30, 2004.

▶ As a senior at Rancho Bernardo High, he averaged a San Diego Section-best 27.8 points and 12.7 rebounds.

▶ As a prep, he was a member of the U.S. Junior National Team.

Steve Fisher Says...

On returning four starters and seven letterwinners from the 2004-05 season:

Experience is always a welcomed commodity and we obviously have that starting with our top two returning scorers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. Both of them are very talented and both have started a great part of their two seasons here. Then, you throw in Matt Thomas and John Sharper and you have guys that have playing experience, much of which is from a starting category. That bodes well for experience.

The issue of concern will be does that experience be enough to turn close losses into close victories. More than any season in my career, we had games that fell into that category but we were unable to win. We need to change that and experience should be a great asset to help change that. We are excited to have all of those components returning to be a good avenue to help jump start for the 2005-06 season.

Areas targeted for improvement in 2005-06:

We must defend better. Sometime it is subtle and the average fan does not recognize it but when you are a coach and have the luxury to review tape, our defense was not the typical defense I have grown accustomed to. Starting with conversion or transition defense. We must be better and not giving an opponent a quick, open look out of transition. We gave way to many of those last year. That goes hand-in-hand with a team being able to verbally communicate and function better from the neck up. We need to be more verbal and be a smarter team and not just in defense. We will be a better defensive team this year.

Offensive we need to make sure we do a better job of making decisions - when to shoot, when to pass, who you are passing to and why. I think offensively our decision making needs to improve and I think through experience that will happen.

We must believe we are good. Confidence has a way of helping you through tough times and tough spots. We need to know we are capable of being extremely successful and usually that is enhanced by winning. We need to work hard and believe we are good enough to win every time we step out on the floor.

On Marcus Slaughter and Brandon Heath:

Marcus is an exceptional rebounder. He has a feel for the ball and has the ability to see angles where the ball is likely to come and he is quick to the ball. He has done a good job of getting to the free-throw line which bodes well for him and for us. He is extremely athletic. He can get out and run the floor. He can rebound the ball, outlet and dunk going the other way.

Marcus is a guy who has grown in his confidence that he is good. I think initially he wanted to fit in and now he wants to step up and accept responsibility which all good players have to do. One quality that I don't think enough people recognize is that Marcus is a very good passer. I think that is a trait that will bode well. He is going to see double teams and he needs to recognize that and take advantage of it.

Brandon's strength continues to be that none competes harder. He has a scorer's mentality. Every time he shoots it he knows it is going in and that can be a double-edge sword. When he gets on streaks as we have seen over the last two seasons he is impossible to stop. He has worked extremely hard not only on his permitter shot but also that attack off the dribble mid-range shot. He needs to continue to grow in that regard but that is a huge strength of his.

Brandon has the ability to be a lockdown defender. He is a very good one-on-one defender who enjoys the challenge of facing strong offensive players. He is a winner. He has won at every level he has ever played at. He expects to win and that rubs off on other players.

Areas in which Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter can improve:

They have to understand that they will be the first players talked about every game by the opposing coach. They will be the focus and in the crosshair. We have always used the phrase 'with rank comes responsibility' and that is Heath and Slaughter this season. They are no longer the new kids on the block and an afterthought, they will be the number one and two options for us. They need to understand that and respond to it.

I think with both of them decision making comes into play. They need to make better decisions. With Brandon, less should be more. I think he will shoot less and score more. He needs to do a better job of when to shoot and when to pass. Marcus needs to continue to work on his ability to face the basket and become more of player that can utilize his athleticim and legs to remain on balance when he goes inside. He needs to continue to grow in his permitter defense.

They need to know that they will lead not only by what they do but how they do it not only in games but also in practice. Your best players have to be your harder workers and we need to make sure that happens.

Mohamed Abukar

We have great expectations for Mohamed. He is a scorer. He will come in and immediately give us a third scoring option. With his size he will be a factor inside and with his skill he will be a factor outside. He shoots the ball very well from the permitter. We expect Mohamed to be an immediate impact player when he is eligible to play in mid-December. We are extremely excited to have him.

One of the nation s most distinguished coaches, Steve Fisher has guided San Diego State s transformation from a college basketball afterthought to one one of the most visible pro grams in the country.

In six short seasons, Steve Fisher has changed the outlook, fortunes and expectations of San Diego State basketball. The Aztecs have been transformed from the ugly duckling that muddled through the first ever Mountain West Conference campaign with an 0 14 record into a pro gram that has produced three .500 or better campaigns in the last five sea sons, advanced to postseason play twice in the last four years, claimed a conference championship and the first Division I postseason victory in school history.

It is a school that now regularly goes toe to toe with the west's best basketball programs on the court and in the recruiting wars. It may be the new program on the block but seniority rarely matters in the chang ing world of college athletics.

When Fisher arrived on the scene, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were in place all right. The Aztecs were expected and expecting to lose. The year before his arrival San Diego State won just four games.

The hiring only dates back to March of 1999, so referring to the "Steve Fisher Era" at San Diego State might be considered a bit premature. But with the Aztec banner now flying over the Mountain West Conference, there is little doubt that San Diego State basketball has reached a new level.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the bas ketball scene in the form of a news conference to introduce its new coach, Steve Fisher. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pock et, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the high est winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reserva tions.

No head coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Steve Fisher. Six games into his head coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight plus seasons at the University of Michigan produced a 184 82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Company raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20 6 record, ranking him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to the championship of the NIT as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001 02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those num bers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great recent turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or bet ter record in 2002 03 and led San Diego State back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school s Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postsea son victory with a win in the NIT.

The Aztecs survived the loss of four starters and arguably the most difficult schedule in school history to post a 14 16 record in 2003 04. Last season, the Aztecs advanced to the semifinal round of the Mountain West Conference Championship before falling to eventual champion New Mexico.

The future looks even brighter. In 2005 06, SDSU has the top two returning vote getters from last season s all MWC team, the possible newcomer of the year in the league and a recruiting class that one serv ice ranked as high as 18th nationally.

Brian Dutcher
Assistant Head Coach
Seventh Season
Minnesota '82

One of Steve Fisher's first moves as head coach at San Diego State was to hire Brian Dutcher as his top assistant. Dutcher, 46, was a regional scout for the Sacramento Kings before assuming the role of assistant head coach at San Diego State.

Dutcher served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff, establishing himself as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Steve Fisher on the bench.

The Bloomington, Minn., native headed up UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship and a Big Ten tournament title (1998).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess, however, was demonstrated by more than just the "Fab Five" haul. Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

His efforts at SDSU have quickly gained accolades as well. The first full-year recruiting effort by Steve Fisher, Brian Dutcher and Company resulted in a class that was a consensus top-40 group. Their second effort resulted in a top-25 recruiting class without counting a pair of high-profile transfers. Three seasons ago, Dutcher helped the Aztecs attract SDSU's first McDonald's All-American. Two years ago, Aztec freshmen Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter earned starting spots en route to earning all-league recognition and this season, once again, the Aztecs have a much talked about incoming class.

Dutcher is firmly entrenched as one of the nation's top recruiters after showing his rapport with potential student-athletes is as strong on the West Coast as it was in the vaunted Big Ten Conference.

Dutcher's first full-time coaching job came at South Dakota State, where he spent three seasons helping turn around the Division II program before departing in 1988 for Michigan.

His final season in Ann Arbor ended with the Wolverines claiming the first-ever Big Ten Tournament championship.

Gregg Gottlieb
Assistant Coach
Seventh Season
UCLA '95

Gregg Gottlieb begins his seventh season at San Diego State and his fourth as an assistant coach. Gottlieb is instrumental in player instruction and skill development and also assists in all areas of the program.

His numerous responsibilities also include recruiting, on-court coaching, opponent scouting and scheduling.

In the summer of 2002, Gottlieb was named an assistant coach following the departure of Jim Tomey to take the head coaching reigns of San Diego State's women's program. Gottlieb had served as the program's director of operations since October of 1999.

His responsibilities as the director of basketball operations included assisting with the day-to-day operations and overseeing the negotiating of scheduling. He also coordinated film exchange, served as the basketball liaison and committee board member for the Big 64 booster club and organized and negotiated all aspects of team travel.

The UCLA graduate helped SDSU put together one of the most challenging schedules in school history in 2002-03, highlighted by home games with Arizona, Texas Tech and Hawai'i.

That trend continued in 2003-04 as the Aztecs played in the EA Sports Maui Invitational. In all, San Diego State played 11 games against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament the previous season and 19 contests against opponents that played in one of the two national postseason tournaments.

In his tenure, the Aztecs have also had high-profile games with Duke and Oklahoma State.

Gottlieb also sat on the board of Hoopla, the largest annual fundraising event for the Aztec basketball program during his time at San Diego State.

Gottlieb was a standout performer at El Modena High School in Orange County and followed that up as a two-year letterman at Drake. After his playing career, he returned to California and earned his degree in history and picked up a minor in business at UCLA in 1995.

