

PRESERVING SARATOGA'S HISTORY FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

The Saratoga History Museum contains many treasures from the city of Saratoga's rich and storied past. Included are the 1860's McWilliams House, the one-room schoolhouse that served to educate the early settlers of the area, and soon, a blacksmith exhibit that will showcase the culture and tools of the artisan trade.

Open to the public year round, the McWilliams House and blacksmith exhibit will preserve the spirit of Pioneer living during the late 1800's when Saratoga was first settled. During 2013, over 1,000 children went through the educational program created by the Saratoga History Museum.

We hope our help in underwriting the new blacksmith exhibit will help sustain the history of Saratoga, its roots, and our shared future.

Visit SaratogaHistory.com to find out about their programs, exhibits, and how you too can help bring history home.

DURING THE MONTHS OF APRIL THROUGH JUNE 2014,
