

William & Nyla JOHNSON Obituary

Published by Spokesman-Review on May 15, 2024.

William David Johnson and Nyla Lucille Johnson entered into rest on April 27th, 2024. They were married 62 years. Survived by son, William and wife, Konnie, their children, Alex and Aurora; and son, Timothy and his children, Nehum and Olivia; along with many nieces and nephews.

The Johnson's were avid trapshooters for most of their lives, both earning All-American honors. They won the husband and wife at the Grand American Championships, along with too many state and regional trophies to list.

Bill and Nyla were known to many in the Spokane community as well, having operated the Chevron station at Shadle Center since 1971.

Celebration of life will be held May 25th, 2024, at 1:00pm, at Earl D. Mix Park, 301 W. 4th, Deer Park, WA. To view and sign Bill & Nyla's online guestbook please visit www.lauerfuneral.com.
