Aztecs Notes

Pacific Specifics

San Diego State has played Pacific once, winning 1-0 in a home match on September 23, 2005.

Ahead of the Pac

SDSU is tied or leads the all-time series against seven of the eight other members of the Pac-12 conference. The Aztecs are 11-11-1 against Boise State, 10-1-3 against Colorado State, 16-5-3 against Fresno State, 1-0-0 against Gonzaga, have never played Texas State, are 9-3-3 against Utah State and 3-3-0 against Washington State. The lone exception is Oregon State, who SDSU is 1-6-2 against all-time, but all nine meetings came between 1990 and 2010.

Lockdown

San Diego State's defense has been stellar through the first three matches of the season. The Aztecs have allowed just one goal, the only team in the Pac-12 to surrender fewer than three goals so far. In addition, through Monday night's contests, the Scarlet and Black are one of just 41 Division I teams in the nation to allow no more than one goal through at least three matches. When you only include teams who have played a currently ranked opponent, SDSU becomes one of just eight squads, joined by Cal Poly, Clemson, Illinois, No. 8 Ohio State, Saint Mary's, Samford and No. 1 Stanford, that has yet to cede multiple goals. Of those eight teams, just four: Cal Poly, Saint Mary's, Samford and San Diego State, play outside an autonomous four conference.

Miller Time

Victoria Miller, who scored the second goal in SDSU's season opening win against UC San Diego, tied for the Aztecs' lead with five goals last season. In 2025, she had the first three Aztec goals. After scoring against Cal State Bakersfield on August 17, Miller struck twice to tie the match at Pepperdine at two on September 11. She followed it up with game-winning goals against both UC Riverside and Nevada.

Senn-sational

Katie Senn broke out in a big way in 2025. The Oakland native tallied eight assists, tied for the second-most in the Mountain West. In addition, she scored the first two goals of her career in consecutive matches with the game-winner at Pepperdine, a team that was receiving votes in the national poll, on September 11, and another goal against UC Riverside on September 14. Her efforts earned her All-Mountain West Second Team honors. Following a missed season due to back surgery, Senn was named one of three Honda Inspiration Award Finalists (a national award among all levels of NCAA for female student-athletes overcoming significant adversity to return to athletic success).

Kailey the Keeper

Goalkeeper Kailey Carlen was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week on Aug. 18 after a four-save shutout in the season-opening win at UC San Diego. She has starred spending all 2,090 minutes in goal for the Aztecs since joining the team as a true freshman last season. She has tallied nine shutouts already and her 1.08 GAA is tied for fifth in team history among qualified keepers. The Chula Vista native has only allowed multiple goals in eight of 23 contests.

Looking into the Crystal Ball

- San Diego State was picked to finish in fourth place in the Pac-12 coaches' preseason poll. This marks just the third time in the last 17 seasons that the Aztecs have been picked to finish outside the top two in their conference. SDSU was also picked fourth in 2019 and went on to win a share of the MW regular season title, as well as last season, when the Aztecs made the MW tournament semifinals and played top-seeded host Boise State to a draw, but the Broncos advanced in penalty kicks.

Got My Eye On You

- SDSU had three players selected to the Pac-12 Preseason Impact List. This year's selections were senior Katie Senn (who also made the Mountain West Preseason Watch List in 2025), junior Lily Boudet and sophomore Kailey Carlen.

Preseason Prowess

- San Diego State played a pair of exhibition matches this season, both at home, and won each by a pair of goals. Alexis Leath and Charlie Gerson each found the back of the net against (RV) USC and SDSU held the Trojans, who were only able to get the ball into the attacking quadrant in eight percent of their possession time, to just two shots on goal to the Aztecs' eight. SDSU picked up a 3-1 victory over the San Diego Toreros thanks to goals from Katie Senn and KK Chowana-Bandhu as well as an own goal on which Kana Smith was the last Aztec to touch the ball. The Aztecs held the advantage in shots by a 22-8 margin and Kailey Carlen made three saves against the Toreros. San Diego State was on the attacking half of the field for 70% of its possession time in the match against USD.

Finishing Strong

- San Diego State has been strong when it comes to finishing off opponents. Since 2024, SDSU has a 19-3-5 record in matches in which it led including including an eight-match winning streak during the 2024 campaign. During that same stretch of time, when that lead was at halftime, the Aztecs are 11-2-0 with one defeat each during the 2024 and 2025 seasons.

European Vacation

- San Diego State has a trio of international players on its 2026 roster, all from Europe. A native on Montpellier, France, Lily Boudet is in her fourth season on the Aztecs. After appearing in ten matches in 2023, she redshirted in 2024 before returning in 2025 and appearing in every match, starting 17 times and scoring two goals with a pair of assists. Last year, she was joined by two defenders from Northern Europe. Alexandra Myrestam is a native of Stockholm, Sweden, and played in two matches while Mia Hambro Svendsen hails from Oslo, Norway and started every match, scoring a trio of goals.

