Coach Jay Norvell and selected student-athletes will be available on a weekly basis at a press conference on Tuesdays, beginning at 2 p.m. Requests for student-athletes for the press conference must be submitted no later than 3 p.m. on Mondays to the Nevada Communications office.

Generally, the Nevada Communications office will live-stream the Tuesday press conference via the Mountain West Network and archives will be available shortly after the conclusion of the press conference.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for credentials & parking passes for Wolf Pack football games should be made through the Nevada Communications Office no later than 48 hours before game time. Please email credential requests to Jack Kuestermeyer (jkuester@unr.edu). Media can reach the Mackay Stadium press box (second level on the west side of the stadium) by using the elevator or the stairways on the north and south ends of the building.

LIVE STATISTICS

In-game statistics will be provided by Stat-Broadcast this season, and will be available to the media during games at the following link:
<http://nevada.statbroadcast.com>

COLLEGE PRESS BOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to: password@collegepressbox.com.

WEEKLY RADIO SHOW

Jay Norvell's weekly radio show with John Ramey is on Wednesday evenings from 6-7 p.m. It is available in Northern Nevada on ESPN Radio 94.5 and an archive will be posted on NevadaWolfPack.com/audio within 24 hours. In addition to Norvell, Ramey will interview assistant coaches and players on the show.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

In general, no coaches or student-athletes are available to media on the field or en route to the locker room, with the exception of the live, originating television broadcast if pre-arranged. Nevada's locker room is closed to the media.

Interview requests should be submitted to Chad Hartley of the Nevada Communications office no later than the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter. Assistant coaches are not available after games. Generally, the Nevada Communications office will live-stream the post-game press conference via the Mountain West Network and archives will be available shortly after the conclusion of the press conference.

HOME GAMES

Postgame interviews will be conducted in the Petersen Athletic Academic Center (which will also serve as a photographer work area during games). Coach Norvell will be available to media after the NCAA's 10-minute cooling off period, followed by selected student-athletes.

The postgame interview area at the Petersen Athletic Academic Center is similarly equipped. Media may work in either location but are asked to work in the Petersen location if working more than 90 minutes post-game. The Mackay press box will also serve as a game and media operations location post-game so the Petersen location will likely be a quieter work environment after the conclusion of the press conference.

2017 NEVADA WOLF PACK FOOTBALL — GAME NOTES

HEAD COACH JAY NORVELL (@CoachJayNorvell)

Jay Norvell was hired as the 26th head football coach in Nevada program history on Dec. 9, 2016, ushering in a new era of Wolf Pack football.

The appointment marks the first head coaching tenure for Norvell, but he is certainly well versed in the game of football with a 31-year coaching career that spans college football's top levels and the National Football League. Norvell, 53, has coached in both the BCS National Championship Game with the Oklahoma Sooners and Super Bowl XXXVII with the Oakland Raiders.

Throughout his three decades of coaching, he has stops at Iowa, Northern Iowa, Wisconsin, Iowa State, the Indianapolis Colts, the Oakland Raiders, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, UCLA, and most recently, Arizona State.

An All-Big 10 defensive back during a stellar playing career at Iowa, Norvell has made his coaching mark on the other side of the ball, coordinating offensive schematics while at Oklahoma, Texas and Arizona State. He's tutored a number of top players, including NFL wide receivers Kenny Stills, Sterling Shepard and Marvin Harrison as well Ryan Broyles, who left Oklahoma as the NCAA's all-time receptions leader.

Throughout his career Norvell has had a hand in postseason football as well with 14 bowl game appearances, including the 2009 National Championship, four NFL playoff games and the Super Bowl appearance.

He spent the 2016 season with Arizona State, his only year with that program, before coming to Nevada. Prior to his time with the Sun Devils he served the 2015 season as the wide receivers coach at Texas and took over play-calling responsibilities for the Longhorns at the beginning of the season, helping to produce two wins over top 15 teams.

Before his one year at Texas, Norvell spent seven seasons at Oklahoma, which included three as the assistant offensive coordinator and receivers coach (2008-10), and four years as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach (2011-14). While with the Sooners he coached three of the top four players on OU's all-time receptions list, including Broyles, Stills and Juakin Iglesias, oversaw five of the program's top six single-season reception marks, and helped his receiving corps earn 10 all-conference and three academic all-conference first team honors. In 2014, Oklahoma ranked 20th in the nation in scoring offense and was 23rd in total offense.

