Head Coach
Mike Friesen
18th Season
Sonoma State '96

Mike Friesen, the winningest head coach in program history, enters his 18th season leading the women's soccer program at San Diego State.

Friesen has been the architect of the most successful run in SDSU women's soccer history. In 17 seasons, he has guided the Aztecs to 11 Mountain West championships (five tournament and six regular season) and five NCAA tournament appearances. In the team's eight appearances in the Mountain West tournament, from 2012 through 2020, Friesen's Aztecs reached the league's championship match eight times. Along the way, he became San Diego State's all-time leader in victories (186; 186-114-44) and winning percentage (.605) and is the only Aztec head coach with a career winning percentage above .600. At the conference level, Friesen owns the most Mountain West wins of any coach in league history (107; 107-35-19) and is the league's active leader in career victories.

During his tenure, SDSU players have garnered one All-American, 22 all-region honors, four Mountain West Offensive Players of the Year, three Mountain West Defensive Players of the Year, five Mountain West Freshmen/Newcomer of the Year and 80 All-Mountain West selections. SDSU student-athletes have also excelled in the classroom as well, with 149 earning Mountain West all-academic honors. Personally, he has twice been named MW Coach of the Year, in 2009 & 2012, and the 2012 NSCAA West Region Coach of the Year.

In the summer of 2017, Friesen was listed among the nation's top Division I women's soccer head coaches by All White Kit's CoachRank 2017. Friesen checked in at No. 14 out of 236 head coaches on the list. All White Kit's CoachRank is a data-driven, objective system of measuring coach performance over a long period of time (3+ years or more at one school). The ranking includes multiple factors such as overall performance, conference tournament effort and NCAA tournament results. Data used for the ranking goes as far back as 2009.

Under Friesen's guidance, the program, which focuses on the process, has made strides into becoming a rising power not only in the West, but nationally. Leading up to and during the 2012 campaign, a major focus for the team was the "process" in becoming great and being a champion. Friesen and his staff's philosophy proved fruitful for the squad as they quickly became one of the top teams in country.

The 2012 campaign was a direct result of the "process" and just a small step in the right direction as SDSU enjoyed the finest season in school history after the Aztecs captured the Mountain West regular-season and tournament titles, advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first-time ever, shared the best record nationally at 21-2-1, and finished the year ranked seventh nationally after rising to as high as third.

Team success breeds individual awards and 2012 was no exception. Friesen helped senior Megan Jurado become San Diego State's first All-American since 1998, and that was after the forward was named MW Offensive Player of the Year. In addition, Haley Palmer was the MW Defensive Player of the Year, and Friesen garnered conference coach-of-the-year honors. Palmer would go on to earn the award in 2013, as well.

From 2013-14, SDSU dominated the Mountain West, winning both the regular-season and tournament crowns. Its three-year sweep of the titles made them just the third MW team to accomplish the feat in league history.

In 2015, the winning continued as SDSU compiled a 15-4-1 record and ended the season on 12-game unbeaten streak, which included 11 straight wins, en route to the MW regular-season title. The Aztecs made history with their fourth straight outright regular-season crown, becoming the first school in Mountain West history to accomplish the feat.

A season later, San Diego State produced a 10-3-4 campaign, and the Aztecs reached the Mountain West title game for a fifth straight year. SDSU's sixth consecutive season of at least ten wins, from 2012-to-2017, gave the program 84 wins, which are the most over any six-year stretch in school history.

The 2017 club played one of the toughest non-conference schedules, but rebounded down the stretch, winning four consecutive games to earn a No. 2 seed in the MW Championship where it posted a pair of shutouts en route to the title. As a result, SDSU returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2014.

Friesen, who was named head coach in 2007, worked for two seasons to establish a culture that ultimately produced a 2009 Mountain West tournament crown. The league championship was the school's first since 1999, and SDSU posted its first NCAA tournament win since 1998. Friesen's Aztecs went on a 16-game unbeaten run, including winning their final eight to propel them into the second round of the 2009 NCAA tourney. During its magical run, SDSU went unbeaten in Mountain West play (5-0-2) for the first time in school history and won the school's first MW tournament title. Friesen ultimately earned his first MW Coach-of-the-Year Award for helping SDSU become the sixth-most improved team in NCAA Division I and post the second-best win improvement nationally (+9).

Eight- and ten-win campaigns followed the 2009 squad before SDSU's current run of success that has featured 117 victories over the last nine seasons (12 wins per year).

Friesen was an assistant coach under former SDSU head coach Dr. Mike Giuliano. In their first season in 2004, SDSU posted 12 shutouts, the second most in school history, and allowed just 18 goals in 21 games, the program's fewest since the 1990 squad gave up 12 goals in 13 games. The effort culminated in the Aztecs' first appearance in the MW championship game since 1999.

Prior to coming to San Diego State, Friesen spent five years working with the UC Santa Barbara women's program. His responsibilities with the Gauchos included coaching the team's offense, recruiting, community outreach and academics.

