QUALITY LEADERSHIP

When head coach Dwayne Hultquist took over Florida State's men's tennis program in 2000, the Seminoles were seventh out of nine teams in the ACC and barely ranked in the top 60 nationally. Under his leadership, Hultquist morphed the Seminoles into a winning sensation, coaching the team to the No. 7 ranking in the country in 2008, the highest in program history. Hultquist's coaching expertise led the men's tennis team to be recognized as a top contender in the conference and across the nation revamping the perception of the program. As the winningest coach in program history, Hultquist has brought Florida State men's tennis a sense of confidence and success that had not been seen before.

PRESTIGIOUS PROGRAM

Florida State is known for developing elite talent and their reputation was further sustained when the men's tennis team was invited to compete in the NCAA Tournament for their ninth consecutive season. This would not have been possible without assistance from The Seminoles' superb athletes such as five-star blue chip recruit Blake Davis and five-star recruits Andres Bucaro, Anderson Reed, Brian Alden and Dominic Cotrone. In 2005, the team reached the Final Eight after impressive upsets over Kentucky and Illinois en route to the quarterfinals.

NATIONAL ACCOLADES

With having such a successful program over the past 10 years, it is not a surprise that there would be some exceptional athletes playing for the Seminoles. This past season, the Seminoles added two more All-Americans in Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith when they reached the round of 16 in the Doubles NCAA Championships. Prior to that, the 2009 ACC Player of the Year, Jean-Yves Aubone, was named an All-American in singles in both 2008 and 2009. Mat Cloer, a two-time ACC Player of the Year, was named the first All-American singles athlete in program history in 2005. The only other All-Americans are Ken McKenzie and Brian Stanton who earned the honor in doubles in 1995.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

A key part to maintaining Florida State's reputation as an elite collegiate team is having ambitious athletes that continue to ace the competition on and off the court. Florida State was recognized as only one of six schools to have multiple athletes named to the 2011 All-ACC Academic Team. Vahid Mirzadeh also became the second athlete in school history to be honored with the prestigious national ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsman Award (with Mat Cloer the first winner in 2005). In 2010, Jean-Yves Aubone was named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year while FSU men's tennis has placed 34 student-athletes on the ACC Honor Roll since 2005.

SCOTT SPEICHER TENNIS CENTER

With the first stage of the construction completed in the summer of 1993, the Scott Speicher Tennis Center at the Donald Loucks Courts opened its gates to the public for the first time at a Children's Miracle Network charity tournament. Since then, many successful tournaments including the 1996 NCAA Women's Championships and 2007 and 2008 NCAA Regionals have graced the courts at one of Florida State University's premier athletic facilities.

The Scott Speicher Tennis Center houses 12 lighted hard courts, over 1,000 court level seats, coaching offices, men's and women's locker rooms, equipment and storage rooms, two team lounges and a public address system. The growing pride Florida State has for its tennis program was honored just after its opening in 1994, when the United States Tennis Association (USTA) awarded the structure with its "Top Notch" facility award.

The Scott Speicher Tennis Center was named in honor of Lieutenant Commander Michael Scott Speicher, a graduate of Florida State University. Speicher was considered the first American casualty during Operation Desert Storm, but was later reclassified by the United States government as missing in action in 2001 and missing or captured a year later. However, in 2009 Speicher's remains were found in the Anbar province of Iraq after a nearly 20-year search. The Scott Speicher family was later honored by Florida State at a home football game with a missing man formation flyover from the Navy. By Presidential directive, the facility bears the name the "Scott Speicher Tennis Center."

The varsity tennis courts were named for Donald Loucks in 1981. He served as Dean of men from 1957-1967 and was known as a servant of leadership, service and devotion to many worthy causes. In 1947, Loucks became Florida State's first men's basketball coach and a year later was named the school's first tennis coach. His tennis team was the first athletic team.

Scott Speicher Tennis Center was designed by EMO/Architects, Inc., a Tallahassee-based architectural firm, in collaboration with Global Consult Group, Inc., an internationally recognized Tennis Facility Design Consultant.

Did you know...

