

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Eric J. Barron University President

Dr. Eric J. Barron became the 14th president of The Florida State University on February 1, 2010.

In the past three years, he has led his alma mater to new heights as a dynamic, elite research institution with a central focus on being one of the most student-centered universities in the country.

While directing Florida State's rise to a U.S. News & World Report ranking as the most efficiently operated university in the nation, he worked with Florida policymakers to have FSU named one of two pre-eminent universities in the state. His goal now is to use this new designation and accompanying funding to move the school into the Top 25 quality rankings.

He has spearheaded efforts to serve students, such as the construction of a new Honors, Scholars and Fellows House and establishment of a new Veterans Center and numerous initiatives to assist student-veterans as they transition to academic life.

He currently is overseeing FSU's $1 billion capital campaign, leveraging existing strengths to develop innovative, interdisciplinary programs that will attract support, such as using the outstanding College of Business to create an entrepreneurial university across the entire campus.

A highly visible scientist, Dr. Barron is a 1973 FSU alumnus with a bachelor's degree in geology. He holds master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Miami.

Prior to assuming the Florida State presidency, he served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colo. From 2006 to 2008, he was dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin. At Pennsylvania State University, he was professor of geosciences, director of the Earth System Science Center, director of the EMS Environmental Institute and dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences.

Dr. Barron is a Fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Geophysical Union, the American Meteorological Society and the Geological Society of America. He has received many national awards as a scholar, researcher and distinguished lecturer, has published extensively and has been editor or a member of the editorial boards of a dozen academic journals. He has testified before Congress and chaired numerous committees in service to the federal government.

A native of Lafayette, Ind., Barron and his wife, Molly, have two grown children and one grandchild.

2013-14 Florida State Board of Trustees

Allan Bense, Chair

Edward E. "Ed" Burr

Kathryn Ballard

Joseph L. Camps

Emily Fleming Duda

Joseph Gruters

Wm. Andrew Haggard

Mark Hillis

Leslie Pantin

Gary Tyson

Margaret A. "Peggy" Rolando

Brent W. Sembler

Rosalia "Rosie" Conteras

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Stan Wilcox

Director of Athletics

Florida State University announced the appointment of Stan Wilcox as the institution's new Director of Athletics following a national search. Wilcox, who served as Senior Deputy Director of Athletics at Duke University since 2008, was named FSU's eleventh full-time AD by University President Eric Barron on August 7, 2013.

During his time at Duke, Wilcox's duties included managing the day-to-day operation of the department and oversight of the football program. Other areas within athletics he oversaw were Human Resources, Contracts, Legal Affairs, Athletics Training, Strength and Conditioning, Equipment, Campus Recreation, Physical Education, External Operations that included Marketing and Promotions, Ticketing, Digital Media, Sports Information and Video Operations. In addition, Wilcox was responsible for coordinating football scheduling.

Before arriving at Duke, Wilcox, a former basketball letterman at Notre Dame, spent three years as the deputy director of athletics at his alma mater. Prior to returning to South Bend in 2005, he served 11 years as an associate commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference.

While working at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox was the league's representative to the NCAA Management Council from 2000-05 and served on the Management Council subcommittees on incentives and disincentives, governance, nominations and the task force to review the NCAA's one-time transfer exception rule.

Also, he spent time on the NCAA recruiting task force and the basketball issues committee. For the BIG EAST, Wilcox, who in 2001-02 received the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators Outstanding Achievement Award, was responsible for the league's NCAA governance, legislative, enforcement, compliance services and legal issues.

Additionally, Wilcox helped create the Minority Opportunity Athletics Association (MOAA) and is a former board member of MOAA. Wilcox is also a past president of the Black Coaches Association (BCA), having held the post from June, 2003 to June, 2005. Overall, he served 11 years on the BCA's Board of Directors.