Under Norvell, the Sooners also had a strong rushing attack as the team ranked 10th in rushing offense in 2014 and was 18th in 2013, which were the program's highest averages since 1990. He worked with a number of talented running backs at OU, including All-Pro Demarco Murray and All-American Samaje Perine.

Prior to his appointment at Oklahoma, Norvell served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at both UCLA in 2007 and Nebraska from 2004-06. The Cornhuskers were one of only two teams in the nation to rank in the top 25 in total offense, scoring offense, rushing offense and passing offense in 2006. That same year Nebraska totaled nine wins and finished the regular season as Big 12 North Division Champions.

Aside from the college game, Norvell coached for six seasons in the NFL, four of which were with the Colts and two with the Raiders. While with Oakland he coached tight ends for two seasons and worked alongside an offense that included Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice and Tim Brown. His trip to the Super Bowl in 2002 was led by an offense that led the NFL in total yards and passing yards per game. Norvell joined the Colts coaching staff in 1998 as the wide receivers coach and mentored Harrison to 385 receptions, 5,376 receiving yards and 48 touchdowns during his tenure. His time with the Colts was also the first four seasons of two-time Super Bowl champion Peyton Manning's career.

Norvell was assistant head coach at Iowa State from 1995-97 where he worked with quarterbacks and receivers, including Sage Rosenfels, who went on to play with the Minnesota Vikings. From 1989-94, Norvell coached offensive line, receivers and special teams at Wisconsin, which followed his first full-time position as receivers coach at Northern Iowa in 1988.

A 1986 graduate of Iowa, Norvell was an All-Big Ten defensive back and recorded a league-high seven interceptions in 1985 as he helped the Hawkeyes put together a 10-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the Rose Bowl. He was a member of the Chicago Bears in 1987 before he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell, who hails from Madison, Wis., has a wife, Kim, and son, Jaden. He is the author of a book, "Complete Wide Receiver," which was published in 2012.

LAST TIME THEY MET

The Wolf Pack scored the highest point total that the Aztecs allowed against a Mountain West opponent last season, but it was not enough as Nevada fell to San Diego State, 46-16.

Donnel Pumphrey ran 26 times for 198 yards and a touchdown and passed DeAngelo Williams for fourth place on the all-time list of FBS rushing leaders for San Diego State.

Pumphrey passed the 6,000-yard mark late in the third quarter and eclipsed Williams' 6,026 yards early in the fourth. It was the first time in four games that Pumphrey played into the fourth quarter and he finished the night at 6,051 yards. With two regular-season games left, he needs 32 yards to pass Tony Dorsett, 229 for Ricky Williams and 347 for Ron Dayne's record.

While Pumphrey made his mark on the record book, Rashaad Penny dazzled with touchdown runs of 40 and 72 yards. Penny had 208 yards on 10 carries.

SERIES HISTORY

The Wolf Pack and Aztecs have a fairly young series going on between them as they have played just nine games in their program histories. San Diego State leads that nine-game series, 6-3, including the last two contests. The series began in 1945 with Nevada dominating those first two games, but it has mostly been all Aztecs since then, winning four out of five in the last decade.

OH BABER!

Putting up the performance of his career last week vs. San Jose State, junior Dameon Baber was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week. Baber put up a historic line in the matchup against the Spartans. He scored three touchdowns on the day – two via interception return and one via punt block return – and tied an NCAA record, becoming just the third player in history to score three touchdowns via runback in the same game. He totaled three interceptions in the game, a 59-14 victory over the Spartans.

Baber set a school record with a 100-yard interception return, eclipsing a 96-yard return for a score by Scott Nader from 1972. He also scored on a 39-yard interception return. His first score of the game after a Spartans punt was blocked by teammate Wyatt Demps as Baber scooped and scored from six yards out. This is the second time Baber has picked off three passes in a game. He did so in 2015 as a true freshman against Fresno State. He also has a two-pick game in his career – his Wolf Pack debut at Buffalo, also in 2015.

Baber becomes the second Nevada player to earn conference honors this season, joining running back Kelton Moore, who won the offensive award after Nevada's win over Hawai'i.

DEMP'S CONTINUES TO SHINE

Senior WR Wyatt Demps has been one of the Wolf Pack's top targets all season long. Demps leads the team with 58 receptions and is averaging 12.7 yards per catch. Demps has caught 10 touchdowns through 10 games, which ranks first in the Mountain West and is fourth nationally, eight behind the national leader, David Sills of West Virginia. Additionally his receiving yards total of 734 yards is in the top 45 in the nation, third in the league. He has a streak going of 22 consecutive games with a reception, dating back to last year. Thanks to his two receiving TDs against San Jose State, Demps now has 19 career receiving TDs, which breaks him in to the top 10 at Nevada.

