The Bears have also won a combined five times over in-state rivals UCLA and USC during Wilcox's tenure, as well as ended long losing streaks Wilcox inherited from his predecessors with multiple victories against Stanford, USC and Washington. In 2018 and 2019, Wilcox led Cal to back-to-back winning campaigns and bowl games for the first time since 2008 and 2009 then returned to a bowl in 2023. Wilcox's teams are 16-4 in regular-season non-conference games with a 5-2 mark against Power 4 teams including two-game sweeps of North Carolina (ACC) and Ole Miss (SEC) before last Saturday's win at Auburn.

- Fernando Mendoza came out on fire in last Saturday's win against Auburn by completing 19-of-21 passes for 205 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in the first half for a 203.90 rating and was 6-of-6 for 76 yards on the opening drive that he capped with a 19-yard scoring strike to Nyziah Hunter to tie the game at 7-7 after Auburn had scored on its first possession.
- Mendoza completed 25-of-36 passes for 233 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a 142.14 passer rating at Auburn with his 25 completions equaling a career high (also 25 vs. USC, 2023).
- Mendoza, who started the final eight games of 2023 before being engaged in a quarterback competition with incoming transfer Chandler Rogers throughout spring football and training camp, has started Cal's first two games and completed 40-of-58 passes (career-high 69.0%) for 391 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a 142.7 rating. Mendoza's 69.0 completion percentage is up six percentage points from the 63.0% he posted in 2023 with his 68.2% against UC Davis and 69.4% at Auburn the highest two single-game percentages in his career. He also has no turnovers.
- Mendoza completed 153-of-243 for 1,708 yards with 14 touchdowns and 10 interceptions in 2023 after starting the season as a third-string quarterback. He earned fourth-team All-Pac-12 honors (Phil Steele) and was a Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year honorable mention pick of league coaches.

JAVIAN THOMAS HAS BIG GAME AT AUBURN

- The hype heading into the 2024 season has been on Jaydn Ott, but on Saturday at Auburn it was Jaivian Thomas who led the room. Thomas had the second rushing and third overall touchdown of his career on a key career-long 32-yard run early in the fourth quarter that put the Golden Bears in front, 21-7. Thomas, who finished with career highs of eight rushes and 53 yards rushing at Auburn, now lead the Bears with 72 yards rushing and a 5.1 yards per rush average on 14 carries.
- Ott, who has 24 carries for 60 yards and a team-high two rushing touchdowns while adding four receptions for 34 yards over the first two games, racked up the honors heading into the 2024 season highlighted by preseason third and fourth-team All-American selections from Athlon and Phil Steele, respectively, as well as first-team All-ACC recognition from the league's media and Athlon. He was also on several preseason watch lists (Doak Walker Award, Maxwell Award, Paul Hornung Award, Polynesian Player of the Year, Senior Bowl, Wuerffel Trophy) and is Cal's nominee for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.
- Ott's two rushing touchdowns both came in the season opener against UC Davis and moved him into a tie for eighth place on Cal's all-time list with 22 rushing TD's. It was Ott's fifth career game with two or more rushing touchdowns and his seventh straight contest with at least one TD overall before the streak was broken when he did not score at Auburn.
- Ott has has 2,272 rushing yards through his first 26 games at Cal over two-plus seasons and has moved within 232 rushing yards of Cal's top-10 list. His career average of 114.0 all-purpose yards per game is fifth nationally among active FBS players, while his 87.4 rushing yards per game is seventh.
- Ott was named an honorable mention All-American (Phil Steele) and was a first-team All-Pac-12 pick of the league's coaches as a 2023 sophomore when he rushed 245 times for 1,315 yards with 12 touchdowns on the ground while leading the Pac-12 and ranking among NCAA leaders in rushing yards (No. 14 NCAA), as well as per-game averages for rushing yards (109.6, No. 9 NCAA) and all-purpose yards (135.67, No. 6 NCAA).
- Byron Cardwell Jr. (7 rushes, 16 yards) and Kadarius Calloway (9 rushes, 15 yards) are the other running backs with carries.

