Against the Top 25
• UCF posted a 4-4 mark against teams ranked in the top 25, including wins against No. 2 Florida, No. 11 Houston (2x) and No. 23 USF (2x)
• After a tough 4-3 loss in Gainesville the night before, UCF posted an 11-2 victory vs. No. 2 Florida in front of a standing-room only crowd of 3, 852
• The Knights opened play in The American against No. 11 Houston and posted a 5-2 win on Friday and 6-1 victory on Sunday
• UCF clinched the No. 1 seed in The American Championship by taking the final two games vs. War on I-4 rival No. 23 South Florida, including the winner-take-all series finale 3-2

#SkinnerStrong
• UCF raised over $32,000 in April during a month-long fundraising effort to battle pediatric cancer
• The total sum benefiting the cancer research arm of Florida Hospital was announced on April 28 on Joe Skinner Knight
• The fight against cancer is extremely personal for the Knights, as this season would have marked the freshman year of local baseball star and friend Joe Skinner

• Skinner signed an NLI with the Knights in Nov. 2015, but was diagnosed with Hypodiploid Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia in Dec. 2015 and passed away on April 30, 2016 awaiting an experimental treatment
• Two freshmen Knights - Dallas Beaver and Rylan Thomas - played with and against Skinner, while growing up in the Orlando area
• Beaver wears number 38 for the Knights, a number he chose to honor Skinner, who wore it while playing for The Elite Squad and Orlando Scorpions

John Euliano Park
• John Euliano has committed a $1.5 million donation toward expansion and renovation of the UCF Baseball Complex, which will occur following the 2017 campaign
• As of Feb. 2016, the fundraising for the project, estimated to cost $3.2 million, has surpassed the $2 million mark
• A home plate tower will be constructed to shade the club seats, concourse and 100-level seating
• A 300-seat club will be a part of the tower with an enclosed/air-conditioned lounge
• The concourse and concessions will be expanded and enhanced
• The press box will also be renovated

GREG LOVELADY

HEAD COACH - FIRST SEASON

In his first season at UCF, Greg Lovelady took a team that finished in last place in the American Athletic Conference in 2016, and won a regular season championhip in 2017. Lovelady was named The American Coach of the Year following the regular season.

Lovelady was named the head baseball coach at UCF on July 11, 2016. He came to Orlando after spending three years as the head coach at Wright State, where he led the Raiders to consecutive runner-up finishes at NCAA Regionals in 2015 and 2016.

As the Raiders' head coach, he has compiled a 124-56 record in three campaigns and was with the Raiders for a total of 12 years. Wright State has won the Horizon League Regular Season or Tournament Championship (or both) in each of Lovelady's three seasons at the helm. He was named the 2014 and 2016 Horizon League Coach of the Year. This past season, Lovelady was also honored as the ABCA/Diamond Mideast Regional Coach of the Year.

In 2015 and 2016, Lovelady's WSU squads reached the championship round at an NCAA Regional. The Raiders won a school-record 46 games this past season, after posting a then-school record 43 wins in 2015.

Lovelady was born in Miami and went on to win two national championships as a player for the hometown Hurricanes. He was the starting catcher on Miami's 1999 and 2001 title squads. He was a team captain on the 2001 championship team and a four-year letterman. Following his playing days, Lovelady began his coaching career with UM from 2002-04. During his time as a player and coach at Miami, Lovelady never missed the postseason and advanced to the super regional round seven times, while earning trips to Omaha and the College World Series five times.

Lovelady spoke with the team Monday night via video conference and later said he is excited joining the Knights.

During the 2016 campaign, Lovelady's Wright State squad led the Horizon League in 14 statistical categories. The Raiders were tops in the league in: hits, walks, runs scored, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, triples, home runs, hit batsmen, sacrifice bunts, sacrifice flies, earned-run average, hits allowed, walks allowed and strikeout-to-walk ratio. Wright State was No. 5 in the nation last season in walks allowed, No. 15 in walks and No. 19 in runs scored.