MOORE PLEASE

Nevada sophomore RB Kelton Moore is playing some of his best football as of late. Moore has posted over 100 yards on the ground in three of his last five games. Additionally he has touchdowns in four of his last five games with a receiving TD in the win over Hawai'i and multiple games with a rushing TD. Moore is one of the most effective players on offense with over 700 rushing yards and over 150 receiving yards. He is now averaging nearly 6.0 yards per rush and 88.9 all-purpose yards per game.

HONORING RUFUS

Junior safety Asauni Rufus, one of the undoubted leaders of the Wolf Pack football team, suffered a season-ending injury at Boise State. In the final few games of the season, a different member of the defensive back core will wear Rufus' No. 2 jersey to honor their teammate. Last Saturday against San Jose State, senior Jaden Sawyer was the first player to wear the No. 2 jersey.

SACKS AND WINNING

Nevada junior DE Malik Reed posted one of the most effective games of his college career last week against San Jose State. The Alabama native made six tackles in the game, 4.5 of which went for a loss and 3.5 of which went for sacks. Reed's 3.5 sacks in that game was a career high and gives him 14.0 in his career, 11th-most in Nevada program history, needing 2.5 sacks to move into the top 10.

HOLY POINTS

Last week in the win over San Jose State, Nevada put up 59 points, the most points it has scored all season by far, and in turn, are the most points scored in the Jay Norvell era. In fact, it was the most points the Wolf Pack has scored since it recorded 69 points against Hawai'i on Sept. 22, 2012.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

Nevada and its Air Raid system have spread the wealth out to a high number of its receivers through 10 games. Wolf Pack quarterbacks have found the hands of 20 receivers this season, which is second in the nation behind Clemson. There were three Wolf Pack players who made the first reception of their collegiate careers last Saturday against SJSU; senior Tucker Melcher, junior Dominic Christian and true freshman Elijah Cooks.

DEFENSIVE SPARK

Senior LB Austin Paulhus has established himself as one of the top defenders on the Wolf Pack. In just his second full season on the field with Nevada, Paulhus ranks first on the team with 94 total tackles, approaching the first 100-tackle season of his career. In the team's game against Air Force, Paulhus established a new career high with an almost unheard of 21 tackles, third-most all-time in a single game in program history. Paulhus has been especially good at dragging the opposition down behind the line as he enters week 12 with 11.5 TFLs, which total 28 yards, and include 3.5 sacks. With 9.4 total tackles per game, Paulhus ranks 23rd in the country in that category and fifth in the Mountain West.

PACK'S TOP FIVE MARKS IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Nevada ranks in the top five in the Mountain West in the following statistical categories: blocked kicks (5th, 1), blocked punts (3rd, 1), defensive TDs (3rd, 2), fewest penalties (4th, 53), fewest penalties per game (4th, 5.3), fewest penalty yards (4th, 464), fewest penalty yards per game (4th, 46.4), fumbles lost (1st, 4), fumbles recovered (4th, 9), kickoff returns (3rd, 21.7), passing offense (2nd, 253.7), sacks allowed (4th, 1.5), scoring offense (5th, 29.2), tackles for loss allowed (4th, 4.6), team tackles for loss (1st, 7.0), turnovers gained (4th, 17).

HONORS CONTINUE TO POUR IN FOR CORBETT

Senior offensive lineman Austin Corbett has earned a slew of award nominations this season. Most recently Corbett was named a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy, a candidate for the 2017 Senior CLASS Award and received an invitation to the Senior Bowl. He is one of just 63 Division I players to earn the nomination for the Burlsworth Trophy. He was one of 181 semifinalists for the Campbell Trophy, which is presented to the top football scholar-athlete in the nation by the National Football Foundation. Corbett was one of just 30 FBS players from around the country to earn a nomination for the Senior CLASS Award, which recognizes those who excel both on and off the field in four primary categories: community, classroom, character and competition.