- Dyches posted 107 receptions for 1,193 yards and nine touchdown catches in four seasons at Maryland, including a career-high 49 receptions for 491 yards and two scoring grabs that earned him third-team All-Big 10 honors as a 2023 junior.

HUNTER AND ANDERSON LEAD SEVERAL RECEIVERS COMING UP BIG IN FIRST TWO GAMES

– Several receivers have had strong performances in the first two games with the group led by returnees Nyзия Hunter (8 receptions, 91 yards, 3 TD) and Mavin Anderson (8-65). Others in the room with receptions include Jonathan Brady (5-79), Mikey Matthews (5-27), Mason Starling (3-42) and Trond Grizzell (2-17).

– Hunter, who was mostly running with the third-team unit to start training camp and did not play in a game as a 2023 freshman, has all three of the room's touchdown receptions and has arguably been the biggest story. Hunter picked a ball up off his shoelaces in the end zone on fourth and goal for a three-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter against UC Davis and then the first two touchdowns at Auburn on receptions of 19 yards in the first quarter and 13 in the second. Hunter finished with four receptions for 47 yards against UC Davis and four for 44 at Auburn.

– Anderson also has four catches in each game (34 yards, UC Davis; 31 yards, Auburn). Anderson's eight catches in the first two games match his total from an entire injury-plagued 2023 sophomore season after going for 37 receptions and 372 yards with four touchdown catches as a 2022 true freshman.

– Brady posted Cal career best of four receptions and 63 yards at Auburn with the yards a game high and catches equal to the game-high-tying four by Anderson and Hunter against the Aggies.

– Starling had three receptions for 42 yards at Auburn for his first catches since suffering back-to-back season-ending injuries that limited him to two games in 2022 and none in 2023.

– Grizzell was a big story on the 2023 team with 590 yards receiving and tied for second with 39 receptions, as well as a Big Game hero with career highs of seven receptions, 136 yards receiving and two touchdown catches against Stanford last year.

– Matthews (Utah) and Brady (New Mexico State) were two of the nine newcomers including five transfers that make up over half of the 16-player room with three of the others – Cole Boscia (Colorado), Kyion Grayes (Ohio State) and Tobias Merriweather (Notre Dame) – all unavailable for the the first two contests.

OFFENSIVE LINE MIXING AND MATCHING AMONG TOP SIX

– There has been a lot of mixing and matching on the offensive line in the first two games with only right tackle T.J. Session and left guard Rush Reimer playing all 139 of the team's offensive snaps at their starting position. Bastian Swinney has also played 139 offensive snaps and Matthew Wykoff 136 but each has played at and started two different positions with Swinney at right guard and Wykoff at center in the opener against UC Davis before swapping starting spots at Auburn. Nick Morrow has made both starts at left tackle and taken 102 snaps, while Victor Stoffel has come off the bench and played the other 37 snaps at left tackle. Trent Ramsey (3 snaps at UC Davis) is the only other offensive lineman to see action.

– Projected starters Sioape Vatikani (right guard) and Will McDonald (center) have yet to play.

– Mike Bloesch is in his second season as Cal's offensive line coach in 2024 and also his first full campaign as the team's offensive coordinator after having been promoted to that position between the end of the 2023 regular season and the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl.

– Cal's 2023 offensive line was given much of the credit for the Bears averaging 172.8 rushing yards per contest, which was its highest mark since 2012, and for opening holes Jaydn Ott, who in 2023 paced the Pac-12 and ranked among the nation's best in all-purpose yards per game (135.67, #6 NCAA), rushing yards per game (109.6, #9 NCAA) and rushing yards (1,315, #14 NCAA), while also tying for second in the league with 15 total touchdowns (#19T NCAA) and 12 rushing touchdowns (#29T NCAA).

– Cal's 2024 offensive line features a trio of returning starters in Session, Vatikani and Wykoff. Session has now played in 35 collegiate games with 32 starts including 25 games played and 22 starts at Cal, including each of the last 17. Wykoff has played in 31 collegiate contests with 23 starts and has appeared in all 15 contests possible at Cal with starts in each of the last 14. He made his lone start at center for the Bears against UC Davis in the 2024 season opener.

