AZTECS TO HOST ARIZONA IN HOME OPENER BEFORE VISITING USD

> After a lengthy road swing, the San Diego State volleyball team will wrap up its 2026 non-conference schedule with a pair of matches in "America's Finest City" this weekend, playing host to Arizona in its home opener on Friday, Sept. 18, before heading across town the following night to battle the University of San Diego on Saturday, Sept. 19.

> Friday's clash with the Wildcats at Peterson Gym is scheduled for a 6 p.m. start, while Saturday's showdown against the Toreros in Jenny Craig Pavilion slated to begin at 7 p.m.

> Both matches will feature live stats and a live broadcast. Friday's contest will be shown on the Pac-12 YouTube Channel, as well as Pac-12 Insider, while Saturday's engagement will air live via subscription basis on ESPN+. Links to all platforms will be available on GoAztecs.com.

> For Friday's home opener vs. Arizona, the first 250 fans in attendance will receive a free SDSU hat.

> San Diego State has commenced its inaugural season of volleyball competition as Pac-12 members, joining conference stalwarts Oregon State and Washington State, along with former Mountain West rivals Boise State, Colorado State, Fresno State and Utah State, while Gonzaga and Texas State complete the revived circuit.

OPENING SERVE

> San Diego State is coming off a 2-1 showing at the Santa Clara Mission Classic last weekend, bookending a tough five-set loss to California (21-25, 20-25, 25-23, 26-24, 13-15) around a 3-0 whitewash of host Santa Clara (25-15, 25-15, 25-22) and a four-set triumph over Cal State Bakersfield (25-17, 20-25, 25-14, 25-19).

> Against the Broncos in their tournament opener, the Aztecs recorded a .407 team hitting percentage, marking their highest efficiency since posting a .410 clip against San Diego on Oct. 2, 2018.

> Individually, SDSU earned two conference awards on Sept. 15, as Ella Schabart earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors, while Kendall Mairs was named the league's Setter of the Week.

> Schabart led the Pac-12 with averages of 4.75 points and 4.25 kills in 12 sets across three matches, totaling 51 kills, 20 digs, four service aces and four blocks while hitting at a .500 clip for the weekend.

> Meanwhile, Mairs topped the conference with 118 assists and ranked second with 9.83 assists per set, finishing with a team-high five service aces while ranking third on the squad with 30 digs (2.50/sets).

SERIES RECORDS

> Despite dropping five straight matches in the series, SDSU still owns a 21-12 all-time record against Arizona dating back to 1978.

> The Aztecs are 12-6 vs. the Wildcats in San Diego, 7-4 in Tucson and 2-2 on a neutral court.

> The teams last met at Peterson Gym in 2022 when Arizona claimed a three-set decision.

> The Aztecs' last victory over the Wildcats occurred on the road in 2003, as the Scarlet and Black registered a 3-1 triumph (31-33, 30-24, 30-23, 30-27) during the 30-point scoring era.

> San Diego State battled USD in Peterson Gym last season, as a spirited comeback fell short in a 3-2 loss (16-25, 25-27, 25-16, 25-20, 9-15).

> Despite maintaining a 61-54 advantage in kills, the Aztecs were out-hit for the match .229 to .196, while the Toreros held a 14.0 to 9.0 advantage in team blocks to help key their victory.

> Among returners, Ella Schabart finished with 12 kills in that contest, while Kendall Mairs completed a double-double with 27 assists and 16 digs, tying Zara Stewart for match-high honors in the latter statistic.

> With the loss, SDSU dropped to 27-34 overall in the crosstown series against USD.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

> Arizona (3-5) split two contests in Los Angeles last weekend, dropping a narrow 3-1 decision to then-No. 16 USC (21-25, 25-20, 20-25, 23-25) before turning the tables with a four-set victory over Oregon State in a neutral-site affair (25-21, 25-23, 16-25, 27-25), which snapped a five-match losing streak. The Wildcats are 0-2 in true road matches this season, countering a 1-2 ledger in neutral-site contests with a 2-1 mark at home. Before locking horns with the Aztecs on Friday, Arizona will square off against USD on Thursday night at Jenny Craig Pavilion. In 2025, the Wildcats lost to Stanford the second-round of the NCAA Tournament to finish with a 17-13 overall record. Prior to the 2026 campaign, junior outside hitter Carlie Cisneros was named to the preseason all-Big 12 team. Last year, Cisneros served up a team-high 29 aces while ranking second on the squad in kills (347) and kills per set (3.10) to earn second-team all-conference honors. Through eight matches this season, outside hitter Destiny Ndam-Simpson leads Arizona with an average of 3.21 kills per set, followed by opposite hitter Kennedy Osunsammi (2.10/set). In addition, Maria Olga Siapani (4.87 assists/set) and Harmony Sampson (3.50 assists/set) have split the Wildcats' setting chores this year. Sampson and Ndam-Simpson also share the team lead with nine service aces apiece. At the net, middle blocker Journey Tucker ranks sixth in the Big 12 with an average of 1.29 blocks per set, while Kristen Dear is slotted 16th in that category (1.00/set). As a team, Arizona leads the conference in digs (14.53/set) while ranking eighth in aces (1.50/set) and 10th in blocks (2.53/set). Conversely, the Wildcats occupy the 15th spot in kills (11.83/set), assists (10.20/set) and hitting percentage (.203). Arizona alumna Charita Stubbs is in her fourth season as head coach on the Tucson campus after spending two stints as an assistant coach/associate head coach across 22 years on the Wildcats staff (1997-2005, 2013-22). The former Charita Johnson was a four-year starter as a middle blocker with the program from 1991-94, helping Arizona to consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance during her junior and senior campaigns. She still holds the Wildcats' career (117) and single-match (8) records for solo blocks.