YOUNG GUNS

Through 10 games this season, head coach Jay Norvell hasn't wasted any time in getting his true freshmen some experience. So far there have been 11 true freshmen that have seen time on the field for Nevada: QB Kaymen Cureton, DT Chris Green, WR McLane Mannix, DB Nephi Sewell, TE Reagan Roberson, RB Russell Booze, WR Elijah Cooks, DB Austin Arnold, WR Berdale Robins, LB Mar'Quette Jackson and WR Daiyan Henley. Most have made significant contributions too. Mannix has six touchdown receptions and over 600 yards receiving, Henley has three touchdown receptions under his belt, Sewell is flying around on defense with 51 tackles and an interception, Robins totaled over 100 kickoff return yards against Idaho State and Cureton got his first start at QB vs. the Bengals.

Additionally, Nevada has started four of those true freshmen this season (Sewell, Cureton, Mannix, Henley).

BREAKOUT PERFORMANCES

True freshman WR McLane Mannix turned some heads in the season opener at Northwestern, racking up 76 yards on just two catches, but he has since followed that up with even more impressive outings. To date, the Texas native has made 45 receptions (second on the team) on the year, including a 75-yard touchdown reception against Toledo.

Not only was the 75-yard touchdown reception against Toledo a career long reception for Mannix and a career long pass for QB Ty Gangi, but it was also the longest pass play by the Wolf Pack since 2011 when Tyler Lantrip hit Rashard Matthews for 90 yards against UNLV. At Colorado State Mannix totaled 150 receiving yards, a new career best and his second 100-yard performance of the season. It was the most receiving yards in a game by a Wolf Pack player since Jerico Richardson posted 177 against Southern Utah in 2014.

Mannix began his collegiate career with touchdown receptions in back-to-back-to-back games and is approaching 700 yards receiving. His six touchdown receptions are in the top 50 in the nation, and his total of 650 receiving yards ranks in the top 65 nationally and sixth in the Mountain West.

TWO-DEEPS CLASS BREAKDOWN

The Wolf Pack's depth chart on offense and defense consists of: nine seniors, 15 juniors, 10 sophomores, eight redshirt freshmen and five true freshmen.

WALK-ON SURPRISE

In Nevada's game against Toledo, the Pack had a new face on kickoff duty for the second half. Ramiz Ahmed, who had been cleared to play the night before the contest, suited up for the Wolf Pack and handled two kickoffs in the second half. Ahmed impressed in his debut, sending both of his kickoffs well into the endzone for touchbacks. Through his nine games played, he has taken 45 kickoffs and had 26 go for touchbacks. Ahmed made the team via the walk-on tryouts held a couple of weeks prior.

SCHOLARSHIP ALERT

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The Wolf Pack's 2017 schedule consists of eight teams that advanced to bowl games last season; Northwestern, Pinstripe Bowl; Toledo, Raycom Media Camellia Bowl; Washington State, Holiday Bowl; Hawai'i, Hawai'i Bowl; Colorado State, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl; Air Force, NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl; Boise State, Cactus Bowl; San Diego State, Las Vegas Bowl.

GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

After summer classes had commenced, the Wolf Pack football team posted a cumulative grade-point average of 3.008 for the 5,667 credit hours current members of the team had logged. The 5,667 credit hours take in to account every credit hour by every current member of the team, which dates back to 2013. Nevada is one of just three FBS schools to accomplish this, along with Northwestern and Boise State.

DEGREES COMPLETED

A total of nine Nevada football student-athletes have already obtained a college degree prior to the start of the 2017 season. That number is tied for sixth-most in the nation along with Kent State, New Mexico, South Alabama, Texas Tech and West Virginia. The Wolf Pack players with degrees in hand are: Justin Brent, Austin Corbett, Ziad Damanhoury, Jimbo Davis, Sean Krepsz, Ryan Mack, Thomas Newton, Jaden Sawyer and Travis Wilson.

OH BROTHER

Nevada's roster for 2017 contains two sets of brothers: Clifford and Devin Porter, Gabriel and Nephi Sewell. The Porter brothers are local products from Reno and graduates of Hug High School. The Sewell brothers hail from Nevada's neighbor to the east, Utah, and are both graduates of Desert Hills High School in the town of St. George.

LOGGING FEWER MILES

The difference between miles traveled for Nevada's 2016 season compared to its 2017 season is significantly lighter. Last year, with two trips to Indiana and one to Hawai'i, the Wolf Pack logged a season total of 8,487 miles. In 2017, with just one trip to the Midwest and most others on the western side of the country, the Pack will log just 4,852 miles, a 3,635 mile difference.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Nevada is in its 111th season of collegiate football, seeking win No. 543 in the program's strong history. The Wolf Pack sports an all-time record of 542-482-33 (.549). Since joining the FBS in 1992, Nevada is 166-148 overall and 108-78 in conference play.