Before his tenure at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox worked as a legislative assistant at the NCAA from 1989-94. Prior to that, he worked as a senior court analyst for the Kings County Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1982-89. Following his graduation from Notre Dame in 1981 with a degree in economics, he spent one year as an account executive for Serres, Visonos & Rice Insurance in New York, N.Y. and as a graduate assistant basketball coach at C.W. Post College.

A native of North Babylon, N.Y., Wilcox played in 100 career games on the hardwood for the Fighting Irish and was a member of Notre Dame's 1978 club that faced Duke in the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis, Mo. He helped the Irish to a four-year ledger of 92-26 with four NCAA Tournament berths. Wilcox went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the Brooklyn Law School in 1988 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

He is married to the former Ramona Harrell. Stan has three daughters, Soraya, Yasmeen and Nadia, and Ramona has three sons, James, Brian and Charles.

Dr. Pamela L. Perrewé

Faculty Athletics Representative

Pamela L. Perrewé (Ph.D.) is in her third year as the Faculty Athletics Representative to the NCAA and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Perrewé is the Haywood and Betty Taylor Eminent Scholar of Business Administration and Distinguished Research Professor at Florida State University. She received her Bachelor degree in Psychology from Purdue University and her Master and Ph.D. degrees in Management from the University of Nebraska. Perrewé has focused her research interests in the areas of job stress, burnout, coping, mentoring, organizational politics, emotion and personality. Dr. Perrewé has focused her research interests in the areas of job stress, burnout, coping, mentoring, organizational politics, emotion and personality. Dr. Perrewé has published several books, over 30 book chapters and over 100 articles in journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Journal of Management, Journal of Applied Psychology and Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes. She holds Fellow status in the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology and the American Psychological Association.

Dr. Perrewé has maintained a commitment to her profession as well as to Florida State University for over 25 years, and she has won teaching, mentoring and research awards at Florida State University. She has taught at the undergraduate, MBA, and Ph.D. levels. Further, she has served as the Management Department Chair as well as the Associate Dean for Graduate Programs in the College of Business. She has a passion for sports, enjoys playing tennis, and has served on the Athletic Board since 2004. She is married to Dr. Gerald R. Ferris and together they have six children; Erin, Jennifer, Emily, Ellie, Stephen and Matthew and one granddaughter, Lily.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Monk Bonasorte
Senior Associate
Athletics Director
Football/Men's Basketball Oversight

Monk Bonasorte is in his sixth year as Senior

Associate Athletic Director at Florida State and among his responsibilities is oversight of internal operations within the athletic department and oversight of Florida State's football and men's basketball programs.

Currently, Bonasorte is responsible for administrative oversight of the following departments: Media Relations, Equipment, Communications, Marketing, Digital Media, Ticket Operations, Student Services, Athletic Training, Coaches Video and Strength & Conditioning.

A member of Florida State's All-Time football team as named by Athlon Magazine, Bonasorte earned four varsity letters (1977-80), played in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl and two Orange Bowls (1980 and 1981) and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995 as one of the top defensive backs in school history. He ranks second in school history with 15 interceptions while his eight interceptions in 1979 ranks as the second highest single season total in school history. He has been a member of the Seminole Radio Network's pregame football broadcasts since 1995.

Bonasorte joined the Florida State athletics department executive staff in 2008 after a 13-year career as the president and executive director of the Florida State University Varsity Club - the organization that gives back to every Seminole letter winner and allows them to give back to the current letter winners. He helped build the FSU Varsity Club into one of the top organizations of its kind across the nation.

As a player, Bonasorte earned All-America Third Team honors in 1979 by the Associated Press and All-America Second Team honors from Football News in 1980 starting on one of the toughest defensive units in Florida State history in 1979. He led the nation in interceptions for the majority of the 1979 season and finished with eight to rank fourth nationally and set a Seminole record for interceptions in a season. The Seminoles ranked sixth nationally and fifth nationally during his junior and senior seasons respectively.