- ...Florida State has not had a losing record at home since Scott Speicher opened in 1993
- ...The Noles are 168-65 all-time at Speicher since 1994, a 72% winning percentage
- ... Florida State has never had a losing season at home under Dwayne Hultquist
- ...Florida State holds a 108-47 record at Scott Speicher Tennis Center since 2000 with a 70% winning percentage
-The team is 50-16 at home since 2007, good for a 76% winning percentage

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

After breaking ground on construction in January of 2010, the men's team was able to practice in their new indoor practice facility 15 months later on April 7, 2011. With only the first stage done, the school looks to add seating and a press box to the ONLY indoor facility in the state of Florida and only one of a few in the southeast.

The new multimillion dollar facility is located adjacent to the Morcom Aquatics Facility and the Don Veller Seminole Golf Course and Club at 2566 Pottsdamer Road.

SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2011-12 Florida State men's tennis team looks to make the NCAA tournament for the 10th straight year. The Seminoles are ranked No. 44 and start this season three spots ahead of where they finished in last season's final rankings. FSU may have lost one of their best players from last season, but this year the Seminoles bring in several new faces to help them battle for a National Championship.

The Florida State schedule is not going to make anything easy for them this season. Florida State is scheduled to play four teams ranked in the top 10, four players ranked in the singles top 10, and 6 groups ranked in the doubles top 25. FSU will host 15 matches in Tallahassee including No. 10 Duke, No. 15 Georgia Tech, No. 18 Oklahoma, and No. 20 North Carolina. Their road schedule is even tougher. FSU will have to travel and face No. 2 Virginia, No. 5 Baylor, No. 8 Florida, and No. 19 Texas. Florida State has a tough task ahead of them, but hopefully they will be able to gain enough experience and confidence to help them go deep into the ACC and NCAA tournaments.

Florida State returns four players from last year's roster including Andres Bucaro, Blake Davis, Jordan Kelly-Houston and Anderson Reed. Andres Bucaro led the team with a 10-4 singles record this fall, as Anderson Reed was second on the team with a 9-4 singles record. Jordan Kelly-Houston had a 7-3 singles record this fall and reached the quarterfinals of the ITA Southeast Regionals where he defeated No. 104 Wael Kilani of USF in the round of 16 after losing to him earlier in the year. Florida State also brings in six new players this season and is going to need them to play a big role if they want to achieve their goals. The new players are Brian Alden, Dominic Cotrone, João Gauer, Cristian Gonzalez Mendez, Benjamin Lock and Jason Zafiros. Brian Alden and Jason Zafiros are transfers from Illinois and Arizona, respectfully. Alden had a 7-4 singles record this fall which was fourth on the team. Dominic Cotrone paired up with Anderson Reed and had a 7-2 doubles record in his first fall season. Cotrone was ranked first in Florida and is the 2010 FHSAA division 1A State singles champion. Cristian Gonzalez Mendez earned his first collegiate ranked win against No. 67 Clarke Spinosa of San Diego 5-7, 6-4, 10-8 in his first fall season. João Gauer makes his mark on the team by entering college with an ATP point. Benjamin Lock competed in the 2011 Davis Cup representing Zimbabwe where he posted a 4-1 record.

Head Coach Dwayne Hultquist returns for his 13th season as Florida State's head men's tennis coach. The Seminoles are very young this season only having one senior on the roster and three juniors. The schedule isn't going to be easy, but the season should bring plenty of excitement.

HEAD COACH DWAYNE HULTQUIST

13TH SEASON - PENN STATE '86
STATE COLLEGE, PA.

In his 13th season at the helm at Florida State, Dwayne Hultquist has put himself atop the Florida State record books and the Seminoles in the national spotlight.

Under Hultquist's leadership, Florida State men's tennis has emerged as one of the top programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the country. When Hultquist took over the Florida State program in 1999, the Seminoles were struggling to compete in the state of Florida, let alone at the Atlantic Coast Conference or national level. But in 12 seasons under Hultquist, FSU has had three ACC Player of the Year recipients, five All-American honors and two national ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award winners.

