LEADERSHIP

When head coach Dwayne Hultquist took over the Florida State men's tennis program in 2000, the Seminoles were seventh out of nine teams in the ACC and barely ranked in the top 60 nationally. Under his leadership, Hultquist morphed the Seminoles into a winning sensation, coaching the team as high as No. 7 in the country in 2008, the highest in program history. Hultquist's coaching expertise led the men's tennis team to be recognized as a top contender in the conference and across the nation, revamping the perception of the program. As the winningest coach in program history, Hultquist has brought Florida State men's tennis a sense of confidence and success that had not been seen before.

Hultquist and the 'Noles have played in the NCAA Tournament a school-record 13 consecutive years, including a trip to the quarterfinals in 2005 and two round of 16 appearances in 2008 and 2009. Since bringing on associate head coach Nick Crowell in 2004, the 'Noles have made the NCAA Tournament every season and ranked no lower than 47th in the country. Included in the 12 years together for Hultquist and Crowell were five consecutive finishes ranked in the teens, capped off by a school-record finish of No. 13 in 2005, 2008, and 2009.

Hultquist has won a career-high 21 matches in a season three times, and finished with a winning record in 13 of his 16 seasons as leader of the 'Noles. Overall, Hultquist has a record of 258-173.

One of the longest-tenured duos in college tennis, Hultquist and associate head coach Nick Crowell have taken the Seminoles to new heights.

PRESTIGE

Jean-Yves Aubone is the only two-time All-American for the Seminoles, earning the honor in 2008 and 2009.

Florida State is known for developing elite talent and its reputation was further sustained when the men's tennis team was invited to compete in the NCAA Tournament for the 13th consecutive season in 2015.

Throughout the history of the Florida State men's tennis program, many notable players and coaches have passed through the courts in Tallahassee, including Don Loucks, the first tennis coach in program history who led the team to a 9-4 record in his inaugural season with the 'Noles.

Other notable Seminoles include Ray Bellamy, a team captain in 1960 and 1961 who lost only three times during his time with FSU and later went on to join the Navy as a flight surgeon and win the state's 35-and-over singles and doubles championship in the 1970s; Marco Abilhoa, a three-time Metro Conference MVP in the early 1980s; Joey Rive, a five-time Metro Conference champion (three singles, two doubles) who was named the 1987 Tennis Magazine Sportsman of the Year and went on to rank as high as No. 57 on the ATP Tour; and Jean-Yves Aubone, the Seminoles first two-time singles All-American and 2009 ACC Player of the Year who ranked as high as No. 8 in the country in 2009, the highest ranking for a Seminole in school history.

In the 68-year history of the program, Florida State has won seven conference titles, made 19 NCAA Tournament appearances, and finished the season ranked 29 times, including 22 consecutive years.

ACADEMICS

ACCOLADES

The men's tennis team is consistently one of the strongest FSU programs academically each season.

A key part to maintaining Florida State's reputation as an elite collegiate team is having ambitious athletes that continue to ace the competition on and off the court.

In 2015, Florida State had three players make the All-ACC Academic Team, including returning seniors Benjamin Lock and Marco Nunez, as well as Cristian Gonzalez Mendez for the second time. FSU was one of only three schools, along with Louisville and Virginia, to place three or more athletes on the team.

Gonzalez Mendez was also named the Jim McKay Scholarship winner, presented by the NCAA to one male and one female student-athlete across all divisions. Gonzalez Mendez was also named to the President's or Dean's List seven times and was a three-time Golden Torch winner.

Joining Gonzalez Mendez on the ACC Academic Honor Roll were two-time winners Jack Haffey, Lock, and Parker Evertsen, and first-time honorees Nunez, Michael Rinaldi, and João Gauer. Gonzalez Mendez, Haffey, Nunez, and Rinaldi were also named ITA Scholar Athletes.

On campus, the Seminoles were honored for the third consecutive season with the Golden Torch Award, given annually to the men's and women's athletic team that has achieved the highest GPA for the previous year.

In 2011, Vahid Mirzadeh became the second athlete in school history to be honored with the prestigious ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, following in the footsteps of Mat Cloer in 2005. Lock was the Southeast Region Arthur Ashe winner in 2015.

In the history of the Seminole men's tennis program, Florida State has had six All-Americans play for the 'Noles, including Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith as a doubles tandem in 2011 and Brian Stanton and Ken McKenzie as a doubles pair in 1995; Mat Cloer in singles in 2005; and the only two-time winner in school history, Jean-Yves Aubone, in 2008 and 2009 in singles play.

