AZTECS PREP FOR HOME MATCHES VS. UTAH STATE, NEVADA

- > After a six-match road swing over the last three weeks, San Diego State opens the home portion of its Mountain West schedule when Utah State and Nevada invade Aztec Court at Peterson Gym this weekend.
- > The Aztecs will face the Aggies on Thursday, Oct. 3, at 6 p.m. PT, before entertaining Nevada on Saturday, Oct. 5, at noon.
- > Along with live stats, both matches will air live on the Mountain West Network with links available on GoAztecs.com. Fans can also catch the live action on their smartphones or TVs by downloading the MW app.
- > SDSU will celebrate Breast Awareness Month with its Dig Pink Match on Thursday vs. Utah State, giving away free pink caps to the first 250 patrons.
- > In addition, free Aztec pennants will be distributed to the first 250 spectators prior to Saturday's clash with Nevada.

QUICK HITS

- > San Diego State split two matches on the road last weekend to open Mountain West play, dispatching Air Force in four sets (16-25, 25-17, 25-20, 25-13) before dropping a 3-2 heartbreaker at New Mexico (22-25, 25-27, 26-24, 25-21, 14-16).
- > Jasmine Davis led the team with 32 kills (3.56/set) and hit .397 for the weekend, featuring a season-high 20 put-aways against UNM.
- > In addition, the Aztecs received 29 kills from Taylor Underwood (3.22/set), while Shea Rubright continued her hot hitting with a .563 efficiency in two matches, blasting 19 kills (2.11/set) to go with 13 blocks (1.44/set).
- > Despite the split, SDSU has still equaled its best start to a season since 2001, logging a 9-3 record through 12 matches.
- > For the season, Rubright owns a league-leading .510 hitting percentage, which ranks second in the nation as of Oct. 2.
- > San Diego State has posted more kills than the opposition in all 12 matches this year and has logged a greater hitting percentage on 11 occasions. In 2023, the Aztecs recorded a higher efficiency in 11 matches for the entire season, finishing with an 8-3 ledger in that category.
- > Additionally, SDSU has displayed tremendous improvement at the net, collecting more blocks than opponents in nine matches (7-2) already this season after leading in blocks just once for the entire 2023 campaign.

SERIES RECORD VS. UTAH STATE

- > Despite losing five straight to the Aggies, the Aztecs still lead the all-time series 18-12, including a 12-3 mark in San Diego.
- > SDSU dropped a tough four-set decision on the road to Utah State in the lone meeting between the two squads last year ((26-24, 19-25, 24-26, 27-29).
- > In that match, the Aztecs and Aggies combined for a whopping 43 ties and 20 lead changes in the see-saw battle, as the teams finished with nearly identical statistics. Despite trailing in hitting percentage (.219 to .217) and digs (61-54), USU maintained a slim advantage in kills (60-59), team blocks (12.0 to 11.0) and service aces (9-4) to hang on for the victory.
- > SDSU logged its best attack percentage of the contest with a .444 efficiency in a wild fourth set, knocking down 18 kills against just two errors in 36 attempts. However, the Aggies countered with a .341 clip, blasting 22 put-aways against seven miscues in 44 swings to help keep the Scarlet and Black at bay.
- > The teams traded punches in a final frame that witnessed 15 ties and seven lead changes alone, with the Aztecs fighting valiantly to extend the match after overcoming a 14-8 deficit. SDSU forged a trio of late one-point leads but could not build on its good fortune. Following Mikela Labno's solo block which gave the visitors a 25-24 edge, the Aztecs were unable to regain the upper hand. The two sides alternated points on the ensuing five serves before a Utah State kill abruptly ended the affair.

SERIES RECORD VS. NEVADA

- > After splitting two meetings during the 2023 campaign, the Aztecs own a 16-7 advantage in the all-time series with the Wolf Pack dating back to 2011. SDSU sports an 11-2 record against Nevada in San Diego and a 5-5 ledger in Reno.
- > The Aztecs posted a narrow 3-0 sweep in their last encounter with the Wolf Pack in Peterson Gym on Nov. 2, 2023 (25-22, 25-23, 25-22).
- > In a match characterized as a defensive struggle, SDSU maintained a decisive edge in kills (41-27) and held a slight edge in service aces (6-5) against Nevada, as each side posted 23 attack errors, 46 digs and eight team blocks apiece. Additionally, the Aztecs survived nine service errors, compared to four for the Wolf Pack, to hold on for the victory.
- > Among returners, Taylor Underwood led all players with 12 kills, while Madison Corf finished with eight put-aways of her own. In addition, the setting responsibilities were shared by Fatimah Hall (19 assists) and Sarena Gonzalez (12 assists).

