- The sport changed names from sand to beach volleyball as it is known as the latter at all other levels of play throughout the world.
- Beach Volleyball is the fastest-growing NCAA sport with 67 colleges and universities sponsoring the sport as of January 2016.

AN ELITE PROGRAM

- Since the inception of the program in 2012, Florida State advanced to the AVCA Championships in each of its first five seasons and the first NCAA Championship in 2016.
- The Seminoles finished as the national runner-up in 2014, falling to Pepperdine, 3-2, in the finals. FSU registered a pair of top three finishes at the AVCA Championships in 2012 and 2013.

SEMINOLE BEACH VOLLEYBALL COURTS

Completed in 2011, the Seminole Beach Volleyball courts was one of the first facilities to be built specifically for collegiate beach volleyball. Located north of the Seminole Soccer Complex and JoAnne Graf Field between Mike Long Track and the Spirit Way Parking Garage, the facility is wrapped in Florida State University graphics and logos highlighting the enormous success of the FSU Beach Volleyball team during the sport's first five years. The Seminole Beach Volleyball Courts remain one of the premier facilities in the nation.

There are three entrances where patrons can enter the facility with seating for approximately 150 people on the bleachers at sand level. The multi-level parking garage adjacent to the courts can also be used for spectator viewing. Spectators are encouraged to bring their own lawn chairs to the event as well. The courts are also equipped with permanent lighting to allow matches to be played at night.

The Seminole Beach Volleyball Courts were built using two types of sand. The lower level of sand is more powdery to allow precipitation to filter through to the drainage system. The upper level of sand is more dense allowing student-athletes a competitive playing surface each time out.

- The team lounge provides ample space to hold team meetings, watch film or to give the beach volleyball student-athletes a quiet place to study. The lounge is equipped with a 64 inch HD-television screen, couches and chairs for plenty of comfort.
- A satellite workout facility is located just outside the beach volleyball office in Tully Gym featuring state-of-the-art equipment. The Tully Gym weight room is a clean and spacious 4,500 square foot facility equipped with mondo-rubber flooring, 10 squat racks, and houses 10 platforms for Olympic lifting. With an iPad on every rack and a change of facility design, Florida State continues to improve each of its strength and conditioning facilities.

THE CCSA

The FSU Beach Volleyball program joined the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) as a charter member prior to the spring 2016 season.

CCSA Beach Volleyball began play in the spring of 2016 with eight founding members: University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), Florida Atlantic University, Florida International University, Florida State University, Georgia State University, Louisiana State University (LSU), the University of South Carolina and Tulane University. The CCSA announced the addition of College of Charleston and UNC Wilmington to the sport of beach volleyball, expanding the conference to 10 members for the spring 2017 championship.

The CCSA, which was formerly known as the Coastal Collegiate Swimming Association at the Division I level, rebranded to include beach volleyball for the upcoming season.

Beach Volleyball became the 90th championship sponsored by the NCAA in 2015-16 after being officially recognized as an NCAA sport for 2011-12. The first NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Alabama, was hosted by CCSA member UAB. The creation of CCSA Beach Volleyball provides student-athletes the opportunity to compete for conference honors and championships. The NCAA does not currently offer automatic qualification (AQ) into the beach volleyball championship for conference winners (a two-year championship history is required), but the CCSA will be in position to qualify for an AQ should they be offered in 2018.

The CCSA formed in 2007 as a partnership among swimming and diving programs in the Atlantic Sun Conference, Big South Conference, Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and Southern Conference to provide championship opportunities for men's and women's swimming and diving student-athletes. Conference growth in swimming and diving now shows 15 institutions with competitors from eight separate Division I multisport conferences. With the addition of beach volleyball, the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association now has 22 member institutions with participants from 11 different NCAA Division I multisport conferences.

Florida State University athletics announced the hiring of U.S. beach volleyball professional Brooke Niles as the Seminoles beach volleyball head coach on June 16, 2015. Niles, a California native who earned All-America honors as a player, has coached at the collegiate, junior college, club and high school levels working with both indoor and sand volleyball teams.

In 2016, Niles led the Seminoles to unprecedented heights during the program's first season as an official NCAA Unpremiered sport. Her first year in Tallahassee was highlighted by a series of program firsts, including a school-record for dual-match victories (32), a conference championship, the top-seed in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship and a national runner-up finish.

Florida State hit the ground running under Niles, winning its first 14 matches, all on the road, with eight of those victories coming against ranked foes including five ranked in the top 10. One of those wins came against then-No. 2 Southern California in Los Angeles as the Seminoles snapped the Women of Troy's 19-match home win streak. FSU went on to earn the No. 1 overall seed at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship after claiming the 2016 Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) Conference title.

