FLORIDA STATE PLAYS IN SCHOOL RECORD EIGHTH-CONSECUTIVE POST SEASON TOURNAMENT; WINS PRESTIGIOUS COACHES VS. CANCER CLASSIC SNAER EARNS ALL-ACC HONORS FOR THIRD TIME IN CAREER

"I thought the learning experiences our players went through were valuable. I'm excited about moving forward with the nucleus we have. And the two guys that we have already signed bring in some very positive skills with them that I think will be very valuable. I can see the scenario setting up (for next season) and we're preparing ourselves to keep our program moving in the direction that we've been moving the last number of years."

FLORIDA STATE MAKES EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE POSTSEASON APPEARANCE

Florida State made its eighth consecutive postseason appearance, won the championship of the prestigious Coaches vs. Cancer Classic and finished with at least nine ACC wins for the school record fifth consecutive season as it finished with an 18-16 overall record and a 9-9 mark (sixth place) in ACC play. The Seminoles advanced to the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament for the seventh consecutive season -- the longest ongoing streak among the current 12 teams in the ACC and continued to play as the third winningest team in the ACC since the start of the 2005-06 season. The Seminoles were led by senior Michael Snaer, who averaged a team-leading and career-high 14.8 points, a team-leading and career-high 2.5 assists per game and a team leading 1.0 steals in leading the Seminoles to the postseason for the fourth time in his career.

SNAER EARNS ALL-ACC THIRD TEAM HONORS

Senior Michael Snaer was named to the All-ACC Third Team in 2013 by a vote of the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association -- marking the second consecutive season he has earned All-ACC honors. Snaer was an All-ACC Second Team selection in 2012 and was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team in 2010. Snaer averaged a career-high 14.8 points scored per game, ranked sixth in the ACC in free throw percentage, 10th in 3-point field goals made per game and 10th in the ACC in scoring.

SNAER NAMED TO ALL-ACC DEFENSIVE TEAM

Two-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer was named to the All-ACC Third Team and to the All-ACC Defensive Team in a vote by the league's 12 coaches. He was also named to the All-ACC Third Team by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. This is the first season the ACC coaches have selected an All-ACC team.

SNAER NAMED TO DEFENSIVE ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

Florida State senior Michael Snaer, who led the Seminoles to three NCAA Tournament appearances during his career, has been named to the 2013 Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American team sponsored by CollegeInsider.com. It marks the fourth consecutive season that at least one Seminole has been named to the prestigious All-American team; Snaer joins 2012 honoree Bernard James, 2010 and 2011 honoree Chris Singleton, and 2010 honoree Solomon Alabi as honorees, and makes Florida State the only program in the nation to have at least one player named to the Defensive All-American team in each of the last four seasons. Snaer, a three-time All-ACC selection (All-Freshman team in 2010, second team in 2012, third team in 2013), was named to the All-ACC Defensive team for the second consecutive season in 2013. He finished tied for the team lead with 33 steals and fourth on the team with 15 blocked shots and was one of two Seminoles with at least 30 steals and at least 15 blocked shots this past season.

FLORIDA STATE WINS COACHES VS. CANCER CLASSIC

Florida State won the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic with wins over BYU and St. Joseph's at the newly opened and spectacular Barclays Center in New York (Nov. 16 and 17, 2012). BYU advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and finished the season with a 26-9 overall record and a 12-4 finish in the WCC. Saint Joseph's finished the season with an 18-14 overall record and an 8-8 record in Atlantic 10 play. The Hawks played in the NIT where they lost to St. John's in the first round of the tournament.

SEMINOLES' TITLE IN COACHES VS. CANCER IS FOURTH IN LAST FIVE SEASONS

Florida State's championship in the 2012 Coaches' vs. Cancer Classic marked the third regular season tournament (and fourth overall) in the last five seasons for Leonard Hamilton's Seminoles. Hamilton guided the Seminoles to the titles at the 2008 Las Vegas Global Sports Classic Tournament and the 2009 Old Spice Classic along with the 2012 ACC Tournament championship. A total of three players -- Joey Moreau, Terrence Shannon, and Michael Snaer -- were members of three tournament championship teams during their careers (Old Spice, ACC and Coaches vs. Cancer).

SEMINOLES FINISH AS ACC LEADERS IN BLOCKED SHOTS

Florida State led the ACC in blocked shots with a 5.1 blocked shots per game average marking the near-ACC record fourth consecutive season the Seminoles have led the ACC in blocked shots. Junior Kiel Turpin led the Seminoles and ranked eighth in the ACC with a career-high 1.3 blocked shots per game average -- the fifth consecutive season at least one Florida State player has finished in the top 10 in blocked shots in the ACC statistics. The Seminoles have finished in the top two of the ACC team statistics in blocked shots in each of the last five seasons -- first in 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 and second in 2009.

SEMINOLES STARTED SEASON IN BOTH NATIONAL POLLS

Florida State was ranked No. 25 in the AP Poll and was tied for 24th in the USA Today Coaches' Poll prior to the 2012-13 season. It marked the first time in school history the Seminoles were included in the preseason polls by both the writers and the coaches in the same season.

SNAER NAMED MVP AT COACHES VS. CANCER

Senior All-American Michael Snaer – who was called the most well-rounded guard in the nation by Jeff Goodman of CBSSports.com – was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2012 Coaches vs. Cancer Classic after averaging 15.0 points and 7.0 rebounds in the semifinal and championship rounds of the tournament. For Snaer it was his second MVP award in as many tournaments after earning the honor in leading the Seminoles to the ACC Championship in 2012.

SNAER AND WHITE NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM AT COACHES VS. CANCER

Senior All-American Michael Snaer and junior Okaro White were both named to the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic All-Tournament team. For Snaer it marked his second All-Tournament team (also the 2012 ACC Tournament) – for White it was the first All-Tournament honor of his career. Snaer and White were named to the Coaches vs. Cancer All-Tournament team along with Tyler Hawes (BYU), Jack Cooley (Notre Dame) and Ronald Roberts (Saint Joseph's).

SEMINOLES PLAY IN SCHOOL RECORD EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT

Florida State played in the 2013 NIT marking the eighth consecutive season the Seminoles had played in the postseason. Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton is the first coach to lead Florida State to eight consecutive postseason appearances as the Seminoles have participated in the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 NCAA Tournaments and played in the NIT in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2013. Hamilton has guided nine of his first 11 Seminole teams into postseason play including a school record eight straight since the Seminoles played in the 2006 NIT.

ALL-AMERICAN SNAER HITS THE TRIFECTA

All-American Michael Snaer was named the Most Valuable Player of the Seminoles' win over Tulsa in the Orange Bowl Classic on December 29. The Seminole senior scored a game-high tying 19 points, pulled down six rebounds, was credited with four assists and three steals in 37 minutes played as the Seminoles topped the Golden Hurricane, 82-63, at the BB&T Center in Sunrise, Fla.

