- This is the second consecutive time the schools have met in a December in-season multi-team event. In 2010, the Dons and Aztecs tangled in the first game of the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic. SDSU won that game, 62-56.
- The winner of this game will advance to play the winner of Indiana State/Ole Miss on Sunday.

No. 18/15 San Diego State Takes Nine-Game Winning Streak to Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic; Faces San Francisco on Saturday

San Diego State will take its nine-game winning streak across the Pacific Ocean to the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic where it will face San Francisco on Saturday.

Game time is set for 1 p.m. HT/3 p.m. PT and the contest will be broadcast nationally by ESPNU. The non-conference tilt can also be heard on radio on AM 600 KOGO and 101 KGB.

The Aztecs are looking to extend several significant winning streaks, including an nine-game overall win streak (T-7th-longest active win streak nationally through Dec. 18), a 29-game win streak vs. teams from California (longest active win streak in the nation) and a 22-game December win streak (third-longest nationally).

SDSU is fresh off a 76-49 victory over Point Loma Nazarene on Tuesday despite not having the services of All-America candidate and preseason Mountain West Player of the Year Jamaal Franklin, who was held out for precautionary reasons due to a back injury. Even without their leading scorer and rebounder, the Aztecs shot 54.9 percent for the game, while holding the Sea Lions to 36.7-percent from the field, including 30.4 percent in the second half. Xavier Thames led all players with 17 points, while his childhood friend, Chase Tapley, poured in 15. Between the two of them, they went 5-for-7 from three-point distance. The game was also the first for Virginia transfer James Johnson, who sat out the second half of last year and the first nine games of 2012-13. The 6-9 forward finished with a career-high-tying six points in 12 minutes.

- Franklin has scored in double figures in 30 consecutive games, which is the third-longest streak nationally.
- Franklin is also the only player in America to average at least 18.0 points, 9.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 1.0 blocks and 1.5 steals.
- Senior guard Chase Tapley, is one of two active NCAA players with 1,000 points, 300 rebounds, 200 assists, 150 steals and 40 blocks. He has made a three-point field goal in eight straight games and 14 consecutive games if you only count games played indoors (excludes Syracuse game on USS Midway). He has connected on 20 of his last 33 three-point field goal attempts (60.6 pct), including a season-high six vs. UC Santa Barbara.
- Dwayne Polee II will see a familiar face on the USF sideline as his father is the Dons' Director of Player Personnel. It is Polee, Sr.'s first year with the team.

Streaking

- San Diego State has won nine consecutive games, which is tied for the seventh-longest win streak in the country (through Dec. 18). The nine-game streak is tied for the fourth-longest in program history.
- San Diego State has won nine straight non-conference games (fourth-longest in school history). A win on Saturday would equal the school's second-longest streak.

- San Diego State has won 29 straight games against teams from California (longest active streak in the country).

- San Diego State has won 22 straight December games (third-longest active streak nationally).

Island Fever

- SDSU is heading to Hawaii for the first time since claiming third place at the 2003 EA Sports Maui Invitational.

- San Diego State is making its first appearance inside Stan Sheriff Center since Dec. 14, 2001, when it earned a 61-58 win over Hawai'i.

- The Aztecs have been dominant in multi-team in-season events/tournaments having won 10 straight and 22 of their last 23. The lone misstep was a 71-63 loss at Pacific in the 2009 West Coast Classic. Oddly enough, that was SDSU's last loss to a school from California.

- Steve Fisher is making his fifth trip to Hawaii in his coaching career and is 8-2 lifetime.

- While at Michigan, Fisher won the 1992 Rainbow Classic, defeating No. 20 Nebraska, No. 5 North Carolina and No. 2 Kansas. In 1994, Fisher led the Wolverines to a 2-1 record at the Maui Classic. Then in 2001, Fisher guided SDSU to its aforementioned win at Hawai'i.

- JJ O'Brien is the lone Aztec to have played in Hawaii. White at Utah, O'Brien played in all three games at the 2010 Diamond Head Classic and totaled five points, six rebounds and two assists, while starting the final two games of the tournament.

Fisher-Walters Connection

- During the 1992 Rainbow Classic, Rex Walters was a guard for No. 2 Kansas. Steve Fisher's Michigan squad won that game, 86-74.

- Prior to Walters' transfer to Kansas, he played his first two seasons at Northwestern. In 1989-90 as a sophomore, Walters went up against Michigan twice and Fisher's teams dismissed them both times by an average of 16.0 points.

Series History vs. San Francisco

- The series with San Francisco is tied at 2-2.

- The teams have alternated wins and losses starting with a USF win in 1954.

- SDSU won the last meeting in Las Vegas in 2010.

- The average margin of victory has been 9.0 points. Both of SDSU's wins have come by six or fewer points.

