SEMINOLES ADVANCE TO SWEET 16 OF NCAA TOURNAMENT

Florida State finished the 2010-11 season with a 23-11 overall record, an 11-5 record and a third place finish in ACC play, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993 and finished the season ranked 19th nationally in the final USA Today/ESPN Poll of the season. It marked the third consecutive season the Seminoles have won at least 22 games, the school record tying third consecutive season they have won at least 10 ACC games and the school record third consecutive season they have finished in the top four of the ACC standings. Florida State is one of only two teams in the ACC (they are joined by only Duke) that has won at least 22 overall games, at least 10 ACC games and has finished in the top four of the ACC standings in EACH of the last three seasons. The Seminoles defeated No. 20 ranked Texas A&M and No. 5 ranked Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament to advance to the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in school history.

SEMINOLES FINISH SEASON NATIONALLY RANKED

The Florida State men's basketball team, which advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993, finished the 2010-11 season ranked No. 19 in the final ESPN/USA Today Poll of the year. It marked the second time in the last three seasons that the Seminoles have been ranked in the final coaches' poll. The Seminoles began the NCAA Tournament unranked but defeated No. 20 Texas A&M and No. 5 ranked Notre Dame to advance to the Sweet 16.

SEMINOLES LEADS NATION IN FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE DEFENSE

Florida State finished the 2010-11 season as the field goal percentage defense national statistical champion with a .363 mark - the second consecutive season they have led the nation in the most telling defensive statistic kept by the NCAA. The Seminoles are the first team to repeat as the field goal percentage national champions since Marquette in the 1993 and 1994 seasons. Florida State's .363 mark ranks as the fourth lowest mark by a leader in the category since the NCAA began compiling the statistic in 1977. The Seminoles are only the sixth team in NCAA history to repeat as the field goal percentage defensive national champions. It marks the third time in the last 14 seasons a Leonard Hamilton coached team has led the nation in field goal percentage defense. The 1998 Miami Hurricanes led the nation with a .379 mark as he took the team to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1960. Hamilton guided the Hurricanes to the NCAA Tournament in three consecutive seasons (1998-2000). Florida State proved to have the nation's top defense as it ranked first nationally in field goal percentage defense (.363), fifth in blocked shots (6.0 bpg), 15th in 3-point field goal percentage defense (.306), 24th in steals per game (8.3 spg) and 27th in rebound margin (+4.9 rpg). The Seminoles were the only team in the nation to finish the season ranked in the top 30 in each of those five statistical categories.

SEMINOLES LEAD ACC FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE SEASON

Florida State finished as the best defense in the ACC for the second consecutive season as it led the league in three defensive statistical categories (field goal percentage defense, 3-point field goal percentage defense and blocked shots) and ranked second in four more important defensive statistical categories (scoring defense, steals, rebound margin and defensive rebounds). Florida State held its 34 opponents to a .363 combined shooting percentage from the field - a statistic that led the ACC and all of college basketball. The Seminoles are the first ACC team to lead the league statistics in field goal percentage defense in three consecutive seasons since Wake Forest during the 1995, 1996 and 1997 seasons. The Seminoles under Leonard Hamilton are now one of only three programs in ACC history to lead the league in field goal percentage defense in three consecutive seasons - joining Wake Forest and Maryland during the 1974, 1975 and 1976 seasons. The Seminoles' .363 field goal percentage defense mark is the best mark in the ACC since 1960 when NC State held its opponents to a .360 mark and the seventh best field goal percentage defensive mark in ACC history. In the last three seasons, Florida State has held its 101 opponents to a cumulative total of .376 shooting from the field with only three of those opponents shooting 50 percent or better from the field against the Seminoles' suffocating defense.

Quoting Florida State Basketball

"That might be one of the best defenses I've ever gone against in my life."

Thad Motta

*Head Coach, Ohio State University
Following Nov. 30 game against FSU*

"The Seminoles are nasty, so aggressive they look as though they have seven players on the floor. They constantly switched and pressed, getting a hand - more like two or three - in the face of every Notre Dame shooter. The Irish missed 11 of their first 15 shots, and it never got much better."