> San Diego (3-5) posted a 1-2 mark at the Snyder-Park Classic in Tempe, Arizona, last weekend, dropping a pair of 3-1 decisions to and No. 7 Arizona State (15-25, 25-23, 11-25, 14) and No. 24 Oregon, (25-16, 19-25, 25-27, 17-25) to close the tournament after escaping with a five-set nail-biter against UC Davis (24-26, 25-21, 22-25, 25-23, 15-11). Prior to Saturday's showdown with SDSU, the Toreros will play host to Arizona on Thursday. After capturing the West Coast Conference regular-season championship and advancing to the first round of the NCAA Tournament last year, USD was picked to repeat in the 2026 WCC preseason coaches poll. In addition, the Toreros landed four players on the all-WCC preseason team, including outside hitters Kierstyn Barton and Nemo Beach, along with setter Kylie Munday and middle blocker BayLea Sparks. Entering the week, Barton is tied for sixth in the conference in kills (3.33/set), while Beach is slotted ninth in that category (3.13/set).

In addition, libero Lauren Lynch occupies the second spot in the WCC in digs (4.67/set), while Munday ranks third in assists (10.10/set). Elsewhere, middle blocker Megan Scholz is slotted fourth in the league in blocks (1.22/set), while Sparks ranks fifth in hitting percentage (.340). As a team, the Toreros are slotted second in the WCC in digs (15.67/set) and opponent hitting percentage (.172) while occupying the third position in blocks (2.17/set). Additionally, USD ranks third in the conference in assists (11.93), fourth in kills (12.83/set) and seventh in hitting percentage (.163). Now in her 28th year with the program, head coach Jennifer Petrie has led the Toreros to the NCAA Tournament on 23 occasions during her career, highlighted by a Final Four appearance in 2022. That season, she garnered AVCA National Coach of the Year accolades and was named AVCA Pacific South Region Coach of the Year for the third time in her career. Petrie is also an eight-time West Coast Conference Coach of the Year recipient and has coached 69 first-team all-WCC honorees.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

- > Since the beginning of the 2009 campaign, Aztecs have amassed a 134-93 (.590) record at home, highlighted by a 14-0 mark during the 2012 season when SDSU captured the Mountain West championship.
- > The Aztecs are 9-8 in their last 17 home openers after posting a 3-1 decision over UC San Diego in their 2025 lid-lifter.
- > With its victory over the Tritons last year, SDSU is 31-19 in home openers since the program's inception in 1976.
- > In 2024, the Aztecs posted a 10-2 ledger at Peterson Gym, marking their first season with double-digit home victories since the 2017 campaign, when the Scarlet and Black went 10-5.

MATCH CONNECTIONS

- > San Diego State outside hitter Layla Austin and Arizona libero Gigi Whann, both class of 2026 graduates, faced each other six times as prep rivals in the state of Texas. Austin's Southlake Carroll High School team posted a 4-2 record against Whann's Highland Park squad between 2023 and 2025, according to MaxPreps.
- > Similarly, Aztec freshman setter Logan Cary and Wildcat sophomore middle blocker Maya Flemister twice met on the prep scene in Colorado. Cary's Rock Canyon High School team was victorious over Flemister's Arapahoe High squad on both occasions in 2023 and 2024, according to MaxPreps.
- > Arizona freshman middle blocker Marina Vosloo is a 2026 graduate of Torrey Pines High School and previously played for the Wave Volleyball program in Del Mar.
- > Saturday's match at USD marks Brent Hilliard's fourth encounter against his former team after accepting the head coaching position at San Diego State in January 2020. Hilliard was an assistant with the Toreros for 19 years, serving as the program's associate head coach from 2007-19.

SCHABORT, MAIRS EARN PAC-12 WEEKLY HONORS

- > San Diego State collected two awards on Sept. 15, as senior Ella Schabort earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors, while sophomore Kendall Mairs was named the league's Setter of the Week.
- > Both players made key contributions to SDSU's 2-1 record at the Santa Clara Mission Classic, Sept. 11-13.
- > With the acclaim, the Aztecs garnered their first two Pac-12 weekly accolades of the season. Schabort picked up her first conference weekly certificate in a Scarlet and Black uniform, while Mairs received weekly plaudits for the first time in her career.
- > In a sweep of Santa Clara on Sept. 11, Schabort recorded career highs of 19 kills and a .692 hitting percentage, earning Player of the Match honors following the contest.
- > Her .692 hitting percentage represents the highest efficiency in the Pac-12 this season and 10th-best in the nation this year (min. 20 attempts).
- > In addition, Schabort's 19 kills are the most for a three-set match in the Pac-12 this year and tied for eighth in the conference for all matches. That 19-kill effort is also tied for the 21st-best performance in the nation for a three-set match this season.
- > In a narrow defeat to California the following day, Schabort flashed her versatility by completing her third double-double of the season with 15 kills and 12 digs, hitting .400 overall while adding two aces and two setting assists.
- > In SDSU's 3-1 triumph over CSU Bakersfield in the weekend finale, Schabort led all players with 17 kills, finishing with a .438 hitting percentage while contributing two service aces and three block assists.
- > For the season, Schabort finds herself among the Pac-12 leaders in several categories, ranking fifth in kills (3.62/set) and seventh in hitting percentage (.295) while tying for 10th in service aces (0.34/set).
- > A native of Camas, Washington, Mairs enjoyed another set of all-round performances in three matches, leading the Pac-12 with 118 assists for the week while ranking second with 9.83 assists per set. She also led the team with five service aces and ranked third on the squad with 30 digs (2.50) while adding five kills and one block assist.
- > Against Santa Clara, Mairs' setting prowess helped the Aztecs record a .407 team hitting percentage, which marks the highest efficiency for a single match in the Pac-12 this season and best by an SDSU squad since 2018. In that contest, she dished out 32 assists while adding seven digs and one kill.
- > The following day vs. Cal, Mairs logged her fifth double-double of the season with 42 assists and a season-high 15 digs. She also served up a season-high three aces to go with three kills and one block assist.
- > Mairs then saved her best for last in the tournament finale against Cal State Bakersfield when she established a career high with 44 assists while contributing eight digs and one kill. She did not commit an error in 83 attempts vs. the Runners for a season-best .530 setting percentage.
- > For the season, Mairs ranks second in the Pac-12 in assists (9.66/set), fifth in service aces (0.38/set) and 10th in digs (2.90/set).