The Seminoles finished the 2016 campaign as the national runner-up at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala. after posting a 3-2 record at the tournament. FSU went on to set the single-season school record for victories in a season with 32 and ranked in the Top 5 of the AVCA national poll all year. Along with their 14-match win streak, the Seminoles also put together a school-record 17-match win streak which saw Florida State outscore the opposition 71-10. At season's end, Florida State registered 19 victories over ranked schools, while posting an 11-3 mark against teams ranked in the Top 10.

Under Niles, Florida State garnered two AVCA All-Americans, four CCSA All-Conference selections, a league-best three student-athletes named to the CCSA All-Academic team, the CCSA Pair of the Year and 10 Seminoles who earned a spot on the CCSA Academic Honor Roll.

Niles was recognized for her outstanding effort in her first season at the helm of the Seminole beach volleyball program as she was named National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

Niles, who earned a law and society degree from UC Santa Barbara in 2003, was a third-team All-American while playing for the Gauchos where she also was a three-time All-Big West selection and named conference freshman of the year. Following her playing career at UCSB, Niles spent three years as an assistant indoor coach at her alma mater before beginning a successful professional beach volleyball career in 2007 that saw her win numerous pro tournaments along with being named the AVP Beach Defensive Player of the Year in 2009.

While climbing to a Top 5 ranking in the National Volleyball Beach League and spending 2010-13 as a member of the USA Beach National Team, Niles was a first alternate for the USA 2012 London Olympic Beach National team.

The Woodland Hills native returned to coaching in 2010 at Oxnard Junior College with the indoor team. In 2012 she began coaching professional beach volleyball teams competing on the FIVB World Tour from the United States, Costa Rica and the Netherlands. Most recently Niles coached at Mira Costa High School in California and she was the director, founder and head coach of The Beach Team Club in Hermosa, CA.

"I'm very excited that Brooke joined our volleyball family," said FSU Volleyball Head Coach Chris Poole. "She played beach volleyball and indoor volleyball at the highest level. She has also coached indoor volleyball at a Top 10 level in the NCAA Division I and she has coached and trained with some of the best beach players in the world. The references we got from National Team level players/coaches and Gold Medalist were outstanding. She had a very impressive resume and made an impact on everyone during her visit."

"Brooke will lead the squad in a fantastic way and help the ladies grow and learn in so many ways," said Kerri Walsh a three-time Olympic gold medalist in beach volleyball. "Her competitiveness is truly an asset as it leads her to work hard and push for excellence. She practices what she preaches and this to me is what coaching/teaching is all about."

Niles is married to Nick Lucena, a Florida State graduate and professional beach volleyball player on the AVP Tour. They have one child, Gunnar.

Raul Papaleo joined the Florida State beach volleyball program as assistant coach in December 2016.

Papaleo, 2014 beach volleyball Olympian and a standout indoor collegiate and professional beach volleyball player, began his coaching career in 1999-2001, where he served as the head men's coach at American University in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. He piloted American University to a runner-up finish in the Puerto Rican National Championship match.

The last six years of Papaleo's coaching career have come at the high school and club level in California, where he made his first stop at the Tstreet Volleyball Club in Irvine, Calif. He coached the 13U and 16U programs to a pair of top 10 rankings in the Southern California Volleyball Association (SCVA) in 2011 and 2012. From there he led the 16U team to the No. 1 ranking in the SVCA, winning two silver medals at the Junior National Qualifiers and a seventh place finish in the National Open Division in 2013-14.

While serving as the head coach for the Tstreet Volleyball Club he was also an assistant coach for Corona del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif. In 2012, with Papaleo's assistance, Corona del Mar finished 28-7 and ranked 20th nationally.

In August 2013, Papaleo assumed the role as both the indoor and beach volleyball coach at Laguna Beach High School. Coaching one of the top programs in Orange County, he led the indoor team to three league titles and a 30-0 record from 2013-16. In 2015-16 the indoor team was a runner-up in the California Interscholastic Federation playoffs.

Papaleo helped start the Laguna Beach High School beach volleyball program in 2014, guiding the team to a conference championship in its first season. He followed that by guiding the beach team to a second place finish in the Southern California Region and 10th-place finish in the region according to Interscholastic Beach Volleyball League.

His most recent stints on the club circuit came in 2014-15 with the A4 Volleyball Club in Foothill Ranch and 2015-16 with the Laguna Beach Volleyball Club. His A4 13U team reached the gold medal match of the LA Junior National Qualifier with an undefeated 10-0 record, earning a national tournament bid, while the 15U unit earned a silver at the Chicago Junior National Qualifier and a national tournament invitation.