NEW VOICES OF THE PACK

For the 2017 season there will be a couple of new voices of Nevada football making their debut on the Wolf Pack Radio Network this season. John Ramey takes over for Ryan Radtke as the play-by-play voice, while former Pack standout Mike Edwards replaces Kevin Grimes as the color analyst.

In memory of Marc Ma (1995-2016)

Tragically last summer, the Wolf Pack football family lost one of its own when Marc Ma lost his life in an accident at Lake Tahoe. Ma, 20, was a sophomore defensive end for the Wolf Pack. A native of Honolulu, Ma graduated from Iolani High School with all-state honorable mention honors prior to joining Nevada. Ma redshirted in 2015. The jersey number 59 will not be worn by any member of the team for two more seasons.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Quarterback Clayton Thorson scored two touchdowns in the final six minutes and Northwestern beat Nevada 31-20 in Saturday's opener for both teams.

Trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, Thorson directed a 75-yard drive that culminated in his following the block of right guard Tommy Doles to crash the end zone for a 24-20 lead. Thorson scored on another 1-yard plunge with 52 seconds to play, ending Nevada's upset hopes in Jay Norvell's first game as the Wolf Pack's coach.

Nevada led 17-7 lead after a pair of Ty Gangi touchdown passes and Spencer Pettit's 31-yard field goal late in the first half, only to squander the advantage in the third quarter. Following Charlie Kuhbander's 23-yard field goal, Northwestern tied the game at 17 on Thorson's 19-yard TD pass to Riley Lee.

Spencer Pettit's 33-yard field goal with 10:13 to play moved Nevada ahead, 20-17. But Thorson, 6 of 7 pass completions on the subsequent drive and 28 of 38 for 352 yards overall, moved Northwestern to the 1-yard line, then ran it in for the score that gave the Wildcats the lead for good.

THE TAKEAWAY

Nevada: The Wolf Pack showed plenty in Norvell's first game as head coach, for three quarters.

Northwestern: Thorson's 163.6 quarterback rating may not hold up all year, but it signified why coach Pat Fitzgerald has faith in the junior.

How It Happened: Nevada hung tight for the majority of the game, powered by Wyatt Demps snags and a strong defensive performance. The offense slowed down in the second half, though, which proved costly.

Play of the Game: Ty Gangi found true freshman McLane Mannix over the middle for a 41-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter, giving Nevada a 14-7 lead.

Player of the Game: Wyatt Demps. Demps eclipsed 1,000 career receiving yards with his second catch of the game. He also converted a touchdown on his first grab of the afternoon and hauled in a total of five balls.

RENO, Nevada (AP) -- Logan Woodside threw for 232 yards and two touchdowns as Toledo beat Nevada 37-24 on Saturday night.

Terry Swanson added two more TDs and led the Rockets (2-0) with 101 yards rushing.

Jameson Vest kicked a 25-yard field goal midway through the first quarter and the Rockets never trailed after that.

Woodside threw a touchdown to Dionte Johnson with 3:21 left in the first and Swanson ran it in from three yards for another score, making it 20-3 with 10:59 to go in the second quarter.

Swanson ran for his second touchdown with 8:41 left in the third and Woodside hit Cody Thompson to make it 34-17 with 3:45 remaining in the quarter.

Nevada's Ty Gangi threw a 75-yard touchdown late in the third to cut the Rockets lead to 34-24 but Vest made another field goal to make it 37-24 with 4:31 to play.

Gangi finished with 277 yards passing and two scores for the Wolf Pack (0-2).

How It Happened: Nevada's offense struggled to stay on the field and, combined with great field position for Toledo on most drives, the defense couldn't keep up with the Rocket offense.

Play of the Game: Wide open on the side of the field, Ty Gangi found freshman McLane Mannix, who took the ball 75 yards to the endzone on the very first play of the drive.

Player of the Game: McLane Mannix. Mannix racked up 139 yards off six catches, including a 75 yard touchdown reception on the first play of a drive. Mannix's 139 yards were the most of any player in the game.

RENO, Nev. (AP) -- Matt Peterson fell on top of an onside kick with less than a minute to play, preserving Idaho State's 30-28 victory, its first over an FBS opponent since 2000, and foiling a Nevada comeback Saturday night.