*Nancy Armour
Associated Press
March 20, 2011*

"Florida State was supposed to be doomed by the February injury to its best player, Chris Singleton. BYU was supposed to be doomed after the late-season suspension of Brandon Davies. Yet here they both are, in the Sweet 16, and not thanks to any kind of fluke circumstances. The Seminoles beat Texas A&M and then crushed Notre Dame, with Singleton contributing a total of five points and four rebounds to the cause. The Cougars beat Wofford and then demolished Gonzaga without their third-leading scorer and leading rebounder. Kudos to both teams for not letting a personnel loss -- no matter how significant -- end their season."

*Pat Forde
ESPN.Com
March 22, 2011*

"Florida State's defense is one of the best defenses that we have seen at least statistically in 10 years - headed by Chris Singleton. They are long and they can really, really get after it. Clearly they are the best defensive team in the ACC."

*Spero Dedes and Bob Wentzel
TBS National Television
March 20, 2011*

"Under Leonard Hamilton, the Seminoles have moved into the upper echelon of the ACC. You consistently win double figure games in this conference, 47 wins in those last two years and you see the record of the last two seasons - second best. The other thing, too, that he (Hamilton) did was recognize that the NCAA Tournament selection committee wanted him to step up his non-conference schedule to make way to get into the NCAA's."

*Tim Brando and Mike Gminski
Fox Sports Television
Dec. 12, 2010*

"They (Florida State) are so athletic that they guard things one on one without needing much help. They don't get beat on many help and recover situations. They are able to help and get back and help and close things out because of their length. They erase mistakes around the basket. You go by one guy or you think you've got a crease and you get into the paint and all of a sudden there is a big shot blocker waiting for you - Gibson is there or Singleton is there. And because they are so athletic and big they rebound; they rebound well so you don't get any easy baskets. That's difficult."

Quoting Chris Singleton

"Chris Singleton really is one of the best players in the country."

Mike Krzyzewski
Duke University, Head Coach
Jan. 10, 2011

"Florida State's Chris Singleton might be the best all-around player in the league, since he's one of the top defenders in the country. If the Seminoles are in play for a top-three finish, it will be because of Singleton."

"Florida State has an ACC Player of the Year candidate in Chris Singleton."

Andy Katz
ESPN.com
Jan. 6, 2011

"If you watch the Virginia Tech men's basketball team's game against Florida State today, keep an eye on Florida State's Chris Singleton. Not that it will require a special effort. It will not be hard to notice him."

Mark Berman
The Roanoke Times

"Chris Singleton is a one-man wrecking crew defensively and now he has completed his game from being the Defensive Player of the Year in the ACC last year into an all-around player this year."

Len Elmore

Jan. 8, 2011

"We have watched this young man (Chris Singleton) play during his career and he has gotten better every year. There is no question about his ability. He is averaging 15 points a game and eight rebounds a game and is one of the best defensive players (in the country). In fact, he is the defending ACC Defensive Player of the Year."

Jan. 3, 2011

"That (Florida State's defense) might be one of the best defenses I've ever gone against in my life."

Thad Motta
Head Coach, Ohio State University
Nov. 30, 2010

"Chris Singleton was a guy who was known for his ability to score the ball coming out of high school, but it's been amazing to watch how he has become one of – if not THE best – defenders in college basketball. With his length and pride on the defensive end of the floor, Singleton has become a guy that you want to watch lock down his opponent."

Jeff Goodman
Fox Sports
Dec. 20, 2010

"Chris Singleton has a variety of skills at both ends of the court. He showed us his 3-point skills against Butler – but he is most dynamic when he is rebounding, when he is passing and when he is defending three or four positions."