San Diego State vs. the West Coast

- San Diego State is 112-140 all-time vs. current members of the West Coast Conference.

- The Aztecs have won their last eight meetings against the old West Coast Conference alignment, but with BYU in the fold, SDSU has won nine of its last 11 vs. current members of the WCC.

- SDSU vs. current West Coast members: 23-48 vs. Brigham Young, 1-1 vs. Gonzaga, 33-26 vs. Loyola Marymount, 17-35 vs. Pepperdine, 3-5 vs. Portland, 5-6 vs. Saint Mary's, 27-17 vs. San Diego, 2-2 vs. San Francisco, 1-0 vs. Santa Clara.

Steve Fisher vs. the West Coast

- Fisher has won nine of his last 11 vs. the league in its current state.

- Steve Fisher vs. current West Coast members (37-30 overall): 11-18 vs. Brigham Young, 1-0 vs. Gonzaga, 6-2 vs. Loyola Marymount, 1-0 vs. Pepperdine, 3-1 vs. Portland, 3-5 vs. Saint Mary's, 10-4 vs. San Diego, 1-0 vs. San Francisco, 1-0 vs. Santa Clara.

Get It Out

- Spencer is third in the league in the category (1.60), 6-5 Jamaal Franklin is sixth (1.22) and 6-3 Chase Tapley is tied for eighth (1.00).

Making Strides

- DeShawn Stephens did not play high school basketball and is his second and final year at SDSU. By his performance, one could not tell. Against USD, the senior scored in double figures for the fourth time in nine games, equaling his total from a year ago (34 games).

■ He has four double-figure scoring games in his last seven outings. Prior to this stretch, he had four in his first 37 career games.

Knocking Them Down

■ SDSU has been pretty good at the free-throw line the last five games, making 72-of-92 (78.3 percent).

■ The improved free-throw shooting is a welcomed sight as SDSU was 69-for-123 (56.1 percent) in its first four outings.

The Aztec State

■ San Diego State has owned the state of California recently. The Aztecs own a 29-game winning streak vs. schools that call California home. It is the longest active winning streak amongst all Division I schools, a record that goes back to 1996-97. The next closest is Kansas, which has won just 10 in a row vs. the state.

■ The Aztecs own the longest winning streak vs. schools from California (29) since 1996-97.

■ San Diego State has the best record in California since the start of the 2010-11 season. The Aztecs are 69-12 to date, with a winning percentage of 85.2.

Almost Lone Ranger

■ Jamaal Franklin is 1.4 points and 0.3 rebounds away from being the only player in America to average 20.0 points and 10.0 rebounds. He is currently averaging 18.6 points and 9.7 rebounds.

#Winning

■ SDSU has done a lot of winning lately and the Aztecs secured their 22nd winning month with its victory over Point Loma Nazarene. San Diego State, which is 5-0 in December, owns the longest streak nationally. Memphis is second with 21 straight winning months. The Tigers are 2-1 in the month through Dec. 18.

Locking Down

■ San Diego State has made a living on the defensive side of the ball. The Aztecs are allowing 57.2 points, which is the T-21st-lowest figure nationally. The average, however, is T-4th among teams west of the state of Texas. The school record is 59.2 points allowed (2010-11).

■ The Aztecs are 32nd nationally in field-goal percentage defense (37.7 percent). The school record is 39.6 percent in 2010-11.

Snapping Out of It

■ San Diego State seems to have snapped out of an early season shooting slump. In the first three games, the Aztecs shot 36.8 percent from the floor and 15.3 percent from three. The last seven games have been significantly better: 48.7 percent from the field, 45.5 percent from behind the arc.

■ SDSU has made 56 three-point field goals the last seven games (8.0 3FGM) after making just nine in the first three games (3.0 3FGM) of the season.

■ Xavier Thames is coming to life from distance of late. The guard is 13 for his last 21 over the last five outings after going 2-for-14 in the first three games of 2012.

■ Chase Tapley has found his shooting stroke as well, going 19-for-33 over his last six games. Over his last four games, Tapley has been unreal, connecting on 13-of-21 from three-point distance.

Handy Man

■ Jamaal Franklin has always filled the stat sheet in points and rebounds, but one area where he has improved is the assists column. The Hawthorne, Calif., native is averaging a team-high 3.1 per game, while playing on the wing. With his increased production, Franklin finds himself tied for seventh nationally in points-rebounds-assists at 31.3 (minimum 8 games, through Dec. 18). Franklin is also the only player in America to average at least 18.0 points, 9.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 1.0 blocks and 1.5 steals.

Wiping the Window

■ The Aztecs are averaging 38.3 rebounds an outing (No. 78 nationally). Last season, when SDSU went 26-8, shared the Mountain West regular-season crown and advanced to the NCAAs, it pulled down 36.9. More impressive is the school-record team of 2010-11 averaged just 37.7 rebounds when it went 34-3 and reached the Sweet 16.