Other honors for the Seminoles include the Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, won by Mirzadeh (2011) and Cloer (2005); the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year for Dwayne Hultquist (2013); ITA Regional Assistant Coach of the Year, won in 2003 by Ty Braswell, 2010 by Cloer, and 2006, 2013, and 2015 by Nick Crowell; and ITA Regional Player of the Year, won by Aubone in 2010.

Additionally, two Seminoles have won at the prestigious Bedford Cup, an annual tournament that features players from around the state of Florida. In 2012, Benjamin Lock paired with Andres Bucaro to win the doubles draw, and in 2013, Cristian Gonzalez Mendez won the singles draw.

Multiple Seminoles have played in the Davis Cup for their countries, including Ricardo Bernd for Brazil (1971-72), Rejean Genois for Canada (1973-74), Enrique Andrade (1975-76) for Ecuador, Joey Rive for the U.S. (1989) and Puerto Rico (1992-94), Marco Nunez for Mexico (2011), Andres Bucaro for Guatemala (2013-14) and Benjamin Lock for Zimbabwe (2011-15). Newcomer Aziz Dougaz also played Davis Cup for his native Tunisia.

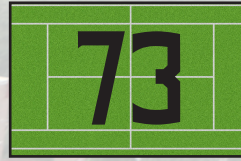

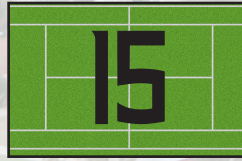

Benjamin Lock helped Zimbabwe advance to Group II of the Europe/Africa Zone in the Davis Cup in September 2014.

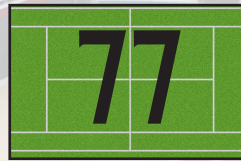

SCOTT SPEICHER...BY THE NUMBERS

Seminole wins at home in 2014, the most since Speicher opened in 1994.

FSU has gone 224-82 at Speicher, winning over 73 percent of home matches.

Consecutive seasons without a losing record for the 'Noles at Speicher since 1994.

Winning percentage at home since 2012, winning at least 12 home matches per season.

Consecutive seasons without a losing record at home.

Victories at home since Speicher opened in 1994, just over 10 per year.

With the first stage of construction completed in the summer of 1993, the Donald Loucks Courts at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center opened its gates to the public for the first time at a Children's Miracle Network charity tournament. Since then, many successful tournaments including the 1996 NCAA Women's Championships and 2007-2010 NCAA Regionals have graced the courts at one of Florida State University's premier athletic facilities.

Costing $1.2 million to build and then another $800,000 for recent additions, Florida State's Speicher Tennis Center has become an example of the increasing dedication and commitment the University has to all of its 20 varsity athletic programs.

The Speicher Tennis Center houses 12 lighted hard courts, over 1,000 court level seats, coaching offices, men's and women's locker rooms, equipment and storage rooms, a team lounge and a public address system. In 2015, the complex added booster seating over Courts 1 & 2 with new black awnings to cover spectators. Underneath the grandstands, a new paint job and signage welcomes players and fans to the complex. The growing pride Florida State has for its tennis program and its premier tennis center was honored just after it's opening in 1993, when the United States Tennis Association (USTA) awarded the structure with its "Top Notch" facility award.

In 2016, the courts were repainted in Florida State's patented Garnet and Gold, the first major renovations to the courts since they opened in 1993.

The Speicher Tennis Center was named in honor of Lieutenant Commander Michael Scott Speicher, a graduate of Florida State University. Speicher was considered the first American casualty during Operation Desert Storm, but was later reclassified by the U.S. government as missing in action in 2001 and missing or captured a year later. However, in 2009 Speicher's remains were found in the Anbar province of Iraq after a nearly 20-year search. The Scott Speicher family was later honored by Florida State at a home football game with a missing man formation flyover from the Navy. By Presidential directive, the facility bears the name the "Scott Speicher Tennis Center."

In 1947, Loucks became Florida State's first basketball coach and a year later was named the school's first tennis coach. The varsity tennis courts were named for Loucks in 1981. He served as Dean of Men from 1957-1967 and was known as a servant of leadership, service and devotion to many worthy causes.

The Speicher Tennis Center was designed by EMO/Architects, Inc., a Tallahassee-based architectural firm, in collaboration with Global Consult Group, Inc., an internationally recognized Tennis Facility Design Consultant. The complex was funded by private sources and supervised through the state university system of Florida.