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

> Picked to finish second the Mountain West preseason coaches poll, Utah State has stumbled out of the gates in 2024, posting a 3-10 overall record and an 0-2 mark to start conference play. The Aggies dropped a pair of five-set decisions at home last weekend to Colorado State (15-25, 25-22, 18-25, 27-25, 12-15) and Wyoming (27-25, 20-25, 25-22, 23-25, 12-15). USU is 3-5 in road/neutral matches this year but has come up empty on its home floor (0-5). The Aggies have lost three matches to ranked opponents this season, suffering consecutive sweeps at the hands of No. 8 Purdue (home - Sept. 7) and No. 23 USC (road - Sept. 12) before falling at No. 19 Brigham Young (Sept. 18). Junior Adna Mehmedovic leads USU with 2.71 kills per set, followed by freshman Loryn Helgesen, who is averaging 2.39 put-aways per frame. Kelsey Watson, a senior transfer from Loyola Chicago, finds herself among the Mountain West leaders, ranking sixth with 1.16 blocks per set, while freshman Jagoda Bialek anchors the Aggie back row with 2.56 digs per set. Elsewhere, freshmen Kaylie Kofe (5.16 assists/set), sophomore Olivia Tukuafu (3.92 assists/set) and freshman Kate Lijic (3.64/set) have seen action at the setter position. As a team, USU ranks sixth in the MW in service aces (1.40/set) but is slotted 10th in kills (11.35/set), assists (10.76/set) and hitting percentage (.154) while occupying the basement in digs (11.02/set). The Aggies are under the direction of fifth-year head coach Rob Neilson, who arrived on the Logan campus after serving as the lead assistant coach for the U.S. men's national team from 2017-19. Prior to his stint with Team USA, Neilson spent 10 years on the Brigham Young men's volleyball coaching staff, including the final two as the program's associate head coach in 2014-15. He played collegiately at BYU from 2003-06, starting at setter during the 2005 and 2006 campaigns.

> Nevada snapped a three-match skid on Sept. 26 with a 3-2 victory over Wyoming in its conference opener (25-22, 20-25, 25-16, 22-25, 16-14) before dropping a four-set decision to Colorado State two days later (18-25, 25-21, 19-25, 14-25). Last weekend's encounters marked the Wolf Pack's first two home matches of the season after posting a 7-5 record in road/neutral contests during their non-conference slate. Prior to Saturday's clash at SDSU, Nevada will battle UNLV in Las Vegas. The Aztecs and Wolf Pack have faced five common opponents during the their during their respective early season tournament schedules. Nevada completed an unblemished mark against Portland State, Seattle, CSUN, California Baptist and UC Riverside, while SDSU recorded a 4-1 ledger against those foes, dropping a five-set nail-biter to CSUN. Offensively, the Wolf Pack are paced by junior Gabby McLaughlin, who ranks fourth in the MW with 3.75 kills per set, while senior Carissa Chainey (2.75) and junior Bella Snyder (2.58) are also averaging over two put-aways per frame. Snyder is also slotted seventh in the league with a .369 hitting percentage and is tied for ninth in service aces (0.33/set) while leading the team with 48 total blocks (0.84/set). In addition, freshman Kinsley Singleton finds herself among the Mountain West leaders, ranking third in digs (4.05/set), while setter Tehya Maeva is slotted fifth in assists (8.07/set). Collectively, Nevada occupies the fourth position in the league in service aces (1.49/set) but is slotted eighth in kills (12.40/set) and hitting percentage (.195) while ranking ninth in opponent efficiency (.225). Head coach Shannon Wycokoff-McNeal is in her first season at the helm of the Wolf Pack program after spending the past 12 years on the staff at her alma mater Washington State, where she helped the Cougars secure eight consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. As a player at WSU, Wyckoff-McNeal became the first Cougar player to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career, while her 3.24 digs per set still ranks fifth on the school's all-time charts.

MATCH CONNECTIONS

- > Aztec setter Sarena Gonzalez was a prep teammate of Nevada outside hitter Gabby McLaughlin at Temecula Valley High School, where both players graduated in 2022.
- > In addition, Wolf Pack setter Tehya Maeva graduated in 2023 from Cathedral Catholic High in San Diego.
- > Nevada middle blocker McKenna Dressel and SDSU libero McKenna Douglas competed against one another as prep seniors in 2021 in Arizona. Douglas' Notre Dame Prep squad defeated Dressel's Perry High team in two sets at the Chandler Invitational. Douglas totaled 11 digs in that match, while Dressel posted one kill and one block assist, according to MaxPreps.