SDSU IN PAC-12 RANKINGS

- > Despite sitting out the CSU Bakersfield match, Taelyn Bentley is perched atop the conference with a .457 hitting percentage as of Sept. 16 after combining for a .727 efficiency against Santa Clara and California last weekend.

> In addition, Kendall Mairs and Ella Schabert and find themselves among the Pac-12 leaders in three categories.

> Mairs ranks second in assists (9.66/set), fifth in service aces (0.38/set) and 10th in digs (2.90/set), while Schabert is slotted fifth in kills (3.62/set) and seventh in hitting percentage (.295) while tying for 10th in service aces (0.34/set).

> Not to be outdone, Zara Stewart occupies the fourth spot in digs (3.69/set), while Layla Austin ranks sixth in kills (3.52/set).

> In addition, Layla Austin occupies the third spot with 4.12 kills per set and the 10th position with a .263 hitting percentage.

> As a team, the Aztecs lead the Pac-12 in assists (12.41/set) and are slotted second in hitting percentage (.239) and third in both kills (13.24/set) and digs (14.31/set).

> The Aztecs' .407 hitting percentage at Santa Clara marks the highest team efficiency for a single match thus far in the Pac-12, while its .340 clip against UC Irvine ranks eighth.

> SDSU's total of 64 team kills against California is tied for the fourth-best figure in the league this season, while its 46 put-aways at Santa Clara and vs. UC Irvine are tied for the fourth-highest total in a three-set match.

> Similarly, the Aztecs dished out 62 assists against Cal, which is tied for the third-best figure in the conference. The Scarlet and Black also handed out 42 helpers at UC Davis and Santa Clara, which are tied for the fourth-highest total.

> The Aztecs' 57 team digs against UC Davis marks the second-best figure in the conference for a three-set match this season, while their 70 digs the following day vs. Cal Poly represent the third-highest total in a four-set contest.

> Individually, Ella Schabert's .692 hitting percentage (19-1-26) at Santa Clara represents the highest clip in the Pac-12 so far this year, while her 19 kills in that contest is tops for a three-set match.

> In addition, Layla Austin's .586 efficiency (18-1-29) against UC Irvine ranks third in the league, while her 18 kills from that outing is slotted second for a three-set match. Austin's total of 15 kills at UC Davis is tied for third in a three-set match.

> Elsewhere, Zara Stewart has recorded the second highest dig-total in the Pac-12 for a four-set match with 21 scoops against IU Indy.

> Kendall Mairs owns four of the top assist performances in the league this season, with her 33 helpers at UC Davis and 32 at Santa Clara ranking fourth and fifth, respectively, for a three-set match. Additionally, her effort of 42 assists vs. California is tied for fourth in the conference, while her 44 helpers against CSU Bakersfield is tied for fifth.

AUSTIN AWESOME

> Freshman sensation Layla Austin has made an immediate impact in her first season with the Aztecs, climbing to sixth in the Pac-12 rankings with an average of 3.52 kills per set.

> A former prep All-American from Southlake, Texas, Austin has led the Scarlet and Black with double-digit kills in seven of eight matches this year, highlighted by a collegiate-best 18 put-aways vs. UC Irvine at the Husky Invitational on Aug. 30.

> Against the Anteaters, Austin committed just one error in 39 attempts for a .586 hitting percentage, which marks the third-highest efficiency in the Pac-12 so far this season.

- > For her efforts, Austin earned a spot on the Husky Invite all-tournament team.
- > Additionally, Austin has posted two of the Aztecs' other top-six hitting percentages of the season, including a .400 clip (17-5-30) vs. IU Indy on Aug. 28 and a .359 efficiency (15-1-39) against Cal Poly on Sept. 4.
- > Not to be outdone, Austin ranks third on the squad with 72 digs (2.48/set), highlighted by a career-best 20 scoops vs. Cal on Sept. 12.