– The offensive line was bolstered following the spring of 2024 by the addition of transfers McDonald (Coastal Carolina) and Braden Miller (Michigan State) after Reimer (Montana State) and Stoffel (Temple) joined the Bears as mid-year transfers in January. McDonald has the most experience of the group having played in 51 games over five campaigns at Coastal Carolina (2019-23) for teams that combined for a 44-19 overall record and 27-13 mark in Sun Belt contests while winning one Sun Belt East Division title and another co-division crown, and reached four bowl games with a pair of wins while a third was canceled due to COVID-19. Reimer was a 2022 third-team FCS All-American and 2023 first-team All-Big Sky selection who made 30 starts from 2021-23 for Montana State teams that combined for a 32-7 overall record during the period, posted a 21-3 Big Sky mark along with a co-league title during his 2022 sophomore campaign and reached the FCS playoffs in all three seasons including a run to the national championship game as a 2021 freshman. Stoffel played in 35 games with 20 starts over his last five campaigns at Temple (2019-23). Miller played three games off the bench at Michigan State (2022-23).

CARLTON, REESE BRING EXCITEMENT AND EXPERIENCE ON THE EDGE

– Cal features a ton of returning production at outside linebacker in the senior duo of Xavier Carlton (fifth year) and David Reese (seventh year) with each playing in all 13 games a year ago and combining for 83 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss (-103 yards), 11.0 sacks (-72 yards), five pass breakups, nine quarterback hurries, one fumble recovery and three forced fumbles. Carlton started 11 games in 2023 and finished with 47 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss (-15 yards), 4.5 sacks (-14 yards), two pass breakups, five quarterback hurries and one fumble recovery. Reese started six contests last season including each of the final four and totaled 36 tackles, team highs of 8.0 tackles for loss (-61 yards), 6.5 sacks (-58 yards) and three forced fumbles, three pass breakups, four quarterback hurries and a team-high three forced fumbles.

– But the duo has been limited to begin the 2024 season with Carlton's five tackles and one QBH against UC Davis the lone stats by either other than participation.

– Ryan McCulloch got his first career start by replacing Reese in the starting lineup at Auburn and had a key pass breakup when he hit Auburn QB Payton Thorne as he was releasing a ball that was picked off by Ja'ir Smith.

– Eastern Kentucky transfer Cheikhaliou Fall (2 tackles, 1.0 TFL, 2 QBH), Myles Williams (1 tackle) and Missouri transfer Serigne Tounkara (8 snaps) have also played in both contests.

LAST MEETING VS. SAN DIEGO STATE

Bears Rally Late But Fall At San Diego State
Sept. 10, 2016

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – A night full of offensive fireworks, along with periodic bouts of sloppy football on both sides, provided plenty of intrigue until the final moments of the game but a late attempt at a thrilling comeback fell short for the Cal football team as the Bears fell 45-40 to San Diego State at Qualcomm Stadium.

Davis Webb led Cal on the stat sheet, completing 41 of a school-record 72 pass attempts for 522 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. Chad Hansen had his second straight strong performance as Webb's top target and tied his career-high in receptions, set just two weeks earlier, with 14 catches for 190 yards and a touchdown. The Bears outgained the Aztecs 604-463 but Donnel Pumphrey rushed for 281 yards and three touchdowns to lead SDSU offensively.

After Cal's Derron Brown recovered an onside kick with 55 seconds left, the Bears got one last chance to stage a comeback. And, facing potentially one last gasp on 4th and 7 with less than 30 seconds left, Webb found Vic Wharton III for an 11-yard gain to put the Bears on the SDSU 29-yard line. A pass to Demetris Robertson moved the ball to the 22, an incompleteness brought up third down, and Damontae Kazee made the game-clinching play, tipping Webb's pass to himself for an interception.

Facing a four-point deficit and a San Diego State team that had led since the second quarter, Cal needed a stop late in the fourth quarter to give itself a shot at one last rally. Pumphrey made that comeback less likely, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive in which he gained 63 yards himself with a 4-yard touchdown run to put the Aztecs ahead 45-34 with 2:47 left to play.