SDSU IN MW RANKINGS

- > Entering the weekend, Shea Rubright leads the Mountain West with a .510 hitting percentage, which ranks second in the nation as of Oct. 2. The Aztec middle blocker is also slotted fifth in the league in blocks (1.16/set).
- > Additionally, Taylor Underwood tops the squad with 3.73 points and 3.26 kills per set, which rank eighth and ninth in the conference, respectively, while Gianna Bender also occupies the ninth spot in digs (3.33/set).
- > Elsewhere, the setting trio of Sarena Gonzalez (6.47/set), Fatimah Hall (5.50/set) and Andrea Campos (5.42/set) find themselves among the MW leaders in assists, ranking seventh, eighth and ninth, respectively, while Kat Cooper has climbed into the ninth position in hitting percentage (.364).
- > Gonzalez has logged the league's highest assist total in a single match this season, dishing out 60 helpers against Eastern Washington.
- > The Aztecs boast four of the top 10 hitting performances in the Mountain West thus far, including Talea Mitchell's third-best .696 clip vs. Seattle, while Rubright's two percentages from the SDSU Invitational (.667 vs. Tulane) and (.640 vs. Portland State) rank fourth (tie) and seventh, respectively. In addition, the Aztec graduate senior finished with a .611 efficiency at New Mexico, which is slotted 10th.
- > Three Aztecs share the fourth spot in the conference with four services aces in a match, including Rubright (vs. Seattle), Jasmine Davis (vs. UC Riverside) and Keira Herron (at Gonzaga).
- > Elsewhere, Mitchell's 16 kills against Seattle represents the sixth-best total for a three-set match in the MW this season, while Rubright finished with a season-high eight blocks assists against UCR, which is tied for 12th.
- > As a team, the Aztecs lead the Mountain West in hitting percentage (.282) and assists (13.10/set) while ranking second in kills (13.88/set) and third in service aces (1.52/set). Additionally, the Scarlet and Black has climbed into the fifth spot in both blocks (2.33/set) and digs (13.52/set).
- > On the national level, SDSU is slotted 15th in assists, 19th in hitting percentage and 21st in kills.
- > San Diego State's 77 kills at New Mexico marks the best team performance in the MW thus far, while its 68 put-aways against CSUN is tied for fourth.
- > Additionally, three of the Aztecs' best attack percentages rank among the league's top 10, including .366 vs. Seattle (6th), .352 vs. CBU (8th) and .348 against Portland State (10th).

WEEKEND REWIND

- > San Diego State opened its Mountain West schedule on Sept. 26 with a 3-1 triumph over Air Force (16-25, 25-17, 25-20, 25-13) before dropping a tough five-set decision at New Mexico two days later (22-25, 25-27, 26-24, 25-21, 14-16).
- > At the Academy, the Aztecs set a season high with 13.5 team blocks and limited the Falcons to a .048 hitting percentage over the final three sets.
- > Despite a 7-3 deficiency in service aces, SDSU maintained the statistical advantage in kills (49-41), digs (49-44) and team blocks (13.5 to 5.5) to hand Air Force its 11th straight defeat.
- > Individually, the Aztecs received double-digit kills from Jasmine Davis (12) and Taylor Underwood (11), while Shea Rubright flashed her versatility, hitting .500 for the contest on seven put-aways without an error in 14 attempts. She also tied her season high with eight blocks, including a pair of solo efforts.
- > Not to be outdone, Kat Cooper displayed her all-around game with nine kills, committing just two miscues in 15 swings for a .467 efficiency while contributing five block assists.
- > Against the Lobos, San Diego State saw its five-match winning streak snapped, as UNM overcome a 14-7 deficit in the deciding fifth set, scoring nine straight points to escape with the improbable victory.
- > Overcoming an early 2-0 deficit in sets, the Aztecs rallied to capture the ensuing two frames and seemed poised to complete the reverse sweep in the final stanza after building a late seven-point advantage.
- > However, the clinching point ultimately proved elusive for SDSU, as the Lobos served up three aces down the stretch, including the match winner when the ball took a fortuitous spin over the net and hit an empty patch of floor. In addition, the Aztecs were plagued by two untimely attack errors and a wayward serve in that span.
- > SDSU maintained the upper hand in most statistical categories, including kills (77-66), hitting percentage (.260 to .214), digs (88-77) and team blocks (13.0 to 9.0), but it wasn't enough, as New Mexico won its sixth straight in the all-time series.
- > The Aztecs received several superlative performances last Saturday, including a season-high 20 kills and four blocks (two solo) from Davis, who hit .367 for the match, committing just two errors in 49 attempts while completing her fourth double-double of the year after collecting 14 digs.
- > In addition, Underwood matched her season best with 18 put-aways and contributed three block assists, while Rubright continued her excellent all-round play with 12 kills and five block assists, posting a .611 hitting percentage with one error on 18 swings while adding five block assists.

> The SDSU cause was also buoyed by Gianna Bender, who set a career high with 21 digs, while Sarena Gonzalez notched her third straight double-double with 35 assists and a collegiate-best 19 digs, sharing the setter duties with Andrea Campos, who dished out 27 helpers.