NEWCOMERS CONTRIBUTING

- > Eight of the Aztecs' 10 newcomers have seen action this season, with three of those players appearing in all 29 sets.
- > Along with Layla Austin's elite production, SDSU has received steady contributions from middle blockers Tessa Schouten and Taelyn Bentley.
- > A transfer from Saint Mary's, Schouten leads the team with 24 blocks and 0.83 blocks per set. In addition, the Aztec junior occupies the fourth spot on the team with 43 kills (1.48/set).
- > At the Aggie Invitational against Cal Poly, Schouten set season highs with nine kills, seven block assists and three digs.
- > Defensive specialist Nazare Judd has also played in all 29 sets for the Scarlet and Black this year, earning a start in each of the last four matches, highlighted by a season-best performance of seven digs vs. Santa Clara.
- > A San Diego native who returned to her hometown after spending her freshman season at San José State, Judd has collected 33 digs for the year (1.14/set) to go with seven setting assists.
- > Despite sitting out the last match vs. CSU Bakersfield, Bentley currently leads the Pac-12 with a .457 hitting percentage while occupying the third spot on the team in blocks (16, 0.64/set) and kills (46, 1.84/set).
- > At the Santa Clara Mission Classic, Bentley logged a season-best 11 kills vs. California, hitting .667 after committing just one error in 15 attempts. Previously, the South Florida transfer came up with a season-high five block assists against UC Irvine at the Husky Invitational.
- > Elsewhere, Ole Miss transfer Annabelle De Jager has appeared in 22 sets across seven matches this season, ranking fifth on the team with 43 kills (1.73/set) while adding 26 digs (1.18/set) and seven blocks.
- > In addition, senior Haylee Brown enjoyed a breakout match against California when she blasted a season-high 10 kills in 26 attempts with just one error for a .346 hitting percentage. The Nevada transfer also assisted on a pair of blocks vs. the Golden Bears.
- > Freshman Chelsea Cocks earned her first career start against CSU Bakersfield and responded with a season-high four kills and six blocks, including a pair of solo efforts.

SETTING AN EXAMPLE

- > Setter Kendall Mairs is off to a blazing start this season, posting double-doubles in five of eight matches this season.
- > The Aztec sophomore ranks third in the Pac-12 with 9.66 assists per set and has dished out more than 40 helpers in three of her last four matches.
- > The Camas, Washington, native is also slotted 10th in the conference with 2.90 digs per set.
- > At the Santa Clara Mission Classic last weekend, Mairs set a career-high with 44 assists and collected eight digs in the weekend finale against Cal State Bakersfield after posting 42 assists and a season-best 15 digs vs. California the previous day.
- > Thanks in part to those two efforts, Mairs was named Pac-12 Setter of the Week on Sept. 15.
- > Mairs' total of 42 assists against Cal is tied for the fourth-best total in the conference in a five-set match this season, while her 44 helpers vs. CSUB is tied for the fifth-highest mark in a four-set match.

THE LAST TIME OUT: AZTECS SURGE PAST CSU BAKERSFIELD

- > San Diego State rebounded from a hard-fought loss to Cal the previous day with a 3-1 triumph over Cal State Bakersfield (25-17, 20-25, 25-14, 25-19) on Sept. 13 to wrap up its weekend stay at the Santa Clara Mission Classic.
- > The Aztecs received double-digit kills from Ella Schabort, Annelise Rising and Layla Austin to finish the weekend with a 2-1 mark and raise their season record to 5-3.
- > With the teams knotted at 1-1 in sets, SDSU hit a combined .417 over the final two frames to improve to 3-0 this season in matches following a defeat.
- > Schabort led all players with 17 kills, while Rising made her season debut a memorable one, launching 11 put-aways with just one error in 14 attempts across three sets off the bench for a crisp .714 efficiency. In addition, Austin recorded 10 non-returnables of her own, reaching the double-digit kill barrier for the seventh time in eight starts.
- > Defensively, Zara Stewart tied Austin for match-high honors with nine digs, while Chelsea Cocks posted a season-high six blocks, including a pair of solo stops.
- > Not to be outdone. The Aztecs received another superlative performance from setter Kendall Mairs, who set a career high with 44 assists while contributing eight digs and two aces.
- > Despite trailing in team blocks (7.5 to 6.0) and tying CSUB with seven service aces, SDSU owned a hefty advantage in kills (51-38), hitting percentage (.300 to .182) and digs (41-31) to help raise its record to 6-1 in the all-time series.
- > The Aztecs maintained the upper hand for most of the opening frame but the Runners found themselves within striking distance midway through the set, trimming the deficit to 15-11 on a kill and service ace, followed by an SDSU attack error.
- > However, the Aztecs responded with a 5-1 blitz to effectively dash any CSUB comeback hopes. Schabort knocked down consecutive kills during the run and Cocks followed with a solo block, while Scarlet and Black also benefited from a pair of errant Runner attacks. SDSU later received kills from Mairs, Tessa Schouten and Haylee Brown to help clinch the set.
- > After CSUB flipped the scripts in the second stanza, the Aztecs went back to work with a sense of urgency in the third frame, posting their highest hitting percentage of the match, as the Scarlet and Black blasted 14 kills in 20 attempts with just two errors for a stellar .600 efficiency. Rising provided instant offense during the set, hitting .667 in that stretch on five kills against one miscue in six attempts, while Schabort (.571) put away five shots of her own.
- > Still, the teams battled through five early ties, including a 9-9 deadlock, before Schouten smashed a kill and quickly followed with an ace to ignite an impressive 16-5 closing run. In addition, Austin and Stewart each served up an ace during the outburst, while Cocks teamed with Rising on a block.
- > Buoyed by its good fortune, SDSU led wire-to-wire in the fourth set and were never threatened after racing to an insurmountable 12-4 advantage. Rising blasted five kills alone in that span, while Schabort added three, with the Aztecs benefiting from two service errors.
- > The Runners twice managed to pull within five down the stretch, including a 24-19 spread on a block. However, the comeback effort came too little, too late, as Schabort fittingly ended the match with her 17th kill shortly thereafter.

* - min. 7 kills

- > Rising (.750) and Schabort (.444) each finished with six kills in the set, while Stewart recorded seven of her nine digs in the frame to help stymie the CSUB attack.
- > Following the contest, Stewart was named Player of the Match, adding three setting assists and a service ace for the day.

