Epilepsy Warning

READ BEFORE USING YOUR SEGA VIDEO GAME SYSTEM

A very small percentage of individuals may experience epileptic seizures when exposed to certain light patterns or flashing lights. Exposure to certain patterns or backgrounds on a television screen or while playing video games may induce an epileptic seizure in these individuals. Certain conditions may induce undetected epileptic symptoms even in persons who have no history of prior seizures or epilepsy. If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game — dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions — IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

“I Wander Forever, Seeking Rest”

“I have been a warrior of mighty strength and skill. I have been steeped in the darkest occult mysticisms and versed in the ways of dealing death.

“I was powerful and proud. . . so proud that I believed I had no equal, not even Death himself.

When Death challenged me to a duel, I arrogantly accepted. I had no fear of losing my soul. Only the reward, eternal life, gleamed before my inner vision like the brightest jewel, and would be mine.

“I battled Death with spell and steel . . . and won. Now I suffer my doom. For Death kept his promise with a hideous twist. As my reward, I must wander in agony, haunted by the pain of victims, until all beasts of darkness have been destroyed.

“I journey through subterranean mazes of horror, drawing my blade against the crawling, stinging and flying fiends of a supernatural world. I wade through evil poisoned seas, slashing all that lurks in the depths. I travel through the web of evil, raising my sword again and again in weary battle . . . endless combat . . .

“I have lived through twenty torturous lifetimes. All that creeps, walks or flies behind the four portals of the world must feel the edge of my sword. All that howls or buzzes, all that breathes, whistles or moans in the gloom of night, all that is undead, must die by my hand. Only then will I be released from this dark misery . . . and find rest.”

Navigating the Planes of Darkness

Chakan is doomed to search the four portals of the world — Earth, Air, Fire and Water — seeking out and destroying the Inhuman Royalty of Supernatural Darkness.

His search begins at the Navigation level, where a huge chart marks the four points of the world. Here the ebb and flow of his wanderings are counted. Here also Chakan returns, amid the eerie howling of beasts, when he is overcome by the forces of horror.

Four Mystic Portals can be found in the Navigation level. Each leads to one point of the world. Move Chakan through the Navigation level to seek and discover the portals. When you reach a portal, stand in front of it and press the Jump button to travel into its levels.

Each portal of the world has two planes: Terrestrial and Elemental. You must first subdue the fiends of all four Terrestrial planes before you are allowed entry to the Elemental planes. The table below shows the enormity of your anguished journey.

Positions of the World	Earth	Fire	Water	Air
Conquer all punishing phases of the Terrestrial Planes . . .	Terrestrial Planes
	Phase 1	Phase 1	Phase 1	Phase 1
	Phase 2	Phase 2	Phase 2	Phase 2
	Phase 3	Phase 3	Phase 3	Phase 3
. . . to enter the unnamed horrors of the Elemental Planes.	Elemental Planes
	Phase 1	Phase 1	Phase 1	Phase 1
	Phase 2	Phase 2	Phase 2	Phase 2
	Phase 3	Phase 3	Phase 3	Phase 3

When you conquer a phase (or are vanquished by its demons), you return to stand before the Mystic Portal of that point of the world. You can now re-enter the portal, or journey through another portal to another point of the world.

When you conquer all three phases of the Terrestrial Plane for one of the worlds, its portal will close. You must now subdue all other Terrestrial phases before you may re-enter that portal and begin your wanderings in the Elemental Plane.

The portal closes again when you vanquish all three phases of its Elemental Plane.

The Navigation chart counts your successes. Return to it to see a blue marker added for each conquered phase.

Endless Battle

The beings of darkness rush on with ceaseless fury. Use all of Chakan's straightforward and devious attacks — spins, jumps and rolls — to withstand and destroy the beasts. Relax your guard at your own peril, for suffering too many wounds will defeat you, and time slipping through the glass will trick you.

Skull Bar

Hour Glass

Skull Bar:

Skulls disappear as Chakan sustains injury. Some blows are slight, taking only half a skull. Other impacts are of such power that all skulls vanish at a single hit. When all the skulls disappear, Chakan has been defeated, and he must re-enter the phase. Chakan will also be overcome if he falls into a bottomless pit or a deadly chasm of fire or ice.

Hour Glass:

As the sands recede from the upper to the lower flask, time fades away. Should the upper flask empty completely, Chakan will be forced back to the Mystic Portal with a stinging rebuke from the cruel lips of Death. He loses all weapons and potions acquired while in the portal (see page 11), and he must start the plane of that portal over from the beginning.

Potions

Yet Death is not omnipotent, as Chakan has once proven. Potions of Earth, Fire, Water and Air can be found throughout the worlds. When collected in different combinations, these potions are the makings of potent alchemies that confound and destroy enemies, and provide Chakan with extraordinary powers and instruments of deadly destruction.