Upon arriving in Santa Barbara, Friesen helped turn the Gaucho program around, going from a 7-29-2 mark and just 27 goals the two seasons prior to his arrival, to a 24-11-6 mark in 2002-03, tallying 105 scores. Friesen also was integral in signing and developing three straight Big West Conference offensive players of the year.

As a student-athlete, Friesen was an offensive standout at Point Loma Nazarene (1988-89) and Sonoma State (1993-94). He played two years for the Sea Lions before transferring to SSU, where he was a member of an NCAA Division II quarterfinalist squad in 1993. Friesen was also the second-leading scorer in the Northern California Athletic Conference as a senior.

Friesen completed his degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in biomechanics in 1996, before continuing his soccer playing career with the North Bay Breakers of the USISL. For the next several seasons, he played for Juventus in the California Premier Soccer Alliance before signing with the Greek Americans Soccer Club, based in San Francisco, which won two U.S. Open Cup championships in the 1990s.

Friesen and his wife Jamie, who was a former basketball letterwinner at UCLA, have a son, Cole Jamey, and a daughter, Emily Mychael.

COACHING & SUPPORT STAFF

Associate Head Coach Chassion Griggs

Ninth Season
SUM Bible College & Theological Seminary '09

Chassion Griggs enters his ninth season as a full-time assistant, and third as Associate Head Coach. He previously served as an assistant coach and volunteer assistant coach under Mike Friesen and works with the sides keepers.

In 2023, Griggs helped the Aztecs to their sixth Mountain West title since his arrival on The Mesa. The Scarlet and Black finished with a 14-3-3 record including going 9-1-1 in conference matches.

Senior keeper Alexa Madueno, under Griggs' tutelage, recorded the second 100+ save season in program history in 2023, following up 92 saves in 2022. Her 308 career saves rank second in school history behind Aubree Southwick (338). Madueno also ranks in the top ten in the SDSU record book in career goals against average (1.26, 7th) and shutouts (22, 4th). In 2020, Madueno was the first true freshman keeper to start every game in a season for SDSU since Aubree Southwick in 2007 and is the third player, and only true freshman, to play every minute in a season for the Aztecs since Stephanie Pearson in 2003.

In 2019, he guided Brooke Lisowski to inclusion on the Mountain West All-Newcomer Team. The graduate transfer posted a 10-9-1 overall record but was 8-3-0 in conference play. She recorded five shutouts, four in league play, with a 1.72 goals against average.

As an official member of the coaching staff in 2017, Griggs helped the Aztecs win their first Mountain West tournament title since 2014, and return to the NCAA tournament for the first time in three years. Working with the keepers, Griggs mentored a group that posted eight shutouts and allowed one goal or less in 12 of SDSU's final 15 games. Starting keeper Gabby English blanked a pair of foes in the conference tournament to help lead the Aztecs to the title. She earned MW all-tournament recognition for her efforts.

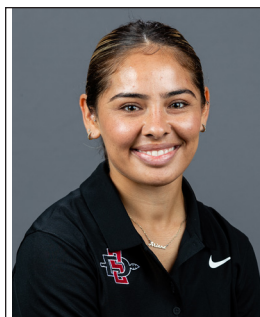

In his two seasons (2014, 2016) as a volunteer assistant coach, the Aztecs posted a record of 25-12-6 (15-4-3 Mountain West), won an MW regular-season and tournament title, and advanced to the NCAA Championship. He tutored four-year letter-winning goalkeeper Melanie Vaughn, who ended up being a three-time all-MW tournament performer and an all-conference second-team goalkeeper her senior campaign.

Griggs brought to Montezuma Mesa six years of collegiate coaching experience from his time spent at Point Loma Nazarene and Cuyamaca College. As an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Sea Lions, he guided the PLNU men's team to its best finish in eight seasons and coached the goalkeeping unit to the 15th-best goals-against average in the nation. During his time with the women's team, he helped PLNU to a PacWest title and an NCAA appearance. Griggs also mentored a goalkeeping group that produced the second-best GAA nationally and the conference goalie of the year, who went on to earn NSCAA all-West Region accolades.

Prior to his time at Point Loma Nazarene, Griggs coached for two seasons at Cuyamaca College. During his stint the men's team in Rancho San Diego, the Coyotes posted back-to-back winning seasons and finished second in their league twice. Griggs also guided Cuyamaca's goalie to back-to-back conference goalkeeper-of-the-year awards.

Outside of the college ranks, Griggs was the director of goalkeeping and a head coach for the San Diego United club team, and a coach for the San Diego Surf Soccer Club.

Griggs is a 2009 graduate of SUM Bible College & Theological Seminary in El Dorado Hills, Calif., and received his Master's Degree from Liberty University in 2014.

Assistant Coach Ariana Robles

Third Season
San Diego State '19

Ariana Robles is entering her third season as an assistant coach at San Diego State.

Robles helped the Aztecs to a 14-3-3 record in 2023 including a regular season title winning 9-1-1 record in Mountain West play. In her first season on staff, SDSU finished 7-6-8 while tying for fourth in the Mountain West with a 5-3-3 record.