ALL-TOURNAMENT AZTECS AT HUSKY INVITE

- > San Diego State's freshman Layla Austin and sophomore Zara Stewart were named to the all-tournament team after helping the Aztecs to a 2-1 record at the season-opening Husky Invitational, Aug. 28-30.
- > A former prep All-American from Texas, Austin paced the Aztecs with 41 kills and 4.10 kills per set last weekend, adding 14 digs (1.40/set), six blocks and three service aces.
- > In addition, Austin led all players with 17 and 18 kills, respectively, in SDSU's victories over IU Indy and UC Irvine. She also logged match-high hitting percentages of .400 and .586 in those wins over the Jaguars and Anteaters, respectively.
- > Against UCI, Austin blasted nine kills alone in the first set, helping the Aztecs set the tone for the match. Earlier, she also served up two aces vs. IU Indy.
- > Meanwhile, Stewart led the Aztecs with 42 digs and 4.20 digs per set for the tournament, posting match-highs of 21 and 12 digs, respectively, in SDSU's victories over IU Indy and UC Irvine.
- > Her total of 21 digs in the season opener vs. the Jaguars is tied for the third-highest total of her career and marked the fifth time she surpassed the 20-dig plateau as a collegian.
- > With her efforts, Stewart has now eclipsed the double-digit dig plateau in 31 of 34 matches since arriving on campus in 2025.
- > Additionally, Stewart tied her career high with 10 setting assists vs. IU Indy for her second career double-double and served up three aces for the week, including two vs. UC Irvine.

THREE AZTECS NAMED TO PAC-12 PRESEASON IMPACT LIST

- > San Diego State's Zara Stewart, Kendall Mairs and Ella Schabort and were named to the preseason Pac-12 Impact List on Aug. 25.
- > A heralded prep recruit, Stewart garnered all-Mountain West accolades at the libero position as a freshman after ranking third in the conference with 3.89 digs per set against league opponents.
- > The Bonita Springs, Florida, native appeared in all 123 sets for the Aztecs in 2025, collecting a team-high 455 digs and 32 service aces while ranking fourth on the squad with 169 setting assists.
- > Stewart finished fifth in the MW for all matches with 3.70 digs per set in 2025. She recorded double-digit digs in 29 of 31 matches, including a career-high 26 scoops in a home victory over New Mexico, and served up multiple aces on 11 times.
- > A sophomore setter, Mairs also looks to build on a highly successful freshman campaign when she led the team with 573 assists (5.26/set) and ranked 10th in the Mountain West with 5.26 assists per set.

- > In addition, the Camas, Washington, native topped the squad with 11 double-doubles and was slotted second with 253 digs (2.32/set).
- > A starter in 19 of 27 matches last season, Mairs handed out 20 or more assists on 17 occasions, including a career-high 27 helpers against non-conference foe San Diego.
- > Not to be outdone, Schabort made a huge splash in her Scarlet and Black debut as well last year after transferring from Binghamton University. The 6-2 outside hitter ranked second on the team with 237 kills while occupying the third spot with 1.94 kills per set and 26 service aces. Additionally, she was slotted fourth on the squad with 199 digs (1.63/set).
- > A starter in 23 of 31 matches during her junior campaign, Schabort reached the double-digit kill plateau on 12 occasions, recording a stellar .462 hitting percentage in a four-set triumph at Boise State when she finished with 14 put-aways in 26 attempts with just two errors.

WELCOME BACK

- > Along with Stewart, Mairs and Schabort, the Aztecs return four additional letterwinners this season in Annelise Rising, Mila Gehlen, Rylie Sengdara and Gianna Bender.
- > An outside hitter who transferred from Colorado in 2025, Rising appeared in 25 matches with three starts as a redshirt sophomore last season, racking up 66 kills (1.14/set), 23 digs, 12 blocks, two service aces and one assist in 58 sets.
- > In a four-set triumph at Boise State, Rising enjoyed a superlative performance when she came off the bench to blast a collegiate-best 16 kills against one error in 22 attempts, finishing with a sparkling .682 hitting percentage, which marked the eighth-best efficiency in the Mountain West during the season.
- > A local product from nearby Scripps Ranch High School, Gehlen showed flashes for the Aztecs during her freshman campaign in 2025, totaling 91 kills (1.38/set), 34 digs (0.52/set) and 23 blocks (0.35/set) in 66 sets across 26 matches.
- > An opposite hitter, Gehlen launched five or more kills in 11 matches and posted multiple blocks on six occasions, recording season highs of 12 kills against San José State and five block assists vs. UC Riverside.
- > Also returning to provide veteran depth along the back row are defensive specialists Sengdara and Bender, who will both compete for increased playing time this season after seeing limited action as sophomores for the Scarlet and Black in 2025.
- > Sengdara played in seven sets across four matches after transferring from Cal State Fullerton last year, while Bender appear in five sets across three matches.

LOGAN CARY NAMED GATORADE PLAYER OF THE YEAR IN COLORADO

- > San Diego State incoming freshman Logan Cary was named 2025-26 Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Colorado on Friday, Jan. 9.

> As a senior at Rock Canyon High School in Highlands Ranch, Colorado, Cary garnered first-team all-state accolades after propelling her team to a third-place finish at the 2025 CHSAA Class 5A Championships in November.

> In her final prep season, Cary compiled 468 assists and 289 kills in 101 sets across 28 matches to go with a team-high 49 service aces, splitting time as a setter and right-side hitter. She also flashed her versatility by contributing 245 digs and 64 blocks, according to MaxPreps, as the Jaguars finished with a 24-4 record.

> In addition, Cary competed for Front Range Volleyball Club in Englewood, Colorado, helping her squad to a 13th-place finish in the 17s USA Division at the USA Volleyball Girls Junior National Championship in the summer of 2025.