Through its 22 year existence, the Donald Loucks Courts at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center has served as the home courts for all Florida State men's and women's home dual matches, Seminole Fall Classics, City of Tallahassee tennis championships, various USTA regional and zonal tournaments, the 1994 and 1995 Men's Intercollegiate tournament and the annual Children's Miracle Network Charity Invitational benefiting Shands Hospital in Gainesville.

After breaking ground on construction in January of 2010, the Indoor Tennis Facility was completed in April of 2011. The multimillion dollar Indoor Tennis Facility serves as an additional playing arena for the Florida State tennis teams. Since the completion in spring of 2011, the facility has served as both a site for training and competition.

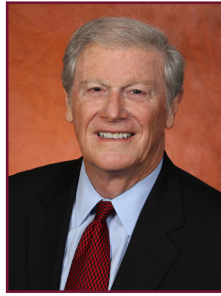

The building hosts six regulation courts, locker rooms, athletic training room, equipment room, office and lobby. With this newest facility, both Seminole Tennis teams are equipped with the tools to host both regional and national championships now and in the future. For the next phase, plans are in place to add spectator seating, team lounges, extended locker rooms, offices and a press box.

Besides use from the tennis programs, the Multi-Purpose Educational Facility is used for academic classes, clinics and camps. The facility was the first indoor tennis facility approved for college competition in the state of Florida and is still one of just a few in the southeast.

The women's tennis team had its first practice on April 6, 2011 while the men practiced the next day on April 7. At the men's Seminole Invitational during September 2011, the back draws were played there for the facilities first competition. The first women's dual match was played on January 21, 2012 against UCF where Florida State won 6-1. The men's team played Furman on January 22, 2012 and came off the courts with a 7-0 victory.

The building was designed by Architects: Lewis + Whitlock while construction was completed by Rippee Construction of Tallahassee.

The 2015 USTA Collegiate Clay Court Invitational, presented by VISIT FLORIDA, was held Nov. 5-8 at the ESPN Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Fla. The fourth-annual event was held in collaboration between the USTA, ESPN, and Florida State University.

Schools from throughout the country participated in men's and women's singles and doubles draws. Billed as the largest collegiate clay court event in the country, the 2015 CCI was streamed live on ESPN3, equaling more than 12 hours of coverage through the WatchESPN app streamed worldwide.

Florida State's Marco Nunez and Jose Gracia were crowned doubles champions. For Nunez, it was his second consecutive season hoisting the championship after winning the doubles title with Benjamin Lock in 2014. It was Gracia's first collegiate championship after pairing with senior Cristian Gonzalez Mendez to reach the finals in 2014 before falling to Lock and Nunez.

Entering his 17th season as the head coach at Florida State, Dwayne Hultquist has put himself atop the Florida State record books and the Seminoles in the national spotlight.

Under Hultquist's leadership, Florida State men's tennis has emerged as one of the top programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the country. In 16 seasons under Hultquist, FSU has had three ACC Player of the Year recipients, five All-American honors and two national ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award winners.

In 2014-15, Hultquist captured his 250th victory with a win on the road at No. 33 Louisville and enters the 2016 season with 258. The year also saw him place two more players in the NCAA Individual Championships (juniors Benjamin Lock and Marco Nunez) and reach the second round of the team championship for the first time since 2012.

Along with Lock and Nunez, junior Michael Rinaldi and senior Cristian Gonzalez Mendez also were ranked during the season, and true freshmen Terrance and Terrell Whitehurst finished with an 18-8 doubles mark in their first semester at Florida State. Lock's No. 48 final singles rank was the highest for a 'Nole in four years, while Lock and Nunez finished in the Top 30 (No. 20) for the second consecutive season.

The team's 20-11 record was the most wins since 2009 and the most regular season wins in school history with 18.

The winningest coach in program history, Hultquist has led the 'Noles to 13 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, one of only 12 programs in the country to reach that mark of postseason longevity. Hultquist has finished ranked in the final poll of the season all 16 years. Lock (second team) and Rinaldi (third team) were honored with All-ACC honors.

The 2015 season was also the first with an improved VIP seating area at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center, a project spearheaded by Hultquist that allows boosters to sit in covered, cushioned seating areas while cheering on the 'Noles. It was also the first season with home matches on ESPN3, another project championed by Hultquist that increased the reach of Seminole tennis nationwide and helped improve the Seminole brand.