Gottlieb moved into the collegiate coaching ranks at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo. He was part of the staff that was responsible for one of college basketball's biggest turnarounds. The Mustangs' win total jumped from one in 1994-95 to 16 in 1995-96.

While at San Luis Obispo, Gottlieb completed work on his master's of business administration.

In July of 1997, Gottlieb became assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Cal State Sacramento. His first recruiting class in the Big Sky Conference ranked 43rd nationally.

After two years as an assistant coach at Cal State Sacramento, he joined the San Diego State staff in 1999.

Mark Hughes
Assistant Coach
Second Season
Michigan '89

Mark Hughes, a senior co-captain on the Michigan squad that Steve Fisher guided to the 1989 national championship, enters his second season as an assistant coach at San Diego State.

Hughes, 38, has served as an assistant coach for the NBA's Orlando Magic the last two seasons and was a head coach for the CBA's Grand Rapids Hoops from 1997-2002.

"Mark brings a wealth of experience, both as a player and a coach, that will be a great addition to our family," Fisher said. "My familiarity with Mark goes back to the days when I recruited him in high school. He adds character and talent that will be evident to all. He is a great addition not only for the basketball program, but the entire San Diego State University community."

Hughes finished his Michigan career with 619 points, 485 rebounds, 177 assists in 105 career games from 1985-89. After graduating from Michigan in 1989 with a degree in sociology, he spent time in the NBA, CBA and Europe, playing basketball before focusing on his coaching career.

In 1990-91 he was a member of the Detroit Pistons. He then played professional basketball overseas, spending four seasons in Italy and France, before returning as captain of the Grand Rapids Hoops in 1995-96.

In his five seasons, first as a player-head coach and then head coach, Hughes won more than 150 games and was a four-time recipient of the CBA Coach of the Month award. He is the Hoops franchise's all-time winningest coach.

After his successful run as both a coach and a player, Hughes had his No. 44 jersey retired by Grand Rapids on Feb. 9, 2002.

In addition, he earned a selection from USA Basketball as the top assistant on the 1997 USA Basketball team that won the gold medal in the Tournament of Americas in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Hughes joined the Orlando Magic staff as an assistant coach on July 9, 2002. He served for two seasons with the Magic, working on Glenn "Doc" Rivers' staff before joining the Aztecs.

"I am extremely excited to be working with Coach Fisher again," Hughes said. "I have known him for a lot of years and I feel privileged to get an opportunity to learn from him. I'm coming in to work hard, help get quality student-athletes, develop them on and off the court and help Coach Fisher continue to build this program."

"I've had success in college and in coaching at the professional level and I am looking forward to having a positive impact on student-athletes."

In June 2004, Hughes was inducted into the Muskegon Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Mohamed Camara
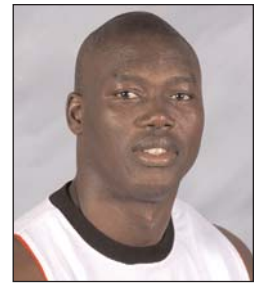

Jersey No. 50
Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Senior
Center, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-10, Wt.: 265
High School: Moore High (Louisville, Ky.)
Junior College: Riverside College (Riverside, Calif.)
Birthdate: June 1, 1983 (Conakry, Guinea)
SDSU Letters (1): 2004-05

Will be an important factor in the amount of success San Diego State will have in 2005-06... The only player on the current roster taller than 6-8 with college experience... Proved to be an effective rebounder at times last season... Picked up basketball relative late in life and continues to develop his low-post moves and ability to score around the basket... Also gaining more comfort with team concepts on defense... Can't teach his frame of 6-10, 265 pounds.

QUICK HITS
▶ Played in all 29 games last season and his 21 starts were the third highest total on the team.
▶ Was second on the team in rebounding with 110 and recorded the most rebounds in a single-season by a player that scored less than 100 points in school history.
▶ Last season, shot 48.1 percent from the field in SDSU wins and 33.3 percent from the floor in Aztec losses.

As A Junior (2004-05 Season)
MWC Rankings: 10th in offensive rebounding, 15th in blocked shots
   One of five Aztec players to see action in all 29 games and his 21 game started was the third highest total on the team behind Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter... His 494 minutes were the 7th highest total on the team... Despite playing the seventh most minutes on the team, he ranked second on the squad in rebounding (110), second in blocked shots (18) and sixth in steals (19)... His numbers pro-rated over 40 minutes include impressive marks such as 8.9 rebounds (second on team) and a team-high 1.5 blocked shots... His 52 offensive rebounds tied for the 35th highest total in the school's recorded history... His offensive rebound total is the highest among any Aztec player with less than 500 minutes of playing time... Produced six games with at least seven rebounds... In the five games in which he logged at least 23 minutes of playing time, he averaged 7.8 rebounds and led the Aztecs in rebounding in three of those five games... Playing time varied greatly during the season as demonstrated by a career-high 31 minutes vs. San Diego (12-1-04) and playing less than a minute (officially 0 minutes) at Air Force (1-29-05)... In his 21 starts he averaged 20.6 minutes of playing time, while he logged an average of 7.8 minutes in his eight appearances off the bench... Tallied the fewest points (70) of any Aztec player with at least 100 rebounds in the Division I era... The previous mark was held by Aeric Sanders set during his sophomore season... Since minutes played began being kept prior to the 1978-79 season, Camara ranked 17th in school history and first in the Steve Fisher era in blocked shots per minute played (.036) (minimum 400 minutes played)...Ranked 42nd in school history in single-season rebounds per minute played (.223)... Had six games in which he played eight minutes or less which unfairly tainted his per game averages... Throw out the numbers in those six games and Camara's per-game averages rise to 2.9 points and 4.6 rebounds in 20.3 minutes of playing time (compared to total season averages of 2.4 points, 3.8 rebounds and 17.0 minutes)... Although his averages did not differ greatly in Aztec wins and losses (2.6 ppg, 4.3 rpg in wins and 2.3 ppg and 3.5 rpg in losses), his field goal percentage and attempts showed a dramatic difference... In SDSU wins, Camara connected on 13-of-27 field goals (48.1 percent) and averaged an attempt every 7:42... In losses, he shot 17-of-51 (33.3 percent) and had one field goal attempt every 9:20... Had a career-high 13 rebounds in 28 minutes of action against Providence (12-31-04)... Also tied a career-high with seven points against the Friars... Other seven-point scoring performance came in his second game as a collegiate player against Monmouth (11-22-04)... Aztecs were 5-4 when Camara shot at least 50 percent from the field (6-14 in other games)... San Diego State was 8-6 when he played at least 19 minutes (3-12 when he did not).

Junior College
   Played for two seasons at Riverside (Calif.) College... Ranked as the sixth-best junior college center prospect in the nation by Lindy's and nbadraft.net... Camara entered the 2003-04 season ranked as the third-best junior college player and the top post player in California according to PrepCA.com.... Averaged 9.4 points, 10.7 rebounds and connected on 51.0 percent of his field goal attempts in 2003-04... Helped lead the Tigers to a 25-7 record, their first outright Orange Empire Conference championship since 1994, and an appearance in the Southern California Regional Final game... He started all 32 games for Riverside this past season... In two seasons at Riverside, Camera produced some eye-popping numbers. His teams posted a 45-21 record and he compiled 568 points, 697 rebounds and 149 blocked shots. He produced single-game highs of 23 points and 23 rebounds with the Tigers.

High School
   Prepped at Moore High School in Louisville, Ky... Earned all-state and all-league honors... As a senior, he averaged 15 points, 15 rebounds and seven blocked shots a game and was named to the Blue Grass State's roster for the annual Indiana-Kentucky All-Star Game.

Personal
   Full name is Mohamed Bafode Camara... Born June 1, 1983, in Conakry, Guinea... Son of Abou Camara and Kannke Bangoura... A history major... Also considered Arizona, St. John's and Rutgers... Avid soccer player... Last name pronounced ku-MAR-uh.

Jersey No. 20
Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Senior
Forward, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-8, Wt.: 233
High School: West Pittsburg High (West Pittsburg, Calif.)
Birthdate: April 14, 1983 (Pittsburg, Calif.)
SDSU Letters (3): 2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05

An explosive fifth-year senior who was named team captain for the upcoming season in the lockerroom at the Pepsi Center following SDSU's season-ending loss in the Mountain West Conference semifinals... An athletic forward whose role on the team increased as the season progressed... An aggressive, energetic player that can combat taller opponents with his horizontal and vertical quickness... His hard work and blue-collar approach have made him a favorite among fans... Has played at both the four and five spots for the Aztecs... A tremendously efficient player, Davis' career field goal percentage of 57.5 percent would be a school record if he had enough attempts... He ranks 39th in SDSU's Division I era in career efficiency points per minute played (minimum 600 career minutes)... His career efficiency rating per minute of 0.368 is second among current players in the category trailing only Marcus Slaughter and the only players in the Steve Fisher era to produce a better career efficiency per minute rating are Aerick Sanders (0.520), Marcus Slaughter (0.508), Randy Holcomb (0.485), Al Faux (0.416), Mike Mackell (0.410) and Tony Bland (0.383)... Of that group, only Sanders, Slaughter and Davis began their collegiate career at San Diego State... In conditioning tests last summer, Davis recorded a 27-inch vertical jump and owns a wingspan of seven feet.