> Cary, who was listed as the No. 2 recruit for her high school graduating class in Colorado by PrepDig, was also selected to play in the Colorado Sports All-State Games later this year.

> Not to be outdone, Cary excelled in the classroom as well, earning multiple academic honors throughout high school.

NEW KIDS IN TOWN

> The prospects for the San Diego State volleyball program continue to improve after head coach Brent Hilliard retrofitted the Aztec roster with a stellar class of 10 newcomers for the 2026 campaign.

> SDSU added five Division I players through the NCAA transfer portal in Haylee Brown (Nevada), Tessa Schouten (Saint Mary's), Nazare Judd (San José State), Taelyn Bentley (South Florida) and Annabelle De Jager (Ole Miss).

> Not to be outdone, the Aztecs also signed five talented prep stars in the aforementioned Logan Cary (Highlands Ranch, Colo.), as well as Layla Austin (Southlake, Texas), Lauranta Iyalekhue (Yonkers N.Y.), Chelsea Cocks (Sydney, Australia) and Stephanie Gonzalez (Temecula, Calif.).

> A native of Maricopa, Arizona, Brown received all-Mountain West honorable mention in her lone season with the Wolf Pack in 2025 after playing her first two collegiate seasons at George Washington.

> Brown started 19 of 28 matches at Nevada last year, ranking fourth in the conference with 3.55 kills per set for all matches (355 overall). Additionally, she surpassed the double-digit kill plateau in 21 matches and posted multiple blocks on 11 occasions.

> A middle blocker who graduated from Davis (Calif.) Senior High, Schouten brings solid credentials with her to The Mesa from Saint Mary's College, where she started all 55 matches she played in her first two seasons.

> During her stay with the Gaels, Schouten compiled 259 kills (1.23/set), 191 blocks (0.90/set) and 71 digs (0.49/set) to go with 18 service aces. She also hit .281 in 211 sets played while posting five or more blocks on 14 occasions.

> As a sophomore in 2025, Schouten ranked among the West Coast Conference leaders in several blocking categories, including block solos (5th, 23), block assists (6th, 87), total blocks (6th, 110) and blocks per set (10th, 0.96). She also finished fourth on the squad with 152 kills (1.32/set) and occupied the sixth spot with 18 service aces.

> A San Diego native, Nazare Judd joined the Aztecs after completing her freshman season at San José State, where she played in all 29 matches as a defensive specialist, finishing fourth on the team with 207 digs (1.85/set) and eclipsed the double-digit dig plateau on seven occasions.

> Judd, who graduated from nearby Point Loma High School, was also slotted second on the Spartans with 21 service aces in 2025 while ranking fifth with 35 setting assists (0.31/set).

> A middle blocker from Corvallis, Oregon, who played for South Florida as a freshman, Taelyn Bentley appeared in 18 matches with 12 starts during her rookie campaign in 2025, posting 68 kills (1.36/set) and 42 blocks (0.84/set), including 12 solo rejections.

> In addition, Bentley finished with multiple blocks in nine matches and knocked down five or more kills on six occasions while committing just 11 attack errors in 134 attempts for a .425 hitting percentage.

> Meanwhile, De Jager sat out as a redshirt at Ole Miss in 2025 after graduating from Eaton High School in Eaton, Colorado.

> A prep standout, De Jager helped Eaton High capture four regional titles to go with three final four appearances at the CHSAA state championships, earning first-team all-state and all-conference honors over her final two seasons.

> During her high school career, De Jager amassed 1,081 kills (3.16/set), 843 digs (2.46/set), 168 service aces (0.49/set) and 90 blocks during her prep career, according to MaxPreps.

> Like Cary, Layla Austin arrives in "America's Finest City" as a heavily decorated prep player after starring at Carroll High School in Southlake, Texas, where she where she received All-America recognition from MaxPreps (first team), PrepVolleyball.com (second team) and the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) (honorable mention) following her senior season in 2025.

> Not to be outdone, Austin also earned a spot on the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA) 6A Super Elite Team and garnered first-team 6A all-state accolades from the Texas Sports Writers Association after helping the Dragons capture the 6A Division II state championship with a 35-5 overall record.

> As a senior, Austin led Carroll High with 514 kills (4.1/set) and 506 digs (4.0/set), according to MaxPreps, while ranking fourth with 30 service aces and 19 blocks. She also finished with a career-best .273 hitting percentage that season.

> A middle blocker, Lauranta Iyalekhue was a prep star at Yonkers (N.Y.) High School, where she earned all-Section 1 honors all four years. She was also a four-year competitor with the Legacy Volleyball Club in the Bronx, N.Y., where she competed at middle blocker and right-side hitter while serving as a team captain.

> A native of Sydney, Australia, Chelsea Cocks brings a wealth of international experience with her to The Mesa after a two-year stint in 2025 and 2026 with the Volleyroos, the senior national Australian team, where she was a teammate of fellow Aztec Ella Schabot.

> In addition, Cocks was voted the middle blocker in the U18 group at the 2024 Princess Cup in Thailand and helped three different club teams to top-three finishes in Australia's Premier State League.

- > The younger sister of former Aztec setter Sarena Gonzalez (2022-25), Stephanie Gonzalez follows in her family's footsteps to San Diego State after a standout prep career at Temecula Valley High School, where she garnered all-Southwestern League accolades on three occasions at setter.
- > Gonzalez amassed over 1,000 assists in high school and also brings a winning pedigree with her to The Mesa after helping Temecula Valley High to consecutive conference titles, two Division I Elite Eight appearances and a pair of state playoff berths during her junior and senior campaigns.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATIONS

- > In a vote of the league's nine head coaches, San Diego State was picked to finish seventh in the Pac-12 preseason coaches poll released Aug. 25.
- > Colorado State was picked to win the conference, followed by Oregon State, Texas State and Boise State, while Washington State rounded out the top five.
- > The top four teams in the conference standings will qualify for the Pac-12 Championship, set for Nov. 23 and 25 at a site to be determined.