Give Me That

■ The Aztecs have been taking what they want on the defensive side, averaging 8.4 steals, which is third in the Mountain West. It'll be tough to keep that rate going, but last year the Aztecs averaged 5.6, and the year before (2010-11) they averaged 6.1 steals per game.

Tapley Passes Teammate on Scoring List

■ Chase Tapley keeps moving up the Aztec career scoring chart. The senior has 1,204 points in three-plus seasons, which puts him 13th all-time, 10th in the school's Division I era and fifth among Steve Fisher era players. Next up: Marcus Slaughter (2004-06) - 1,211 points (12th all-time, ninth Division I, fourth Fisher era).

20-10 Production

■ With his 22-point, 12-rebound performance at Missouri State, Jamaal Franklin logged his eighth double-double with at least 20 points and 10 rebounds in his 57th career game. It was his second such effort in a row. In comparison, former Aztec and first-round NBA draft pick Kawhi Leonard (San Antonio Spurs) had eight such outings in 70 career games.

Sky is the Limit

for a minute, was subbed out and never returned. He played only five first-half minutes. The beneficiary? Freshman Skylar Spencer, who grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds.

■ The 11 rebounds by Spencer, in just his fifth game, is the earliest double-figure rebounding performance by a true freshman since Kawhi Leonard pulled down 13 at home vs. Santa Clara in his third-ever outing on Nov. 19, 2009.

An Eye on Franklin

■ Jamaal Franklin has been named to a pair of preseason watch lists. The junior guard currently finds himself on the Wooden and Naismith watch lists, making him the first Aztec since Kawhi Leonard in 2010-11 to land on the preseason top-50 charts.

A Hold on the Pac-12

■ San Diego State has experienced a bit of success vs. the Pac-12 Conference. The Aztecs are 2-0 this season vs. the league and have won 11 in a row vs. the current configuration, which is the third-longest streak nationally.

Long Time Coming

■ After 21 years of not seeing each other, San Diego State and UCLA met and the Aztecs emerged with the win.
■ The victory was SDSU's first over UCLA since Dec. 7, 1940, and sixth overall.
■ The win snapped an eight-game losing streak to the Bruins and was San Diego State's first over UCLA at a road/neutral site.

Finding the Positives

■ San Diego State suffered a disappointing 13-point loss to Syracuse aboard the USS Midway in the season opener, but there were some positives...
- 20 offensive rebounds, which was one more than the Aztecs' season high in 2011-12.
- 14 steals, which were two more than SDSU's season high a year ago.
- forced 18 turnovers, which were two more than San Diego State committed.
- limited the Orange to 44.6 percent shooting. Last year, it shot 46.7 percent and reached the Elite 8.
- five steals for Xavier Thames, which established a career high.
- eight rebounds apiece for Jamaal Franklin and Chase Tapley, which eclipsed the 2011-12 averages.
- seven rebounds apiece for a pair of newcomers in sophomore JJ O'Brien and freshman Winston Shepard.
- nine points on 4-of-8 shooting for James Rahon in 16 minutes off the bench.

Nothing New

■ The Aztecs entered the season with their highest preseason ranking in school history at No. 20/20. Their highest pre-season ranking was No. 25 in the AP poll in 2010-11.
■ SDSU is 18th in the AP and 15th in Coaches poll this week.
■ San Diego State has spent the last 19 weeks ranked in the AP poll. The 19-week stay is the 11th-longest streak in the nation and ties the school record.
■ SDSU is ranked in both polls for the 18th straight week.
■ The ranking is nothing new as SDSU was ranked in the AP poll the entire 2010-11 campaign and rose to as high as No. 4 and received first-place votes at one point in the season. The Aztecs were ranked in the top 10 the final 13 weeks of the regular season.
■ Last year, San Diego State was ranked in both national polls the final 11 weeks of the regular-season and finished the campaign ranked No. 22 in the AP poll.
■ The Aztecs have held an AP Top-25 ranking in 38 of the last 45 polls. SDSU has been ranked in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll in 34 of the last 45 rankings.
■ Prior to the 2010-11 season, the Aztecs had never been ranked. Since the start of that year, San Diego State has gone 69-12.
■ San Diego State owns a 58-10 record as an AP Top-25 team and has a 53-10 record when it is in the Coaches' poll.
■ San Diego State was 10-73 in its first 83 games vs. AP Top-25 teams, but is 11-13 in its last 24.
■ The Aztecs are 55-5 vs. unranked squads when holding a spot in the AP poll. They are 51-5 vs. unranked opponents when they're in the Coaches' poll.