In 2014, Hultquist oversaw a team that reached the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. The 'Noles took down nine ranked teams, highlighted by victories over No. 18 Wake Forest, No. 47 Miami, and No. 60 Nebraska. Hultquist and the 'Noles have defeated in-state rival Miami in 14 of the past 15 seasons after notching just a 5-41 record against the Hurricanes prior to his arrival. The doubles pairing of Lock and Nunez ranked as high as No. 4 in the country before a season-ending injury knocked Lock out of competition for most of the spring.

The 'Noles also placed two members on the All-ACC teams, with Dominic Cotrone (second team) and Gonzalez Mendez (third team) garnering honors. Two players, Gonzalez Mendez and Blake Davis, were also named to the ITA All-Academic Team, while Cotrone and Gonzalez Mendez were named to the All-ACC Academic Team.

The 2012-13 year was no different from the previous winning seasons. The year saw both Hultquist and associate coach Nick Crowell sweeping the ITA Southeast Regional coaches of the year awards. Cotrone and Davis ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation in doubles and played in the NCAA Doubles Championships at the end of the year.

During the 2012 season, Hultquist coached the team to its 10th straight NCAA appearance. The team finished 19-10 and reached the semifinals of the ACC Championships. Jordan Kelly-Houston was named to the All-ACC team while Andres Bucaro, Davis and Lock were named to the All-ACC Academic team.

In 2011, Vahid Mirzadeh headlined the season as he and Connor Smith were named All-Americans in doubles play, Hultquist's fourth and fifth athletes to earn that honor. Mirzadeh made a huge impact off the courts as he was awarded the ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, showcasing his playing abilities, leadership, community service, academic achievements and sportsmanship.

The 2009-10 season had the team making the NCAA Tournament for the eighth year in a row where they reached the second round of play. Awards started coming in the fall as Clint Bowles was the Wilson/ITA Southeast Regional Singles Champion. Later in the year, Jean-Yves Aubone was named the ITA Senior Player of the Year and was named to the All-ACC team along with Mirzadeh. The Seminoles stormed the classrooms that year with seven members of the team being named to the ACC Honor Roll. Aubone capped the year by being named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the first time in school history, the Seminoles reached the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament in consecutive seasons (2008 and 2009). The 2009 season also marked the first time that the Seminoles finished the season ranked inside the top 15 in consecutive seasons (No. 13). Aubone became the first player in school history to become a two-time All-American. The 'Noles had three All-ACC performers for the second consecutive season with Aubone, Bowles and Maciek Sykut earning those honors.

It was also in 2009 that Hultquist surpassed his predecessor David Barron as the winningest coach in school history, notching win No. 142 in the fourth match of the season against ACC-rival Duke on January 31, 2009, in the first round of the National Indoor Championships. With 21 victories in 2009, Hultquist won more than 20 in one season for the third time in his career and the second season in a row.

The 2008 season was a year of records for Florida State culminating in a trip to the Round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles achieved their highest ranking in program history at No. 7 during the season and individually saw Aubone earn the highest singles' ranking in the school's history. FSU's 21 victories marked the second time Hultquist led his squad to a 20-win season during his tenure.

Under the direction of Hultquist, Florida State players rose to new heights in 2008 with Aubone earning singles All-American honors and Sam Chang and Bowles getting All-ACC accolades. Aubone and Bowles also finished second in school history for doubles victories in a single season (28).

In 2007, Hultquist led Florida State to a 17-10 record and the Seminoles rose to No. 10 during the season. FSU also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time in school history.

In Hultquist's sixth year at FSU, the Seminoles reached the 2005 NCAA Elite Eight for the first time and finished with its then highest-ever national ranking at No. 13 and stamped its first 20-plus win season since 1985. Hultquist led his squad to an impressive 21-8 mark and a second-place finish in the ACC. Under Hultquist's tutelage in 2005, Mat Cloer became the school's first singles' All-American and won the program's first national honor with the ITA Arthur Ashe Award.

Hultquist hit the ground running in the fall of 2005 and led his troops to an impressive fall campaign. For the Seminoles' efforts, Florida State not only earned the school's first invitation to the 2006 USTA/ITA National Men's Team Indoor Championship, but also garnered a respectable preseason ranking of No. 11 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

Individual honors were bountiful in 2004 with Cloer claiming his second ACC Player of the Year honor, only the third player in league history to receive the award in consecutive seasons. Freshman Jonathas Sucupira was named to the All-ACC team, a first by an FSU rookie since 1992.

