John Curran, ARIN President & CEO

The RIR System

Background

ARIN does not normally comment on disputes or related litigation occurring at another RIR

Provide insight into the nature of the dispute, to highlight some aspects of the ongoing litigation

Timeline of Legal Developments

2020

AFRINIC completed a Registry Audit

A determination that resources were not being utilized for the purposes for which they were issued and would be revoked (after a suitable time to allow customer migration of those resources)

More information was required from Cloud Innovation

Mr. Lu and his businesses disputed AFRINIC's authority to enforce this provision of its customer agreement

Timeline of Legal Developments

Mr. Lu engaged in several legal actions in the courts in Mauritius to prevent having to return the address blocks to AFRINIC

One motion currently freezes AFRINIC's accounts and thus has the potential to hamper AFRINIC's operations

After approx. 2.5 months, AFRINIC successfully has freezing order removed

Injunction entered in Court preventing AFRINIC from holding its annual elections

Filing by registered member of AFRINIC seeking the appointment of Directors to the Board to constitute quorum (list of proposed candidates was provided by African Telecommunications Union)

No Quorum

Seeking court relief to appoint directors to reach Quorum

Injunction Prevents Elections

Governance, Elections, and Board Lawsuits

Current public relations campaign against AFRINIC by the Number Resource Society (NRS)

The NRS is in no way affiliated or connected with the NRO

Governance, Elections, and Board Lawsuits

Public relations campaign by the NRS against

- AFRINIC's CEO
- Other individuals that have expressed support for AFRINIC

It is of utmost importance to ensure fair, transparent, and trustworthy elections in AFRINIC

The background of the slide features a light blue and white network diagram with nodes and connecting lines, suggesting a digital or interconnected theme.

12 July 2022

NRO Letter to Mauritius Government

“For the last 12 months, AFRINIC has been inappropriately disrupted in its ability to perform its critical functions. Over 25 lawsuits have been filed against it by an entity known as Cloud Innovation Ltd, with registered address in Seychelles, and which is owned and controlled by a Mr. Lu Heng, a resident of Hong Kong.”