Webb wasn't quite done, navigating the Bears down the field quickly to keep hope alive. A 2-yard touchdown pass to Raymond Hudson with 56 seconds left made it 45-40 Aztecs, but a shovel pass attempt on the 2-point conversion ended short of the goal line to keep the SDSU lead at five. Cal's onside kick attempt landed in the outstretched arms of Brown, giving Cal one final shot.

Before Cal tried to rally late, the Bears used a solid third quarter to narrow the SDSU lead and climb back into contention. Pumphrey pushed San Diego State's margin to 17 with a 57-yard touchdown run but less than two minutes later, Webb hit Robertson in stride for a 59-yard scoring strike that doubled as Robertson's first collegiate touchdown.

After Cal forced a three-and-out to get the ball back, Matt Anderson converted on a 45-yard field goal attempt to leave Cal down 38-31 at the quarter break. Minutes later, momentum shifted further when Evan Rambo grabbed a Christian Chapman pass for an interception, the first by a SDSU quarterback in 14 games, and Anderson converted from 36 yards as Cal trailed 38-34 with 13:27 to play.

It took a few drives for both offenses to warm up Saturday but once they did, the first half became a back and forth battle on the scoreboard. San Diego State struck first, forcing a Cal fumble and then scoring on the next offensive play on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Christian Chapman to Rashaad Penny.

From that point until the end of the quarter, the Bears and Aztecs matched each other touchdown for touchdown. Webb went right over the top of the defense to find Bug Rivera for a 33-yard score but the Aztecs countered with a 100-yard kickoff return for a score by Penny. Webb again went up top to respond, this time connecting with Hansen for a 49-yard touchdown after Hansen simply ran right by man coverage on the outside to get free.

The big plays continued in the second quarter. Pumphrey, who moved past Marshall Faulk for No. 1 on SDSU's all-time rushing, turned an inside draw into a 33-yard touchdown run for the Aztecs but again it was Webb who had an answer. His 21-yard touchdown pass to Raymond Hudson came despite a pass interference call on the Aztecs, gave Hudson his first career touchdown as a Golden Bear and tied the score again.

San Diego State scored the final 10 points of the first half to take a 31-21 lead into the break. A 10-yard interception return for a touchdown by Ronley Lakalaka and a 39-yard field goal by John Baron provided the difference and Cal's final effort to score fizzled around midfield.

TRAVERS FAMILY HEAD FOOTBALL COACH JUSTIN WILCOX

Justin Wilcox has compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins as the Travers Family Head Football Coach and is in his eighth campaign on the job and Cal and his first in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2024. Wilcox is the first Cal head coach to win the Big Game three straight times on the road since Pappy Waldorf captured six straight at Stanford from 1937-51. The 2023 victory at Stanford was Cal's fourth win in the Big Game in the last five meetings, including three in a row overall (2021-23) and three straight on The Farm (2019, '21, '23). The Golden Bears have also won a combined five times over in-state rivals UCLA and USC during Wilcox's tenure, as well as ended long losing streaks Wilcox inherited from his predecessors with multiple victories against Stanford, USC and Washington. In 2018 and 2019, Wilcox led Cal to back-to-back winning campaigns and bowl games for the first time since 2008 and 2009, then returned to a bowl in 2023. The Bears have knocked off five teams that either won Pac-12 titles that season or were reigning league champs during Wilcox's tenure and taken down four AP Top 25 teams in No. 8 Washington State (2017), No. 15 Washington (2018), No. 14 Washington (2019) and No. 23 Oregon (2020).

Most recently, he led the Bears to bowl-eligibility and a Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl selection in 2023 after wins in each of their final three regular-season games at home against Washington State and then on the road at state rivals Stanford and UCLA. Cal's other victories in 2023 came at North Texas in the season opener and at home against Idaho and Arizona State. Five of the team's seven losses were against ranked teams at No. 5 Washington in its' Pac-12 opener and then in a school-record four straight games against ranked squads (No. 15 Oregon State, at No. 16 Utah, No. 24 USC, at No. 6 Oregon). The Bears also fell to perennial and national powerhouse Auburn in their home opener and Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. All seven teams Cal was defeated by and UCLA played in bowl games with Washington reaching the championship game of the College Football Playoff, while Idaho reached the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs.