BENDER RECEIVES MW FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK RECOGNITION ON SEPT. 23

- > San Diego State's Gianna Bender was named Mountain West Freshman of the Week for the period spanning Sept. 16-22, after helping the Aztecs to a 2-0 record at the Gonzaga Invitational in Spokane, Washington. With her award, Bender garnered her first career MW weekly accolade and SDSU's first of the season.
- > A former AVCA High School All-American from Hudsonville, Michigan, Bender led the team with 37 digs and 3.70 digs per set in a pair of thrilling victories over Gonzaga and Eastern Washington, anchoring an Aztec defense that held their two opponents to a combined .188 hitting percentage for the weekend.
- > Against the host Zags, Bender topped the squad with a career-high 20 digs (4.00/set), as the Scarlet and Black prevailed in five sets. Thanks to her contributions, SDSU limited Gonzaga to a .154 efficiency for the match, including a .043 clip in the decisive fifth set.
- > In addition, Bender gave the Aztecs an important boost with eight setting assists last Friday, including three in the pivotal fifth stanza.
- > Bender returned the following day to post a match-high 17 digs against Eastern Washington, dishing out four additional setting assists to help San Diego State emerge victorious in another five-set nail-biter.
- > With Bender's support, the Aztecs limited the Eagles to a .202 hitting percentage, including a .077 pace in the deciding fifth set. The SDSU libero also served up an ace during a 3-0 spurt in the final frame, which broke a 5-5 deadlock that gave the Scarlet and Black a lead it would not relinquish. Additionally, Bender did not commit a reception error in 15 attempts vs. EWU.

> As of, Bender leads the Aztecs with 3.35 digs per set (134 overall), which ranks eighth in the Mountain West. She also occupies the fourth spot on the squad with nine service aces (0.23/set).

THREE AZTECS NET ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS AT GONZAGA INVITE

- > San Diego State boasted three players who were selected to the Gonzaga Invitational all-tournament team in Taylor Underwood, Shea Rubright and Jasmine Davis.
- > Underwood led the field with 35 kills, 3.50 kills per set and 40.5 points, hitting a combined .286 for the weekend. The Aztec opposite hitter led all players with 17 kills against Gonzaga and displayed her versatility with four block assists to tie a career high.
- > Underwood continued her hot hitting the next day with 18 kills vs. Eastern Washington to tie for team-high honors and match her season best. The Norco, California, native posted a .300 hitting percentage or better for the fourth time this year with a .342 clip vs. the Eagles and set a season high with three service aces.
- > Underwood blasted a clutch kill in the fifth set during a 7-2 run that broke a 5-5 tie and put the Aztecs in front for good. She additionally served up an ace in that decisive stretch.
- > Elsewhere, Rubright maintained her stellar all-round play this past weekend, totaling a team-high 10 blocks (1.00/set) while hitting .480 for the tournament with 14 kills to go with four aces. The SDSU middle blocker posted a match-high six blocks against Gonzaga, including three solo stuffs, which tied a career best. Her final solo block occurred at a critical juncture in the fifth set, giving the Aztecs a 13-11 lead after they trailed earlier 9-5.
- > Against EWU, Rubright tied for team-high with four additional blocks, including a solo rejection. The Aztec graduate student assisted on one block in the fifth set, giving SDSU some early momentum with a 3-1 lead.

- > Not to be outdone, Davis ranked second on the Aztecs at the Gonzaga Invitational with 29 kills, 2.90 kills per set and 31.5 points. The SDSU outside hitter posted her second-best hitting percentage of the year with a .370 clip in Friday's triumph over the Zags, knocking down 11 kills while collecting 16 digs for her second double-double in a Scarlet and Black uniform.
- > In the deciding fifth set, Davis provided two kills during a furious 10-3 run that erased a 9-5 deficit, allowing the Aztecs to avoid the upset.
- > The following day against EWU, Davis finished with a season-best 18 kills to go with one ace and a block assists. The UConn graduate transfer launched five kills in both the second and third stanzas, helping SDSU overcome an early 1-0 deficit in sets.
- > The Aztecs have landed at least one player receive all-tournament honors for each of its other non-conference events: CBU/UCR Challenge (Jasmine Davis, Andrea Campos); SDSU Invitational (Shea Rubright) and Idaho State Tournament (Rubright, Underwood, Gianna Bender).

UNDERWOOD EARNS PRESEASON ALL-MW HONORS

- > San Diego State junior Taylor Underwood was named to the seven-player all-Mountain West preseason volleyball team in a vote of the league's 11 head coaches on Aug. 14.
- > A 2023 transfer from DePaul, Underwood made a huge splash in her first year on The Mesa, earning first-team all-MW honors after finishing sixth in the league with 3.38 kills and 3.88 points per set against conference foes during the regular season.
- > The Norco, California, native compiled double-digit kill totals in 16 of 18 MW matches and led the Aztecs with 20 service aces (0.28/set) vs. MW opponents.
- > In a home match against Air Force, Underwood (.481) smashed a career-high 31 kills, which marked the third-highest figure in the conference during the 2023 campaign. Additionally, the Aztec opposite hitter set a school record for put-aways in the rally scoring era (since 2001) and logged the highest kill total by an SDSU player since Martina Vitkova-Engels (37) and Carrie Mapes (33) combined for 70 non-returnables in the Aztecs' five-set victory over Wyoming in the first round of the Western Athletic Conference tournament during the sideout era on Nov. 25, 1997.
- > For all matches, Underwood led the Aztecs with 3.12 kills per set, surpassing the double-digit plateau in that statistic in 20 of 29 contests. She also ranked sixth in the MW with an average of 0.35 services per set (37 overall) during the regular season.
- > Earlier in the year, Underwood served up a career-high five aces in a pair of victories over Denver and Eastern Washington, which was tied for the sixth-best output in the conference last season. She was one of just three players to appear in all 107 sets for the Scarlet and Black last year and was the lone Aztec to start all 29 matches.