Holding Its Own

■ San Diego State is 9-10 in its last 19 games vs. teams that own an Associated Press Top-25 ranking.
■ Last season, SDSU went 3-2 vs. teams ranked in the AP Top 25 with victories coming against No. 23 Arizona, No. 24 California and No. 12 UNLV. The losses were at No. 11 Baylor and at No. 14 UNLV.
■ The Aztecs are 4-3 in their last seven vs. AP-ranked sides in games played in San Diego.
■ SDSU is 2-4 in its last six vs. top-10 foes, which reaches back to the 2009-10 campaign. Prior to that, it was 3-25 in the first 28 occurrences.
■ San Diego State is 6-3 in its last nine vs. AP-ranked teams at home and 4-6 in its last nine at road/neutral sites.
■ The aforementioned streaks are impressive considering San Diego State went 10-73 in its first 83 games vs. AP-ranked teams. Since then SDSU is 11-13 in its last 24.

Home Sweet Home

■ San Diego State has been dominant at home since the start of the 2005-06 season. The Aztecs have not lost more than three home games in one season since the start of the 2005-06 campaign and are 105-13 during that span.
■ Only 10 teams have won inside Viejas Arena since the start of 2005-06. Of the 10, five were non-conference foes.

Madhouse on the Mesa

■ The entire San Diego State home slate is sold out this season. Season tickets were sold out back in August. This year's home slate features 17 games, which includes two exhibitions. Viejas Arena seats 12,414.
■ During the Aztecs' 34-3 Sweet 16 season in 2010-11, they sold out Viejas Arena 13 out of 15 dates. Then last season,

SDSU played in front of a full house 11 times and performed for more than 10,800 fans 19 different times.

Mountain West Favorites

- San Diego State was sitting atop the poll when the Mountain West revealed its preseason media poll.
- The Aztecs earned 10 first-place votes and earned 153 points. SDSU finished ahead of UNLV, which was in second with 151 points and eight first-place tallies.
- Jamaal Franklin was named preseason player of the year after he earned the honor at the end of the 2012 campaign. He led the league in scoring and was fourth in rebounding a season ago.
- Chase Tapley joined Franklin on the preseason all-conference team. The senior was second in the league in scoring and three-point field-goal percentage last year, and third in steals and three-pointers made.
- Dwayne Polee II was voted the co-newcomer of the year. The forward is eligible after he sat out last year following his transfer from St. John's. Polee II shared the honor with UNLV's Bryce Dejean-Jones.

Series History vs. Indiana State

- Indiana State has won all three meetings with San Diego State.
- The teams have not seen each other since Dec. 18, 1967, when the Aztecs visited Terra Haute and lost, 84-69.
- The teams first met in 1950 at the Pepperdine Invitational before facing each other two days later inside Aztec Gym.

SDSU vs. the Missouri Valley

- San Diego State is 10-29 all-time vs. the Missouri Valley Conference.
- The Aztecs have won five of their last six vs. the league and all five victories have come during Steve Fisher's 14-year career at San Diego State.
- SDSU vs. current Missouri Valley members: 0-4 vs. Bradley, 1-4 vs. Creighton, 3-4 vs. Drake, 1-4 vs. Evansville, 1-2 vs. Illinois State, 0-3 vs. Indiana State, 2-0 vs. Missouri State, 1-1 vs. Northern Iowa, 0-2 vs. Southern Illinois, 1-5 vs. Wichita State.

Steve Fisher vs. the Missouri Valley

- Steve Fisher has won seven of eight meetings against the Missouri Valley Conference, including five while at the helm of the San Diego State program.
- Steve Fisher vs. current Missouri Valley members (7-1 overall): 1-0 vs. Bradley, 0-1 vs. Creighton, 1-0 vs. Drake, 1-0 vs. Illinois State, 2-0 vs. Missouri State, 1-0 vs. Northern Iowa, 1-0 vs. Wichita State.

Steve Fisher Knows the Valley

- Steve Fisher knows a little something about the Missouri Valley being a 1967 graduate of Illinois State. The head coach also earned his master's degree from the school in 1968.

Series History vs. Ole Miss

- Ole Miss won the lone match-up between the schools back on Dec. 28, 1986.
- Ole Miss defeated the Aztecs, 88-77, inside the San Diego Sports Arena as part of the Holiday Bowl Classic.

SDSU vs. the SEC

STEVE FISHER

22nd FULL SEASON • 14th SEASON AT SDSU • ILLINOIS STATE, 1967

Steve Fisher has guided the Aztec basketball program to unparalleled heights. In 13 seasons, he has taken a program that regularly missed out on the conference postseason tournament, to one which has become one of the best programs in the country.

The best news for SDSU fans is that the school exercised its contract option on Fisher prior to the 2011-12 season, which keeps the coach on Montezuma Mesa through 2014-15.

