BURNS NAMED TO NCBWA PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Samford relief pitcher Wyatt Burns received yet another preseason honor Monday as the Bulldogs' junior native of Pinson, Alabama, was named to the 2017 Stopper of the Year Watch List by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), it was officially announced by the organization's headquarters.

Burns, who earned Preseason All-Southern Conference honors last week, heads into the season as one of the top closers in the nation. Last year, the Bulldogs' right-handed sidewinder finished the campaign with eight saves and 40 strikeouts in 42.1 innings pitched. Burns closed out his sophomore year with a team-high 37 appearances.

Each season, the Stopper of the Year Award is given to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division I baseball.

PRESEASON ALL-SOCON RANKINGS & HONORS

Samford was predicted to finish fifth in the SoCon preseason standings by both the coaches and media on Feb. 9. The Bulldogs' Austin Edens was tabbed as a First-Team All-SoCon member, while junior Wyatt Burns headlined the second team.

In the coaches' vote, Samford received 34 points and came in fifth place just behind Furman. On the media side, the Bulldogs' 83 points finished just one vote shy of fourth-place Furman, which edged out Samford with 84.

Edens, the Bulldogs' junior first baseman, received First-Team All-SoCon preseason honors Thursday after blasting 19 home runs a year ago. He finished the 2016 campaign ranked eighth in the country in the category and also added a .311 batting average, 59 RBI and 43 runs scored.

A First-Team All-SoCon performer from a year ago, Edens was named a Second-Team All-American by the NCBWA as a sophomore. He also garnered First-Team South Central Region honors from ABCA/Rawlings.

Burns received Second-Team All-SoCon preseason accolades in a vote taken of the conference's head coaches. The Bulldogs' talented junior reliever finished the 2016 campaign with eight saves, 40 strikeouts and only 17 earned runs. Burns registered a team-high 37 appearances last season and concluded the year with a 3.61 earned run average.

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

Florida State (2-2) enters the weekend as the No. 5-ranked team in the nation. The Seminoles opened their 2017 campaign last week with a 3-0 loss to VCU, but then rebounded with a pair of blowout victories over the Rams, 12-3 and 11-3, to win the series. On Tuesday, Florida State faced USF in an in-state showdown and suffered a 4-2 loss.

This week, the Seminoles' Opening Day starter Drew Carlton, the most experienced starting pitcher on the staff who allowed just two runs in the opener against VCU, will become FSU's new closer.

Freshman Drew Parrish, a lefthander who has appeared in two games early in the season, will take over Carlton's role in the rotation. Sophomore righthander Cole Sands and lefty Tyler Holton round out the lineup.

Carlton joins a Seminole bullpen that allowed four runs in the ninth inning of Tuesday's 4-2 loss to USF. He is 13-9 in his career and has started 30 of his 36 appearances as a Seminole. Junior shortstop Taylor Walls, a preseason All-American, has been Florida State's top bat in the lineup early in the year. Walls enters this weekend's series with a .333 average, three doubles, six RBI and five runs scored to go along with six walks. His .556 on-base percentage ranks 10th in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

SAMFORD vs. FLORIDA STATE - - THE ALL-TIME SERIES

The Bulldogs and Seminoles will be meeting on the diamond for the 20th time in history Friday. Florida State leads the all-time series, 18-1, but the teams have only met twice since 1989. The Seminoles are in the midst of a 16-game winning streak in the series, including a pair of matchups held in the 2012 Tallahassee Regional.

RECAPPING THE 2016 SEASON

Last season, Samford finished the 2016 campaign with a 35-26 overall record. The Bulldogs advanced to the semifinal round of the SoCon Tournament for a fifth time since 2011. Samford has reached the 35-win plateau four times since the program's inception in 1905, and all four have been achieved in the last six seasons.

DID YOU KNOW?

Under the tutelage of Head Coach Casey Dunn, Samford is the winningest Division I program in the state of Alabama since 2011, and the Bulldogs have had 19 players selected in the MLB Draft over the last six years.

EDENS IN THE SOCON

Samford's Austin Edens is the active SoCon career leader in home runs (35), RBI (114) and slugging percentage (.620). He is also ranked second on the list in doubles (29), third in hits (153) and fifth in career batting average (.330).

WHAT'S COMING UP NEXT?

Following this weekend's three-game set at No. 5 Florida State, the Samford University baseball team will next be in action Tuesday at 3 p.m. (CT) as the Bulldogs conclude their arduous four-game road stretch with an in-state contest against the Auburn Tigers. Tuesday's game will be held at Auburn's Samford Stadium-Hitchcock Field at Plainsman Park.

COACH'S CORNER

"Florida State has a great atmosphere," said Samford head coach Casey Dunn. "We are very fortunate to be in the Southeast and close to a lot of very good programs and very good facilities. Tallahassee is one of the best atmospheres in college baseball and it always has been. You know that they are going to be a top-10 program year-in and year-out, and it's going to be beneficial for our team to be able to go down there and play in front of a great fan base against a very challenging opponent."

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Dunn's father, Sammy Dunn, was a legendary Head Baseball Coach at Vestavia Hills High School for 27 years from 1978-2004

Regarded as one of the most successful coaches in the history of Alabama High School baseball, Dunn's Vestavia baseball teams won nine state titles from 1991-2000, including seven straight from 1994-2000. In 1998, his team won the National Championship and Dunn was named National Coach of the Year. He was again named National Coach of the Year in 1999. Dunn's 27-year record at Vestavia was 647-146.

Dunn served as an assistant on Coach Buddy Anderson's football staff from 1978-1998. Dunn had the opportunity to be a head baseball coach at the college level, including the University of Alabama, but chose to stay at Vestavia.

Dunn is a member of Montevallo's Sports Hall of Fame and was inducted into the AHSAA Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. He received the first-ever Frank House Award at the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame and the Baseball Stadium at Vestavia Hills High School is named in his honor. Coach Dunn was one of the leading founders of the Alabama High School Baseball Coaches Association, where he held office.

'DOGS' EDENS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Samford's Austin Edens received a prominent national honor on Jan. 31, as the Bulldogs' junior first baseman from Baton Rouge, La., was named a Third-Team Preseason All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA), it was officially announced by the organization's headquarters.

Edens, who has been one of the nation's leaders in home runs since the day he stepped on campus in 2014, powered 19 round-trippers last season and finished eighth in the country in the category. He also added a .311 batting average, 59 RBI and 43 runs scored.

A First-Team All-Southern Conference performer from a year ago, Edens was named a Second-Team All-American by the NCBWA as a sophomore. He also garnered First-Team South Central Region honors from ABCA/Rawlings. Edens was joined on the NCBWA third team by Florida's JJ Schwarz, Florida State's Jackson Lueck, Miami's Johnny Ruiz and Kentucky's Evan White.