QUICK HITS

▶ Only one player in SDSU's history with at least 68 field goal attempts owns a better field goal percentage than Davis' 57.5 percent. Kevin Betts connected on 205-of-351 (58.4 percent) during his time as an Aztec. The school record (minimum 500 attempts) is held by Leonard Allen who went 396-of-692 (57.2 percent) from 1982-1985.
▶ Trimaine Davis enters the season having scored in SDSU's last 14 games. That is the second longest active streak on the team next to Brandon Heath's 31 consecutive games (Marcus Slaughter has a 54-game scoring streak but did not play in the final two regular-season games last season).
▶ Davis has shot 50 percent or better from the field in 10 of the Aztecs' last 11 games.

As A Junior (2004-05 Season)

One of five Aztec players to see action in all 29 games... Made six starts and played 427 minutes after entering his junior campaign with career totals of no starts and 255 minutes... Despite playing the eighth most minutes on the team, he was 6th in scoring (5.2), 6th in rebounding (2.3), tied for 3rd in blocked shots (10) and 7th in steals (14)... Averages per 40 minutes of action: 14.1 points, 6.4 rebounds and 0.9 blocks... Another example of high productivity can be found when comparing those numbers against the 40 minute pro-rated numbers of the rest of the team where he ranked 3rd in scoring, rebounding and blocks, 4th in free throw attempts and 1st in fewest turnovers committed... After failing to reach double figures in his first 49 games as an Aztec and doing so just once in his first 61 games, he scored 10 or more points in four of the final nine games of the season... After playing 10 or more minutes only 10 times in his first two seasons, he broke that barrier 23 times as a junior and ended his junior campaign having played 13 or more minutes in the final 12 games... Had a personal hockey plus/minus record of 13-16 (meaning SDSU outscored its opponent when Davis was on the court 13 times and was outscored 16 times), which was the third best among SDSU regulars, trailing only Marcus Slaughter and Tyler Smith... Posted the eighth best single-season efficiency rating in the Division I era among players who accumulated 450 minutes or less during the season... That list has been a precursor to success as Joe McNaull and Aerick Sanders - both of whom rank ahead of Davis on that list - went on to earn all-conference accolades... Although he did not have enough field goal attempts to qualify for the school record, his 58.6 percent (65-of-111) was the fifth highest single-season percentage for any SDSU Division I player averaging at least 3.5 attempts per game... It was the highest ever by a non-senior and trailed only the senior efforts by Leon Carter, Leonard Allen, Kevin Betts and Marcelo Correa... Played better as the season progressed and his playing time increased... In February and March, which covered the final 10 games of the season, Davis averaged 7.9 points, 3.6 rebounds with seven blocked shots and seven steals while connecting on 35-of-54 (64.8 percent) field goal attempts... During the final 10-game stretch, his team ranks were: tied for 1st in blocked shots, 3rd in rebounding, 4th in scoring and 4th in steals... Had just 14 turnovers in 427 minutes of action (one turnover every 30.5 minutes)... Averaged 0.333 miscues per minute, the best average by any San Diego State player to record at least 100 minutes since turnovers started being tracked as a statistic in 1979... Started six games, including both games against Brigham Young (1-8-05 and 2-7-05)... Had his most productive game of his career, setting career highs with 12 points, eight rebounds, two assists, six field goals and 11 field goals attempted vs. Brigham Young (2-7-05)... Set then career highs in minutes played in three straight games (21 vs. Utah (2-5-05), 24 vs. Brigham Young (2-7-05), 29 vs. UNLV (2-12-05))... Tallied 11 points on 4-of-6 shooting from the floor in only 13 minutes at Wyoming (2-21-05)... Played a career-high 32 minutes against New Mexico (2-26-05) and scored seven points on 3-of-4 shooting... Shot 50 percent or better from the field in 10 of the final 11 games... In his last 11 games covering 230 minutes of playing time, he had 85 points, 39 rebounds, eight steals, four assists and connected on 38-of-60 field goals (63.3 percent)... Averaged 8.1 points, 3.9 rebounds and 21.4 minutes per game in the final nine contests... Made his first career start in his 50th career game at Loyola Marymount (12-18-04)... Scored a then career-high 10 points and added two rebounds in 13 minutes of action against LMU... Scored in the final 14 games of the season (the longest streak of his career and the second longest active streak on the team trailing only Brandon Heath (31) (Marcus Slaughter has scored in 54 straight games in which he has played, but missed two games due to injury)... Committed just two turnovers in the final seven games (140 minutes) of the season... 18 turnover free games during the season, the most on the team... Scored in 27 straight games in which he has played at least 10 minutes, including the 23 games in which he logged at least 10 minutes in 2004-05.

As A Sophomore (2003-04)

Played in 17 games, including 11 Mountain West Conference contests after missing the first eight games of the season due to knee surgery on Nov. 21 (the day of the season opener) to remove two bone fragments in his right knee... The injury occurred during practice, two days before the opener and head coach Steve Fisher gave Davis the option of delaying the surgery to accompany the team to Maui for the EA Sports Maui Invitational... Davis declined the offer so the surgery could occur as soon as possible... He played in 17-of-22 contests after his return... Although he saw limited action, he made the most of his opportunities, scoring 26 points, and adding 17 rebounds in 89 minutes of action... Had four blocked shots on the season to tie him for the fourth highest total on the squad... Averages per 40 minutes of action: 11.7 points, 7.6 rebounds and 1.8 blocks... Had an impressive score in the efficiency rating (NBA forumla for determine overall value) of 0.371 points per minute played... That value was third best on the team behind all-Mountain West Conference honorees Aerick Sanders and Marcus Sluaghter... Played 10 or more minutes twice during the season (15 at Saint Mary's (1-6-04) and 11 at Colorado State (1-24-04))... Had a career high eight points and tied a career-best with four rebounds at New Mexico (2-28-04)... Did his damage against the Lobos in just nine minutes of action... Also graded out with the best hockey plus-minus in the game at New Mexico scoring a +5 (Aztecs outscored the Lobos by five points while he was in the game)... Sealed the victory against Brigham Young (1-12-04) with a dunk with 12 seconds remaining after coming off the bench to replace Aerick Sanders, who fouled out... Played in his first contest of the season against Cal Poly (12-18-03) and registered a career high four rebounds, along with four points on two-of-two shooting in seven minutes... Went 4-for-6 from the field at Cox Arena in 2003-04... Pulled down two rebounds and blocked a shot in two minutes of action against Eastern Washington (12-20-03).. Aggressive and unrelenting, Davis blocked four shots in 89 minutes of action and ended the season by blocking three shots in his last 26 minutes of action in 2003-04.

As A Freshman (2002-03)

One of the most productive freshmen in the Mountain West Conference, Davis ranked second in the league among first-year players in field-goal percentage (min. 20 FGA) connecting on 16-of-26 attempts (61.5 percent)... Played in 24 of 30 games during the campaign, including the first 12 of the season... Provided depth in the post position early when the Aztecs were without Evan Burns, Travis Hanour and Chris Manker... Averaged 6.9 minutes per contest and was one of four key freshmen contributors to see major minutes in their first season (Evan Burns 582 minutes, Steve Sir 438 minutes, John Sharper 236 minutes, Trimaine Davis 166 minutes)... Was one of only four post players on the active roster joining Mike Mackell, Aerick Sanders and Chris Manker... Played at least 10 minutes in the first six games of the season and eight minutes in 24 games... Never went more than two games without seeing court time... Connected on 15-of-24 attempts from the field in the regular season (62.5 percent) after hitting all 15 of his field goal attempts during the exhibition games... Made his final five attempts from the field and did not miss a field goal attempt after Dec. 30, 2002... Had three points and a rebound in 16 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Scored three points and had a monster dunk in five minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Scored 10 points and pulled down three rebounds in games against UC San Diego and Arizona (30 minutes of action)... Went 3-for-3 from the field and scored a career-high six points in 19 minutes against UC San Diego (12-2-02)... Came off the bench to score four points in 11 minutes against top-ranked Arizona (12-7-02)... Saw eight minutes of action in the Aztecs' second-round NIT game at Texas Tech (3-21-03), scoring two points and adding a career-high-tying three rebounds.

As a Redshirt (2001-02)

Worked hard on and off the court to develop his game and get stronger... Redshirted along with fomer Aztec shooting guard Steve Sir because the Aztecs were deep at both positions... An enthusiastic player who was the Aztecs' biggest supporter on the bench while redshirting.

High School

Averaged 20.6 points, 14.7 rebounds and 5.7 blocks for Pittsburg High as a senior... Was the first player to sign with SDSU during the spring 2001 signing period... Earned most valuable player honors in the Bay Valley Athletic League and was named to the San Francisco Chronicle all-metro boys team... Selected to the NorCalPreps.com all-NorCal third team... His prep team had a 24-2 regular-season record, the best in school history, and shared the conference title... Four-year letterwinner for the Pirates... Played for coach Darrick Domineeli.