When Fisher arrived on the scene in March of 1999, he found a basketball program that wasn't good enough to be called average. The Aztecs had suffered through 13 losing seasons in 14 years. Members of the school's last NCAA team were in the early stages of middle age. The expectations were set. The Aztecs were expected to lose. The year before Fisher's arrival on campus, San Diego State won just four games.

Now those days are a distant memory. Fisher has guided San Diego State to the NCAA Tournament five times, including three appearances in the last three seasons. In 2011, he led SDSU to a 34-3 record and a berth in the Sweet 16. Fisher has also taken the Aztecs to the NIT four times, including SDSU's run to the national semifinals in 2009. San Diego State has currently been to the postseason seven straight years.

On March 26, 1999, San Diego State announced its arrival on the basketball scene when it introduced Fisher as its new coach. Fresh from a stint with the Sacramento Kings and with three appearances in the Final Four and a national championship in his pocket, he rolled up his sleeves and went to work. And work was needed. It looked to be a daunting challenge and yet the man with one of the highest winning percentages in NCAA Tournament history had no reservations.

No head-coaching career, at any level, started quicker than that of Fisher. Six games into his head-coaching career he was undefeated and sporting a national championship ring. And the success didn't stop with the national title.

Fisher's eight-plus seasons at Michigan produced a 184-82 (.692) record, nine postseason tournament berths and three trips to the NCAA championship game, including the magical run to the 1989 national title.

Under Fisher, the Wolverines also claimed an NIT championship, won at least 20 games four times and finished among the top three in the powerful Big Ten Conference five times. In 1995, Michigan set a league record by holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting from the floor.

Fisher and Co., raised the bar even higher in the postseason. His seven NCAA Tournament teams at Michigan combined for a 20-6 record, which put him fourth among active coaches and ninth in NCAA history with a winning percentage of .769 in the national bracket after his stint in Ann Arbor. Only 13 coaches have taken more teams to the Final Four, including just five that are still active. He is one of three coaches to take three squads to the Final Four in the first five years of a head-coaching career, and one of just six coaches to lead a team to a NIT title as well as the NCAA.

His accomplishments may be even greater at San Diego State. In 2001-02 he led the Aztecs to the postseason for the first time since 1985 and for just the fourth time ever. The 21 wins were second most for the school as a Division I program and the most since 1985. The fact that those numbers came after just three seasons signifies what is one of the great turnarounds in college basketball.

He followed that up with a third consecutive season with a .500 or better record in 2002-03 and led SDSU back to the postseason for the second consecutive season for only the second time in the school's Division I history. In addition, SDSU claimed its first Division I postseason victory with a win in the NIT.

In 2006-07, he led SDSU to the MWC regular season and tournament crowns and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. That team finished with a Division I then-school-record 24 wins. And the last six seasons, Fisher has led the Aztecs to six additional 20-win seasons, including four straight 25-win campaigns, and six consecutive postseason appearances. In 2012, in what was perceived as a rebuilding year, Fisher led SDSU to a 26-8 record, a spot in the NCAA Tournament and its second straight Mountain West regular-season title.

Game 1

No. 9/9 Syracuse 62
No. 20/20 San Diego State 49

Nov. 11, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.

USS Midway ♦ Att.: 5,119

SAN DIEGO - In the only match-up between two nationally ranked teams during college basketball's season-opening weekend, No. 9/9 Syracuse defeated No. 20/20 San Diego State, 62-49, on the USS Midway.

Weather was a factor in the Battle on the Midway as the sun was bright and the wind swift, and the stats back it up. The Orange shot 44.6 percent from the field, 25.0 percent from behind the arc and 57.9 percent from the charity stripe. The Aztecs fared worse as they connected on just 27.0 percent of their field-goal attempts, including a 1-for-18 performance from three, and made just 14-of-33 attempts from the free-throw line.

It was San Diego State's shooting woes that ultimately cost it the game as the Aztecs matched Syracuse in other statistical categories. The Orange outrebounded SDSU, 45-44, but the Aztecs gathered 20 offensive rebounds against taller and bigger Syracuse. San Diego State was plus-2 in turnovers and steals and each team had nine assists.

But it was SDSU's effort in the first 20 minutes that made it hard for it to earn the decision. In the opening half, the Aztecs made just seven of 29 attempts from the field, went 0-for-4 from distance and missed 12-of-17 from the stripe. At halftime, San Diego State found itself in a 33-19 hole.

In the second half, the Aztecs were better, but not by much. They made 10-of-34 from the floor, made one three-pointer and were 9-for-16 from the line. The improved accuracy and tougher defense helped whittle the lead down to 11 with 14:02 left, but the Orange maintained its double-digit lead the final 20 minutes despite being outscored by SDSU, 30-29.

Jamaal Franklin recorded team-high figures of 11 points and eight rebounds for a San Diego State side that featured four players (JJ O'Brien, Dwayne Polee II, Winston Shepard, Skylar Spencer) making their Aztec debut. Chase Tapley shared team-high honors with eight rebounds and three assists, while Xavier Thames chipped in a career-high five steals and an SDSU-high three assists.