2025 REWIND

- > The Aztecs finished with a 15-16 record and a 9-9 mark in conference play last season, clinching a spot in the Mountain West Championship for the third time in the last four seasons.
- > SDSU went 4-8 at home, 6-6 on the road and 5-2 in neutral-site matches.
- > In her final season with the Aztecs, opposite hitter Taylor Underwood closed out her brilliant collegiate career by earning her third straight all-conference honors after leading the team with 3.77 points and 3.47 kills per set, both of which ranked seventh in the league.
- > Thanks to her 13 put-aways at Grand Canyon on Nov. 6, 2025, Underwood surpassed the 1,000-kill plateau in an SDSU uniform after transferring from DePaul in 2023. With 364 kills for the season, she became the first SDSU player to record 300 put-aways in three straight years since Deja Harris (2016-18).
- > Earlier in the 2025 campaign, Underwood posted her 1,000th career kill against LSU at the Flo Hyman Classic on Sept. 5, 2025 in Houston, Texas. As a collegian, she blasted 1,318 kills across four seasons, including 264 as a freshman at DePaul in 2022.
- > Along with Underwood, libero Zara Stewart garnered all-conference accolades for the Scarlet and Black in 2025.
- > Stewart has surpassed the double-digit barrier for digs in 29 of 31 matches last season, including a career-high 26 scoops vs. New Mexico on Oct. 9, 2025. She also led all players with 22 digs against Grand Canyon on Oct. 16, 2025.
- > The Aztecs held 29 of 31 opponents under a .300 hitting percentage last year. SDSU allowed its first adversary to hit over .300 when UNLV posted a .314 efficiency on Oct. 18, 2025, before Colorado State accomplished the feat with a .350 clip in the MW semifinals on Nov. 28, 2025.
- > SDSU went 6-1 last season when out-blocking the opposition and 12-2 when maintaining a greater hitting percentage.
- > The Aztecs were also 9-4 last season when limiting the opposition below a .200 efficiency.
- > SDSU was 8-7 in matches following a victory in 2025 and 7-8 in contests following a loss.

COULTER, SHAVER ADDED TO VOLLEYBALL STAFF

- > Head coach Brent Hilliard filled a pair of staff vacancies during the offseason with the addition of Haley Coulter and Clayre Shaver.
- > Coulter is the Aztecs' newest assistant coach who will also serve as the program's recruiting coordinator, while Shaver was hired as director of volleyball operations.
- > A native of Bradenton, Florida, Coulter brings extensive experience with her to The Mesa with coaching stops at the club, high school and collegiate levels. She has been coaching with the renowned Wave Volleyball Club in Del Mar, California, since 2024.
- > Coulter began her collegiate playing career at Tulsa as a freshman in 2016 before transferring to Angelo State, where she received Lone Star Conference honorable mention in 2019 after compiling 202 kills (1.96/set), 335 digs (3.25/set), 31 aces and 26 blocks, helping the Rambelles capture the LSC tournament championship and earn a spot in the NCAA Division II South Central Regionals.

- > Coulter later completed her eligibility in 2020 at Louisiana-Monroe, where she played 22 matches, leading the Warhawks in kills (161, 2.37/set) and service aces (19) while ranking second in digs (252, 3.71/set).
- > During her collegiate playing career, Coulter also served as head coach of the Angelo State men's club volleyball team and worked in the same capacity for the Angelo Elite Club program.
- > In addition, Coulter spent one year as an assistant coach at her alma mater Manatee High School before entering the collegiate ranks as an assistant at Seton Hall in 2022 and 2023. During her final season, the Pirates recorded eight victories against Big East competition, their most since the 2017 campaign.
- > Coulter also worked for Sideout Sports Volleyball Club in Fairfield, New Jersey, where she served as head coach of the 13s squad while assisting with the 17-2 team.
- > Coulter received her bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Angelo State before earning a master's in public administration from Louisiana-Monroe.
- > As a prep junior at Manatee High, Coulter was named Florida Class 8A Player of the Year in 2014 after leading her squad to a 25-5 record and a Class 8A state championship.
- > Meanwhile, Shaver arrives in "America's Finest City" after spending two seasons as director of operations for the women's basketball program at her alma mater Eastern Illinois.
- > In her role, Shaver manages the Aztecs' team travel and recruiting logistics while assisting with team budgeting, gameday operations, practice, student-athlete support and social media.
- > A former Division I student-athlete, Shaver was a four-year competitor in throws on the Eastern Illinois indoor and outdoor track and field teams, qualifying for the Ohio Valley Conference Championships on seven occasions. During the 2024 outdoor season, she set a personal-best mark of 167-3 in the hammer throw, which ranks 10th in program history.
- > In addition, Shaver gained valuable leadership experience as a three-year member of the EIU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, serving as president during the 2023-24 campaign. She was also a two-year board member of the Ohio Valley Conference SAAC (2022-24) and was the OVC's secondary SAAC representative to the NCAA for the 2023-24 academic year.
- > A native of Milford, Michigan, Shaver received two degrees from Eastern Illinois, earning a master's in sports administration in 2026 after completing her bachelor's in sports management with a minor in business administration in 2024.

HEAD COACH BRENT HILLIARD

Now in his seventh year on The Mesa, head coach Brent Hilliard and the San Diego State volleyball program begin a new chapter this fall when the Aztecs embark on their inaugural season in the Pac-12 Conference.