Personal

Born April 14, 1983, in Pittsburg, Calif... Son of Vearis Calomee... Majoring in African American studies... Men's basketball representative on the SDSU student-athlete advisory board... Served as master of ceremonies for the student-athlete welcome back dinner this past fall... Founder of the student-athlete group Ko-Ailition, an organization of African-American student-athletes... The organization is just the third of its kind in the country (Oklahoma and Ohio State are the other two schools).

SDSU Letters (2): 2003-04, 2004-05

One of the premier players in the Mountain West Conference and the entire West Coast... Will likely battle teammate Marcus Slaughter for preseason Mountain West Conference player of the year honors... An explosive scorer who has 21 20-point scoring games and 48 double-digit scoring games in 59 career games... Has already amassed 945 career points, the most by Aztec player at the conclusion of their sophomore campaign... Needs 55 points to become just the 21st player in SDSU's 84 seasons of basketball to reach 1,000 career points... Has the ability to beat you from outside as demonstrated by his 96 career three-point field goals and has an explosive first step which allows him to get to the basket... His quickness and athleticism enable him to draw contact and finish plays... He was fourth in the league and first among backcourt players last season in free throws made... Played both guard positions last season for the benefit of the team but will likely see more time this season at the two-guard spot... Joins teammate Marcus Slaughter as the first Aztec players to be named to either the first or second all-conference team and return the following season since the 1997-98 team featured a returning all-conference performer (Jason Richey) and the first time SDSU has had two returning all-conference performers in the Division I era... Despite the fact that he is just entering his junior season, Heath has already climbed onto many of the SDSU Division I career charts, ranking 4th in three-point field goals attempted (311), 6th in scoring average (16.0), 7th in free throw percentage (77.1), 7th in three-point field goals (96), 11th in steals (104), 12th in field goal attempts (800), 13th in free throws (209), 15th in scoring (945), 19th in free throws attempted (271) and 23rd in assists (160).

QUICK HITS
▶ Second leading returning vote getter from last season's all-Mountain West Conference team behind teammate Marcus Slaughter.
▶ His 945 career points are the most by an Aztec player following their sophomore campaign in school history. He is well ahead of the pace set by SDSU's all-time leading scorer Michael Cage, who had 613 points after his sophomore season and ended his career with 1,846 points.
▶ He is the leading returning scorer and second-leading returner in assists in the conference.
▶ One of five players in the nation and the only sophomore to rank among the top 50 leaders in both scoring and steals.
▶ Joined Anthony Watson as the only other player in school history to lead the team in scoring, assists and steals in the same season.

As A Sophomore (2004-05 Season)

A two-time recipient of the Mountain West Conference Player of the Week Honor and joined Utah's Andrew Bogut as the only multiple winners in 2004-05... Became the fifth player in SDSU history to win conference player of the week honors multiple times in the same season (Michael Cage, Anthony Watson, Randy Holcomb and Aerick Sanders) and the only one to do it as as underclassman... Heath became just the fourth underclassman to win the MWC weekly honor multiple times in the six year history of the league (Josh Davis (Wyoming), Marcus Bailey (Wyoming) and Andrew Bogut (Utah))... One of five players to see action in all 29 games last season and has played in all 59 San Diego State games since arriving on the SDSU campus prior to the 2003-04 season... Started a team-high 28 games... Also led the team in scoring (18.3), assists (107), steals (63), three-point field goals (48), free throw percentage (82.0) and minutes played (997)... First Aztec player since the 1996-97 season (Jason Richey) to lead the team in both scoring and assists and just the fourth SDSU player to accomplish the feat joining Keith Smith (1981-82), Anthony Watson (1985-86) and Richey... Joined Watson as the only SDSU player to lead the team in scoring, assists and steals in the same season... Had more assists in 2004-05 (107) than the next two totals combined (81)... Led the team in scoring a team-high 15 times, in assists a team-high 18 times, and three times in rebounding... Posted a team-high tying 27 double-digit scoring games and posted 12 20+ scoring games... Had seven games with 26 or more points, including a season-high 37 points in SDSU's victory at UNLV (1-15-05)... Coupled with his 30-point performance at Texas Tech the previous season (12-13-03), Heath became just the eighth player in school history to record at least two 30-point games when he scored a Fisher-era best and an SDSU MWC-best 37 points against the Rebels, on 12-of-18 shooting and 12-of-12 from the free throw line... He joined Michael Cage (8), Anthony Watson (7), Kim Goetz (5), Tony Ross (4), Von Jacobsen (3), Carlus Groves (2) and Bob Brady (2) as Aztec players with multiple 30-point scoring games... He became just the fifth player in school history to record a 30-point game in at least two seasons (Cage, Goetz, Jacobsen and Brady)... He is the first Aztec to post two career 30-point efforts in more than a decade (Carlus Groves, 1994)... Showed his explosiveness by scoring 66 points in consecutive games (37 at UNLV (1-15-05) and 29 vs. Wyoming (1-22-05)), the fifth highest total in consecutive games in school history... Recorded a steal in his final 20 games of the season, the longest streak of his career... Connected on 132-of-161 attempts (82.0 percent) from the free throw line and had consecutive made streaks of 21, 15, 13, 11 and 10 during the season... Set a school record and had the best free throw performance in an NCAA game during the season by connecting on all 17 free throw attempts against UNLV (2-12-05)... The 17-for-17 performance was the best single-game free throw shooting performance in the NCAAs during the 2004-05 campaign... Owned five streaks of at least 10 consecutive made free throws during the season and ended the season having gone 38 consecutive attempts without missing two straight free throws... Ended the season by making 58 of his last 68 free-throw attempts (85.3 percent)... Produced seven of the top eight scoring games by an Aztec player during the season... Also responsible for the top five assist games by an Aztec player... Ended the season on fire, posting three consecutive 20-plus scoring games for the first time in his career... In his final three contests - at 16th/15th-ranked Utah, vs. Air Force and vs. MWC tournament champion New Mexico, Heath averaged 24.3 points, 4.3 assists, 3.3 rebounds, 2.8 steals and connected on 25-of-49 (51.0 percent) field goals, 10-of-19 (52.6 percent) three-point field goals and 13-of-15 (86.7 percent) free throws... Earned Mountain West Conference Player of the Week honors after averaging 23.0 points, 6.0 assists, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 steals while connecting on 16-of-25 (64.0 percent) field goals, 7-of-11 (63.6 percent) three-point field goals, 7-of-8 free throws (87.5 percent) in victories over San Diego (12-1-04) and at UC Santa Barbara (12-4-04)... Earned the league honor for the second time after his 37-point performance at UNLV (1-15-05)... His game at UNLV scored a team season-best +33 on the efficiency rating as he had 37 points and five assists on the strength of 12-for-18 shooting from the field, including 1-of-3 from three-point range and 12-of-12 from the free throw line... San Diego State was 6-3 during the season when he reached an efficiency rating of +18 or higher (the Aztecs were 5-15 when he did not).

As A Freshman (2003-04)

MWC Rankings: 6th in steals, 7th in three-point field goals, 9th in scoring
MWC Freshman Rankings: 1st in scoring, 1st in steals, 1st in three-point field goals