In 2011, the squad reached the NCAA tournament for the ninth consecutive season. Vahid Mirzadeh headlined the season as he and Connor Smith were named All-Americans in doubles play, Hultquist's fourth and fifth athletes to earn that honor. Mirzadeh made a huge impact off the courts as well as he was named the winner of the ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, showcasing his playing abilities, leadership, community service, academic achievements and sportsmanship. Mirzadeh was the lone Seminole to be named to the All-ACC Team.

The 2010 season had the team making the NCAA tournament for the eighth year in a row where they reached the second round of play. Awards started coming in the fall as Clint Bowles was the Wilson/ITA Southeast Regional Singles Champion. Later in the year, Jean-Yves Aubone was named the ITA Senior Player of the Year and was also named to the All-ACC team along with Vahid Mirzadeh. The Seminoles stormed the classrooms that year with seven members of the team being named to the ACC honor roll. Aubone capped the year by being named as the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the first time in school history Florida State made back-to-back trips to the NCAA Round of 16 in 2008 and 2009. 2009 also marked the first time that the Seminoles finished the season ranked inside the top 15 in consecutive seasons (No. 13). Once again Hultquist helped direct his players to career seasons with Maciek Sykut becoming the winningest player in Florida State tennis history in both singles and overall victories. Aubone also became the first player in school history to become a two-time All-American. Hultquist also earned his own accolades in 2009 becoming the winningest coach in Florida State tennis history (159), surpassing his predecessor David Barron (141). With 21 victories in 2009, Hultquist exceeded 20 wins in one season for the third time in his career and the second season in a row.

The 2008 season was a year of records for Florida State culminating in a trip to the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles achieved their highest ranking in program history at No. 7 and individually saw Aubone earn the highest singles' ranking in the school's history. FSU's 21 victories marked the second time Hultquist has led his squad to a 20-win season during his tenure.

with a 10-13 record. Individual honors were also bountiful in 2004 with Mat Cloer claiming his second ACC Player of the Year honor, only the third time in league history that the award had gone to the same player in back-to-back years. Then-freshman Jonathas Sucupira was named to the All-ACC team, a first by an FSU rookie since 1992.

Florida State had a break-out year during Hultquist's fourth season as the 2003 squad returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and ended the year with a 15-10 mark. The Seminoles produced their best finish in the ACC standings, taking second, while winning the ACC Indoor Doubles Championship for the second year in a row. Individual accolades rolled in as Hultquist's former aide, Ty Braswell, was named ITA Assistant Coach of the Year. Mat Cloer became the first Seminole to earn ACC Player of the Year honors.

Hultquist arrived at Florida State after serving eight years as an assistant coach at the University of Texas. He was responsible for scheduling, fundraising, individualized coaching and many of the day-to-day operations of the program. At Texas, Hultquist coached nine All-Americans, helped lead the Longhorns to six conference titles and made it to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in each of his eight years.

Hultquist began his tennis career at Penn State where he was a four-year letterman and team captain in 1986. During that same year, he was an NCAA Tournament qualifier in doubles, and earned all-conference honors in both singles and doubles. After graduating from Penn State, Hultquist turned pro, playing in the United States, Israel and Asia. During his career, Hultquist was selected to play on national teams that traveled to Korea and China for competition.

In 1991, Hultquist began his collegiate coaching career when he accepted a graduate assistant position at the University of Kentucky, where he was responsible for recruiting and co-directing the National Collegiate Indoor Team Championships.

Hultquist is married to the former Angela White. The couple has four daughters, Devan (14), Avery (11), Addison (8) and Mackenzie (5) and one son Blake (2).

Under the direction of Hultquist, Florida State players rose to new heights in 2008 with Aubone earning singles All-American honors. Aubone and Clint Bowles also broke the school record for doubles victories in a single season (28).

In 2007 Hultquist led Florida State to a 17-10 record and the Seminoles received their highest ranking at No. 10 during the season. FSU also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time in school history.