In its final Mountain West campaign, Hilliard directed SDSU to its second straight conference tournament appearance and third in the last four years when the Aztecs secured the No. 6 seed at the 2025 MW Championship.

Facing third-seeded Wyoming in the opening round, SDSU recorded a statement win with a 3-0 upset of the Cowgirls before falling to No. 2 seed Colorado State in a tight four-set battle in the semifinals.

Under Hilliard's tutelage, opposite hitter Taylor Underwood garnered first-team all-Mountain West accolades for the third year in row after leading the Scarlet and Black with 3.47 kills per set, which ranked seventh in the league.

With her 364 overall kills, Underwood surpassed the 1,000-kill plateau in an SDSU uniform after transferring from DePaul in 2023 and became the first Aztec player to record 300 put-aways in three straight seasons since Deja Harris (2016-18).

Not to be outdone, Hilliard oversaw the development of freshman libero Zara Stewart, a prized recruit who earned first-team all-MW honors after ranking fifth in the conference with 3.70 digs per set (455 overall).

Scholastic achievement has been a trademark for the Aztec volleyball program, and the 2025 campaign was no different, as 11 players earned spots on the Mountain West all-academic team following the fall semester, including Underwood and Campbell Hague, who also landed on the College Sports Communicators academic all-district team.

In 2024, Hilliard guided the Scarlet and Black to a breakthrough campaign, with the Aztecs posting a 20-10 record, their highest victory total since 2012.

In addition, SDSU clinched a spot in the Mountain West Championship as the No. 5 seed after logging its first winning record in conference play since 2017 with an 11-7 mark. The Aztecs knocked off fourth-seeded Fresno State in the first round of the tournament before falling to eventual champion Colorado State in the semifinals.

During the regular season, Hilliard's charges defeated Colorado State and Wyoming in consecutive matches for the first time since 2012. The Aztecs also toppled the Cowgirls in Laramie for the third straight year to complete their first season sweep of Wyoming since 2011.

Under Hilliard's leadership, graduate transfer Shea Rubright led the nation with a school-record .461 hitting percentage in her lone season at San Diego State to earn Mountain West Newcomer of the Year honors, just the second Aztec to receive that distinction after Michelle Weber was recognized in 2012.

Additionally, opposite hitter Taylor Underwood continued to thrive in Hilliard's system, meriting all-conference acclaim for the second straight year after leading the Scarlet and Black with 3.18 kills per set, which ranked 10th in the league.

Not to be outdone, libero Gianna Bender displayed her talents along the back row, collecting three MW Freshman of the Week plaudits during the season to go with one dual award as conference Defensive Player of the Week.

Along with their success on the court, the Aztecs witnessed another banner year in the classroom, with 10 student-athletes earning a spot on the Mountain West all-academic team.

A 2018 inductee to the Southern California Indoor Volleyball Hall of Fame, Hilliard arrived at SDSU with a wealth of experience after achieving 19 years of unparalleled success as an assistant coach at the University of San Diego, where he served as the Toreros' associate head coach since 2007.

During his fruitful tenure, the Toreros qualified for the NCAA Tournament in all but one of his 19 seasons, advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2004, 2006, 2013 and 2018. In addition, Hilliard helped guide the Toreros to nine West Coast Conference championships while his players earned six All-America awards, 12 All-America honorable mentions, 44 all-WCC accolades and 15 freshman all-conference certificates.

Hilliard twice assumed the reins of the USD program on an interim basis while head coach Jennifer Petrie was absent on maternity leave. In 2006, Hilliard was honored as WCC Coach of the Year after guiding the Toreros to a conference championship and a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season, he coached five all-conference honorees, including WCC Player of the Year Kristen Carlson, as USD finished 14th in the final USA Today/Coaches Poll.

The Toreros also flourished under Hilliard's guidance in 2011, racing to a 13-0 start en route a program-best 28-5 record, highlighted by a spot in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Throughout his stint, USD was consistently ranked among the nation's top 25, climbing to as high as No. 2 during the 2013 campaign and rising to No. 5 in 2016.

Hilliard played collegiately at Long Beach State, earning All-America honors in each of his four years from 1990-93, including first-team recognition over his final three seasons. A right-side hitter for the 49ers, Hilliard was named the NCAA Men's Volleyball Player of the Year as a junior in 1992 after leading LBSU to a 31-1 record.

In 1991, Hilliard and the 49ers captured the NCAA Championship with a 3-1 victory over USC in the finals, avenging a loss to the Trojans in the title match the year before. He finished his career as the NCAA all-time leader with 3,034 kills.

Additionally, Hilliard was selected to play for Team USA in the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain, where he helped the Americans capture the bronze medal. The following year, he won a silver medal at the 1993 Pan American Games in Argentina and also owns a bronze medal from the 1991 World Cup.

After receiving his undergraduate degree in 1993 from Long Beach State in political science, Hilliard continued his volleyball career as a professional in Europe from 1995-98, playing two seasons in Belgium and another in the Netherlands. In 1996, Hilliard and the Masiak Volleyball Club captured the Belgian national championship and competed in the European Champions League.

In addition to his collegiate experience, which included a stint as head coach at nearby Cuyamaca College in 1999-2000, Hilliard has also coached at the renowned Wave Volleyball Club in Del Mar.

ON THE HORIZON

> The Aztecs open their inaugural Pac-12 Conference schedule next week when they travel to the Front Range of the Rocky Mountains to battle Colorado State on Thursday, Sept. 24, before returning to the Golden State for a clash with Fresno State in the Central Valley on Saturday, Sept. 26.
