“What exciting news to learn 40 of your wonderful and dedicated employees will be receiving scholarships to further their education! What a gift the residents of Sandhill Cove have provided. And, we are thrilled to know 23 of the 40 scholarship recipients will be attending or returning to IRSC this fall.”

- Ann L. Decker, Executive Director of IRSC Foundation

“What a wonderful testament to the generosity of the residents of Sandhill Cove; providing 40 scholarships to your employees and children of employees to continue their education. I understand that more than half of them will attend IRSC and remain local. What a win-win for our Community.”

- Joe Catrambone, President of Stuart/Martin County Chamber of Commerce

“The Palm City Chamber of Commerce is totally excited to hear that the residents of Sandhill Cove give back to our local youth! These wonderful scholarships will further the education of these fine local students and help out the families as they provide support to their children.”

- Ronnie Kirchman, President of Palm City Chamber of Commerce
