

Safeguarding
in a
Digital World Policy
(E- Safety & Internet Acceptable Use)
Holy Rosary Primary School
Feb 2018.

As a Rights Respecting School, our pathway to a successful future is grounded in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC).

ARTICLE 3: The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

ARTICLE 16: Every child has the right to privacy. The law should protect the child's private, family and home life.

Holy Rosary P.S.

Mobile phones.

These phones have the potential to be used inappropriately e.g. cyber bullying, sexting, indecent photographs etc.

In Holy Rosary P.S. our policy attempts to address use of mobile phones and safeguard our pupils.

- Restrictions on use
 - Mobile phones and Smart Watches must be handed into the main office at the beginning of the school day.
 - Returned to pupil at the end of the school day
 - Sanctions in place (parent must come to school to collect mobile phone)

- Use of mobile phones outside of school hours
 - Teachers' role - educate pupils in correct use of mobiles and consequences of their misuse (in particular during Anti Bullying Week)
 - Educate parents in monitoring their child's use of mobiles
 - Close liaison with external agencies e.g. PSNI, N.S.P.C.C. REIM etc.

Acceptable Use Policy for Internet Use

ICT is integrated in to the primary school curriculum and is used to support all subject areas. The Internet provides a valuable source of information and many sites are targeted to supplement the programmes of study in the Northern Ireland Curriculum. Pupils will be given opportunities to use the Internet as part of their learning.

Each classroom is now resourced with new computers including mobile technology (iPads), access to the school network and the Internet. Usually, the resources used by the pupils in school are carefully chosen by the teacher and determined by the curriculum policies. Use of the Internet, by its nature, will provide access to information which has not been selected by the teacher. Whilst pupils will often be directed to sites which provide reviewed and evaluated sources, at times they will be able to move beyond these, to sites unfamiliar to the teacher.

The school believes that the benefits to pupils from access to the Internet far exceed the disadvantages. Ultimately, the responsibility for setting and conveying the standards that children are expected to follow, when using media and information sources, is one the school shares with parents and guardians.

In Holy Rosary P.S., we feel that the best recipe for success lies in a combination of site filtering, of supervision and by fostering a responsible attitude in our pupils in partnership with parents.

Parents will be sent an explanatory letter and the rules, which form our Internet Access Agreement.

Pupils are responsible for good behaviour on the Internet just as they are in the classroom or a school corridor. General school rules apply.

Individual users of the Internet are responsible for their behaviour and communications over the network. It is presumed that users will comply with school standards and will honour the agreements they have signed.

Computer storage areas, files and communications may be reviewed by teachers to ensure pupils are using the system responsibly. Pupils should not expect that files stored on servers or discs would always be private.

Curriculum Use

Staff are encouraged to use Internet resources in their teaching and learning activities, to conduct research and for contact with others in the Educational world.

The school intends to teach pupils about the vast information resources available on the Internet, using it as a planned part of many lessons. Use of the Internet is also seen as a means to improve Literacy skills, particularly being able to read and appraise critically and then communicate what is important to others.

Initially, the pupils may be restricted to sites, which have been reviewed and selected for content. They may be given tasks to perform using a specific group of websites which they may be able to access from a common favourite's folder. As pupils gain experience, they will be taught how to search using techniques to locate specific information for themselves and comparisons will be made between the various sources of information available to them. (CD ROM, books, WWW)

We hope that pupils will learn to decide when it is appropriate to use the Internet, as opposed to other sources of information, in terms of time taken: the amount of information found and the usefulness and reliability of information located.

At times information such as text, photos etc may be downloaded from the Internet on the C2K network system and on sites chosen by the teacher on ipads for use in Pupils' presentations. Tasks will be set to encourage pupils to view web sites and information with a critical eye.
