The 2018-19 Season Outlook

Fresh Faces, Same Goals

By Mick McGrane

The play is referred to as "home run," affording the player catching the inbounds pass to shoot or attempt to locate an open teammate streaking to the corner.

In this instance, with 1.1 seconds left in a first-round NCAA tournament game last March in Wichita, Kan., it was left to Trey Kell to deliver the home run.

If it seemed impossible, it was merely an extension of the improbable, of a season that saw San Diego State's men's basketball team endure more than its share of turbulence before clawing its way out of a cavern of adversity.

Kell's shot missed the mark in a 67-65 loss to Houston, but it did little to mar a near-miracle finish for a team that, on Feb. 10, following an 83-58 loss to Nevada, was 13-10 overall and eighth in the Mountain West with a record of 5-7.

"It's always bitterly disappointing when a season ends, especially when you feel like you have good basketball left in you," Aztecs head coach Brian Dutcher would say after the team's seventh appearance in the NCAA tournament in nine seasons. "We had a March-type shot to win the game and it didn't go in. We're going home. And we're disappointed over that."

Six months later, the disappointment yet to dissipate, work has begun anew. After capturing its league-best 11th Mountain West tournament title and finishing 22-11, SDSU is ostensibly a fountain of youth, with three sophomores and five freshmen likely to occupy the top 11 roster spots.

Fresh faces abound, both on the court and inside the Aztec basketball office, where two new assistant coaches, Rod Palmer and Jay Morris, have taken up residence.

Yet before leaping to the conclusion that inexperience and the rarity of staff changes at SDSU might prove problematic, consider:

While players like Kell and Malik Pope are now gone, four of the team's top six scorers return. The entire roster committed to stay for summer workouts, which will help in the long run as the team takes advantage of a new NCAA rule that allows programs to begin practicing six weeks before their first game.

And for a team as young as this one, practice clearly is pivotal.

"It wasn't long ago that you weren't able to get your team organized and get them on the floor until October 15," Dutcher said. "That was the date for your first practice, then you turn around and your first game is in November. Now you get four hours a week during the summer session, four hours a week on the floor leading up to your first official practice. It's time you can spend teaching them what they need to know. It allows them to be a little bit ahead of the learning curve as far as what your expectations are for them defensively and what your rotations are. It's time on the floor that you never got in the past. They're at least getting some coaching as they get ready for official practices to start.

"It's also a period that helps a lot in terms of team building. They're able to get a feel for each other. And even though you're not on the floor all of the time, they're playing together and gaining a level of trust with each other. We've got a great group of kids. Obviously, the frustration never sets in until the minutes are divided up, but right now they're all enthusiastic and they all believe that their roles are going to be significant and be important to our success. How the minutes are divided is on them. That's going to be dependent on how well they perform."

It will also be dependent — and crucial — on the senior leadership of guards Devin Watson and Jeremy Hemsley. Watson, a fifth-year senior, started every game last season, averaging 12.2 points and distributing a team-high 124 assists. He also tied for the team lead in three-pointers made (49) and three-point field goal percentage (.389).

"Devin is a very dynamic scorer," Dutcher said. "He scores the ball from anywhere. He can shoot it, he can drive it, he's good off of ball screens and he's often sacrificed points for wins. He's a guy who could score 16-18 points a game, but if you look at our scoring last year, we had five starters average double figures. We were pretty well-balanced. Were there games where Devin could've put up 24 or 25 points? Sure, but I was big into sharing the ball. Everyone was capable of scoring, but I wanted to make sure we moved the ball and made the right play.

"I don't think Devin felt pressure to score a lot, but if he needs to, he's capable of putting up bigger numbers this year."

As is Hemsley. With Watson entering the lineup after sitting out the 2016-17 season per NCAA transfer rules, and Kell occupying the opposite guard spot, Hemsley largely assumed a reserve role. After starting 31 games in 2016-17, he started seven last season. Nonetheless, he appeared in 32 games and finished in double figures 10 times, with the Aztecs winning nine of the 10 games. In his last 15 games, he made 41-of-86 shots from the field (47.7 percent) and finished the season with a career-best assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.22.

"Jeremy was a two-year starter, then he didn't start last year except for games where Trey was hurt," Dutcher said. "But his role changed a lot. It's tough coming off the bench when you're used to starting. He did a great job adjusting to that. I think with the summer that he's had and the work he's put in that he could find himself back in the starting lineup as a veteran player. He's been through all of the experiences, the highs and the lows of college basketball. I think he's learned from all of it and that he'll be a much better player because of it.

"I just really like the fact that we've got two senior guards. Both Devin and Jeremy have played the point and both have great experience, so going into

Devin Watson played in all 33 games in his first season at SDSU and enters his senior season as the team's top returner in scoring (12.2) and assists (3.8).

Season Outlook

the year with veteran guards is always a great relief."

Particularly when you have five freshmen on a team where NCAA tournament expectations climb ever higher. Five freshmen on a team that less than two weeks into the season will be playing five-time national champion Duke in the Maui Invitational. Five freshmen on a team discovering that while your offensive numbers may have been spectacular in high school, you either play defense at SDSU or you don't play.

"They all have length and athleticism," Dutcher said. "This may be the longest freshman class we've ever had. But now we've got to make them players. The learning curve is different for every one of them. Their readiness is different. As they continue to play, we'll find out who's on a faster track. They're all going to be good players, it's just a matter of who's ready earlier to claim some of those minutes."

A year ago, two freshmen — Jalen McDaniels and Matt Mitchell — not only claimed minutes, they staked claims to being two of the top talents in the program.

When the season concluded following the loss to Houston, a game in which the multi-talented 6-10 McDaniels led the Aztecs with 18 points, he announced he would test the waters of the NBA Draft. One of only four freshmen in the country to average 10.5 points, 7.5 rebounds and shoot 58 percent or better from the field, McDaniels had SDSU fans wringing their hands with anxiety as he showcased his talents for NBA teams. Less than two hours remained for underclassmen to officially declare for the draft when McDaniels withdrew his name.

He returns having played in all 33 games last season and starting 21 of the last 22 (he did not start on Senior Night).

"I just felt like Jalen wanted to go out and see if he could become a first-round draft pick," Dutcher said. "And if he had been, then I would've been happy to be able to go into homes (of recruits) and say, 'We've got another first-round draft pick.' If he didn't, then I knew he'd be a better player for us this year because of what he did.

"When he came back, he did a lot of things on the floor that I knew he could do, but he hadn't done them for us on the floor yet. Jalen is a much better shooter than people realize. But he just didn't have the confidence to let it go last season, to take the shot. I think he's going to show people that he's a pretty good three-point shooter and that there are parts of his game that as a freshman weren't on display, mostly because he was a freshman. Trey and Malik were seniors and they got a lot more opportunities than Jalen. The opportunities that he'll get now, being a sophomore, he's going to have a more significant role. I think he'll show people that his game is more than what they saw last year.

"But there are also parts of his game that he needs to continue to show — his motor, his rebounding, his ability to run the floor. Then he needs to show other parts of his game, his shooting, attacking off the dribble, things we all know he's capable of but things that just weren't on display last year the way they might have been."

The 6-6 Mitchell, meanwhile, was no less blind to his freshman status, starting 32 games, including 31 straight to end the year. His average of 26.5 minutes ranked third on the squad, as he averaged 10.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.1 steals. He finished tied for the team lead with Watson in three-pointers made (49) and posted 20 double-digit scoring games. In the team's final 18 games, he connected on 71 of his final 140 field-goal attempts (50.7 percent) and was 42-for-75 (62.2 percent) from two-point range.

"This is Matt's time to grow his role," Dutcher said. "With Trey gone, maybe he'll be that guy with the ball in his hands more, that guy on the perimeter who can make some of those same plays Trey was making. A lot of the plays Trey made, he couldn't make as a freshman or a sophomore. But as a senior, his game just kept growing and growing.

"We want to see that kind of growth in Matt. Will he be Trey as a senior? We don't know that yet, but he's on that path. He's a very good shooter, but I also want him to take better care of the ball. I thought he should be a 2-to-1 assist to turnover guy, but last year he was closer to 1-to-1. But improvement there just comes with experience, so I would expect his assists to climb. He's a good passer, he just needs to avoid making some of the careless ones that freshmen make."

Another player looking to grow his role is 6-10 forward Nolan Narain, who averaged 5.4 points over his final eight games last year. The junior from Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, has made just one career start but appeared in 23 games last season after playing in nine as a redshirt freshman. Of his 55 career rebounds, more than 40 percent (23) have come on the offensive end.

"Nolan is a junior, and, in a sense, that is what basketball used to be," Dutcher said. "You waited until your junior year until you were able to get maximum productivity in terms of minutes. With all of the experience, practice and hard work he's gone through, all of that should be on display on the floor for us this year. He's going to have a bigger role as a fourth-year junior. His minutes may not have been what he'd like them to be, but he's paid his dues. He was our first big off the bench last year, so, hopefully, he's ready to step up and find his moment."

Dutcher also has options in wing Jordan Schakel and redshirt freshman guard Adam Seiko. Schakel was one of four players to appear in every game last season and finished with 27 three-pointers, the third-highest total on the team. He finished the season having committed one or fewer turnovers in 26 straight games, a span that covered 329 minutes.

"Jordan is a gym rat, so his game has grown immensely; he puts the work in," Dutcher said. "He's in the gym three or four hours a day. Eventually, that's going to show. Now that he's had a year of college experience under his belt, he knows what to expect a little bit more.

"Adam has grown a lot as a redshirt freshman. In a sense, he's a lot like Jalen was last year. Jalen sat out his freshman year and had a fantastic year as a redshirt freshman last season. Now that Adam has spent a year in the program, even though he's considered a freshman, he's really a sophomore playing-wise. He just needs to get some game experience."

An assessment also obviously true of the team's four true freshmen, a group that includes 6-6 wing Aguek Arop; 6-8 wing Ed Chang; and 6-10 forwards Joel Mensah and Nathan Mensah (no relation).

Arop and Chang both arrive as former Nebraska high school stars, Arop at Omaha South High and Chang at Papillion-La Vista High in Papillion, Neb., an Omaha suburb. Before concluding his prep career at The Skill Factory, a prep school outside of Atlanta, Arop was named the 2016 Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Year. Chang, meanwhile, considered a four-star prospect by ESPN, was rated the No. 1 player in Nebraska before attending Garfield High in Seattle, Wash., as a senior. He did not play his senior year.

"Aguek really has great length with his 7-foot-1 wing span, and he's got a very high basketball IQ," Dutcher said. "He seems to always be in the right posi-

Senior Jeremy Hemsley, who reached the 1,000-point mark for his career in 2017-18, has played in 101 games in an Aztec uniform, the most of any current player on the roster.

Matt Mitchell started 32 of 33 games as a freshman last season and was one of five Aztecs to average double figures in scoring, finishing at 10.5 points per game.

Season Outlook

tion and make the right play. We're working hard on his jump shot, but he's a really well-rounded player.

"Ed is a gifted shooter, but he's got to be able to step out and be a perimeter defender. Most of our attention with Ed so far is to try and get him more game ready defensively. He doesn't have to be the biggest guy on the floor, he just needs to be able to guard on the perimeter. I think he guards well inside, but with his size and athleticism, we're working hard to get him better defensively."

Joel Mensah and Nathan Mensah are both natives of Accra, Ghana, the former having attended JSerra Catholic High in San Juan Capistrano, the latter at Findlay Prep in Las Vegas. Joel Mensah was considered a four-star prospect and the 29th-best center nationally by ESPN, which also deemed Nathan Mensah a four-star prospect and the nation's No. 14-rated center.

"Joel has a very high motor," Dutcher said. "A lot of the stuff we're doing right now is in the half court, and he's learning and getting better. What will be interesting to see with him is when we start playing games, where it's not just one or two possessions. I think his motor will really show once we start going up and down.

"Nathan is really strong. He doesn't look it, because he's kind of slender, but he's just got that big-bone strength. He's tough to move in the block. He's a good shot blocker and he's evolving as an offensive player. He's better than he thinks he is. It's just a matter of gaining confidence. He's good around the basket and he's got a good jump hook. He's also a good rebounder, just because of the strength he has."

In 2017-18, it took every ounce of strength the Aztecs had to regain their footing after losing six of eight league games between Jan. 13 and Feb. 10. But it was the final two losses of the skid that hit particularly hard, an 18-point loss at Fresno State on Feb. 6, followed by a 25-point drubbing at Nevada four days later.

Its ego bruised and its pride in pieces, SDSU proceeded to take off the gloves and commence counter-punching. One by one, it took down every team it had lost to earlier in the season. An 87-77 win over Wyoming kicked off a streak that would see the Aztecs win six straight to close out the regular season.

Entering the Mountain West tournament as the No. 5 seed, SDSU continued hammering away, beating the Nos. 4, 1 and 3 seeds by an average margin of 12 points. In their semifinal win against top-seed Nevada, the Aztecs, who had also beaten the Wolf Pack in their regular-season finale, avenged their 25-point loss in Reno by rolling to a 90-73 win, a game in which they built a staggering 34-point lead in the first half.

"We overcame injuries last season (Kell missed parts of eight games), but I don't think we necessarily exceeded expectations," said Dutcher, the only first-year coach to lead his team to the NCAA tournament in 2018. "In most of the preseason polls, we were picked first or second in the league. Then we ended up winning the conference tournament, which put us where people thought we should be, and that was back in the NCAA tournament.

"I just thought Nevada created so much space early in the year that we really had no chance to win the regular-season title. But I thought going down the stretch last year, when you looked at the schedule, you saw we had four of the last six at home and the two road games (at Air Force and San José State). Nothing against Air Force or San José State, but you could see that we had a chance to get on a roll at the end of the season. We just wanted to make sure we were within striking distance. It wasn't like we were trying to overcome a one- or two-game lead, because Nevada had essentially already clinched it at that point.

"We found ourselves way down in the standings, but I just knew looking at the schedule that if we were healthy that there was a chance to make a run, and we did. We won our final six games, which had a lot to do with the schedule but also a lot to do with getting Trey healthy. When we were able to get him back in the starting lineup, we went from winning six in a row to nine in a row."

And back to hanging yet another banner in Viejas Arena, familiar proceedings for a program that has posted the nation's 12th-best winning percentage (74.7) since the 2010-11 season. There will be new faces in Palmer and Morris, who arrive at SDSU after previously coaching at Long Beach State and San José State, respectively. Palmer and Morris replace Justin Hutson and Tim Shelton, the former having been hired as the head coach at Fresno State in April, and the latter joining Hutson's staff.

But there also will be a familiar face in former Aztec standout Lorrenzo Wade, who after nine seasons of playing professionally throughout the world, has returned to SDSU to complete his degree in sociology and serve as the team's head manager. Wade played for the Aztecs from 2006-09 and was a first-team all-MW selection during the 2007-08 season.

"There's such continuity when you have the same staff every year, and we took great pride in having

Justin and Tim," Dutcher said. "We're obviously going to miss them, but we're also so appreciative that Justin got a head coaching job in the conference. That speaks to his abilities and the perception of our program. He didn't take a stepping-stone job, he went right to a really good job.

"But with that comes reinventing yourself, new ideas. It's always good to get new ideas, to have fresh voices. Our task now is for all of us to get on the same page as a coaching staff, and sometimes that can take time. I'm letting (the new coaches) do a lot of the work right now, because I want to see what their capabilities are and where their strengths are. If I'm the only voice or I'm trying to be the dominant voice, by the time March comes they're going to be tired of hearing from me.

"And it's great having Lorrenzo back. I always love having young guys on the staff that have just finished playing, because they're more current, their voice is newer and they can relate to the players better. As much as you think you can relate to the kids, and you do, it's at an entirely different level. There's nothing like having someone who's closer to their age group and someone who has just been through it to tell them what the reality is. You can tell them that, but when they hear it from someone who's played nine years professionally and is coming back to get their degree, they can see themselves in him.

"He's making players better already. He pulls them aside, he gives them advice, he tells them how they can get better, and they're hearing it from one of the best players to have ever played at San Diego State."

Sounds a lot like a home run.

"Viejas Arena is one tough place to play as a visitor. You feel like you are surrounded from above when that place rocks."

- Steve Lappas, CBS Sports Network

"Welcome to The Show, the nonsensical, whimsical, illogical student section at San Diego State, where no costume is deemed too strange. Tickets to The Show are harder to come by than those for a red-carpet Hollywood premiere."

- Dana O'Neil, The Athletic

"I've done college basketball telecasts for over 30 years. The atmosphere at Viejas was as exciting as any I've ever experienced. Certainly, the enthusiasm of the student section was fervent in a way that I'll never forget"

- Verne Lundquist, Former CBS Sports Play-By-Play Announcer

"The atmosphere at Viejas Arena for a big game screams through the television, and when in person is quite a sight to see. You have to appreciate Viejas Arena, one of the best environments in the country."

- Andy Katz, College Basketball Reporter

BASKETBALL

San Diego State held a grand-opening ceremony for the 23,500-square foot Jeff Jacobs JAM Center on Sunday, Aug. 23, 2015. The event marked the official opening of the Aztecs' on-campus basketball performance center, which broke ground on Aug. 27, 2014.

Speaking before the ceremonial ribbon cutting was former SDSU president Elliot Hirshman, former men's basketball head coach Steve Fisher and former women's hoops guard Ahjalee Harvey.

Preliminary site work started in July 2014, just south of the Fowler Athletics Center and east of the football practice fields. The facility, which will support the continued growth and development of the SDSU men's and women's basketball teams, includes two full-length courts, eight baskets, locker rooms, film room, team lounges, athletic training room and coaches locker rooms.

Hundreds of supporters contributed to the effort to make the Jeff Jacobs JAM Center a reality. In addition to the naming gift from Jeff Jacobs, Hal and Debby Jacobs, Steve and Lisa Altman and Jim Morris, creating the name "JAM" Center, sizeable donations were made from the Manna Charitable Foundation and the Walter and Betty Zable Foundation. The total cost of the project was $15 million.

The project was designed by JCJ Architecture and was built by The Hunt Construction Group.