Prior to becoming head coach at Wright State, he served the Raiders as an assistant or associate head coach from 2005-13. He was the recruiting coordinator, pitching coach and worked with the catchers during that nine-year stretch. The Raiders advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2006, 2009 and 2011.

Lovelady holds a finance degree from Miami, graduating in 2001.

Ryan Klosterman is in his sixth season as a UCF assistant coach and his first season under UCF head coach Greg Lovelady. Klosterman serves as the Knights hiting coach and recruiting coordinator.

During his first four campaigns as an assistant coach at UCF, Klosterman was in charge of the Knights' infielders and team defense. In 2016, his final year under former head coach Terry Rooney, he served as associate head coach adding the roles of recruiting coordinator, and hitting coach to his duties.

The UCF defense turned 59 double plays in 2016, which ranked 16th nationally and fouth in program history. Junior slugger Matt Diorio thrived under Klosterman's guidance and was selected in the 16th round of the MLB Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates. A total of 13 players have been drafted during Klosterman's career at UCF.

Klosterman helped mentor American Athletic Conference First Team members Dylan Moore, Erik Barber and Tommy Williams. The Knights led the nation in a number of offensive categories through the first half of the 2015 season as the program rose to a program-best No. 6 national ranking by Baseball America.

The Knights had a strong defense in 2014 that combined to post a .970 fielding pct. Moore (.990) and James Vasquez led the UCF infield, defensively. Both were named to The American All-Conference Second Team. Moore committed just three errors in 58 games, while tallying 101 putouts and 186 assists.

Vasquez shined defensively under Klosterman's tutelage in 2013 as he held a team-best .987 fielding percentage in 58 starts. Overall, the Knights recorded a .968 fielding percentage and turned 41 double plays.

Infielders D.J. Hicks, Travis Shreve, Darnell Sweeney and Chris Taladay all had strong 2012 campaigns with the help of Klosterman. The Knights registered a .972 fielding percentage, the second-highest mark at UCF since 2001. Working with Hicks during his first full year at first base, Klosterman's guidance saw the All-C-USA First Teamer commit just two errors in 62 games while notching 537 putouts and 31 assists.

Robust 2012 campaigns led both Hicks and Sweeney, members of the Coral Gables All-Regional Team, to professional careers after their junior seasons. Manning shortstop in all but one game that year, Sweeney was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 13th round while Hicks was drafted by Minnesota in the 17th.

Prior to his coaching days in Orlando, Klosterman was picked by the Toronto Blue Jays in the fifth round of the 2004 Major League Baseball Draft. He spent eight years until coming to UCF playing professional baseball, most recently at the Triple-A level for the New Orleans Zephyrs of the Florida Marlins Organization.

Klosterman was a standout infielder at South Lake High School before going on to a successful collegiate career as an infielder at both Clemson and Vanderbilt from 2001-04.

In his junior season with the Commodores, Klosterman was named to the All-SEC First Team as a shortstop, while also being voted as the team's Most Valuable Player and Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to his success on the field, Klosterman was also honored with a spot on the 2004 Verizon Academic All-District IV Second Team and was a member of the Dean/s List and the Student-Athlete Honor Roll.

That same year, Klosterman helped lead the Commodores to the NCAA Super Regional in Austin after batting .346 with 91 hits, 72 runs scored and eight triples. Klosterman's eight triples remain a Vanderbilt single-season record.

Klosterman graduated from Vanderbilt in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in human and organizational development with an emphasis in leadership and organizational effectiveness.

Parker was drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 43rd round of the 2005 MLB June Amateur Draft from Fort Wayne HS (Fort Wayne, IN) but opted to play for Wright State University. He was drafted again, this time by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 6th round of the 2008 MLB June Amateur Draft where he spent three years playing for the Diamondbacks minor league affiliates before returning to his alma mater and taking a staff position with the Raiders.

As a player at Wright State, Parker earned first-team Horizon League selections in 2007 and 2008, as well as second team ABCA All Region in 2007, and was an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America recipient in 2008.