Game No. 1 -- Florida State 75, North Florida 55

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Junior-college transfer Bernard James earned his first career double-double -- 15 points and 10 rebounds -- and Deividus Dulkys added 12 points as Florida State cruised to a 75-55 victory over North Florida in the season opener for both teams at the Donald L. Tucker Center. FSU has won its opener in each of coach Leonard Hamilton's nine seasons. Florida State certainly has athleticism and depth -- four players scored in double figures. Derwin Kitchen and Chris Singleton each added 11 points for the Seminoles, while Xavier Gibson and Luke Loucks each added seven points. Parker Smith had 16 points and Andres Diaz added 12 points for North Florida, which had 22 turnovers. Florida State jumped out to a 42-25 lead at the half as Xavier Gibson, Deividus Dulkys and James each had seven points. But North Florida chipped away at Florida State's lead, cutting the deficit to just five, 50-45, with 10:45 left in the game. Florida State answered right back, as Luke Loucks made a 3-pointer and Singleton dunked after a steal. The Seminoles led 55-45 at that point and were not challenged again as they outscored North Florida 20-10 the rest of the way.

Game No. 19 -- Florida State 55, Miami 53

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Florida State missed its first 10 shots but rallied from a 10-point second-half deficit, scoring 11 consecutive points down the stretch and beating the Miami Hurricanes 55-53. Durand Scott missed driving shots on back-to-back possessions in the final 10 seconds for Miami. Florida State is off to its best start in the league since 1993. That includes a win over then-No. 1 Duke on Jan. 12. Miami shot 1 for 8 over the final 6 1/2 minutes and lost for the first time in nine home games. Malcolm Grant scored 20 for the Hurricanes. Florida State won with only one player in double figures - Terrance Shannon had 10. The game was nearly 10 minutes old before the Seminoles sank a basket, but they trailed only 11-7 because of Miami's sputtering. Deividas Dulkys' four-point play started the 11-0 run and cut the margin to 48-47. Derwin Kitchen's driving layup gave the Seminoles their first lead, 49-48, and they led the rest of the way. Florida State missed its final five free throws over the last 1:53 but survived a frantic finish. Grant sank a 3-pointer to cut the lead to 55-52 with 42 seconds left, and when Chris Singleton missed the front end of a one-and-one, the Hurricanes got the ball back. Scott missed an off-balance layup with 10 seconds left, but Bernard James missed two free throws for Florida State. Scott grabbed the rebound and drove the length of the floor, then missed a reverse layup. Miami's Julian Gamble grabbed the rebound and passed to Grant, but the buzzer sounded before he could launch a shot.

Game No. 25 -- Florida State 63 Virginia 56

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State held off Virginia 63-56 but lost star Chris Singleton with a fractured right foot. The 6-foot-9 Singleton, the Seminoles' top scorer and rebounder, had surgery on his foot on Feb. 14. Michael Snaer scored 16 points, including four straight free throws in the final 20 seconds, when Florida State repelled a late Virginia rally. Singleton, last year's Atlantic Coast Conference defensive player of the year, already had 11 points when he was hurt 10 minutes into the game. He scored Florida State's first nine points before Xavier Gibson's put-back with 11:36 left in the half. Florida State led 34-23 at halftime on its way to a second ACC win in less than 48 hours and fifth straight over the Cavaliers. The Seminoles were coming off a 72-63 win at Georgia Tech. Virginia fought back from a 16-point deficit in the second half and pulled to within 56-53 with 1:11 left on Joe Harris' short running jumper. But Bernard James' baby hook with 37 seconds left provided Florida State a bit of breathing room and Snaer took care of the rest with his free-throw shooting. Sammy Zeglinski scored 19 points and Harris 17 for Virginia, which lost for the fourth time in five games. Snaer and James grabbed eight rebounds apiece for the Seminoles, who shot 44.7 percent and the 6-10 James blocked five shots.