SNAER NAMED TO DEFENSIVE ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

Michael Snaer, was named to the 2013 Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American team sponsored by CollegeInsider.com. He was a two time ACC All-Defensive team selection and finished tied for the team lead with 33 steals and fourth on the team with 15 blocked shots and was one of two Seminoles with at least 30 steals and at least 15 blocked shots this past season. It marks the fourth consecutive season that at least one Seminole has earned the award to the Lefty Driesell All-American Defensive Team.

SNAER SCORES 30 IN WIN OVER CHARLOTTE

Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer scored his career high of 30 points to lead Florida State to its 79-76 win over Charlotte at the Time Warner Cable Arena on December 22. Snaer scored his career high 30 points as he tied his career high with five made 3-point field goals, made eight total field goals and was nine of 10 from the free throw line. Snaer became the first Seminole to score 30 points since Chris Singleton scored 30 in the Seminoles' 78-53 win over Gardner Webb in Tallahassee on November 16, 2010.

SNAER NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer, who was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2012 Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, was named the ACC Basketball Player of the Week by the ACC Office on Nov. 19, 2012. Snaer averaged 16.3 points, 5.6 rebounds and 3.3 assists while making nine of 16 shots from the 3-point line as he led Florida State to a 3-0 record and to the championship of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic. He recorded his second career double-double in the Seminoles' win over BYU and averaged 28.3 minutes played in the Seminoles' three wins during the week. It marked the second time in his career that he has earned the award.

THOMAS NAMED ACC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Florida State freshman guard Aaron Thomas, who averaged 17.0 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting .500 from the field (11 of 22) and .857 from the free throw line (12 of 14) as he played 68 total minutes (34.0 mpg) in two Seminole wins in December was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on December 24, 2012 -- an award he shared with Oliver Hanlan of Boston College. Thomas made the first start of his career (in Florida State's win over Louisiana Monroe), made seven consecutive free throws and scored 22 of his 34 points (65 percent) in the second halves of the Florida State's two wins.

MOREAU, PORTUONDO AND SNAER HONORED AT ANNUAL FLORIDA STATE BANQUET

Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer earned a team-high four awards including the Charlie Ward Most Outstanding Defensive Player and Bob Sura Most Outstanding Offensive Player awards as Head Coach Leonard Hamilton and his staff celebrated the 2012-13 Seminoles at the annual Men's Basketball Honors Banquet at the Tom and Ginny Futch Ballroom at the University Center Club. ## Florida State Men's Basketball By The Numbers

1 Junior Okaro White – one of the top defensive players in the ACC – finished his junior season with a career high 38 blocked shots and a career high 33 steals. Only White and Clemson's K.J. McDaniels totaled 30 or more blocked shots AND 30 or more steals in the ACC during the 2012-13 season.

1 Freshman Devon Bookert led the nation and was one of only eight players in college basketball who shot 50 percent or better from the 3-point line during the 2012-13 season. He shot .529 percent from the bonusphere during his first season as a Seminole.

1 Florida State ranked first in the ACC and 26th nationally in blocked shots with a 5.1 blocked shots per game average during the 2012-13 season.

1 Junior Okaro White was the only Seminole to start each of the Seminoles' 34 games during the 2012-13 season.

2 Florida State finished second in the ACC and 45th nationally with a .735 free throw shooting percentage.

4 Two-time ACC All-Defensive team selection Michael Snaer was named to the Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American team in 2013. It marked the fourth consecutive season that at least one Seminole has earned the award; Snaer joined 2012 honoree Bernard James, 2010 and 2011 honoree Chris Singleton and 2010 honoree Solomon Alabi and makes Florida State the only program in the nation to have at least one player named to the Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American team in each of the last four seasons.

4 Devon Bookert finished fourth among freshmen in the ACC with a 2.4 assists per game average.

6 Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer is recognized as the all-time NCAA leader with six career buzzer-beating, game-winning shots during his career – two during his junior season (Jan. 21, 2102 at Duke and Feb. 16, 2012 at home against Virginia Tech) and four during his senior season (Jan. 24, 2013 at home against Clemson, Jan. 30, 2013 at home against Maryland, Feb. 5, 2013 at Georgia Tech and March 7, 2013 at home against Virginia).

6 Florida State was 6-1 during the 2012-13 season when it made 20 or more free throws in a game. The Seminoles made 24 free throws in their ACC Tournament win over Clemson, made 26 free throws in their 76-62 win over Wake Forest (February 26) and made 22 in their win over 71-67 win over NC State (March 9).

7 Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer scored in double figures in each of the final seven games of his career and averaged 18.0 points per game from February 26 through the end of the 2012-13 season.

FLORIDA STATE LEADS ACC IN BLOCKED SHOTS IN LAST FIVE SEASONS

Led by junior Kiel Turpin, who ranked eighth in the ACC in blocked shots, the Seminoles led the ACC in blocked shots for the school record fourth consecutive season during the 2012-13 season. The Seminoles have led the ACC in blocked shots each season since 2010 and are the overall blocked shots leaders in the ACC in the last five seasons. Florida State has totaled 990 blocked shots since the beginning of the 2008-09 season and average nearly 6.0 blocked shots per game in their 170 games since the start of that season. Florida State leads the ACC in total blocked shots (990 / 44 more than North Carolina) and is only of only two schools (also North Carolina) that averages more than five blocked shots per game in each of the last five seasons..

ACC Blocked Shots Leaders – Last 5 Seasons

Team	Games	Blocks	BPG
Florida State	170	990	5.8
North Carolina	186	946	5.1
Clemson	160	764	4.8
Maryland	171	754	4.4
Duke	184	741	4.0

SEMINOLES APPROACHING ACC RECORD

Florida State has led the ACC in blocked shots in each of the last four seasons. The ACC record for consecutive seasons leading the ACC in blocked shots is five by Maryland from 2000 through 2004. Only Florida State (four consecutive years, 2010-13) and Maryland (five consecutive years, 2000-04) have led the ACC in blocked shots in at least four consecutive seasons.

AN INCREDIBLE DEFENSIVE PERFORMANCE BY THE SEMINOLES

Florida State recorded a season-high 13 blocked shots (nine in the second half) and 10 steals (five in the second half) in its 65-62 win over Maryland on January 9, 2012. The Seminoles' 13 blocked shots were their most since sending back 15 shots in their win over Virginia Tech on January 10, 2012 and was the third highest total in an ACC game in school history. The Seminoles' 10 steals marked the fourth time in the last two seasons that the Seminoles had earned at least 10 steals in an ACC game. It also marked the second time in the Seminoles' now illustrious ACC history that they had earned double figures in blocked shots and steals. Florida State totaled 11 blocked shots and 10 steals in an 88-63 win over Virginia on February 28, 1998 in Tallahassee.