Hultquist hit the ground running in the fall of 2005 and led his troop to an impressive fall campaign. For the Seminoles' efforts, Florida State not only earned the school's first invitation to the 2006 USTA/ITA National Men's Team Indoor Championship, but also garnered a respectable preseason ranking of No. 11 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

Undoubtedly, year six in the Hultquist era was the best season in school history. For starters, the Seminoles not only made their third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, but FSU reached the 2005 NCAA Elite Eight for the first time ever. Florida State also finished with its then highest-ever national ranking at No. 13 and stamped its first 20-plus win season since 1985. Hultquist led his squad to an impressive 21-8 mark and a second-place finish in the ACC. Under Hultquist's tutelage in 2005, Mat Cloer became the school's first singles' All-American and won the program's first national honor with the ITA Arthur Ashe Award.

In Hultquist's fifth season, FSU reached heights it hadn't seen since the mid 1990's. Florida State's second trip to the NCAA Tournament was their first back-to-back appearances since the 1997-98 campaigns and they ended the 2004 year ranked for the 11th season in a row

ASSOCIATE COACH NICK CROWELL

9TH SEASON - TEXAS '00 AMARILLO, TEXAS

In his ninth year on staff at Florida State, assistant coach Nick Crowell continues to prove that he is one of the elite assistants in the country. While earning All-American honors in doubles play as a collegiate for the Longhorns, Crowell played for FSU head coach, Dwayne Hultquist who was an assistant coach at the time. Since Crowell's arrival, Florida State has reached the NCAA Championships every season and shattered numerous team records.

This past season he helped coach Florida State's second doubles tandem to All-American status in Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith.

Over the last three summers Crowell has coached the Florida USTA Junior Under 18 team and in 2010 his team won the National Team Championship at the University of Illinois. This marked the first time since 1983 that the Florida team has won this prestigious tournament. His team's performance over the #1 and #3 ranked teams was described as one of the greatest upsets in 25 years. His coaching ability made good players great and for his efforts he was named the USTA Florida Junior Coach of the Year.

A doubles specialist in college, Crowell helped mold several new Seminole duos in 2009. In a matter of months Crowell helped turn Jean-Yves Aubone and Vahid Mirzadeh into a top 20 ranked team who upset the No. 1-ranked duo in the country from Wake Forest. The pair earned a trip to the NCAA Doubles Championships in College Station, Texas. Crowell also helped guide Drew Bailey and Maciek Sykut to 23 victories in 2008-09 including an upset win against the fourth-ranked team from Virginia.

In 2008 he took the duo of Jean-Yves Aubone and Clint Bowles, who had never played together, and turned them into Florida State's all-time record holders for double's victories in a single season (28). After another successful campaign in 2008, Crowell was elevated to the associate coach position at FSU.

In May 2006, Crowell was named the ITA Mideast Region Men's Tennis Assistant Coach of the Year and he became a finalist for the national award following Florida State's 18 win season which tied the second-most number of program victories in the last 16 seasons. FSU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship and made the school's first four-peat appearance in the Big Dance since its run of five consecutive trips from 1994-98.

In 2005, Hultquist and Crowell led the Seminoles to a Cinderella-run that included a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time in school history. Florida State also finished with its highest-ever national ranking at No. 13.

In his first year with the Seminoles during the 2004 season, FSU reached heights it hadn't seen since the mid 1990's. FSU's second trip to the national summit was their first back-to-back appearance since the 1997-98 campaigns and they ended the 2004 year ranked for the 11th season in a row with a 10-13 record.

In addition to his coaching duties, Crowell runs the Seminole High Performance tennis camps which help mold players into champions.

Since graduating from Texas in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in sport management, Crowell has been playing professionally on the Challenger and FUTURES tours. He reached the semifinals in doubles play at the Seascapes Challenger (Aptos, Calif.) and the Challenger of Dallas. Unfortunately, an injury cut his career short and he became a teaching pro at Holly Tree Country Club in Tyler, Texas.

Crowell established himself as one of the top doubles players in the country while playing at Texas. During his freshman season, he teamed up with Paul Martin to advance to the quarterfinals of the doubles draw at the NCAA Tournament, earning him his first All-American honor. That season he also earned the Big 12 Conference and ITA Region VI Freshman of the Year awards. Starting his sophomore year, he earned all-conference honors his last three seasons in singles and doubles.