Parker Johnson kicked three field goals and Tanner Gueller passed for a pair of touchdowns as Idaho State (2-1) built a 30-7 lead before Nevada (0-3) closed with three unanswered touchdowns.

Gueller passed for 269 yards and Michael Dean added 133 yards and a touchdown on five carries.

Kaymen Cureton went 19 for 33 for 205 yards and three touchdowns for Nevada, including a pair of TD strikes to Wyatt Demps -- of 10 and 3 yards -- in a 153-yard fourth quarter as the Wolfpack closed to within two points.

A two-point conversion pass failed with 58 seconds remaining and ISU, which had lost 27 straight games to FBS opponents, recovered the ensuing onside kick.

Nevada outgained Idaho State 423-383 in total yards, but lost three turnovers and the Bengals sacked Cureton four times.

How It Happened: The Wolf Pack fumbled the ball seven times, although only losing two, making it tough to keep any momentum going on the offense

Play of the Game: With less than a minute on the clock, the Wolf Pack finished its frive down the field with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Kaymen Cureton to Wyatt Demps. It marked Demps' second TD of the game and Cureton's third.

Player of the Game: Wyatt Demps. Demps caught five passes for 46 yards, hauling in two touchdowns for the Wolf Pack. One of those included a TD with less than a minute on the clock as part of Nevada's close comeback.

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Washington State quarterback Luke Falk said the Air Raid offense is a sight to behold when it's clicking.

Falk threw for 478 yards and five touchdowns, and No. 18 Washington State beat Nevada 45-7 for the team's best start in 16 years.

Washington State (4-0), which opened the 2001 season by winning its first seven games, piled up 560 yards of offense and five sacks.

Nevada, which also runs the Air Raid, was held to 151 total yards as the Wolf Pack (0-4) fell to 0-17 on the road against opponents in the Top 25. Nevada came in as a 28-point underdog.

Washington State led 35-0 at halftime.

Nevada coach Jay Norvell felt his team was overmatched by the Cougars of the Pac-12.

"This is the first game where I felt that we didn't handle the physical matchup on the defensive line," he said.

"Overall we didn't mount much of a charge offensively to get us back into the game," Norvell said. "I was disappointed about that."

A 52-yard pass from Falk to Tavares Martin Jr. set up Falk's 12-yard touchdown pass to Jamal Morrow in the first quarter as Washington State took a 7-0 lead.

Falk's shovel pass to James Williams went for 13 yards and a touchdown to put the Cougars ahead 14-0. It was the 100th touchdown pass of Falk's career, passing Matt Leinart of Southern Cal for third in Pac-12 history.

Nevada went three-and-out on its first three possessions and produced only seven yards of offense in the first quarter. Starting quarterback Kaymen Cureton was replaced by David Cornwell, but it didn't help much.

Martin caught a short pass from Falk and turned it into a 40-yard touchdown early in the second quarter for a 21-0 lead.

Williams ran for a touchdown and Jamire Calvin added a 6-yard touchdown reception before halftime.

Falk hit Martin for a 19-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Maliek Broady ran 3 yards for Nevada's first touchdown with 1:56 left in the game.

Play of the Game: Maliek Broady helped the Pack avoid a shutout with a 3-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter.

Player of the Game: Nephi Sewell had another career game, recording a total of 10 tackles and picking off a ball late in the game.

RENO, Nev. (AP) - Ty Gangi accounted for five touchdowns, Kelton Moore became the first Nevada player to rush for over 200 yards in a game since 2012 and the Wolf Pack beat Hawai'i 35-21 Saturday night for its first win of the season, and the first career win for coach Jay Norvell.

Moore had 19 carries for 216 yards, the first 100-yard rusher for Nevada (1-5, 1-1 MW) this season, and added five receptions for 46 yards and a touchdown. Gangi was 25-of-32 passing for 278 yards and four scores and had a 17-yard TD run.

Hawai'i (2-4, 0-3) took a 14-7 lead when Dru Brown connected with Kade Greeley on a 42-yard touchdown pass with 3:55 left in the first half but, on the first play of Nevada's next offensive possession, Moore ran 43 yards to the 28, setting up Gangi's TD run. The Rainbow Warriors were called for three penalties and lost nine yards on their ensuing possession and then were called for two more, including targeting on linebacker Penei Pavihi, as the Wolf Pack went 66 yards in 26 seconds to take a 21-14 lead when Gangi hit Wyatt Demps for a 2-yard score with 18 seconds left in the half.