FLORIDA STATE FINISHES SECOND IN ACC IN FREE THROW SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

Florida State finished second in the ACC in free throw shooting percentage with a .735 mark during the 2012-13 season. The Seminoles were one of only five teams in the ACC to shoot better than .500 percent from the line for the season and led the ACC until the Blue Devils' 24 of 26 performance (.923 percent) from the free throw line against Michigan State in the Sweet 16 of the 2013 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles finished third in the ACC in free throws made (behind only Duke, 588, and NC State, 554) and were one of only three teams in the ACC that made 500 or more free throws during the season. The Seminoles finished fifth in the ACC in free throws attempted (behind only NC State, 813, Duke, 796, Maryland, 732 and Wake Forest, 722) and were one of only five teams in the league that attempted 700 or more free throws during the season.

SEMINOLES RANKED SECOND IN ACC IN FREE THROW SHOOTING IN LAST FIVE SEASONS

Florida State is ranked second in the ACC with a .715 free throw shooting percentage over the course of the last five seasons. The Seminoles are one of only three ACC teams (also Duke and Maryland) who have shot better than .700 percent from the free throw line since the start of the 2008-09 season and rank behind only the Blue Devils (by less than two percentage points) in combined free throw shooting percentage in the last five seasons.

ACC Free Throw Shooting Percentage Leaders – Last 5 Seasons

Team	FTM	FTA	Pct.
Duke	4,166	5,671	.734
Florida State	3,471	4,853	.715
Maryland	3,646	5,128	.710
North Carolina	2,958	4,291	.689
Wake Forest	3,456	5,017	.688

SEMINOLES CONTINUE TO WIN THE CLOSE ONES

Florida State led the ACC with 10 of their 18 wins coming by five points or less. The Seminoles are an ACC-leading 17-3 (.850 winning percentage) in the last two seasons when winning by five points or less. Florida State earned eight of its nine ACC wins during the 2012-13 regular season by five points or less – with its only win by more than five points coming against Wake Forest (76-62, +14) on February 26 in Tallahassee.

8 Redshirt junior Kiel Turpin finished eighth in the ACC in blocked shots during the 2012-13 season as he helped Florida State lead the ACC in blocked shots for the school record fourth consecutive season. He averaged a team-high 1.3 blocked shots per game.

8 Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer finished his career with 1,560 points as he became only the 10th player in school history to score 1,500 or more career points.

9 Leonard Hamilton has guided nine of his last 13 teams – including six of his last eight at Florida State – to at least 20 wins.

9 Leonard Hamilton has taken nine of his 11 teams at Florida State to the postseason including four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2009-12.

9 Led by junior Okaro White, who started all of the Seminoles 34 games during the 2012-13 season, a total of nine different Seminoles started at least five games and seven Seminoles started at least 10 games. Florida State was one of only five teams in the ACC that had at least nine different players start at least one game and the only team that had at least seven players start at least 10 games.

10 Florida State was 10-5 in games decided by five points or less with eight of those wins coming in ACC regular season play.

12 Junior Kiel Turpin blocked at least one shot in 12 of the Seminoles' final 15 games of the season with a career-high tying four blocked shots coming in the Seminoles' win over Wake Forest on February 26, 2013.

13 Florida State's 13 blocked shots in its win over Maryland on January 9 were the most in a single game by any ACC team during the 2012-13 season.

18 Florida State was undefeated, 18-0, when it outscored its opponent during the 2012-13 season.

24 Junior Okaro White led the Seminoles as he scored in double figures in a career-high 24 games during the 2012-13 season. He scored in double figures 12 times in 18 regular season ACC games.

26 Three-time All-ACC selection Michael Snaer made 26 of his last 27 free throw attempts (.963 percent) in the final eight games of his career.

THREE MORE PLAYERS GRADUATE

Three more Seminoles under Leonard Hamilton – Michael Snaer, Joey Moreau and Ralfi Portuondo all earned their degrees from Florida State in May of 2013. Of the 40 players who have played under Hamilton at Florida State through their senior seasons, 98 percent (39 of 40) have earned their degrees since the 2002-03 season.

SEMINOLES RALLY FROM HALFTIME DEFICIT TO WIN SIX TIMES DURING 2012-13 SEASON

Florida State rallied from a five point halftime deficit (35-30, -5) to win for the sixth time this season when it trailed at halftime in defeating Clemson in the first round of the ACC Tournament on March 14, 2013. Included in those six wins were come-from-behind victories over Maryland (January 9, down 36-27 at halftime, won 65-62), against Clemson (January 24, down 29-21 at halftime, won 60-57 on a buzzer beating 3-point shot by Michael Snaer), at Georgia Tech (February 5, down 27-26 at halftime, won 56-54 on a buzzer beating lay-up by Snaer), against NC State (March 9, down 35-34 at halftime, won 71-67) and against Clemson in the ACC Tournament (down 35-30 at halftime, won 73-69 on four late game free throws by Michael Snaer). The Seminoles also defeated Charlotte (down 40-35 at halftime, won 79-76 at the Time Warner Cable Arena in Charlotte on December 22, 2012).

SEMINOLES SWEEP CLEMSON

Florida State defeated Clemson three times during the 2012-13 season – at Clemson (January 5, 71-66), at Florida State (January 24, 60-57) and in the ACC Tournament (March 14, 73-69) to mark the first time the Seminoles had defeated the Tigers in three games during a single season.

SNAER SURPASSES 1,500 CAREER POINTS MARK

Senior Michael Snaer closed his 134-game career with 1,560 points and an 11.6 points per game scoring average. He became only the 10th player in school history to score 1,500 or more career points when he surpassed the milestone on March 9, 2013 in the Seminoles' win over NC State in the final game of the regular season. Snaer surpassed Seminole great and NBA legend, Dave Cowens, to move into 10th place on FSU's all-time scoring list on March 7, 2013 vs. Virginia.

Freshman Devon Bookert finished the 2012-13 season as the only ACC player who earned extended minutes to shoot better than .500 percent from the 3-point arc (.525) and better than .800 percent from the free throw line (.818). His 32 3-point shots made rank as the fifth highest total by a freshman in school history while his 61 3-point field goal attempts is tied as the eighth highest total by a freshman in school history. Bookert the first player in school history to shoot above .500 percent from the 3-point line in a single season (32 of 61, .525 percent) and only the second player in school history to shoot at least .500 percent from the 3-point line in a single season in school history (Andrew Wilson, 41 of 82, .500 percent, 2006).

BOOKERT INTO THE SEMINOLES STARTING LINE-UP

Freshman Devon Bookert moved into the starting line-up on February 13, 2013 against No. 3 Miami and averaged 28.9 minutes, 9.4 points and 2.8 assists as a starter in the final 11 games of the season – all of which he was the starter at the point guard position for the Seminoles.