An all-conference honorable mention honoree as announced by the league and as voted upon by the coaches and the media... One of only four freshmen among the 29 players that earned recognition by the league, joining teammate Marcus Slaughter, Utah's Andrew Bogut and Colorado State's Dwight Boatner... Enjoyed one of the best freshman campaigns in school history... Ranked among the league leaders in steals (6th), three-point field goals (7th) and in scoring (9th)... Led all league freshmen in all three of those categories... One of five Aztec players to see action in all 30 games and his 26 starts were the fourth highest total on the squad... Led the team in three-point field goals (48) and was second on the squad in scoring (13.8), steals (41), and free throws (77)... Became just the second freshman in San Diego State history to score 400 points in his freshman season (Tony Ross 455 in 1986-87)... His 413 points were the fourth most scored by a freshman under Steve Fisher, surpassed only by Jalen Rose, Chris Webber and Louis Bullock ... Broke the Mountain West Conference record for points scored in a season by a freshman, surpassing the mark of 343 set by Ruben Douglas of New Mexico... Also set league freshman marks for field goals attempted, three-point field goals made, three-point field goals attempted and steals... Although just a freshman, his season numbers rank among the all-time best in the school's Division I era: eighth in three-point field goals attempted (48), 11th in three-point field goals (160), 18th in field goals attempted (368), 29th in scoring (413), 39th in minutes played (897), 41st in scoring average (13.8), 45th in field goals (144), 47th in free throws (77), 48th in free throw percentage (70.0) and 54th in free throws attempted (110)... His freshman numbers rank among the best in school history in nearly every statistical category, including: first in field goal attempted (368), first in free throws (77), second in points (413), second in three-point field goals (48), second in three-point field goals attempted (160), third in minutes played (897), third in scoring average (13.8), third in steals (41), third in free throws attempted (110), fourth in points-rebounds-assists (546), fourth in field goals (144), sixth in free-throw percentage (70.0), sixth in points-rebounds-assists average (18.20), eighth in efficiency points (264), 10th in assists (53), 10th in efficiency average (8.80)... Led the team in scoring nine times and in assists on two occasions... Produced 21 double-digit scoring games, including a team-high tying nine 20-point performances... Produced four of the top six scoring performances by San Diego State players during the season (30 at Texas Tech, 28 vs. Ohio State, 27 at San Diego and 26 at Colorado State)... Had five games with four or more treys, including an SDSU season-best five three-point field goals against Ohio State (11-24-03)... Scored in double figures the first 12 games of his collegiate career and in 18 of his first 19 games... Became only the eighth freshman to earn a start in a season opener under Steve Fisher and started the first 12 games of the season... Started 14 of the final 15 contests of the 2003-04 campaign, with the lone no-start coming when senior Ben Wardrop started on Senior Night against Utah (3-6-04)... Scored 21 and tied a career high with five assists as he played 39 minutes vs. UNLV (1-17-04)... Secured win over Brigham Young (1-12-04) with four points and two steals in the last 1:24... Scored 24 points against Iowa State (1-3-04), including 18 in the second half when he was 6-of-8 from the field, and 4-of-5 from behind the arc... Scored 20 points and posted a career high five assists against Cal Poly (12-18-03), including 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting in the second half... Tallied a career-high 30 points at Texas Tech (12-13-03)... Became just the 26th player in school history to record a 30-point game... Went 10-for-10 from the free-throw line against the Red Raiders... Posted a career high eight rebounds and four assists in victory over UCSD (12-6-03)... Led SDSU with 27 points on 9-of-13 shooting at San Diego (12-3-03), including four-of-five from behind the arc, and scored the last nine points for the Aztecs in the three-point win over the cross-town rival... Scored 28 points vs. Ohio State (11-24-03) as he hit five-of-six from three-point land and 9-of-12 from the charity stripe... Despite being held scoreless in the first 39+ minutes of the Portland (12-31-03) game, he made four crucial free throws in the final 19 seconds to secure the win.

John Sharper
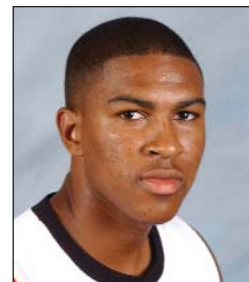

Jersey No. 15
Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Senior
Guard, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-0, Wt.: 195
High School: St. Mary's High (Oakland, Calif.)
Birthdate: April 23, 1984 (San Mateo, Calif.)
SDSU Letters (3): 2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05

The most experienced player on the SDSU roster having logged 86 career games, including 52 straight... One of the most prolific three-point shooters in school history, he ranks 8th in career three-point field goals (87), 11th in three-point field goals attempted (224) and 4th in three-point field goal percentage (38.8)... Originally a walk-on, he has become a regular in the rotation and last season made 20 starts... Always a solid ball-handler (he averages one turnover every 22.4 minutes for his career) and has recorded more three-point field goals than turnovers in each of his first three seasons... Possesses the ability to play either guard position and may be the most solid perimeter defender on the team... Continues to improve his ability to break down defenses and get to the basket... His 86 career Aztec games are 16 more than any other player on the SDSU squad.

QUICK HITS

▶ He is the only player in the three-point field goal era (beginning of the 1986-87 season) to record more three-point field goals than turnovers and more assists than turnovers in three consecutive seasons. Only five other players (David Abramowitz, Tony Gwynn, Tommy Johnson, Deandre Moore and Chad Nelson) have posted more assists than turnovers in three straight seasons and only Tony Ross has posted more three-point field goals than turnovers in three straight seasons.

▶ Owns the second best SDSU career three-point field goal-to-turnover ratio in school history (minimum 80 three-point field goals). The top five: 1. Tony Ross 1.753, 2. John Sharper 1.261, 3. Al Faux 0.876, 4. Jason Richey 0.872, 5. David Abramowitz 0.715.

▶ Has played in 52 consecutive games, the second longest active streak on the team (Heath - 59) and his 86 career games are the most by a current SDSU player.

As A Junior (2004-05 Season)

MWC Rankings: 11th in three-point field goal percentage, 14th in steals, 15th in three-point field goals made

One of five Aztec players to see action in all 29 games last season... Made 20 starts, the fourth highest total on the squad, trailing only Brandon Heath (28), Marcus Slaughter (27) and Mohamed Camara (21)... Led the team in three-point field goal percentage (36.8 percent) and although he did not qualify, would have led the team in free throw percentage at 90.9 percent (20-of-22)... Coupled with his team-high 40.0 percent three-point field goal percentage last season, Sharper joins Tony Ross and Al Faux as the only players in school history to lead the team in that category in consecutive seasons... Logged the third most minutes on the team (behind Heath and Slaughter) and ranked 2nd in assists (38), 2nd in three-point field goals (43), 3rd in steals (33), 4th in scoring (177 points/6.1 ppg) and 4th in rebounding (98 rebounds/3.4 rpg)... His efforts rank on the single-season three-point charts: 13th in percentage (36.8), 14th in makes (43) and 18th in attempts (117)... He now owns two of the top 13 single-season three-point field goal percentage seasons in school history (11th in 2003-04 and 13th in 2004-05)... The only other Aztecs that can make that claim are Tony Ross and Al Faux... Has 24 career multiple-trey games, including 12 during the 2004-05 season... In his career, when Sharper makes two or more treys in a game SDSU is 13-11 and the Aztecs are 5-1 when he makes three three-pointers or more in a game... Since the beginning of the 2002-03 season, SDSU is 12-11 when Sharper connects on at least two three-pointers and 13-23 when he does not reach two treys... Produced five double-digit scoring games during the season after failing to score 10 or more points in his first two seasons... Had no double-digit scoring games in first 60 collegiate games but has reached 10 or more points five times in the last 25 games... Made a three-point field goal in 26 of 29 games and never went consecutive games without a trey... Three-point field goal breakdown by games: 3 - five games, 2 - seven games, 1 -14 games, 0 - three games... Posted 12 games with multiple treys... Opened the season with five consecutive multiple trey games going 13-for-25 (52.0 percent) during the stretch... That streak set a personal best for most consecutive games with multiple treys... Ended the season with a career-high 10 consecutive games with a trey, going 15-for-37 (40.5 percent) during that span... 43 of his 56 field goals and 117 of his 150 attempts came from behind the arc... 73.7 percent of his points came off three-point baskets, the fourth highest percentage in school history among players that tallied at least 100 points in a season, trailing only Steve Sir (2002-03) 83.6 percent, Karlo Kovacic (2000-01) 77.0 and Sharper (2003-04) 75.0 percent... For the third consecutive season he recorded an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1-to-1 or better (38 assists, 38 turnovers)... Posted more three-point field goals than turnovers for the third straight campaign (43 three-pointers, 38 turnovers)... Averaged one turnover every 20.7 minutes, the best mark by an SDSU guard in 2004-05... Had 10 turnover-free games during the season and did not commit a turnover in five of the 10 games he started... Played 103 minutes, covering three entire games and parts of five games, without committing a turnover during conference play (final four minutes vs. Wyoming, 35 minutes vs. Colorado State, 29 minutes at Air Force, 19 minutes at New Mexico and the first 16 minutes vs. Utah)... Of his 38 turnovers, 13 came in three games (five at Washington (12-7-04), four vs. UC Santa Barbara (11-19-04) and four vs. New Mexico (2-26-05))... Take out those three games, and Sharper had 25 miscues in 710 minutes, for one turnover every 28.4 minutes... Started the final three games of the season, four of the final five and 11 of the final 15 games of the campaign... Played 30 or more minutes in a game 13 times during the season... Produced the two highest scoring games of his career in consecutive outings against San Diego (13 points on 12-1-04) and at UC Santa Barbara (15 points on 12-4-04)... Had consecutive double-digit scoring efforts with 10 points vs. Wyoming (1-22-05) and 11 vs. Colorado State (1-24-05)... Connected on 27-of-66 (40.9 percent) of his three-point field goal attempts in home games last season... Important to SDSU's success as demonstrated buy his numbers in SDSU wins vs. losses... In Aztec wins, he averaged 7.6 points, 0.7 turnovers and connected on 19-of-45 (42.2 percent) three-point field goals; in SDSU losses, he averaged 5.1 points, 1.7 turnovers and connected on 24-of-72 (33.3 percent) three-point field goals... The Aztecs were 7-2 during the season when he shot 50 percent or better from the field (4-16 when he did not connect on at least half of his attempts).