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 20th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 19 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The MW also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the MW was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. During the last three academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Colorado State President Tony Frank currently sits on the DI Board of Directors, while Fresno State Faculty Athletics Representative Dawn Lewis is a member of the DI Council. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The MW is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the nation's highest Division I campus) contrast with Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the MW footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

History

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2018 season, the MW has agreements with seven (7) different bowl games that will generate at least five (5) guaranteed postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, and Hawai'i Bowl - and secondary positions with the Cactus Bowl and the Foster Farms Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2017-18 Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed a strong year in 2017-18. Nevada captured the Mountain West regular-season men's basketball title, while San Diego State won the tournament championship. The Aztecs earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, while the Wolf Pack accepted an at-large bid, marking the first time since 2015 that the MW had multiple teams participate in the Big Dance. Nevada became the sixth MW team to advance to the Sweet 16 in Conference history. Boise State participated in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT).

Opportunity

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 19 years, 42 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 38 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale and Rebecca Esselstein, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

Achievement

The MW has produced 1,149 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 19 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 200 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 19 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 47 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 90 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 82 postseason bids in men's basketball, with six Sweet 16 appearances, as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 76 postseason slots, including 37 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 43 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 32 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of its 19 years, while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 15 of the last 19 years.

Brian Dutcher, a long-time San Diego State men's basketball assistant coach, is entering his second season as head coach after a first year in which he led the Aztecs to their conference-high 11th Mountain West title and back to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015.

Dutcher, who took over the helm of the program following Steve Fisher's retirement announcement on April 11, 2017, was on The Mesa for all of Fisher's 18 seasons. He held the title of associate head coach/head coach in wait-ing for six years and is the program's 15th head coach.

Over the course of his 19 years at San Diego State, Dutcher has helped the Aztecs reach the postseason 14 times, including nine trips to the NCAA tournament, win a conference-best 11 Mountain West titles and record 13 seasons of at least 20 victories.

Since 2008-09, Dutcher and SDSU twice advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2011, 2014) and NIT semifinal round (2009, 2016), won at least 25 games seven times and captured eight MW championships (five regular season, three tournament).

Dutcher arrived at San Diego State shortly after Fisher was hired on March 26, 1999. In his first year in "America's Finest City," the Aztecs won only five games, but improved upon their win total from the season before. After that, San Diego State posted a 14-14 record in 2000-01, before winning the 2002 MW Championship, earning an NCAA tournament bid and finishing with a 21-12 record. The 2002-03 campaign saw SDSU receive an NIT invitation, which culminated in the program's first Division I postseason victory.

The 2018-19 campaign will represent his 20th year at San Diego State... In his first year, SDSU captured the 2018 Mountain West tournament championship to return to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015... The Aztecs went 22-11 and won nine straight games heading into the first round of the NCAA tournament... Was the only first-year head coach in the 2018 NCAA tournament.

After helping attract the program's first McDonald's All-American to the 2002-03 squad, Dutcher assisted in securing the signatures of future starters and all-league performers Brandon Heath and Marcus Slaughter. The duo started their first two seasons on The Mesa, leading to the 2005-06 campaign that produced the school's first MW regular-season and tournament title sweep.

The Aztecs advanced to the NCAA tournament and ultimately won a then-school-record 24 games. That appearance led to a string of 10 consecutive postseason berths.

From the 2006-07 campaign through 2008-09, San Diego State registered 20 or more wins and went to three straight NITs. In 2009, the Aztecs advanced to the NIT semifinals and broke the previous school record with 26 victories.

The run to the NIT semifinals was a springboard to the most successful run in SDSU basketball history. Led by future NBA first-round draft pick and NBA champion Kawhi Leonard, the 2009-10 Aztecs won the MW Championship, advanced to the NCAA tournament and fell four points shy of moving on to the second round before finishing with a 25-9 record.

The NCAA experience from the 2009-10 squad proved fruitful in 2010-11, when it returned all five starters, including Leonard, and a freshman named Jamaal Franklin, who would turn out to be a future MW Player of the Year and NBA draft selection. With Dutcher on staff, SDSU won its first 20 games of the year, shared the MW regular-season title and captured the MW tournament crown. The Aztecs moved on to the NCAA tournament as a No. 2 seed and won the program's first Division I NCAA tournament game. San Diego State, which was ranked as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season, advanced to the Sweet 16 and fell to the eventual national champion, finishing with a school-record 34 wins, a mark that still stands today. The Aztecs' also found themselves in the final top-25 polls, ranking sixth in the AP and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Five months after SDSU's record-setting 2010-11 campaign, the University elevated Dutcher from associate head coach to associate head coach/head coach in waiting.

In his first season with his new title, Dutcher and the Aztecs advanced to the 2012 NCAA tournament as an at-large team and recorded 26 wins. The next season, San Diego State was again an at-large selection to the 2013 NCAA tournament, moved on to the round of 32 for the second time in three years and finished with 23 victories.

Another NCAA Sweet 16 run was in the cards in Dutcher's third season as the head coach in waiting. The Aztecs opened the season by winning 21 of their first 22 games, including 20 in a row at one point, and were led by seniors Xavier Thames, who would become an NBA draft pick, and Josh Davis. SDSU won the program's second outright Mountain West regular-season title and later swept through two games in Spokane, Washington, to secure its second Sweet 16 appearance in four seasons. San Diego State compiled 31 wins and finished the season ranked 13th in the AP and 12th in the Coaches after rising to as high as fifth nationally in both polls.

The 2014-15 campaign saw the Aztecs spend their fifth straight season in the top 25. In the process of winning 27 games, San Diego State grabbed its second straight MW regular-season crown and earned an at-large invitation to the NCAA tournament where they defeated St. John's in the round of 64. One season later, the Aztecs found themselves in the NIT after winning the MW by three games with a 16-2 record. Nevertheless, San Diego State won three games and qualified for the NIT national semifinals, eventually logging 28 victories.

SDSU completed the 2016-17 slate with a 19-14 record despite experiencing a rash of injuries. The 2016 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic champions entered 2017-18 as one of 12 teams to have won at least 19 games in 12 consecutive seasons, which was a sign of things to come in Dutcher's first year.

Dutcher's first roster as head coach featured a pair of seniors that had won multiple Mountain West titles and owned NCAA tournament experience in Trey Kell and Malik Pope.

The Aztecs went through their ups and downs with multiple players, including Kell (5 games), getting bit by the injury bug all the way into the thick of conference play. Dutcher and SDSU, however, righted the ship, winning six consecutive games to end the regular season and all three in the MW tournament to capture the program's 11th league crown to return to the NCAA tournament. Dutcher, additionally, was the only first-year head coach to guide his team to the 2018 NCAA tourney and one of six to have won at least 20 games. Despite the NCAA first-round exit, SDSU finished the campaign with a 22-11 record, with the 22 wins representing the most by a first-year Aztec men's basketball head coach and the second-most among first-year coaches last season.

This year, Dutcher is set to bring in four high-school signees, including a trio of four-star athletes, and an electric point guard from a Division I school who must sit out the 2018-19 campaign. The quintet will join the reigning Mountain West champions that boast a roster that includes a senior backcourt in Jeremy Hemsley and Devin Watson, a fourth-year junior in Nolan Narain, a trio of rising sophomores in Jalen McDaniels, Matt Mitchell and Jordan Schakel, and a talented redshirt freshman in Adam Seiko.

Before Dutcher arrived at San Diego State, he served as assistant coach and later associate head coach at Michigan under Fisher. He spent 10 seasons on the Wolverine staff, establishing himself as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. His first year in Ann Arbor was 1989 and resulted in a national title for Michigan as he assisted then-interim head coach Fisher on the bench.

The Bloomington, Minn., native led UM's recruiting efforts in 1990-91 when the Wolverines inked Juwan Howard, Ray Jackson, Jimmy King, Jalen Rose and Chris Webber. The "Fab Five" is considered perhaps the best recruiting class in NCAA history. Dutcher helped lead that group to nearly 100 wins, two berths in the NCAA championship game and a regional final over a four-year period. He was also on the Michigan staff for an NIT championship (1997).

Dutcher's recruiting prowess, however, was demonstrated by more than just the "Fab Five" haul. Michigan had the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 1993-94 and in 1994-95, with a group that included Maurice Taylor and Jerod Ward. The accomplishment marked the first time that a university had the nation's top class in consecutive years, according to recruiting analyst Bob Gibbons.

Dutcher was born Oct. 30, 1959, in Alpena, Mich.

2018 MOUNTAIN WEST CHAMPIONS | MW-RECORD 11 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

He attended Jefferson High School in Bloomington, Minn., and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota in 1982. While an undergraduate, he worked for his father, then-Gopher head coach Jim Dutcher. He then spent one season in the prep ranks at Apple Valley (Minn.) High School before becoming a graduate assistant at Illinois, where he earned his master's degree in physical education and athletic administration.

While in Champaign, Dutcher helped Lou Henson lead the Illini to a Big Ten championship, two appearances in the Sweet 16 and one regional final.

Dutcher's first full-time coaching job came at South Dakota State, where he spent three seasons helping turn around the Division II program before departing in 1988 for Michigan.

His final season in Ann Arbor ended with the Wolverines claiming the first-ever Big Ten Tournament championship.

Dutcher and his wife, Jan, have two daughters, Erin and Liza.

Record Breakdown
Division I career: 185-177

Rod Palmer, a longtime staple in the Southern California coaching ranks, enters his first season as an assistant coach at San Diego State. He brings nearly 25 years of coaching experience at the high school and Division I levels with him to The Mesa.

Palmer arrives at SDSU after spending the previous 11 seasons as an assistant coach at Long Beach State, including the last four as the 49ers' associate head coach. With his hiring, he became just the 12th San Diego State assistant coach since the 1999-2000 campaign, which marks the beginning of the Brian Dutcher/Steve Fisher era.

Known in the coaching circles as both an expert in West Coast recruiting and an excellent on-floor coach, Palmer helped the 49ers post a 114-64 record (.640) in Big West Conference play, which was easily the highest winning percentage in the league since his arrival prior to the 2007-08 campaign. He also helped Long Beach State acquire talent that resulted in three conference players of the year and 14 first-team all-league performers.

During his time in Long Beach, Palmer played a key role in Long Beach State claiming three Big West regular-season titles and appearing in four NCAA-sponsored postseason events (NCAA or NIT). Among the notable players he recruited and coached at LBSU include James Ennis, who was drafted in 2013 by the Atlanta Hawks and started for the Detroit Pistons in 2017-18, Casper Ware, who spent time with the Philadelphia 76ers, three-time all-Big West selection Mike Caffey, two-time all-Big West honoree Justin Bibbins and the 2012 Big West Defensive Player of the Year Larry Anderson. Both Ennis (2013) and Ware (2011, 2012) were Big West Players of the Year, with Ware also being named the 2011 conference defensive player of the year.

Prior to his stint in Long Beach, Palmer coached at Centennial High School in Compton where he was the head coach for nine years (1998-2007). Palmer led Centennial to the 2004 CIF Division III State Championship and his 2002 squad was a state finalist.

Both the 2002 and 2004 squads were CIF Division III Southern Regional Champions and in 2006, Centennial was the CIF Division III-A champs. Prior to coaching at Centennial, Palmer was the head coach at Compton High School for four years (1993-97).

Palmer saw two of his former players at Centennial take the first step of realizing their NBA dreams in 2007. Arron Afflalo was drafted in the first round by the Detroit Pistons and Gabe Pruitt was taken in the second round by the Boston Celtics.

Over 13 years as a high school coach, Palmer guided his teams to eight CIF sectional title games (six consecutive), three Southern Regional championship games, two Southern Regional championships, two state final games and one Division III State Championship. He sent over 25 players to NCAA Division I schools on basketball scholarships.

The 2004 state championship squad was led by Afflalo. Centennial went 32-3 that year and defeated Oakland Bishop O'Dowd High School, 60-36, in the title game in Sacramento. During his last season at Centennial, the Apaches were 19-5 and won the Pioneer League title with a perfect 10-0 record, but lost in the first round of the CIF I-AA playoffs to Jordan High School in overtime.

Palmer earned his bachelor's degree from UC Irvine in 1990, in psychology and received a teaching credential-secondary in social science in 2004, from Cal State Dominguez Hills. He is a member of the Black Coaches Association.

Palmer prepped at Dominguez High School and was a two-time All-CIF guard before earning a scholarship to UCLA where he played from 1985-87. He then transferred to UC Irvine for his final two seasons.

Dave Velasquez

Assistant Coach - 17th Season at SDSU

San Diego State '07

Dave Velasquez enters his 17th season at San Diego State and sixth as an assistant coach. Prior to his appointment as an assistant coach, he spent six seasons as the program's director of player development.

Velasquez's responsibilities include recruiting, on-court coaching, skill development and academics.

As an assistant, Velasquez is heavily involved in player development. In his previous role, he spent countless hours with former and current Aztecs analyzing their performance in games and in practice on video. Currently, he applies those sessions on the practice floor.

Velasquez also plays a huge role in the performance of Aztecs in the classroom. The Bay Area native works directly with San Diego State's academic advisors, tutors and mentors to ensure standards are met.

What may go unnoticed is his relationship with players. As a former SDSU men's basketball student-athlete and recruit host, Velasquez understands all of the virtues that an Aztec basketball player possesses, which allows him to relate to the entire roster.

In his first season as an assistant, Velasquez helped ink a consensus top-15 recruiting class, while helping the Aztecs enjoy one of their finest seasons ever, which culminated in 31 wins, a Mountain West regular-season title and an NCAA Sweet 16 berth. He was also key in the development of Xavier Thames, who was a 2014 All-American, Mountain West Player of the Year and NBA draft pick.

In 2014-15, he helped coach SDSU to 27 victories, a second straight MW regular-season crown and an appearance in the third round of the NCAA tournament. Velasquez was also key in the Aztecs inking two four-star players for 2015-16, which resulted in 28 wins, another MW title and an appearance in the semifinals of the NIT. In '16-17, Velasquez helped secure another four-star player and three Division I transfers, while bringing in a three- and a four-star player for the 2017-18 campaign.

The aforementioned campaign saw Velasquez help San Diego State win 22 games, capture the program's Mountain West-leading 11th conference championship and return to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2015. On the recruiting trail, Velasquez helped sign five players, including a trio of four-star athletes and one of the top Division I transfers on the market, who will sit out the 2018-19 season.

As SDSU's director of player development, Velasquez assisted the basketball coaching staff with video breakdown, film exchange, travel, community service and handled many of the day-to-day office duties.

Prior to working as the director of player development, Velasquez was a student manager in 2002-03 before serving as head manager from 2003-07.

In 2002-03, San Diego State earned a berth to postseason NIT, where the Aztecs picked up their first Division I postseason tournament victory en route to an appearance in the second round.

Then in 2005-06, San Diego State won the Mountain West with a 13-3 league record before winning the MW tournament. As a result, the Aztecs advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time under head coach Steve Fisher and won a then school-record 24 games.

Fisher awarded Velasquez a scholarship in December 2006 and was added to the active roster in January 2007.

As an official playing member of the team, Velasquez played in four games and recorded a steal. He was a member of a team that finished with a 22-11 record and advanced to the second round of the postseason NIT.

In Velasquez's five seasons as manager, the Aztecs went to the postseason three times and won 22 or more games twice.

Following his graduation from San Diego State in May 2007, Velasquez was hired at the University of the Pacific later that month. As the Tigers' graduate manager, he assisted with UOP's camps, created highlight tapes and coordinated film exchange before returning to his alma mater.

Since his return, SDSU has recorded nine more 20-win seasons and reached the postseason in nine of the last 10 years. More recently, Velasquez has helped the Aztecs earn an NCAA tournament berth in six of the last eight years, win the first six NCAA tournament games in program history and reach at least the second round of the Big Dance in four of the last seven seasons, including two Sweet 16 appearances.

Velasquez is married to the former Lindsay Ward. The couple's son, Marcus, was born on July, 3, 2018.

Jay Morris enters his first season at San Diego State as an assistant coach and brings with him an extensive background in the Mountain West and West Coast basketball, having coached at the high school and collegiate levels.

Morris arrives on The Mesa from San José State, where he spent the 2017-18 campaign. In his one season in Northern California, Morris helped the Spartans improve in several statistical categories, mostly on the defensive side of the ball. SJSU finished five spots better in the Mountain West than it did in 2016-17 in field-goal percentage defense, ranking sixth and limiting foes to 43.7 percent shooting (46.0 percent in '16-17). The Spartans also finished with better conference rankings than the previous season in three-point field-goal percentage defense (8th to 4th) and scoring defense (9th to 7th). Offensively, Morris helped SJSU improve its three-point shooting as it ranked fifth in the MW in 2017-18 (.371) compared to 2016-17's seventh-place showing (.348).

Prior to the 2017-18 season, Morris briefly held a non-coaching position on the Aztec staff before accepting the aforementioned full-time assistant coach job at San José State. At the time of his first stint on The Mesa, Morris was coming from Long Beach State where he was on staff with current SDSU assistant coach Rod Palmer. In his one season as the 49ers' director of player development (2016-17), he was responsible, in part, for the development of an off-court curriculum focused on developing skills and relationships that would assist student-athletes after basketball.

Prior to his time at the Big West school, Morris spent the 2015-16 campaign at Nevada. In that one season, Morris helped the Wolf Pack to a 24-14 record, which was a 15-win improvement over the previous year, and to a CBI championship. On the recruiting trail, Morris was the lead recruiter for several four-star signees, leading to national recognition by a number of recruiting sites.

Before moving to Reno, Morris was rooted at CSUN, a school he spent five seasons at as an assistant coach. While in the San Fernando Valley, Morris led the recruiting efforts for the 2012 Big West Freshman of the Year and number of Division I transfers. On the floor, he was instrumental in the development of the team's perimeter and interior players, and while assisting the Matador offense in 2013-14, CSUN ranked in the top 10 nationally in free-throw percentage (1st), free throws made (2nd) and free throws attempted (8th).

Morris got his Division I start at Long Beach State where he spent two seasons as the director of operations. In his position, he was responsible for coordinating team travel, film exchange, serving as camp director, maintaining the program's recruiting database and monitoring academic progress. During his time at LBSU, the 49ers had the 10th-best recruiting class among mid-majors in 2009 and made the title game at the 2010 Big West tournament.

A member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), Morris received his coaching start at his high school alma mater, Westchester High in Los Angeles where he was an assistant basketball coach and strength coach for three seasons. During his stint at the prep level, Morris coached six players who went on to play Division I basketball, including former Aztec Dwayne Polee II.

