Staying with the top dogs. Never out of a game. Those were the themes of the 2004 San Diego State softball team as it compiled an impressive 37-23 record (.617 winning percentage) and 14-6 mark in Mountain West Conference play (.700). The Aztecs played 12 games against teams that finished the 2004 season ranked in the top 25 of both national polls and, bolstered by the strength of their three-pronged pitching staff, stayed in almost every game throughout the season.

The Aztecs recorded the fourth-highest winning percentage in school history and are on a four-year run of finishing with a .600 or higher winning percentage. The three seniors, second baseman Joann Figueroa, center fielder Janna Kovensky and third baseman Kelcy Murphy, helped lead SDSU to its four best records in school history and are by far the winningest class in school history, compiling a 158-91-1 mark (.634).

To begin the 2004 campaign, the Aztecs followed up a pair of road wins against Point Loma Nazarene with a trip to the very competitive Long Beach State Tournament to face No. 4/5 and eventual national champion UCLA, No. 8/7 Washington (twice), No. 19/18 Long Beach State and Santa Clara, which would end up winning the Pacific Coast Softball League championship.

After a loss to Washington, SDSU bounced back with a 4-1 victory over Santa Clara and 4-1 loss to Long Beach State before finishing the tourney with a pair of intense, hard-fought games against UCLA and Washington.

The Aztec Invitational followed, and SDSU played its first home games of the season, topping Mississippi State and Oklahoma State twice each and falling to UC Santa Barbara, 1-0. The 4-1 mark that weekend won the tournament title for the Aztecs.

San Diego State next played host to the prestigious Campbell/Cartier Classic in Poway, Calif., defeating Iowa State and Hawai'i, while falling to Washington and Auburn. The Aztecs hit five doubles against Hawai'i to break the previous school record of four.

A road trip followed as the Aztecs went 2-3 at San Diego, Cal Poly and UC Santa Barbara, before the Aztecs returned home to play host to the SDSU Tournament and a rematch with UCLA.

The Aztecs went 3-1 in the tournament with the only setback an epic contest against the top-ranked Bruins in which San Diego State stood tooth-and-nail with the national champions, finally succumbing in 10 innings, 1-0. Aztec hurler Deanna Richards tossed a magnificent game, allowing only an unearned run against the Bruin offense. The 701 Aztec fans encompassed the largest crowd in school history.

A tight 3-2 loss to Florida set up a trip to the Clovis Auto Row Softball Classic, at No. 15/17 Fresno State. The Aztecs then proceeded to earn what would be SDSU's biggest win of the season, topping the host Bulldogs and their first team All-American pitcher, Jamie Southern, by a 1-0 tally. Cori Janelli tossed a complete-game shutout for the Aztecs, who finished the classic with a win over North Texas and three tight losses to nationally-ranked opponents Oregon State, UCLA and Long Beach State.

The Aztecs fell at home to Oklahoma, 4-1, before rolling through the San Diego Classic, easily topping Southern Utah, Indiana, Dartmouth, Buffalo and UC Riverside to earn their second tournament title of the season.

Head coach Kathy Van Wyk tallied the 254th win of her career, surpassing all previous Aztec coaches, with the win against Buffalo. In the same game, SDSU stole eight bases, setting a new SDSU and Mountain West Conference record.

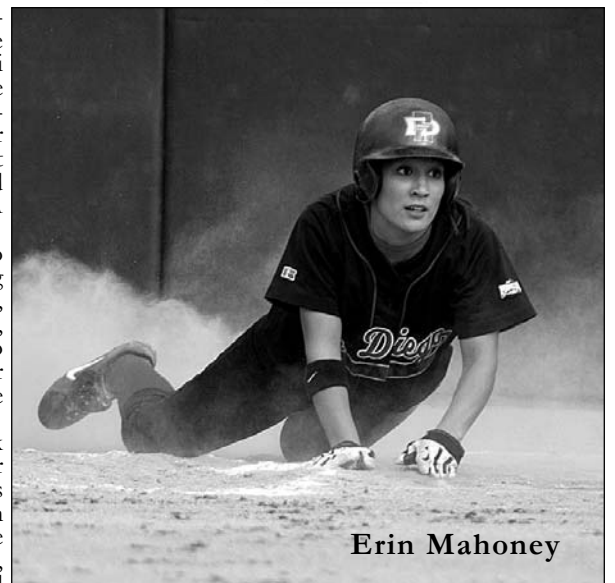

A pair of road splits in a couple of challenging places, BYU and Utah, got the Aztecs off to a 2-2 Mountain West Conference start. Both of the contests versus the Utes went extra frames as the hosts claimed game one in 11 innings, 4-3, before the Aztecs rebounded in game two in eight innings, 4-3.

A pair of clutch home wins over MWC champs Colorado State followed. Game one saw SDSU go to extra innings for the third consecutive contest and claim a 2-1 win, while the Aztecs completed the sweep in game two with a 3-2 regulation win. A doubleheader sweep of New Mexico followed two days later.

The Aztecs kept their red-hot home streak alive with another doubleheader sweep the following weekend, this time over UNLV, to move to 8-2 in conference play. The wins extended SDSU's home MWC winning streak to 15 games dating to the 2003 MWC home opener.

San Diego State then hit the road, once again sweeping New Mexico A showdown with Colorado State awaited two days later. The Rams rebounded from a 2-1 Aztec victory in game one to claim an intensely contested game two by an identical 2-1 count.

Following a road sweep of UNLV and a non-conference victory over Louisiana Tech, the Aztecs moved into the final weekend of the regular season with a 13-3 MWC record, one game ahead of CSU's 12-4 mark. The Aztecs' third consecutive MWC regular season championship was not to be, as a loss to Utah in game one of a doubleheader, 2-1, snapped the squad's 15-game home MWC winning streak, although SDSU did bounce back for a 2-0 game-two victory. Unfortunately for San Diego State, on the following day, BYU swept the final two games of the 2004 season, dropping SDSU into second place heading into the MWC tournament, at Colorado State.

The tournament to determine the MWC's automatic representative at the NAAs, began late due to a snow and rainfall and was subsequently changed to a single-elimination format throughout to ensure that the tournament could be completed.

The Aztecs benefited from the format change by needing only one victory to reach the championship game. In the semifinal versus New Mexico, catcher Danielle Touhey homered in the third and SDSU manufactured a run in the sixth inning to pull out the game, 2-1.

The Aztecs fell in the championship to Utah, 3-0, with a run in the first and a two-run homer in the top of the seventh.

Celena Velasquez earned MWC pitcher-of-the-year honors for the second straight season, while shortstop Meagan Hartung, Kovensky and Murphy were also named to the all-MWC squad. Velasquez led the league with a 0.85 ERA in MWC games, while compiling a 1.39 ERA in all contests and saving five games, tied for 15th-most among NCAA Division I players. Janelli led the Aztecs in overall ERA at 1.31, while Richards completed the nationally-ranked staff with a 1.67 ERA, third lowest in the MWC. The three combined for a 1.45 ERA, which ranked San Diego State 23rd nationally.

Offensively, Hartung and Kovensky had almost identical seasons with Hartung batting .364 (64-for-176) with a .477 slugging percentage, while Kovensky hit at a .363 clip (62-for-171) to go with a .474 slugging percentage. The two finished third and fourth in the MWC in batting average, while Hartung led the MWC with 28 walks and Kovensky's 17 steals (in 17 attempts) paced the rest of the conference. Murphy led the Aztecs in RBI with 35 and hit .317. Erin Mahoney and right fielder Bree Boyer each compiled 16 sacrifice hits to tie for the conference lead in that category.