As A Sophomore (2003-04 Season)

MWC Rankings: 14th in three-point field goal percentage

Saw action in 29 of 30 games, with his lone did not play coming against UC San Diego (12-6-03)... Ended the 2003-04 campaign having played in 23 consecutive games... Made five starts, including the home finale against Utah (3-6-04)... Averaged 4.1 points, 0.9 rebounds, 0.9 apg, 0.9 spg and 17.9 mpg in his 29 appearances... Most remarkable was what he didn't do - turn the ball over... Despite splitting time between the two guard positions, Sharper had just 19 turnovers in 520 minutes of action for an astounding average of one turnover every 27.4 minutes of action... Connected on 38 treys to post a remarkable 2-to-1 three-point field goal-to-turnover ratio... Also had 26 steals... Had 18 games in which he did not commit a turnover... His three-point field goal percentage of 40.0 was not only tops on the team, but the 11th-best single-season mark in school history and the fourth-best figure in Steve Fisher's five seasons on The Mesa... His 30 treys were the 29th highest single-season total... Went five consecutive games without a turnover from Dec. 31, 2003 to Jan. 17, 2004 (broken Jan. 24, 2004, at Colorado State), covering a span of 114 minutes... Scored eight points vs. Wyoming (2-21-04), his sixth game of the year with at least eight points... Scored eight points in 20 minutes at Brigham Young (2-7-04)... Was a perfect 2-for-2 from the field and scored seven points in a win over New Mexico (2-2-04)... Earned the fifth start of his career against Utah (3-6-04).... Also started against Air Force (1-31-04) and the last three games of the non-conference schedule... Tied a career-high with nine points on 3-of-4 shooting in a career-high 34 minutes in his return home to the Bay Area at Saint Mary's (1-7-04)... Played at least 10 minutes in 27 of his 29 games he played in the '03-'04 season, including 12 games with at least 20 minutes... 75 of his 97 field goal attempts were from three-point range, including 30 of his 38 makes... Made seven of his first nine attempts (77.8 percent) from three-point range... Earned his first career start and played 25 minutes against Portland (12-31-03)... Saw 20 minutes of action at Arizona (12-22-03) where he dished out a career-best four assists... Ended a cold streak from behind the arc (1-for-7) by hitting three-of-four from deep against Cal Poly (12-18-03), to give him a career-high nine points and also tallied three assists... Scored eight points in season opener against Long Beach State (11-21-03) on three of four shooting, including two of three from behind the arc, in 20 minutes off the bench... Tied for team-high honors by topping the hockey plus/minus category in two of the final eight games... Earned a scholarship over the summer after proving his worth during his freshman year in which he was a walk-on... Fractured his third metacarpal in his right hand while playing basketball early in the 2003 summer... Wore a cast and missed more than a month recovering from the injury... Worked on his left-hand ball skills during the recovery process.

As A Freshman (2002-03 Season)

Played in 28-of-30 games for the Aztecs and logged 236 minutes - the ninth-highest total on the team, sixth among non-seniors... Averaged 1.9 points, 0.8 rebounds and 0.6 assists per game... His averages per 40 minutes were 8.8 points, 3.9 rebounds and 2.7 assists... Despite playing a majority of his minutes at the point guard position, he committed a mere 12 turnovers during the 2002-03 campaign (one turnover every 19.7 minutes of action)... Played in 18 games in which he did not turn the ball over and never had more than two miscues in any one game... Played 11 or more minutes nine times during his freshman campaign... Proved to be an excellent long-range shooter, connecting on 14-of-32 three-point field goal attempts (43.8 percent)... That percentage would have led the team and ranked third in the Mountain West Conference had he had enough attempts to qualify... He was the league's top three-point shooting freshman with at least three attempts (former teammate Steve Sir was third in that category)... Sharper's long-range shooting and ability to run the point is best demonstrated by his three-point field goal-to-turnover ratio of 1.17-to-1... 32 of his 38 field goal attempts during the season came from three-point range, connecting on 16 total - including 14 three-pointers... Made a three in 11 of his final 21 games and made at least one trey in 13 games during his freshman season... Had three points, one rebound, one assist and no turnovers in seven minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (3-19-03)... Scored five points in 13 minutes against UNLV (2-11-03)... Played 13 or more minutes in four straight games from Jan. 25-Feb. 11... Played a career-high 20 minutes vs. Colorado State (2-1-03) where he had four points, three rebounds, one assist and no turnovers... Followed that up with 15 minutes, his second highest playing total, against Wyoming (2-3-03)... Played 16 minutes against Loyola Marymount (1-3-03) and 14 minutes of action at New Mexico (1-25-03)... Had three points, two rebounds, one assist and no turnovers in 14 minutes against the Lobos... Made a three in his only attempt from the field in seven minutes against Utah (1-18-03)... Scored a point and added an assist with no turnovers in 13 minutes against San Diego (1-8-03)... He scored three points, added three rebounds, two assists and did not commit a turnover against the Lions... Had three points, two rebounds and one assist in 11 minutes against IPFW (12-30-02)... Connected on 2-of-4 attempts from three-point range in eight minutes of action against Florida Atlantic (12-28-02)... Contributed a three-pointer - his first career points - to SDSU's school-record barrage of 16 treys against UCSD (12-2-02).

High School

A graduate of St. Mary's High in Berkeley, Calif., Sharper excelled on and off the court... An honors student all four years in high school, he helped lead the Panthers basketball squad to a 59-8 record his final two seasons... A nominee for California Mr. Basketball, Sharper earned third-team all-state accolades from CalHiSports.com... Participated in the 2002 Fullcourt Press All-West Camp... One of 10 prep players to earn a position on the Cal-HiSports.com's Division IV all-state team... Also earned all-metro and all-league distinction... In addition to averaging 21.2 points as a senior, he also averaged six assists per game and connected on 85 percent of his free-throw attempts... Team claimed the California high school Division IV championship his junior season... Played for Jose Caraballo in high school.

Jersey No. 42
Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Junior
Forward, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-8, Wt.: 223
High School: J.W. North High (Riverside, Calif.)
Birthdate: March 18, 1985 (San Leandro, Calif.)
SDSU Letters (2): 2003-04, 2004-05
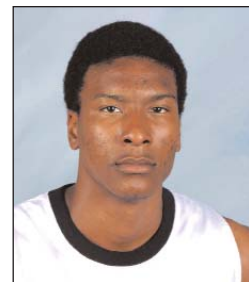

Will likely battle teammate Brandon Heath for preseason player of the year in the Mountain West Conference next season and warrants consideration for national accolades... Enjoyed a tremendous sophomore season to make himself one of the premier players, not only in the Mountain West Conference, but on the entire West Coast... A special player who exploded last season after a solid freshman campaign... Can play at both forward positions... Probably the most improved player in the conference last season, he showed amazing consistency to perform at a high level throughout the campaign... Could be the toughest match-up on the team as he is too quick for most big forwards and too strong for smaller forwards... Is as good as any player in the league at scoring off the offensive glass... Will contend for the title of best rebounder in the league... Joins teammate Brandon Heath as the first Aztec players to be named to either the first or second all-conference team and return the following season since the 1997-98 team featured a returning all-conference performer and the first time SDSU has had two returning all-conference performers in the Division I era.

QUICK HITS

▶ The top returning vote getter from last season's all-Mountain West Conference team.
▶ Last season he became the third player in SDSU's Division I era (joining Michael Cage and Aerick Sanders) and the first non-senior to record at least 475 points, 200 rebounds, 30 steals and 30 blocked shots in the same season.
▶ Increased his scoring average from his freshman to sophomore seasons by 9.9 points per game. The second biggest single-season increase in SDSU Division I era history.
▶ Enters his junior campaign having started the last 44 games in which he has played and has scored in double figures in 27 consecutive games. The 27-game double-digit scoring streak is the longest during the Steve Fisher SDSU era.
▶ His 717 points are the third most by an Aztec player after his sophomore season in the Division I era, trailing only Brandon Heath (945) and Tony Ross (916). He is ahead of the pace set by SDSU's all-time leading scorer Michael Cage, who had 613 points after his sophomore season and ended his career with 1,846 points.

As A Sophomore (2004-05 Season)

NCAA Rankings: 34th in rebounding, 6th leading sophomore rebounder
MWC Rankings: 2nd in rebounding, 2nd in offensive rebounding, 4th in defensive rebounding, 5th in scoring, 6th in steals, 8th in blocked shots

