Internationalization event and symposium Intercultural Competence at Work

4 to 5 June 2020 in Seinäjoki, Finland

SEINÄJOKI UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES (SeAMK) will arrange an international event entitled Intercultural Competence at Work in Seinäjoki, Finland on 4 to 5 June 2020. The event is aimed at both Finnish and international target groups.

The purpose of the event is to enhance awareness of intercultural competence in today's working life and to provide tools for developing it. At the event the outputs of the project Erasmus+ -funded Prominence: Promoting Mindful Encounters Through Intercultural Competence and Experience are presented. The main outcome of the project is Prominence Interactive, an online learning environment developed by the consortium of seven European institutes of higher education.

As part of the event a symposium will be arranged. We open a call for papers inviting scholars and practitioners who are interested in intercultural issues related to the theme of the event to submit their proposals for papers by 29 February 2020. Please see suggested topic areas, instructions for abstract submission and other details at www.bit.ly/2RfL3vq

PARTICIPANTS

- develop their perspectives into intercultural education in the digital era
- have the privilege of exploring the new online learning environment
- collaborate on their ideas and experiences of the environment
- may give a presentation on the paper they submitted
- receive a certificate upon participation