WELCOME BACK

- > Along with Underwood, the Aztecs return 10 additional letterwinners this season, including fellow juniors Madison Corf and McKenna Douglas.
- > After receiving all-MW honorable mention as a freshman, Corf was slowed by an ankle injury in 2023, missing five matches after making 16 consecutive starts to begin the year. Still, the Aztec outside hitter ranked second on the team with 213 kills and 2.57 kills per set while occupying the fourth spot with 34 total blocks.
- > For the season, Corf posted 10 or more kills in eight matches and was slotted fourth on the squad with 34 blocks while ranking fifth with 74 digs.
- > Corf logged her best efficiency of the year against UC San Diego at the Tritons' home tournament, hitting at a .565 clip with a match-high 14 kills against one error in 23 attempts.
- > Douglas returns to anchor SDSU's back row after finishing third in the MW with 3.83 digs per set in conference matches. The Aztec libero was also slotted fifth in the league with 3.72 digs per set for all 29 matches (398 overall) and ranked third on the squad with 66 setting assists while serving up 17 aces.
- > Also back in the mix for SDSU is the setting duo of Fatimah Hall and Sarena Gonzalez.
- > As a freshman, Hall led the Scarlet and Black with 627 assists and 5.86 assists per set, which ranked 10th in the Mountain West. She was also slotted third on the team with 129 digs while occupying the fourth spot with 1.79 digs per set.
- > A native of Long Beach, California, Hall compiled five double-doubles on the year (assists-digs) and surpassed the 20-assist plateau on 17 occasions.
- > Hall enjoyed an impressive collegiate debut in 2023 against Cal State Fullerton at the Rose City Showdown where she racked up a career-high 47 assists and four kills while adding 12 digs and one block assist in the season-opening victory over the Titans.
- > Meanwhile, Gonzalez played in 28 matches with six starts, averaging 4.94 assists and 1.37 digs in the Aztecs' 6-2 rotation. She also broke the 20-assist barrier in 11 appearances.
- > Gonzalez contributed to the Aztecs' whitewash of Denver at the UCSD Invitational where she recorded season highs of 28 assists and two service aces to go with a career-high two kills.
- > Additionally, the Aztecs are looking for the continued development of middle blockers, Kat Cooper, Campbell Hague and Amber Keen.
- > Cooper was slowed by an injury during her sophomore season in 2023, appearing in just 14 matches with nine starts. The Springdale, Arkansas, native tied her career high with five blocks (1 solo) in SDSU's season-opening victory over Cal State Fullerton before finishing the year with 48 kills (1.30/set), 22 blocks (0.59/set) and 10 digs (0.27/set) across 37 sets.
- > As a freshman last season, Hague played in 54 sets across 18 matches primarily as a reserve, compiling 71 kills (1.31/set), 13 block assists and 11 digs. The Cheney, Kansas, native totaled a career-high eight kills and four digs in the Aztecs' 3-1 victory at Wyoming, helping the Scarlet and Black defeat the Cowgirls in Laramie for the second year in a row.
- > Meanwhile, Keen earned a starting assignment in six of 14 matches during her rookie campaign in 2023, racking up 38 kills (1.06/set) and 24 blocks (0.67) across 36 sets. She hit .296 for the season, finishing without an attack error in seven matches while recording at least one block assist in nine different contests.
- > Rounding out the list of Aztec veterans are Mikela Labno, Cara Braun and Natalie Hughes.
- > An outside hitter, Labno came off the bench in 26 matches as a junior last season, ranking fifth on the team in kills (151) and kills per set (1.86). She also surpassed the double-digit kill plateau on six occasions while contributing 36 digs, 21 total blocks and four assists across 81 sets.
- > Braun played seven matches as a reserve in her first tour of duty with the Scarlet and Black, posting 28 kills (1.65/set), three digs and two blocks across 17 sets. The SDSU outside hitter set career highs with 14 kills and a .346 hitting percentage while adding a block assist in a tough five-set loss at eventual Mountain West tournament champion Fresno State.
- > Meanwhile, Hughes saw limited action as well in 2023, appearing in eight matches with seven kills, three block assists and one dig.