Florida State had a break-out year during Hultquist's fourth season as the 2003 squad returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and ended the year with a 15-10 mark. The Seminoles produced their best finish in the ACC standings, taking second, while winning the ACC Indoor Doubles Championship for the second year in a row. Individual accolades rolled in as Hultquist's former aide, Ty Braswell, was named ITA Assistant Coach of the Year. On the court, Cloer became the first Seminole to earn ACC Player of the Year honors.

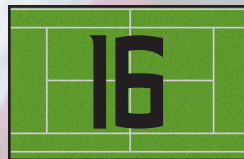

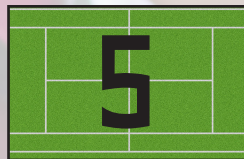

In his first year, Hultquist brought the Seminoles a winning record of 14-10. In his second year, the men's team entered the 2001-02 season ranked No. 59 by the ITA.

Hultquist arrived at Florida State after serving eight years as an assistant coach at the University of Texas. While working under legendary coach Dave Snyder, Hultquist became known for his excellent recruiting abilities. He was also responsible for scheduling, fundraising, individualized coaching and many of the day-to-day operations of the program. While at Texas, Hultquist coached nine All-Americans, helped lead the Longhorns to six conference titles and made it to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in each of his eight years.

Hultquist began his tennis career at Penn State where he was a four-year letterman and team captain in 1986. During that same year, he was an NCAA Tournament qualifier in doubles, and earned all-conference honors in both singles and doubles. After graduating from Penn State, Hultquist turned pro, playing in the United States, Israel and Asia. During his career, Hultquist was selected to play on national teams that traveled to Korea and China for competition.

Hultquist is married to the former Angela White. The couple has four daughters, Devan, Avery, Addison, and Mackenzie and one son, Blake.

Entering his 13th season at Florida State, associate coach Nick Crowell continues to prove that he is one of the elite assistants in the country. While earning All-American honors in doubles play for the Longhorns, Crowell played for FSU head coach Dwayne Hultquist, who was an assistant coach at the time. Since Crowell's arrival, Florida State has reached the NCAA Championship every season and shattered several team records. In addition to his coaching duties, Crowell runs the Seminole High Performance tennis camps which help mold young players into champions.

In 2014-15, Crowell was honored for the third time in his career as the regional Assistant Coach of the Year after helping lead the Seminoles to its most wins since 2009 and a 21-9 doubles record. He also helped oversee the development of redshirt junior Benjamin Lock, who finished the season as the highest ranked Seminole (No. 48) since 2011, and the doubles team of Lock and Marco Nunez, who finished the year ranked No. 20 with a handful of high-profile wins.

In addition to his work with Lock and Nunez, he helped true freshmen Terrance and Terrell Whitehurst finish with an 18-8 doubles record. The Seminoles reached the NCAA second round for the first time since 2012 and compiled the most regular season wins (18) during his tenure.

During the 2010-11 season he helped coach Florida State's second doubles tandem to achieve All-American status in Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith. During the 2012-13 season he helped coach Dominic Cotrone and Blake Davis to No. 12 in the nation and a berth in the 2013 NCAA Doubles Championships. Crowell was named the 2013 ITA Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year for the second time.

Crowell has coached the Florida USTA Junior Under 18 team and in 2010 his team won the National Team Championship at the University of Illinois. This marked the first time since 1983 that the Florida team had won this prestigious tournament. His team's performance over the #1 and #3 ranked teams was described as one of the greatest upsets in 25 years. His coaching ability made good players believe they were great and for his efforts was named the USTA Florida Junior Coach of the Year.

A doubles specialist in college, Crowell helped mold several new Seminole duos in 2009. In a matter of months, Crowell helped turn Jean-Yves Aubone and Mirzadeh into a top 20 ranked team who upset the No. 1-ranked duo in the country from Wake Forest. The pair also earned a trip to the NCAA Doubles Championships in College Station, Texas. Crowell helped guide Drew Bailey and Maciek Sykut to 23 victories in 2008-09, including an upset win against the fourth-ranked team from Virginia.

After five years as assistant coach, in 2008 Crowell was elevated to the associate coach position at FSU. That same year, he took the duo of Aubone and Clint Bowles who had never played together and helped guide the pair to the second most doubles wins in school history in a single season (28). The pair also advanced to the second round of the NCAA doubles tournament, falling one win shy of All-American honors. In May 2006, Crowell was named the ITA Mideast Region Men's Tennis Assistant Coach of the Year and became a finalist for the national award.