TURPIN -- LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Junior center Kiel Turpin takes after his father Mel, who played for Kentucky from 1981-84. Kiel finished the 2013 season as the Seminoles' leader and ranked eighth in the ACC with a 1.3 blocked shots per game average. Mel is second in career blocked shots at Kentucky with 123 career blocked shots and a 1.8 blocked shots per game average during his career. Mel led the Wildcats in blocked shots with 67 in 1982 and 83 in 1983. Kiel led Lincoln College in Illinois in blocked shots as a freshman (2.0 bpg) and as a sophomore (2.3 bpg). Besides the father-son relationship, both Kiel and Mel were recruited by and coached by Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton in college.

Quoting Florida State Men's Basketball

"Michael Snaer is the Seminoles' leader and their star."

Dave O'Brien
ESPN
January 12, 2012

"I just felt the sense of urgency (against Maryland). I would say my confidence is probably at an all-time high since I've been at Florida State. The thing is you can't just have one good game — you have to keep it going."

Okaro White
Florida State University
January 11, 2013

"Okaro White was a good player his first two seasons at Florida State, but now he's developing into his own. At 6-foot-8, he is athletic and defends well. He has moves like a small forward, is agile and is able to drive or shoot from the outside. But he also has the skills of a power forward, with the ability to create points in the low post."

Bob Ferrante
Fox Sports
January 11, 2013

"I just call myself a forward without any name in front of it right now. Eventually, if I'm allowed to take that next step to the NBA, I might be a 3 (small forward), but I still might be a 4 (power forward). It doesn't matter. Wherever I can be used and have the best opportunity to produce for my team."

Okaro White
Florida State University
January 11, 2013

"Michael Snaer is a very good foul shooter — among the many things he does well."

Dave O'Brien
ESPN
January 12, 2013

"I think that's (Okaro White's versatility) a big asset for him because he's not one-dimensional. You have a 4-man that can play a little 3, shoot from the perimeter, can post you up or use his quickness. I think that makes it difficult for people to guard."

Corey Williams
Florida State University
January 11, 2013

"Michael Snaer is one of the best players not only in the ACC, but in the country."

Dan Bonner
ACC Network/CBS
January 5, 2013

"It was their stinginess defensively that got Florida State back in the game on the road against Maryland."

Doris Burke
ESPN
January 12, 2013

"If you want to know who Florida State is going to look to in big moments — it's this guy. He's as tough as they come. It's fun to watch Michael Snaer play ball."

NOTING TURPIN'S BLOCKED SHOTS

Junior Kiel Turpin blocked multiple shots in 14 different games including three in three different games and a career high four in wins over Clemson (January 24) and Wake Forest (February 26) during the 2013 season.

BOJANOVSKY AMONG FRESHMAN BLOCKED SHOTS LEADERS IN THE ACC

Freshman Boris Bojanovsky finished the 2013 season ranked third on the team and fifth among freshmen in the ACC in total blocked shots with 25. He played in 33 of the Seminoles' 34 games and blocked multiple shots in eight different. Bojanovsky's career high of four blocked shots came in the Seminoles' victory at Maryland (January 9) while three each coming against Wake Forest (February 26) and North Carolina (March 3).

The ACC's Top Freshman Blockers

Rank	Player, School	Blocks	BPG
1.	Devin Thomas, Wake Forest	42	1.40
2.	Justin Anderson, Virginia	32	1.20
3.	Robert Carter, Jr., Georgia Tech	31	1.00
4.	Aaron Rountree, Wake Forest	28	0.96
5.	Boris Bojanovsky, Florida State	25	0.76

MORE ON BOJANOVSKY'S BLOCKED SHOTS

Boris Bojanovsky's 25 blocked shots during the 2013 season are the ninth most by a freshman in school history. Only nine freshman in school history have blocked 25 or more shots in their first season at Florida State.

BRANDON PLAYS WELL AS A FRESHMAN

Freshman Montay Brandon, who played in 33 of the Seminoles' 34 games with 22 starting assignments, was one of four Seminoles who started at least 22 games in 2013. After having started 22 consecutive games at the point guard position, Brandon became an effective player coming off the bench. His play against Virginia in the Seminoles' victory over the Cavaliers on March 7 was a clear illustration that Brandon grew comfortable with the Seminoles' offensive and defensive philosophies by the end of the season. Against the Cavaliers, he played 27 minutes as a wing guard and was credited with one assist and more importantly — zero turnovers. He performed well with his extensive ball handling responsibilities as head coach Leonard Hamilton remarked that Brandon's ability to effectively move the basketball and hound Virginia's Joe Harris on defense (he scored only 14 points) were two of the primary reasons for the extended playing time earned by the freshman.

Brandon's Minutes Played Chart

Games	Minutes	MPG	Notes
Last 5	116	22.3	8 points scored in Florida State's ACC Tournament win over Clemson
Middle 5	43	8.6	3 points scored in home win over Boston College (February 16)
First 23	493	21.4	Double figure scoring against South Alabama and Saint Joseph's

THOMAS PLAYS WELL IN HIS FIRST CAREER ACC TOURNAMENT

Freshman Aaron Thomas scored 13 points (6.5 points per game) on .500 percent shooting from the field (five of 10) and a perfect 1.000 shooting from the free throw line (two of two) in his first career ACC Tournament in 2013. He scored eight points against North Carolina in the quarterfinals and five points in the Seminoles' win over Clemson in the first round of the tournament.

MILLER NOT A FULL SPEED

Junior Ian Miller played in 30 of the Seminoles' 34 games but was never rally at full speed during the season because of an injury to his right foot. He missed virtually the entire month of December and did not practice with the Seminoles during the final three months of the season before having a cast placed on his foot and not playing in Florida State's game against Louisiana Tech in the NIT. He is fully healed and will be ready for the 2013-14 season. Miller suffered a bone bruise on his right foot in a practice in late November and because of the Seminoles' game schedule he was never able to properly allow it to heal during the season. He had the foot placed in a cast on March 18 and wore the cast until April 16 when he immediately began daily workouts.

SHANNON RETURNS AFTER MISSING 11 GAMES WITH AN INJURY

Junior Terrance Shannon, who missed 11 games during the 2013 season with a neck injury (January 24 against Clemson through February 26 against Wake Forest), scored 12 points and earned 29 minutes of playing time in the Seminoles' win over Clemson in the first round of the ACC Tournament on March 14. His 12 points marked the eighth time this season he had scored in double figures and the first time since opening night against South Alabama (November 9) that he had earned 29 minutes or more of playing time. Shannon tied his career high against South Alabama with 30 minutes played — meaning he came only one minute short of tying his career high for minutes played against Clemson.

WHISNANT'S INCREASED NUMBERS

Sophomore Terry Whisnant averaged a career-high 5.2 points while making a career-high 32 3-point field goals and shooting a career-high .356 from the 3-point line while playing in a career-high 30 games and earning a career-high 19 starting assignments in his second and final season with the Seminoles. He was a starter in Florida State's season opener against South Alabama and the fifth game of the season against North Florida then started 17 consecutive games from December 2 against Mercer through February 19 against Wake Forest. Whisnant more than doubled his scoring average as a sophomore (5.2 ppg) as compared to his freshman season (2.1 ppg) as he more than doubled his playing time from 7.2 mpg as a freshman to 17.2 mpg as a sophomore.