The 2023 Bears featured running back Jaydn Ott, a 2023 honorable mention All-American (Phil Steele), first-team All-Pac-12 selection and Pac-12's rushing champion, and 2024 Heisman Trophy candidate, who led the league and ranked among the nation's best in all-purpose yards per game (135.67, #6 NCAA), rushing yards per game (109.6 ypg, #9 NCAA) and rushing yards (1315, #14 NCAA). Ott, who had five of the Pac-12's top nine games for rushing yards in 2023 while no one else had more than one, also tied for second in the Pac-12 with 15 total touchdowns (#19T NCAA) and second with 12 rushing touchdowns (#29T NCAA) to lead a rushing offense that averaged 172.8 yards on the ground per game in 2023, which was fourth in the Pac-12 and Cal's highest mark since 2012, including four games of 235 or more yards with a 357-yard rushing game in the season-opener at North Texas that was the most by the Bears since rushing for 431 against Washington in 2008.

The 2023 defense led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both pacing the Pac-12. In addition, the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally. All six players from Cal's 2023 Independence Bowl squad who were honored on All-Pac-12 teams last season return in 2024, with Ott joined by second-team punter Lachlan Wilson, honorable mention choices in outside linebacker David Reese and defensive back Craig Woodson, and a pair of freshman honorees in Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year inside linebacker Cade Uluave and Freshman Offensive Player of the Year honorable mention selection quarterback Fernando Mendoza. Uluave and tight end Jack Endries were also 2023 Freshman All-American picks with Uluave a three-time first-teamer (College Football Network, FWAA, The Athletic) while Endries earned first-team recognition from College Football News and second-team honors from The Athletic, in addition to being an honorable mention choice of the College Football Network.

The Bears built on their momentum at the end of the 2023 regular season and have added 54 players overall, 41 scholarship players and 28 first-year transfers to their 2024 roster including 18 players that arrived on campus in January and participated in 2024 spring practice. Cal's transfer portal recruiting class currently ranks No. 14 according to On3 and had been as high as No. 6 at one point.

Wilcox has coached 12 players as Cal's head coach who are currently on NFL rosters in Christopher Brooks (Miami), Camryn Bynum (Minnesota), Jake Curhan (Seattle), Ashtyn Davis (New York Jets), Cameron Goode (Miami), Jaylinn Hawkins (New England), Elijah Hicks (Chicago), Patrick McMorris (Miami), Patrick Mekari (Baltimore), Daniel Scott (Indianapolis, injured reserve), Jackson Sirmon (New York Jets) and Jake Tonges (San Francisco). A total of 28 Cal players since Wilcox became the Bears' head coach in 2017 have been on NFL rosters.

Wilcox also spent three seasons as Cal's linebackers coach from 2003-05 in his first position as a full-time coach. The Bears posted a 26-12 record during his first stint in Berkeley with trips to the Insight, Holiday and Las Vegas Bowls.

GAME 1: BEARS PULL AWAY FOR WIN TO OPEN 2024 SEASON

BERKELEY – The California football team pitched a second-half shutout to pull away from UC Davis in a 31-13 victory in its 2024 season opener Saturday afternoon at California Memorial Stadium.

The Golden Bears recorded three interceptions, including one by senior Nohl Williams, who also returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown.

"Nohl was awesome," Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox said. "The kick return was huge. It was a momentum changer. I really like his competitiveness."

Redshirt freshman Nyziah Hunter had four catches for 47 yards and his first career touchdown in his collegiate debut while Jaydn Ott added two scoring runs for Cal, which has won all 12 meetings all-time against the Aggies.

Linebacker Cade Uluave and transfer cornerback Marcus Harris also picked off UC Davis quarterback Miles Hastings while Ott and junior Mavin Anderson each also added four receptions. Sophomore Fernando Mendoza started for Cal and went 15-for-22 for 158 yards and a touchdown. Transfer Chandler Rogers also saw time for the Bears, completing 3 of 6 passes for 21 yards and also gaining 17 yards on the ground.