The 2006 season found the Seminoles concluding the year with an 18-12 record with arguably the hardest strength of schedule in the nation. Florida State's 18 wins tied as the second-most victories in the 16 previous seasons. FSU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship and made the school's first four-peat appearance in the Big Dance since its run of five consecutive trips from 1994-98. Crowell was a big factor in the success of Ytai Abougzir, who became the first Seminole in 12 seasons to qualify for both the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championship.

Florida State not only earned the school's first invitation to the 2006 USTA/ITA National Men's Team Indoor Championship, but also garnered a respectable preseason ranking of No. 11 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

Early in his playing career at Texas, Crowell established himself as one of the top doubles players in the country. During his freshman season, he teamed up with Paul Martin to advance to the quarterfinals of the doubles draw at the NCAA Tournament, earning him his first All-American honor. That season he also earned the Big 12 Conference and ITA Region VI Freshman of the Year awards. His rookie of the year accolade from the league would be the first of many for Crowell. Starting his sophomore year, he earned all-conference honors his last three seasons in singles and doubles.

Finishing his career just as he started it, Crowell captured his second All-American honor during his senior season as he and playing partner Michael Blue advanced to the round of 16 at the NCAA Tournament. Earlier in the season, the two paired up to win the doubles title at the ITA National Indoor Tournament.

Under the legendary Dave Snyder at Texas, Crowell finished with 98 doubles victories in his career, including 29 with Martin as a freshman in 1997. Crowell also tallied 35 singles wins in 1997.

A native of Amarillo, Texas, Crowell is married to the former Lindsey Smith of Tallahassee and the couple have three children, daughter Brooklyn and sons Cash and Hays.

He ranked as high as No. 63 in singles and No. 46 in doubles in 2015. He was twice named to the Academic All-SEC team and was named the ITA Southern Region's Most Improved Player in 2015.

Prior to Mississippi State, Schmid was an All-American at Tyler Junior College, helping lead the Apaches to a national championship in 2013 and a championship appearance in 2012. He was named the Junior College Player to Watch at TJC and was the Flight 2 National Champion.

In Germany, Schmid was one of the top juniors in his age group, playing professional tournaments before beginning college.

The Seminoles have played in three different conferences as a men's tennis program: the Dixie Conference from 1948-1951, the Metro Conference from 1977-1991, and the ACC from 1992-present. From 1952-1976, the Seminoles were independent.

MARCO ABILHOA

Marco Abilhoa, a native of Brazil, was one of the great Florida State Seminole tennis players who made an impact on the collegiate scene. Prior to enrolling, he was ranked No. 3 in the Brazilian Juniors, when former Florida State head coach Randy Jobson discovered him.

A five-year member of the Seminole tennis program from 1980 through 1984, Abilhoa was at the top of the Metro Conference. He was the No. 1 singles and doubles champion in 1981 and 1982. Upon his return in 1984, Abilhoa went back to the place where he left off, at the top of the Metro Conference. His dominating presence earned him a record three Metro MVP awards in 1981, 1982 and 1984.

Marco Abilhoa

JEAN-YVES AUBONE

Singles All-American, 2008 & 2009

Jean-Yves Aubone stepped onto Florida State's campus for the 2006-2007 school year and left a legacy that will be forever etched in Seminole lore. The Miami native is Florida State's only two-time singles All-American and 2009's ACC Player of the Year. Aubone is a two-time All-ACC team member, two-time All-ACC Academic Team member and two-time honoree of the ACC Academic Honor Roll. In September of 2009, Aubone was ranked at No. 8 in singles, the highest in Florida State history. In 2008, Aubone and Clint Bowles teamed up to record the second-most doubles victories in a single season with 28 wins. He finished his career named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar Athlete of the Year.

DR. RAY BELLAMY

FSU Hall of Fame, 1992

His accolades go far beyond the tennis courts, yet Dr. Ray Bellamy's triumphs at the net still stand out as one of the best as he was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. He served as his team's captain in 1960 and 1961, and during those two years only lost a total of three matches.

After leaving FSU and joining the United States Navy, Bellamy went on to become the All-Navy doubles champion and played on the

All-Navy team in 1967 and 1968 while serving as a flight surgeon. After returning to Florida to begin his practice, Bellamy became the state's 35-and-over singles and doubles champion in the 1970's.

MAT CLOER

Singles All-American, 2005

Mat Cloer, a native of Brevard, N.C., became one of the greatest players in not only FSU history, but also conference history during his outstanding senior season in 2004-05. During that year, the two-time ACC Player of the Year became the first player in school history to earn All-American honors in singles. He also received the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, the first national award for any FSU men's tennis player. He finished his FSU campaign with 83 singles victories and 70 doubles wins. Cloer returned as an assistant coach at Florida State from 2007-11.