Finishing his career just as he started it, Crowell captured his second All-American honor during his senior season as he and playing partner Michael Blue advanced to the round of 16 at the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Amarillo, Texas, Crowell is married to the former Lindsey Smith of Tallahassee and has a daughter Brooklyn (2) and son Cash (born in November of 2011).

Career Accomplishments

- 2010 USTA Florida Junior Coach of the Year
- 2006 ITA Mideast Region Assistant Coach of the Year
- Helped lead FSU to the NCAA tournament every year since 2004
- Assisted team to the first ever Elite Eight in 2005
- Two-Time All-American at Texas
- Career high 385 in doubles in ATP

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH ANDY GERST

1ST SEASON - CAL POLY '10
REDONDO BEACH, CALIF.

Andy Gerst is in his first year with Florida State men's tennis. Along with his responsibilities with the team, he will also be the Camp Coordinator for Seminole High Performance Tennis Camps working with associate coach Nick Crowell.

Gerst comes to Florida State after spending the past two years on the ATP Tour and looks to use that experience with the team. For the 2009-10 season, he was the assistant coach for Cal Poly's women's tennis team where they took the doubles team of Brittany Blalock and Suzie Matzenauer to the NCAA Doubles Tournament. He helped recruit the 2011 team which was ranked No. 38 in the nation.

The Redondo Beach, Calif., played two years at Washington, where the team reached a ranking of No.10, before finishing his career at Cal Poly where he played No. 1 and No. 2 singles and No. 1 doubles. At Cal Poly he was an All-Big West singles and doubles selections both season and All-Big West first team in singles in 2008. In Southern California, he was a Two-Time State Champion in high school.

Career Accomplishments

- Former Touring Pro
- Played No. 1 at Cal Poly where he was a two-year captain

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

ALL-AMERICANS MIRZADEH AND SMITH

The doubles team of Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith earned All-American honors after a 6-4, 3-6, 6-1 win in the round of 16 of the Doubles NCAA Championships over last year's National Champions. After defeating Virginia's Drew Courtney and Michael Shabaz, they became the first Seminoles to earn All-American status since 2009. The duo is the first doubles team to earn the honor since 1995.

MIGHTY MIRZADEH

Senior Vahid Mirzadeh led the team with a 22-11 singles record to mark his second straight season on the 20 win season list. Mirzadeh was stellar in the ACC where he boasted a 9-3 record with his only losses coming to players in the top 16. He has spent the season ranked by the ITA where he started the season at No. 42 and has reached as high as No. 21.

MIRZADEH AND SMITH DOUBLE THE FUN

The duo of Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith has been tearing up court one of doubles play this season. The pair finished with a 21-10 record which included an 8-4 ACC record. The duo was ranked as high as No. 12 and finished the season at No. 14. They won eight matches against top 45 teams.

KELLY-HOUSTON IN THE ACC

Jordan Kelly-Houston was second on the team this season in ACC wins. The sophomore was 8-4 in singles and 6-3 in doubles play. Kelly-Houston won his first ranked match of his collegiate career in the last weekend of regular play. He defeated No. 90 Joey Burkhardt of UNC 6-4, 7-6 (7). In doubles play, he and Blake Davis were 2-0 against ranked opponents.

HOW MANY TOP 10 TEAMS DID YOU PLAY?

This season Florida State played their toughest schedule ever, of the 24 opponents they faced, 22 were ranked by the ITA at one point this season. During that time, Florida State faced a top 10 team seven times. Five of those matches came against non-conference opponents. Although the team has 14 losses this season, the worst loss came to a team that finished No. 46 in the nation.

DOUBLE STANDARDS

The past two seasons, Florida State has been solid in doubles play. Last year, the team was 14-10 in all matches and 8-5 in ACC play when it came to earning the doubles point. Like last year, the team is currently 13-9 in doubles play and 7-5 in ACC play. This year, the team has swept doubles seven times.

PAUL HAARHUIS
Paul Haarhuis, the “Dutchman” from Eindhoven, The Netherlands, came to FSU in 1986 after transferring from Armstrong State College in Savannah, Ga. He went on to become one of the best tennis players ever to come out of FSU and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993. With the Seminoles, his first season was a true success as he went 35-5 in singles competition and 25-5 in doubles. Included in his long list of accolades was the first-ever Men’s Intercollegiate Invitational Tennis Championships held in Panama City.