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 83,
Lincoln Memorial 75

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Junior Okaro White scored a game-high 19 points and All-American Michael Snaer scored 12 to lead No. 24 Florida State to an 83-75 victory over Lincoln Memorial at the Donald L. Tucker Center in its first of two exhibition games as the Seminoles prepare to defend the ACC Championship they won in 2012. The Seminoles never trailed and led by as many as 17 points in taking the victory over the visiting Railsplitters. White scored the first three points of the game on his first of four made 3-point shots with only 20 seconds expired on the clock. He added two more free throws as the Seminoles scored the first seven points of the game and led by 10 with just over one minute elapsed in the game. White added a second 3-pointer to up the Seminoles' lead to 10-2 at the 18:08 mark. White finished the game making five of six shots from the field, four of five from the 3-point line and finishing a nearly perfect five of six from the free throw line. Florida State upped its lead to as many as 17 with 5:24 remaining before halftime but the visiting Railsplitters refused to go quietly into the Tallahassee night. They cut into the Seminoles' 50-37 halftime lead and were within four points with under two minutes remaining before the Seminoles scored six of the final eight points of the game.

Exhibition 2 -- Florida State 65,
Saint Leo 56

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Junior Okaro White scored a game-high 16 points and pulled down 10 rebounds and senior All-American Michael Snaer scored 11 points and was credited with five assists to lead No. 24 Florida State to a 65-56 win over Saint Leo in the Seminoles' second and final exhibition game at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Florida State took its first lead of the game on a lay-up by junior guard Ian Miller which made the score 8-7; the Seminoles did not trail in the game after Miller's basket. Miller's lay-up began a 13-0 Seminole run which vaulted the Seminoles to a 19-7 lead with 11:53 left in the first half. The Seminoles would stretch their lead to as many as 14 in the first half and led 35-28 at the intermission. White scored 11 first half points to rank as the only player to score in double figures in the first half. Florida State opened the second half on a 13-6 run to push its lead back to 14 points at 48-34 with 14:04 left in the game. Junior Terrance Shannon led the Seminoles with four points on a dunk and a lay-up during the run to open the half. The Seminoles maintained as much as a 12 point lead during the remainder of the game before Saint Leo scored six of the final nine points of the game to cut the final margin to nine points.

Game 2 -- Florida State 95,
Buffalo 68

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State pulled away with an 8-0 run in the early moments to lead 18-6 and never trailed in the ballgame and defeated Buffalo, 95-68, in the second round of the Coaches vs. Cancer Tournament at the Donald L. Tucker Center. The Bulls pulled to within a 66-58 score midway through the second half before a Kiel Turpin fire throw and Montay Brandon dunk put the 'Noles back on top by double digits. The Seminoles closed out the game on a 31-12 run. Senior leader Michael Snaer led all players with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range while Okaro White's 2-for-2 shooting from long range was part of a night that saw him finish a perfect 5-for-5 from the field for 13 points. Freshman Aaron Thomas added 10 points for an FSU team that shot 59.6 percent from the field. Terrance Shannon and Terry Whisnant had nine points apiece and Brandon finished with eight. After not playing in the opener, freshman point guard Devon Bookert made his collegiate debut off the bench and finished with three points. Fourteen players competed for the Seminoles and all but two of them scored in the 95-point effort. To put that total in to perspective, FSU scored at least 90 points just once a season ago.

BROOKLYN, N.Y. - Reserve forward Terrance Shannon scored 15 points - 11 in the final 13:45 - and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead Florida State to a 73-66 victory over Saint Joseph's in the championship game of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at Barclays Center. After Saint Joseph's got within 63-60, Shannon scored six straight points, two on a goaltending down low, two on a long layup after a missed 3 by the Hawks and on a vicious rebound dunk with 2:14 left that made it 69-61. Okaro White added 16 points for the Seminoles (3-1) while tournament MVP Michael Snaer had 14. Carl Jones, making his first appearance of the season after serving a three-game suspension for a "violation of the University community standards," finished with 13 points. The Hawks' leading scorer he past two seasons had half of their four 3-pointers as they struggled from beyond the arc.

Game 5 -- Florida State 75, North Florida 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Michael Snaer scored 17 of his 21 points in the second period as Florida State won its fourth consecutive game with a 75-67 win over North Florida. Florida State led 16-3 in the game's early moments but saw that lead slip to a 32-24 score at halftime. Then midway through the second half, FSU had its biggest lead of the night -- a 14-point advantage -- but UNF's timely triples from long range kept the game within two possessions throughout much of the contest. Despite that, Snaer still kept UNF at bay with his defense and clutch free-throw shooting. The senior finished the night 9-of-10 from the free-throw line while hitting 50 percent of his field goals and adding eight rebounds and two blocks. Okaro White also missed just one from the charity stripe and scored 15 points to go along with nine rebounds and two steals. Terrance Shannon had 12 points and a team-high four steals and Terry Whisnant, who started in place of the injured Ian Miller added eight points. Freshman Devon Bookert paced the team with four assists but FSU only had eight as a team in that category after excelling at sharing the basketball over the past three games. FSU outscored UNF 34-18 in the paint and registered 18 points off 15 takeaways. The 'Noles had 17 turnovers of their own. Parker Smith's 20 points led North Florida.

Game 6 -- Minnesota 77, Florida State 68

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Joe Coleman scored 16 points, Rodney Williams added 14 and No. 21 Minnesota beat defending Atlantic Coast Conference champion Florida State 77-68 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Coleman made 8 of 13 field goals and had 12 points in the second half while helping the Gophers build a 58-37 lead midway through. Austin Hollins added 13 points and Andre Hollins had 12 for the Gophers, who never trailed. Elliott Eliason had 10 rebounds. Minnesota led 38-25 at halftime and by as many as 21 points in the second half. Reserve Terrance Shannon led Florida State with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Michael Snaer finished with 12 points for Florida State despite making only 3 of 9 from the field. Terry Whisnant and Okaro White both had 10 points for the Seminoles. Minnesota jumped to a 7-0 lead and built its biggest lead in the half at 35-20 on Austin Hollins' 3-pointer with 2:56 left in the half. Andre Hollins' 3 made it 30-19 with 6:22 remaining and the Gophers held a double-digit lead for most of the game.