Morris earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Dominguez Hills in 2010, and later received his master's degree in coaching/athletic administration from Concordia University in 2017.

Morris and his wife, Yavonna, have twins -- a son named Chance and daughter named Mercy.

Mark Fisher

Assistant to the Head Coach - 17th Season at SDSU

Michigan '01

Mark Fisher enters his sixth season as assistant to the head coach and 17th overall at San Diego State. He is the son of former Aztec head coach Steve Fisher, who was at the helm of the program for 18 seasons before retiring at the end of the 2016-17 campaign.

Prior to his current role, Fisher was an assistant coach who helped the Aztecs to eight consecutive 20-wins seasons, including five straight years with at least 23 victories, to go with eight consecutive postseason berths. Among the highlights during that stretch were 2011's 34-3 record and Sweet 16 appearance. In 2012-13, SDSU advanced to the NCAA tournament for the fourth year in a row and moved on to the third round for the second time in three seasons.

During his tenure as an assistant, Fisher helped secure the 2009-10 incoming class, which featured the California Player of the Year Kawhi Leonard. The 2009-10 incoming group was ranked No. 15 in the nation by The HOOP SCOOP Online and was rated as the No. 1 class among non-automatic qualifying BCS schools by The HOOP SCOOP Online and Rivals.com. ESPN.com slotted the Aztec incoming class at No. 4 in its "mid-major recruiting."

The hype was well deserved as Leonard became the first freshman in MW history to be named to the all-conference first team, all while earning league freshman of the year honors and MW tournament MVP accolades. Leonard additionally was one of only four freshmen nationally to lead his team in scoring and rebounding. In 2011, Leonard was an all-conference first-team pick, All-American and first-round NBA Draft pick. He and classmate, Chase Tapley, were also regulars in the starting lineup together for two seasons. Tapley, meanwhile, was a four-year starter, all-conference selection and one of the winningest players in Aztec history.

In addition, Fisher was also the lead recruiter for James Rahon, who helped SDSU win 83 games during his three years of eligibility, including three in the NCAA tournament. With Rahon in the fold for 2010-11, Fisher helped secure a 6-5 guard in Jamaal Franklin. Three years later, Franklin became a 2013 NBA Draft pick.

The 2012-13 group, which Fisher also help secure, was acknowledged as one of the best in the country as Rivals.com tabbed the class as the 24th-best nationally. Fisher helped sign freshman Matt Shrigley and was responsible for landing JJ O'Brien, a transfer who started 33 of 34 games in 2012-13.

As the director of operations, Fisher handled many of the day-to-day operations, including scheduling, summer camps and organizing all aspects of team travel. He also represented the basketball program with the athletic administration.

During his time supervising the team's schedule, the Aztecs played high-profile games against Arizona, California, Providence, Iowa State, Washington and Washington State among others. In addition, he arranged SDSU to play in the BP Top of the World Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska, the Shamrock Invitational in Moraga, Calif., the World Vision Classic in Fresno, Calif., and the prestigious John R. Wooden Classic in Anaheim, Calif., in past seasons.

In his four years as the team's schedule maker, the Aztecs won 92 games, for an average of 23 wins per season, and reached the postseason in each of those years.

In previous seasons, when SDSU had two assistant coaches, Fisher officially took on coaching responsibilities, including conducting individual workouts and off-campus recruiting.

Fisher graduated from the University of Michigan in December of 2001, with a bachelor's degree in psychology.

Around basketball a majority of his life, Fisher amassed a variety of experience in a short period of time.

From 1998-2001, Fisher worked in a variety of capacities for Lincoln High School in Ann Arbor, Mich. He served as the varsity assistant head coach, head junior varsity coach and the head freshman coach during his tenure, assisting in all areas of the program.

He served as associate head coach for an Ann Arbor AAU team in the summer of 2001. Many of the players on that squad went on to play college basketball.

Fisher enjoys spending his vacation time at Devils Lake in Manitou Beach, Mich. He and his wife, Jill, live in Escondido with their son, Max.

San Diego State earned an automatic berth to the NCAA tournament after winning its 11th Mountain West championship, which is the most in league history. The Aztecs later made their seventh NCAA appearance in the last nine seasons.

A Look at the 2017-18 Aztecs

San Diego State entered the 2017-18 campaign with renewed excitement as it was set to embark on Year 1 of the Brian Dutcher era.

The Aztecs were considered one of the favorites to win the Mountain West regular-season title, finishing in second place and earning two first-place votes in the preseason media poll. SDSU was bringing back two seniors in all-conference guard Trey Kell and forward Malik Pope, who showed flashes over his three seasons of being the best player in the Mountain West. Add to the mix the 2016-17 MW Preseason Co-Freshman of the Year, Jalen McDaniels, a high-level transfer in Devin Watson, who averaged over 20.0 points at his previous stop, and a talented freshman class to a seasoned roster, San Diego State looked primed to make a run at the title.

Things, however, did not go according to plan in the early going. After winning its first game of the season, SDSU took its first hit, injury-wise, in a road loss at Arizona State. Junior forward Max Montana hyperextended his left knee in the second half that forced him to miss the next six games.

The Aztecs responded by winning their next four games, including the first two at the Wooden Legacy in Orange County, before the injury bug infiltrated the roster again. This time, it occurred in the title game of the Wooden Legacy. First, Pope went down with a right foot injury in the first five minutes that kept him out of the majority of the first half before returning for the last few minutes. He did not play in the second half, which is when Kell suffered a right ankle sprain. At the time of Kell's misfortune, San Diego State was ahead by five points. He returned three minutes later with his team down one in what ended up as a seven-point loss to Washington State.

Pope's injury did not linger, but the same could not be said for Kell, who missed a road win at San Diego and a home victory over Bradley. The senior returned to action vs. California, but fell victim to a quad contusion in the first half and played just three minutes in the second half of a one-point loss.

Twelve days stood in front of SDSU's next game, which allowed the roster to heal and the Aztecs had everyone available for a 72-70 home win over No. 12/15 Gonzaga, propelling them into Mountain West action with confidence.

The good vibes were quickly taken away as junior guard Jeremy Hemsley lost a bout with an illness and the Aztecs were dealt a 13-point blow at Wyoming. SDSU, however, won three straight games before coming up short at Boise State.

The road loss to the Broncos set off a string of three consecutive defeats, but with, yet again, a less-than-healthy roster. In the home game vs. Fresno State, the Aztecs were tied with the Bulldogs when Pope took a knee in the groin and missed the final 5:36 in a four-point loss. Then at New Mexico, Kell was sick in another four-point setback and was later diagnosed with walking pneumonia.

San Diego State stopped the losing with a home win over Colorado State only to see the injury bug take another bite out of Kell at UNLV. Prior to the first media timeout, Kell rolled his left ankle and was unavailable for the final 37 minutes of a 10-point loss.

The Aztecs defeated Air Force by 31 points without Kell, but were not as fortunate in the next two games at Fresno State and at No. 23/23 Nevada.

Sitting at 13-10 overall and 5-7 in the Mountain West, SDSU welcomed back Kell for the game vs. Wyoming and took off from there, ending the regular season with six straight wins to earn a bye into the quarterfinal round of the MW Championship. During its six-game winning streak, the Aztecs avenged losses with victories over Wyoming, UNLV, Boise State and No. 21/21 Nevada.

SDSU stayed hot in the conference tournament dismissing Fresno State, No. 22/22 Nevada and New Mexico en route to its Mountain West-high 11th league title.

San Diego State rode a nine-game winning streak

2017-18 Review

The San Diego State senior class of Kameron Rooks, Malik Pope and Trey Kell guided the Aztecs to their 12th post-season berth in the last 13 years.

into the NCAA tournament where it faced sixth-seeded and No. 21/19 Houston in Wichita, Kan. The Aztecs were down 10 points at halftime, only to rally to tie the score twice, the last of which came with 31 seconds left. The Cougars took a two-point lead with 1.1 seconds left and Kell got off a great three-point attempt after a length-of-the-court pass, but the shot was off the mark as SDSU's season ended with a 22-11 record.

Below are some notes on the 2017-18 squad:

▶ The Aztecs appeared in their seventh NCAA tournament in the last nine seasons.

▶ San Diego State made its ninth NCAA tournament appearance in the last 19 seasons, all of which happened with Dutcher on the sidelines. The previous eight were with him as an assistant coach.

▶ SDSU earned a postseason berth for the 12th time in the last 13 years.

▶ The Aztecs won their 11th Mountain West championship, which is tops in league history. SDSU won its fourth MW tournament title, which is also the most in conference history.

▶ SDSU's Mountain West tournament championship was the school's first since 2011. The Aztecs played in the title game four times since 2011, going winless until 2018.

▶ San Diego State's nine-game winning streak entering the NCAA tournament was tied for the fifth-longest active streak in the nation and was the seventh longest in school history.

▶ During SDSU's nine-game winning streak, it won by an average of 13.3 points.

▶ San Diego State finished its season with a 22-11 record, marking the 12th 20-win campaign in the last 13 years. The 20-win season was the 15th with Dutcher on the sideline.

▶ The Aztecs have won at least 19 games 13 straight years, which is tied for the seventh-longest streak nationally.

▶ San Diego State had five players average double-figures in scoring for the first time since 1972-73 and for just the third time in its Division I history (1970-71, 1972-73, 2017-18). The five players were Malik Pope (12.8), Devin Watson (12.2), Matt Mitchell (10.5), Jalen McDaniels (10.5) and Trey Kell (10.5).

▶ SDSU had four 1,000-point scorers on the roster (Jeremy Hemsley, Kell, Pope, Watson) with Hemsley, Pope and Watson hitting the mark in 2017-18. Kell, Hemsley and Pope were SDSU's first trio of 1,000-point scorers (all points scored while at San Diego State) on the same team in school history.

▶ The Aztecs lost 16 games due to injury or illness with Trey Kell and Max Montana leading the way with five apiece. However, Kell missed part of an additional three games, taking his total to eight games where he either missed the entire or part of a game.

▶ San Diego State lost five games that were decided by four points or less.

▶ Kell, Mitchell and Watson were named to the Wooden Legacy all-tournament team with McDaniels and Pope garnering honorable mention accolades.

▶ Pope earned all-Mountain West second-team recognition from the league's head coaches and was an honorable mention selection by the conference media. McDaniels, meanwhile, was an all-league third-team choice by the media and an honorable mention pick by the coaches.

▶ Kell was named the Mountain West tournament MVP and Watson joined him on the all-tournament team.

▶ Dutcher was the only first-year head coach to take his team to the NCAA tournament.

Game 2

Arizona State 90
San Diego State 68
Nov. 14, 2017 ◆ Tempe, Ariz.
Wells Fargo Arena ◆ Att.: 6,640

TEMPE, Ariz. - San Diego State rallied from a 10-point first-half deficit to lead at halftime, but could not maintain its advantage as Arizona State stormed back in the second half to defeat the Aztecs, 90-68, at Wells Fargo Arena.

SDSU scored the first five points of the game and enjoyed a three-point lead through the first media timeout. The tide began to turn with a De'Quon Lake layup, which led to another by Kodi Justice, but Devin Watson and Malik Pope connected for an alley-oop to help the Aztecs regain the lead at 11-10 with 13:41 left.

However, the Pope dunk would be a blip on ASU's radar as the hosts responded by scoring nine straight points. Max Montana briefly stopped the run with a three-pointer only to have the Sun Devils score five additional points to go up, 24-14.

San Diego State then made its next nine field goal attempts to move in front, 38-32. Of the those nine buckets, three were Montana treys, giving him four in four tries. The Aztecs ultimately led at halftime, 40-34.

Things started well for SDSU out of the break as Pope banked in a three-pointer to move its advantage to nine. ASU scored seven unanswered points to get within two, but Pope answered with a dunk.

With the Aztecs up, 47-45, the Sun Devils unleashed a 31-5 run over the next 10:11 to take a 76-52 lead with 6:56 left in the game. SDSU never got closer than 18 points the rest of the way.

Trey Kell led the Aztecs with 16 points and 10 rebounds with Pope adding 14 points and eight boards. Montana finished with 15 points.

Tra Holder had 24 points for an ASU squad that featured five double-figures scorers.

The Aztecs scored the first nine points of the game and never looked back, leading from wire-to-wire. The Cowboys, however, made it somewhat of a game shortly after SDSU's ninth point, rallying to get within 13-11. From there, San Diego State put up seven unanswered points to lead by nine again.

The 7-0 run mushroomed into a larger 26-8 blitz over the remainder of the first half as McNeese trailed, 46-19, by intermission.

The second half was more of the same from the Aztecs, so much so that head coach Brian Dutcher sat all five of his starters with 10:47 left in the game. SDSU led by as many as 32 points in the final 10 minutes to cruise to the 31-point win.

Three of the Aztecs' five starters reached double figures in scoring and the group was led by Devin Watson's season-high 20 points. The junior added eight assists and just one turnover, giving him 17 assists and three miscues over his last two games.

Malik Pope chipped in 16 points and nine rebounds with Trey Kell contributing 13 points. Jeremy Hemsley and Jordan Schakel, meanwhile, scored nine and eight points, respectively, off the bench.

Quattarius Wilson had 15 points and eight rebounds to pace McNeese.

Game 4

San Diego State 94
Eastern Illinois 63
Nov. 20, 2017 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 9,821

SAN DIEGO - Freshman Matt Mitchell totaled 31 points on 10 of 14 shooting, including a 7 for 11 mark from three-point range as SDSU defeated Eastern Illinois, 94-63, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs never trailed in the contest, and jumped out to an 18-point lead (26-8) just 9:54 into the first half. SDSU went into halftime with a 40-25 lead.

After Malik Pope nearly had a double-double in the first half alone with 13 points and seven rebounds, Mitchell stole the show in the second half, recording 26 of SDSU's 54 second-half points in just 16 minutes of action.

SDSU used a 20-4 run in the second half to build a 76-45 lead with 8:25 left. During the run, Mitchell erupted for 16 points in only four and a half minutes, while the Aztecs as a team converted on seven of its eight field goal attempts.

Pope finished with his first double-double of the year and eighth of his career, tallying 17 points and 11 rebounds. Trey Kell and Devin Watson reached double figures with 14 and 10 points, respectively, while Kell tied his career-high with seven assists.

Mitchell's 31 points were the most by a freshman since Evan Burns scored 31 vs. New Mexico in 2003. With seven three-pointers on the night, Mitchell set a new freshman record, while his 31 points were the fourth most by any freshman in the nation at the time of the game. The seven converted three-pointers were also tied for second most nationally and the fourth most by an Aztec since 1996-97.

Eastern Illinois was led by Jajuan Starks' 17 points and seven rebounds.

Game 5

San Diego State 89
Sacramento State 52
Nov. 23, 2017 ◆ Fullerton, Calif.
Titan Gym ◆ Att.: 2,131

FULLERTON, Calif. - San Diego State led Sacramento State, 12-0, before the game was three minutes old and cruised to victory in the quarterfinal round of the Wooden Legacy, 89-52, at Titan Gym on the campus of Cal State Fullerton.

The Hornets committed three turnovers and missed both of their shots, each of which were three-point attempts, and the Aztecs made five of their first six shots to race out to the 12-0 lead.

Both teams went scoreless for the next 1:42 before Sacramento State snapped its scoreless streak with a Izayah Mauriohooho-Le'afa free throw with 15:24 left. SDSU closed the half on a 37-13 run to take a 49-14 lead at halftime.

In the first half, San Diego State limited Sacramento State to 23.1-percent shooting, including an 0-for-13 effort from behind the three-point arc. The Aztecs, meanwhile, knocked down seven three-pointers and were 12-of-15 from the charity stripe.

When action resumed, SDSU grew its lead to 47 points, leading 65-18, with 15:12 to play. Soon thereafter, all of the Aztecs' starters were out of the game.

The Hornets nearly outscored San Diego State in the second half, putting up 40 points and allowing 38 to the Aztecs. Despite the nearly equal half, SDSU never let the Hornets get closer than 37 points.

Devin Watson led the Aztecs with 12 points and Jalen McDaniels grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds. Kell and Matt Mitchell each had 11 points and Jeremy Hemsley added 10.

Game 6

San Diego State 75
Georgia 68
Nov. 24, 2017 ◆ Fullerton, Calif.
Titan Gym ◆ Att.: 2,513

FULLERTON, Calif. - San Diego State rallied from a 12-point first-half deficit and defeated Georgia, 75-68, in the semifinals of the Wooden Legacy.

The Aztecs won by doing the little things, such as outrebounding the Bulldogs, 48-44, taking and making more free throws, and committing a season-low five turnovers. However, none of that was present during an opening-game run that saw Georgia jump out to a 16-4 lead nearly eight minutes into the contest.

The Bulldogs led 6-0 before Trey Kell ended SDSU's 0 for 8 start from the field. On the Aztecs' second possession following the Kell bucket, Malik Pope was issued a foul and then a technical, giving him three personal fouls with 15:11 left. He did not return until the second half.

SDSU, meanwhile, plugged away without its leading scorer and rebounder, utilizing a 7-0 run to get within five points. Georgia, however, answered with back-to-back threes to push its lead back to double figures.

The Aztecs later went on an 18-3 run to take a 31-27 lead with four minutes to go and eventually went into halftime down, 34-33.

The second half was a back-and-forth affair and the score was tied 61-61 with 5:12 remaining after Matt Mitchell made two free throws. Georgia moved ahead, 64-63, on a trey by William Jackson II, but the Aztecs responded with a Pope tip-in and a Mitchell three. The five points were part of a larger 13-3 run that put SDSU ahead by eight in a game it won by seven.

Devin Watson had a team-high 16 points, Kell turned in 13 points and a game-high nine rebounds, and Mitchell finished with 13 points. Jalen McDaniels added a career-high 11 points and eight rebounds.

Game 7

Washington State 93
San Diego State 86
Nov. 26, 2017 ◆ Fullerton, Calif.
Titan Gym ◆ Att.: 1,733

FULLERTON, Calif. - San Diego State fell short in its bid for a second Wooden Legacy championship, dropping a 93-86 decision in the title game to Washington State.

