NANOG44

October 12-14, 2008
Welcome to Los Angeles

This Meeting Co-hosted by

- Centergate Research
- Los Nettos Regional Network, which is comprised of member networks
  - California Institute of Technology
  - The Claremont Colleges
  - Jet Propulsion Laboratory
  - Loyola Marymount University
  - University of Southern California

Thanks to

- Centergate (Rodney, you rock!)
- Interworld Communications
- Cogentco
- Los Nettos member representatives
- Los Nettos Engineering
- USC Information Technology Services
- USC Viterbi School of Engineering

Why Los Angeles?

- Los Nettos was co-founded by Jon Postel back in 1988, 20 years ago. We wanted to celebrate Jon and his many contributions to the networking community by hosting the joint NANOG/ARIN meetings.

The Shirt

"Be conservative in what you send and liberal in what you receive."
— Jon Postel, Aug 6, 1943 - Oct 16, 1998

NANOG44
Los Angeles, CA : October 12-15, 2008

Hosted by:
USC/Los Nettos and CenterGate Research Group

Downtown

USC Geography Downtown Walking Tour

Downtown restaurant suggestions

The Dash and Metro

The setup

Internet Exchanges

One Wilshire

USC Campus

10GigE

SM Fiber

LN 6506

GigE

MM Fiber

Cogent

Switch

GigE

MM Fiber

Biltmore

7301

NTT

SM Fiber

10GigE

Another Downtown Bldg

SM Fiber

10GigE

Caltech Campus

Multiple GigE's

CENIC

Other ISPs

Internet 2

7

Hosting NANOG

- You can host NANOG as well
- Your baseball team may make the playoffs
  - It worked for St Louis and Los Angeles…
- Get some local people to help out
- Check out NANOG Sponsorship page