Game 9 -- Florida State 91, Maine 59

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State earned a convincing 91-59 victory over visiting Maine to successfully halt a three-game losing streak while also showing significant improvement in the multitude of areas that had plagued the Seminoles. While turning back the Black Bears, the Seminoles showed the ability to share the basketball, protect the basketball and take away the basketball. Michael Snaer led all scorers with 19 against Maine but he wasn't the only Seminole to shoot for double figures. Playing significant minutes because of an injury to Ian Miller, freshman guard Aaron Thomas poured in a career-high 15 points while sophomore Terry Whisnant added 14. Okaro White chipped in for 13 points and a team-high seven rebounds as well. Robert Gilchrist added seven points and freshman Devon Bookert had seven points of his own and contributed with five of Florida State's 16 total assists. The 16-to-7 assist-to-turnover ratio was quite the improvement after Florida State managed a 7-to-22 mark in the loss to Florida. The seven turnovers against the Black Bears were a season low for the Seminoles with only one coming in the second half.

Game 10 -- Florida State 63, Louisiana-Monroe 48

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Okaro White posted a double-double and the Florida State men's basketball team emerged from finals week with a 63-48 victory over Louisiana-Monroe. The Seminoles benefitted from White's team highs in points (19) and rebounds (11) and by a large discrepancy in free throw attempts and makes to gain the win. Florida State finished the game with 20 converted free throws on 24 attempts while ULM went to the line just six times and made three of them. White was 3-of-9 from the field and 1-of-4 from 3-point range, but finished the contest 12-of-13 from the free throw line. Freshman Aaron Thomas poured in a career-best 17 points to go along with six rebounds. Fellow freshman Devon Bookert was impressive leading the offense and posted a team-high four assists to go along with his 10 points. Montay Brandon added seven points and Kiel Turpin and Terrance Shannon each had five rebounds.

Game 14 -- Florida State 71, Clemson 66

CLEMSON, S.C. - Okaro White scored 15 points, including two on a highlight reel dunk for the ages in the second half, to lead Florida State to a 71-66 victory over Clemson in the ACC opener for both teams. The victory gave the Seminoles a much-needed ACC win to start the conference slate of games and put them back in the win column. It was White's defensive play at the end of the ballgame that will be the lasting memory of his performance. Florida State led 38-25 at halftime but Clemson battled back to within a 66-63 score thanks to a strong second half. Down by just three and in possession of the basketball, White stole the inbounds pass from the corner with 16.9 seconds on the game clock before quickly being fouled and hitting two free throws. Then, after White's free throws had pushed FSU's lead to 68-63, Ian Miller nabbed the ensuing inbounds pass and sank 1-of-2 free throws before Clemson's Milton Jennings drilled a 3-pointer with four seconds left to cut FSU's lead back to just three at 69-66. Terrance Shannon, who led the Seminoles with eight rebounds and was 5-of-7 from the line, then sank two game-sealing free throws for the FSU victory. Shannon finished the game with 11 points and Miller added seven. Michael Snaer didn't score in the first half despite FSU's strong start to the game but finished with eight points, including a 3-pointer to start the second half that had given FSU a 16-point lead at the time. Terry Whisnant was 3-for-5 from 3-point range and had 11 points of his own.

Game 15 -- Florida State 65, Maryland 62

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Okaro White scored 15 consecutive points for Florida State to fuel a second-half comeback that lifted the Seminoles past Maryland 65-62 at the Comcast Center ending the Terrapins' 13-game winning streak. Florida State rallied from a 12-point deficit to defeat the cold-shooting Terrapins, who went 10 for 32 from the floor in the second half. White finished with a career-high-tying 20 points, Michael Snaer scored 15 and Ian Miller added 12 for the Seminoles. Alex Len had 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Nick Faust scored 14 for Maryland. Down by nine at halftime and 39-27 with 18 minutes to go, the Seminoles got five points from Snaer in a 12-2 run that cut the deficit to 43-42 with 13 minutes left. After that, White took over. The 6-foot-8 junior scored on dunks, follow shots and drives before sinking two free throws to make it 57-51 in favor of Florida State. Maryland, meanwhile, went nearly seven minutes without a point until Logan Aronhalt connected from beyond the arc with 7:54 remaining. But the Terrapins never led after a three-point play by White made it 53-51 with 4:05 to go. It was 59-51 before Maryland fought to 61-59 with 19 seconds left. Devon Bookert then made two free throws for Florida State, but Faust answered with a 3 to get the Terrapins within a point. After Snaer converted one of two foul shots, Seth Allen had a jumper blocked by Snaer and White, appropriately, finished the scoring with a free throw.

Game 16 -- North Carolina 77, Florida State 72

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - North Carolina defeated Florida State with a 77-72 victory thanks primarily to a rebounding edge that favored the Tar Heels, 41-19. Included in that total was 19 offensive rebounds off 31 missed shots. Okaro White scored 15 points and pulled down six rebounds and Terrance Shannon had 12 points and a career-high three blocks for the Seminoles. Terry Whisnant scored 14 points on 50 percent shooting from the field and a 4-for-7 mark from 3-point land. Florida State made 11 3-pointers in the game. Aaron Thomas added two of those triples and finished with six points. Kiel Turpin also had six points and Montay Brandon added seven points and posted a team-high four assists along with Snaer. For North Carolina, P.J. Hairston led the way with 23 points while James McAdoo and Reggie Bullock added 14 and 12, respectively. The Tar Heels shot 48 percent from the field but never led by more than six points.

Clemson. Eleven months after drilling a game-winner against Virginia Tech from nearly the exact same spot on the floor (coincidentally, his game-winner at Duke last year was also from that spot), "Big-Shot Snaer" did it once again. In what was his best game as a Seminole, Kiel Turpin capped off a 15-4 run in the second half with a pair of free throws to tie the game at 44-44 with a little more than six minutes left in the ballgame. The redshirt junior finished the game with a career-best and team-high 16 points -- all of which were registered in the second half -- as one of four Seminoles that scored in double figures. He also notched four of FSU's nine blocks. Snaer finished with 11 points but his final five tallies were the most important. His runner off the backboard made it a 55-54 Clemson lead with 1:27 remaining on the game clock and his Tiger-taming triple at the horn came on the heels of a Devon Booker 3-pointer that had knotted the score at 57-57 following an FSU timeout. Bookert finished the night with 11 points and just one turnover. Okaro White posted 10 points despite battling with foul trouble most of the night. Aaron Thomas added five points for FSU. Devin Booker and K.J. McDaniels scored 15 points apiece for the Tigers, who lost 71-66 to FSU in both team's ACC opener earlier this month.

CORAL GABLES, Fla.- The Florida State men's basketball couldn't get past streaking No. 25 Miami as the Seminoles fell to the Hurricanes, 71-47. Junior Ian Miller led Florida State with a team-high 12 points and was the only player in a garnet uniform to score in double figures. Okaro White, who fouled out of the game with six minutes remaining in the second half, finished with six points and so, too, did Aaron Thomas. Terry Whisnant and Boris Bojanovsky added five points apiece. Robert Gilchrist led the way with five rebounds. Trey McKinney Jones' 15 points led a Miami team that shot 42.9 percent from the field and 36.4 percent from 3-point range. The Hurricanes had 26 rebounds to Florida State's 23.