The Aztecs took a 73-64 lead after Matt Mitchell knocked down a three-pointer with 8:25 left in the second half, but the advantage soon evaporated. An 11-2 Cougar run buoyed by a trio of three-pointers, including a pair from Viont'e Daniels, leveled the score at 75-75.

The game was tied twice more, but only briefly, as Malachi Flynn made his first free throw to make it 79-79 and then converted the second with 3:58 to play. From there, Washington State scored five straight points to move ahead by six.

The Aztecs got to within three points on two different occasions in the final 1:23 only to have WSU answer with two points of its own each time to end the threat.

The first half was a see-saw battle with Washington State taking threes on every other shot. Of WSU's 30 field-goal attempts, 16 were from behind the arc. Its effort, however, helped it take a 46-43 lead at halftime after it connected on eight treys.

As for the Aztecs, they struggled to shoot the three, making eight for the game, with six coming in the first half. Half of their threes came from SDSU's starting backcourt of Devin Watson and Trey Kell as both made a pair en route to 23 and 19 points, respectively. Watson added six assists and Kell had four steals.

San Diego State, however, suffered a pair of big blows, losing leading scorer and rebounder Malik Pope, and Kell to ankle injuries. Pope played 14 first-half minutes and was unavailable in the second. Kell, meanwhile, suffered his injury with 6:38 left in the game before returning with 3:58 to go. The Aztecs were up by five when Kell left the game and were down one when he returned.

Game 8

San Diego State 66
San Diego 57
Nov. 30, 2017 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Jenny Craig Pavilion ◆ Att.: 4,536

SAN DIEGO - Despite playing without two of its top six players, San Diego State defeated San Diego, 66-57, at Jenny Craig Pavilion to notch its 11th win in its last 12 series meetings.

The Aztecs, who were without Max Montana and Trey Kell due to injuries, rode the back of Devin Watson. The junior guard knocked down all six of his shot attempts in the first half to lead SDSU offensively, while the defense collectively shut down the Toreros attack.

USD took a 7-6 lead with 16:11 left in the first half after Isaiah Pineiro connected on a jumper. After that, the Aztec defense forced the Toreros into missing eight straight shots before a Juwan Gray snapped San Diego's scoring drought. By then, the Aztecs were ahead, 13-8, and then responded by making USD miss an additional six shots in a row.

The Aztecs only led, 30-22, at halftime as a result of seven first-half turnovers, but it was their defense that stole the headlines. SDSU limited USD to just 27.3-percent shooting in the first half, including a 2 for 15 effort from behind the three-point line.

Despite its shooting woes, San Diego flashed its resiliency, cutting the deficit to four points on two different occasions, the last coming with 15:23 left in regulation. The Aztecs, however, answered with seven consecutive points to keep the Toreros at bay.

USD later trailed by nine points with just over 10 minutes to play, but that would be as close as it would get until the waning moments when it decided to send the Aztecs to the free-throw line.

With Montana out with a knee injury and Kell unable to go due to an ankle injury despite giving it a go during warm-ups, Watson scored a season-high 26 points to go with five steals. Matt Mitchell was a perfect 4 for 4 from the floor en route to 13 points and Jeremy Hemsley added 11 points in just his second start of the year.

Game 9

San Diego State 75
Bradley 52
Dec. 3, 2017 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,102

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State used a stifling defense early in the game to pull away from Bradley in what ended in a 75-52 home win for the Aztecs in the Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge.

SDSU forced the Braves into missing nine of their first 10 field-goal attempts and built a 22-3 lead before Bradley could record its fourth and fifth points with 9:58 left in the first half.

The Aztecs led, 11-3, after BU's JoJo McGlaston made the first of two free-throw attempts. Subsequently, Jalen McDaniels provided seven of SDSU's next 11 points with four coming off of two offensive rebounds and the other three coming on a trey.

Bradley cut into its deficit and trailed by 13 points with 1:44 to go before halftime, but San Diego State ultimately led, 37-23, at intermission.

With the Braves within reasonable striking distance, SDSU ended all hope as play resumed. The Aztecs made four straight free throws and then received buckets from Kameron Rooks and Malik Pope to push their advantage to 22.

A McDaniels basket stretched SDSU's lead to 24 points with 13:27 left and Bradley answered to back-to-back three-pointers from Ryan Stipanovich to get within 18 points. That would be as close as the visitors would get as San Diego State enjoyed a 20-point margin the rest of the way.

McDaniels led the way for the Aztecs with a career-high 14 points and 12 rebounds. Pope and Jeremy Hemsley each added 13 points. Max Montana, meanwhile, played four minutes in his first game back from a knee injury suffered in the second game of the year.

Game 10

California 63
San Diego State 62
Dec. 9, 2017 ✦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ✦ Att.: 11,381

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State rallied from a 14-point second-half deficit, but let the game slip away in the final minutes, falling to California at home, 63-62.

The Aztecs trailed by their largest margin with 16:53 left in the second half (48-34) and found themselves down, 53-40, with 13:10 to go in the game. A methodical comeback by SDSU, one that saw it outscore the Golden Bears, 18-3, over an 8:43 span, gave the home side a 58-56 lead with 4:27 to play.

California, which led by five points at halftime, halted the Aztec run with a pair of free throws to level the score, but Matt Mitchell scored his fifth consecutive point to get SDSU back in front. Both teams missed three-pointers on their next possessions, while Malik Pope followed with one of two free throws.

Leading, 61-58, Mitchell stole the ball from Justice Sueing and Jeremy Hemsley wound up being fouled, sending the junior to the line. Hemsley, however, made just one of two tries and eight seconds later, Don Coleman completed a three-point play with 42 seconds left.

A turnover by Mitchell with 11 seconds to go forced SDSU to foul and Juhwan Harris-Dyson made both attempts to put the visitors ahead by one. Then with just under eight seconds left, Devin Watson raced down the court, handed the ball off to Hemsley, who missed from the top of three-point arc as time expired.

Pope, who scored San Diego State's first 13 points of the game, finished with a game-high 20 points and a team-best eight rebounds. Mitchell had 13 points and a career-high six assists, and Hemsley contributed 13 points off the bench.

SDSU welcomed back Trey Kell to the starting lineup after he missed two games due to an ankle injury. The guard, however, sustained a quad injury in the first half was limited to just three second-half minutes.

Game 11

San Diego State 72
No. 12/15 Gonzaga 70
Dec. 21, 2017 ✦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ✦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State returned to action after a 12-day layoff and overwhelmed No. 12/15 Gonzaga early to post the 72-70 victory at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs scored the game's first 11 points and never looked back, winning in wire-to-wire fashion. SDSU received three straight treys from Matt Mitchell, Devin Watson and Mitchell once again to move ahead, 9-0. Malik Pope capped the run with a jumper before the game was four minutes old.

The pace was rapid so much so that the first media timeout came with 11:27 left and the Aztecs up, 16-10. SDSU later pushed its lead to 22-10, before the Bulldogs closed the final eight minutes on a 13-3 run. At halftime, San Diego State found itself ahead, 25-23.

SDSU led by no more than four points for the first nine minutes of the second half and held onto a one-point lead on four different occasions. The Aztecs, however, had an answer in the form of a defensive stop or a basket.

San Diego State created some breathing room when Jeremy Hemsley hit one of his two three-pointers with just under 11 minutes to play. The bucket was a part of a 9-3 spurt that helped the Aztecs extend their lead to seven.

SDSU later led by eight, but withstood two more Gonzaga runs, both of which got the Bulldogs to within two points, once with 2:26 to go and the other with 1:36 left.

The latter was answered by Trey Kell, who did not get a full practice in during the 12-day break due to a thigh bruise. The senior scored four consecutive points and Mitchell added a pair of free throws to put the home side ahead, 68-60, with 37 seconds left.

Gonzaga made a trio of threes and a free throw to close out the game, but SDSU made four of its last five from the charity stripe to emerge with the win.

Game 12

Wyoming 82
San Diego State 69
Dec. 27, 2017 ✦ Laramie, Wyo.
Arena-Auditorium ✦ Att.: 4,823

LARAMIE, Wyo. - San Diego State allowed Wyoming to shoot 55.2 percent from the field in the second half, including a 7-for-12 clip from three-point distance, which helped the Cowboys erase a three-point halftime deficit and turn it into an 82-69 home win.

Wyoming received a huge performance from Hayden Dalton, who hurt the Aztecs nearly every time he touched the ball. The forward scored 36 points on 10 of 17 shooting and an 11 for 14 effort from the charity stripe to go with 15 rebounds, five assists, two blocked shots and one steal in 37 minutes. In the first half alone, he had 17 points and seven assists.

Despite the impressive showing by Dalton, the Aztecs managed to lead, 40-37, at halftime thanks to Malik Pope and a solid team defensive effort. Pope had 13 points and six rebounds at intermission, and the defense held the Cowboys to 36.7 percent shooting and a 5 for 17 performance from behind the arc. In fact, SDSU forced Wyoming into missing nine of its final 10 three-point shots to end the half.

However, the momentum changed once play resumed. As cold as the Cowboys were to end the half, they were the opposite in the second period, hitting seven of their first 11 threes. SDSU, which led by five points with 17:03 left, all of sudden found itself down, 71-57, with 9:54 to play.

Wyoming later led by as many as 19 points before the final media timeout and ultimately settled for the 13-point victory.

Pope led SDSU with a season-high 21 points on a career-best 10 made field goals. Devin Watson added 13 points and Matt Mitchell for the third straight game made three treys en route to 11 points. Jalen McDaniels, meanwhile, pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds in his first career start.

Game 13

San Diego State 79
Utah State 59
Dec. 30, 2017 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Juniors Devin Watson (15) and Max Montana (14) paced four San Diego State players with at least 13 points as the Aztecs defeated Utah State for a 10th consecutive time, 79-59.

San Diego State never trailed in the game, handed the Aggies their worst loss of the season at the time and tied the largest margin of victory for the Aztecs in a regular-season game against Utah State.

The Aztecs had comfortable advantages in rebounds (36-27) and turnovers (10-19), improving to 6-1 at home and 1-1 in Mountain West play this season.

In the first half, the Aztecs used an aggressive defense to get Utah State out of its half court execution game. SDSU forced 13 first half miscues by the Aggies and enjoyed a 17-0 lead in points off of turnovers after 20 minutes.

Having built a 14-point halftime advantage, the Aztecs remained in complete control in the second half and did not have a lead of less than 10 points in the final 23 minutes of the contest.

Watson reached double figures for the second game in a row and the ninth time this season with 15 points.

Montana snapped out of an 0 for 15 three-point field goal slump by connecting on three treys en route to 14 points.

Senior Malik Pope scored nine or more points for a fifth straight game, tallying 13 points and pulling down seven rebounds.

True freshman Jalen McDaniels continued his stellar play with 13 points and eight rebounds. He led the team on the glass for a third consecutive game and has averaged 8.8 boards in his last five contests.

San Diego State 77
Colorado State 68
Jan. 2, 2018 ◆ Fort Collins, Colo.
Moby Arena ◆ Att.: 3,020

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - San Diego State used timely baskets and hot shooting in the second half to pull away from host Colorado State, 77-68, at Moby Arena.

The Aztecs shot 60 percent in the second half, including 60 percent from behind the three-point arc, to help alleviate 11 miscues in the final 20 minutes.

Conversely, the Rams capitalized on those 11 turnovers, taking a 61-60 lead by the 5:35 mark.

Later, Trey Kell scored five straight points on a jumper and a triple to put San Diego State in front, 71-66.

CSU's last effort translated into a J.D. Paige bucket to bring the Rams to within three points with 58 seconds to play. However, Malik Pope made a jump hook to extend the Aztecs' lead and Colorado State would get no closer.

McDaniels led San Diego State with a career-high 19 points and pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds. The redshirt freshman made 8 of 11 from the field and added two steals in 29 minutes.

Jeremy Hemsley came off the bench to provide 13 points after he made all three of his three-point attempts. Kell and Devin Watson each scored 11 points and had nine of SDSU's 15 assists between the two of them.

Paige led Colorado State with 22 points. Anthony Bonner added 13 points and Prentiss Nixon scored 11 for a Rams side that trailed at halftime, 34-31.

San José State 49
Jan. 9, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,761

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State used a 16-2 second-half-opening run to break open what was a nine-point halftime lead to ultimately defeat visiting San José State, 85-49, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs' 16-2 outburst was a part of a larger 26-4 run that spanned the final 4:31 of the first half and the first 5:11 of the second period. The Spartans cut SDSU's lead to 22-21 only to have Jalen McDaniels make the second of three straight baskets to put the home side in front by one.

The McDaniels dunk sparked a 10-2 first-half-ending spurt that put San Diego State out in front, 32-23, at intermission. SJSU answered by scoring on its first possession once play resumed before succumbing to the Aztec full-court press and giving up 16 straight points, the last of which came on a Malik Pope trey. At this point, San Diego State enjoyed a 48-25 lead with 14:49 to go.

The Aztecs pushed their lead to as many as 40 twice down the stretch before settling for the 36-point win, which was their second-largest margin of victory in Mountain West history.

Pope led a balanced San Diego State attack with a game-high-tying 17 points on 8-of-10 shooting. Max Montana hit a flurry of three-pointers late to also finish with 17 points. Junior classmate Devin Watson put up 15 points and six assists, and McDaniels chipped with 13 points, a team-high seven rebounds and a game-high four steals. Trey Kell, meanwhile, added a career-high-tying seven assists.

As a team, SDSU held the Spartans to just 30.8 percent from the field, which included a 1 for 11 performance from three-point range. Keith Fisher led SJSU with 14 points, but Ryan Welage, the team's leading scorer, had just eight points on 3 for 14 shooting.

Jan. 13, 2018 ◆ Boise, Idaho
Taco Bell Arena ◆ Att.: 10,874

BOISE, Idaho - Despite erasing an 11-point first-half deficit, San Diego State could not overcome a 44-point performance from Chandler Hutchison in an 83-80 loss at Boise State.

Hutchison scored Boise State's first 16 points to carry the home team to a 16-9 lead with under 11 minutes to play in the first period. The Broncos' lead swelled to 11 with 6:37 left after a Zach Haney three-pointer and once again with 4:11 to go before halftime after a Chris Sengfelder triple.

The Aztecs, however, cut their deficit to six points by halftime after Max Montana nailed a trey and Matt Mitchell hit a layup in the final minute.

SDSU used that momentum once play resumed and scored six straight points, including four off Malik Pope dunks, to level the score at 40 apiece. Boise State moved out in front again, leading by six points with 10:44 to go, but San Diego State used a 9-0 run to take a 64-61 lead.

It was a seesaw battle down the stretch with SDSU tying the score, 77-77, with 2:11 to play after a Mitchell bucket. With just over a minute remaining, the Broncos led by four only to have Pope slash the deficit in half with 59 seconds to go.

San Diego State forced a turnover on Boise State's next possession and Jalen McDaniels made one of two free throws to help the Aztecs get to within one point. Mitchell, however, made a play on the ball in the inbounds play, but the officials ruled it an intentional foul, sending Hutchison to the free-throw line where he made both attempts, giving the ball back to the Broncos.

Down by three points with 15 seconds left, SDSU fouled Hutchison, who this time missed the front end of a 1-and-1 situation.

Then with 12 seconds left, both Devin Watson and Mitchell missed game-tying threes to send the Aztecs home with the loss.

Watson led the team with 19 points and eight assists. Pope had 18 points and nine rebounds. McDaniels added 16 points.

San Diego State 73
Jan. 17, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,358

SAN DIEGO - SDSU missed 12 free throws and let a 10-point second-half lead slip away in a 77-73 home loss to Fresno State.

The first half was a hotly contested battle with the entire 20 minutes featuring a score that was no bigger than a two-possession contest. The Aztecs, however, ended the first half on a 7-0 run to take a 40-36 lead.

After the break, SDSU came out firing on all cylinders thanks to Matt Mitchell's hot hand. First, the freshman made two free throws to open the half and went on to make back-to-back jumpers to help keep the Aztecs' lead at four.

Mitchell's final basket helped spur an 8-0 run to move SDSU out in front, 52-42, with 15:46 to go. Fresno State briefly halted the Aztecs with a Nate Grimes layup, but Devin Watson converted a pair of free throws to get SDSU's lead back to 10.

The Bulldogs stayed within striking distance, ultimately taking a 63-62 lead with 6:49 left. Just over 90 seconds later, Mitchell cashed in on a three-point play to put the Aztecs up, 68-65. Fresno State, however, leveled the score on a Sam Bittner triple and took a four-point lead thanks to four Ray Bowles free throws.

Trey Kell (three-pointer) and Jalen McDaniels (two free throws) helped the Aztecs get back to within one in the final 1:21, but each time Jaron Hopkins extended the Bulldogs' lead, once on a jumper and the other time on a free throw.

SDSU had a chance to tie the game with 30 seconds left, but Watson's layup attempt was blocked by Grimes and Deshon Taylor made two free throws to provide the final margin.

McDaniels led the Aztecs with 14 points and 13 rebounds. Kell finished with 14 points and Mitchell added 13.

Grimes, meanwhile, had 15 points, 10 rebounds and four blocked shots for Fresno State. Deshon Taylor poured in a game-high 22 points.

San Diego State 75
Jan. 20, 2018 ◆ Albuquerque, N.M.
Dreamstyle Arena ◆ Att.: 11,418

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - For the second straight game, San Diego State let a 10-point second-half lead evaporate as New Mexico clawed back to win at home, 79-75.

The Aztecs led by as many as 13 points in the first half thanks to a 7-1 run that started with a Malik Pope jumper with 6:16 left in the first half. He later went on to convert a three-point play before Max Montana capped the run with basket of his own.

New Mexico ended the spurt with a layup by Makuach Maluach, but Nolan Narain made two free throws to push SDSU's lead back to 13 with 4:09 left in the first half.

The Aztecs twice led by 13 down the stretch, the last of which came on a Montana trey with 1:51 left. By the time the halftime horn went off, SDSU led, 48-38.

New Mexico closed to within four points with 12:35 left in the second half, but Jordan Schakel silenced the crowd with one of his two three-pointers. Not a minute later, the Lobos cut their deficit to three only to have Matt Mitchell follow Schakel with a triple of his own to put SDSU ahead, 63-57.