Game No. 26 -- Florida State 84, Wake Forest 66

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Bernard James scored 15 points to lead Florida State to an 84-66 win over Wake Forest Freshman Ian Miller and junior Deividus Dulkys each scored 14 for Florida State, who stayed in sole possession of third place in the league by dominating Wake Forest to win after the break. Florida State trailed by two at half-time before using a 13-2 run to push ahead by double figures, then the Seminoles steadily increased the margin by attacking the rim while Wake Forest seemed to grow steadily more passive. The Seminoles shot 53 percent and scored 53 points in the second half. Florida State also kept getting point-blank looks by driving the ball into the paint, with Miller's basket in transition over Ty Walker capping the 13-2 run that gave the Seminoles a 50-39 lead with 12:18 left. A few minutes later, Okaro White (13 points) had a sequence that illustrated FSU's attacking mindset. First came his reverse layup in traffic while drawing a foul for a three-point play. Then he stole the inbound pass and beat two Demon Deacons to a loose rebound while falling out of bounds before driving by Travis McKie for a layup to end that possession. Minutes later, Michael Snaer assisted on White's short jumper from the left corner, then assisted on James' layup to make it 67-47 with 6:24 left. McKie had 20 points to lead Wake Forest, which shot just 33 percent. The Demon Deacons - the ACC's best free-throw shooting team - managed to offset that early by making 14 of 15 from the line to lead for much of the first half.

Game No. 28 -- Florida State 65, Miami 59

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Okaro White and Devidas Dulkys scored 17 points apiece and Florida State held off a furious Miami with a 65-59 victory Saturday for its 20th win of the season. White, a freshman starting in place of injured Chris Singleton, knocked down a 10-foot jumper with 31 seconds remaining that gave Florida State a 64-59 lead after Malcolm Grant's 3-point shot 25 seconds earlier moved the Hurricanes to within 62-59. White hit 6 of 11 shots and grabbed seven rebounds while Dulkys connected on four of eight attempts from 3-point range. Grant led Miami with 19 points and 6-foot-10, 300-pound center Reggie Johnson added 17 points and 12 rebounds. Miami shot just 31.7 percent. Florida State won for the second time in three games since losing Singleton - its scoring leader this season - to a broken right foot two weeks ago. It marked Florida State's third straight season with at least 20 wins and 10 in ACC play. Florida State led by double figures through much of the contest, including 61-50 with 4:06 left. The Seminoles jumped to a 16-2 lead on their way to a 36-16 halftime cushion and a fifth straight victory over Miami. Dulkys and Michael Snaer each nailed a pair of 3-pointers that catapulted the Seminoles into the 14-point lead six minutes into the game. Miami's 16 points at the break was the fewest Florida State has allowed in the first half this season. Grant, Miami's top scorer this season, didn't get his first field goal until midway through the second half before heating up. Florida State was as hot in the first half as Miami was cold, shooting 58.3 percent to the 'Canes' frigid 17.2 percent. Miami made just 3 of its first 20 shots, falling behind by as many as 22 points in the opening half.

Game No. 29 -- North Carolina 72, Florida State 70

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - John Henson had 19 points and 12 rebounds and Harrison Barnes added 18 points to lead North Carolina to a 72-70 win over Florida State. Barnes hit the game winning 3-point shot with three seconds remaining to give the Tar Heels their sixth straight win. North Carolina took the lead midway through the second half and was up 67-60 on Kendall Marshall's 3-pointer with 3:59 left. Florida State rallied to take a 70-69 lead with 18 seconds left on two free throws by Derwin Kitchen, who led the Seminoles with 13 points. Florida State turned the ball over before getting off a final shot after Barnes' game-winner. Leslie McDonald added 10 points for North Carolina, including two 3-pointers 43 seconds apart that gave the Tar Heels a 49-44 lead with 14:18 left. Snaer added 11 points and Bernard James had 10 for the Seminoles, who were without top scorer Chris Singleton (broken right foot) for the fourth straight game. Game No. 30 -- Florida State 72, NC State 62