Game 20 -- Florida State 73, Maryland 71

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - All-American Michael Snaer hit his fourth career buzzer-beating 3-point shot with 1.1 seconds remaining in the Seminoles' 73-71 win over Maryland. Snaer finished the game with a team-high 19 points on 7-of-13 shooting from the field and 3-of-6 shooting from 3-point range. Okaro White added 14 points thanks to 10-for-10 shooting from the free-throw line and Miller contributed 10 of his own. Boris Bojanovsky had eight points and Terry Whisnant had seven. Michael Ojo had his best game as a Seminole, playing a career-best 14 minutes while adding two points and several never-before-seen hustle plays. As a team, FSU shot 45.8 percent from the field and 29.4 percent from long distance. Despite out-rebounding the 'Noles 36-20, shooting nearly 50 percent from the floor and getting a few late-game big shots from Dez Wells, who poured in 19 points, the Terrapins still saw their eight-point second-half lead disappear in their second loss to Florida State this season. Credit Florida State's forcing of Maryland to commit 16 turnovers with helping make that happen. The Seminoles also only had six giveaways of their own. Trailing 62-54 midway through the second half, the Seminoles generated a 6-0 run to climb to within a 62-60 score before trading baskets with the visitors. Following a monster Kiel Turpin slam, Miller's jumper tied the game at 66-66 with 2:30 left to play. Wells then hit a 3-pointer to put the Terps up before White grabbed a defensive rebound and Snaer's hook hit nothing but net and cut Maryland's advantage to 71-70 with 45 seconds left on the clock. The 'Noles then called a timeout to set up the game-winning play after White and Alex Len forced a jump-ball after the latter missed an alley-oop dunk attempt with the possession arrow facing the Florida State bench.

Game 21 -- Duke 79, Florida State 60

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Seth Curry scored 21 points, Quinn Cook added 18 and fifth-ranked Duke cruised to a 79-60 win over Florida State. The Blue Devils were crisp from the opening tip until the final horn, blowing past the defending Atlantic Coast Conference champions. It was hard to miss the pinpoint shooting of Duke's backcourt. Curry and Cook combined for 39 points and together were 9-of-13 from beyond the 3-point arc. They effectively took Florida State out of the game early with their long-range accuracy. Duke raced to an 18-2 lead and never looked back, building a 28-point advantage at one point on the way to a 42-22 cushion at halftime. Freshman Aaron Thomas led Florida State with 14 points, while Devon Bookert, also a freshman, added nine.

with 15 points. Daniel Miller and Brandon Reed had 9 points each for Georgia Tech. Kiel Turpin and Boris Bojanovsky added 10 points apiece for the Seminoles, who raced to a 13-0 lead but couldn't put away the Yellow Jackets. In fact, Georgia Tech was ahead by halftime, and it was tight the rest of the way. In the end, it was another Florida State victory. The Seminoles have won eight straight in the series, their longest run of dominance against Georgia Tech.

Game 23 -- Wake Forest 71, Florida State 46

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - A balanced scoring attack led Wake Forest to a 71-46 victory over Florida State at the Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Travis McKie scored 15 points to lead all players. He was joined in double figures by C.J. Harris (14), Codi Miller-McIntyre (14) and Chase Fischer (10). The Demon Deacons outrebounced the Seminoles 45-25 and outscored the Seminoles 32-16 inside on the offensive end. Wake Forest led for the entire game, and used 12-2 run in the first half and a 14-0 run in the second half to seal the victory. Michael Snaer and Okaro White each had 13 points for Florida State. Kiel Turpin added eight points and tied with White for a team-high six rebounds.

Game 24 -- Miami 74, Florida State 68

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Shane Larkin scored 13 of his 22 points in the final eight minutes to help third-ranked Miami hold off Florida State 74-68 for its 12th straight victory of the season. Reggie Johnson added 15 points for Miami which became the first team to start the league season 11-0 in a dozen years. The 6-10, 290-pound Johnson came off the bench and spurred a 25-5 run midway through the first half to help the Hurricanes wipe out an early 13-2 deficit on their way to a 38-30 halftime advantage. Durand Scott had 13 points and Julian Gamble 10 for the Hurricanes. A 3-point play by Scott gave Miami a 51-39 lead with 13:05 left, but Florida State countered with a 12-0 run keyed by a pair of Terry Whisnant's 3's to tie the score on Okaro White's basket. They never could get the lead. The Hurricanes built their lead back to 68-56, largely behind Larkin. White led the Seminoles with 15 points before fouling out with 2:04 left. Freshman Devon Bookert added 12 points.

Game 25 -- Florida State 69 Boston College 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Michael Snaer scored 21 points and Okaro White added 13 as Florida State earned a 69-66 win over Boston College. The Eagles had a chance to tie at the buzzer, but Ryan Anderson's 3-point try bounced off the front rim. It was the first time that Snaer, who has three game-winning buzzer beaters in Atlantic Coast Conference play this year, scored 20 or more points against a league opponent. He made 8 of 10 shots and was perfect on four free throws. Snaer's two free throws with 2:05 left gave Florida State a 66-60 lead. Florida State led by as many as 12 points in the opening half on its way to a 31-26 lead at the break. Boston College rallied to take a brief 45-42 lead on Patrick Heckmann's 3, but the Seminoles, keyed by freshman Devon Bookert's floor play, went on a 12-2 run to move into a 54-47 lead with 8:06 left and never trailed again. Bookert, making just his second collegiate start, dished out three of his career-best eight assists in a span of just over two minutes during the run. Bookert was also turnover-free in 31 minutes on the court. Boston College was led by freshman Olivier Hanlan's 19 points. Heckmann and Anderson, who had a game-high 11 rebounds, each added 10 points for the Eagles. Both clubs shot well in close and from long distance. Florida State hit 51 percent overall (25 of 49) and made 7 of 13 from 3-point range, while Boston College finished at 44.4 percent (24 of 54) and was 9 of 16 from beyond the arc. Terry Whisnant's 3 with 6:11 left in the opening half gave Florida State a 24-12 lead, but Joe Rahon hit a 3 and followed with a jumper to cap a 9-0 BC run that pulled the Eagles to within 24-21.

half with a 14-3 run, taking a 42-29 lead on a 3-pointer by Robert Brown with 15:36 remaining -- their biggest lead of the game. The Seminoles cut the lead to 53-49 on a basket by Kiel Turpin with 7:06 remaining but got no closer. The Hokies made just two field goals in the final 6:18, but they sealed things at the free-throw line, hitting 17 of their final 18 attempts. Virginia Tech connected on 25 of 30 from the line for the game. Green, the nation's leading scorer at 25.2 points per game coming in, hit 8 of 17 from the floor and all nine of his free-throw attempts. He also dished out five assists. C.J. Barksdale added a career-high 17 points for the Hokies, hitting 4 of 6 from the floor and 9 of 11 from the free-throw line. He also grabbed nine rebounds. The Seminoles were led by Okaro White, who scored 18, and freshman guard Devon Bookert added 14.