Across the Nation

- The Aztecs have players from nine different states. 13 players are California natives. Alexyz Nakamoto and Kana Smith came from Hawai'i. Meanwhile, SDSU has a player each from Colorado (Mia DeJohn), Georgia (Karoline Lundstrom), Michigan (Victoria Miller), Pennsylvania (Eva Wierzbowski), Texas (Rory Schank), Virginia (Alana Beasley) and Washington (Kenny Moore).

Assistant Coach: Kai Edwards, First Season
Assistant Coach: Camille Hamm, First Season

The Times They Are A-Changin’

- San Diego State is playing two exhibition matches and 17 regular season matches this year. 12 matches are in San Diego County including 11 at home. Matches at Oregon State and Washington State are still in Pacific time. Both contests held in Utah (at Utah Valley and at Utah State) will be in mountain time. All three matches in Texas and Oklahoma (at Oklahoma State, at Texas Tech and at Texas State) are in central time.

Mr. 200

- Head Coach Mike Friesen is in his 20th campaign leading the Aztecs. During his tenure, the squad has won 11 championships (five tournament and six regular season) and made five NCAA Tournament appearances. Friesen has tallied 206 victories (206-127-56) since the start of the 2007 season, the year he took control of the program. His 200th win came against Grand Canyon on September 25, 2025, in the Aztecs’ conference opener. In league play, Friesen has an 117-39-26 record.

Give Me Moore

- Transfer Kenny Moore scored both of SDSU’s game-winning goal so far this season. Against UC San Diego, the Yakima, Washington, native became the first Aztec to score in their SDSU debut since Claire Watkins in on March 5, 2021. Moore also scored the lone goal in the win over Portland State. She joins the Aztecs from Eastern Washington, where she tallied ten goals and nine assists over three seasons. In 2025, the two-time All-Big Sky selection accumulated three goals and three assists.

Castro-naut

- Naima Castro comes to The Mesa from Nevada, where she started all 18 games for the Wolf Pack as a freshman in 2025, garnering Mountain West All-Newcomers Team accolades. The San Diego native scored five goals including two in conference play against New Mexico and at Air Force, and picked up an assist in the season finale at UNLV.

A Sky Fuller Stars

- Emma Fuller started all 20 matches for SDSU in 2025. The defender’s first career goal was the game-winner at Grand Canyon on September 25. She also scored in consecutive matches at San Jose State and against Boise State. Fuller assisted on Alexis Leath’s game-winner against New Mexico on October 30 to send the Aztecs to the MW Tourney and on SDSU’s MW Semis goal.

Bonjour Boudet

- Lily Boudet tallied the first three points of her career with her first goal and first assist in a 4-0 win against UC Riverside on Sept. 14 last season. She scored again in a draw at Fresno State on Oct. 2 and had an assist in a win at San Jose State on Oct. 12.

A Little Bit Alexis

- Alexis Leath tied for the team lead with five goals last season. She scored her first career goal against Nevada. Her goal against Colorado College secured a draw. Leath had a brace at Colorado State, scoring both of the Aztecs’ goals in a 2-2 tie. She also scored the game-winner to beat New Mexico on Oct. 30 and send SDSU to the MW Tournament.

Mia Hamm-bro Svendsen

- Defender Mia Hambro Svendsen scored three goals during her freshman season on The Mesa. Her first career goal came at San Jose State on October 12 before scoring the lone goal in a 1-0 win over Wyoming on October 26. The Norwegian sent SDSU to the Semifinals of the MW Tournament with her third goal in a 1-0 victory against Colorado State.

The Hall(s) of Montezuma

- Associate head coach Matt Hall is making his return to The Mesa, where he spent 20 years coaching the men’s soccer squad and played for three seasons as a goalie, finishing his Aztec playing career with the most saves in program history at the time. The only players to surpass his total all did so under Hall’s tutelage. In addition to serving as the head coach at MiraCosta College and working with San Diego Loyal FC, Hall spent the last two seasons working with the University of San Diego women.

Good Guy Kai

- Assistant coach Kai Edwards brings two decades of DI soccer experience with him to San Diego State. Edwards, the head coach at Southern Utah for the last six seasons, also spent six seasons as the head coach at Saint Mary’s College from 2009-14. His valuable experience as an assistant also includes stops at UC Santa Barbara, Arizona State, Michigan and California.

Fire Fits

- San Diego State has three kits this season and has the following record in each of them this year.