New Mexico used a 13 for 29 clip on three-pointers to stay close to the Aztecs. After Mitchell's three, the Lobos surrounded two Pope free throws with treys to get to within two.

With the clock showing 2:59, Antino Jackson drained a three-pointer that gave New Mexico a 75-73 lead. Devin Watson found Pope on an alley-oop to level the score, but Jackson answered with a jumper with 22 seconds left to propel the Lobos to a two-point advantage.

Watson then brought the ball up and missed his jumper with three seconds to go. Joe Furstinger subsequently hit a pair of free throws to put the game out of reach.

Pope and Watson led SDSU with 16 points. Jalen McDaniels added 13 for a team that made 13 of 15 from the free-throw line.

Jan. 24, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,144

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State had seven players post double-digit scoring totals and collectively shot 55.6 percent from the field to help beat Colorado State in wire-to-wire fashion, 97-78.

Max Montana tied his career high with five three-pointers as he finished with a team-best 20 points. Trey Kell battled pneumonia to score 17 points, Matt Mitchell had 15, Jalen McDaniels and Devin Watson each turned in 11, while Malik Pope added 10.

The score was tied at 14-14 in the early going before Montana made a pair of threes to spark a 14-2 run to put the Aztecs up, 28-16, with 7:48 left in the first half.

The Rams managed to cut their deficit to five points with 3:16 remaining in the period, but SDSU closed the half by outscoring the visitors, 11-2, to take a 47-33 lead at intermission.

Both teams traded points in the opening minutes of the second half, but the Aztecs surrounded the first media timeout with an 8-0 run to push their lead to 20 points. Then in span of 80 seconds, SDSU watched its lead balloon to 27 points after a Watson trey.

Colorado State would not get closer than 20 points the rest of the way. In fact, the three times the Rams closed to within 20, San Diego State had an answer on its next possession.

The Rams, who were without the services of their top scorer (Prentiss Nixon), were led by Anthony Bonner's 22 points and Nico Carvacho's 14 points and 12 rebounds.

San Diego State's 97 points represented a season high and the second-most scored in a Mountain West game in school history. The Aztecs had 25 assists on 35 baskets, marking the second time this season they set a school record for most assists in an MW game. SDSU also connected on 13 three-pointers for the second time this season, which was also the second most in a Mountain West game for any Aztec team in the 19-year history of the league.

Game 20

UNLV 88
San Diego State 78
Jan. 27, 2018 ◆ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ◆ Att.: 11,137

LAS VEGAS - San Diego State could not extend its 11-game series winning streak over UNLV, falling to the Runnin' Rebels, 88-78, at Thomas & Mack Center.

The Aztecs, who had won seven straight road games over UNLV, started slow out of the gates and lost Trey Kell by the 3:20 mark of the first half.

The Rebels scored the first four points, all in the paint by Brandon McCoy, and led, 9-2, when Kell rebounded a Jovan Mooring three-point misfire and turned his ankle while completing the play. He was replaced by Jeremy Hemsley and did not return.

Hemsley scored four of SDSU's next six points to help the Aztecs trim their deficit to 15-8, but the home team answered with four consecutive points to extend its lead to 11.

A 10-2 run capped by a pair of Hemsley free throws got the Aztecs to within a pair, but UNLV answered and moved out in front by six. SDSU thrice took a one-point lead with under 2:30 to go and ultimately went into the locker room tied at 38.

Similar to the start of the game, the Rebels were hot after halftime, outscoring the visitors, 10-3, to pull ahead, 48-41. SDSU leveled the score, but UNLV responded with six straight points.

The Rebels enjoyed a comfortable lead as the clock wound down and led, 75-63, with 6:31 left. SDSU, however, had one last run in them, answering with a 12-2 spurt in a matter of 1:38, helped by consecutive threes from Malik Pope, Devin Watson and Max Montana.

UNLV scored six straight points to extinguish the Aztec threat and the Rebels went on to claim the 10-point victory.

Hemsley finished with a season-high 19 points and Pope turned in 14 points and eight rebounds. UNLV, which shot 58.6 percent from the field, was led by Shakur Juiston's 12 points, 11 rebounds, five assists and four blocked shots, while McCoy chipped in 21 points and seven boards.

Game 21

San Diego State 81
Air Force 50
Feb. 3, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,482

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State had four players reach the double-digit scoring plateau and shot 51.9 percent from the field to defeat Air Force, 81-50, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs were led by Jalen McDaniels' 16 points and career-high 13 rebounds, while Jeremy Hemsley added 14 points. Hemsley started for the fifth time this season due to Trey Kell's left ankle injury suffered at UNLV. In addition, Devin Watson and Max Montana both contributed 13 points and were a combined 6 for 11 from three-point distance.

San Diego State never trailed in the game and enjoyed a 35-21 lead at halftime. After 20 minutes of action, SDSU was 12 for 24 from the field, including an 8 for 16 effort from behind the three-point arc.

In the second half, McDaniels got going offensively after making his only attempt from the field in the first period. Over the last 20 minutes, the freshman was 6 for 9 from the floor and collected seven boards to post his fifth double-double of the season.

SDSU took a 63-40 lead into the final five minutes and scored nine points in 58 seconds, the last four of which were posted to McDaniels' stat line. The Aztecs later enjoyed their biggest lead, 36 points, after Montana made his third three-pointer with 1:31 remaining before settling for the 31-point victory. The winning margin matched the Aztecs' largest over the Falcons in a home game in series history.

Air Force was led by Lavelle Scottie's 16 points, while Ryan Swan added a team-high seven rebounds.

Game 22

Fresno State 79
San Diego State 61
Feb. 6, 2018 ◆ Fresno, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 6,128

FRESNO, Calif. - San Diego State let the final six-plus minutes of the first half get away from them and never recovered in a 79-61 road loss at Fresno State.

Neither team led by more than three points in the first 13 minutes. SDSU led, 16-13, as late as 10:06 left in the first half, while Fresno State led, 20-17, with 7:12 to go.

Matt Mitchell leveled the score at 20-20 with a trey just as the game clock dipped under 6:30, but that would be as close as the Aztecs would get. The Bulldogs' Bryson Williams gave the home side the lead and moments later, Jalen McDaniels turned the ball over on the inbounds, which led to another Williams layup.

Fresno State's four straight points spearheaded a 10-0 run, which was temporarily stopped by a Nolan Narain field goal. However, the basket was merely a speedbump as the Bulldogs kept the pressure on with five Ray Bowles points. SDSU outscored FS, 4-2, all on free throws, in the final three minutes to pull within 37-26 at halftime.

San Diego State found itself down by 14 points right out of the second-half gate as Sam Bittner nailed a three-pointer, but trailed, 51-39, with 13:40 to play. Jeremy Hemsley, however, started an Aztec rally with a trey, which later led to a Mitchell layup to cut SDSU's deficit to seven points.

Fresno State answered with a 21-8 run to push its lead to 20 points with under five minutes to play to effectively kill any thoughts of a San Diego State comeback. Malik Pope and Devin Watson scored on SDSU's final two possessions to provide the game its final margin.

Mitchell led the Aztecs with 16 points, Watson had 14, and Pope, who fought foul trouble all night, contributed 10 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Hemsley, meanwhile, scored 13 points in his second straight start for the injured Trey Kell (ankle).

Game 23

No. 23/23 Nevada 83
San Diego State 58
Feb. 10, 2018 ◆ Reno, Nev.
Lawlor Events Center ◆ Att.: 10,134

RENO, Nev. - Despite forcing a tie intermission, San Diego State was unable to overcome a slow second half in an 83-58 road defeat at No. 23/23 Nevada.

The start of the game was promising for the Aztecs as Matt Mitchell knocked down his first two three-point attempts to help the visitors take a 6-2 lead before the game was two minutes old.

Midway through the first half, Devin Watson nailed one of his two treys to give SDSU another four-point lead, this time at 20-16, with 10:06 to play. The Wolf Pack, however, answered with 10 straight points to take a six-point lead.

Undeterred, the Aztecs roared back with a Jalen McDaniels dunk, a three by Max Montana and a jumper from Mitchell to move out in front, 27-26. Nevada responded with another 6-0 run, but Jeremy Hemsley scored SDSU's next eight points in a 61-second span. A Wolf Pack three by Caleb Martin with 1:10 left tied the game at halftime.

Seven unanswered points by Nevada put SDSU in a quick hole, but similar to the first half, it came back with a Mitchell bucket and a Watson three to narrow the gap to 42-40 with 16:47 left. Lindsey Drew gave Nevada a five-point cushion two possessions later and Watson cut into the Aztecs' deficit with a jumper. SDSU's three-point disadvantage would be as close as it would get the rest of the way as the Wolf Pack embarked on a 12-3 run to pull away.

SDSU shot 33.9 percent from the field, its lowest mark of the season, and only made 28.1 percent of its field-goal attempts in the second half. On the flip side, Nevada shot 50 percent in the final 20 minutes and finished at 46.7 percent for the night.

Mitchell led the Aztecs with 12 points and Malik Pope grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds. Jordan Caroline led Nevada with 26 points and Kendall Stephens added 21. Drew narrowly missed a triple-double with 12 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists.

Game 24

San Diego State 87
Wyoming 77
Feb. 14, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 10,494

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State's bench outscored Wyoming's reserves, 40-1, to help the Aztecs defeat the Cowboys, 87-77, at Viejas Arena. The win snapped SDSU's two-game slide.

The Aztecs had two players, Jordan Schakel and Nolan Narain, come off the bench and score in double figures in the first half. Schakel posted a career-high 11 points, while Narain matched his career best with 10 points.

Schakel made all three attempts from beyond the arc in the first half. His first gave San Diego State a nine-point lead, the second a 14-point advantage and his third came with five seconds left in the half, which gave the Aztecs a 53-31 cushion at intermission. As for Narain, his 10 points came in eight minutes and included his second three-pointer of the year.

Wyoming made it a game in the second half, trimming a 22-point deficit down to nine with 5:02 left in the game. SDSU's veterans, Malik Pope and Jeremy Hemsley, however, scored on back-to-back possessions to help the Aztecs keep a double-figure lead.

Hayden Dalton, who scored 20 points, got the Cowboys to within 83-75 with 2:42 to go, but Jalen McDaniels answered with a basket 41 seconds later and Pope added two free throws, the last of which gave the senior 1,000 career points and a 12-point lead.

On the next possession, Wyoming looked to Hunter Maldonado, but Pope sent his shot into the stands to preserve the lead and the game.

Narain ended with a career-high 18 points and Schakel finished with 14. McDaniels added 16 points, Devin Watson had 13 and Pope contributed 10 on a night where the Aztecs shot 53.2 percent from the floor.

Dalton, who went for 36 points, 15 rebounds and five assists in the first meeting, only shot 5 for 15 from the floor with four rebounds. Justin James led all scorers with 26 points and Alan Herndon recorded a double-double (17 points, 10 rebounds).

San Diego State 94
UNLV 56
Feb. 17, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,180

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State led wire-to-wire and handed UNLV a 94-56 loss at Viejas Arena. The 38-point margin of victory was the largest by any team in the history of the series.

SDSU jumped on the Runnin' Rebels from the start, scoring the game's first six points and took a 10-2 lead on a Jalen McDaniels layup, which forced UNLV to call timeout.

Coming out of the first break, the Rebels scored five quick points to get within three and later cut their deficit to one point after a Jordan Johnson three-pointer with 13:15 remaining in the first.

However, the Aztecs, responded with nine unanswered points, getting six off three-pointers by Max Montana and Jordan Schakel. UNLV got back to within six, but Malik Pope and Nolan Narain hit back-to-back treys, and Pope added a dunk to push SDSU's lead to 14.

UNLV's Jovan Mooring nailed a three-pointer of his own to help the Rebels cut their deficit to 11 points, but that would be as close as the visitors would get the rest of the way. SDSU took a 48-28 lead into halftime.

The Aztecs still led by 20 points at the first media timeout of the second half and just over three minutes later, their lead swelled to 31 points. SDSU kept its foot on the gas and did not let UNLV get any closer than 25 points for the balance of the game.

Matt Mitchell led all scorers with 21 points and McDaniels contributed 18 points, a game-high 12 rebounds and a career-high three assists. Pope and Montana added 17 points apiece with the latter connecting on a career-high-tying five three-pointers.

SDSU, which shot 50.7 percent from the field, was stout defensively, holding UNLV's leading scorer and rebounder, Brandon McCoy, to nine points and six rebounds.

Game 26

San Diego State 67
Air Force 56
Feb. 21, 2018 ◆ USAF Academy, Colo.
Clune Arena ◆ Att.: 1,868

USAF ACADEMY, Colo. - Matt Mitchell scored 11 points in the first 2:58 of the second half to help San Diego State turn a three-point halftime lead into a 14-point advantage in a 67-56 road win at Air Force.

Malik Pope converted a three-point play with 8.0 seconds left before halftime and Mitchell opened the second period with a trey. A dunk by Jalen McDaniels followed with Mitchell surrounding a Ryan Swan layup with two additional three-pointers. The freshman put the finishing touches on a 13-2 second-half-opening run with a dribble-drive layup, which put SDSU ahead, 39-25.

After Air Force called for a timeout and Lavelle Scottie made a three, McDaniels and Trey Kell scored on back-to-back possessions to push SDSU's lead to 15 points.

The Falcons' ability to make three-pointers kept them in the game as they made four in the second half that cut their deficit to single digits. Air Force, however, never got closer than eight points and faced a single-digit deficit (9 points) with as few as 2:32 left in the game.

San Diego State was turnover-prone in the early going, committing six in the first 8:45 of the game. The Aztecs shored up their ball-handling after that, committing just four turnovers the rest of the way.

Mitchell led all players with 17 points and was 6 for 7 from the field, including a 4-for-5 effort from three-point distance. Pope, meanwhile, had 13 points and five rebounds. Senior classmate Trey Kell posted a game- and career-high eight assists and had just one turnover in 29 minutes.

All nine Aztecs who played scored at least four points and each of them had at least one rebound and one field goal made.

Swan led the Falcons with 11 points and CJ Siples had 10.

Game 27

San Diego State 71
San José State 59
Feb. 24, 2018 ◆ San Jose, Calif.
The Event Center ◆ Att.: 2,642

SAN JOSE, Calif. - San Diego State used a second-half surge to pull away from San José State, 71-59, at The Event Center.

The Aztecs enjoyed a 45-43 lead with 10:55 left in the second half when Max Montana knocked down a three-pointer. Underneath the hoop, Jalen McDaniels was fouled and went to the free-throw line where he converted both attempts to complete the five-point play.

The Spartans responded with a bucket on the next possession, but SDSU scored six unanswered points with three coming off another Montana trey to open up an 11-point advantage with 6:35 to go.

SJSU scored the next four points to get within seven, but that would be as close as the Spartans would get the rest of the way. Montana would go on to make two additional three-pointers to tie his career high of five.

The Aztecs needed all five of Montana's second-half three-pointers and their five-point play after enduring a sluggish first half. SDSU shot just 36 percent from the floor and allowed the hosts to shoot 39.3 percent. Toward the end of the opening period, San Diego State appeared to be headed to the locker room with a five-point lead only to have Jalen James beat the halftime horn with a layup that whittled the Aztec lead to three points.

McDaniels led San Diego State with 16 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high three blocked shots. The freshman also made all 10 of his free-throw attempts. Montana finished with 15 points in 19 minutes, Matt Mitchell scored 12 and Devin Watson added 10 points and four assists. Trey Kell, meanwhile, filled the stat sheet with six points, six rebounds, a career-high nine assists and three steals. Nolan Narain, who made his first career start, had eight points in 18 minutes.

2018 MOUNTAIN WEST CHAMPIONS | MW-RECORD 11 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Game 28

San Diego State 72
Boise State 64
Feb. 27, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 11,211

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State held Boise State to its lowest conference point total and field-goal percentage this season, and it resulted in its worst Mountain West defeat of the campaign as the Aztecs emerged with the 72-64 victory at Viejas Arena.

The Broncos were seemingly not poised to set futility records in the first half, shooting 48.0 percent from the floor, including a 6-for-14 effort from three-point distance. SDSU, meanwhile, shot 53.8 percent in the opening 20 minutes, but made just one of its nine attempts from behind the arc, which led the Aztecs to go into halftime only up, 38-37.

In the second half, San Diego State was much better on the defensive end, holding the Broncos to 30.4-percent shooting and 2-of-13 from deep. SDSU's shooting, however, slipped itself, but the Aztecs made 14-of-20 from the free-throw line after making all nine attempts in the first half.

Boise State overcame its one-point halftime deficit on two different occasions in the second half, taking one-point leads before the first media timeout. SDSU responded by scoring seven straight points on its way to a 12-2 run that put it ahead, 54-46.

San Diego State enjoyed a lead no bigger than eight points over the next several minutes and the Broncos cut their deficit to four points with 4:15 to play. The Aztecs scored the next three points, but a Lexus Williams trey put the visitors three behind the hosts with 2:12 remaining.

SDSU scored six of the game's final eight points to avenge an earlier loss to Boise State, one in which Chandler Hutchison scored 44 points. In the rematch, the Aztecs held the senior to 4-of-14 shooting and 18 points. BSU shot 39.6 percent for the game.

Jalen McDaniels led San Diego State with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Devin Watson added 13 points and four assists with no turnovers in 33 minutes.

San Diego State 79
No. 21/21 Nevada 74
March 3, 2018 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State was led by its senior class in its final regular-season home game as the Aztecs defeated No. 21/21 Nevada, 79-74, in front of a sold-out crowd at Viejas Arena.

Trey Kell, Malik Pope and Kameron Rooks were recognized prior to the game, started and delivered. Kell had a team-high 17 points and a career-high nine assists with five rebounds. Pope added 16 points, five rebounds and a season-high four assists. Rooks, meanwhile, made all six of his field-goal attempts en route to 12 points with six rebounds and a season-high three blocked shots.

Their contributions were needed against the outright regular-season champions, who led by 10 points with 5:22 to go in the first half. San Diego State, however, answered with a 14-2 period-ending run to take a 36-34 lead at halftime. Both teams shot the ball well with the Wolf Pack connecting on 55.6 percent from floor (4-8 3FG) and the Aztecs hitting at a 53.3-percent clip.

In the second half, SDSU used a 10-2 run to turn a 40-40 game into a 50-42 lead, but Nevada stayed close with a 6-0 answer of its own.