Papaleo served as the head coach for the Laguna Beach Volleyball Club 13U and 18U teams. He led the 13U team to a third-place showing in the SCVA as they qualified for the Junior National Tournament (Open Division). Meanwhile, his 18U squad captured a silver medal at the Junior Nationals (Open Division) and placed first in the SCVA.

Papaleo, a native of Caguas, Puerto Rico, competed in indoor volleyball for Indiana University-Purdue University at Fort Wayne (IPFW) while earning his degree in supervision. His IPFW team made back-to-back appearances in the Final Four (1991, 1992) as it captured the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association (MIVA) title in 1992. Papaleo was an integral part of the success at IPFW as he was named NCAA All-American (1992, 1993), 1992 MIVA Player of the Year, the school's 1993 Athlete of the Year and now has a spot in the IPFW Hall of Fame.

In 1995, following the closure of his collegiate indoor career Papaleo earned his first win on the Association of Volleyball Professionals (AVP) Tour event in Denver, Colo., alongside partner Greg Ryan on the beach circuit. He followed that by playing in the pre-qualifier for his native Puerto Rico and was named as the AVP Rookie of the Year in 1996.

During a four-year stint on the AVP Tour, 1995-98, Papaleo finished among the top 10 on 14 occasions. That included four fifth-place outings, four seventh-place finishes and six ninth-place outings. Papaleo then returned to the Puerto Rico National Tour where he spent the next 10 years of his career (1999-2009). While in his native land Papaleo established the national record for tournament victories (25+) and was a five-time national champion.

Among the standout beach volleyball accomplishments in his career include a gold medal at the Central American & Caribbean Games (2002), ninth-place finish at the 2003 World Championships in Rio de Janeiro (2003), two NORCECA gold medals (2003, 2008) and one NORCECA silver medal (2006).

Papaleo and his teammate Ramon Hernandez brought home the bronze medal at the 2003 Pan-American Games when the combo downed the United States tandem of David Fischer and Brad Torson. Papaleo and Hernandez went onto represent Puerto Rico in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens marking the first time in the country's history that it was represented by a beach volleyball team at an Olympic competition.

Shawn Matthews joins the Florida State Beach Volleyball coaching staff as a volunteer assistant for the 2017 season.

Matthews comes to Tallahassee from UAB, where he was an assistant coach for both the indoor and beach volleyball teams.

In Matthew's first two years at UAB, he helped the Blazers' indoor volleyball team finish 20-14 and 21-14 overall, in the top of Conference USA, and was instrumental in the development of AVCA All-American Sam Serley and CUSA Freshman of the Year Sam Skinner.

Matthews was also the recruiting coordinator as he helped build the beach program at UAB, which competes as a member of the CCSA along with FAU, FIU, Florida State, Georgia State, LSU, South Carolina, Tulane, Charleston and UNC-Wilmington

Among his successes includes signing UAB's first beach-only class, along with leading Kiriana Hirini and Bethanie Thomas to three straight appearances in the AVCA National Tournament. He also helped Hirini earn American Volleyball Scouting Report (AVSR) Global Player of the Week honors twice.

Prior to joining UAB, Matthews spent five years (2007-12) as the head junior varsity and assistant varsity coach at Spain Park High School in Hoover, Ala. During his time with the Jaguars, his primary duties included attack, block, and setter training, helped the program reach the 2008 sub-state playoffs and he secured a 25 match winning record.

Matthews was also active with the Birmingham Volleyball Club as a coach for girls ages 9-18 who competed on the local, regional, and national level, which includes leading the 14U team to a second place finish in the SRVA and a Junior National Tournament bid.

Matthews began his coaching career in Odessa, Texas at the local youth league, private school/club levels, and it culminated with a position as the volunteer assistant at the University of Texas-Permian Basin in 1999.

Under the mentorship of Steve Aicinena, Matthews was given both team offensive/defensive responsibilities, including serving, attacking, and blocking, as well as statistical reporting duties. During that same year the UTPB Lady Falcons earned a 23-12 season record and achieved its first ever Red River Athletic Conference championship in the program's school history of NAIA division competition.

In 2001, while attending Abilene Christian University, Texas, Matthews began his official competitive volleyball career playing for Dyess Air Force Base as a middle blocker.

He has won and participated in both indoor/outdoor competitions all over the U.S. from New York to California and overseas including Italy, France, and England, and most recently has been a 2012 adult national indoors team finalist.