   A second-team all-Mountain West Conference selection as announced by the league and as voted upon by the coaches and the media... Was the top vote-getter among the second team members and the top vote-getter among players returning in 2005-06 (of the five people in front of him, four were seniors and the other was the top pick in the NBA Draft, Andrew Bogut of Utah)... Named to the 2005 MWC all-tournament team after averaging 23.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and connecting on 59.3 percent from the field during the conference tournament... Was the only player on the five-member team to not play in the championship game... Finished the season ranked 34th nationally in rebounds at 9.0 and was sixth nationally among the sophomore class (trailing only Bogut (Utah), Paul Milsap (Louisiana Tech), Nick Fazekas (Nevada), Caleb Green (Oral Roberts) and Brandon Bass (LSU))... Ranked among the Mountain West Conference leaders in six categories: rebounding (2nd), offensive rebounding (2nd), defensive rebounding (4th), scoring (5th), steals (6th) and blocked shots (8th)... Produced one of the greatest seasons by an Aztec sophomore in school history... Made an appearance on nearly every SDSU Division I single-season list including 4th in free throws (141), 5th in free throws attempted (202), 7th in points-rebounds-assists per game (28.03), 8th in points per game (17.8), 10th in efficiency point average (18.22), 12th in efficiency points (492), 12th in points-rebounds-assists (757), 13th in rebounds per game (9.0), 16th in scoring (480), 17th in rebounding (242) and 23rd in field goals (165)... His single-season rank among sophomores in the Aztecs' Division I era: 1st in efficiency points, 1st in efficiency point average, 1st in points-rebounds-assists, 1st in points-rebounds-assists average, 1st in free throws made, 1st in free throws attempted, 2nd in scoring, 2nd in points per game, 2nd in rebounds per game, 3rd in rebounds, 3rd in field goals... Became the third player in school history and the first non-senior to record at least 475 points, 200 rebounds, 30 steals and 30 blocked shots in a single season, joining Michael Cage (1983-84) and Aerick Sanders (2003-04)... Played in 27 of SDSU's 29 games, missing the final two regular season games (Feb. 28 vs. Air Force and March 5 at Utah) due to a sprained big toe on his right foot he suffered during the Feb. 26 game vs. New Mexico... Started all 27 games in which he played and ended the season having started the last 44 games in which he has played... Led the team in rebounding (9.0) and blocked shots (30) and was second on the squad in scoring (17.8), minutes played (34.1) and steals (37)... Had more rebounds (242) than the total of the second and third leading rebounders on the squad combined (211)... The model of consistency, he scored in double figures in all 27 games he played in (never scored in double figures in three straight games prior to the season) and 34 in his career... His splits show his ability to produce no matter what the situation as Slaughter averaged 17.8 points in wins, 17.8 points in losses, 17.8 points in home games and 17.8 points in road/neutral games... Tied the school's sophomore class record by posting 10 double-doubles, matching Michael Cage and Eddy Gordon... That number places him in a tie for seventh on the single-season double-doubles chart in school history... Led the Aztecs in scoring 12 times, after doing so just once as a freshman... Also posted team-high honors in rebounding a team-best 21 times and twice in assists... Produced a team-high tying 27 double-figure scoring games and had eight 20-point performances... Had 10 double-figure rebound games... Connected on 49.8 percent of his two-point field goal attempts on the season (156-of-313)... Scored 15 or more points in 22 of the 27 games in which he played... Led the team in efficiency points (492)... Produced one of the most impressive hockey plus/minus ratings on the team... In the 922 minutes he was on the court, SDSU was outscored by eight points, while in the 258 minutes he was on the bench the Aztecs were outscored by 65 points... The trend held true during MWC games as well as SDSU was outscored by 25 points in the 401 minutes he was in the game and the Aztecs were outscored by 66 points in the 174 minutes he was off the court... Had a personal hockey plus/minus record of 16-10-1 (61.1 percent) (meaning SDSU outscored its opponent when Slaughter was on the court 16 times and was outscored 10 times with one draw) was the highest among SDSU regulars... By contrast, SDSU was 11-16 in those games, with Slaughter owning a record five and one-half games better than the team... Pulled down 95 rebounds in his last 10 games (9.5 rpg)... Shot 14 free throws in a game four times in 2004-05 and has attempted at least 10 on eight different occasions... Nearly tripled his freshman season free throw attempt total of 76 after he attempted 202... Surpassed the 500 career-points mark in his 45th career game with his 17 points in the Jan. 15th win at UNLV... Had a streak of at least one three-point field goal in five straight games in which he went 7-for-16 (.438) after making only eight during his entire freshman year... Performed exceptionally well down the stretch in close games as he was 14-of-26 (53.8 percent) from the field and 20-of-22 (90.9 percent) from the free throw line and pulled down an amazing 36.8 percent of SDSU's rebounds in the final five minutes of the 15 games that were a one possession contest with five minutes or less remaining... San Diego State was 5-3 when he recorded an efficiency rating of +20 or better (Aztecs were 6-15 in other games)... In the season opener against UC Santa Barbara (11-19-04), scored a career-high 28 points on 8-of-16 shooting, including 12-of-14 from the charity stripe, pulled down 13 rebounds and recorded four steals in a career-high 41 minutes played... At No. 16 Washington (12-7-04), went for 21 points on 8-for-13 (.615) shooting and grabbed seven rebounds... After scoring 15 points and collecting 13 rebounds against Cal State Fullerton (12-21-04), the sophomore followed it up with a 15 point, 12 rebound performance at Iowa State (12-28-04)... Helped the team win at UNLV (1-15-05) with his 17 points and 12 rebounds in 36 minutes... Tied a career-high when he gathered 15 rebounds at Air Force on Jan. 29... Against UNLV at home (2-12-05), scored 25 points on 9-of-10 shooting from the free-throw line and tallied 10 rebounds... After spraining his right big toe vs. New Mexico (2-26-05) and missing the next two games, he returned to lead the team to a quarterfinal win over Air Force at the MWC Championships... In the postseason game against the Falcons (3-10-05), he scored 24 points on 9-of-14 (.643) shooting, grabbed nine rebounds and added a two steals and a block to help the team advance to the semifinals... In the next round against New Mexico (3-11-05), he put up 23 points (7-of-13 shooting) and gathered nine boards in just 29 minutes; he was also 9-for-11 from the free-throw line and made three steals in SDSU's final game of the season.

An all-conference honorable mention honoree as announced by the league and as voted upon by the coaches and the media... One of only four freshmen among the 29 players that earned recognition by the league, joining teammate Brandon Heath, Utah's Andrew Bogut and Colorado State's Dwight Boatner... Ranked among the league leaders in five categories, offensive rebounding (5th), rebounding (6th), defensive rebounding (8th), steals (13th) and blocked shots (15th)... Was second among all league freshmen in all five of the aforementioned categories... His 204 rebounds were the third-highest total by a Steve Fisher freshman, trailing only eventual consensus All-American Chris Webber and all-Big Ten Conference first-team member Juwan Howard (both players were eventual NBA Draft lottery selections)... His efficiency rating per game, the formula utilized by the NBA to determine overall performance, was the fourth-highest by a freshman in SDSU history since the statistic was tracked beginning in 1978-79, trailing only Michael Cage, Eddy Gordon and Presnell Gilbert and was the third-highest by a Steve Fisher coached freshman trailing only Chris Webber and Jalen Rose... One of five players to see action in all 30 games and his 18 starts were the fifth-highest total on the squad... Ended the season starting the final 17 games of the season (will enter the 2004-05 season tied with Chris Walton for the longest active streak)... Led the team in scoring once (19 vs. Long Beach State (11-21-03) in the season opener) and rebounding 10 times, which was second on the squad behind Aerick Sanders... Had eight double-digit scoring games, four double-figure rebound games and two double-doubles... His rebound numbers were among the best in school history with his 204 boards the 33rd-highest single-season total and his average of 6.8 rebounds the 38th best single-season total in the Division I era... Both numbers were third all-time among SDSU freshmen, trailing only Michael Cage (355 rebounds, 13.1 rpg) and Eddy Gordon (239, 8.9)... Bucked the freshman trend as his numbers improved as the season progressed... Averaged 8.7 points, 7.9 rebounds, 1.4 steals and connected on 48.5 percent of his field goal attempts in 14 conference games... All of those numbers were improvements over his season average... Point and rebound averages per month: November: 7.0 ppg, 4.8 rpg, 43.5 FG pct.; December: 7.4 ppg, 7.0 rpg, 47.6 FG pct.; January 7.6 ppg, 5.3 rpg, 42.9 FG pct.; February: 9.6 ppg, team-high 9.6 rpg, 46.0 percent; March: 7.7 ppg, 6.7 rpg, 71.4 FG pct... His February and March averages, spanning the final 10 games of the season, were 9.0 ppg, team-best 8.7 rpg, and team-best 50.6 FG pct... Season averages per 40 minutes 12.6 points, 10.8 rebounds and 1.8 steals... Made 55-of-76 from the free throw line, a 72.4 percentage... Posted second career double-double with 17 points and 11 rebounds in a career-high 37 minutes of action against Colorado State (2-23-04)... His 17 points are the second-highest total of the year, behind only 19 points in the first game of his career, and his eight field goals also set a new career mark... Recorded his first career double-double at UNLV (2-17-04) with a career-high 15 rebounds and 13 points in 36 minutes of action... Pulled down six or more rebounds in 12 straight games and 13 of his final 14 contests of the season... Had eight double-digit scoring efforts in 2003-04, including six in his last 14 games... Matt Thomas

Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Sophomore
Guard, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-3, Wt.: 191
High School: Martin Luther King High (Riverside, Calif.)
Birthdate: January 7, 1986 (San Diego, Calif.)
SDSU Letters (1): 2004-05

Exploded onto the scene as a freshman as one of the top-newcomers in the league, he was the only scholarship freshman to see playing time last season... Role dramatically increased and was thrust into instant playing time following the departure of Wesley Stokes... Performed admirably and adopted to the college game quickly... Became a legitimate scoring threat, finishing fourth on the team in scoring and third on the squad in points in league action... Phenomenally quick off the dribble and can break down the defense... Needs to develop an outside game to keep defenders honest... Looking to improve defensively, particularly off-the-ball.