PAUL HAARHUIS

FSU Hall of Fame, 1993

Paul Haarhuis, the "Dutchman" from Eindhoven, The Netherlands, came to FSU in 1986 after transferring from Armstrong State College in Savannah, Ga. He went on to become one of the best tennis players ever to come out of FSU and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993. With the Seminoles, his first season was a true success as he went 35-5 in singles competition and 25-5 in doubles.

At one point, Haarhuis had 24 consecutive wins. Once his collegiate career was finished Haarhuis had a 70-10 overall singles record for his two years and consecutive Metro Conference MVP awards.

As successful as Haarhuis was for FSU, his career flourished even more once he turned professional in 1989. Through the 2003 season, Haarhuis had career earnings totaling over $77 million dollars. During his 14-year run on the ATP tour, Haarhuis amassed 54 doubles titles including six Grand Slam championships. He won the career Grand Slam with three French Open titles and one championship at Wimbledon, the US Open and Australian Open. He won his lone singles title in 1995 during an event in Jakarta.

DON LOUCKS

FSU Hall of Fame, 1985

After six decades of service to FSU athletics, Don Loucks was inducted into the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1985. In 1936, Loucks started off his relationship with FSU as the coach of every sport at the Florida State College for Women. He was the "pioneer" of many of the current athletic programs. In 1947, he was the first coach for the men's basketball team and a year later was named the first tennis coach. His hoops team scored the first victory for the newly-formed athletics program. His tennis team was the first to have a winning season, going 9-4.

Loucks served as Dean of Men from 1957 through 1967 and during this time, he served as a lead figure in the Seminole athletics program, as well as in the department of education. He retired from the athletics department in 1980 as professor emeritus in physical education. His dedication did not go unnoticed as the varsity tennis courts were renamed in his honor. The Scott Speicher Tennis Center was built around his courts.

VAHID MIRZADEH & CONNOR SMITH

Doubles All-Americans, 2011

Vahid Mirzadeh spent three years as a member of the tennis team and the last two as the captain of the team. Mirzadeh capped off his career as an All-American in doubles alongside Connor Smith. In 2011, he was also the second Seminole to receive the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Mirzadeh started his junior season ranked at No. 115 in the nation and worked his way to a career best of No. 21. In doubles play, he and Smith teamed up to play stellar tennis and boasted a 38-19 record together over two seasons. He was named to the ACC Honor Roll and Academic All-ACC Team all three seasons.

Vahid Mirzadeh

STEPHEN NOTEBOOM

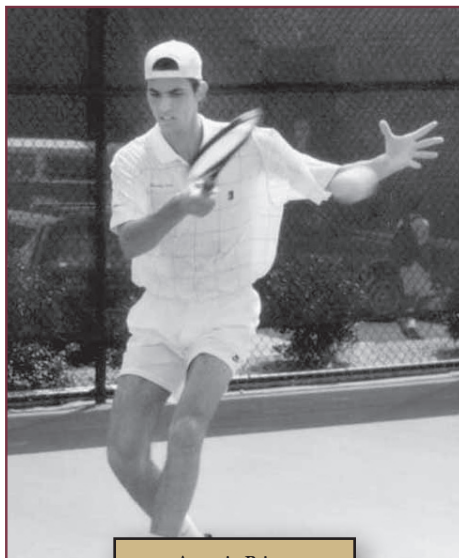

After earning NATA All-American honors at Huntington College in Montgomery, Ala., Stephen Noteboom was the second "Dutchman" to thrive at Florida State for the 1990-92 seasons.

Almost immediately making his presence known, Noteboom grabbed the Metro Conference's coveted MVP award for winning the title at No. 1 singles and doubles. That same year, he earned an invitation to the 1991 NCAA Championships for singles.

During his pro career, Noteboom captured a pair of doubles titles. He joined up with Fernon Wibier to win the Ordina Open. Two years later, he teamed up with Lan Bale to win the BMW Open.

ANTONIO PRIETO

Antonio Prieto, a native of Curitiba, Brazil, was an outstanding player during his time here at Florida State. His best year came in 1995 when he was an All-ACC performer, ACC Flight Champion in No. 2 doubles, and received an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. In 1996, his final season, he won the National Collegiate Tennis Classic. He turned pro in 1997 and had a successful doubles career, including an appearance in the 2001 Australian Open. He was consistently ranked in doubles throughout his career and posted a career best mark of 95th in the world during the 2000 season.