NEW KIDS IN TOWN

- > The prospects for the San Diego State volleyball program continue to improve after head coach Brent Hilliard retooled the Aztec roster with another stellar newcomer class for the 2024 campaign.
- > SDSU's early signing class last November featured UConn transfer Jasmine Davis along with prep standout Talea Mitchell (Goodyear, Ariz.), while another Division I transfer Shea Rubright joined the program at the semester break after two seasons at Washington State.

- > During the spring and summer, the Aztecs inked two additional transfers in setter Andrea Campos (Villanova) and defensive specialist Keira Herron (Oregon State) while securing another high school star in Gianna Bender (Hudsonville, Mich.).
- > An outside hitter, Davis enjoyed four productive seasons at UConn (2019-22), where she posted 897 kills (2.62/set), 830 digs (2.43/set), 151.0 blocks (0.40/set) and 91 service aces (0.20/set) while completing 22 double-doubles (kills-digs).
- > As a junior in 2021, Davis enjoyed her finest campaign with the Huskies, logging career highs of 337 kills (2.74/set), 305 digs (2.48/set) and 68.0 blocks to lift the Huskies to a 24-11 overall record and a Final Four appearance in the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC).
- > Rubright brings a wealth of experience with her to The Mesa as a middle blocker after competing for nationally ranked programs at Minnesota (2019-21) and Washington State (2022-23).
- > A heavily decorated prep star at West Valley High School in Yakima, Washington, Rubright was a two-time state Gatorade Player of the Year and twice earned Columbia Basin/Big Nine Conference Player of the Year honors before receiving first-team Under Armour All-America recognition.
- > As a senior, Rubright led her Rams squad to the Washington 4A state championship, posting 340 kills (4.3/set), a .505 hitting percentage, 78 blocks (1.0/set) and 47 aces (0.6/set), according to MaxPreps. She was listed as the No. 12 recruit nationally by PrepVolleyball.com and was invited to play in the Under Armour All-America match in conjunction with the NCAA Division I Volleyball Championship.
- > Meanwhile, Campos arrives on The Mesa to bolster the Aztecs' setting corps after starting 58 of 79 matches at Villanova from 2020-23. The Pacific Palisades native finished her East Coast tenure with the ninth-best assist total in program history, dishing out 2,103 helpers to go with 497 digs and 70 service aces.
- > During 2023 campaign, Campos started all 31 matches, ranking second in the Big East with a team-high 1,161 assists (9.84/set), which was slotted 47th nationally. She also occupied the third position on the squad in service aces (37, 0.31/set) while ranking fourth in digs (241, 2.04/set) and fifth in blocks (28, 0.24/set).
- > Last season, Campos set a career high with 59 assists in a five-set thriller over Milwaukee at the Western Michigan Tournament and racked up over 50 helpers in back-to-back home victories over Seton Hall (52) and St. John's (53).
- > Elsewhere, Mitchell will provide additional depth at middle blocker, while Bender and Herron support the Aztecs' back-row efforts.
- > A graduate of Millennium High School in Goodyear, Arizona, Mitchell received AVCA All-America honorable mention and all-Region 9 honors following her senior season, capped by a third consecutive state runner-up finish. She also garnered first-team all-Conference 5A accolades and was named the 5A Desert West Section co-Offensive Player of the Year after leading her squad with a .429 hitting percentage while ranking third with 244 kills.
- > Bender earned second-team AVCA All-America honors following her senior season after leading Michi-

- gan's Hudsonville High to a 45-3 overall record, as the Eagles finished with a No. 1 state and No. 19 national ranking, according to MaxPreps. She also garnered all-state, all-region and all-conference accolades after racking up 635 digs (5.3/set) during the 2023 campaign.
- > In two seasons at Oregon State, Herron played 130 sets across 42 matches, compiling 150 digs, 20 setting assists and 15 service aces. Last year, she made 14 starts in 19 appearances, posting career highs with 113 digs (1.61/set), 14 assists and eight service aces.
- > A former prep star at College Station High School in her native Texas, Herron received PrepVolleyball.com High School All-America honorable mention as a senior and twice appeared on the AVCA Phenom list.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATIONS

NEW FACE ON COACHING STAFF

- > San Diego State volleyball head coach Brent Hilliard announced the hiring of Kristen Gengenbacher as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Aztec program on June 6, 2024.
- > Gengenbacher is no stranger to the local volleyball scene, earning four varsity letters from 2014-17 as a star setter at the University of San Diego, where she played for Hilliard during his previous tenure as the Toreros' associate head coach.
- > A highly decorated player at USD, Gengenbacher dished out 3,729 assists for her career, which ranks third in program history. As a senior, she garnered West Coast Conference Player of the Year accolades and received third-team AVCA All-America recognition after leading the Toreros to the WCC championship and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament.
- > In addition, Gengenbacher merited all-WCC honorable mention following her sophomore and junior campaigns after earning a spot on the WCC all-freshman team in 2014.
- > Following her stint with the Toreros, Gengenbacher played one season of beach volleyball at the University of Washington, where she served as team captain and led the Huskies with 13 dual victories while qualifying for a spot in the USAV Collegiate Championships.
- > Gengenbacher also gained valuable international experience as a member of the U.S. National Collegiate Team that toured Europe in the summer of 2017.
- > Gengenbacher received her bachelor's degree in communications from San Diego in 2018 before earning her master's in intercollegiate athletic leadership from Washington in 2019.
- > Upon completing her collegiate studies, Gengenbacher played professionally with the Porfyras volleyball club in Piraeus, Greece, from August 2019 to March 2020.
- > Most recently, Gengenbacher served as head coach of the 18-1 squad at the 540 Volleyball Academy in Fredericksburg, Virginia, preparing a vast array of elite club performers to excel at the collegiate level.
- > Prior to her move to the east coast, Gengenbacher spent one season as an assistant coach with the indoor and beach volleyball programs at MiraCosta College in Oceanside during the 2021-22 campaign, which overlapped a two-year stint in the same capacity with the WAVE Volleyball Club in Del Mar.
- > A native of Quincy, Illinois, Gengenbacher helped her prep team Notre Dame High School capture the Illinois Class 2A state championship as a sophomore. She also lettered in basketball and softball as a prep.

ON THE HORIZON

- > Following this week's homestand, the Aztecs will remain in the Golden State for a pair road matches, traveling to the Bay Area for a clash with San José State on Thursday, Oct. 10, before heading over to the Central Valley to battle Fresno State on Saturday, Oct. 12.

Brent HILLIARD

Head Coach - Fifth Season at San Diego State

Now entering his fifth season on The Mesa, Hilliard continues his mission to return the Aztecs to elite status in the Mountain West.

In 2023, Hilliard coached a youthful squad that was hounded by nagging injuries throughout the season. Nevertheless, the Scarlet and Black soldiered on, defeating Wyoming on the road in consecutive years after suffering 10 straight defeats there from 2012-21. SDSU also overcame some early adversity to knock off Boise State for the fourth time in the last six meetings.

In addition, the Aztecs experienced several near misses, dropping a trio of five-set thrillers to Mountain West tournament champion Fresno State as well as conference tournament participants Utah State and UNLV.

Under Hilliard's direction, Taylor Underwood garnered all-Mountain West accolades in her first season at San Diego State after transferring from DePaul, finishing sixth in the league with 3.38 kills and 3.88 points per set against conference opponents during the regular season.

In a home match against Air Force, Underwood (.481) blasted a career-high 31 kills, which marked the third-highest figure in the conference during the 2023 campaign. Additionally, the Aztec opposite hitter set a school record for put-aways in the rally scoring era (since 2001) and logged the highest kill total by an SDSU player since 1997.

Scholastic achievement has been a trademark for the Aztec volleyball program, and the 2023 campaign was no different, as seven players landed on the Mountain West all-academic team following the fall semester.

Hilliard continued his success on the recruiting trail, securing the fourth and fifth AVCA High School All-Americans in the past three years with the addition of defensive specialist Gianna Bender and middle blocker/outside hitter Talea Mitchell, who joins Natalie Hughes (2022), Madison Corf (2021) and Kat Cooper (2021) on the Aztecs' talented roster.

In his third season at SDSU in 2022, Hilliard's directed the Aztecs to a late-season surge, as the Scarlet and Black won seven of its last 11 matches to secure the sixth and final spot in the Mountain West Championship. Facing elimination, SDSU rounded into tournament shape with a pair of crucial road victories over Nevada and San José State in the final two matches of the regular season before utilizing that momentum to pull off a thrilling 3-2 upset over No. 3 seed Colorado State in the first round of the MW Championship. The Aztecs' triumph over the Rams marked their first victory over CSU in Fort Collins since 2013, a span of eight visits.

SDSU showed dramatic statistical improvement for its stretch run, posting greater per-set averages and marks in most categories over the final 11 matches compared to the first 20 contests, including kills (13.6 to 12.1), hitting percentage (.222 to .174), service aces (1.58 to 1.24), digs (13.09 to 11.73) and blocks (2.16 to 1.78).

Under Hilliard's tutelage, outside hitter Madison Corf, a former AVCA High School All-American, received all-Mountain West honorable mention during her freshman season after she topped the squad with an average of 2.61 kills per set while ranking second with 282 kills overall.

In addition, opposite hitter Kayla Rivera blossomed under Hilliard's direction, earning all-tournament honors at the MW Championship after tying for the team lead with 25 kills (2.89/set) and seven total blocks (0.78/set) while ranking second with a .362 hitting percentage in two matches.

SDSU also excelled in the classroom that season, as eight players were named to the Mountain West all-academic team.

In the fall of 2021, Hilliard and the Aztecs were faced with another demanding schedule, squaring off against 10 teams that qualified for postseason play.