QUICK HITS
▶ Only freshman in the school's Division I era to record at least 40 assists, 90 rebounds and 30 steals.
▶ Started the final eight games of the season, second longest active streak on the team behind Brandon Heath.
▶ In the final two months of the season, covering the last 10 games, he was the third on the team in scoring, second in rebounding and third in assists on the squad.

As A Freshman (2004-05 Season)
MWC Rankings: 15th in steals

An honorable mention all-Mountain West Conference performer as announced by the league and as voted upon by the coaches and the media... Of the 29 players recognized by the league, he joined Colorado State's Jason Smith as the only freshman to earn all-conference recognition... One of only two nominated players for MWC freshman of the year honors... Became the fourth Aztec freshman to earn a position on the honorable mention all-conference team in the last three years, following Evan Burns (2003), Brandon Heath (2004) and Marcus Slaughter (2004)... One of five Aztec players to see action in all 29 games last season and his 11 starts were the sixth highest total on the squad... Both numbers were also team highs among the freshman class... Despite being a true freshman, he ranked among the team leaders in nearly all the major categories, including 2nd in assists (43), 4th in scoring (6.1), 4th in rebounding (3.4), 4th in steals (32), 4th in efficiency points (173) and 4th in minutes played (659)... Bucked the freshman trend and actually produced bigger numbers as the season progressed... Numbers by month: November: 5.7 ppg, 3.3 rpg, 3.0 apg; December: 5.8 ppg, 2.7 rpg, 1.1 apg; January: 3.6 ppg, 1.3 rpg, 0.9 apg; February/March: 8.3 ppg, 5.5 rpg, 1.8 apg... In the final two months of the season, covering the final 10 games, he was third on the team in scoring, second in rebounding and third in assists on the squad... Ranked among the league leaders of the freshman class in nearly every category including 1st in free throws, 1st in free throws attempted, 1st in steals, 2nd in rebounding, 3rd in scoring, 3rd in assists and 5th in blocked shots... Among SDSU's Division I era freshmen, Thomas also proved impressive, ranking 4th in free throws made, 5th in free throws attempted, tied for 8th in steals, 13th in rebounds, 13th in minutes played, 17th in points and tied for 21st in games started... Started the final eight games of the season, the second longest active streak on the squad behind Brandon Heath's 19-game streak... Had a string of 10 consecutive free throws made broken against Saint Mary's (12-14-04) but made 62-of-86 (72.1 percent) after making just 3-of-9 to open the season... Made 17 of this last 22 (77.2 percent) free-throw attempts of the season... His 43 assists were the second most on the team, despite averaging 22.7 minutes per game, the fifth highest total on the squad... With 43 assists and 37 turnovers he joined Brandon Heath and Tyler Smith as the only Aztec players with more assists than turnovers... Tied a then career-best with 14 points at New Mexico (1-31-05)... Had a string of at least one assist in seven games broken against Saint Mary's (12-14-04)... Recorded a rebound in 25-of-29 games, including the final 14 games of the season... Had just 17 turnovers in his last 393 minutes of play (one turnover every 23.1 minutes)... Has just six multiple turnover games in the final 22 outings of the season... Produced 10 turnover-free games, including four times when he played at least 30 minutes... Had at least three rebounds in 10 of the final 11 games of the season... Posted five games with at least three steals this season... Scored in double-figures seven times, including three times in his last six games of the 2004-05 season... Set a career high with 20 points against Air Force (2-28-05)... Also set career highs in free-throws (12) and free-throw attempts (13)... Had 14 points and 10 rebounds against UNLV (2-12-05) for his first double-double of his career... That was the only double-double recorded by a player other than Marcus Slaughter during the season... Also set career highs in the UNLV game in rebounds (10), minutes (40) and tied his then career high in points (14)... Also had four assists and his third block of the season against UNLV... Recorded consecutive double-figure scoring games for the first time in his career with 20 points vs. Air Force (2-28-05) and 14 points at Utah (3-5-05) to close out the regular season... Nearly had another double-double two games later at Wyoming (2-21-05) when he scored 11 points and grabbed nine rebounds... Also had a career-high four steals... Had 14 points and tied his career-high of four steals at Utah (3-5-05)... Made his first career start and played a then career-high 32 minutes against Saint Mary's (12-14-04).

High School
Attended Martin Luther King High in Riverside, Calif... A two-time All-Southern Section selection, Thomas helped lead the Wolves to a 99-21 record in his four seasons, including the 2002 Divison II California state championship and a number 13 national ranking, according to USA Today... Averaged 16.2 points, 9.5 rebounds, six assists and five steals during his senior campaign... In 2003-04, King High went 26-5, while Thomas recorded 31 double-doubles and eight triple-doubles.

Tyler Smith

Jersey No. 11
Athletic Eligibility Entering 2005-06 Season: Sophomore
Guard, San Diego State, Ht.: 6-2, Wt.: 208
High School: San Margarita Catholic High (San Clemente, Calif.)
Birthdate: June 10, 1985 (Huntington Beach, Calif.)
SDSU Letters (1): 2004-05

A pleasant surprise for San Diego State in 2004-05... Made major contributions as a true freshman walk-on last season... An excellent long range shooter with a pass-first mentality, Smith plays like an upperclassman... An excellent decision maker that will continue to develop his game this season... Remarkably consistent for an underclassman.

QUICK HITS

▸ Joined Brandon Heath and Matt Thomas as the only players on last season's team to record more assists than turnovers.
▸ Connected on 17-of-35 (48.6) percent from three-point range which would have placed him second on the SDSU charts had the minimum 20 three-point field goals been met.
▸ Had a personal hockey plus/minus of 14-13-1, second best on the team

As A Freshman (2004-05 Season)

Played in 28 games and made eight starts as a true freshman... Ranked sixth on the team in game played, seventh in games started and ninth in minutes played (415/14.8 mpg)... One of three players on the squad to record more assists (33) than turnovers (21), joining sophomore Brandon Heath and freshman Matt Thomas... Had 12 more assists than turnovers, the best figure on the team... Connected on 17-of-35 (48.6 percent) three-point field goal attempts, which would have ranked as the second highest single-season percentage in school history had the mimimum of 20 three-point field goals been reached... 17 of his 19 field goals and 35 of his 48 attempts came from beyond the arc... Showed tremendous poise for a freshman, averaging just one turnover every 19.8 minutes... That number improved as the season went on, committing just two turnovers in final seven games which covered a span of 86 minutes... Had 14 turnover free games and did not commit more than one turnover in a contest in his final 17 games of the season... Recorded one of the best hockey plus/minus figures on the team... In the 415 minutes he was on the court, SDSU outscored its opponents by 16 points, while in the 765 minutes he was off the court the Aztecs were outscored by 89 points... His personal hockey plus/minus record of 14-13-1 (51.8 percent) (meaning SDSU outscored its opponents when Smith was on the court 14 times and was outscored 13 times with one draw) was second on the team behind Marcus Slaughter... By contrast, SDSU was 11-17 in those games, with Smith owning a record three and one-half game better than that of the team... Logged 20 games with at least 10 minutes of playing time... Scored a career-high 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the field, including 3-of-4 from three-point range, in 25 minutes of action against Brigham Young (2-7-05)... Collected career highs in rebounds (eight) and minutes (38) in SDSU's win over Cal State Fullerton (12-21-04)... Handed out four assists, picked up two rebounds and hit his first career three-pointer in just 18 minutes of action against UC San Diego (11-27-04)... Scored his first points as an Aztec in the win over Monmouth (11-22-04)... Had at least one assist in 17 of the 28 games he has played in this season... SDSU typically had good results when Smith played well... SDSU was 7-4 when he scored, 4-0 when he recorded three or more assists, 6-5 when he had more assists than turnovers and 4-3 when he played at least 20 minutes.

High School

Prepped at Santa Margarita Catholic High in Santa Margarita, Calif... Enjoyed a stellar prep career which included a sensational senior campaign... Averaged 15.7 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.4 assists in leading his prep team to a 29-4 record... Named CIF Division III-AA Player of the Year, Orange County Player of the Year and third-team all-state... Was co-most valuable player of the Serra League... As a junior he earned all-CIF, all-conference and team most valuable player accolades... Same high school that produced San Diego State quarterback Matt Dlugolecki.

Personal

Full name is Tyler John Smith... Born June 10, 1985, in Huntington Beach, Calif... Son of Suzanne and Steve Smith... Has three brothers... Older brother Chris attended San Diego State... Brother Travis played basketball at San Diego... A business administration major.

2004-05 Game-By-Game Leaders Misc. Stats

Below is a look at the efficiency leader (the formula is efficiency = (PTS + REB + AST + STL + BLK) - ((FGA - FGM) + (FTA - FTM) + TO)), the hockey +/- leader (differential in score while player is on the court) (minimum 10 minutes played), the PRA leader (points+rebounds+assists) and playing time leader for individual games.