Game 2

No. 25/23 San Diego State 91
San Diego Christian 57

Nov. 13, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.

Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 25/23 San Diego State returned to the friendly confines of Viejas Arena and defeated San Diego Christian, 91-57, in the Aztecs' home opener.

Prior to the game, SDSU unveiled its 2012 Mountain West championship banner, which commemorated its seventh MW title, and handed out championship rings to the 2011-12 team.

After the pomp and circumstance, the Aztecs wasted little time in putting away the Hawks. San Diego State found itself ahead, 8-2, less than 90 seconds into the game and scored 17 points by the first media timeout, a stark contrast to the season-opening game vs. Syracuse when it scored 19 points in the first half alone.

San Diego Christian never got closer than seven points the rest of the way and trailed the Aztecs by a double-figure margin the final 34 minutes, 24 seconds of the game.

SDSU got a huge game from Jamaal Franklin, who finished with 28 points, 12 rebounds, four assists and three blocks in 29 minutes. Backcourt teammate Chase Tapley also enjoyed a productive night as he poured in 18 points, six rebounds, five assists, a career-high three blocks and three steals.

As a team, San Diego State shot 50.8 percent from the field, which was the complete opposite of the opener when it connected on 27.0 percent of its field-goal attempts vs. Syracuse. The Aztecs also racked up a season-high 15 steals, two days after having 14 vs. the Orange.

The Hawks were led by Kevin Dawson's 15 points, with Kwaminique Brandon adding 14. Jacob Garcia grabbed a team-high seven boards.

Game 3

No. 25/23 San Diego State 60
Missouri State 44

Nov. 17, 2012 ♦ Springfield, Mo.

JQH Arena ♦ Att.: 7,272

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - No. 25/23 San Diego State grinded out a 60-44 road victory at Missouri State in the final installment of the Mountain West-Missouri Valley Challenge.

The Aztecs outscored the Bears, 10-1, to end the first half to lead 29-20 at halftime. During the run, SDSU received three-pointers from Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon during a half in which San Diego State had missed its first 10 attempts from behind the arc.

After recess, the Aztecs held a steady lead until Missouri State whittled the San Diego State lead to four points after a 6-2 run. Ahead, 41-37, with 7:21 left in the second half, SDSU answered with eight straight points, which was fueled by back-to-back three-pointers from Rahon and Chase Tapley.

The 8-0 run put San Diego State up by 12 with 4:14 remaining and the visitors never looked back, eventually closing the game on a 6-2 spurt to ultimately win by 16 points. The margin of victory was the largest ever by an opponent inside JQH Arena.

SDSU had three players score in double figures for the first time in 2012-13. Franklin led all players with his second straight double-double of 22 points and 12 rebounds. The junior also added two assists, a career-high three blocks and three steals.

Xavier Thames chipped in 11 points and a game-high five assists, and Rahon scored 10 off the bench.

Despite shooting just 32.2 percent from the field and 18.2 percent from three, the Aztecs managed to earn the road win thanks to its prowess on the boards. San Diego State outrebounded the Bears, 52-34, and pulled down 21 offensive rebounds. SDSU also shot a season-best 69.2 percent from the free-throw line (18-for-26).

Anthony Downing led Missouri State with 16 points and Drew Wilson grabbed a team-high nine rebounds.

Game 4

No. 25/25 San Diego State 79
Arkansas-Pine Bluff 43

Nov. 21, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 25/25 San Diego State snapped out of its season-long shooting slump and beat visiting Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 79-43, in a pre-Thanksgiving tilt at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs came into the game shooting 36.8 percent from the field and 15.3 percent from beyond the arc. On this night, however, SDSU connected on 41.5 percent of its field-goal attempts, including 48.3 percent in the second half, and 40.7 percent from distance.

San Diego State used a balanced offensive attack that featured four double-figure scorers. Jamaal Franklin and Chase Tapley each had 15 apiece, with Franklin adding 12 rebounds and Tapley hitting 5-of-8 three-pointers. DeShawn Stephens logged his first double-double of his career with 11 points and 10 boards, and Skylar Spencer chipped in 12 points.

The Aztecs used one massive run in the first half to ultimately pull away from the Golden Lions. Ahead 15-10 after Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Jalen Floyd converted a layup, San Diego State scored 16 unanswered points to move in front, 31-10. The run featured a pair of Tapley threes, which nearly equaled his season total of three coming into the contest.

The Golden Lions snapped the run with a jumper by Mitchell Anderson, but the Aztecs wound up closing the first period by outscoring their counterparts, 21-4, to end the half up, 36-14. The 14 points allowed by SDSU were the fewest in a half since Jan. 19, 2008, when it gave up 13 first-half points to Wyoming.