Antonio Prieto

JOEY RIVE

FSU Hall of Fame, 1999

Joey Rive, a West Palm Beach native, played for the Seminoles from 1981 through 1985. As one of the top players ever to compete at Florida State, Rive led the team in wins in 1983, 1984 and 1985. During his period at number one singles, he was nationally ranked among the Top 25.

His stellar performance for the Tribe resulted in three Metro Conference singles championships in 1983, 1984 and 1985 and two doubles championships in 1983 and 1985, including the conference's top crown, the MVP in 1985. His Metro success led to his invitation to the 1985 NCAA Tournament and to the 1987 Tennis Magazine Sportsman of the Year award.

Following his FSU career, Rive played the ATP tour where he reached as high as No. 57 in the world in 1988. He returned back to Tallahassee where he served as an assistant from 1993 to 1994. He is currently running his own collegiate tennis consulting company.

HAL SCHAUS

FSU Hall of Fame, 2015

Hal Schaus, from Mansfield, Ohio, was inducted into the Seminole Hall of Fame in September 2015. He played No. 1 singles throughout his time in Tallahassee and was the team captain from 1954-56. Schaus won over 75 percent of his matches for the Seminoles at a time when the university was beginning to play tougher opponents on a regular basis. His overall win percentage still remains in the Top 15 on FSU's all-time list. Schaus became the sixth member of the FSU Hall of Fame with a tennis connection.

BRIAN STANTON & KEN

MCKENZIE

Doubles All-Americans, 1995

Brian Stanton of Coral Springs and Ken McKenzie of Tallahassee finished up their playing careers with the Tribe in 1995. As a doubles team, the duo ended their final campaign earning collegiate tennis' top honor, an ITA All-America award.

The doubles pair received the 1995 accolade after a superb run in the NCAA Championships. What may be the most impressive feat for them was being ranked among the nation's top 10 doubles pairs throughout the season.

During his stay at FSU, Stanton won back to back Junior Davis Cup singles titles in 1993 and 1994, won the 1993 Junior Davis Cup in doubles, and was named to the All-ACC team his sophomore and junior seasons.

McKenzie left behind a void in doubles that was a great challenge to fill. He and Stanton guided No. 1 doubles to an impressive No. 3 national ranking, the highest ranking the program has ever received. He also was impressive on the singles side, earning ACC Flight Championships at No. 2 singles in 1994 and No. 3 singles in 1995.

MACIEK SYKUT

Maciek Sykut is one of a handful of successful Seminoles under the tutelage of head coach Dwayne Hultquist. From 2005-09, Sykut tallied 93 singles victories (second in school history) and 82 doubles victories (fifth). Combined, his 175 victories are good for third on the school's all-time wins list and the most for a Seminole in the past quarter-century.

Nationally, "Magic" ranked as high as No. 76 in singles in 2007. Playing with Andrew Bailey in 2009, the duo took down the No. 4 doubles team in the country from Virginia.

Professionally, Sykut reached as high as No. 145 in the world in doubles play in 2012. For his efforts at FSU his senior season, he was named to the All-ACC team.

JASON WHITE

Jason White finished his four-year run with the Seminoles in 1996, his best season as a player by far. As the top singles and doubles player, White was given a lot of responsibility as FSU's captain.

Even though he won the ACC Championship at No. 4 singles in 1994 and a pair of championships at No. 2 doubles in 1994 and 1995, White was still on top of ACC tennis in 1996. Nationally ranked for most of the year, the senior from Longwood received a bid to the 1996 NCAA Tournament after being edged out for the championships at No. 1 singles.

LEX WOOD

FSU Hall of Fame, 1982

In 1982, Lex Wood became the first player from the Florida State tennis program to be inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. He was a player for the Seminoles from 1963-64, then the program's head coach from 1965 through 1969.

When Wood arrived from his native South Africa in 1962, head coach Eddie Cubbon knew he had a leader amongst his new crop of tennis players. For the following three seasons he would become a mainstay among the nation's top 20 players, playing at No. 1 singles and doubles.

In 1963, his singles match record was 22-1 and his career mark was 51 victories in 54 singles matches. Over the course of his Florida State career, Wood defeated many great collegiate players including a former U.S. Davis Cup player, Marty Riessen. As head coach, his Seminoles went an impressive 81-33-1 during his tenure. His last two teams in 1968 and 1969 went 20-4 and 22-5-1 in dual match play, respectively.
