

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Beyond Brown and Green Policies in North America	1
	Gustavo Sosa-Nunez
2	Imperiled Majesty: North American Oceans and Coasts	13
	Peter J. Stoett
 Part I International Background and Context
3	Saltwater Geopolitics in North America	35
	Ed Atkins
4	The Law of the Sea and Other Instruments of International Law as a Framework for Environmental Conservation in North American Waters	57
	Howard S. Schiffman
5	The Commission for Environmental Cooperation: Working on Oceans and Mangroves	77
	Miriam Alfie Cohen

Part II Environmental Background

- 6 Consequences of Climate Change on the Oceans 95
Bertha E. Lavaniegos
- 7 Fisheries: Interaction with—or Exploitation of—Nature? 111
Luis Eduardo Calderon-Aguilera

Part III Considerations for a Complementary International Environmental Agenda in North America

- 8 Wetlands Protection: The Forgotten Agenda 131
Ryan W. Taylor
- 9 Another Form of Collaboration? Discovering the Deep Blue 171
John Hannigan
- 10 The “Blue” Perspective of the Sustainable Development
Goals in North America 193
Gustavo Sosa-Nunez
- 11 Conclusion: Standing Still in Terms of Cooperation
While Revisiting Opportunities 215
Gustavo Sosa-Nunez
- Index 223

Widening the Scope of Environmental Policies in North America

Towards Blue Approaches

Sosa-Nunez, G. (Ed.)

2018, XVII, 227 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-56235-3