However, San Diego State had its moments of glory, posting a 3-0 sweep at eventual Mountain West tournament champion Boise State before recording a five-set thriller on the road at UNLV, which went on to capture the NIVC crown.

Individually, Hilliard oversaw the continued rise to prominence of Victoria O'Sullivan, who received all-Mountain West recognition for the second straight season after ranking second in the conference with 3.71 kills per set, as the SDSU outside hitter concluded her illustrious career with 1,026 kills overall.

Hilliard's charges enjoyed another successful year scholastically, with nine Aztecs landing on the Mountain West all-academic team, including Ashley Vanderpan, Kennedy Feuerborn and Serena Hodson, who were presented with the Malik Award, given to SDSU student-athletes who attain a 4.0 GPA.

In his first season with the Scarlet and Black, Hilliard endured a challenging season fraught with COVID-19 protocols, an abbreviated schedule that was postponed until spring, along with injuries to key players.

However, Hilliard and the Aztecs persevered through the 2021 spring campaign, posting a 6-9 record, highlighted by thrilling victories over Boise State on the road and Colorado State at home in the season finale, respectively. Against the Broncos, SDSU defeated a Boise State team that entered the contest with four consecutive 3-0 sweeps. Two weeks later, the Aztecs snapped an 11-match to the Rams dating back to 2014 and logged their first win over CSU in San Diego since 2012.

Under Hilliard's guidance, O'Sullivan garnered all-Mountain West accolades for the first time in her career, as the SDSU junior led the squad with 3.25 kills per set, which ranked seventh in the conference. In addition, seniors Lauren Lee and Erin Gillcrist received MW Defensive Player of the Week recognition following the team's aforementioned wins over Boise State and Colorado State, respectively.

Hilliard's Aztecs also excelled in the classroom, with 12 student-athletes selected to the Mountain West all-academic team, including Lauren Lee, who also merited first-team all-District 8 academic honors from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

A 2018 inductee to the Southern California Indoor Volleyball Hall of Fame, Hilliard arrived at SDSU with a wealth of experience after achieving 19 years of unparalleled success as an assistant coach at the University of San Diego, where he served as the Toreros' associate head coach since 2007.

During his fruitful tenure, the Toreros qualified for the NCAA Tournament in all but one of his 19 seasons, advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2004, 2006, 2013 and 2018. In addition, Hilliard helped guide the Toreros to nine West Coast Conference championships while his players earned six All-America awards, 12 All-America honorable mentions, 44 all-WCC accolades and 15 freshman all-conference certificates.

Hilliard twice assumed the reins of the USD program on an interim basis while head coach Jennifer Petrie was absent on maternity leave. In 2006, Hilliard was honored as WCC Coach of the Year after guiding the Toreros to a conference championship and a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season, he coached five all-conference honorees, including WCC Player of the Year Kristen Carlson, as USD finished 14th in the final USA Today/Coaches Poll.

The Toreros also flourished under Hilliard's guidance in 2011, racing to a 13-0 start en route a program-best 28-5 record, highlighted by a spot in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Throughout his stint, USD was consistently ranked among the nation's top 25, climbing to as high as No. 2 during the 2013 campaign and rising to No. 5 in 2016.

"I would like to thank John David Wicker, Jenny Bramer, Dr. Adela de la Torre and the rest of the SDSU search committee for making me feel so welcome during the interview process," Hilliard said. "To be the head coach of such a remarkable women's volleyball program in my family's hometown is truly a once in a lifetime opportunity.

"We are fully committed to work tirelessly to elevate this program back to an elite status on the college volleyball landscape, one that the student body, faculty, community, alumni and, of course, all future Aztecs will take great pride in."

Hilliard played collegiately at Long Beach State, earning All-America honors in each of his four years from 1990-93, including first-team recognition over his final three seasons. A right-side hitter for the 49ers, Hilliard was named the NCAA Men's Volleyball Player of the Year as a junior in 1992 after leading LBSU to a 31-1 record.

In 1991, Hilliard and the 49ers captured the NCAA Championship with a 3-1 victory over USC in the finals, avenging a loss to the Trojans in the title match the year before. He finished his career as the NCAA all-time leader with 3,034 kills.

Additionally, Hilliard was selected to play for Team USA in the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain, where he helped the Americans capture the bronze medal. The following year, he won a silver medal at the 1993 Pan American Games in Argentina and also owns a bronze medal from the 1991 World Cup.

After receiving his undergraduate degree in 1993 from Long Beach State in political science, Hilliard continued his volleyball career as a professional in Europe from 1995-98, playing two seasons in Belgium and another in the Netherlands. In 1996, Hilliard and the Mastek Volleyball Club captured the Belgian national championship and competed in the European Champions League.

In addition to his collegiate experience, which included a stint as head coach at nearby Cuyamaca College in 1999 and 2000, Hilliard has also coached for the past 11 years at Wave Volleyball Club in Del Mar, the premier volleyball club in San Diego County.
