On Dixon

- * Few players in the collegiate ranks rival his improvement during his three-year career. Played at a career-low 340 pounds as a junior after entering Florida State at 420 pounds. Lost an incredible 80 pounds between his junior and senior seasons. "I ate a lot of chicken, turkey, rice and vegetables and crank a great deal of water," said Dixon who waist size shrank from 54 inches to 44. "I stayed away from soda, worked out every day and it (the weight) just steadily came off. I had to change my whole wardrobe. I threw a lot of clothes away."
- * Has never played football and began playing basketball in the eighth grade. Despite never having played the game he was recruited by both Florida and Clemson to play football
- * Three-year varsity letterwinner in basketball at Edgewater High School. Did not play football in high school.
- * Guided Edgewater to the state title game as a junior as team recorded a 30-5 record.
