GOOD.™

Friends of Children with Special Needs (FCSN) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that was founded in 1996 to meet the growing needs of the special needs community. FCSN currently has over 1000 multi-ethnic families in its membership. FCSN provides family support and holistic programs of health, physical fitness, vocational, academics, social and life skills training to children and adults with developmental disabilities. Recently, FCSN established their South Bay Center in San Jose and opened a cafe for work training. FCSN have received numerous awards for community service and innovation from California State Developmental Disability Council, Alameda and Santa Clara Counties, and California State Assembly and Senate.