A San Diego native and Eastlake high school graduate, Robles played for the Aztecs from 2016-2019.

"To have an alumni join our staff is so exciting," head coach Mike Friesen said. "Ari was a fantastic player, but even more importantly she was an unbelievable teammate. I have loved being a part of Ari's growth over her time here and have continued to watch her grow since she graduated. I am excited to see her take off as a coach and know that she will have a huge impact on our team culture. She has a unique ability to connect with people and push them to be their best."

A four-year varsity letterwinner, Robles appeared in 71 games for the Aztecs, and started in 62 of them. Robles helped the Aztecs to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017, a Mountain West Tournament title in 2017, and a Mountain West regular season title in 2019. She was a part of three teams that posted double-digit wins, and during her time at SDSU the Aztecs posted an impressive 25-11-7 record in Mountain West Conference play. A standout student in the classroom as well, she was a three-time Academic All-Mountain West selection (2017, 2018, 2019).

"I am extremely grateful to be back at the program that holds so many memories for me," Robles said. "I'm excited to see what I can give back to this program from the other side of the lines now and help bring another Mountain West title back to San Diego State!"

After graduating from San Diego State with a degree in psychology, Robles coached at Eastlake High School during the 2021-22 season and helped lead the Titans to a 9-8-2 record.

Assistant Coach
Sean Williams

First Season
Point Loma Nazarene '18

Sean Williams joins Mike Friesen's staff for the 2024 season as the goalkeeper coach.

Williams spent last season in the same role at the University of San Diego. Since 2018, he has coached the DMCV Sharks club team, which now goes by Legends San Diego, guiding the squad to the Surf Cup title and a Surf College Cup.

A native of San Jose, California, Williams played at Point Loma Nazarene, leading the Sea Lions to their first tournament birth in program history in 2017. After wrapping up his collegiate career, Williams competed for the San Diego Zest of USL League 2.

Chuck Clegg was the Aztecs' head coach in 1989, the program's inaugural season. He returned to coach the team from 1994-2003. His 122 career victories and .597 winning percentage (122-81-8) rank second in San Diego State women's soccer history.

Clegg was at the helm for the program's first conference championship, when SDSU went 13-5-3 and won the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship for the 1995 season. Three years later, in 1998, Clegg led San Diego State to its second WAC Championship and then to its first NCAA Tournament berth.

Senior keeper Alexa Madueno recorded the second 100+ save season in program history in 2023, following up 92 saves in 2022. Her 308 career saves rank second in school history behind Aubree Southwick (338). Madueno also ranks in the top ten in the SDSU record book in career goals against average (1.26, 7th) and shutouts (22, 4th). In 2020, Madueno was the first true freshman keeper to start every game in a season for SDSU since Aubree Southwick in 2007 and is the third player, and only true freshman, to play every minute in a season for the Aztecs since Stephanie Pearson in 2003.

In 2020, midfielder Laura Fuentes, then a junior, was named first-team All-Mountain West and a United Soccer Coaches second-team All-Pacific Region performer. She totaled a single-season career best four assists which were the second most on the side and ranked No. T-2 in the league. In addition, she scored two goals, including the game winner in a 3-1 victory over Boise State.

A starter in 48-of-49 career games, she is a perfect 3-for-3 on penalty kicks and has totaled three game winners.

The Newark, Calif., native was the 2018 Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and has been named a second-team all-league performer twice (2018 & 2019).

Chloe Frisch (2017-20) completed her eligibility tied for eighth on the program's career assists list (16). Following her senior campaign, she was named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-Mountain West performer after leading the league in shots & shots on goal. In addition, the 2020 United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's All-Pacific Region performers was tied for third in goals and shots on goals in the Mountain West. Nationally, she ranked in the top-25 in shots on goal (No. 21) and shots on goal per game (No. 23) and Top Drawer Soccer ranked her No. 79 among the top-100 women's soccer players in the nation.

Sarah Broacha (2017-20) was a starter in 70 of the 71 games in which she played for San Diego State. A center defender, she anchored the Aztecs back line, and in her four seasons on The Mesa totaled three goals and four assists. The final goal of her career, was scored with six seconds remaining regulation and was the equalizer which sent the SDSU and New Mexico to overtime in the 2020 Mountain West championship match.

Broacha was a first-team All-Mountain West performer in her senior season and a second-team honoree as a junior. She was as successful in the classroom as on the field, earning Mountain West Scholar-Athlete recognition twice (2019 & 2020), Academic All-Mountain West three times (2018, 2019 & 2020) and four Aztec Scholar-Athlete honors (2017, 2018, 2019 & 2020).

BOLD - indicates 2024 team member

In a game against Colorado College on October 3, 2014, Kelsey Booth assisted on each goal in a 3-0 Aztecs victory. Her three assists equaled the program record for a single game and she became the fifth San Diego State women's soccer player to accomplish the mark and the first since the 1999 season.

RECORD BOOK

Aubree Southwick (2007-10) made more saves in her Aztecs career (338) than any keeper in program history. She also set the program record for career shutouts with 26 clean sheets.