"I didn't really expect to play this game. I just came in ready," Hunter said. "I kind of blacked out when I scored that touchdown. There was so much emotion going through my body."

The Aggies took a brief 13-7 lead late in the second quarter before Williams ran back the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown. The Bears would not relinquish the advantage again, as Ott and Hunter found the end zone in the second half and new placekicker Ryan Coe booted a 25-yard field goal.

"In the first half, we had good effort but our execution was lacking," Wilcox said. "We weren't in any type of rhythm as a team. I'm really proud of the way the guys persevered through that. Once you get out there and you trust your training. ... all of the sudden things start going your way. It was really a tale of two halves."

GAME 2: BEARS TURN BACK AUBURN. 21-14

AUBURN, Ala. – There is only one thing sacred in the California football program, and it has nothing to do with any player or coach.

It's the football itself.

Two games into the 2024 season, the Golden Bears are once again demonstrating the importance of getting the football in their hands. Saturday, it resulted in one of the most pivotal nonconference wins in Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox's eight seasons at Cal.

The Bears forced Auburn into five turnovers without committing one themselves, and Cal held on for a 21-14 victory over Auburn in front of a sellout crowd of 88,043 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

"We talked about it going into today, that we wanted to be plus-2 or plus-3 (in turnover margin)," Wilcox said. "It was about protecting the football and not giving it to them. That's the only sacred thing – not a coach or player. It's the football, and we took care of it today."

The Bears (2-0) ranked third in the country last season in turnovers gained and already have eight this season. Defensive back Nohl Williams had two interceptions against the Tigers to give him three for the season, while Ja'ir Smith and Lu-Magia Hearn III also picked off Auburn quarterback Payton Thorne. Cal also took it away when linebacker Teddye Buchanan stripped running back Jarquez Hunter and the ball was recovered by safety Craig Woodson.

"All the work we've put in is coming together – we just have to keep it going," Williams said. "Our defense did a good job of getting so many turnovers and getting the ball back to the offense."

It looked as though the Bears may have had a turnover for points on the second play of the game when linebacker Cade Uluave initially appeared to intercept a Thorne pass and return it for a touchdown. But video review revealed the ball hit the turf before Uluave could possess the ball, and the Tigers ended up scoring a touchdown on their first possession to lead 7-0 less than four minutes into the game.

But Cal answered immediately, led by a breathtaking opening possession by quarterback Fernando Mendoza. He led the offense on an eight-play, 75-yard drive – going 6-for-6 for 57 yards, culminating in a 19-yard touchdown throw to freshman Nyziah Hunter.

Mendoza completed his first eight passes of the game before throwing an incompletion on an intentional pass out of bounds, and then connected on seven more attempts in a row. One of those went for another touchdown to Hunter to give Cal a 14-7 lead in the second quarter.

Hunter, who began training camp as a third-string wide receiver but has received a chance to play because of injuries to others at his position, now has three scoring catches in his first two games.

"I didn't really expect to play this season," Hunter said. "I just came out prepared and ready to play. It was a tough game. I felt like I was part of the team and can make plays as well."

When Cal's defense wasn't forcing turnovers, it was for the most part also silencing Auburn's offense. The Bears held the Tigers to just 286 yards of total offense, led by linebacker Teddye Buchanan's stat-stuffing performance. Buchanan, a graduate transfer from UC Davis, recorded 11 tackles – including two sacks – while also forcing a fumble.

"He's a really good football player – but his approach is as important as anything," Wilcox said. "Around the building, how he approaches meetings and walk-throughs – he's a total professional. There's not much he isn't prepared for. That doesn't mean he's perfect, but if someone makes a play on him, you'll have to earn it."

Cal extended the lead to 21-7 on a 32-yard touchdown run by Jaivian Thomas with 11:27 left to play, but the Tigers answered to cut the deficit to 21-14 with just over six minutes left. Auburn's final two possessions ended on Cal interceptions.

"The leaders of this team came together with the other guys and talked about this being Cal vs. the world," Mendoza said. "We knew if we executed play by play, we would have a great result. Great teams finish out close games, and that was a big emphasis this offseason. We finished this game on the national stage, and I'm proud of all of my guys."
