As the No. 1 starter over his three-year playing career at Florida State, Sean Gilmartin was a two-time All-American earning the distinction in 2009 and 2011. Selected with the 28th overall pick by the Atlanta Braves in the 2011 MLB Draft, Gilmartin finished the 2011 season with a 12-2 record and a 2.09 ERA. He recorded 130 strikeouts while issuing just 21 walks over 120.1 innings of work en route to earning first team All-America honors from Baseball America, NCBWA and Collegiate Baseball. Gilmartin added second team All-America honors from the ABCA to an already impressive resume that same year. He became the Seminoles' Friday night start just three weeks into his freshman season and never relinquished that role until leaving after his junior year to pursue a playing career in Major League Baseball. The southpaw became just the second Seminoles since 2000 to be named an All-American as a freshman, joining Stephen Drew in 2002. Gilmartin went on to garner Freshman Pitcher of the Year accolades from the NCBWA in 2009. The Moorpark, Calif., native left Florida State ranked in the top 10 in career starts (50), innings pitched (330.0), strikeouts (321) and wins (33).