At one point, Haarhuis had 24 consecutive wins. He was given this honor by way of winning the number one singles and doubles crowns, including an invitation to the NCAA Championships for doubles. Once his collegiate career was finished Haarhuis had a 72-9 overall singles record for his two years and consecutive Metro Conference MVP awards, including 1984 when he helped lead the Seminoles to their third team title in four years.

As successful as Haarhuis was for FSU, his career flourished even more once he turned professional in 1989. Through the 2003 season, Haarhuis had career earnings totaling over $7.7 million dollars. During his 14-year run on the ATP tour, Haarhuis amassed 54 doubles titles including six Grand Slam championships. He won the career Grand Slam with three French Open titles and one championships at Wimbledon, the US Open and Australian Open. He won his lone singles title in 1995 during an event in Jakarta.

LEX WOOD

In 1982, Lex Wood became the first player from the Florida State tennis program to be inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. He was first a player for the Seminoles from 1961 through the 1963 season, then the program’s head coach from 1965 through 1969.

When Wood arrived from his native South Africa in 1962, head coach Eddie Cubbon knew he had a leader amongst his new crop of tennis players. For the following three seasons he would become a mainstay among the nation’s top 20 players, playing at No. 1 singles and doubles.

In 1964, his singles match record was 22-1 and his career mark was 51 victories in 54 singles matches. Over the course of his Florida State career, Wood defeated many great collegiate players including a former U.S. Davis Cup player, Marty Riessen. As head coach, his Seminoles went an impressive 89-33 during his tenure. His last two teams in 1968 and 1969 went 19-3 and 23-5 in dual match play, respectively.

DON LOUCKS

After six decades of service to FSU athletics, Don Loucks was inducted into the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1985. In 1936, Loucks started off his relationship with FSU as the coach of every sport at the Florida State College for Women. He was the “pioneer” of many of the current athletic programs. In 1947, he was the first coach for the men’s basketball team and a year later was named the first tennis coach. His hoops team scored the first victory for the newly-formed athletics program. His tennis team was the first to have a winning season, going 9-4.

Loucks served as Dean of Men from 1957 through 1967 and during this time, he served as a lead figure in the Seminole athletics program, as well as in the department of education. He retired from the athletics department in 1980 as professor emeritus in physical education. His dedication did not go unnoticed as the varsity tennis courts were renamed in his honor. The Scott Speicher Tennis Center was built around his courts.

DR. RAY BELLAMY

His accolades go far beyond the tennis courts, yet Dr. Ray Bellamy’s triumphs at the net still stand out as one of the best as he was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. He served as his team’s captain in 1960 and 1961, and during those two years only lost a total of three matches.

After leaving FSU and joining the United States Navy, Bellamy went on to become the All-Navy doubles champion and played on the All-Navy team in 1967 and 1968 while serving as a flight surgeon. After returning to Florida to begin his practice, Bellamy became the state’s 35-and-over singles and doubles champion in the 1970’s.

MARCO ABILHOA

Marco Abilhoa, the native of Brazil, was one of the great Florida State Seminole tennis players who made an impact on the collegiate scene. Prior to enrolling, he was ranked No. 3 in the Brazilian Juniors, when former Florida State head coach Randy Jobson discovered him.

A five-year member of the Seminole tennis program from 1980 through 1984, Abilhoa was at the top of the Metro Conference. He was the No. 1 singles and doubles champion in 1981 and 1982. Upon his return in 1984, Abilhoa went straight back to the place where he left off, at the top of the Metro Conference. His dominating presence earned him a record three Metro MVP awards in 1981, 1982 and 1984.

JOEY RIVE

Joey Rive, a West Palm Beach native, played for the Seminoles from 1981 through 1985. As one of the top players ever to compete at Florida State, Rive led the team in wins in 1983, 1984 and 1985. During his period at number one singles, he was nationally ranked among the Top 25.

His stellar performance for the Tribe resulted in three Metro Conference singles championships in 1983, 1984 and 1985 and two doubles championships in 1983 and 1985, including the conference’s top crown, the MVP in 1985. His Metro success led to his invitation to the 1985 NCAA tournament and to the 1987 Tennis Magazine Sportsman of the Year award.