San Diego State made it a game of runs as it scored the next five points to move out in front by seven, but Nevada responded with another five points. A 10-1 Aztec run put the home side in front, 65-54, with 7:52 to go, but the Wolf Pack was not done. They closed to within, 74-72, with 1:07 to play only to have the SDSU seniors complete the mission.

Kell made two free throws, and after a Jordan Caroline basket, hit a step-back jumper to put SDSU ahead by four points with 41 seconds left. Pope made 1-of-2 free throws, but Caleb Martin made it a three-point game with eight seconds left. After that, Kell made two free throws to ice the game.

Both teams finished at 49.2-percent shooting for the game. Caroline led all players with 29 points.

Fresno State scored the next seven points of the game, including a 3-pointer by Deshon Taylor with 1:41 remaining, before calling a time-out.

San Diego State responded on a 6-1 run to close the game, making all four of its free-throw attempts.

The win was the 20th of the season for the Aztecs, their 12th 20-win campaign over the last 13 seasons.

[5] San Diego State 90
[1] No. 22/22 Nevada 73
March 9, 2018 ◆ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ◆ Att.: 8,224

LAS VEGAS - Fifth-seeded San Diego State jumped out to a 30-point lead at the half and cruised to a 90-73 victory over No. 22/22 and top-seeded Nevada in a semifinal game at the 2018 Mountain West tournament.

The Aztecs, who defeated the Wolf Pack, 79-74, in San Diego just six days earlier, shot 61.3 percent (19-31) in the first half, including 7 of 15 (46.7 pct.) from three-point range. The 30-point lead at the half was the largest by an unranked team against a ranked team since the 2001 NCAA tournament when Butler led No. 23 Wake Forest, 43-10.

The win clinched a fourth title game appearance for SDSU in five years, and for the eighth time in 10 seasons.

Devin Watson had 20 points, and Jalen McDaniels had his ninth double-double of the season with 17 points and 12 rebounds to lead the Aztecs. Malik Pope (14 points), Matt Mitchell (13 points) and Trey Kell (11 points, 5 assists) also reached double-figures in scoring for SDSU.

San Diego State limited the regular-season conference champion to just 39.7 percent (27-68) shooting from the floor, including a season-low 24.1 percent (7-29) from behind the 3-point arc.

SDSU's 55 points in the first half were a Mountain West tournament record and San Diego State trailed for only 42 seconds in the game.

Additionally, the Aztecs converted eight Nevada turnovers into 14 points, while they outscored the Wolf Pack 14-3 with second-chance points.

Game 32

[5] San Diego State 82
[3] New Mexico 75
March 10, 2018 ◆ Las Vegas, Nev.
Thomas & Mack Center ◆ Att.: 8,456

LAS VEGAS - Trey Kell scored 21 of his 28 points in the second half, including 11 down the stretch, to lift fifth-seeded San Diego State over third-seeded New Mexico, 82-75, in the MW Championship game.

The Aztecs captured their conference-record fifth MW tournament title and first since 2011. SDSU's 11 overall MW championships are also the most in league history.

Trailing, 63-57, with 7:35 left in the game, Kell hit a pair of free throws, Jeremy Hemsley buried a three-pointer and Max Montana completed a four-point play after being fouled on his trey, igniting a 15-2 run. Suddenly, San Diego State was back in front, 72-65, with 3:57 remaining.

For his efforts, Kell was named the MW tournament MVP, the fourth SDSU player to win the award in league history (also Randy Holcomb in 2002, Marcus Slaughter in 2006 and Kawhi Leonard in 2010).

Kell's 28 points matched the most by a San Diego State player in MW tournament history (also Billy White vs. New Mexico on March 3, 2010 and Brandon Heath vs. Air Force on March 10, 2005).

It was the ninth consecutive win for the Aztecs, who also received 16 points from Malik Pope, and 12 points and five assists from Devin Watson. Pope surpassed Heath for the most points in league tournament history by a San Diego State player with 152, while Watson's play earned him a spot on the MW all-tournament team with Kell.

SDSU limited the Lobos, who came into the game ranked fifth in the country with 11.1 3-pointers per game, to just 33.3 percent (8-for-24) from the three-point line.

San Diego State also snapped a three-game losing streak to UNM in the MW tournament.

Game 33

[6] No. 21/19 Houston 67
[11] San Diego State 65
March 15, 2018 ◆ Wichita, Kan.
INTRUST Bank Arena ◆ Att.: 14,019

WICHITA, Kan. - No. 11-seed San Diego State had a three-point attempt with 1.2 seconds left to win the game, but Trey Kell's shot was off the mark as the Aztecs' rally fell short in a 67-65 loss to sixth-seeded Houston in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU trailed, 39-29, at halftime and by as many as 13 points in the second half before it made its furious comeback.

The Aztecs were betrayed by their poor free-throw shooting in a first half that saw them make just 7-of-13 from the charity stripe. San Diego State was not much better in the second, but the quantity made up for its slightly improved success rate (14 of 22).

After facing its largest deficit of the night, Jeremy Hemsley knifed through the paint for a bucket and Houston responded with a Rob Gray free throw. SDSU then began its free-throw exhibition, scoring its next 10 points from the line, while missing just two over the ensuing 2:55 to make it a five-point Cougar lead.

During that stretch and beyond, Gray was Houston's only offense as he scored 11 consecutive points. By the time someone other than Gray scored for the Cougars, SDSU closed to within four points with 4:08 to play.

San Diego State finally tied the game with 1:06 remaining on a Devin Watson trey, but Gray answered with a three of his own. As the pace picked up after the Gray triple, Watson made another three-pointer, this time with 31 seconds left, tying the score at 65.

Houston held for the last shot, which ended with Gray twisting in the paint for a lay-up with 1.2 seconds left. SDSU called for time and Matt Mitchell threw a length-of-the-court pass to the top of the three-point line where Kell grabbed the ball, turned and shot, but the attempt was not on target.

Gray, who scored 19 of UH's final 20 points, finished with a career-high 39. Jalen McDaniels led SDSU with 18 points and nine boards, while Malik Pope had 11 points and 11 rebounds.

SDSU Division I Era Stats

The following pages reflect the career statistics of all SDSU players for the Division I era (from the 1970-71 season to present). The statistics below represent career totals for only those seasons which were played at the Division I level. Furthermore, foul outs (1972), assists (1973), minutes (1979), steals (1979), blocked shots (1979), turnovers (1979) and game started (in 1979) have only recently been kept. Those stats are only listed below if they were kept during the players' entire career. The three-point field goal was added prior to the 1986-87 season. All years below refer to the year in which the season ended (e.g. the 2003-04 season is listed as 04). W - indicates number of SDSU victories in which the player participated (includes all players since the 1975-76 season).

McArthur Court ◆ Att.: 9,100

EUGENE, Ore. -- Richard Washington, a 1976 second-team All-American, and Marques Johnson, the 1977 player of the year, combined for 44 points as UCLA defeated SDSU, 74-64, in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

The Aztecs gave the Bruins a game, trailing by just three points at intermission and using a 12-4 run to close to within eight with just under four minutes left.

SDSU's Academic All-American Steve Copp led the Aztecs with 20 points and 11 rebounds. Bob Kovach (11), Will Connelly (11) and Allen Bunting (10) also scored in double figures for the Aztecs. Washington led all scorers with 25 points for UCLA.

'82 NIT

UC Irvine 70, San Diego State 69
March 12, 1982 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
San Diego Sports Arena ◆ Att.: 8,114

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State's rally from an 11-point second-half deficit fell short as UC Irvine claimed a 70-69 victory in the first round of the NIT.

The Aztecs, who never led after the opening five minutes of the game, trailed 63-55 with eight minutes remaining before an 11-4 run cut the deficit to 67-66 with 2:49 remaining. SDSU trailed 70-69 and had an opportunity to win, but Don Plummer was unable to convert on a 21-foot jumper at the buzzer.

Plummer led the Aztecs with 19 points and added seven rebounds. Keith Smith had eight points while dishing out 13 assists for San Diego State.

The Anteaters shot 60.9 percent from the field while holding SDSU to only 43.7 percent shooting. However, the Aztecs countered with an aggressive defense that led to 13 steals and 19 UCI turnovers. SDSU also outrebounded the Anteaters 36-30, but only managed to shoot 7 of 13 from the line.

The Aztecs trailed by as many as 13 in the first half, but tied the game at 56 with under 10 minutes remaining. UNLV rebuilt the lead but SDSU did not give in to the more athletic Rebels as it cut the deficit to three, when Anthony Watson hit a jumper with 1:02 left. The Aztecs were forced to foul down the stretch and UNLV knocked down the free throws to secure the victory.

Leonard Allen poured in a game-high 23 points for SDSU and Anthony Watson scored 19. Fowards Michael Kennedy and John Martens also cracked double-figures as they added 11 points apiece.

The Rebels were led by Armon Gilliam, who posted 21 points and 10 rebounds. Ritchie Adams, the Rebels' leading scorer on the season, was saddled with foul trouble from the start of the game and finished with 10 points in only 23 minutes of action.

San Diego State 67, UC Santa Barbara 62 (ot)
March 19, 2003 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena at Aztec Bowl ◆ Att.: 5,390

SAN DIEGO -- SDSU needed overtime to win its first Division I postseason game, claiming a 67-62 NIT first-round victory over UC Santa Barbara.

Tony Bland, who became the third Aztec player to reach 1,000 points in just two seasons, sent the game into extra time by going the length of the floor to hit a bank shot with 1.9 seconds left. Then with 1:15 left in overtime, Tommy Johnson put SDSU ahead for good at 63-60 with a 3-pointer as the Aztecs closed the game with a 13-2 run.

In its sixth postseason appearance in 33 years at the Division I level, the Aztecs overcame their largest halftime deficit of the season (32-22) snapping a three-game losing streak, limiting UCSB to just 62 points and 42.6 percent shooting.

After a dunk by Evan Burns with 5:58 left in the first half, UCSB closed out the opening period with a 14-1 run to take a 10-point lead into the half. The Gauchos scored the first basket of the second half before Bland jumpstarted the Aztecs with a free throw and layup to start a 10-0 run.

The game was tied at 50 with five minutes left and both teams buckled down defensively.

The Gauchos scored the first six points of overtime before SDSU's game-ending run, which included six straight Mike Mackell points to tie the game at 60 and set up Johnson's heroics.

'06 NCAA Tournament

Indiana 87, San Diego State 83
March 16, 2006 ◆ Salt Lake City, Utah
Huntsman Center ◆ Att.: 15,122

SALT LAKE CITY -- Making its third postseason appearance in five years, 11th-seeded San Diego State fell 87-83 to sixth-seeded Indiana in a nailbiter in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

The Hoosiers led by as many as nine points with just over six minutes remaining in the first half until Brandon Heath hit a three-pointer with 55 seconds left to give SDSU a one-point lead. As the half came to a close, Mohamed Abukar made a layup, giving the Aztecs a three-point cushion heading into halftime, despite hitting 62.1 percent of their field goals.

As the second half began, San Diego State started to pull away as it built a pair of 10-point leads, the last coming with 11:44 left in the contest.

Indiana chipped away at the Aztecs' lead and eventually tied the game at 76 with just under four minutes remaining. But just as it had all evening, SDSU pulled ahead until Heath lost the ball near midcourt with 55 seconds left, forcing a jumpball situation that the Hoosiers wound up winning.

After an Indiana timeout, the ensuing play saw Robert Vaden, who had 18 points, hit a three-point field goal giving the Hoosiers a two-point advantage with the clock showing five seconds.

On the inbounds play, Abukar sailed a pass out of bounds and the Aztecs fouled on the next possession sending IU to the line where they connected on both free-throw attempts to end the game.

Abukar led all scorers with 24 points and also had nine rebounds. Heath scored 15 with Marcus Slaughter contributing 13 points and 10 rebounds.

San Diego State 74, Missouri State 70
March 14, 2007 ◆ Springfield, Mo.
Hammons Student Center ◆ Att.: 4,234

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. -- SDSU captured just its second Division I postseason victory as it defeated Missouri State on the road, 74-70, in the first round of the NIT.

SDSU and MSU struggled early to keep the game close. The Aztecs were particularly sloppy as they committed eight turnovers in the first eight minutes. However, the Bears did not make their run until the 10-minute mark, outscoring the Aztecs, 14-4, to go up by eight with 7:49 left.

San Diego State responded with 11 unanswered points and closed out the half on an 18-5 run to head into the locker room with a 34-29 lead.

The Aztecs maintained its lead and watched it balloon to eight on a Brandon Heath jumper with 15:14 on the clock.

With the game tied at 49, MSU caught fire and enjoyed a six-point advantage with 7:26 left. But as it did before, SDSU used a 15-4 run, giving it a 69-64 cushion going into the final minutes.

The Bears fought back, eventually tying it at 70 with 41 seconds remaining. After an Aztec timeout, Heath connected on a three with one second left on the shot clock and seven seconds on the game clock.

With an opportunity to trim the Aztecs' lead, Nathan Bilyeu missed two free throws and Jer'Vaughn Johnson made one of two from the line to put the game out of reach.

Syracuse 80, San Diego State 64
March 19, 2007 ◆ Syracuse, N.Y.
Carrier Dome ◆ Att.: 26,752

SYRACUSE, N.Y. -- SDSU had its season end in the second round of the NIT as Syracuse downed the Aztecs, 80-64, before a record crowd at the Carrier Dome.

The second-round game between two teams led by national championship coaches in Steve Fisher and Jim Boeheim, attracted an NIT-record 26,752 fans and many went home happy as the home team connected on nine three-pointers and shut down SDSU in the second half.

The Aztecs held their own in the opening period as they trailed by only five points, 38-33, going into the locker room. However, the second half was a different story as the Orange jumped on San Diego State with a 19-7 run to open play and finished it with an 11-0 spurt to take a commanding lead.

At that point, Syracuse was up 59-40 with 13:41 remaining in the game. Unfortunately for the Aztecs, they never got closer than 13 points the rest of the way as the Orange had an answer for every Aztec basket.

Lorrenzo Wade led SDSU with 16 points and eight boards. Playing in their final game as Aztecs, Brandon Heath finished with 15 points and a game-high seven assists, while Mohamed Abukar contributed 14 points.

Florida 73, San Diego State 49
March 19, 2008 ◆ Gainesville, Fla.
O'Connell Center ◆ Att.: 5,188

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- In its third consecutive postseason appearance and its second straight in the NIT, San Diego State was dropped by Florida, 73-49, in a first-round matchup at the O'Connell Center.

The second-seeded Gators never trailed in the game and opened the game on a 7-2 run, before the seventh-seeded Aztecs tied the score at nine with 14:12 remaining in the first half. SDSU, however, would never get closer than three points the rest of the way and Florida went into the half with a 35-23 cushion.

In the second half, the Gators' lead ballooned to 21 points with less than 10 minutes gone. San Diego State managed to cut the lead to 17 points with 5:42 left in the game, but Florida kept the Aztecs at bay as they cruised to the 24-point victory.

For the game, the Gators shot 53.4 percent from the field, including an amazing 63.0 percent in the second half. All five starters shot above 50 percent and Florida's two leading scorers, Marresse Speights (18 points) and Nick Calathes (16 points), combined to shoot 15-for-25.

SDSU, meanwhile, was led by Ryan Amoroso's game-high numbers of 19 points and seven rebounds.

March 20, 2009 ◆ San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO -- Due to the first and second rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament at Cox Arena, top-seeded San Diego State moved its game with fourth-seeded Kansas State to the University of San Diego's Jenny Craig Pavilion and dismissed the Wildcats in the second round of the NIT, 70-52, in front of a capacity crowd of 5,100.

SDSU led for the entire game and was spearheaded by the efforts of Kyle Spain, Richie Williams and Billy White. Spain finished with a game-high 16 points and seven rebounds, while Williams added 14 points and a game-high four steals. White, meanwhile, went 6-for-6 from the field and ended with 15 points.

SDSU led by as many as eight points nearly nine minutes into the game, but allowed K-State to creep back into it after the visitors scored the final five points of the first half to get within two, 27-25, at halftime.

The Wildcats scored the first bucket of the second half to knot the score at 27, but a layup by White gave the Aztecs a lead it would not relinquish. SDSU expanded its lead to 22 on a layup by Ryan Amoroso with 7:53 to go and the rout was on as the Aztecs cruised into the quarterfinals of the NIT.

San Diego State 70, Saint Mary's 66
March 25, 2009 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Cox Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State held its last game of the 2008-09 season at Cox Arena in front of a sold-out crowd of 12,414 for the NIT Quarterfinals against second-seeded Saint Mary's.

The Aztecs got out to an early 16-point lead, holding the Gaels scoreless with 11:07 to play in the first half.

SDSU maintained its lead throughout the game with Saint Mary's tying the score only once during the contest. San Diego State's Richie Williams was able to contain the Gaels' sophomore star, Patrick Mills, to 7-of-24 shooting for the game. Aztec Billy White proved to be a dominating presence in the paint by going 8-for-12 and had a team high of 17 points.

San Diego State went into halftime with an 11-point lead. When the two teams got back into action, the Aztecs continued to roll, scoring 42 of their 70 points in the paint. SDSU benefited from Saint Mary's mistakes by tallying 12 points off turnovers.

National Postseason Tournaments

The Gaels would only tie the score once and were never able to take the lead away from SDSU despite outscoring the Aztecs 38-31 in the second half. In the end, it was San Diego State's speed and Saint Mary's mistakes that would decide the game.

With the win, the Aztecs headed to New York to play at Madison Square Garden. The 26th San Diego State win extended its school record and the marked farthest any SDSU team had advanced in the postseason.

Baylor 76, San Diego State 62
March 31, 2009 ◆ New York, N.Y.
Madison Square Garden ◆ Att.: 11,352

NEW YORK -- SDSU was eliminated in the semifinal round in Madison Square Garden, ending its run for its first NIT Championship in a 76-62 loss to Baylor.

The Aztecs' chances at victory were deflated behind the perimeter as Baylor successfully relied on the 3-point shot, shooting 11-22 from the arc to pull away with a convincing win.

The Bears were anchored by Curtis Jerrells in the first half where he dropped 19 of his 24 points. The Aztecs were able to manage a close game in the opening 11:45 as a basket by Ryan Amoroso gave San Diego State the lead, 21-20.