At the start of the final 20 minutes, Arkansas-Pine Bluff scored the first bucket to get within 20, but never got closer the rest of the way.

The Golden Lions were led by Davon Haynes' 17 points and 10 rebounds. Anderson, meanwhile, added 10 points and 11 rebounds in 31 minutes off the bench.

Game 5

No. 25/25 San Diego State 66
USC 60

Nov. 25, 2012 ♦ Los Angeles, Calif.
Galen Center ♦ Att.: 4,421

LOS ANGELES - No. 25/25 San Diego State earned a gutsy road win at USC, 66-60, in front of a pro-Aztec crowd of 4,421 inside Galen Center.

SDSU was without the services of senior starting guard Chase Tapley, who suffered a sprained ligament in his knee two days prior to the game. To make matters worse, the Aztecs lost starting senior forward DeShawn Stephens to a hip pointer early in the game and sat 35 of the 40 minutes.

Even with the personnel losses, San Diego State withstood a furious Trojan run that spanned the end of the first half and the beginning of the second to pocket its 10th straight win over the Pac-12 Conference and 25th consecutive victory over schools from the state of California.

The Aztecs looked as if they were going to run away with the decision. The visitors were up 12-2 forcing USC to call timeout before the first media stoppage and ahead 23-8 after a James Rahon three, which forced the Trojans to call time once again.

USC outscored San Diego State, 5-2, in the final 84 seconds of the first half, which put the Aztecs up, 35-23, at intermission. The Trojan run continued in the second half as they blitzed SDSU, 11-2, right out of the gate to get within three points.

Seven consecutive points minutes later gave USC a 41-39 lead, but seven unanswered Aztec points stopped the threat. The Trojans took the lead three more times down the stretch, but never led by more than one point.

San Diego State's game-clinching run started with a Jamaal Franklin dunk, which eventually led to an Xavier Thames free throw and three straight points by Franklin to give the Aztecs a 61-55 lead. USC's Eric Wise cut the lead to four, but Rahon, who started in place of Tapley, provided the dagger with a three to give SDSU an insurmountable lead.

Franklin and Rahon finished with a game-high 17 points, while Thames and JJ O'Brien scored 14 and 12, respectively. Skylar Spencer added a career-high 11 boards.

The first half was evenly played and San Diego State enjoyed the largest lead of the period, six points, after consecutive three-pointers from Chase Tapley, Jamaal Franklin and James Rahon. Up 24-18 with 4:40 left, UCLA's Shabazz Muhammad scored seven of the Bruins' final 11 points in the half and the Aztecs went into halftime ahead, 31-29.

UCLA started the final 20 minutes on fire as Jordan Adams connected on two straight three-point attempts to put the designated home team up, 35-31. Franklin and Tapley put an end to threat as the duo scored SDSU's next seven points. The back-and-forth action continued for the next few minutes until Xavier Thames knocked down a three to put the Aztecs ahead, 44-43, with 15:15 to play.

Game 7

No. 17/15 San Diego State 74
Texas Southern 62

Dec. 3, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - Two days after securing one of the best victories in program history, No. 17/15 San Diego State returned to the hardwood and defeated Texas Southern, 74-62, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs, who defeated UCLA on a neutral floor in their last time out, jumped on the Tigers from the opening tip. SDSU scored nine unanswered points and raced out to a 13-1 lead less than seven minutes into the game.

Texas Southern settled down and cut the Aztec lead to nine points midway through the first half, but San Diego State continued its torrid pace and ended the first half by scoring the final seven points to head into the locker room up by 18, 34-16.

The Tigers opened the final frame on an 11-2 run to get within nine points, but Xavier Thames temporarily put a stop to the scoring spree with two free throws to increase the SDSU lead to 38-27.

San Diego State maintained its double-figure margin for much of the first 10 minutes of the second half until Raymond Penn knocked down one of TSU's five second-half three-pointers to help the Tigers cut the Aztec lead to 49-41.

A minute after Texas Southern cut it to eight, Jamaal Franklin started an Aztec run that put the game out of reach. The junior made three free-throws, which led to nine straight Chase Tapley points and eventually lifted SDSU to a 63-45 lead and a 12-point win.

Despite the loss, the Tigers erased their first-half memories by outscoring the nationally ranked Aztecs, 46-40, in the second half. Texas Southern, however, ultimately had no answer for Franklin, Tapley and DeShawn Stephens.

Franklin finished with a game-high 18 points and season-high 15 rebounds, while adding four assists and two blocked shots. Tapley, who returned to the starting lineup for the first time since suffering a knee injury, turned in 16 points and a team-high five assists. Stephens, meanwhile, added 13 points.