Following his FSU career, Rive played the ATP tour where he reached as high as No. 57 in the world in 1988. He returned back to Tallahassee where he served as an assistant from 1993 to 1994. He is currently running his own collegiate tennis consulting company.

TOP SEMINOLES

STEPHEN NOTEBOOM

After earning NAIA All-American honors at Huntington College in Montgomery, Ala., Stephen Noteboom, the second "Dutchman" to thrive at Florida State for the Seminoles for the 1990 through 1992 seasons.

Almost immediately making his presence known, Noteboom grabbed the Metro Conference's coveted MVP award for winning the title at No. 1 singles and doubles. That same year, he earned an invitation to the 1991 NCAA Championships for singles.

During his pro career, Noteboom captured a pair of doubles titles. He joined up with Fernon Wibier to win the Ordina Open. Two years later he team up with Lan Bale to win the BMW Open.

BRIAN STANTON & KEN MCKENZIE

Brian Stanton of Coral Springs and Ken McKenzie of Tallahassee finished up their playing careers with the Tribe in 1995. As a doubles team, the duo ended their final campaign earning collegiate tennis' top honor, an ITA All-America award.

The doubles pair received the 1995 accolade after a superb run in the NCAA Championships. What may be the most impressive feat for them was being ranked among the nation's top 10 doubles tandems throughout the season.

During his stay at FSU, Stanton won back to back Junior Davis Cup singles titles in 1993 and 1994, won the 1993 Junior Davis Cup in doubles, and was named to the All-ACC team his sophomore and junior seasons.

McKenzie left behind a void in doubles that was a great challenge to fill. He and Stanton guided No. 1 doubles to an impressive No. 3 national ranking, the highest ranking the program has ever received. He also was also impressive on the singles side earning ACC Flight Championships at No. 2 singles in 1994 and No. 3 singles in 1995.

ANTONIO PRIETO

Antonio Prieto, a native of Curitiba, Brazil, was an outstanding player during his time here at Florida State. His best year came in 1995 when he was an All-ACC performer, ACC Flight Champion in No. 2 doubles, and received an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. In 1996, his final season, he won the National Collegiate Tennis Classic. He turned pro in 1997 and has had a successful doubles career, including an appearance in the 2001 Australian Open. He was consistently ranked in doubles throughout his career and posted a career best mark of 95th in the world during the 2000 season.

JASON WHITE

Jason White finished his four-year run with the Seminoles in 1995, his best season as a player by far. As the top singles and doubles player, White was given a lot of responsibility as FSU's captain.

Even though he won the ACC Championship at No. 4 singles in 1994 and a pair of championships at No. 2 doubles in 1994 and 1995, White was still on top of ACC tennis in 1996. Nationally ranked for most of the year, the senior from Longwood received a bid to the 1996 NCAA Tournament after being edged out for the championships at No. 1 singles.

MAT CLOER

Mat Cloer, a native of Brevard, N.C., became one of the greatest players in not only FSU history, but also conference history during his outstanding senior season in 2004-05. During that year, the two-time ACC Player of the Year became the first player in school history to earn All-American honors in singles. He also received the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, the first national award for any FSU men's tennis player. He finished his FSU campaign with 85 singles victories and 69 doubles wins. Cloer had an impact with the Seminoles as an assistant head coach for Florida State.

MACIEK SYKUT

Maciek Sykut entered his senior season with an outside chance of becoming the winningest player in Florida State tennis history. To break the record Sykut need career seasons in both singles and doubles. He delivered both, winning a career high 26 singles matches and 23 doubles matches (with partner Drew Bailey) to become the Seminole's overall wins leader. In his second-to-last collegiate match Sykut also earned the honor of becoming the all-time singles victory leader, surpassing Jason White. His terrific senior season earned "Magic" his first career conference honors as he was named to the All-ACC team. In total, Sykut amassed 93 singles wins, 82 doubles victories (second all-time) and 175 combined wins.