RALEIGH, N.C. - Derwin Kitchen had 17 points and matched a career high with 13 rebounds to help Florida State beat North Carolina State 72-62. Bernard James added 14 points for the Seminoles who won three of five to close the regular season while top scorer and rebounder Chris Singleton sat out with a broken right foot. It marked only the third time in program history that Florida State has won 11 ACC games in a season and the first since winning 12 in 1993. Freshman C.J. Leslie had 12 points to lead the Wolfpack who trailed most of the game and made a push to take a one-point lead with about 8 minutes left. But Kitchen scored a pair of baskets to put the Seminoles ahead for good, sealing a season sweep of N.C. State. Florida State led for the first 30 minutes, scoring the first seven points and leading by 13 in the first half before taking a 41-33 halftime lead. Then, after the Wolfpack rallied into the lead, Kitchen and the Seminoles confidently answered right back.

Game No. 31 -- Virginia Tech 52, Florida State 51

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Erick Green hit the go-ahead jumper with 4.7 seconds left, while Derwin Kitchen's desperation shot at the buzzer was waved off as Virginia Tech edged Florida State 52-51 in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament. Green was just 1 for 12 from the field for the sixth-seeded Hokies before taking a feed from Malcolm Delaney and calmly sinking a jumper near the 3-point arc. The third-seeded Seminoles called timeout and inbounded to Kitchen, who dribbled into the right corner before launching a fadeaway over a defender at the horn. The ball dropped through the net and the officials initially called it good, sending the Seminoles spilling oncourt to mob Kitchen. Meanwhile, Delaney and Green walked to midcourt with their hands on their heads in disbelief. But officials soon reviewed the replays and reversed the call.

Game No. 33 -- Florida State 71,
Notre Dame 57

CHICAGO, Ill. - The United Center was supposed to be a home court advantage for second-seeded Notre Dame but it turned into Cinderella's castle as No. 10 Florida State and No. 11 VCU each advanced to the Sweet 16 where they will meet in the Southwest Regional Semifinals. The Seminoles upset the fourth-ranked Fighting Irish thanks to a deadly combination of their typical suffocating defense and a hot night shooting from the outside in a one-sided 71-57 victory. For the Seminoles this is the lowest seeded FSU team to ever advance to the Sweet 16 and the school's first ever win over a team seeded as high as No. 2. The last time FSU advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1993 the squad entered the tournament as a No. 3 seed. It also ties the deepest NCAA Tourney run ever for a Leonard Hamilton coached team. While the offense excelled, the Seminole defense was humming along at its usual stingy pace. The Irish flirted with a new season low for points in the first half. The fewest points scored by Notre Dame in the opening half was 19 versus St. Johns, mustering just four more in Sunday night's game. Notre Dame's season low shooting percentage in the first half was 28.1% versus Cal and the Irish barley eclipsed that mark against the Seminoles converting on just 30% of their shots in the first 20 minutes. Even more impressively Notre Dame came in shooting nearly 40% from behind the arc but was limited to just 1-10 shooting from three point range in the opening 20 minutes. Things didn't get any better for the Irish in the second half. For the game Notre Dame shot just 30.6% from the field and only 23.3% from three point range. A major accomplishment for the Seminoles considering all five Irish starters shoot better than 40% from behind the arc.

Game No. 34 -- Virginia Commonwealth
72, Florida State 71

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.- For the 10th-seeded Florida State Seminoles their road to the Elite Eight was just 7.9 seconds away. After trailing for nearly the final 11:00 of the second half, Chris Singleton hit a three-pointer with 45 seconds remaining in regulation to send FSU's Sweet 16 matchup with VCU to overtime. Then with 7.9 seconds left in the extra period the Seminoles were in front 71-70. That is when VCU's Bradford Burgess slipped away from standout senior Derwin Kitchen to hit the game-winner, ending the Seminoles magical run in a 72-71 loss. The Rams used one of the best shooting night's of any FSU opponent this season to move into the Elite Eight. VCU connected on 12 three-pointers during regulation, tying the most that FSU allowed in any game in 2010-11, and the squad shot nearly 42 percent for the game. All this against an FSU team that came in to the night allowing teams to connect on just 36% from the field and only 30% from behind the arc.