Shawn credits his passion for coaching to his 10 years of working/volunteering in non-profit organization, specializing in youth development through the Boys & Girls Clubs of America and various YMCAs. When he's not coaching or working a volleyball camp he enjoys playing tennis.

A native of Odessa, Texas, Matthews earned his B.B.A in Financial Management from ACU in 2004.

2017 Season Preview

After winning the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) Conference Championship and capturing the national runner-up trophy at inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship, expectations remain high for the Florida State beach volleyball team.

The Seminoles return 11 letterwinners from a squad that finished 32-3 in 2016 under first-year head coach Brooke Niles, who was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Coach of the Year.

The Seminoles open the season with the Garnet and Gold exhibition match on Feb. 25 before traveling to Deland, Fla., for the Stetson Spring Break Invitational on March 4-5 – the start of an intense two-month competition schedule that culminates with the second NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala., from May 5-7.

“We are looking forward to the season as a whole,” Niles said. “We have been training hard and have been putting a lot of work in. It is 10 short weeks and we have to be good every week.”

The season will take the Seminoles to California for the East Meets West Invitational (March 11-12) where they will face several teams, including beach powers Long Beach State and Pepperdine and to Hawaii for the Outrigger Hawaii Invitational at Queens Beach (March 16) where they will face the Rainbow Wahine as well as defending national champions, Southern California. After weekends in South Carolina (Gamecock Grand Slam, March 25-26) and Miami (Surf and Turf Invitational, March 31 - April 1, Florida State will host back-to-back events. FSU will welcome TCU, South Carolina and Florida Atlantic to Tallahassee for the Staybridge Suites Invitational on April 7-8 before facing Pepperdine and FIU at the FSU Beach Volleyball Courts on April 14-15.

The Noles will look to defend their CCSA Championship in Clarksville, Ga., from April 21-23 before preparing for the NCAA Championship.

FSU loses 10 participants from its national runner-up team, including All-Americans Jace Pardon and Julie Brown. FSU returns several starters, veteran contributors and, most importantly, Niles. The rookie coach led FSU to a 24-1 mark in the regular season before securing the school’s first-ever conference championship and sending the Noles back to the national championship finals following a disappointing seventh-place finish in 2015.

“We lost a lot, losing seven seniors,” said Niles. “We lost a lot of leadership, but we also return some starters that contributed a lot to our team. Our expectations are that we want to be the best team in the East and compete for that National Championship spot. They are ready to play. Everyone is ready to play left side or right side or with anyone else on the team so I think we just have to see how it goes.”

Juniors Victoria Paranagua, a 2016 CCSA First Team selection, and Vanessa Freire, CCSA All-Tournament Team member, and senior Sierra Sanchez (27-5 in 2016) are expected to lead the way along with Co-CCSA Freshman of the Year Nikki Esposito (19-8), redshirt junior Hailey Luke (17-7) and sophomore Macy Jerger (13-5).

Paranagua and Freire both led the Noles with 29 wins in 2016, while Sanchez enters the 2017 season ranking No. 10 in school history with 59 career victories.

Sophomore Brooke Kuhlman looks to have a significant impact this year after only playing in eight matches a year ago and ending with a 7-1 record. Along with Kuhlman, the Seminoles look to get significant help from sophomore Ali Eager (4-2), and redshirt sophomore Breana Edwards (2-2).

Senior Julia Thompson (18-9 career record) and redshirt junior Katie Horton (12-2), who made an appearance in the NCAA Championship last season, will also be counted on to lead as veteran contributors.

The Seminoles also return redshirt sophomore Breana Edwards (2-2), sophomore Ali Eager (4-2) and redshirt freshmen Eva Tourella and Devin Hultquist. The mix of veteran experience and talented underclassmen will give Niles plenty of options for lineups on the five courts leading up to the postseason.

“We have a lot of depth on our team this year,” Niles said. “I can’t say that we are going to stick with the same lineup all year.”

Florida State adds several talented newcomers, too, including former North Carolina indoor star, Leigh Andrews, and current Florida State indoor volleyball player and freshman Bozena Culo.

The Garnet and Gold also brought in one of the best freshmen classes in the country with newcomers Danielle Pennington, Molly McBain and Francesa Goncalves.

“We actually have a lot of top level freshmen that are challenging for starting spots,” Niles said, “Molly McBain from Canada is just a smooth good all-around volleyball player. Francesa Goncalves is really experienced and strong and she is the most fit person on our team. We expect big things out of her. Our main thing is as a group we want to get better every time we are out on the sand and prepare us for the conference and NCAA Championships.”