JEAN-YVES AUBONE

Jean-Yves Aubone stepped onto Florida State's campus for the 2006-2007 school year and has since left a legacy that will be forever etched in Seminole lore. The Miami native is Florida State's first two-time singles All-American and 2009's ACC Player of the Year. Aubone is a two-time All-ACC team member, two-time All-ACC Academic Team member and two-time honoree of the ACC Academic Honor Roll. In September of 2009, Aubone was ranked at No. 8 in singles, the highest in Florida State history. In 2008, Aubone and Clint Bowles teamed up to record the most doubles victories in a single season with 28 wins. He finished his career named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar Athlete of the Year.

VAHID MIRZADEH

Vahid Mirzadeh spent three years as member of the tennis team and the last two as the captain of the team. Mirzadeh capped off his career as an All-American in doubles alongside Connor Smith. In 2011, he was also the second Seminole to receive the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Mirzadeh started his junior season ranked at No.

115 in the nation and worked his way to a career best of No. 21 this season. In doubles play, he and Smith teamed up to play stellar tennis as they boast a 39-19 record together his past two seasons. He was named to the ACC Honor Roll and Academic All-ACC Team all three seasons.

BY THE NUMBERS

55 Winning Seasons
15 NCAA Tournament Appearances
7 Conference Championships

Note: Up until 1977, the NCAA champion was decided by the total of the individual scoring of all the players on each team. One point was awarded for each match won, including singles and doubles. A single-elimination tournament featuring 16 teams began in 1977 and has since expanded to 64 teams.

DIXIE CONFERENCE AFFILIATION (1949-1951)

The 1949, 1950 and 1951 teams, coached by Florida State tennis pioneer, H. Don Loucks (1949-50) and Ralph Matherly (1951), won the Dixie Conference team championship for three consecutive years. The Dixie Conference was made up of seven small schools within the Southeast including Florida State, Stetson, Millsaps, Mercer, Howard, Lambuth and Oglethorpe.

METRO CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY (1976-91)

The Metro Conference, originally tabbed the Metro Six, was formed on June 13, 1975. It's charter members included Cincinnati, Georgia Tech, Louisville, Memphis State, St Louis and Tulane.

Expansion was soon on the horizon, as the league membership increased its size to seven schools when the Florida State University was admitted on July 28, 1976.

After Georgia Tech left the conference following the 1978 season, Virginia Tech quickly filled the void. Then St. Louis left the Metro. But waiting in the wings was the University of South Carolina who joined in 1983 to increase the membership to eight schools. However, Tulane forfeited its membership when its basketball program was discontinued following the 1984-85 season.

MEDIA INFORMATION

A NOTE TO THE MEDIA, FANS AND OPPONENTS

Florida State men's tennis Sports Information Director Maryjane Gardner is ready to assist you with any questions or requests you may have about the 2011 Seminole men's tennis program, almanac, coaches and student-athletes. Please do not hesitate to contact the FSU Sports Information office if we can further assist you.

PLAYERS & COACHES INTERVIEWS

All players and coaches interviews should be arranged through the sports information office by contacting Maryjane Gardner at (850) 644-2016 at least 24 hours in advance. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be released. Media may not contact any student-athlete through the use of social media, including Facebook and Twitter.

HOW TO COVER THE SEMINOLES

Members of the media are supplied with press releases, including updated individual and career statistics, as well as conference and national rankings and information on upcoming matches. This information may be obtained in the sports information office and will be updated after every match at www.seminoles.com.

WHERE THE HOME MATCHES WILL BE

All of the 2012 tennis matches take place at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center unless weather forces the team to use the Indoor Practice Facility (2566 Pottsdamer Rd.). Media should notify the sports information office prior to home matches if they plan to attend. Any accredited photographer wishing to shoot the matches must check in with Maryjane Gardner prior to match day.

FSU ON THE WEB

All the game stories, updated stats and Seminole tennis news you could ever ask for is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year at Seminoles.com. The official FSU athletics Web site is your first stop for all the information you could ever need on the Seminole men's tennis team and is updated immediately following each match.

FOLLOW FSU MEN'S TENNIS ON TWITTER

Media and fans are encouraged to follow @FSU_MTennis on the team's official Twitter page for instantaneous information surrounding the squad.