In the ensuing possession, Baylor's Jerrells hit a three-pointer that ignited a 10-0 run. But SDSU managed to fight back as they closed out the period trailing by one point, 34-35.

Baylor's hot shooting performance proved to be too much in the second half. A layup by Amoroso to start the period was the last lead SDSU enjoyed. Baylor was anchored by another key player, this time by LaceDarius Dunn who scored 14 of his 23 points in the second half and was a vital part of the Bears' 17-4 run.

'10 NCAA Tournament

No. 15/14 Tennessee 62, San Diego State 59
March 18, 2010 ◆ Providence, R.I.
Dunkin' Donuts Center ◆ Att.: 10,788

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- San Diego State had its second-half rally fall short as the 11th-seeded Aztecs dropped a 62-59 decision to sixth-seeded and No. 15/14 Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU found itself down 34-26 at halftime after shooting 32.1 percent from the field, including a 2-for-12 effort from three-point range. Despite the poor shooting, the Aztecs were in the game until a 12-7 Volunteer run to end the half propelled the SEC school to its advantage at intermission.

Coming out of the break, San Diego State methodically chipped away at its deficit and put together a 19-10 scoring run to give the Aztecs a 45-44 lead with 9:20 to go in regulation. The lead was short-lived after Tennessee scored six unanswered points and took a five-point lead.

Over the course of the final 5:13, SDSU stayed within striking distance and cut the Volunteer lead to one point on three different occasions, the last of which saw D.J. Gay connect on three free throws with nine seconds left after Melvin Goins fouled the Aztec guard on a three-point attempt.

Down by one with nine seconds to go, SDSU fouled Wayne Chism, who knocked down both attempts, and gave the Vols a three-point lead. After the successful attempts, San Diego State raced the ball down the court and Kawhi Leonard's three-point attempt was off the mark giving UT the win.

'11 NCAA Tournament

No. 6/5 San Diego State 68,
Northern Colorado 50
March 17, 2011 ◆ Tucson, Ariz.
McKale Center ◆ Att.: 10,101

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State, the No. 2 seed in the West Region, picked up its first-ever Division I NCAA tournament victory with a 68-50 win over 15th-seeded Northern Colorado.

The Aztecs, who were making their seventh NCAA Tournament appearance, snapped a six-game losing streak in the Division I tournament.

San Diego State struggled in the first half as they made just 32.4 percent of its shots, many of which were at the rim. Kawhi Leonard, Billy White and Chase Tapley, however, were effective as they combined for 26 of SDSU's 30 first-half points. Despite getting production from the aforementioned trio, the Aztecs had trouble stopping the Bears, but still led, 30-24, at halftime.

Early in the second half, NC's Devon Beitzel cut the SDSU lead to three with one of his six three-pointers, but the Aztecs had an answer. San Diego State received back-to-back threes from D.J. Gay and James Rahon, a jumper from Rahon, another three from Rahon and a jumper from White to turn in a 13-0 run, which gave SDSU a 16-point lead.

The Bears cut their deficit to 12 after consecutive buckets, but would get no closer as the Aztecs secured a spot in the third round against Temple.

No. 6/5 San Diego State 71,
Temple 64 (2ot)
March 19, 2011 ◆ Tucson, Ariz.
McKale Center ◆ Att.: 11,127

TUCSON, Ariz. - No. 6/5 San Diego State needed two overtime sessions to hold off Temple, 71-64, in the third round of the NCAA tournament.

The Aztecs, who went 15,713 days between NCAA tournament victories and entered the tourney having never won a Division I NCAA tournament game, found themselves with two wins in nearly 50 hours and a spot in the Sweet 16.

Getting to the regional semifinals looked like a lock in the first half as SDSU was rolling and enjoying an 11-point lead with 3:13 left before halftime. Temple, however, closed the gap in a hurry, rattling off six straight points to trail, 36-31, at the break.

In the second half, things still looked promising for the Aztecs as they led, 52-45, with 7:16 remaining in regulation. But as the clock ticked, San Diego State had a hard time finding the bottom of the net and defending the Owls. After Billy White's jumper with 7:16 left, Temple went on a 9-2 run to tie the game at 54. SDSU's Chase Tapley had a chance to win the game in the final seconds, but his driving layup was contested and off the mark.

In the first OT, Juan Fernandez immediately hit a three and scored the Owls' first five points, but Kawhi Leonard answered with four straight points and was followed by a three-point play from Malcolm Thomas. Again, the Aztecs had a chance to win the game in the final moments, but Thomas' baby jumper missed.

In what proved to be the final five minutes, SDSU buckled down defensively and continued to go to the hoop, which resulted in it outscoring Temple, 10-3, to secure the victory.

No. 9/8 UConn 74, No. 6/5 San Diego State 67
March 24, 2011 ✦ Anaheim, Calif.
Honda Center ✦ Att.: 17,890

ANAHEIM, Calif. - No. 6/5 San Diego State was unable to keep its magical NCAA tournament run going as the second-seeded Aztecs dropped a 74-67 decision to No. 3 seed and No. 9/8 Connecticut in the West Regional semifinal at the Honda Center.

SDSU found itself trailing UConn, 36-27, at halftime after shooting 38.7 percent from the field. The Aztecs kept the game close until the Huskies went on a 6-0 run to close out the first half.

San Diego State came out of the break and chipped away at its deficit by putting together a 16-6 scoring run to take a 43-42 lead with 13:05 left in the second half. UConn quickly took the lead back, but SDSU kept within striking distance.

After three ties, the Aztecs appeared to have gained the upper-hand after taking a 53-49 lead with 9:25 remaining in regulation. A technical foul, however, resulted in two momentum-killing free throws. The Huskies slowly regained the lead from there and attempted to put the game out of reach with a 11-2 run.

SDSU, however, clawed its way back to cut the margin to 65-64 on a three-pointer by D.J. Gay. UConn responded once again and finished the game on an 9-3 run to spoil the Aztecs' comeback and clinch the victory.

North Carolina State 79, No. 22/23 San Diego State 65
March 16, 2012 ✦ Columbus, Ohio
Nationwide Arena ✦ Att.: 17,030

COLUMBUS, Ohio — No. 22/23 San Diego State was unable to advance past the second round of the NCAA tournament, dropping a 79-65 decision to No. 11 seed North Carolina State at Nationwide Arena.

SDSU found itself down by just four, 33-29, at the half despite shooting 37.9 percent from the field. The Aztecs, however, shot 40 percent from three-point range compared to the 16.7 percent by the Wolfpack. NC State's 51.9 shooting percentage and 20-13 rebound advantage made up for the lack of three-point shots.

Coming out of the break, San Diego State managed to cut the deficit to one on a three-pointer by Chase Tapley. That would be short lived as North Carolina State used an 8-2 run to extend its lead to 43-36.

The Aztecs kept it close despite being down by as many as nine points and managed to pull within three after scoring on five consecutive possessions. Wolfpack head coach Mark Gottfried then called a timeout that sparked a 9-4 run and extended NC State's lead to 10 with 5:37 remaining.

From there, the Wolfpack never looked back and eventually won by a 14-point margin.

PHILADELPHIA - Seventh-seeded San Diego State rallied from a nine-point first-half deficit to beat 10th-seeded Oklahoma, 70-55, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Wells Fargo Center.

The win marked the third in program history and the third in the last three seasons for SDSU, which was 0-6 in the NCAA tournament prior to the 2011 campaign.

Jamaal Franklin led the way for the Aztecs with 21 points, eight rebounds, five assists and two steals. James Rahon added 17 points in 19 minutes off the bench and DeShawn Stephens collected a career-high 11 boards.

The Sooners broke the game open midway through the first half as a 12-0 surge propelled them to a 23-14 lead with 9:40 to go in the first half. The Aztecs, however, closed on a 17-10 run to trail, 33-31, at halftime.

In the final 20 minutes, SDSU took control of the boards, aided by five offensive and defensive rebounds by Stephens, and subsequently took control of the game.

Oklahoma led 36-35 with 18:03 left in regulation and it marked the final time the Sooners would have the lead. After OU tied the game at 48-48, SDSU went on an 8-0 run and never looked back. Romero Osby temporarily stopped the Aztec surge with a three-pointer, but San Diego State responded with seven unanswered points to move ahead by 12 with 2:11 to play and eventually sealed the 15-point victory.

SDSU finished with a 40-29 rebounding advantage after being minus-2 in the category at halftime. '13 NCAA Tournament

Florida Gulf Coast 81, San Diego State 71
March 24, 2013 ✦ Philadelphia, Pa.
Wells Fargo Center ✦ Att.: 20,125

PHILADELPHIA - Looking to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time in three seasons, seventh-seeded SDSU's bid fell short as it fell to 15th-seeded Florida Gulf Coast, 81-71, in the third round of NCAAs.

With the win, the Eagles became the first 15-seed in NCAA history to reach the Sweet 16. For the Aztecs, the loss ended their season with a 23-11 record.

SDSU received 20 points and 11 rebounds from Jamaal Franklin and Chase Tapley poured in 17 points. James Rahon and DeShawn Stephens, meanwhile, added 12 and 10 points, respectively.

The first half was a fairly close affair. Florida Gulf Coast jumped out to an early 7-2 lead, but San Diego State answered with a 12-0 run to take a five-point lead of its own. No team led by more than four points the rest of the half until a 7-3 SDSU spurt propelled the Aztecs to a 35-29 lead with 2:20 to go. The Eagles, however, closed the first half with five straight points and San Diego State led, 35-34, at halftime.

The game remained tight over the course of the first eight minutes of the second half. An Xavier Thames jumper in the paint brought the Aztecs to within, 54-52, with 11:33 to play. FGCU, however, caught fire from the field and forced San Diego State into quick shots, which turned into a 17-0 Eagles run.

During the deciding the surge, SDSU went scoreless for 7:14 before Thames made a layup with four minutes left in regulation. At this juncture, the Aztecs trailed by 17 and their hole was too deep.

'14 NCAA Tournament

No. 13/11 San Diego State 73, New Mexico State 69
March 20, 2014 ✦ Spokane, Wash.
Spokane Veterans Memorial Arena ✦ Att.: 10,862

SPOKANE, Wash. - San Diego State finally put away a pesky New Mexico State team, outscoring the Aggies, 13-9, in overtime for a 73-69 victory in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

The fourth-seeded Aztecs led by as many as 14 points in the first half, 12 at the break and seven with just 1:01 left in the second half, but 13th-seeded NMSU found a way to comeback and tie the game at 60-60 on a three-pointer by Kevin Aronis with six seconds left.

Xavier Thames had a chance to win it in regulation, but his shot rimmed out as time expired forcing OT.

SDSU, however, took control in the extra session as Thames and Dwayne Polee II scored five points apiece to move San Diego State into the third round against 12th-seeded North Dakota State.

The Aztecs, who never trailed in the game, made 7 of 10 free-throws in overtime to seal the win. SDSU won its eighth straight overtime game and improved to 17-1 over its last 18 overtime contests.

It was the defense that came through once again for San Diego State. The Aztecs had nine blocks, their most ever in an NCAA tournament, eight steals, forced 13 turnovers and held New Mexico State to a season-low 20 points in the first half.

Thames had game-highs of 23 points and five assists, to go along with three steals and two blocks in the win. Polee II had 15 points and six rebounds in 29 minutes off the bench, while Josh Davis recorded 10 points and 14 rebounds.

Skylar Spencer added a career-high four steals and four blocks. His first block of the night gave him the single-season school record.

No. 13/11 San Diego State 63, North Dakota State, 44
March 22, 2014 ✦ Spokane, Wash.
Spokane Veterans Memorial Arena ✦ Att.: 11,623

SPOKANE, Wash. - Xavier Thames scored 30 points to lead fourth-seeded San Diego State past 12th-seeded North Dakota State, 63-44, and into a spot in the Sweet 16 for the second time in program history.

It was the second career 30-point game for Thames and the most points ever in the postseason (NCAA or NIT) by an Aztec player.

Thames was 9 for 19 from the field, including 4 for 9 from the 3-point arc and 8 of 9 from the free-throw line, with five assists. His 30 points were one off a career high of 31, set earlier in the year.

The win was the 31st for SDSU and propelled the team into the Sweet 16 in Anaheim.

San Diego State's defense proved to be too much for the Bison, which came into the game with the top field-goal percentage (51.0) in the country. Additionally, SDSU held NDSU to 31.9 percent shooting and two 3-pointers.

No. 4/5 Arizona 70, No. 13/11 San Diego State 64
March 27, 2014 ✦ Anaheim, Calif.
Honda Center ✦ Att.: 17,773

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Fourth-seeded San Diego State led top-seeded Arizona with under eight minutes to play, was tied with seven minutes left and trailed by one with 3:30 remaining in regulation, but could not pull the upset as the Wildcats came from behind to win, 70-64. The victory sent Arizona to the Elite Eight.

The rematch from the second game of the season was a see-saw affair until SDSU turned a 22-20 deficit into a 29-22 lead. After a Rondae Hollis-Jefferson lay-up to break the 9-0 run, Dwayne Polee II canned a three-pointer to put San Diego State ahead by eight, 32-24.

The Aztecs had an opportunity to put the Wildcats away right before halftime, but missed their final three shots and committed two turnovers. Arizona, meanwhile, scored four points the rest of the way to trail San Diego State by just four at halftime.

Despite the missed chance to pull away, the Aztecs stuck to the game plan in the second half and eventually got their lead back up to eight points with 16:41 left in the second half thanks to six points from Xavier Thames.

In just over two minutes, however, Arizona was back within two. A Thames jumper temporarily halted the Wildcats' momentum, but the teams traded baskets over the next few minutes with Arizona taking its first lead, 50-49 (7:19), since 7:47 left in the first half.

Nick Johnson, the Pac-12 Player of the Year, missed his first nine shots, but with SDSU trailing by three points, Winston Shepard lost control of the ball near midcourt and Johnson was wide open for a lay-up to put Arizona up, 56-51, with 2:44 left. Johnson scored 13 consecutive points for UA and 15 of the team's final 16.

San Diego State 76, St. John's 64
March 20, 2015 ✦ Charlotte, N.C.
Time Warner Cable Arena ✦ Att.: 16,945

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Eighth-seeded San Diego State used a balanced attack to defeat ninth-seeded St. John's, 76-64, in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU shot 47.2 percent from the floor, including 40.9 percent from three-point range, and outrebounded the Red Storm, 40-32, and enjoyed a 13-7 advantage in offensive rebounds to earn a spot in the third round.

The Aztecs were buoyed by an impressive shooting display from deep in the first half. Dwayne Polee II was 4-for-6 and Matt Shrigley was 3-for-3 behind the arc to help San Diego State take a 40-33 lead at halftime.

In the second half, SDSU opened with another three-pointer from Polee II to bump its lead to double figures, a margin the Aztecs would enjoy for most of the period. The Red Storm twice cut its deficit to seven points, the last of which occurred with 6:57 left in regulation. San Diego State, however, answered with six straight points to take a 66-53 lead with 3:22 to go.

St. John's responded by going on a 7-2 spurt to get its hole down to eight points with two minutes left, but SDSU made its next seven free-throws to put the game away.

No. 4/5 Duke 68, San Diego State 49
March 22, 2015 ◆ Charlotte, N.C.
Time Warner Cable Arena ◆ Att.: 18,482

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Eighth-seeded San Diego State could not solve top-seeded Duke's frontline and fell, 68-49, in the third round of the NCAA tournament.

The Blue Devils' front court of Jahlil Okafor and Justise Winslow put up dominating performances. Okafor finished with a game-high 26 points, while adding six rebounds and three blocked shots. Winslow, meanwhile, had 13 points, game highs of 12 rebounds, five assists and four steals, and three blocked shots.

Duke asserted itself early by scoring the first eight points and led, 15-4, after consecutive buckets from Quinn Cook, which forced SDSU to call timeout.

The Blue Devils took a 28-13 lead with 5:15 left in the first half on an Okafor layup. The freshman's basket gave him 14 points, which was one more than SDSU had as a team. San Diego State closed the half on a 7-2 run to make the score 37-24 entering the locker room.

The Aztecs made a run early in the second half, spurred by a pair of Malik Pope three-pointers. After an Okafor jumper to open the period, SDSU embarked on a 13-5 run to cut its deficit to 44-37 with 12:42 left in the game. Cook answered with a three, which was followed by a Winslow dunk and Duke was on its way to a 11-0 run to put the Blue Devils out in front by 18.

Aqeel Quinn made two free-throws to put an end to the spurt, but Duke scored 11 of the game's next 13 points to put the contest away.

In the second half, San Diego State matched its first-half shooting effort, making an identical 16-of-30 shots from the field. Defensively, IPFW made a few more shots than it did in the first, but it was not enough as the Aztecs enjoyed a lead no smaller than 19 points in the final 20 minutes.

Joining Shepard in double figures in scoring was Malik Pope, who had 15 points and eight rebounds, and Dakarai Allen, who finished with 10 points.

'16 NIT

San Diego State 93, Washington 78
March 21, 2016 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State ended the first half on an 18-5 run, turning a three-point SDSU lead into a 16-point cushion and then fended off a second-half Washington run to defeat the visiting Huskies, 93-78, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena crowd.

The Aztecs led by 11 points midway through the first half only to have Washington embark on a 12-4 run to trail, 27-24, with 5:19 left. SDSU, however, answered with a three-pointer from Malik Pope and a dunk from Skylar Spencer to jumpstart the aforementioned 18-5 run, which was punctuated by a Matt Shrigley trey with five seconds left to give the Aztecs a 45-29 lead at halftime.

San Diego State kept its double-digit lead intact for more than the first 10 minutes of the second half. It was when the clock dipped under 12 minutes to play, however, when the Huskies made their run at the Aztecs.

After Angelo Chol made two free throws, Marquese Chriss threw down a dunk to pull Washington to within 16 points. Eight combined misses from both teams highlighted the next minute and a half before Dejounte Murray made a layup to end the drought for both teams.

Washington's four unanswered points turned into an 11-0 run that made it a 69-64 game with 7:21 left in the second half. The Aztecs weathered the storm and had an answer for each Huskies basket and eventually built an 11-point lead with 3:28 to go before winning by 15.