Moore added a 22-yard touchdown reception and, after a 75-yard scoring run by Hawai'i's Diocemy Saint Juste, Demps scored on a 32-yard catch in the second half. Demps finished with seven receptions for 111 yards.

How it Happened: Led by an incredible performance from Kelton Moore and pinpoint efficiency from quarterback Ty Gangi, the Wolf Pack was able to pick up its first win of the 2017 season.

Play of the Game: It's hard to pick just one of Kelton Moore's big runs, so we'll pick two. Moore ran for 66 yards in the first quarter and 43 yards in the second quarter. Both big rushes set up a touchdown for the Wolf Pack.

Player of the Game: Again, can't pick one. Going to go two. Kelton Moore rushed for 216 yards on 19 carries and coupled his runs with five receptions for 46 yards, including a touchdown. Ty Gangi accounted for all five of the Wolf Pack's touchdowns, completing 25 of his 32 attempts, a completion percentage of 78.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Nick Stevens threw three of his four touchdown passes to Michael Gallup and Dalyn Dawkins had a career-high 195 yards rushing, including a 59-yard scoring run, to help Colorado State hold off Nevada for a 44-42 win Saturday night.

Gallup tied his career best with 13 receptions for 263 yards — two shy of Olabisi Johnson's school record set last season. Stevens was 26-of-37 passing for 384 yards, his fifth 300-yard game of the season.

Dawkins' touchdown pulled Colorado State (5-2, 3-1 Mountain West) to 42-38 with 1:57 left in the third quarter and, after the Wolfpack went three-and-out on their next possession, Steven went 5-of-7 for 82 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown to Gallup to cap the scoring.

Nevada, which converted a fourth down earlier in the drive, missed a 35-yard field-goal attempt on fourth-and-1 with 5:33 to play.

Gallup's 56-yard touchdown opened the scoring fewer than 90 seconds in and then his 7-yard scoring catch made it 14-0 with 9:56 left in the first quarter.

Ty Gangi threw for 428 yards and four TDs and running back Kelton Moore had one score passing and another rushing for Nevada (1-6, 1-2).

The teams combined for 1172 total yards, including 608 by the Rams — their third game with at least 600 this season and fifth with 500-plus.

How it Happened: In a game where both offenses were ticking, it looked like the last team to score would be the one to win. However, Colorado State outscored Nevada 6-0 in the fourth quarter as Spencer Pettit was unable to make a field goal and the Wolf Pack was unable to convert key fourth downs late in the fourth quarter.

Play of the Game: Will the ball in his hand, Kelton Moore rolled right in what appeared to be a run. As the Colorado State secondary bit, Moore cocked the ball back and let it go. The former high school quarterback connected with McLane Mannix for a 57 yard touchdown to knot things up at 14-14.

Player of the Game: Ty Gangi. Ganhi completed 23 of his 40 passes for a total of 428 yards, the first Nevada quarterback to eclipse the 400 yard mark since Colin Kaepernick in 2007. Gangi also threw for four touchdowns, tying his career high.

RENO, Nev. (AP) - Timothy McVey led three Air Force rushers with 100-plus yards and Luke Strebels kicked a 30-yard field goal as time expired to help Air Force beat Nevada 45-42 on Friday night.

McVey rushed for 139 yards, Ronald Cleveland had 118 yards on eight carries and Taven Birdow added 100 yards for Air Force (3-4, 2-2 Mountain West). Each player scored a rushing touchdown and Arion Worthman added 92 yards and two TDs. The Falcons gained 550 yards on 91 carries.

Air Force's dominant rushing game helped hold the ball for 41 minutes, 20 seconds, including a 20-play drive that lasted nearly 10 minutes in the second half.

Ty Gangi went 17 of 33 for 239 passing yards and Kelton Moore rushed for 101 yards and a touchdown for Nevada (1-7, 1-3). Gangi has totaled 925 yards in his last three games.

THE TAKEAWAY

Nevada hasn't surrendered more than 500 rushing yards in a game in two decades.

UP NEXT

Following a bye week, Nevada plays at Boise State on Nov. 4. Since beating then-No. 3 Boise State in 2010, Nevada has lost four straight against the Broncos.

How it Happened: The ground game vs. the Air Raid. That's evolved in Mackay Stadium on Oct. 20. Even though the Falcons racked up 550 rushing yards, the Wolf Pack had it all tied up with just seconds on the clock thanks to big passes from Ty Gangi, including a 47-yard catch from Brendan O'Leary-Orange. As time expired, however, Air Force knocked one through the uprights for the three point win.