Game 8

No. 17/15 San Diego State 84
UC Santa Barbara 70

Dec. 6, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 17/15 San Diego State continued to roll, this time beating UC Santa Barbara, 84-70, in front of a sold-out Viejas Arena. The victory was the Aztecs' seventh in a row.

Five players scored in double figures for the Aztecs starting with Chase Tapley's 23. Jamaal Franklin added 14 points, while fellow starters JJ O'Brien and Xavier Thames scored 12 and 11, respectively. James Rahon came off the bench to contribute 10 points.

SDSU scored the first four points of the game, only to have the Gauchos answer with five straight to take a 5-4 lead. The one-point cushion was short-lived, however, as O'Brien scored off a tip-in and the Aztecs never looked back. The O'Brien put-back triggered a 14-0 San Diego State run as the Red and Black raced out to an 18-5 lead just 5 minutes, 58 seconds into the contest.

UC Santa Barbara cut the deficit to nine points as it answered the 14-0 spurt with a 7-3 run, but that was the last time the Gauchos would face a single-digit deficit the rest of the game.

As the first half was coming to a close, the Aztecs made two straight three-pointers and extended their streak to six in the second half. Of the six consecutive three-point field goals, Tapley made four and finished the game by making 6-of-8 from behind the three-point arc. The final two three-pointers by Tapley during the streak were six of nine straight points that he ultimately scored for the home side. The final three were off free-throws that put San Diego State up, 64-37.

The victory over UC Santa Barbara was the Aztecs' eighth straight over the Gauchos and 11th consecutive over members of the Big West Conference.

UCSB was led by Kyle Boswell, who equaled Tapley's scoring production of 23 points. Alan Williams added 18 and Taran Brown had 16.

Game 9

No. 18/15 San Diego State 72
San Diego 56

Dec. 15, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.
Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 18/15 San Diego State ran its winning streak to eight games with its seventh consecutive victory over cross-town foe, San Diego, 72-56, at Viejas Arena.

The unranked Toreros made it a ballgame for a majority of the first half and carried an 18-16 lead just as the game was turning 10 minutes old. Aztec sophomore JJ O'Brien hit a jumper to tie the score and soon thereafter San Diego State was off and running.

The O'Brien bucket triggered an additional 10 unanswered points, six of which came off Chase Tapley three-pointers. After Tapley knocked down a 35-foot three-point field goal, SDSU found itself ahead, 28-18, with 5:55 left in the first half.

USD got within six points following a Mike Davis three, but the Aztecs closed the first period on a 7-0 run to take a 39-26 lead into the locker room.

San Diego State made it a 9-0 scoring outburst on the other side of the break after a pair of O'Brien free-throws. USD's leading scorer, Johnny Dee, who was held scoreless in the first half, found the bottom of the net with a three to halt the Aztec run, but the 12-point deficit would be as close as the visitors would get the rest of the way.

Tapley finished the game with a team-high 15 points and Jamaal Franklin registered 14 points and a game-high eight rebounds. DeShawn Stephens added 11 points and six boards to post his third double-figure scoring effort in his last four outings.

Ken Rancifer led all players with 16 points and Dee managed to score nine second-half points. Chris Manresa and Chris Anderson, meanwhile, both finished with 11 points.

The victory extended San Diego State's winning streak over California schools to 28, which is the longest streak since 1996-97. The decision was also SDSU's 21st consecutive victory in the month of December.

Game 10

No. 18/15 San Diego State 76
Point Loma Nazarene 49

Dec. 18, 2012 ♦ San Diego, Calif.

Viejas Arena ♦ Att.: 12,414

SAN DIEGO - No. 18/15 San Diego State overcame a sluggish start without its All-American in the lineup to ultimately defeat Point Loma Nazarene, 76-49, at Viejas Arena.

The Aztecs were without the services of their leading scorer and rebounder, Jamaal Franklin, who sat out the game with a back injury. As a result, SDSU struggled early against the Sea Lions, who made 6-fo-12 three-pointers in the first 20 minutes, despite never trailing and went into halftime ahead, 35-30.

The second half was a totally different story as San Diego State continued its hot shooting while honing in on Point Loma Nazarene. After shooting 50.0 percent in the first half, the Aztecs finished the game by connecting on 60 percent of their attempts from the field. On the other end of the floor, SDSU held PLNU to just seven field goals en route to outscoring the visitors, 41-19.

Chase Tapley made consecutive three-pointers early in the second half to make it a double-digit lead (12) for San Diego State. The Aztecs held a comfortable cushion for the next eight minutes until a 15-3 run put them up 26 with just over two minutes remaining.

Xavier Thames led all players with 17 points and Tapley joined him in double figures with 15. James Rahon, who started for Franklin, added nine points, while JJ O'Brien snatched a season-high nine boards.

The game marked the first for James Johnson. A mid-year transfer from Virginia, Johnson scored six points and had two monster dunks in 12 minutes.