San Diego State 72, Georgia Tech 56
March 23, 2016 ◆ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ◆ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Second-seeded San Diego State went on a 12-4 run that took five minutes off the clock midway through the second half, which opened a 13-point lead, to defeat fourth-seeded Georgia Tech, 72-56, in the quarterfinal round of the NIT inside a sold-out Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs led the Yellow Jackets, 50-45, with 9:57 to go in the game and the score held for the next 1:31 until Dakarai Allen made one free throw. The point was the beginning of the previously mentioned 12-4 run, which helped create the separation SDSU needed to earn a trip to Madison Square Garden.

The Allen free throw led to a jumper from Jeremy Hemsley and a three-pointer from Trey Kell to push the lead to 11. The end of the run culminated in a pair of Allen free throws, which put San Diego State up, 62-49, with 3:30 to play. The Aztecs led by double digits the rest of the way in winning their 28th game of the 2015-16 season.

'16 NIT

George Washington 65, San Diego State 46
March 29, 2016 ◆ New York, N.Y.
Madison Square Garden ◆ Att.: 8,298

NEW YORK - Second-seeded SDSU saw its season come to an end as it fell to fourth-seeded George Washington, 65-46, in the NIT semifinals.

The Aztecs struggled shooting, which denied them a trip to the championship game for the second straight time in the NIT (2009).

SDSU's woes from the outside put them in a tough position at halftime as it trailed the Colonels, 35-20. In the first 20 minutes, the Aztecs connected on just 6-of-25 from the floor, including a 1-for-9 effort from three-point distance. On the other end of the floor, San Diego State did an admirable job, holding GWU to 38.9 percent from the field.

The second half was just a tad bit better offensively for SDSU, but a lot better for George Washington. In the final 20 minutes, the Aztecs shot 32.4 percent from the field, but allowed the Colonels to knock down 12 of their 25 attempts or 48.0 percent.

San Diego State was only outscored by four points in the second half, but its first-half deficit was too much to overcome.

'18 NCAA Tournament

No. 21/19 Houston 67, San Diego State 65
March 15, 2018 ◆ Wichita, Kan.
INTRUST Bank Arena ◆ Att.: 14,019

WICHITA, Kan. - No. 11-seed San Diego State had a three-point attempt with 1.2 seconds left to win the game, but Trey Kell's shot was off the mark as the Aztecs' rally fell short in a 67-65 loss to sixth-seeded Houston in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

SDSU trailed, 39-29, at halftime and by as many as 13 points in the second half before it made its furious comeback.

The Aztecs were betrayed by their poor free-throw shooting in a first half that saw them make just 7 of 13 from the charity stripe. San Diego State was not much better in the second, but the quantity made up for its slightly improved success rate (14-22).

After facing its largest deficit of the night, Jeremy Hemsley knifed through the paint for a bucket and Houston responded with a Rob Gray free throw. SDSU then began its free-throw exhibition, scoring its next 10 points from the line, while missing just two over the ensuing 2:55 to make it a five-point Cougar lead.

During that stretch and beyond, Gray was Houston's only offense as he scored 11 consecutive points. By the time someone other than Gray scored for the Cougars, SDSU closed to within four points with 4:08 to play.

San Diego State finally tied the game with 1:06 remaining on a Devin Watson trey, but Gray answered with a three of his own. As the pace picked up after the Gray triple, Watson made another three-pointer, this time with 31 seconds left, tying the score at 65.

Houston held for the last shot, which ended with Gray twisting in the paint for a lay-up with 1.2 seconds left. SDSU called for time and Matt Mitchell threw a length-of-the-court pass to the top of the three-point line where Kell grabbed the ball, turned and shot, but the attempt was not on target.

Gray, who scored 19 of UH's final 20 points, finished with a career-high 39. Jalen McDaniels led SDSU with 18 points and nine boards, while Malik Pope had 11 points and 11 rebounds.

University

Founded in 1897, SDSU is the oldest and largest higher-education institution in the San Diego region.

Inside:

San Diego State University

San Diego State University has grown and developed through its 121-year history into one of the nation's major public research institutions. Our 36,000 students and over 400,000 alumni are proud to live the ethos "Leadership Starts Here."

The university offers bachelor's degrees in 95 areas, master's degrees in 78 areas and doctorates in 22 areas.

SDSU is committed to diversity and to excellence. Over 54 percent of our undergraduate students are students of color, and the university is nationally recognized for sending 88 students abroad as Fulbright Scholars since 2005, as well as its programs that serve nearly 3,700 military-affiliated students.

Students from all backgrounds have opportunities for transformative educational experiences such as undergraduate research, study abroad, internships and entrepreneurship training.

Classified as a high-research university, SDSU received $134 million in research funding during the 2016-17 fiscal year. Our researchers focus on real-world challenges, and our students benefit from access to cutting-edge technology and engaging in research alongside mentors who are leaders in their fields.

SDSU faculty, staff and students lead the way in fields such as understanding and treating heart disease; engineering brain-controlled robotic devices and alternative energy solutions; studying health issues such as autism, fetal alcohol syndrome and childhood obesity; and learning more about bacteriophages — viruses that kill bacteria and hold important keys to human health problems.

SDSU leverages its strategic location on the Pacific Rim and the border of Latin America to advance international study and research. The university has nearly 400 education programs in 65 countries and is among the nation's leaders in the number of students who study abroad.

Led by our Lavin Entrepreneurship Center and our Zahn Innovation Center, SDSU is recognized as one of the top universities in the nation for entrepreneurship.

SDSU engages our greater community by hosting more than 300 on-campus arts events annually and fielding nationally recognized athletics teams.

The university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign helped fuel this academic and research excellence. The recently concluded Campaign for SDSU raised over $815 million for scholarships, faculty and staff support, and innovative programs. Generous donors established a culture of philanthropy that will continue and ensure that San Diego State will thrive throughout this century and beyond.

• SDSU's campus includes more than 1,200 students enrolled in the Susan and Stephen Weber Honors College and a growing number of SDSU Merit Scholars—students with a minimum high school GPA of 4.0 and SAT scores of at least 1400.

A Culture of Engagement
• More than 74,000 alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends contributed to The Campaign for SDSU – the university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign – which raised over $815 million to support the growth and development of San Diego State University. More than 10 percent of the total came from faculty and staff gifts.

• SDSU is one of only a handful of universities nationwide to be recognized for five consecutive years by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) for the sustained excellence of its fundraising program.

• "Building on Excellence" is SDSU's broadly consultative strategic plan establishing the direction and priorities of the university and focusing on three areas: student success, research and creative endeavors, and community and communication.

• SDSU engages its alumni and encourages them to share their professional expertise and experience with current students through programs such as the Aztec Mentor Program and Aztecs Hiring Aztecs.

Community Roots
• The Price Community Scholars program provides financial support for local, first-generation students with track records of strong academic achievement and leadership in high school. They, in turn, mentor neighborhood middle school students who aspire to earn college degrees.

• Associated Students confronted the significant challenges of hunger and food insecurity in our community by raising more than 590,000 pounds of food in the Aztecs Rock Hunger drive during fall 2017. AS and SDSU also support the College Area Community Garden, which unites the university and its neighbors in cultivating an urban space for growing fruits and vegetables.

• SDSU's Guardian Scholars program is a unique opportunity for students leaving the foster care system. Young men and women accepted into the program receive full scholarships, year-round housing and academic mentoring to support them in becoming active community members.

• Each year, SDSU partners with one of 23 local governments in a university initiative known as the Sage Project, through which students engage in real-world urban planning that contributes to the sustainability and quality of life in the San Diego region.

A Diverse Campus
• SDSU was selected for the fifth consecutive year as a recipient of the INSIGHT Into Diversity Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award. The national honor recognizes U.S. colleges and universities that demonstrate outstanding commitment to diversity and inclusion.

• U.S. News and World Report ranked SDSU in the top 25 nationally for ethnic diversity—a point of pride for the university, where students from all backgrounds are achieving academic excellence.

• Arts Alive SDSU integrates arts events and arts practices into the curriculum and recognizes art as a campus-wide value on par with research and international study. With nearly 300 events scheduled each year, Arts Alive reaches an audience of more than 125,000 annually.

• SDSU is consistently recognized by CampusPride.org as among the top 25 LGBT-friendly campuses in the nation. The university's Pride Center is an inclusive, safe, and affirming gathering space and organizes programs and events for persons of all sexual and gender identities and their allies.

An International Perspective
• San Diego State University ranked No. 8 in the nation for the number of students studying abroad in the latest Institute for International Education's Open Doors report. More than 3,000 students have international experiences each year, choosing from nearly 400 programs in 65 countries.

• SDSU has been named a Gilman International Scholarship Top Producing Institution by the U.S. Department of State. The university tied for 14th in the nation among large colleges and universities for the number of students sent abroad through the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program

• Each year, SDSU welcomes more than 2,300 international students from dozens of countries, including China, India, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, South Korea, Japan and several European nations. They are enrolled as fully matriculated students or as part of the American Language Institute (ALI), of which SDSU's affiliate is one of the largest in the country.

Research Accomplishments
• San Diego State University faculty continue to win significant research funding. In fiscal 2016-17, they secured $134 million in public and private funding—a total of 783 awards—up from $130 million the previous year and $120.6 million in 2014-15.

• In cutting-edge facilities like the privately funded Donald P. Shiley BioScience Center, San Diego State researchers are developing novel treatments for healing hearts with stem cells and studying the role of inflammation in heart disease.

• To further support research, SDSU has built an Engineering and Interdisciplinary Science Complex, where researchers are developing collaborative projects to turn discoveries into real-world applications. The EIS Complex enhances the university's teaching and research capacities and help attract the best and brightest faculty, graduate and undergraduate students.

• SDSU's Center for Sensorimotor Neural Engineering, funded by the National Science Foundation, is partnering with MIT and the University of Washington in an $18.5-million project to perfect brain-controlled robotic devices that interact seamlessly with the human body to improve and restore muscle function and movement.

• The Student Research Symposium is an annual forum for SDSU's graduate and undergraduate students to present their faculty-mentored research. More than 500 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students across 70 majors and disciplines participated in 2018.

Moving Forward
• While there are many ways to measure San Diego State University's progress and achievements, the foundational issue is who we can be and what we can accomplish as a leading public university.

• Moving forward, we will continue to establish ourselves as a university of the highest quality where all students achieve success, where faculty, staff and student researchers address pressing societal challenges, where we come together to experience the beauty and power of the arts, and where we harness our knowledge and our talents to serve our community and the broader society.

University President

Dr. Adela de la Torre was recently appointed by the California State University Board of Trustees as the new president of San Diego State University.

Arriving on campus in June 2018, Dr. de la Torre is the ninth permanent president of SDSU and the first woman to serve in that role. She brings with her 30 years of service in leadership roles at institutions of higher education, including the California State University system, the University of Arizona and the University of California, Davis.

Prior to her appointment as President, Dr. de la Torre worked in a variety of leadership positons at UC Davis, culminating in her role as vice chancellor for student affairs and campus diversity, where she oversaw a division encompassing 28 departments and units that provide services and facilities to foster academic success, student development and campus community. In addition, she spent 14 years from 2004-18 directing the UC Davis Center for Transnational Health and served a two-year stint (2009-11) as chair of the UC Davis Chicana/Chicano Studies Department, after becoming the first Latina to receive the rank of distinguished professor.

During her tenure at Arizona from 1996-2002, Dr. de la Torre was the director of the Mexican American Studies and Research Center, successfully developing the first graduate program in Mexican American Studies. She also founded the College of Medicine's first federally funded Hispanic Center of Excellence.

Dr. de la Torre was also a professor at California State University, Long Beach, serving as chair of the department of Chicano/Latino Stuies. She was additionally selected by members of the California State University system to serve a one-year appointment (1995-96) as a management fellow, which involved systemwide strategic planning, higher education legislative initiatives, enrollment and growth planning, as well as systemwide presidential and board of trustee meetings.

Dr. de la Torre's research focuses on aspects of Latino community health — an area where SDSU is a national leader. Her research was previously recognized by the American Society of Hispanic Economists in 2016, when it honored her with its biennial Academic Achievement Award.

Dr. de la Torre's grandparents immigrated to the Central Valley from Mexico. She grew up in the Bay Area, where her grandmother and mother taught her important cultural traditions — the importance of family, the value of hard work and the power of education. Her mother attended both Modesto Community College and the University of California, Berkeley and was a public school teacher for 40 years.

Dr. de la Torre earned a bachelor of science degree in the political economy of natural resources and a master of science and Ph.D. in agricultural and resource economics all from California.

Director of Athletics

John David Wicker was introduced as San Diego State University's new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Oct. 24, 2016.

"It feels great to be back on the Mesa," Wicker said. "I loved my four years here with the coaches, the staff and all the student athletes. I'm thrilled with this opportunity and I am looking forward to helping SDSU Athletics move to next level of success."

Wicker was SDSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2011 until leaving for Georgia Tech in July 2015. During his first term at SDSU, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Aztecs athletics department, overseeing business operations, human resources, events and facilities, capital projects, strength and conditioning, academics, video and sport oversight for football, rowing, and men's and women's basketball.

"When we began this search, we envisioned a person who cares about our student athletes, whose integrity is paramount and whose competitive fire inspires greatness. In short, someone who embodies our ideal of `winning it right.' John David Wicker is that person," said then-SDSU President Elliot Hirshman.

Prior to his time at SDSU, he was the Associate Athletic Director for Event and Facility Operations at Washington State from 2001-11. While at Washington State, he was responsible for event planning and game day responsibilities for all home athletic events, conference tournaments and NCAA championships, day-to-day oversight and operations of all athletic facilities, and the liaison for the athletic department on capital projects.

From 1999 to 2001 Wicker served as Director of Event and Facility Operations at Southern Miss. At USM, he oversaw regular season and championship event operations, coordinated day-to-day maintenance of facilities, and was the liaison to the university on all capital projects. He also oversaw the design and initial construction of USM's $11 million Athletic Center, which houses administrative and coaching offices, football locker room, weight room and training area.

Wicker also spent three years at Georgia from (1996-99), where he also worked for the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games in preparation for the 1996 Summer Olympics as the venue logistics manager for Sanford Stadium, home to the medal rounds for men's and women's soccer.

Wicker took over an athletic department that has enjoyed great success in recent years. The football team, which has posted three consecutive 10-win seasons, made its eighth consecutive bowl game appearance in 2017. Men's basketball has been to the post-season in 12 out of the last 13 years. Teams, from women's track and field to men's and women's golf, to baseball and softball, have combined for 41 team conference championships since the beginning of the 2012-13 school year.

"One of our top priorities will be to generate more excitement about Aztec Athletics on campus, in the community, and with our close to 300,000 alumni across the nation," Wicker said. "People around the country know what an incredible atmosphere Viejas Arena is. And that is in no small part because of the fans. There is no reason why we can't have a similar atmosphere at our football games, at Tony Gwynn Stadium for baseball, on the Sports Deck for soccer games and more."

Wicker graduated from Mississippi State in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in professional accountancy. He received his master's degree in education with an emphasis in sports management from Georgia in 1997.

Wicker resides in Santee, Calif., with and his wife, Rachel, and daughters, Scarlett Anne and Waverly Lile.

Viejas Arena at Aztec Bowl

For the eighth straight season, San Diego State finished the year ranked first among California schools in Division I average home attendance, the NCAA announced at the end of the 2017-18 campaign. SDSU's average home attendance, meanwhile, was ranked 32nd nationally.

One of the premier on-campus basketball arenas in all of America, Viejas Arena at Aztec Bowl provides a 12,414-seat, state-of-the-art venue while keeping fans close to the floor and part of the action. It serves as the home of SDSU men's and women's basketball.

Opened in 1997, the facility is the home of San Diego State basketball and provides a venue for university functions, cultural events, concerts and other special-event programming. It features a unique open-air concourse design that allows fans to enjoy the excellent San Diego climate and adds a new experience to attending arena-type events. Prior to the 2015-16 season, the hardwood was named Steve Fisher Court.

The arena is built on the site of the old Aztec Bowl stadium which hosted San Diego State football games as well as other athletic, entertainment and cultural events from the time of its construction in 1936 until 1967.

Built directly into a canyon hillside, Viejas Arena encloses one end of the old horseshoe-shaped Aztec Bowl. Two sections of the stadium's original concrete bleachers and cobblestone walls frame each side of the arena's north entrance. In addition, the university's 10-ton granite boulder, a California landmark commemorating President John F. Kennedy's 1963 commencement address at Aztec Bowl, has also been placed in this area.

In addition SDSU hoops, Viejas Arena has played host to concerts by such artists as Cher, Eric Clapton, Britney Spears, No Doubt, Barry Manilow and Aerosmith. In 2001, Billy Joel and Elton John opened their world tour with a sold-out show at Viejas.

Viejas Arena seats 12,414 for basketball games. Seating includes 240 ADA accessible and companion seats in Row 36, form-fitted bench seats in rows 30-35 with the remaining being stadium seats. For special events and concerts, the venue can become intimate down to 3,000 seats and, depending on configuration, accommodate as many as 13,500.

The facility features a $2.3-million center-hung Daktronics scoreboard with modern features including up-to-the minute statistical information on individual players.

In addition, the venue offers six locker rooms, two team rooms, a green room, which includes three individual dressing rooms and a common area, a training room, and a work room.

Concessions are provided by Aztec Shops and include a traditional sports-themed menu as well as specialty foods. In addition, catering is provided by Aztec Shops and includes a wide-ranging menu with various levels of service.

The Mezzanine Level houses a VIP Room for banquets, pre- and post-game functions, and other formal and informal gatherings. The room consists of a 2,200-square-foot space that can be divided into two rooms of 800- and 1,400-square feet. The 800-square foot area can also serve as an interview room for sporting events.

After serving as host to the first and second rounds of the NCAA men's basketball championship in 2001, the venue was the home of the 2001 NCAA women's volleyball national championship. In 2006, it played host to the NCAA men's basketball first and second rounds, along with the McDonald's All-American High School basketball games.

In 2009, the NCAA women's basketball first and second rounds graced the Viejas Arena floor and in 2014 the NCAA men's basketball second and third rounds had a return visit. This past March, the arena once again played host to the 2018 NCAA men's basketball first and second rounds. The March Madness event is set to return to San Diego State's on-campus venue in 2022.