Note: To use the potions, see pages 12-13.

Weapons

Chakan always carries his twin swords, which slice into foes with razor edges and lightning speed. Yet these are the weakest of his armaments. Four other weapons of irresistible force lie waiting somewhere in the portals of the world. Find and secure these arms, or you may never conquer the Inhuman Royalty of Darkness.

During battle, press the Weapon button to cycle through your arms and press the Attack button to use them.

Swing the Battering Mallet to bash through walls and rocky obstacles.

The Scythe slashes through enemies and tears through spider webs.

Wield the Battle Axe to splinter beasts and doors.

Heave the Grappling Hook to catch onto ram's-heads and other fixtures. Use it along with the Jump button to swing over pits and ascend otherwise unscalable walls.

Alchemies

Potions are the ingredients of immensely powerful alchemies. To use alchemies (and take stock of your weapons), press Start. The Alchemy screen will appear. Here you'll see the potions you've gathered, the alchemies available, and your store of weapons.

Twelve alchemies await your bidding. Yet they only appear if you've collected the correct combination of potions.

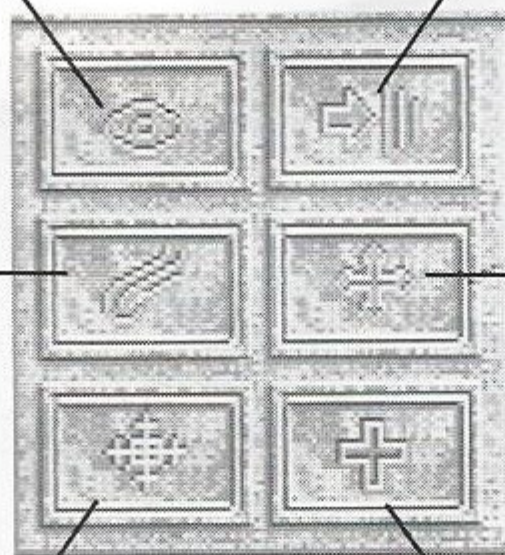

To use an alchemy:

1. Press the D-Button to move the Mystic Hand to the alchemy you want.
2. Press Start to return to battle. Chakan appears, holding two potions aloft.
3. Press the Attack button to use the alchemy immediately. Or, you may want to keep the alchemy in reserve until the moment you need it. In that case, press the Weapon button to switch to another weapon. When you're ready for the alchemy, press the Weapon button until Chakan again holds the potions high, and then press the Attack button.

Shields you from enemies' sight.

Slows down enemies.

Gives you the blue lightning Air Sword.

Hurls bombs, causing instant death to most visible foes.

Arms you with the blue Cold Fire Sword.

Restores your Skull Bar.

Gives you the orange Fire Sword.

Imparts the power of the super high jump.

Shields you from all enemies.

Provides the green lightning Earth Sword.

Creates a passage where none exists. (But beware: it may not take you where you want to go.) Once you've created the passage, you will return to that spot upon re-entering the portal for that point of the world.

Reverses the Hour Glass, tempering the threat of the slipping sands.

The Four Portals of the Supernatural

Earth

Descend into a murky nest of horrors. The realm of the Spider Queen is dank, smelling of the dead. Her offspring crawl and squirm through the mazes, biting and stabbing with poisoned stingers. Find here the sticky webs that only your Scythe can tear away. Face and vanquish skeletal lizards and venomous larvae that are born squeaking and snapping for blood. Bulbous pulsating plants burst with toxic spores, and mutated horrors make every step a nightmare.

Fire

Scale the rotting, death-tainted walls to the bastion of the sadistic Elkenrod, Mistress of Spectres. Biting swarms of bats push and peck you. The fiery breath of Elkenrod's ghostly victims singes your face. Lava-spewing gargoyles portend things more horrible to come. In the purple shroud of sunset you fight winged imps and flame spitters, while huge goat-footed cyclops hurl boulders to dash you into the furnace pits below.

Water

Journey through a festering sea of carnivorous squid and spiked lizards. Crumbling columns bar your way. Giant clawed worms undulate in the layers of skulls dropped by the Mantis, ruler of this realm of watery confusion. Fight through the precarious frozen caves, battling horned tundra wolves. Grapple on slick ice floes with slippery demons whose only desire is to see you perish in the frozen depths.

Air

Rise to the floating castle of the Dragonfly King, an airy outpost of dark disaster. Fight the mace-wielding Man-Ox. Destroy the armored riders to commandeer the Flying Insectoids. Then mount them at your peril for airborne combat among the floating islands of doom. Ascend skyward for a final joust with the deadly knight of this drifting world.
