Quoting Head Coach Trey Jones

"With three new players in the line-up for most of the year accompanied with two new assistant coaches, it was definitely a year of transition in many ways.

"Drew Kittleson was very good leader for us this spring and will be missed. When you lose a player who had the ability to win any tournament there is a large hole to fill in the line-up.

"This program is built on the premise of the rising seniors replacing the seniors that departed and the incoming freshmen replacing last year's freshmen. This year we relied entirely too much on our freshmen while our upperclassmen were not playing as expected.

"I am excited about our team as we begin to look at 2011-12. The younger players that we relied on so heavily this past year will be a year better and a year hungrier. Brooks Koepka, Wesley Graham and Kyle Cobb will be our leaders -- I am really looking forward to all three players playing well this summer and returning ready to play the best golf of their careers.

"As it always is, our goal at Florida State is to win a national championship and we should put ourselves in position to compete on the national level"