Game 28 -- Florida State 76, Wake Forest 62

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Michael Snaer scored 19 of his game-high 24 points in the second half to lead Florida State to a 76-62 win over Wake Forest. Snaer scored 13 points during a 23-3 run midway through the second half that put the game out of reach for the visitors. Okaro White added 13 points and 7-3 freshman Boris Bojanovsky matched his career best with 10 points for the Seminoles, who avenged a 25-point loss to the Demon Deacons just 17 days earlier. C.J. Harris' lone field goal of the game, a 3-point basket with 15:56 left, pulled Wake Forest to within 44-43 before Snaer ignited the run that gave Florida State a 67-46 lead. Harris was coming off a 23-point effort in the Deacons' 80-65 upset of Miami on Sunday when he was perfect from 3-point distance on five tries. Snaer didn't miss in the second half, hitting all five field goal tries and eight free throws. The Seminoles led 40-34 at halftime. Travis McKee led Wake Forest with 15 points, but was limited to a single free throw in the second half. McKie, the lone Demon Deacon to finish in double figures, kept Wake Forest in the early-going with 14 first-half points.

White led the way with nine rebounds to pace Florida State's 44-21 dominance. Florida State shot 48.9 percent for the game (23 of 47) compared to a chilly 32.7 percent (18 of 55) by the Demon Deacons.

Game 29 -- North Carolina 79, Florida State 58

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- James Michael McAdoo scored 17 of his 21 points in the first half and sparked the run that gave North Carolina a big lead on the way to beating Florida State 79-58. Reggie Bullock added 20 points and 10 rebounds for the Tar Heels who won their fifth straight game. North Carolina shot 58 percent in the opening half to build a 19-point lead at the break, then never let it slip below double figures. Florida State got some good news with the return of Terrance Shannon. The forward had been out since January when he was carried off the court with a neck injury suffered against Virginia. Coach Leonard Hamilton had said last month that the 6-foot-8 redshirt junior could miss the rest of the year, but he returned at the 8:35 mark of the opening half after missing 11 straight games. He finished with three points in 3 minutes.

Game 30 -- Florida State 53, Virginia 51

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State's Michael Snaer did it again. Snaer's left-handed runner in heavy traffic with 4 seconds left Thursday lifted the Seminoles to a 53-51 win over Virginia after the Cavaliers had fought back from an 11-point deficit to take the lead in the game's final seconds. It was the fourth game-winning shot by Snaer in Atlantic Coast Conference play this season and his sixth over the past two years. Okaro White led the Seminoles with 17 points while Snaer finished with 14 and Kiel Turpin 11. Akil Mitchell led Virginia with 15 points and a game-high 12 rebounds, but missed a layup with 21 seconds left with the Cavaliers leading 51-50. Florida State's Devon Bookert grabbed the rebound and Florida State called a timeout with 12 seconds left to set up the latest round of Snaer heroics. Joe Harris, whose two free throws gave Virginia the lead with 1:28 left, threw up a desperation heave from 3-point distance as the final buzzer sounded after the Cavaliers had trouble bringing the ball upcourt. Harris finished with 13 points. Freshman Mike Tobey had 10 of his 12 points at the half for Virginia, which shot just 38.6 percent (22 of 57), but made all five of its free throws. Virginia, which has lost four of its last six games, trailed 47-36 before Justin Anderson's dunk ignited a 15-3 run with 6:01 remaining.

Game 32 -- Florida State 73, Clemson 69

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Michael Snaer hit four free throws in the final 22.4 seconds to help reigning champion Florida State hold off Clemson 73-69 in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament. Snaer finished with 10 points for the sixth-seeded Seminoles, who let a 14-point lead with 3 minutes left slip to a single bucket late. But Snaer's last two free throws with 6.9 seconds showing made it a two-possession game and helped FSU hang on. Okaro White scored a career-high 24 points for Florida State, while Terrance Shannon added 12 -- including six straight to spark a 14-3 second-half run that helped the Seminoles take control after trailing by 10 in the first half. Jordan Roper scored 18 to lead the 11th-seeded Tigers who lost their seventh straight to close their worst season in nine years. The Tigers fought back to within 69-66 on Roper's 3-pointer with 23.1 seconds left, but Snaer answered with two free throws to make it a two-possession game. Then Devin Booker hit another 3 to close the gap to 71-69 with 12.1 seconds left, only to see Snaer -- who had four buzzer-beating baskets this year for wins -- live up to his clutch reputation by calmly sinking two more foul shots.

Game 33 -- North Carolina 83, Florida State 62

GREENSBORO, N.C. - P.J. Hairston scored 21 points to help North Carolina beat Florida State 83-62 in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament quarterfinals. Hairston hit five 3-pointers before leaving late in the game with a cut on his left hand, while Reggie Bullock added 17 points for the third-seeded Tar Heels (23-9). They took control with a 13-0 run early in the second half, hit 10 3s and also scored 27 points off 18 turnovers to beat the reigning champion Seminoles in a rematch of last season's championship game. Michael Snaer scored 20 for sixth-seeded Florida State. Hairston hit his first four 3-pointers and finished 7-for-11 from the field, including 5-for-6 from behind the arc. After FSU closed to within 39-35, Hairston started the run with a 3, while Bullock followed two possessions later with his own 3 and also had a driving layup while drawing a foul for a three-point play, then Hairston closed the run with two free throws to make it 52-35 with 14:15 left. Bullock went 7-for-11 and scored 13 of his points after halftime. James Michael McAdoo added 12 points for North Carolina despite foul trouble, while Dexter Strickland added 10.

Game 34 -- Louisiana Tech 71, Florida State 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The Florida State men's basketball team's 2012-13 season came to an end with a 71-66 loss to Louisiana Tech in the first round of the National Invitational Tournament. Playing in what turned out to be the final game of his unforgettable Florida State career, Michael Snaer scored a team-high 24 points for Seminoles. But Snaer's offensive heroics -- the California native made five of his 10 3-point attempts while playing 40 minutes -- weren't enough to overcome the Seminoles' inability to protect the basketball and halt the Bulldogs in the second half. Florida State committed 18 turnovers on its home floor and Louisiana Tech scored 26 points off those miscues. The Bulldogs also used an 11-0 run early in the second half to bounce back from a 28-24 halftime deficit and shot 65.5 percent in the final 20 minutes. Junior forward Okaro White added 11 points and tied with Terrance Shannon with a team-high six rebounds for FSU. Freshman Montay Brandon scored 10 points and junior Kiel Turpin posted eight for a 'Noles team that shot 46 percent from the field and 42.9 percent from 3-point distance. For the Bulldogs, Raheem Appleby's 27 points led the way for the No. 4 seeded team with 21 of them coming in the second half. Alex Hamilton contributed 16 of his own. Louisiana Tech finished the game 27-of-60 from the field and had 36 rebounds to FSU's 29.