Bonasorte spent seven years working with the Elmont Sports Group - a leader in the building and marketing of professional sports teams. He served as the marketing director for two seasons for the Tallahassee Scorpions of indoor professional league. He served as the director of marketing for the East Coast Hockey league Tallahassee Tiger Sharks (1997-99) and served as the Vice-present and General Manager for the Tallahassee Thunder of the Arena1 Football league (1999-2003).

Bonasorte and his wife, Beverly, have two sons, T.J. and Rocky.

Vanessa Fuchs
Senior Associate
Athletic Director/
SWA

Vanessa Fuchs was promoted to the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Woman

Administrator in May of 2012 after serving as the department's associate athletic director for compliance since 2010. She has direct oversight of women's basketball, indoor volleyball and sand volleyball as well as FSU's compliance and student services departments. In addition, Fuchs currently serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator for athletics, is a member of the university's Diversity and Inclusion Council Communication Subcommittee and serves on the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Women's Basketball and Women's Soccer Committees.

Since joining the athletics staff in 2010, Fuchs has focused her time on building a comprehensive rules education program, implementing a department-wide recruiting and compliance software system and establishing new team structure for the compliance office. All of which assisted the department in a successfully fulfilling its NCAA probationary period which concluded in March 2013.

Prior to arriving at Florida State, Fuchs committed seven years to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in Indianapolis, Indiana. In 2007, her extensive knowledge of NCAA legislation, interpretations and the NCAA's governance process earned her a promotion to Associate Director of Academic and Membership Affairs (AMA).

Fuchs remained rooted in AMA throughout her tenure with the NCAA. Fuchs was primarily responsible for supervising the functions of the Legislative Relief Waiver team and contributed heavily to issuing interpretations, serving as a staff liaison to NCAA governance committees and leading project teams for the association.

Before embarking on her career with the NCAA, Fuchs got her start working for the Atlantic Coast Conference as a Championships Intern in 2001. The Pompano Beach, Fla., native was a four-year letter winner for the Seminoles' women's basketball team from 1997-2001. She was the team co-captain in her senior year. Fuchs finished her career as a three-time ACC Honor Roll selection.

Fuchs graduated Magna Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in communications at Florida State University and earned her master's degree from the University of North Carolina in sport administration. Her father, Don, was a pole-vaulter at Florida State and her brother Joseph is also an FSU alumnus.

Matt Behnke
Associate
Athletics Director
Business and
CFO

Matt Behnke was named Associate

Athletic Director for Business and Chief Financial Officer for the Florida State University Department of Athletics in the summer of 2013.

As the Department's chief financial officer, Behnke is responsible for all departmental business and financial matters, including budgetary oversight and financial reporting. He will assist in the departments' strategic planning efforts as well as serve as the financial liaison with all other University constituencies.

In addition, he will oversee the department's human resource and information technology functions.

Behnke has been involved with Seminole athletic finances since 2004 as a member of the Seminole Boosters, Inc., the University's athletic development and fundraising organization. Becoming the Booster Chief Financial Officer in 2009, he oversaw all financial matters and worked with the department's business functions on all consolidated reporting functions. He was responsible for strategic planning, budgetary development and communication, financial reporting, student-athlete endowment investment implementation, and Seminole athletic facility financing. He led the effort to finance the new Albert J. Dunlap Indoor Training Center (opening in August 2013) and the new Student Housing Facility (scheduled to open in August 2014).

A native of Three Oaks, MI, Behnke graduated from Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1998. He began his career at the public accounting firm Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A. in Tallahassee, where he earned his CPA certification from the State of Florida Board of Accountancy.

Behnke currently serves on the FSU Fraud Prevention & Detection Committee as well as numerous Florida Institute of CPA committees.

Behnke married the former Kelly May in July 2007.

2013-14 Florida State Men's Basketball Supporting Staff

Nell Belue
Administrative Assistant to Head Coach Leonard Hamilton

Drew Longnecker
Marketing

Ben Zierden
Assistant Athletic Director/
Ticket Operations

Jennifer Stock
Business Operations

Alex Thomas
Facilities