

Aughnacloy Primary

Ethos statement

At Aughnacloy Primary School we encourage all members of our school community to aspire to be the very best that they can be. We promote happiness, confidence and respectfulness and encourage and support each other, embracing involvement and change and we are all lifelong learners and valuable contributors to our community.

Vision Statement

We at Aughnacloy Primary School will strive to encourage everyone to be the best version of themselves, to be learners for life, to enjoy learning and be willing to take a risk. Pupils at Aughnacloy Primary School will develop respect for themselves, others and their environment and demonstrate the key qualities/values of fairness, honesty respect, integrity and have empathy for others both in school and in the wider community. We will always strive to be the best that we can be.

Mission Statement

We at Aughnacloy Primary School aim to support each child: -

- ✓ To develop respect for themselves, others, and their environment through the teaching of a broad, balanced curriculum, which is differentiated, accessible and engages all learners.
- ✓ To celebrate their own unique identity and the core values of honesty and respect through all aspects of school life, both inside the classroom and in the outdoor environment
- ✓ To foster a life-long love of learning for the whole school community
- ✓ To understand that each of us has a role to play in becoming good global citizens of the future
- ✓ By engaging with parents, governors and the wider community to make decisions and provide the best opportunities to enable all children to fulfil their potential.