Play of the Game: Streaking down the right side of the field, sophomore Daiyan Henley stuck just one arm out to snag a 31-yard touchdown pass from Ty Gangi. The one-handed catch tied the game up at 42 a piece.

Player of the Game: Kelton Moore. Moore snagged yet another 100 yard rushing game against the Falcons, carrying the ball 14 times for 101 yards and a touchdown.

BOISE, Idaho (AP) - Brett Rypien threw for 258 yards and two touchdowns and Alexander Mattison added a pair of scoring runs to lead Boise State to a 41-14 victory over Nevada on Saturday night.

Boise State (7-2, 5-0 Mountain West Conference) won its fifth straight game and also recorded its fifth consecutive victory over conference rivals.

Nevada (1-8, 1-4), which lost its previous two games by a combined total of five points against Colorado State and Air Force, looked overmatched after putting up a fight early.

After falling behind 7-0 and then again at 14-10 early in the second quarter, Boise State turned to Rypien to spark the Broncos' offense. The result was more than enough firepower to extinguish any hopes Nevada had of an upset.

Rypien delivered a 44-yard pass less than a minute after Nevada had retaken the lead, hitting Cedrick Wilson at the goal line before he tumbled into the end zone.

Leading 17-14, Boise State scored on its next two drives—one on a 1-yard run by Ryan Wolpin and the other on another 25-yard pass from Rypien to Jake Roh—as the Broncos built a 31-14 halftime lead.

Mattison added a 6-yard TD jaunt on the Broncos' opening drive of the second half to take a 38-14 lead and the Wolf Pack never threatened after that. Nevada's Kelton Moore was the first running back to eclipse the 100-yard mark against Boise State's defense this season, finishing with 106 yards. But an inaccurate passing game that threw three interceptions stunted the Wolf Pack's offense all game long.

TAKEAWAYS

Nevada quarterback Ty Gangi threw three interceptions in a single game for the third time this season, something the Wolf Pack can ill-afford the rest of the season if they hope to notch a victory in their final three games. Nevada's offense has been steadily improving under first-year head coach Jay Norvell, but it's clear there is little margin for error with his young team.

How it Happened: Although Nevada was able to score early and make it a game in the first quarter, Boise State's offense surged while the Pack's stalled as Nevada failed to score any second-half points.

Play of the Game: Charging down the field on its first drive, Nevada was set up at the four yard line. Going to ole reliable, Gangi handed it off to Moore for a gut touchdown run.

Player of the Game: Kelton Moore. Moore went back-to-back with the 100 yard games, racking up 106 yards on the ground with a touchdown. Moore is the only rusher to eclipse the century mark against Boise State this season.

RENO, Nev. (AP) - Dameon Baber claimed a spot in the NCAA record book with three touchdowns off returns and Nevada pounded San Jose State 59-14 on Saturday.

Baber returned a blocked punt six yards for the go-ahead score near the end of the first quarter, as Nevada (2-8, 2-4 Mountain West) took a 14-7 lead, then intercepted a pass in the end zone and returned it 100 yards for a score. He added another pick six, from 39 yards, in the third quarter, by which time the Wolf Pack led 52-7.

The junior safety intercepted Aaron Montel on the game's opening drive, his first pick since 2015. He finished as the first player in Mountain West history to have a pair of three-interception games and is the third player in NCAA history to score three TDs via runbacks (Johnny Jackson, Houston, 1987 and Antonio Perkins, Oklahoma, 2003).

Ty Gangi completed 16 of 23 passes for 232 yards and three touchdowns and Wyatt Demps had seven catches for 115 yards and two TDs.

Tyler Nevens rushed for 118 yards with a TD for San Jose State (1-10, 0-6).

How it Happened: Dameon Baber, that's how. Nevada capitalized off big passes from Ty Gangi and some of the best defensive play in NCAA history from Dameon Baber to snag a total of eight touchdowns and 59 total points, the most since the Pack scored 69 vs. Hawaii in 2012.

Play of the Game: Stepping behind a missed ball and snagging his first pick of the day in the end zone, Dameon Baber took it end zone to end zone for the 100 yard pick six, a program record at Nevada.

Player of the Game: Dameon Baber. Baber recorded three picks, including two pick sixes. His two pick sixes were comprised of a 100 yarder and a 39 yarder. Baber also returned a block punt for a touchdown, becoming just the third player in NCAA history to record three touchdowns in the same game off returns.
